27 I am not sent of the Lord God against thee, for my warre is vpon Euphrates, and nowe the Lord is with me, yea, the Lord maketh diligent ‖ speede with mee: depart from me, and be not against the Lord.

‖ Or, haste

28 Howbeit Iosias would not turne back his chariot frō him, but vndertooke to fight with him, and hearkened not to the wordes of the Prophet Jeremie spokē by the mouth of the Lord:

29 But pitched a battaile against him in the fielde of ‖ Mageddo: and the princes preased to king Iosias.

‖ Or, Megiddo.

30 Then said the king vnto his seruants, Cary me away out of the battaile, for I am very weake. And immediatly his seruantes tooke him away out of the front of the battaile.

31 Then gate he vp vpon his second charet, came to Hierusalem, died, and was buried in his fathers sepulchre.

32 And in all Iury they mourned for Iosias, yea, Jeremie the Prophet lamented for Iosias, and the rulers also with their wiues made lamentation for him vnto this day, and it became a custome to bee done continually in all the kinred of Israel.

33 These things are written in the booke of the stories of the kings of Iuda: and all the acts of Iosias, and his glory, and vnderstanding in the lawe of the Lord, and the things which he had done before, and that was nowe recited, are written in the booke of the kings of Israel and Iuda.

34 And the people tooke Jechonias the sonne of Iosias, and made him king in stead of Iosias his father, when he was twentie and three yeeres olde.

35 And he reigned in Iuda and in Hierusalem three moneths: & then the king of Egypt put him downe from reigning in Hierusalem:

36 And raised vp a taxe of ỹ people, namely an hundred talentes of siluer, and one talent of golde.

a This place is corrupt. & thus it seemeth to be As for Joacim and his rulers he bound, and hauing taken his brother Zaracen, led them away into Egypt.

37 The king of Egypt also made Joacim his brother king of Iuda and Hierusalem.

38 * And thus he ‖ bound Joacim and his gouernours: but Zaracen his brother he apprehended, and led away with him into Egypt.

‖ Or, established.

39 Fiue and twenty yeeres olde was Joacim when he was made king in the land of Iuda and Hierusalem, and he did euil before the Lord.

40 Wherefore against him Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon came vp, & bound him with bandes of yron, and caryed him vnto Babylon.

41 Nabuchodonosor also tooke of the holy vessels of the Lord, caried them away, and set them in his owne temple at Babylon.

42 But al his acts, and his prophanation and reproche, are written in the Chronicles of the kings.

43 And Joachin his sonne reigned in his steade. Hee was made king being eighteene yeeres olde, 44 And reigned but three monethes and ten dayes in Hierusalem, and did euill before the Lord.

45 So after a yere Nabuchodonosor sent, and caused him to be brought vnto Babylon with the holy vessels of the Lord, 46 And made Zedechias king of Iuda and Hierusalem when he was twentie and one yeeres olde, and he reigned eleuen yeeres.

47 * And he did euil also in the sight of the Lord, and cared not for the wordes that were spoken vnto him by the Prophet Jeremie from the mouth of the Lord.

Iere. 38, 21.

48 And where he had made an othe vnto king Nobuchodonosor, he forswore himselfe by the name of the Lorde, and hardened his necke and heart, and trangressed the lawes of the Lord God of Israel.

49 The gouernours also of the people and priestes did many things against the lawes, and passed all the pollutions of all nations, and defiled the Temple of the Lorde which was sanctified in Hierusalem.

50 Wherefore the God of their fathers sent b his messenger to cal them backe, because he spared them and his tabernacle also.

b speaking Jeremie.

51 But they had his messengers in derision: and looke when the Lorde spake vnto them, they made a spoyt of his Prophets.

52 This drew on so long til the Lord was wroth with his people for their great vngodlines, so that he caused the kings of the Chaldees to come vp against them:

53 Which slewe their yong men with the sword, yea, ‖ euen in the compasse of their holy temple, and spared no body, neither yong man nor maiden, old man nor childe among them.

‖ Or, rounde about their.

54 But they were all deliuered into their handes, and all the holy vessels of the Lorde both great and small, with the vessels of the arke of God: and they tooke and caried away the kings treasure into Babylon.

55 As for the house of the Lord, they went vp into it, & burnt it, brake downe the walles of Hierusalem, set fire vpon her towres,

56 Destroyed all her ‖ noble buildings, and brought them to nought, and the people that were not slayne with the sworde, hee caried vnto Babylon:

57 which

57 which became seruantes to him and his children, till the Persians reigned, to fulfill the word of the Lord spoken by the mouth of Jeremias:

58 Till the land had fully ‖ taken her ease from them, which tooke that ease al the time she lacked her inhabitantes, to the ende and terme of seuentie yeeree.

‖ Or, kept her Sabbaths.

The ii. Chapter.

1 Cyrus gaue leaue to the Iewes to returne. 13 The names of them that returned. 16 Their aduersaries did let their building: 17 & the kings letters for the same.

NOw when king Cyrus reigned ouer the Persians in his first yeere, when the Lorde woulde performe the word that hee had promised by the mouth of the Prophet Jeremie,

2 The Lord raised vp the spirit of Cyrus the king of the Persians, so that hee caused this writing to bee proclaymed throughout his whole Realme,

3 Saying, Thus sayth Cyrus king of the Persians, The Lorde of Israel, that high Lorde, hath made mee king of the whole world:

4 And commanded mee to builde him an house at Hierusalem in Jurie.

5 If there be any nowe of you that are of his people, let the Lord, euen his Lorde, bee with him, and let him goe vp to Hierusalem that is in Judea, and builde the house of the Lord of Israel, that is, the Lorde that dwelleth in Jerusalem.

6 And all they that dwell rounde about that place shal helpe him, all that dwel in his place I say, whether it be with golde, with siluer,

7 with giftes, with horses, and necessarie cattel, and all other things that are brought with a free will to the ‖ house of the Lorde at Hierusalem.

‖ Or, temple

8 Then the principall men out of the tribes and villages of Juda and Beniamin stoode vp: so did the Priestes also and the Leuites, and all they whose minde the Lorde had moued to goe vp, and to builde the house of the Lord at Hierusalem.

9 And they that dwelt about them, helped them in all things, with siluer and gold, horses, and cattell, and with ‖ many free gifts of many men, whose mindes were stirred vp thereto.

‖ Or, sundry townes of sundry men

10 King Cyrus also brought forth the vessels and ornamentes that were halowed vnto the Lord, which Nabuchodonosor had caried away from Hierusalem, and consecrated them to his idole and image.

11 And hauing brought them forth, he deliuered them to Mithridates his treasurer.

12 And by him they were deliuered to Asallar the deputie in Jurie.

14 And this was the number of them: a thousand golden cuppes, and a thousande of siluer, basons of siluer twentie and nine for the sacrifices, basalles of golde thirtie, and of siluer two thousand, foure hundred and ten and a thousand other vessels.

14 So all the vessels of gold & siluer which were carted away, were fiue thousand, foure hundred, three score and nine.

15 These were brought by Salmanasar, with them of the captiuitie, from Babylon to Hierusalem.

16 But in the time of Artaxerres king of the Persians, Belemus and Mithridates, and Tabelius, and Rathumus, and Beeltethmus, and Semellius the secretary with other that were ioyned to them, dwelling in Samaria and other places, wrote vnto him against them that dwelt in Judea and Hierusalem, these letters following: To the king Artaxerxes our Lord.

17 Thy seruantes, Rathumus the storie writer, and Semellius the Secretary, and the rest of their counsell, and the iudges that are in Coelosyria and Phenice:

18 Be it nowe known vnto our lord the king, that the Jewes which are come vp from you vnto vs, into the rebellious & wicked citie, begin to builde the market places, and to make vp the walles about it, and to set vp the temple anewe.

19 Now if this citie, and the walles therof be set vp againe, they shall not onely refuse to giue tributes and taxes, but also rebell vterly against kings.

20 And forso much as they take this in hande now about the temple, we thought it reason to thinke no scorne of it:

21 But to shew it vnto the lord the king, to the intent that if it please the king, hee may cause it to bee sought in the bookes of olde,

22 And thou shalt finde in records hereof written, and shalt vnderstand that this citie hath alway bene rebellious and disobedient, that it hath troubled kings and cities,

23 And that the Jewes were rebellious, and raysed alwayes warres therein: for the which cause this citie is walled.

24 Wherefore nowe we certifie our lorde the king, that if this citie be builded and occupied againe, and the walles thereof set vp anewe, thou canst haue no passage into Coelosyria and Phenice.

25 Then wrote the king to Rathumus the ‖ storie writer, to Beeltethmus, to Semellius the Scribe, and to the other officers and dwellers in Samaria, and Syria, and Phenice, after this maner.

‖ Or, register

26 I haue read the Epistle which ye sent vnto mee: therefore I commanded to make diligent search, and haue found that this citie hath euer resisted kings, 27 That the same people are disobedient, and haue caused much warre, & that mighty kings haue reygned in Hierusalem, which also haue raysed vp tares of Coelosyria and Phenice.

28 Wherefore I haue commaunded to forbid forbid those men that they shall not build vp the citie, and heede to be taken that there be no more done in it:

29 And that they proceede no further in those wicked workes, for so much as it might be occasion of trouble vnto Princes.

30 Now when Rathumus & Semellius the Scribe had read the writing of king Artaxerres, they gate them together, and came in all ỹ haste to Hierusalem, with an hoste of horsemen, and with much people on foote, 31 And forbade them to buylde: and so they left off from building of the temple, vnto the second yeere of king Darius, king of the Persians.

The iii. Chapter.

1 The feast of Darius. 16 The three wise sentences.

KIng Darius made a great feast vnto his ‖ seruantes, vnto all his court, and to all the officers of Media and Persia,

‖ Or, subiects.

2 Yea, to al the gouernours and captaines, and Lieutenantes that were vnder him, from India vnto Ethiopia, an hundred and twentie and seuen ‖ countreys.

3 So when they had eaten and dronken, being satisfied, and were gone home againe, Darius the King went into his chamber, layde him downe to sleepe, and after that awaked.

4 Then the three yong men that ‖ kept the kings person, and watched his bodie, communed among themselues, and spake one to another,

‖ Or, were of the garde.

5 Let euery one of vs speake a sentence, and looke who shall ouercome, and whose sentence may seeme wiser then the others, vnto him shal king Darius giue great gifts, and great things in token of victorie:

6 As to weare purple, to drinke in golde, and to sleepe in golde, and a chariot with bridels of gold, and an ‖ head tyre of fine linnen, and a chaine about his necke:

‖ Or, a silken bonnet.

7 Yea, he shal sit next to Darius, because of his wisedome, and shall bee called Darius cousin.

8 So euery one wrote his ‖ meaning, sealed it, and layde it vnder king Darius pillowe, ‖ Or, sentence.

9 And sayd, when the king ariseth, they woulde giue him the writings, and looke whose worde the king and the three princes of Persia shall iudge to bee the most wisely spoken, the same shall haue the victorie as it was appointed.

10 One wrote, Wine is a strong thing.

11 The second wrote, The king is strong.

12 The thirde wrote, Women haue very much strength, but aboue all things, the trueth beareth away the victorie.

13 Nowe when the king was risen vp, the tooke their writings, and deliuered them vnto him, and so he read them.

14 Then sent he forth to cal all his chiefe lords of Persia and of Media, & the rulers, and the captaines, and Lieutenantes, and consuls:

15 And when hee had set him downe in the counsell, the writings were read before them.

16 And he commanded to cal for the yong men, that they might declare their ‖ meanings themselues by mouth. So they were sent for, and came in.

‖ Or, sentences.

17 And then he sayde vnto them, Shewe vs, and make vs to vnderstande what the things are that ye haue written. Then began the first, which had spoke of the strength of wine, 18 And sayd thus, O ye men, how strong is wine, that deceyueth all men which drinke it?

19 It maketh the kings minde and the fatherlesse to be both one, the bondmans, and the free, the poore mans, and the rich.

20 It turneth also euery thought into ioy and gladnesse, so that a man remembreth neither heauinesse nor debt.

21 And it maketh euery heart thinke it selfe rich, so that a man remembreth neyther king nor gouernour, and it maketh to speake all things by talents.

22 Moreouer, when men haue dronke, they forget al friendship & brotherly faithfulnesse, & a litle after they draw out swordes:

23 And afterwards when they are from the wine, they remember nothing what was done.

24 O yee men, is not wine the strongest, that thus enforceth men to do? And when he had spoken this, he held his peace.

The iiii. Chapter.

1 Of the strength of a king. 13 Of the strength of women. 34 Of the strength of trueth, which sentence is approued, 47 and his petition granted.

THen the second that had spoken of the strength of the king, began to say,

2 O yee men, are not men strongest of all, that conquere both by lande and sea, and all the kings that are in them?

3 Now is the king stronger, as lord of all these things, and that hath the dominion ouer them: and looke what he commandeth them, it is all done.

4 If he bid them the one against the other to make warre, they do it: if he send them out against the enemies, they goe, and breake downe mountaines, walles, and towres.

5 They slay and are slaine, and ouerpasse not the kings commandement: if they get the victorie, they bring all to the king, so wel the spoyle as other things.

6 Like wise ỹ other that meddle not with warres and fighting, but till the grounde: when they haue sowen & reaped, they bring to the king, and compell one another to pay his tribute vnto the king.

7 And if the king, though hee bee but one man, man, commaund to kill, they kill, if he commaund to ‖ forgiue, they forgiue:

‖ or, to spare, they spare.

8 If he commaund to smite, they smite, if he bidde ‖ driue away, they driue away, if hee commaund to build, they build:

‖ Or, make waste, they make waste

9 If he commaund to breake downe, they breake downe, if hee commaund to plant, they plant.

‖ Or, so all his people & all his armies obey vnto one.

10 ‖ So the common people and the rulers are obedient vnto him, and the king in the meane season sitteth him downe, eateth and drinketh, and taketh his rest.

11 And these keepe him round about, and not one of them dare get him out of the way to do his owne busines, ‖ but must be obedient vnto the king at a worde.

‖ Or, neither disobey they him in any thing.

12 Iudge ye now, O ye men, how should not the king goe farre aboue, when in such sort hee is obeyed? And when hee had spoken thus, he helde his tongue.

13 The third, whose name was Zorobabel, which had spoken of women, & of trueth, began to say after this maner.

14 O ye men, it is not the great king, it is not the multitude of men, neither is it wine that excelleth. who is it then that ruleth them, or hath the Lordshippe ouer them? is it not women?

15 Women haue borne the king, & all the people which beare rule by sea and by land.

16 And euen of them were they borne, & they brought those vp that planted the vines, whereof the wine commeth.

17 They make garments for men, they get honour vnto men, and without women can not men continue.

18 Yea, if they haue gathered together gold and siluer, or any other precious thing, doe they not loue a woman for her comely shape and beautie?

19 And letting all those things go, do they not gape, and euen with open mouth fire their eyes fast on her? and haue not all men more desire vnto her, then vnto siluer & gold, or any maner of precious thing?

20 A man leaueth his owne father that brought him vp, leaueth his owne naturall countrey, and cleaueth vnto his wife.

21 Yea, hee ‖ ieopardeth his life with his wife, and remembreth neither father nor mother, nor countrey.

22 By this also ye must needs know, that women haue dominion ouer you: doe ye not labour and trauaile, and giue and bring all to the woman?

23 A man taketh his sword, and goeth his way to steale, to kill, to murther, to saile vpon the sea, and vpon riuers, 24 And seeth a Lion, and goeth in ỹ darknesse, and when hee hath stollen, ‖ deceiued, and robbed, he bringeth it vnto his loue.

‖ Or, spoiled.

25 Wherefore a man loueth his wife better then father and mother:

26 Yea, many there be that runne out of their wittes, and become bondmen for their ‖ wiues sake.

‖ Or, for womens sake.

27 Many one also haue perished, haue erred, and sinned also for women.

28 And now doe ye not beleeue me? is not the king great in his power? doe not all regions feare to touch him?

29 Yet did I see him, & Apame the daughter of the great King Bartacus the Kings concubine sate beside the king vpon the right hand.

30 And tooke off his crowne from his head, and set it vpon her owne head, & stroke the king with her left hand,

31 And there while steadily ỹ king looked vpon her with open mouth: if shee laughed vpon him, he laughed also: but if she tooke any displeasure with him, the king was faine to flatter her and to giue her good wordes, till he had gotten her fauour againe.

32 O ye men, are not women then stronger, that doe these things?

33 Then the king and the princes looked one vpon another: so he beganne to speake of the trueth.

34 O yee men, are not women stronger? Great is the earth, high is the heauen, swift is the course of the sunne, hee compasseth the heauens round about, & fetcheth his course againe to his owne place in one day.

35 Is he not excellent that maketh these things? therefore great is the trueth, and stronger then all things.

36 All the earth calleth vpon trueth, the heauen prayseth it, all workes shake and tremble at it, and with it is no vnrighteous thing.

37 Wine is wicked, the king is wicked, women are wicked, all the children of men are wicked, yea, and such are all their wicked workes, and there is no trueth in them, in their vnrighteousnesse also shall they bee destroyed and perish:

38 As for the trueth it endureth, and is alway strong, it liueth, and conquereth for euermore world without end.

39 With her there is no exception or difference of persons, but shee doeth that iust is, and refraineth from all vniust and wicked things, and all men doe well like of her workes.

40 In the iudgement of it there is no vnrighteous thing, & she is the strength, kingdome, power, and maiestie of all ages. Blessed be the God of trueth.

41 And with that he helde his peace: and all the people cried, and then sayde, Great is trueth, and aboue all.

42 Then sayde the king vnto him, Aske what thou wilt, more then is appointed in the writing, and we shal giue it thee, for thou art found wiser then thy companions, thou shalt sit next me, & shalt be called my kinsman,

43 Then said he vnto the king, Remember thy promise and vowe which thou hast vowed and promised in the day when thou camest to the kingdome, to builde vp Hierusalem:

44 And to send againe all the vessels and iewels that were taken away out of Hierusalem, which Cyrus set apart when he vowed to destroy Babylon, and to send them againe thither.

45 And thy mind was also to build vp the temple, which the Edomites burnt, when Iuda was destroyed by the Chaldees.

46 And now this only O king is the thing that I require and desire of thee, this is the princely liberalitie that I aske of thee, I desire therefore, that thou performe the vowe, which thou with thine owne mouth hast made vnto the king of heauen.

47 Then Darius the king stoode vp, and kissed him, wrote him letters vnto all the deputies and lieutenants, to all the lords and nobles, that they should conuey him foorth, and all them that went vp with him, to build Hierusalem.

48 He wrote letters also vnto all the lieutenants that were in Coelosyria & Phenice, and vnto them in Libanus, that they should bring Cedar trees from Libanus vnto Hierusalem, and build the citie with him.

49 Moreouer, he wrote for all the Iewes that were gone out of his ‖realme into Jury concerning their freedome, that no officer, no ruler, no lieutenant, nor steward, should enter into their doores:

‖Or, kingdome.

50 And that all their lande which they kept, should be free, and not tributarie: and that the Edomites should giue ouer the cities and villages of the Iewes which they had taken in:

51 Yea, & that there should be yeerely giuen twentie talents to the building of the temple, vntill the time that it were finished:

52 And to maintaine the whole burnt offerings vpon the altar euery day (as they had a commandement to offer seuenteene) other ten talents euery yeere.

53 And that all they which came from Babylon to build the citie, should haue free libertie, they and their children, and all the priests that went away.

54 Hee wrote also concerning the charges, and the priestes garment wherein they minister, 55 And likewise for the charges of the Leuites, to be giuen them, vntil the day that the house were finished, & Hierusalem builded vp.

56 And he commanded, that all they that watched the citie, should haue their pensions and wages.

57 Hee sent away also all the vessels that Cyrus had separated from Babylon: and all that Cyrus had giuen in commaundement, the same charged hee also that it shoulde bee done, and sent vnto Hierusalem.

58 Now when this yong man was gone foorth, hee lifted vp his face to heauen toward Hierusalem, and prayed the king of heauen, 59 And said, Of thee commeth victorie, of thee commeth wisedome, and thine is the glory, and I am thy seruant.

60 Blessed art thou which hast giuen me wisedome, for to thee I acknowledge it, O Lord thou God of our fathers.

61 And so hee tooke the letters, and went out, and came vnto Babylon, and tolde it all his brethren.

62 And they prayed the God of their fathers, that he had giuen them freedome and libertie, 63 To goe vp, and to builde Hierusalem and ỳ temple, ‖wherein the name of the Lord is called vpon: and they reioyced with instruments of musicke and gladnesse seuen dayes long.

‖Or, where his name is renowmed

The v. Chapter.

1 The nnmber of them that returne from the captiuitie. 42 Their vowes and sacrifices. 54 The temple is begunne to be built. 66 Their enemies would craftily ioyne with them.

After this, were the *principall men of ỳ house of their fathers chosen in their tribes and kinreds, that they should goe with their wiues, and sonnes, and daughters, with their seruants & maydens, with all their cattell and substance. *1. Esd. 2. 1.

2 And Darius the king sent with them a thousand horsemen, to conuey them safely vnto Hierusalem, and with musicall instruments, with tabrets, and flutes.

3 And all their brethren played, and hee made them goe vp together with them.

4 And these are the names of the men which went vp out of the villages, according to the tribes, and after the order of their dignitie.

32 The ſonnes of Mehida, the ſonnes of Coutha, the ſonnes of Charcea, the ſonnes of Bareus, the ſonnes of Aſerar, the ſonnes of Thomoth, the ſonnes of Naſib, the ſonnes of Atiphan.

33 The ſonnes of the ſeruants of Solomon, the ſonnes of Hazophereth, the ſonnes of Pharuda, the ſonnes of Geelah, the ſonnes of Lozon, the ſonnes of Iſdael, the ſonnes of Stapheia.

34 The ſonnes of Agia, the ſonnes of Phareareth, the ſonnes of Sabin, the ſonnes of Spartia, the ſonnes of Maſias, the ſonnes of Gar, the ſonnes of Addu, the ſonnes of Subah, the ſonnes of Apherra, the ſonnes of Barodis, the ſonnes of Sabat, the ſonnes of Allon:

35 All the miniſters of the Temple, and the ſonnes of the ſeruants of Solomon, were three hundred ſeuentie and two.

36 Theſe came vp from Thelmiah and Thelharſa, Carathalat and Alar leading them:

37 Neither coulde they ſhewe their families, nor their ſtocke, howe they were of Iſrael. The ſonnes of Dalaias, the ſonnes of Thubia, the ſonnes of Necodan, fiue hundred fiftie and two.

38 Of the prieſtes that executed the office of the prieſthoode, and were not founde, the ſonnes of Hobia, the ſonnes of Hacoz, the ſonnes of Addus, which married Augia, one of the daughters of Barzeleus, 39 And was named after him: The writing of the ſame kinred was ſought in the regiſter of their generation, but it was not founde, and therefore were they forbidden to execute the office of the prieſthood.

40 For vnto them ſaide Nehemias and Atharias, that they ſhould haue no portion in the ſanctuary, til there roſe vp an high prieſt that were well inſtruct in the plaine clearneſſe and trueth.

41 So of Iſrael from them of twelue yeeres olde, & chyldren, they were all in number fourtie and two thouſand, three hundred and threeſcore, beſides men ſeruants and women ſeruants.

42 Their ſeruants and handmaidens, were ſeuen thouſande three hundred fourtie and ſeuen. The ſinging men and ſinging women, two hundred fourtie and fiue, seuen thousande thirtie and fiue horses, two hundred fourtie and fiue mules, fiue thousande fiue hundred twentie and fiue beastes vsed to the yoke.

43 Foure hundred thirty and fiue camels,

44 And of their rulers also after their families, when they came to the temple of God that is in Hierusalem, there were that vowed to set vp the house againe in his owne place, according to their abilities.

45 And to giue into the holy treasure of the workes, a thousand pounds of golde, fiue thousande of siluer, and an hundred precious garments.

46 And so dwelt the Priestes and the Leuites, and the people in Hierusalem, and in the countrey thereabout, the singers also and the porters, and all Israel in their villages.

47 But when the seuenth moneth came, and when the children of Israel were euery man in his owne, they came all together with one consent into the open place of the gate, which is towards the East.

48 And there Jesus the sonne of Josedec, and his brethren the priestes, and Zorobabel the sonne of Salathiel and his brethren, rising vp, made readie the altar of the God of Israel, 49 To offer whole burnt sacrifices vpon it, so as it is written in the Lawe of Moses the man of God.

50 And thither were gathered against them, diuers of other nations of the lande: but they dressed the altar in his owne place, although all the nations in the lande were enemies to them, and vexed them: and they offered sacrifices to the Lorde both morning and euening.

51 And also they held the feast of tabernacles as it is ‖ commaunded in the Lawe, and sacrifices dayly as it was appertaining: ‖Or, ordeined.

52 And after that also the continual oblations, and the offrings of the Sabbothes, and of the newe moneths, and of all holy feastes.

53 And all they which had made any vowe to God, began to offer sacrifice to God, from the first day of the seuenth moneth, although the temple of the Lorde was not yet built vp.

54 And they gaue vnto the masons, and carpenters, money, meate, and drinke, with cheerefulnesse.

55 Unto them of Sidon also, and Tyre, they gaue carres, that they shoulde bring Cedar trees from Libanus, which shoulde bee brought by flote to the hauen Joppe, according as it was commaunded them by Cyrus king of the Persians.

Eccl.49.15. 56 And in the seconde yeere and * seconde moneth, came into the temple of God at Hierusalem, Zorobabel the sonne of Salathiel, and Jesus the sonne of Josedec, and their brethren, and the Priestes and Leuites, and all they that were come vnto Hierusalem out of the captiuitie of Babylon.

57 And they layde the foundation of the house of God, in the ‖ newe moone of the seconde moneth, in the seconde yeere that they were come to Jurie and Hierusalem. ‖Or, in the first day. 1

58 And they appointed the Leuites, that were aboue twentie yeeres olde, ouer the workes of the Lord: So Jesus and his sonne and brethren allisted, and Cadmiel also his brother, and the sonnes of Madiadon, with the sonnes of Joda, the sonne of Eliadon, and his sonnes and brethren, euen al the Leuites with one accorde folowed on earnestly to aduance the workes in the house of God: to the workemen built vp the temple of the Lord.

59 And the Priestes stoode, and had their garments, with musicall instruments, and trumpets, and the Leuites the sonnes of Asaph had Cymbales, 60 Giuing thankes and praises vnto the Lord, according as Dauid the king of Israel had ordeined.

61 And they sung with loud voices songs to the praise of the Lorde, because his mercie and glorie is for euer in Israel.

62 And al the people blew out with trumpets, and cried with a loude voyce, praysing the Lorde together for the rearing vp of the house of the Lord.

63 There came also from among the priestes and Leuites, and of the chiefest, according to the tribes and kinreds, to wit, the elders, which had seene the former house,

64 To the building of this, with great cry and great mourning, many also with trumpets and great ioy cried with loude voyce:

65 Insomuch that the trumpets might not wel be heard for the weeping and mourning of the people: yet there was a great multitude that blew trumpets marueilously, so that it was heard farre off.

66 Wherefore, when the * enemies of the tribes of Juda and Beniamin heard it, they came to knowe what that noyse of trumpets should meane. 1.Esd.4.1.

67 And they perceiued that they which were come againe out of the captiuitie, built the temple vp anewe vnto the Lorde God of Israel.

68 So they went to Zorobabel and Jesus, and to the rulers of the villages, & saide vnto them, Shall we build with you also?

69 For we like wise, as you, doe obey your Lorde, and doe sacrifice vnto him, from the dayes of Asbareth the king of Assyria, which brought vs hither.

70 Then Zorobabel, and Jesus, and the rulers of the villages of Israel saide vnto them, It doth not agree that ye should build the temple of our God with vs.

71 We our selues alone will builde vnto the Lord of Israel, * as is meete, and like as Cyrus the king of the Persians hath commaunded vs. 1.Esd.44

72 But the Heathen in the lande made them sluggish that were in Jurie, & hindred them, and letted their buildings.

73 And by their ambushments, seditions, and and conspiracies, stopped that the building coulde not be finished, all the time that king Cyrus liued, so that they put off the building for the space of two yeeres, vntill the reigne of king Darius.

The vj. Chapter.

1 Of Aggeus and Zacharias. 2 The building of the temple. 3 Sisinnes woulde let them. 7 His letters to Darius. 23 The kings answere to the contrary.

1. Esd. 5. 1. NOtwithstanding in the *second yeere of the reigne of Darius, Aggeus & Zacharias the sonne of Iddo the Prophetes, prophecied vnto the Iewes, and to them in Iurie and Hierusalem, euen in the Name of the Lord God of Israel.

2 Then Zorobabel the sonne of Salathiel, and Jesus the sonne of Josedec, stoode vp, and began to builde the house of the Lorde at Hierusalem, when the Prophets of the Lord were with them, and helped them.

3 At the same time came Sisinnes the gouernour of Syria and Phenice, with Sathrabuzanes and his companions, and saide vnto them,

4 who hath bidden and commaunded you to builde this house, to make this roofe, and all other thinges againe? and who are the ‖workemen that builde them?

‖ Or, builders that did these things.

5 Neuertheless, the elders of the Iewes had such grace of the Lorde, after he had visited the captiuitie,

6 That they were not letted from building, vntill the time that king Darius was certified thereof, and an answere receiued from him.

7 The copie of the letters which he wrote, and sent vnto Darius. Sisinnes gouernour of Syria and Phenice, and Sathrabuzanes, with their companions, which are head rulers in Syria and Phenice, sende their salutation vnto Darius the king.

8 We certifie our Lord the king, that wee came into the land of Iurie, and went to Hierusalem, where wee founde the auncients of the Iewes, that were of the captiuitie, in the citie of Hierusalem, 9 Building an house vnto the Lord great and new, of hewen and costly stones, and the timber already layd vpon the walles.

10 Yea, they make great haste with the worke, and it goeth foorth prosperously in their handes, and with great diligence and worship it is made.

11 Then asked we the elders, saying, By whose commaundement builde you vp this house, & lay the foundations of these workes?

12 which we demaunded of them, to the intent that wee might giue knowledge vnto thee, and write vnto thee of those that gouerned it: and we required of them their names in writing that were their chiefe leaders to it.

13 So they gaue vs this answere, We are the seruants of the Lorde, which made heauen and earth.

14 *And as for this house, it was builded many yeres agone, by a king of Israel, great and strong, and was finished. 3. King. 6. 2.

15 But when our fathers prouoked God vnto wrath, and sinned against the Lorde of Israel, which is in heauen, hee *gaue them ouer into the power of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon, of the Chaldees: 4. Kin. 24. 1.

16 *which brake downe the house, and burnt it, and caried away the people prisoners vnto Babylon. Iere. 3. 9.

17 Neuertheless, in the *first yeere that king Cyrus reigned ouer the countreyes of Babylon, Cyrus the king wrote and commanded to builde vp this house againe. 1. Esd. 5. 13.

18 And the holy vessels of golde, and of siluer, that Nabuchodonosor had caried away out of the house at Hierusalem, & had dedicated them in his owne temple: those brought Cyrus foorth againe out of the temple at Babylon, and deliuered them to Zorobabel, and to Sanaballarus the ruler:

19 Commaunding him that he should carie away those same vessels, and put them in the temple at Hierusalem, and that the temple of the Lorde shoulde bee built in his owne place.

20 Then the same Sanaballarus being come hither, layde the foundations of the house of the Lorde at Hierusalem, and from that to this, being still a building, it is not yet fully ended.

21 Nowe therefore, O king, if thou thinkest it good, let it bee sought in the libraries and rolles of king Cyrus:

22 And if it be founde then, that the building of the house of the Lorde at Hierusalem hath bene done with the counsaile and consent of king Cyrus, and if our lord the king be so minded, let him giue answere vnto vs thereof.

23 Then commaunded king Darius to seeke in the kings libraries at Babylon: and so at Ecbatane, a tower in the region of Medis, there was founde a place where these things were layd vp for ‖ memorie. 1. Esd. 6. 1. ‖ Or, remembrance.

24 *In the first yeere of the reigne of Cyrus, the same king Cyrus commaunded that the house of the Lorde at Hierusalem should bee builded againe, where they doe sacrifice with the continuall fire. 1. Esd. 6. 3.

25 Whose height shalbe sixtie cubites, and the breadth sixtie cubites, with three rowes of hewen stones, and one rowe of new wood, and of that countrey, and the expences thereof to bee giuen out of the house of king Cyrus:

26 And the holy vessels of the house of the Lord, both of gold and siluer, that Nabuchodonosor tooke out of the house at Hierusalem, and brought to Babylon, should bee restored to the house at Hierusalem, and be set in the place where it was before.

27 And also he commanded that Sisinnes the gouernour of Syria & Phenice, and Sathrabuzanes, with their companions, and other constituted rulers in Syria and Phenice, shoulde take heede not to meddle with that place, but to suffer Zorobabel the seruant of the Lorde and gouernour of Juda, and the elders of the Jewes, to builde the house of the Lord in that place.

28 I haue cõmanded also to haue it built vp whole againe, and that they be diligent to helpe those that bee of the captiuitie of the Jewes, till the house of the Lorde be finished,

29 And out of the tribute of Coelosyria and Phenice, a portion diligently to be giuen those men vnto the offrings of the Lord, and the same to bee deliuered vnto Zorobabel the officer, that hee therewithall may ordeine oxen, rammes, and lambes:

30 And also corne, salt, wine, and oyle, and that continually euery yeere, after the expences which the priestes that bee at Hierusalem shall testifie to bee made dayly, this shalbe giuen vnto them without delay:

31 That they may offer sacrifices daily to the highest God for the king and for his children, and to pray for their liues.

32 And he commanded also, that whosoeuer should breake any point of the aforesaide and foredecreed thinges, or make it voyde: of his owne goods should a tree be taken, and he thereon bee hanged, and all his goods sealed vnto the king.

33 The Lorde therefore whose Name is there called vpon, roote out and destroye euery king and nation that stretcheth out his hande to hinder or hurt and endamage that house of the Lord in Hierusalem.

34 I Darius the king haue ordeined, that according to these thinges it be done with diligence.

The vij. Chapter.

1 Sisinnes and his companions followe the Kings commaundement, and helpe the Iewes to builde the temple. 5 The time that it was built. 10 They keepe the Passeouer.

1.Esd.6.13. THen * Sisinnes the gouernour in Coelosyria and Phenice, and Sathrabuzanes, with their companions, obeied the thinges that king Darius had ordeined,

2 And were diligent assisters in the holy workes, working with the ancients and gouernours of the Sanctuarie.

3 And so the holy workes went forth and prospered, when Aggeus and Zacharias the Prophets prophecied.

4 And they performed all things through the commaundement of the Lord God of Israel, and with consent of Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerres, kings of Persia.

5 And thus was the holy house finished in the three and twentieth day of the moneth Idar, in the sixth yere of Darius, king of the Persians.

6 And the children of Israel, the Priestes and the Leuites, and other that were of the captiuitie that had any charge, did according to the thinges written in the booke of Moses.

7 And to the dedication of the temple of the Lord, they offered an hundred ‖ oxen, two hundred rammes, foure hundred lambes, ‖ Or, bullocke.

8 And twelue goates for the sinnes of all the people of Israel, after the number of the chiefe of the tribes of Israel.

9 The Priests also and the Leuites stoode arayed in their long robes, after their kinreds, in all the workes of the Lord God of Israel, according to the booke of Moses, and the porters at euery doore.

10 And the children of Israel, with those that were come out of captiuitie, helde the Passeouer the fourteenth day of the first moneth, after that the Priests and the Leuites were sanctified.

11 They that were of the captiuitie, were not all sanctified together: but the Leuites were all sanctified together.

12 And so they offred the Passeouer for all them of the captiuitie, and for their brethren the Priestes, and for themselues.

13 And the children of Israel that came out of captiuitie, did eate, all they that had separated themselues from the abominations of the people of that land, and sought the Lorde:

14 And they kept the feast of the vnleauened bread seuen dayes long, making merie before the Lord,

15 That the Lorde had turned the counsell of the king of Assyria towardes them, to strengthen their handes vnto the workes of the Lord God of Israel.

The viij. Chapter.

1 Esdras commeth from Babylon to Hierusalem. 10 The copie of the commission giuen by king Artaxerxes. 26 Esdras giueth thankes to the Lord.

NOw after these, when Artaxerxes the king of the Persians reigned, there went vnto him Esdras the sonne of Saraias, the sonne of Ezerias, the sonne of Helchiah, the sonne of Sallum,

2 The sonne of Sadoc, the sonne of Achitob, the sonne of Amarias, the sonne of Ezias, the sonne of Menuerath, the sonne of Saraias, the sonne of Sanias, the sonne of Boccas, the sonne of Abisun, the sonne of Phinees, the sonne of Eleazar, the sonne of Aaron the first Priest.

3 This Esdras went vp from Babylon, being a scribe of good vnderstanding in the Law of Moses, that was giuen by the Lord God of Israel.

4 And the king fauoured him, and did him great worship and honour ‖ after all his desires. ‖ Or, in all his suites.

5 There went vp with him also certaine of the children of Israel, of the Priests, of the Leuites, of the singers, porters, and ministers of the temple, vnto Hierusalem.

6 In the seuenth yere of the reigne of king Artaxerxes, in the fifth moneth, which was the seuenth yeere (for they went from Baby-

ion in the first day of the first moneth,

7 And came to Hierusalem according as God gaue them speede in their iourney.)

8 For Esdras had gotten great knowledge to omit nothing of that was in the lawe and the commaundements of the Lorde, and to teach all Israel all the ordinances & iudgements.

9 The copie of the commission which Artaxerres the king wrote, & that was giuen to Esdras the Priest and Reader of the lawe of the Lord, this is it that followeth.

10 King Artaxerres sendeth his greeting vnto Esdras the Priest & Reader of the lawe of the Lord.

11 I hauing weighed things with pitie, haue ordeined and charged, if there be any of the Iewes, of the Priests and Leuites in my realme, which desireth and is content to go with thee vnto Israel, that he may doe it.

12 Therefore, so many as long thereafter, let them depart together, and goe with thee, like as I am content and my seuen friendes my counsellers,

13 To see what they doe at Hierusalem and in Iurie, conueniently, according as thou hast in the law of the Lord:

14 And to bring the giftes vnto God the Lord of Israel, that I and my friendes haue promised to Hierusalem, and all the siluer and golde that in the countrey of Babylon may be found pertaining to the Lorde in Hierusalem,

[Or, vowed.

15 With the thing that is giuen of the people to the Lord their Gods temple at Hierusalem: that the same siluer and gold may be gathered for oxen, rammes, sheepe, & goates, and other that belong to these things, 16 That they may offer sacrifices vnto the Lord, vpon the altar of the Lorde their God which is at Hierusalem.

17 And whatsoeuer thou and thy brethren will doe with the siluer and gold, that do according to the will of thy God.

18 And the holy vessels of the Lord, which are giuen thee for the seruice of the temple of thy God which is in Hierusalem, thou shalt set them before thy God in Hierusalem.

19 And whatsoeuer thing els thou shalt remember for ỹ vse of the temple of thy God, thou shalt giue it out of the kings treasure.

20 And I king Artaxerres haue also commanded the keepers of the treasures in Syria and Phenice, that whatsoeuer Esdras the Priest and the Reader of the lawe of the highest God shall send for, they should giue it him with speede:

21 Euen to the summe of an hundred talents of siluer: of corne also an hundred measures, and till an hundred vessels of wine, and other things abundantly.

[Or, cores.
[Or, pieces.

22 Let all things be done after the law of God diligently, vnto the highest God, that wrath come not vpon the kingdome of the king and of his sonnes.

23 I commaund you also, that ye require no tare nor tribute of the Priestes, Leuites, holy singers, porters, and ministers of the temple, nor of any that haue doings in this temple, and that no man haue authoritie to put any impost vpon them.

24 As for thee, O Esdras, set thou iudges and arbiters to iudge in the whole lande of Syria and Phenice after the wisedome of God, all skilfull in the law of God, and teach such as are ignorant.

25 And let all them which shall offend against the lawe of God and the king, be diligently punished, whether it be by death or other paine, by punishing in money, or els by banishment.

26 Then said Esdras the Scribe, Blessed be the onely Lorde God of my fathers, that hath giuen so good a mind and will into the heart of the king, to magnifie his house that is at Hierusalem, 27 And hath made me to be accepted in the sight of the king, and of his counsell, of his friendes, and of his nobles.

[Or, honored me.

28 And so I was stedfast in my minde, according as the Lorde my God helped me, and I gathered vp men of Israel to goe vp with me.

[Or, of a good courage.

29 * And these are the guides after their families and orders of dignities, that went vp with me from Babylon in the reigne of Artaxerres.

1.Esdr.8.1.

30 Of the sonnes of Phinehes, Gersom: of the sonnes of Ithamar, Gamaliel: of the sonnes of Dauid, Hattus the sonne of Techemah:

31 Of the sonnes of Pharez, Zacharias, & with him there returned againe an hundred and fiftie men.

32 Of the sonnes of Pahath Moab, Elioenai, the sonne of Zacharias, and with him two hundred men.

33 Of the sonnes of Zathoe, Sechenias, the sonne of Iezolus, and with him three hundred men: and of the sonnes of Adin Obed the sonne of Jonathan, and with him two hundred and fiftie men.

34 Of the sonnes of Elam, Iesias, sonne of Gotholias, and with him seuentie men.

35 Of the sonnes of Saphatias, Zarias sonne of Machael, and with him threescore and ten men.

36 Of the sonnes of Joab, Badias sonne of Iezelus, and with him two hundred and twelue men.

37 Of the sonnes of Banid, Assalimoth sonne of Josaphias, and with him an hundred and threescore men.

38 Of the sonnes of Babi, Zacharias sonne of Bebai, and with him twentie and eight men.

39 Of ỹ sonnes of Astath, Johannes sonne of Acatan, and with him an hundred & ten.

40 Of the sonnes of Adonicam ỹ last: and these are the names of them, Eliphalet, Ieuel, and Maias, & with them seuentie men.

41 Of the sonnes of Bagouthi, sonne of Iscaou-

Iscacourus, and with him seuentie men.

42 All these called I together by the water Thia, where we pitched our tents three dayes, and there I mustred them.

1.Esd.18.15. 43 *As for the sonnes of the Priestes and Leuites, I found none there.

44 Then sent I vnto Eleazar, & beholde, there came Maalman, and Maloban, 45 And Alnathan, and Samaian, and Jozibon, and Nathan, Ennatan, Zacharian and Mosollamon the chiefe & best learned:

46 And I bade them that they should goe vnto Addeus the captaine, which was in the place of the treasurie:

47 And commanded them that they should speake vnto Addeus, and to his brethren, and to those that were the treasurers, to send vs such men as might execute the Priestes office in the house of our Lord.

48 And with ỹ mightie hand of our Lord God, they brought vnto vs men of good ‖ experience, from among the sonnes of Moli, the sonne of Leui, the sonne of Israel, Seredia, and his sonnes, and his brethren, which were eighteene. ‖Or, learning.

49 And Asebia, and Amon, and Osaian his brethren, of the sonnes of Canaineus, their sonnes were twentie men.

50 And of them that serued in the temple, whom Dauid had ordeined, & the principall men to the worke of the Leuites, that were ministers in the temple, two hundred & twentie, whose names are all signed vp in writing.

1.Esd.8.21. 51 And then *cõmanded I a fasting vnto the yong men before the Lorde, that I might desire of him a prosperous iourney, & a good way both for vs and them that were with vs, for our children, and for the cattell.

52 For I feared to desire of the king men of horse and of foote, to conuey vs safely against our enemies.

53 For wee had saide vnto the king, that the power of the Lorde our God should bee with them that seeke him, to direct them in all things.

54 And therefore we besought our lord againe, as touching these things, and found him fauourable vnto vs.

55 Then I separated from among the chiefe of the tribes, and from the Priestes, twelue men, to wit, Esebrias, and Assanias, and ten men of their brethren with them.

56 And I weighed them the gold, & the siluer, and the holy vessels of the house of our Lord, which the king and his counsaile, and his princes, and whole Israel had giuen.

57 And when I had weighed it, I deliuered vnto them fiue hundred and fiftie talents of siluer, and an hundred talents in siluer vessels, and an hundred talents of gold, 58 And twentie golden basons, & twelue vessels of braſſe, euen fine braſſe, like shining gold.

59 And I said vnto them, Ye are holy vnto the Lord, and the vessels are holy, and the golde and the siluer is ‖promised vnto the Lord God of our fathers. ‖Or, vowed.

60 ‖Be diligent nowe, and keepe it, vntill the time that ye deliuer it to the chiefe of the Priestes and Leuites, and to the principall men of the families of Israel in Hierusalem, in the chambers of the house of our God. ‖Or, watch.

61 So the Priests and the Leuites which receiued of me the golde, the siluer, and the vessels, brought it vnto Hierusalem vnto the temple.

62 And from the *riuer Thia we brake vp the twelfth day of the first moneth, according to the mightie hand of our Lord which was with vs: & from the beginning of our iourney, the Lorde deliuered vs from euery enemie, so that we came vnto Hierusalem. 1.Esd.8.31.

63 And when the third day was past, the weighed golde & siluer was deliuered in the house of the Lorde, on the fourth day, vnto Marimoth the Priest, and sonne of Jozi:

64 And with him was Eleazar the sonne of Phinees, and with them were Josabdus the sonne of Jesu, and Moeth the sonne of Sabbanus, Leuites: al was deliuered them by number and weight.

65 And all the weight of them was written vp the same houre.

66 After that, they that were come out of captiuitie, offred sacrifice vnto the Lord God of Israel, euen twelue oxen for all Israel, fourescore and sixteene rammes, 67 Three score and twelue sheepe, twelue goats for saluation, all in sacrifice to ỹ Lord.

68 And the kings commission deliuered they vnto the kings stewards, and to the gouernours of Coelosyria and Phenice, who honoured the people and the temple of God.

69 Nowe when these things were done, the rulers came vnto me, and said, 70 The *nation of Israel, the princes, the Priestes and Leuites, haue not put away from them the strange people of the land, nor the vncleannesse of the Gentiles: to wit, of the Chanaanites, Hethites, Pherezites, Jebusites, and the Moabites, Egyptians, and Edomites: 1.Esd.1.9.

71 For both they & their sonnes haue mingled themselues with the daughters of the, and the holy seede is mixt with the strange people of the land: and since the beginning of the affaires, the rulers and head men haue bene partakers of this wickednesse.

72 And as soone as I had heard these things, immediatly I rent my clothes and the holy garment, and pulled off the haire of my head and my beard, and sate me downe sorowfull and heauie.

73 So al they that were mooued through the word of the Lord God of Israel, came vnto me whilest I wept for the iniquitie: but I sate still full of heauinesse vntill the euening sacrifice.

74 Then stood I vp from fasting, hauing rent clothes, and the holy garment, & kneeled downe vpon my knees, and held out my hands vnto the Lord,

75 And

1.Esdr.1.8. 75 And saide, O Lord, *I am confounded and ashamed before thy face.

76 For our sinnes are become many, euen aboue our heads, and our ignorances are lifted vp, euen vnto heauen:

77 For since the time of our fathers, wee are in great sinne vnto this day.

Deu.28.13. 78 And for the sinnes of vs, our fathers, we, with our brethren, and with our kings, and with our Priestes, haue beene giuen vp vnto the kings of the earth, into the sworde, and into captiuitie, & became a spoile with confusion and shame vnto this day.

79 And now, O Lord God, howe great is the mercy that wee haue gotten of thee, in that thou hast left vs a roote and a name in the place of thy sanctuarie,

80 And that thou hast discouered to vs a light in the house of the Lorde our God, and hast giuen vs meate in the time of our seruitude:

81 And when wee were in captiuitie, we were not forsaken of the Lorde our God: but he made the kings of Persia gracious and fauourable vnto vs, so that they gaue vs victailes and meate, 82 Yea and honoured the temple of our Lord, and repaired the wasted places of Sion, and gaue vs assurance in Iurie and Hierusalem.

83 And now, O Lord, what shall we say, hauing all these things in possession? For we haue broken thy commaundements, which thou gauest vnto vs by the hands of thy seruants the prophets, saying,

Deu.7.1. 84 *Because the land which ye goe to possesse as an heritage, is a land defiled with the vncleannesse and filthinesse of the strangers of the lande, and with their abomination they haue polluted it altogether:

85 Therefore now shall ye not ioyne their daughters vnto your sonnes, neither marry your daughters to their sonnes.

86 Moreouer, ye shal neuer seeke to make peace with them, that ye may ‖encrease and eate the best in the lande, and that yee may leaue the inheritance of the lande vnto your children for euermore.

‖Or, waxe strong, and eate the good things of the land.

87 As for the things that are come to passe, they come all for our wicked workes & great sinnes: for thou, O Lorde, hast made our sinnes light, 88 And giuen vs such a roote: but we haue turned backe againe, so that we haue broken thy lawe, and mingled our selues with the vncleannesse of the outlandish heathen.

89 Wightest not thou be angrie with vs to destroy vs, so that thou shouldest leaue vs neither roote, seede, nor name?

90 O Lorde God of Israel, thou art true: for our roote endureth yet vnto this present day.

91 And behold, now are we before thee in our sinnes, neither can we stand before thee for them.

1.Esd.10.1. 92 *And when Esdras with this prayer had knowledged the sinne, weeping, and lying flat vpon the grounde before the temple, there gathered vnto him from Hierusalem a great multitude of men and women, of young men & maidens: for there was a very great weeping & mourning among the multitude.

93 Then Iechonias the sonne of Iehiel, one of the children of Israel, cried out, and said, O Esdras, we haue sinned against the Lord God, because wee haue married strange women of the nations of the land.

94 And now all Israel hangeth in doubt: we will sweare an othe therefore vnto the Lord, that we shall put away all our wiues which we haue taken of the ‖heathen, with their children:

‖Or, strangers.

95 Like as it may seeme good to thee, and to all those that obey the lawe of the Lord.

96 Stand vp, and put it in execution: for to thee doeth this matter appertaine, and we are with thee to adde thee strength.

97 So Esdras arose, and tooke an othe of the chiefe of the Priestes and Leuites of all Israel, to doe after these things: and they sware.

The ix. Chapter.

7 After Esdras had read the lawe for the strange wiues, 18 they promised to put them away.

THen Esdras * rising from the court of the temple, went to the chamber of Joanan, the sonne of Eliasib,

1.Esd.10.6.

2 And remained there, and did eate no meate, nor drinke ‖drinke, weeping for the great wickednesse of the people.

‖Or, water.

3 And there was made a proclamation in all Iurie, and at Hierusalem, for all them that were of the captiuitie, that they shoulde gather together at Hierusalem,

4 And that whosoeuer metre not there within two or three dayes, according as the elders that bare rule appointed, their cattell should be seased to the vse of the Temple, and hee be excluded from them that were of the captiuitie.

5 And in three dayes were all they of the tribe of Juda and Beniamin gathered together at Hierusalem, the twentieth day of the ninth moneth.

6 And ȳ whole multitude sate trembling in the ‖court of the temple, for it was winter.

‖Or, the large roome.

7 So Esdras arose vp, & saide vnto them, Ye haue done vnrighteously, in that ye haue taken ‖outlandish wiues to marriage, and so to encrease the sinnes of Israel.

‖Or, strãge.

8 And nowe knowledge the same, & giue praise vnto the Lord God of our fathers:

9 And performe his will, departing from the heathen of the lande, and from the ‖outlandish wiues.

‖Or, strãge.

10 Then cried the whole multitude, and saide with a loude voyce, Like as thou hast spoken, so will we doe.

11 But for as much as the people are many, and winter season, so that wee may not stand stand without the house, and because this worke is not a thing that can be finished in a day or two, seeing wee be many that haue sinned in these things:

12 Wherefore therefore that the rulers of the multitude, and they of our families that haue strange wiues, tarie.

13 And let the Priestes and Iudges come out of euery place in their time appointed, till they swage the wrath of the Lord in this businesse.

14 Then Ionathas the sonne of Azael, and Ezechias the sonne of Thecan, receiued the charge of this matter: and Mosollam, and Leuis, and Sabatheus helped them thereto.

15 And they that were of the captiuitie, did according to all these things.

16 And Esdras the Priest chose vnto him the principall men from among the fathers, and them all by name: and in the first day of the tenth moneth, they sate together, to examine this matter.

17 And so the matter was a determining concerning the men that had maried strange wiues, vntill the newe Moone of the first moneth.

18 And of the Priests that had mixt themselues with ‖ outlandish wiues, there were found, [Or, strãge.

19 Of the sonnes of Iesu the sonne of Iosedec, and his brethren, Mathelas, Eleazar, Ioribus, and Ioadanus:

20 Which offered themselues to put away their wiues, and to offer a ramme vnto reconcilement for their purgation.

21 And of the sonnes of Emmer, Ananias, and Zabdeus, and Canes, and Samatus, and Hiereel, and Azarias.

22 And of the sonnes of Phaisu, Ellionas, Massias, Elmaelus, and Nathanael, and Ocidelus, and Talsas.

23 And of the Leuites, Iozabadus, and Semis, and Colius, who was called Calitas, and Patheus, and Oudas, and Ionas.

24 Of the holy singers, Eleazarus, Bacchurus.

25 Of ỹ porters, Sallumus, & Tolbantes.

26 Of them of Israel, of the sonnes of Phorus, Hiermas, and Eddias, and Melchias, and Maelus, and Eleazar, and Asibias, and Banaias.

27 Of the sonnes of Ela, Mathanias, Zacharias, and Hierelias, and Hieremoth, and Iedias.

28 And of the sonnes of Zamoth, Eliadas, Eliasimus, Othonias, Iarimoth, and Sabatus, and Sardeus.

29 Of the sonnes of Bebai, Ioannes, and Ananias, and Ioiadab, and Ematheas.

30 Of ỹ sonnes of Mani, Olamus, Mamuchus, Iedaias, Jasubus, Jasael, and Jeremoth.

31 And of the sonnes of Addi, Naathus, Moolias, Caleus, and Naidus, and Mathanias, and Seichel, and Balnuus, and Manasseas.

32 And of the sonnes of Annas, Elionas, and Aseas, and Melchias, and Sabbeus, and Simon a Cholamite.

33 And of the sonnes of Asom, Altaneus, and Matthias, & Banaias, Eliphalet, and Manasses, and Semei.

34 And of the sonnes of Maani, Jeremias, Momdis, Omairus, Juel, Mamai, and Paclias, and Amos, Carabation, and Eniasibius, and Mammimatanaius, Eliasaus, Uamus, Eliali, Samis, Selemias, Nathanias: and of the sonnes of Ozoras, Selis, Esril, Ezailus, Samatas, Sambis, Josiphus.

35 And of the sonnes of Ethan, Mazitias, Zabadias, Ethes, Juel, Banaias.

36 All these had taken ‖ outlandish women to mariage, and they put them away with their children. [Or, strãge.

37 And the Priests & Leuites, and all they that were of Israel, dwelt at Hierusalem, and thorowout all the lande, in the ‖ newe Moone of the seuenth moneth: and the children of Israel were in their ‖ dwellings. [Or, first day. [Or, owne houses.

38 And the * whole multitude came together with one accord, into the wide place before the East gate of the temple. 2. Esdr. 9. 1.

39 And they spake vnto Esdras the high Priest and reader, that he woulde bring the law of Moses, which had bene giuen of the Lord God of Israel.

40 So Esdras the high Priest brought the law vnto the whole multitude, to man, and woman, and to all the Priests, that they might heare the law in the ‖ newe Moone of the seuenth moneth. [Or, beginning.

41 And he read in the first wide place that is before the port of the temple, from the morning earely vnto midday, before men & women: and they applied their minde all vnto the lawe.

42 And Esdras the Priest, and reader of the lawe, stoode vp vpon a pulpit of wood, which was made therefore.

43 And vpon his right hand, there stoode by him Mathathias, Samus, Ananias, Azarias, Urias, Ezechias, and Balasan:

45 Then tooke Esdras ỹ booke of the lawe before the whole multitude (for hee was the principall, & had in most honour of them al.) [Or, blessed.

46 And when he expounded the law, they stood al straight vpon their feete. So Esdras ‖ praised the Lord the most high God, the almightie God of hostes.

47 And all the people answered, Amen.

48 And Iesus, Anus, Sarabias, Adimas, Jacobus, Battaias, Autamas, Maianias, Calitas, Azarias, Iohasabdus, Ananias, & Biatas the Leuites, lift vp their hands, & fel downe on ỹ ground, & worshipped the Lord, 49 And taught the lawe of the Lorde, and were earnestly occupied together in the reading thereof.

50 Then

50 Then spake Atharates vnto Esdras the high Priest and reader, and to the Leuites that taught the multitude, saying, 51 This day is holy vnto the Lord: and all when they heard the law, wept.

1.Esd.8.10 52 So Esdras said, *Depart your way therfore, and eate the fat meates, and drinke the sweete drinks, and send gifts vnto them that haue nothing.

53 For this day is holie vnto the Lorde, and be not yee sorie: for the Lorde will bring you to honour.

54 So the Leuites ‖ published all these things to the people, saying, This day is holy to the Lord, be not sory. ‖Or, commanded.

55 Then went they their way euery one to eate and drinke, and were mery, and sent presents to them that had nothing, & made very good cheare.

56 For they were as yet ‖ filled with the words that had beue taught them, and for the which they had bene assembled. ‖Or, inflamed.

The ende of the third booke of Esdras.

The fourth booke of Esdras.

The first Chapter.

1 The people is reproued for their vnthankfulnesse.
30 God will haue another people, if these will not be reformed.

1.Esd.7.1. THe seconde booke of the *Prophet Esdras, ‖ the sonne of Saraias, the sonne of Azarias, the sonne of Helchia, the sonne of Sadanias, the sonne of Sadoc, & sonne of Achitob,

2 The sonne of Achia, the sonne of Phinees, the sonne of Heli, the sonne of Imerias, the sonne of Aziei, the sonne of Marimoth, the sonne of Arna, the sonne of Ozias, the sonne of Bozith, the sonne of Abisei, the sonne of Phinees, the sonne of Eleazar.

3 The sonne of Aaron, of the tribe of Leui, which Esdras was prisoner in the land of Medes, in the reigne of Artaxerres king of Persia.

4 And the worde of the Lorde came vnto me, saying,

Esa.58.1. 5 *Go thy way, and shew my people their sinneful deedes, and their children their wickednesse which they haue done against mee, that they may tell their childrens children the same:

6 For the sinnes of their fathers are encreased in them: and why? they haue forgotten me, and haue offered vnto strange gods.

7 Am not I euen hee that brought them out of the lande of Egypt from the house of bondage? But they haue prouoked mee vnto wrath, and despised my counsels.

‖Or, off. 8 Pull thou ‖ out then the haire of thy head, and cast all euill vpon them, for they haue not bene obedient vnto my law: but it is a people without learning and nurture.

9 How long shall I forbeare ‖ them, vnto whom I haue done so much good?

10 Many kings haue I destroied for their sakes, *Pharao with his seruants, and al his ‖power haue I smitten downe and slaine. Exo.14.28 ‖Or, armie.

11 *And the nations haue I destroyed and rooted out before them, and in the East haue I brought two landes and people to nought, euen Tyre and Sidon, & haue slaine all their enemies. Num.21. 24.iosu.10. 12.

12 Speake thou therfore vnto them, saying, Thus sayth the Lord, 13 *I led you thorow the sea, and haue giuen you sure streetes since the beginning I gaue you *Moses to bee your captaine, and Aaron to be the Priest: Exo.14.29. Exo.3.10.

14 I gaue you *light in a pillar of fire, & great wonders haue I done among you: yet haue ye forgotten me, saith the Lord. Exo.13.21

15 Thus saith the almightie Lorde, The *quailes were as a token for you, I gaue you tents for your ‖succour, neuertheles in them ye murmured: Exo.16.13. ‖Or, safegard.

16 And ‖ ascribed not the victorie of your enemies vnto my name, but euer to this day doe ye yet murmure. ‖Or, & triumphed not in my name for the destruction of your enemies.

17 Where are the benefites that I haue done for you? when yee were hungry in the wildernesse, did ye not cry vnto me,

18 Saying, *Why hast thou brought vs into this wildernesse to kill vs? It had bene better for vs to haue serued the Egyptians, then to die in this wildernesse. Num. 14.3

19 Then had I pitie vpon your mournings, and gaue you Manna to eate. *So ye did eate angels foode. Sapi.16.20 20 When ye were *thirstie, did not I cleaue the rocke, and waters flowed out, to satisfie you withall? for the heate, I couered you with the leaues of the trees. Num.20. 11.

21 A good pleasant fat land gaue I you: I cast out the Chananites, the Pherezites, and Philistines before you: *what shal I doe more for you, saith the Lord? Esai.5.4.

22 Thus saith the almightie Lord, *When you were in the wildernesse in ‖ the water of the Amorites, being a thirst, and blaspheming my name, Exo.15.25. ‖Or, at the bitter waters.

23 I gaue you not ‖ fire for your blasphemies, but cast a tree into the water, & made the riuer sweete. ‖Or, wood.

24 What

24 What shall I doe vnto thee, O Iacob?
Exod. 32.8. thou Iuda wouldest * not obey mee: I will turn me to the other nations, and vnto those will I giue my name, that they may keep my statutes.
25 Seeing yee haue forsaken mee, I will forsake you also. When ye desire me to be gracious vnto you, I shall haue no mercie vpon you.
Esa. 1.15. 26 *When yee call vpon mee, I will not heare you: for yee haue defiled your handes with blood, and your feete are swift to commit manslaughter.
27 Ye haue not as it were forsaken mee, but your owne selues, saith the Lord.
28 Thus saith the almightie Lord, Haue
I not prayed you, as a father his sonnes, as a mother her daughters, & a nurse her yong babes,
29 That ye would be my people, & I should be your God, that ye would be my children, and I should be your father?
Mat. 23.37. 30 *I gathered you together, as a henne gathereth her chickens vnder her wings: but now, what shall I doe vnto you? I will cast you out from my face.
Esa. 66.3. 31 *When you offer vnto me, I wil turne my face from you: for your solemn feast daies, your new Moones, and your circumcisions haue I forsaken.
32 I sent vnto you my seruants the Prophets, whom ye haue taken and slayne, and torne their bodies in pieces, whose blood ‖Or, reuēge. I will ‖ require of your hands, saieth the Lord.
33 Thus saith the almightie Lorde, your house shall be desolate, I will cast you out, as the wind doeth stubble:
‖Or, haue procreation. 34 Your children shall not bee ‖ fruitfull, for they haue despised my commaundement, and done the thing that is euill before me.
35 Your houses will I giue to a people that shall come, which not hauing heard of me, yet shall beleeue mee: to whom I haue shewed no signes, yet they shall doe that I haue commanded them.
36 They haue seene no Prophets, yet shall ‖Or, hate their iniquities. they ‖ call their sinnes to remembrance, and knowledge them.
37 I will declare the grace that I will doe for the people that is to come, whose children reioyce in gladnesse: and though they haue not seene mee with bodily eyes, yet in spirite they beleeue the thing that I say.
38 And now, brother, behold what great ‖Or, glory. ‖worship: and see the people that commeth from the East.
39 Vnto whom I will giue for leaders,
Abraham, Isahac, and Iacob, Oseas, Amos, and Micheas, Ioel, Abdias, and Ionas.
40 Nahum, and Abacuc, Sophonias, Mal. 3.1. Aggeus, Zacharie, and * Malachie, which is called also an angell or messenger of the Lord.

The ij. Chapter.

2 The Synagogue findeth fault with her owne children.
18 The Gentiles are called.

THus saith the Lord, I brought this people out of bondage, I gaue them my commaundements by my seruantes the Prophets, whome they would not heare, but despised my counsels.
2 The mother that bare them, saieth vnto them, Goe your way ye children, for I am a widow and forsaken.
3 I brought you vp with gladnesse, but with sorow and heauinesse haue I lost you, for yee haue sinned before the Lorde your God, and done that thing that is euill before him.
4 But what shall I now doe vnto you? I am a widow and forsaken: go your way, O my children, and aske mercie of the Lord.
5 As for me, O father, I cal vpon thee for a witnesse ouer the mother of these children, which would not keepe my couenant:
6 That thou bring them to confusion, and their mother to a spoile, that thee beare no more.
7 Let their names be scattered abroad among the heathen, let them be put out of the earth: for they haue ‖ thought scorne of my couenant. ‖Or, despised.
8 Wo be vnto thee, Assur, thou that hidest the vnrighteous in thee: thou wicked people, remember what I did vnto * Sodome and
Gen. 19.24 Gomorrhe,
9 Whose land is turned into clods of pitch, and heapes of ashes: euen so also will I doe vnto all them that heare me not saith the al-mightie Lord.
10 Thus saith the Lord vnto Esdras, Tel my people that I will giue them the kingdome of Hierusalem which I would haue gi-uen vnto Israel.
11 Their glory also will I take vnto me, and giue them the euerlasting tabernacles, which I had prepared for those.
12 They shall haue the tree of life at will,
as in the sweet sauour of ointment, they shal neither labour, nor be wearie.
13 Goe ye your way, and ye shall receiue it: pray that there may be few dayes, and the long time may be shortned for thee: the kingdome is alreadie prepared for you, therefore watch.
14 Take heauen and earth to witnes, for I haue broken the euill in peeces, and created the good: for I liue, saith the Lord.
15 Mother, embrace thy children, & bring them vp with gladnesse, make their feete as fast as a pillar: for I haue chosen thee, sayth
the Lord.
16 And those that be dead, will I raise vp againe from their places, and bring them out of the graues: for I haue knowen my name in Israel.
17 Feare not thou mother of the children:
for I haue chosen thee, saith the Lord.

18 And

18 And for thy helpe I shall send thee my seruants Esai & Jeremie, after whose counsell I haue sanctified and prepared for thee twelue trees, laden with diuers fruites.

19 And as many fountaines flowing with milke and honie: and seuen mightie mountaines, whereupon there grew roses & lilies, whereby I will fill thy children with ioy.

20 Execute iustice for the widowe, iudge for the fatherlesse, giue to the poore, defende the fatherlesse, clothe the naked, 21 Heale the wounded and sicke, laugh not a lame man to scorne, defend the creeple, and let the blinde come into the light of my clearenesse.

22 Keepe the olde and yong that are within thy walles.

Tob. 2. 2. 23 * Whersoeuer thou findest the dead, take them, and burie them, and I shall giue thee the first place in my resurrection.

24 Abide still, O my people, and take thy rest, for thy quietnesse shall come.

25 Feed thy children, O thou good nurse, stablish their feete.

26 As for the seruants whom I haue giuen thee, there shal not one of them perish: for I will seeke them from among thy number.

27 Bee not wearie, for when the day of trouble and heauinesse commeth, other shall weepe and bee sorowfull, but thou shalt bee merry and plenteous.

28 The heathen shall bee ielous at it, but they shalbe able to doe nothing against thee, saith the Lord.

29 My hands shall couer thee, so that thy children shall not see the ‖ fire euerlasting.

‖ Or, hell.

30 Be ioyfull, O thou mother, with thy children, for I will deliuer thee, saith ꝑ Lord.

31 Remember thy children that sleepe, for I shal bring them out of the sides of the earth, and shewe mercie vnto them: for I am mercifull, saith the Lord almightie.

32 Embrace thy children vntill I come, and shew mercie vnto them: for my ‖ welles runne ouer, and my grace shall not faile.

33 I Esdras receiued a charge of the Lord vpon the mount Oreb, that I should goe vnto Israel: but when I came vnto them, they set me at nought, and despised the commandements of the Lord.

34 And therefore I say vnto you, O yee heathen that heare and vnderstand, ‖ Looke for your shepheard, hee shall giue you euerlasting rest: for hee is nigh at hand that shall come in the ende of the world.

‖ Or, waite.

35 Bee ready to the rewarde of the kingdome, for the euerlasting light shall shine vpon you for euermore.

36 Flee the shadow of this world, receiue the ioyfulnesse of your glorie: I testifie my Sauiour openly.

37 O receiue the gift that is giuen you, and bee glad, giuing thanks vnto him that hath called you to the heauenly kingdome.

38 Arise vp, and stande fast, beholde the number of those that be sealed ‖ in the feast of the Lord,

39 Which are departed from the shadowe of the worlde, and haue receiued glorious garments of the Lord.

40 Take thy number, O Sion, and shut vp ‖ thy perfited, which haue fulfilled the law of the Lord.

‖ Or, those of thine that are clothed in white.

14 The number of thy children whome thou longedst for, is fulfilled: beseech ꝑ power of the Lord, that thy people which haue bene called from the beginning, may be halowed.

42 * I Esdras sawe vpon the mount Sion a great people, whome I could not number: and they all praised the Lord with songs of thanksgiuing.

Apoc. 7. 9.

43 And in the midst of them there was a yong man of an high stature, more excelling then all they, and vpon euery one of their heads he set crownes, and was ever ‖ higher and higher, which I marueiled at greatly.

‖ Or, & was higher then the other.

44 So I asked the angel, and saide, Sir, what are these?

45 He answered and said vnto me, These be they that haue put off the mortal clothing, and put on the immortall, and haue ‖ testified and knowledged the name of God: now are they crowned, and receiue the ‖ reward.

‖ Or, haue confessed.

‖ Or, the Psalmes.

46 Then sayde I vnto the Angell, What yong person is it that crowneth them, and giueth them the Palmes in their hands?

47 So hee answered and sayde vnto me, It is the Sonne of God, whome they haue ‖ knowledged in the world: Then began I greatly to commend them that stoode so stiffe for the name of the Lord.

‖ Or, confessed.

48 Then the angel said vnto me, Goe thy way, & tell my people what maner of things, and how great wonders of the Lord thy God thou hast seene.

The iij. Chapter.

4 The wonderous workes which God did for the people, are recited. 31 Esdras marueileth that God suffereth the Babylonians to haue rule ouer his people, which yet are sinners also.

IN the thirtieth yeere after the fall of the citie, I was at Babylon, and lay troubled vpon my bed, and my thoughts came vp ouer my heart.

2 For I sawe the desolation of Sion, and the plenteous wealth of them that dwelt at Babylon.

3 And my spirit was sore moued, so that I began to speake fearefull words to the most highest, and said,

4 O Lorde, Lorde, thou spakest at the beginning, when thou plantedst the earth (and that thy selfe alone) and gauest commandement vnto the people,

5 And a * body vnto Adam without soule, which was a ‖ creature of thy handes, and hast breathed in him the breath of life, and so he liued before thee:

Gen. 2. 7.

‖ Or, workemanship.

6 And thou leddest him into paradise, which thy right hand had planted or euer the earth brought fruites:

7 And vnto him thou gauest commaundement to loue thy way, which he transgressed, and immediatly thou appointedst death in him, and in his generations: of whome came nations, tribes, people, and kinreds out of number.

Gen. 6. 12. 8 And euery people * walked after their owne wil, and did wonderfull things before thee: and as for thy commaundements, they despised.

Gen. 7. 10. ‖Or, at time appointed. 9 * But ‖ in processe of time thou broughtest the water flood vpon those that dwelt in the world, and destroyedst them.

10 So that by ỹ flood, that was wrought in eche of them, that was by death in Adam.

11 Nevertheless, one of them thou leftest, namely, Noah with his houshold, of whom came all righteous men.

‖Or, came to passe. 12 And it ‖ happened, that when they that dwelt vpon the earth beganne to multiply, and had gotten them many children, and were a great people, they began to be more vngodly then the first.

Gen. 12. 15 13 Now when they liued so wickedly before thee, thou diddest * chuse thee a man from among them, whose name was Abraham.

14 Him thou louedst, and vnto him onely thou shewedst thy will:

15 And madest an euerlasting couenant with him, promising him that thou wouldest neuer forsake his seede.

Gen. 21. 2. 16 And vnto him thou gauest * Isahac, vnto Isahac also thou gauest Jacob and Esau. As for Jacob, thou diddest chuse him to

Gen. 25. 25. thee, and * put backe Esau: and so Jacob became a great multitude.

17 And it came to passe, that when thou leddest his seede out of Egypt, thou * broughtest them vp to the mount Sina,

Deut. 4. 10. ‖Or, abasing. 18 Bowing downe the heauens, ‖ setting fast the earth, moouing the ground, making ‖Or, and that which the generation of Israel shoulde keepe with diligence. vnto the seede of Jacob, and ‖ diligence vnto the generation of Israel.

20 And yet tookest thou not away from them that wicked heart, that thy lawe might bring forth fruite in them.

Gen. 3. 6. 21 For the first Adam bearing a wicked * heart, transgressed, and was ouercome: and so be all they that are borne of him.

22 Thus remained weakenesse still: and the lawe in the hearts of the people, with the wickednesse of the roote, so that the good departed away, and the euill abode still.

23 So the times passed away, and the yeeres were brought to an ende: then diddest

1. Reg. 16. thou * raise thee vp a seruant, called Dauid,

13. 2. reg. 5. 2. 24 Whom thou commandedst to builde a citie vnto thy name, and to offer vp incense and sacrifice vnto thee therein.

25 When this was done now many yeres, then the inhabiters of the citie forsooke thee, 26 And in all things did euen as Adam and all his generations had done: for they also had a wicked heart.

27 And so thou gauest the citie ouer into the hands of thine enemies.

28 But doe they of Babylon then any thing better, that they should therefore haue the dominion in Sion?

29 For when I came thither, and sawe there so great wickednesse that it coulde not be numbred, then my soule sawe many euill doers in this thirtieth yeere, so that my heart fayled me:

30 For I saw how thou suffredst them in such vngodlinesse, and sparedst the wicked doers: but thine owne people hast thou rooted out, and preserued thine enemies, and this hast thou not shewed ‖ me. ‖Or, it.

31 I cannot perceiue howe this ‖ happeneth. Doe they of Babylon then better then they of Sion? ‖Or, commeth to passe.

32 Or is there * any other people that Iere. 10. 25. knoweth thee, sauing the people of Israel? or what generation hath so beleeued thy ‖ couenants, as Jacob? ‖Or, testimonies.

33 And yet their rewarde appeareth not, and their labour hath no fruite: for I haue gone here and there through the heathen, and I see that they be ‖ rich and wealthy, and ‖Or, flowre in wealth. thinke not vpon thy commandements.

34 Weigh thou therefore our wickednesse now in the balance, and theirs also that dwel in the worlde: and so shall thy name be no where found, but in Israel.

35 Or when was it that they which dwel vpon earth, haue not sinned in thy sight? or what people hath so kept thy commaundements?

36 Thou shalt finde that Israel by name hath kept thy precepts: but not the other people and heathen.

The iiij. Chapter.

The angel reproueth Esdras, because hee seemeth to enter into the profound iudgements of God.

AND the Angel that was sent vnto mee, whose name was Uriel, gaue me an answere,

2 And said, Thy heart hath taken too much vpon it in this world, and thou thinkest to comprehende the way of the highest.

3 Then said I, Yea, my Lord. And he answered me, and said, I am sent to shewe thee three wayes, and to set foorth three similitudes before thee:

4 Whereof, if thou canst declare mee one, I will shewe thee also the way that thou desirest to see: and I shall shew thee from whence the wicked heart commeth.

5 And I said, Tell on, my Lord. Then said hee vnto mee, Goe thy way, weigh mee the weight of the fire, or measure me ỹ blast of the winde, or call me againe the day that is past.

6 Then answered I, and said, What man borne is able to doe that, that thou shouldest aske such things of me?

7 And

7 And he sayde vnto me, If I should aske thee how deepe dwellings are in the midst of the sea, or howe great water springs are in the beginning of the deepe, or how great water springs are vpon the stretching out of the heauens, or which are the ‖ outgoings of paradise:

‖ borders.

8 Peraduenture thou wouldest say vnto mee, I neuer went downe yet into the deepe, nor hell, neither did I euer clime vp into heauen.

9 Neuertheless, nowe haue I asked thee but onely of fire and winde, and of the day wherethrough thou hast trauailed, and from the which thou canst not bee separated, and yet canst thou giue me no answere of them.

10 Hee sayde moreouer vnto mee, Thine owne things, and such as are growen vp with thee, canst thou not knowe:

11 Howe should thy vessell then be able to comprehend the way of the highest, and nowe vtterly in the corrupt worlde to vnderstand the corruption that is euident in my sight?

12 Then said I vnto him, It were better that we were not at all, then that we should liue in wickednesse, and to suffer, and not to knowe wherefore.

13 Hee answered me, and said, I * came to a forest in a plaine, and the trees tooke such a deuice, Iudg. 9. 8. 2. King. 14. 9.

14 And said, Come, let vs goe, and fight against the sea, that it may depart away before vs, and that we may make vs more woods.

15 The floods of the sea also in like maner tooke counsell, and sayd, Come, let vs goe vp, and fight against the trees of the wood, that there wee may make vs another countrey.

16 The thought and deuice of the wood was but vaine and nothing worth, for the fire came and consumed it.

17 The thought of the floods of the sea came likewise to nought also; for the sande floode vp and stopped them.

18 If thou were iudge now betwixt these two, whom wouldest thou iustifie, or whome wouldest thou condemne?

19 I answered and said, Verily it is a foolish thought that they both haue deuised: for the ground is giuen vnto the wood, and the sea also hath his place to beare his floods.

20 Then answered he me, and said, Thou hast giuen a right iudgement: but why iudgest thou not thy selfe also?

21 For like as the grounde is giuen vnto the wood, and the sea to his floods: * euen so they that dwell vpon earth, may vnderstand nothing but that which is vpon earth: and hee that dwelleth aboue the heauens, may onely vnderstand the things that are aboue the heauens.

Esa. 55. 8. Rom. 3. 32. 1. Cor. 2. 13.

22 Then answered I, and said, I beseech thee, O Lord, let me haue vnderstanding:

23 For it was not my minde ‖ to bee curious of the high things, but of such as we daily meddle withall, namely, as wherefore Israel is giuen vp as a reproch to the heathen, and for what cause the people whom thou hast loued, is giuen ouer vnto vngodly nations, and why the law of our forefathers is brought to nought, and the written ‖ couenants come to none effect:

‖ Or, enquire. ‖ Or, ordinances.

24 And we passe away out of the world as the grashoppers, and our life is a very feare, and we are not worthy to obtaine mercie.

25 What will he then doe vnto his name which is called vpō ouer vs? Of these things haue I asked question.

26 Then answered he me, and saide, The more thou searchest, the more thou shalt marueile: for the world hasteth fast to passe away, 27 And cannot comprehende the things that are promised to the righteous in time to come: for this worlde is full of vnrighteousnesse and weakenesse.

28 But as concerning the things whereof thou askest me, I will tell thee: The euill is sowen, but the destruction thereof is not yet come.

29 If the euill nowe that is sowen be not turned vpside downe, and if the place where the euill is sowen passe not away: then can not the thing come that is sowen with good.

30 For the corne of euill seede hath bene sowen in the heart of Adam from the beginning: and howe much vngodlinesse hath he brought vp vnto this time? and howe much shall hee yet bring foorth vntill hee come into the barne?

31 Ponder nowe by thy selfe howe great fruite of wickednesse the corne of euill seede bringeth foorth.

32 And when the stalkes shall bee cut downe, which are without number, howe great a barne shall it fill?

33 Then I answered and sayd, How, and when shal these things come to passe? wherefore are your yeeres few and euill?

34 And he answered me, saying, Haste not thou too much aboue the most highest: for thy hastinesse to be aboue him, is but vaine, though thou doe all that thou canst for it.

35 Did not the soules also of the righteous aske question of these things in their chambers, saying, How long shall I hope on this fashion? when commeth the fruit of my barne, and our reward?

36 And vpon this, Jeremiel the archangel gaue them answere, and said, Euen when the number of the seedes is filled in you, for he hath weighed the world in the balance.

37 In measure and number hath he measured the times, and moueth it not, nor shaketh it, vntill the said measure be fulfilled.

38 Then answered I, and sayd, O Lord, Lord, now are we full of sinne:

39 And for our sake peraduenture it is that the barne of the righteous is not fulfilled, because of the sinnes of them that dwell vpon the earth.

40 So he answered me, and said, Goe thy way to a woman with child, and aske of her, when shee hath fulfilled her nine moneths, if her wombe may keepe the birth any longer within her.

41 Then saide I, No, Lorde, that can shee not. And he said vnto me, In the graue, the secret places of soules are like the wombe of a woman:

42 For like as a woman that trauaileth, maketh haste to escape the necessity of the trauell: euen so doe these places haste to deliuer those things that are committed vnto them.

43 Looke what thou desirest to see, it shall be shewed thee from the beginning.

44 Then answered I, and said, If I haue found fauour in thy sight, and if it be possible, and if I be meete therefore, 45 Shewe mee then whether there bee more to come then is past, or more past then is for to come.

46 What is past, I know: but what is for to come, I know not.

47 And he saide vnto me, Stand vp vpon the right side, and I shall expound the similitude vnto thee.

48 So I stoode, and beholde, an hote burning ouen passed by before me: and it happened, that when the flame was gone by, I looked, & behold, the smoke had the vpper hand:

49 After this there passed by before mee a watrie cloude, and sent downe much raine with a storme: and when the stormie raine was past, ‖ the drops remained still.

‖ Or, the litle drops came after.

50 Then said he vnto me, Consider with thy selfe: like as the raine is more then the droppes, and as the fire exceedeth the smoke: euen so, the measure of the things that are past hath the vpper hand, and the drops and smoke worke much in quantitie.

51 Then I prayed, and saide, May I liue thinkest thou vntill that time? or what shall happen in those dayes?

52 He answered me, and said, As for the tokens whereof thou askest me, I may tel thee of them in part: but as touching thy life, I am not sent to shew thee: for I do not know it.

The v. Chapter.

1 In the latter times trueth shall be hid, vnrighteousnesse and all wickednesse shall reigne in the world.

NEuertheless, as concerning the tokens marke this: beholde, the dayes shall come, that they which dwell vpon earth shalbe taken in a great number, and the way of the trueth shall bee hidde, and the land shalbe barren from faith:

Mat. 24. 4. 2 But *iniquitie shall be encreased aboue that which nowe thou seest, or that thou hast heard long agoe.

3 And the lande that thou seest nowe to haue rule, shalt thou shortly see waste.

4 But if God graunt thee to liue, thou shalt see after the third trumpet, that the sunne shal suddenly shine again in the night, and the moone three times in the day:

5 And blood shall drop out of wood, and the stone shall giue his voyce, and the people shalbe vexed:

6 And euen he shall rule, whom they hope not that dwell vpon earth, and the soules shall flit:

7 And the Sodomitish sea shall cast out the fish, and make a noyse in the night, which many haue not known: but they shall all heare the voyce thereof.

8 There shalbe a confusion also in many places, and the fire shalbe oft sent out againe: and the wilde beastes shall change their places, and menstruous women shall beare monsters,

9 And salt waters shall bee founde in the sweete, and all friends shall fight one against another: then shall al wit and vnderstanding be hid, and put aside into their secret places,

10 And shall be sought of many, and yet not be founde: then shall vnrighteousnesse and ‖ voluptuousnesse haue the vpper hand vpon earth.

‖ Or, incontinencie.

11 One land also shall aske another, and say, Is righteousnesse that ‖ maketh a man righteous, gone thorowe thee? And it shall say, No.

‖ Or, that iustifieth, or that doeth right wisely

12 At the same time shall men hope, but nothing obteine: they shall labour, but their wayes shall not prosper.

13 To shewe thee such tokens I haue leaue: and if thou wilt pray againe, and weepe as nowe, and fast seuen dayes, thou shalt heare yet greater things.

14 Then I awaked, and a fearefulnesse went thorow al my body, and my minde was feeble, so that I almost swooned withall.

15 So the angell that was come to talke with me, helde me, comforted me, and set me vp vpon my feete.

16 And in the second night it came to passe, that Salathiel the captaine of the people came vnto me, saying, Where hast thou bene? and why is thy countenance so heauy?

17 Knowest thou not that Israel is committed vnto thee in ꝑ land of their captiuity?

18 Vp then, and eate, and forsake vs not as the shepheard that leaueth his flocke in the hands of ‖ wicked wolues.

‖ Or, cruel.

19 Then said I vnto him, Goe thy waies fro me, & come not nigh me. And he heard it, and as I said, so he went his way from me.

20 And so I fasted seuen daies, mourning and weeping, like as Uriel the angell commanded me.

21 And after seuen dayes so it was, that the thoughts of my heart were very greeuous vnto me againe:

22 And my soule receiued the spirit of vnderstanding, and I began to talke with the most highest againe,

23 And said, O Lord, Lord, of euery wood of the earth, and of all the trees thereof, thou hast chosen thee one onely vineyard:

24 And of all landes of the whole world, thou hast chosen thee one pitte: and of all flowres flowers of the ground, thou hast chosen thee one lillie:

25 And of all the depthes of the sea, thou hast filled thee one riuer: and of all builded cities, thou hast hallowed Sion vnto thy selfe:

26 And of all the foules that are created, thou hast named thee one Doue: and of all the cattell that are made, thou hast prouided thee one sheepe:

27 And among all the multitudes of peoples, thou hast gotten thee one people: and vnto this people whome thou louedst, thou gauest a lawe that is prooued of all.

28 And nowe, O Lorde, why hast thou giuen this one people ouer vnto many? and vpon the one roote thou hast ‖ prepared others, and why hast thou scattered thy one onely people among many?

‖Or, set.

29 Which treade them downe, yea which haue euer withstoode thy promises, and neuer beleeued thy couenants.

30 If thou diddest so much hate thy people, yet shouldest thou punish them with thine owne handes.

31 Now when I had spoken these words, the angell that came to me the night afore, was sent vnto me, 32 And sayde vnto me, Heare me, and I will instruct thee, hearken to the thing that I say, and I will tell thee more.

33 And I saide, Speake on, my Lorde. Then saide he vnto me, Thou art sore troubled in minde for Israels sake: louest thou that people better then he that made them?

34 And I saide, No Lorde, but of very griefe and compassion haue I spoken: for my reines paine mee euery houre, because I would ‖ haue experience of the way of ỹ most highest, & seeke out part of his iudgement.

‖Or, comprehend.

35 And hee saide vnto mee, That thou ‖ mayest not. And I sayde, Wherefore, Lord: whereunto was I borne then? or why was not my mothers wombe then my graue, that I might not haue seene the miserie and trouble of Iacob, and the wearing out of the flocke of Israel?

‖Or, canst not.

36 And he saide vnto me, Number mee the things that are not yet come, gather me together the droppes that are scattered abroade, make me the flowres greene againe that are withered, 37 Open me the places that are closed, and bring me forth the windes that in them are shut vp, shew me the image of a voyce: and then I will declare to thee the thing that thou labourest to know.

38 And I said, O Lorde, Lord, who may know these things, but he that hath not his dwelling with men?

39 As for me, I am vnwise: how may I then speake of these thinges whereof thou askest me?

40 Then saide he vnto me, Like as thou canst doe none of these thinges that I haue spoken of: euen so canst thou not finde out my iudgement, or in the ende the loue that I haue promised vnto my people.

41 And I saide, Beholde, O Lorde, yet art thou nigh vnto them that be reserued till the ende: and what shall they doe that haue bene before me, or we that be nowe, or they that shall come after vs?

42 And he said vnto me, I will liken my iudgement vnto a ring: like as there is no slacknesse of the last, euen so there is no swiftnesse of the first.

43 So I answered, and sayde, Couldest thou not make those that haue bene made, and be nowe, and that are for to come, at once, that thou mightest shewe thy iudgement the sooner?

44 Then answered he me, and sayde, The creature may not haste ‖ aboue the maker, neither may the worlde holde them at once that shall be created therein.

‖Or, before.

45 And he sayde, As thou hast sayde vnto thy seruant, that thou which quickenest all things, hast giuen life at once to the creature or worke that thou hast created, and the creature bare it: euen so might it nowe also beare them that nowe be present at once.

46 And he said vnto me, Aske the wombe of a woman, and say vnto her, If thou bringest foorth children, why doest thou it not together, but one after another? Pray her therefore to bring forth ten children at once.

47 And I sayde, She can not: but must doe it by distance of time.

48 Then saide he vnto me, Euen so haue I diuided the distance of time the childbed of the earth, for those that be sowen vpon her.

49 For like as a young childe may not bring foorth the thinges that belong to the aged, euen so haue I ordeyned ‖ the worlde which I created.

‖Or, the time.

50 And I asked, and sayde, Seeing thou hast now giuen me the way, I will proceede to speake before thee: for our mother, of whome thou hast tolde me that she is yong, draweth she nowe nigh vnto age?

51 He answered me, and saide, Aske a woman that beareth children, and shee shall tell thee.

52 Say vnto her, Wherefore are not they who thou hast now brought forth, like those that were before thee, but lesse of stature?

53 And she shall answere thee, They that be borne in the youth of strength, are of one fashion: and they that are borne in the time of age (when the wombe faileth) are otherwise.

54 Consider nowe thy selfe, howe that ye are lesse of stature, then those that were before you:

55 And so are they that come after you lesse then ye, as the creatures which nowe beginne to be olde, and haue passed ouer the strength of you.

56 Then said I, Lorde, I beseech thee, if I haue founde fauour in thy sight, shew thy seruant by whom thou visitest thy ‖ creature.

‖Or, workemanship.

The vi. Chapter.

1 God hath foreseene all things in his secrete counsell, and is author thereof, and hath created them for his children. 25 The felicitie of the age to come.

AND hee saide vnto me, In the beginning when the ‖ grounde was made, before the borders of the world stoode, or euer the windes blewe,

‖ Or, compasse of the earth.

2 Before it thundred and lightened, or euer the foundations of Paradise were laid,

3 Before the faire flowres were seene, or euer the moueable powers were established, before the innumerable ‖ multitude of angels were gathered together,

‖ Or, armies.

4 Or euer the highnesse of the ayre were lifted vp, afore the measures of the firmament were named, or euer the chimneyes in Sion were hot,

5 And yer the present yeeres were sought out, and yer euer the inuentions of them that nowe sinne were ‖ put aside, before they were sealed that haue gathered faith for a treasure:

‖ Or, turned away.

6 Then did I consider & ponder all these things, and they all were made through me alone, and through none other: by me also they shalbe ended, and by none other.

7 Then answered I, and said, What shall be the ‖ parting asunder of the times? or when shalbe the ende of the first, and the beginning of it that followeth?

8 And he saide vnto me, From Abraham vnto Isahac, when Iacob and Esau were borne of him, Iacobs * hand helde first the heele of Esau:

Gen. 25. 27.

9 For Esau is the end of this worlde, and Iacob is the beginning of it that followeth.

10 The hande of man, betwixt the heele and the hande: Other question, Esdras, aske thou not.

11 I answered then, and said, O Lorde, Lorde, If I haue found fauour in thy sight, 12 I beseech thee ‖ shewe thy seruant the ende of thy tokens, whereof thou shewedst me part the last night.

‖ Or, make an ende to shewe thy seruant thy tokens.

13 So he answered, and saide vnto me, Stande vp vpon thy feete, and heare ‖ a perfect voyce and sounde.

‖ Or, mighty

14 There shall come a ‖ great motion, but the place where thou standest, shall not be mooued.

‖ Or, an earthquake.

15 And therefore when ‖ thou hearest the wordes, be not afraide, for of the ende shall the worde be, and of the foundation of the earth shall it be vnderstood.

‖ Or, when he speaketh.

16 And why? the worde thereof trembleth and quaketh: for it knoweth that it must be changed at the ende.

17 And it happened, that when I had heard it, I stoode vp vpon my feete, & hearkened: and beholde, there was a voyce that spake, and the sound of it, was like the sound of many waters,

18 And it saide, Beholde, the dayes come that I will beginne to draw nigh, and to visite them that dwell vpon earth:

19 And will beginne to make inquisition of them, what they be that haue hurt vniustly with their vnrighteousnes, and when the lowe estate of Sion shalbe fulfilled.

20 And when the worlde that shal vanish away shalbe ouersealed, then wil I doe these tokens: the bookes shalbe opened before the ‖ firmament, and they shall see all together:

‖ Or, heauen.

21 And the children of a yeere olde shall speake with their voyces, the women with childe shall bring forth vntimely children of three or foure moneths olde, and they shall liue, and be raised vp.

22 And suddenly shall the sowen places appeare as the vnsowen, the full storehouses shall suddenly be founde emptie:

23 And the Trumpet shall giue a sounde, which when euery man heareth, they shall be hastily afraide.

24 At that time shall friendes fight one against another like enemies, and the earth shall stande in feare with them: the springs of the welles shall stande still, and in three houres they shall not runne.

25 Whosoeuer remaineth from all these things that I haue told thee, ‖ shall escape, & see my saluation, and the end of your world.

‖ Or, he shall be saued.

26 And the men that are receiued, shall see it, they that haue not tasted death from their birth: and the heart of the ‖ inwellers shall be changed, and turned into another meaning.

27 For euill shalbe put out, and deceit shal be quenched.

28 As for faith, it shall florish, corruption shalbe ouercome, and the trueth which hath bene so long without fruite, shalbe ‖ declared.

‖ Or, shewed foorth.

29 And when he talked with me, behold, I looked a litle and a litle vpon him, before whome I stoode:

30 And these wordes saide he vnto me, I am come to shewe thee the time of the night for to come.

31 If thou wilt pray yet more, and fast seuen dayes againe, I shall tell thee more thinges, and greater then before, which I haue heard by the day.

32 For thy voyce is heard before the highest: for why? the mightie hath seene thy righteous dealing, he hath seene also thy chastitie which thou hast had euer since thy youth:

33 And therefore hath he sent me to shewe thee all these things, and to say vnto thee, Be of good comfort, and feare not:

34 And hast not with the times that are past, to thinke vaine things, that thou maist not hasten from the latter times.

35 And it came to passe after this, that I wept againe, and fasted seuen dayes in like maner, that I might fulfill the three weekes which he tolde me.

36 And in the eight night was my heart lifted within me againe, and I beganne to speake speake before the Highest.

37 For my spirite was greatly set on fire, and my soule was in distresse.

38 And I sayde, O Lorde, thou spakest vnto thy creature from the beginning, euen the first day, and saydest, Let * heauen and earth be made: and thy worde was a perfect worke.

Gene. 1. 1.

39 And then was there the spirit, and the darknesses were yet on euery side, and silence: there was no mans voyce as yet from thee.

40 Then commaundedst thou a ‖ faire light to come foorth of thy treasures, that thy worke might appeare and be seene.

‖ Or, bright.

41 Vpon the second day thou madest the spirit of the firmament, and commaundedst it to part a sunder, and to make a diuision betwixt the waters, that the one part might remaine aboue, and the other beneath.

42 Vpon the thirde day thou broughtest to passe that the waters were gathered in the seuenth part of the earth: sixe partes hast thou dryed vp, and kept them, ‖ to the intent that men might sowe and occupie husbandry therein.

‖ Or, to the intent that of them, there might be some to minister before thee sowen of God and tilled.

43 As soone as thy worde went foorth, the worke was made:

44 For immediatly there was great and innumerable fruite, and many diuers pleasures for the taste, and flowres of vnchangeable colour, and odours of wonderfull smell: And this was done the third day.

45 Vpon the fourth day thou commaundedst that the Sunne should giue his shine, and the Moone her light, the Starres didst thou set in order:

46 And * gauest them a charge to doe seruice, euen vnto man that was to be made.

Gene. 1. 21

47 * Vpon the fifth day, thou saydest vnto the seuenth part where the waters were gathered, that it should bring foorth diuers beastes, foules, and fishes: and so it came to passe.

48 For the dumbe water and without soule, brought foorth liuing things at the commaundement of God, that all ‖ people might praise thy wonderous workes.

‖ Or, the nations.

49 Then diddest thou ordeine two soules the one thou calledst ‖ Enoch, and the other Leuiathan,

‖ Or, Behemoth.

50 And diddest separate the one from the other: for the seuenth part (namely, where the water was gathered together) might not hold them both.

51 Vnto ‖ Enoch thou gauest one part, which was dryed vp the thirde day, that hee should dwell in the same part, wherein are a thousand hilles.

‖ Or, Behemoth.

52 But vnto Leuiathan thou gauest the seuenth part, namely the moist and hast kept him to deuoure what thou wilt, and when.

53 Vpon the sixth day thou gauest commandement vpon the earth, that before thee it should bring foorth beastes, cattell, and all that creepe:

54 And besides this, Adam also, whome thou madest lorde of all thy creatures, of him come we all, and the people also whom thou hast chosen, specially vnto thy selfe.

55 All this haue I spoken before thee, O Lorde, that I might shewe how that the world is made for our sakes.

56 As for the other people which also come of Adam, thou hast sayde that they are nothing, but bee like vnto spittle, and hast likened the abundance of them vnto a drop that falleth from a vessell.

57 And nowe, O Lorde, behold, the Heathen which haue euer bene reputed as nothing, haue begun to be Lords ouer vs, and to deuoure vs:

58 But we thy people (whome thou hast called thy first borne, thy onely begotten, and thy feruent louer) are giuen vnto their hãds and power.

59 If the worlde nowe bee made for our sakes, why haue we not the inheritance of the worlde in possession? Howe long shall this endure?

The vii. Chapter.

1 Without tribulation none can come to felicitie. 12 God aduertiseth all in time. 28 The comming and death of Christ. 32 The resurrection and last iudgement.

AND when I had made an ende of speaking these woordes, there was sent vnto mee an Angel, which had bene sent vnto me also the nightes afore:

2 And he sayd vnto me, Vp Esdras, and heare the wordes that I am come to tell thee.

3 And I saide, Speake on Lord my God. Then sayde he vnto me, The sea is set in a wide place, that it might be deepe and great.

4 But put case the entrance is narrowe and small, like a riuer.

5 Who then could go into the sea to loohe vpon it, and to rule it? If hee went not thorowe the narrowe, howe might he come into the broade?

6 Item ‖ another. A citie is builded, and set vpon a broade fielde, and is full of all good things:

‖ Or, againe.

7 The entrance thereof is narrowe, and is set in a dangerous place to fall, like as if there were a fire at the right hande, and a deepe water at the left,

8 And as it were onely one straight path betwixt them both, euen betweene the fire and the water, so small that there could but one man goe there at once:

9 If this citie nowe were giuen to a man for an inheritance, and he neuer went thorowe the perillous way before, howe would he receiue his inheritance?

10 And I said, It is so, Lorde, Then said he, Euen so also is Israels portion.

11 And why? for their sakes haue I made the worlde: and when Adam transgressed my statutes, then was the thing so appointed as nowe is done.

12 Then were the entrances of the world made narrowe, full of sorrowe and trauaile; they are but fewe and euill, full of perils and labour.

13 For the entrances of the forewoorlde were wide and sure, and brought immortall fruite.

14 If then they which are liuing, enter not diligently thorow these straite and brittle things, they can not receiue the things so layde vp in secrete.

15 Why disquietest thou thy selfe then, seeing thou art but a corruptible man? And why art thou mooued, whereas thou art but mortall?

16 And why hast thou not receiued into thine heart, the thinges that are to come, rather then them that are present?

17 Then saide * I, O Lorde, Lorde, thou hast ordeyned in thy law, that the righteous shoulde inherite these things, but that the vngodly should perish: Deut. 8.1.

18 Neuertheless, the righteous shall sufker straite things, and hope for wide: for they that haue liued vngodly, and suffered straite things, shall not see the wide.

19 And hee saide vnto me, There is no iudge aboue God, and none that hath vnderstanding aboue the highest.

20 For there be many that perish in this life, because they despise the law of God that is ‖ set before them: ‖Or, appointed them.

21 For God hath giuen straite commandement to such as came, so oft as they came, what they should doe to haue life, and what they shoud keepe to auoyde punishment.

22 Neuertheless, they were not obedient vnto him, but spake against him, and imagined vaine things:

23 And deceiued them selues by wicked deedes, and denyed the power of the most high, and regarded not his wayes, 24 But his lawe haue they despised, and denied his promises: in his statutes and ordinances haue they not bene faithfull and stedfast, and haue not performed his workes.

25 And therefore Esdras, for the emptie, are the emptie things, and for the full are the full things.

26 Behold, the time shall come, that these tokens which I haue tolde thee, shall come to passe, and the bride shall appeare, and shee comming forth shall bee seene, that nowe is vnder the earth:

27 And whosoeuer is deliuered from the foresaid euils, shall see my wonders.

28 For my sonne Iesus shalbe openly declared, with those that be with him, and they that remaine, shall bee merrie within foure hundred yeeres.

29 After these same yeeres shall my sonne Christ die, and all men that haue life.

30 And the worlde shalbe turned into the olde silence seuen dayes, like as in the forefore iudgements, so that no man shall remaine.

31 And after seuen dayes the world that yet awaketh not, shall be raised vp, and that shall die that is corrupt.

32 And the earth shall restore those that haue slept in her, and so shall the dust those that dwell therein in silence, and the secret places shall deliuer those the soules that were committed vnto them.

33 And the most highest shall be openly declared vpon the seate of iudgement, and all miserie shall banish away, and long sufkring ‖ shalbe gathered together. ‖Or, haue an ende.

34 But the iudgement shall continue, the trueth shall remaine, and faith shal ware strong,

35 The worke shall followe, and the reward shalbe shewed, the ‖ righteousnesse shal watch, and the vnrighteousnesse shall beare no rule. ‖Or, the good deeds shall be of force.

36 Then sayde I, Abraham prayed * first for the Sodomites, and * Moses for the fathers that sinned in the wildernesse, Gen. 18.13 Exo. 23.11

37 And they that came after him, for Israel, in the time of Achas and Samuel, 38 And * Dauid for the destruction, and * Solomon for them that came into the sanctuarie, 2. Reg. 24. 17. 2. Chron. 6.14.

39 And * Helias for those that receiued raine, and for the dead, that he might liue, 3. King. 17. 21.

40 And * Ezechias for the people in the time of Sennacherib, and diuers other in like maner, whith haue prayed for many. 4. Kin. 9.15

41 Euen so nowe, seeing the ‖ corrupt is growen vp, and wickednesse increased, and the righteous haue prayed for the vngodly: wherefore shall it not be so now also? ‖Or, vice.

42 He answered mee and said, This present life is not the ende, oft times honour is retained in it: therefore haue they prayed for the weake.

43 But the day of dome shall bee the ende of this time, and the beginning of the immortalitie for to come, wherein all corruption shall be banished.

44 Intemperancie shall be loosed, infidelitie be cut off, righteousnesse growe, and the veritie spring vp.

45 Then shall no man be able to saue him that is destroyed, nor to oppresse him that hath gotten the victorie.

46 I answered then, and sayde, This is my first and last saying, that it had bene better not to haue giuen the earth vnto Adam: or else when it was giuen him, to haue kept him that he should not haue sinned.

47 For what profite is it for men nowe in this present time to liue in beastinesse, and after death to ‖ looke for punishment? ‖Or, feare.

48 O thou Adam, what hast thou done? For * though it was thou that sinned, thou art not fallen alone, but wee all that come of thee. Rom. 5.15.

49 For what profite is it vnto vs, if there be promised vs an immortall ‖ time, whereas we doe the workes that bring death. ‖Or, life.

50 And

50 And that there is prouided vs an euerlasting hope, whereas our liues are euil and hatue:

51 And that there is laied vp for vs dwellings of health and saferie, whereas we haue liued wickedly:

52 And that the glory of the highest is kept to defend them which haue led a patient life, whereas we haue walked in the most wicked waies of all:

53 And that there should bee shewed a paradise, whose fruit endureth foreuer, wherein is safetie and medicine, whereas wee shall not goe in:

54 (For wee haue walked in vnpleasant places,)

55 And that the faces of them which haue abstained, shall shine aboue the starres: whereas our faces shalbe blacker then darkenesse:

56 For whyle we liued and did vnrighteously, wee considered not that wee should suffer therefore after death.

57 Then answered he me, and said, This is the maner of the battaile, which man that is borne vpon the earth shall fight, 58 That if he be ouercome, hee shall suffer as thou hast said: but if he get the victorie, he shal receiue the thing that I say.

59 For this is the life whereof Moses spake vnto the people while he liued, saying, Chuse thee life, that thou mayest liue.

Deu.30.16

60 Neuertheleſſe they beleeued him not, neither the Prophets after him, no nor mee which haue said vnto them,

61 That heauinesse should not so be vnto their destruction, like as ioy is for to come ouer those ‖ that haue suffered themselues to be enformed in saluation.

‖ Or, to whom saluation is perswaded.

62 I answered then, and sayd, I know, Lorde, that the highest is called mercifull, in that hee hath mercy vpon them which are not yet come vnto that world, 63 And vpon those also that walke in his lawe.

64 And that he is *patient, for he long suffereth those ẏ haue sinned, as his creatures.

Ioel.2.4.

65 And that he is liberal to giue, whereas need requireth.

66 And that he is of great mercy: for hee palleth in mercy much both those that are present, and that are past, & also them which are for to come.

67 For if hee multiplied not his mercies, the world could not continue his being with those that haue inheritance therein.

68 Hee ‖ giueth also: for if hee gaue not of his goodnes, that they which haue done euil, might bee eased from their wickednesse, the ten thousand part of men should not remaine liuing.

‖ Or, forgiueth.

69 And if he, being iudge, forgaue not those that be healed with his word, and tooke not away the multitude of contentions, 70 There should bee very fewe left, peraduenture in an innumerable multitude.

The viij. Chapter.

7 The workes of God are excellent. 20 Esdras prayeth for him and for his people. 39 The promise of saluation vnto the iust.

AND he answered me, saying, The most highest made this world for many, but the world to come for few.

2 I will tell thee a similitude, Esdras. As when thou askest the earth, it shal say vnto thee that it giueth much ‖ moulde whereof earthen vessels are made, but litle of it that gold commeth of: euen so is it with the worke of this world.

‖ Or, earthie matter.

3 There be many created, but few shalbe saued.

Mat.20.16.

4 Then answered I, and said, Then swallow vp the wit (O my soule) and deuoure the vnderstanding:

5 For thou art agreed to hearken & to giue eare, and willing to prophecie: for thou hast no longer space but this life giuen thee.

6 O Lord, if thou suffer not thy seruant to entreat thee, that thou maiest giue seed vnto our heart, and build our vnderstanding, that there may come fruit of it, wherby each man may liue that is corrupt: then who shall step foorth in the place of man?

7 For thou art alone, & we all one worke-manship of thy hands, like as thou hast said.

8 For when the body is fashioned now in the mothers wombe, & thou giuest the members, thy creature is preserued in fire and water, and nine moneths doeth thy worke suffer thy creature which is fashioned in her:

9 But the thing that keepeth, and that is kept, shall both bee preserued: and when the time commeth, the wombe preserued deliuereth vp the things that grew in it.

10 For thou hast commanded the parts of the body, euen the breasts, to giue milke vnto the fruit of the breasts:

11 That the thing which is created & fashioned, may be nourished for a time, til thou disposest and ordereſt it with thy mercy.

12 And then thou bringest it vp with thy righteousnesse, nurturest it in thy lawe, and reformest it with thy vnderstanding.

13 ‖ Mortifiest it as thy creature, and makest it liuing as thy worke.

‖ Or, slaiest.

14 Seeing then that thou destroyest him which with so great labour is created and fashioned through thy commaundement, thou couldest lightly ordaine also that the thing which is made, might be preserued.

15 Now therefore, Lorde, I will speake, (for concerning all men in general thou shalt rather prouide) but touching thy people, for whose sake I am sory,

16 And thine inheritance, for whose cause I mourne, & Israel, for whom I am wofull, and Iacob, for whose sake I am grieued:

17 Therefore begin I to pray before thee for my selfe, and for them: for I see the faults of vs that dwell in the land.

18 But I haue heard the ‖ swiftnesse of the

the iudge which is to come.

19 Therefore heare my voyce, and vnderstand my wordes, & I shall speake before thee. This is the beginning of the wordes of Esdras, before he was taken vp:

20 O Lorde, thou that dwellest in euerlastingnes, which beholdest from aboue things in the heauen and in the aire:

21 whose throne is inestimable, whose glory and maiestie may not be comprehended, before whom the hostes of angels stand with trembling,

22 whose keeping is turned in wind and fire, whose word is true, whose sayings are stedfast, whose commaunde ment is strong, whose ordinance is fearefull,

23 whose looke driueth vp the depths, whose wrath maketh the mountains to melt away, and ‖ whose trueth beareth witnesse:

‖Or, as the effect it self beareth witnesse.

24 O heare the prayer of thy seruant, and marke with thine eares the petition of thy creature.

25 For whyle I liue, I will speake, and so long as I haue vnderstanding, I will answere.

26 O looke not vpon the sinnes of thy people, rather then on them which serue thee in trueth.

27 Haue no respect vnto the wicked studies of the heathen: but to the desire of those that keepe thy testimonies with afflictions.

28 Thinke not vpon those that haue walked fainedly before thee: but remember them which according to thy wil haue knowen thy feare.

29 Let it not bee thy will to destroy them which haue had beastly maners: but to looke vpon the that haue clearly taught thy law.

30 Take thou no indignation at them which ‖ are worse then beasts: but loue them that alway put their trust in thy righteousnesse and glory.

‖Or, appeare.

31 For wee and our fathers haue all the same sickenesse and disease, but because of vs sinners, thou shalt be called mercifull.

32 For if thou hast mercy vpon vs, thou shalt bee called mercifull to vs that haue no workes of righteousnesse.

33 For the righteous which haue layd vp many good works together, shall out of their deeds receiue reward.

34 But what is man that thou shouldest take displeasure at him? Or what is this corruptible and mortall generation, that thou shouldest be so rough toward him?

35 For of a *trueth there is no man among them that be borne, but he hath delt wickedly, and among the ‖ faithfull, there is none which hath not done amisse.

3.Re.8.46. 2.chr.6.36.

‖Or, such as confesse thee.

36 For in this, O Lord, thy righteousnes and thy goodnes shalbe prayed and declared, if thou be merciful vnto them which ‖ are not rich in good works.

‖Or, haue not the substance of good works.

37 Then answered he mee, & said, Some things hast thou spoken aright, & according vnto thy words it shall be.

38 For I wil not verily consider the works ‖ of them which haue sinned before death, before iudgement, before destruction:

‖Or, of the wicked.

39 *But I will reioyce ouer the worke and thought of the righteous, I will remember also the pilgrimage, the saluation, and the reward that they shall haue.

Gen.44.

40 Like as I haue spoken now, so shall it come to passe.

41 For as the husbandman soweth much seede vpon the ground, and planteth many trees, and yet alway the thing that is sowen or planted, is not all kept safe, neither doeth it all take roote: euen * so is it of them that are sowen in the world, they shall not all bee saued.

Matt.13.4. and 20.16.

42 I answered then, and sayd, If I haue found grace, then let me speake.

43 Like as the husbandmans seede perisheth, if it come not vp, and receiue not thy raine in due season, or if there come too much raine vpon it, and corrupt it:

44 Euen so perisheth man also, which is created with thy handes, & is like vnto thine owne image, and to thy selfe, for whose sake thou hast made all things, and likened him vnto the husbandmans seed.

45 Bee not wroth with vs, O Lorde, but spare thy people, and haue mercy vpon thine owne inheritance: for thou wilt be merciful vnto thy creature.

46 Then answered he me, & said, Things present, are for the present, & things to come, for such as be to come.

47 For thou lackest yet much, seeing thou canst loue my creature aboue me: but I haue oft times drawen nigh vnto thee, and vnto it, but neuer to the vnrighteous.

48 In this also thou art marueilous before the highest,

49 In that thou hast humbled thy selfe as it becommeth thee, and hast not iudged thy selfe worthy to be much glorified among the righteous.

50 For many and great miseries remaine for them that in the latter time shall dwell in the world, because they ‖ haue walked in great pride.

51 But vnderstand thou for thy selfe, and seeke out the glory for such as be like thee.

52 For vnto you is paradise opened, the tree of life is planted, the time to come is prepared, plenteousnesse is made ready, the citie is builded for you, and rest is prepared, yea perfect goodnesse and wisedome.

53 The roote of euill is ‖ marked from you, the weakenes and moth is hid from you, and vnto hell fleeth corruption in forgetfulnesse.

‖Or, sealed vp.

54 Sorowes are banished away, & in the end is shewed the treasure of immortalitie.

55 And therefore aske thou no more questions concerning the multitude of them that perish.

56 For when they had taken libertie, they despised the highest, thought scorne of his law, law, and forsooke his wayes.

57 Moreouer, they haue troden down his righteous,

58 And said in their * heart, that there is no God, ‖yea and that wittingly, for they die. (Psal.14.1. ‖Or, for all they knew that they should die.)

59 For like as the thing that I haue spoken of, is made ready for you, euen so is thirst and paine prepared for them: for it was not his will that man should ‖come to nought. (‖Or, Gods. ‖Or, perish.)

60 But they which be created, haue defiled the name of him that made them, and are vnthankefull vnto him which prepared life for them.

61 And therefore is my iudgement nowe at hand.

62 These things haue I not shewed vnto all men, but vnto fewe, namely vnto thee, and to such as bee like thee. Then answered I, and said, 63 Behold, O Lord, now hast thou shewed mee the multitude of the wonders which thou wilt begin to doe in the last times: but at what time, and when, thou hast not shewed me.

The ix. Chapter.

* All things in this world haue a beginning and an end. 10 Torments for the wicked after this life. 15 The number of the wicked is more then of the good.

AND answered me then, and sayd, Measure thou the time diligently in it selfe: & when thou seest that one part of the tokens come to passe, which I haue told thee before,

2 Then shalt thou vnderstand, that it is the very same time wherein the highest will begin to visite the world which he made.

3 Therefore when there shall be seene an earthquake, and vproare of the people in the world,

4 Then shalt thou well vnderstand that the most highest spake of those things from the dayes that were before thee, euen from the beginning.

5 For like as all that is made in ỹ world, hath a beginning and ende, and the ende is manifest:

6 Euen so, the times also of the highest haue playne beginnings in wonders and signes, and end in ‖working and in tokens. (‖Or, effect & miracles.)

7 And euery one that shall bee saued, and shall be able to escape by his workes, and by faith, wherein ye haue beleeued,

8 Shalbe preserued from the sayd perils, and shal see my ‖sauiour in my land, & within my borders: for I haue halowed ‖me from the world. (‖Or, saluation. ‖Or, my self.)

9 Then shall they pitie themselues, which now haue abused my wayes: and they that haue cast them out despitefully, shall dwell in paines.

10 For such as in their life haue receiued benefites, and haue not knowen me:

11 And they that haue abhorred my law, while they had yet ‖freedome, and when they had yet open laisure of amendment (‖Or, liberrie) and conuersion, vnderstood not, but despised it:

12 The same must know it after death in paine.

13 And therefore bee thou no more ‖carefull how the vngodly shall bee punished: but enquire how the righteous shalbe saued, and whose the world is, and for whom the world is, and when it is. (‖Or, curious to know.)

14 Then answered I, and sayd,

15 *I haue said before, & nowe I speake, and will speake it also hereafter: that there be many moe of them which perish, then of them which shalbe saued: (4.Esd.8.3.)

16 Like as ỹ flood is greater then a drop.

17 And he answered me, saying, Like as the field is, so is also the seede: as the flowres be, such are the colours also: such as ỹ workeman is, such is also the worke: & as the husbandman is himselfe, so is his husbandry also: for it was the time of the world.

18 And when I prepared for them that are now, or euer the world was made, wherin they should dwel: then was there no man that spake against me.

19 For then euery one obeyed, but nowe the maners of thē which are created in this world that is made, are corrupted by a perpetuall seed, and by a lawe whereout they can not rid themselues.

20 So I considered the world, & behold, there was perill, because of the ‖thoughtes that were come into it. (‖Or, deuices.)

21 And I sawe, and spared them greatly, and haue kept mee a ‖wineberie of grapes, and a plant of a great people. (‖Or, grape of the cluster.)

22 Let the multitude perish then which are growen vp in vain, and let my grape and winebery be kept, & my plant: for with great labour haue I made it vp.

23 Neuertheless, if thou wilt cease yet seuen daies mo, but thou shalt not fast in them:

24 Go thy way then into a field of flowres, where no house is builded, and eate onely of the flowres of the field, taste no flesh, drinke no wine, but eate flowres onely,

25 And pray vnto the highest continually, so will I come and talke with thee.

26 So I went my way, and came into the field which is called Ardath, like as hee commaunded mee, and there I sate among the flowres, and did eate of the herbs of the field, and the meate of the same satisfied me.

27 After seuen dayes I sate vpon ỹ grasse, and my heart was vered within mee like as before,

28 And I opened my mouth, and began to talke with the most highest, and said,

29 *O Lorde, thou that shewest thy selfe vnto vs, thou hast declared and opened thy selfe vnto our fathers in the wildernesse, in a place where no man dwelleth, in a barren place, when they came out of Egypt: (Exod.19.9. and 24. deut.4.12.)

30 And thou spakest, saying, Heare me, O Israel, and marke my wordes, thou seede of Iacob.

31 For

31 For behold, I sow my law in you, and it shall bring fruite in you, and ye shall be honoured in it for euer.

32 But our fathers which receiued the lawe, kept it not, and obserued not thy ordinances and statutes, and the fruit of thy law did not appeare, neither could it: for why? it was thine.

Deu.32.28 33 For *they that receiued it, perished, because they kept not the thing that was sowen in them.

34 And lo, it is a custome when ye ground receiueth seede, or the sea a ship, or a vessell meate and drinke: that when it perisheth, or is broken, wherein a thing is sowen, or wherein any thing is put,

35 The things also perish and are broken, which are sowen or put therein and receiued, and the things that are receiued, remain not then with vs: but in vs it hath not happened so.

36 For we that haue receiued the law, perish in sinne, and our heart which also receiued the lawe:

Esa.48.3. 37 Notwithstanding, the *law perisheth
2.tim.2.2. not, but remaineth in his force.

38 And when I spake these things in my heart after this maner, I looked about me with mine eyes, and vpon the right side I sawe a 4.Es.10.44 *woman which mourned sore, made great lamentation, & wept with loude voyce, and was grieued in heart, and rent her clothes, and she had ashes vpon her head.

39 Then let I my thoughtes goe that I was in, and turned me vnto her, 40 And said, Wherfore weepest thou? why art thou so sory in mind?

41 And she sayd vnto mee, Sir, let mee alone, that I may bewaile my selfe, & take yet my sorowe, for I am sore vexed in my minde, and brought very lowe.

42 And I sayde vnto her, What ayleth thee? Or who hath done any thing to thee? tell me.

43 She sayd vnto me, I thy seruant haue bene vnfruitfull and barren, and haue had no child, though I haue had an husband thirtie yeeres.

44 And these thirtie yeeres I do nothing els day and night, and all houres, but make my prayer to the highest.

45 After thirtie yeeres God heard me thy handmaiden, looked vpon my miserie, considered my trouble, and gaue me a sonne: and I was glad of him, so was my husband also, and all my neighbours, and wee gaue great honour vnto the almightie.

46 And I nourished him with great trauaile.

47 So when hee grewe vp, and came to ‖Or, take. the time that he should ‖ haue a wife, I made a feast.

The x. Chapter.

Esdras & the woman that appeareth vnto him, commune together.

AND it so came to passe, that whe my sonne went into his chamber, he fell downe, and died.

2 Then ouerthrewe we all the lights, & all my neighbors rose vp to comfort mee: then tooke I my rest vnto the second day at night.

3 And when they had all left off to comfort me, that I should be quiet: then I rose vp by night, and fled, and am come hither into this field, as thou seest,

4 And am purposed not to returne into the citie, but to remaine here, and neither to eate nor drinke, but continually to mourne, and to fast vntill I die.

5 Then let I my meditation & thoughts fal that I was in, and spake to her in displeasure, saying,

6 Thou foolish woman aboue all other, seest thou not our heauinesse and mourning, and what happeneth vnto vs?

7 How Sion our mother is all wofull and sorie, and how she is cleane brought downe, and mourneth extremely?

8 Seeing we bee all nowe in heauinesse, and make our mone, for we all be sorowfull: art thou so heauie for one sonne?

9 Demaund the earth, and shee shall tell thee, that it is shee which ought by reason to mourne for the fall of so many that grow vpon her.

10 For from the beginning all men are borne of her, and other shal come: and behold, they walke almost all into destruction, and the multitude of them shalbe rooted out.

11 Who should then by reason make more mourning, then shee that hath lost so great a multitude, and not thou which art sorie but for one?

12 But if thou wouldest say vnto me, My mourning is not like the mourning of the earth: for I haue lost the fruite of my ‖ body, ‖Or, wõbe which I brought forth with heauinesse, and bare with sorowes:

13 But the earth is according to ye maner of the earth, and the present multitude goeth againe into her, ‖ as it is come to passe: ‖Or, as it is accustomed.

14 Then say I vnto thee, Like as thou hast borne with trauaile and sorow, euen so the earth also from the beginning giueth her fruite vnto man, euen to him that laboureth her.

15 *And therfore withhold thy sorow and Heb.12.2.
heauinesse by thy selfe, and looke what happeneth vnto thee, beare it ‖ strongly. ‖Or, constantly.

16 For if thou iudgest the marke and end of God to bee righteous and good, and receiuest his counsell in time, thou shalt bee commended herein. 4.Esd.5

17 Goe thy way then into the citie, to thy husband.

18 And she sayd vnto me, That will I not do: I will not go into the citie, but here will I die.

19 So I communed more with her, and sayd,

20 Doe

20 Doe not so, but be counselled, and follow me: for how many talles hath Sion? Be of good comfort, because of the sorow of Hierusalem.

21 For thou seest that our sanctuarie is laid waste, our altar broken, our temple destroyed,

22 Our playing of instruments is layde downe, & songs are put to silence, our mirth is vanished away, the light of our candlestick is quenched, the arke of our couenant is taken from vs, all our holy things are defiled, and the name that is called vpon ouer vs, is almost dishonoured: our children are put to shame, our priests are burnt, our Leuits are caried away into captiuitie, our virgins are defiled, and our wiues rauished, our righteous men spoiled, & our children destroied, our young men are brought in bondage, and our strong worthies are become weake:

23 And Sion our seale, which is ỹ greatest of all, is loosed vp from her worship: for she is deliuered into the hands of them that hate vs.

24 And therefore shake off thy great heauines, and put away ỹ multitude of sorowes, that the mightie may be merciful vnto thee, and that the highest may giue thee rest and ease from thy labour and trauaile.

25 And when I was talking with her, her face and beautie shined sodainly, and her countenance glittered, so that I was afraid of her, and mused what it might be.

26 And immediatly shee cast out a great voyce, very fearefull, so that the earth shooke at the noise of the woman.

27 And I looked, and behold, the woman appeared vnto me no more: but there was a citie builded, and a place was shewed from the ground & foundatiõ: then was I afraid, and cried with a loud voyce, and said,

4 Esd. 4. 28 Where is Vriel the angell, * which came to me at the first? For he hath caused me to come in many considerations and high thoughts, and mine end is turned to corruption, and my prayer to rebuke.

29 And as I was speaking these wordes, he came vnto me, and looked vpon me:

30 And loe, I lay as one that had bin dead, and mine vnderstanding was altered: and he tooke me by the right hand, and comforted me, and set me vpon my feet, and said vnto me, 31 What aileth thee? and why is thine vnderstanding vered, and the vnderstãding of thy heart? and wherefore art thou sory?

4 Esd. 5. 32 And I said, * Because thou hast forsaken me, and I haue done according vnto thy words, I went into the field, and there haue I seene thinges, and see that I am not able to expresse, 33 He said vnto me, Stand vp, & be manly, and I shall giue thee exhortation.

34 Then said I, Speake on to me, my Lord, forsake me not, least I die through my rashnesse:

35 For I haue seene that I knew not, & heare that I doe not know:

36 Or is my vnderstanding deceiued, or doeth my soule dreame?

37 Now therefore I beseech thee, that thou wilt shew thy seruant of this wonder.

38 He answered mee then, & said, Heare me, and I shall informe thee, and tell thee wherefore thou art afraide: for the highest hath opened many secret things vnto thee,

39 Hee hath seene that thy ‖ way is right, for that thou takest sorowe continually for thy people, and makest great lamentation for Sion. ‖ or, purpose

40 And therefore vnderstand the vision which thou sawest a little while agoe, after this maner:

41 Thou sawest a woman mourning, & thou begannest to comfort her.

42 Neuertheles, now seest thou the likenesse of the woman no more, but there appeared vnto thee a citie builded:

43 And where shee tolde thee of the fall of her sonne, so is this the solution of it:

44 This woman whom thou sawest, is Sion: and whereas she tolde thee, (euen she whom thou seest now is a citie builded)

45 And as touching that she saide vnto thee, that she hath bin thirtie yeres vnfruitfull and barren: those are the thirtie yeeres wherein there was no offering made in her.

46 But after thirtie yeeres, Salomon builded the citie, and offered offerings: & then bare the barren a sonne.

47 And whereas shee tolde thee that she nourished him with labour: that was the dwelling in Hierusalem.

48 But whereas shee tolde thee that her sonne died as his chance was, when she came into her chamber: that is the fal that is come to Hierusalem.

49 And behold, when thou sawest her like one that mourned for her sonne, & begannest to comfort her: of these things which haue chanced, these are to be opened vnto thee.

50 For now the most highest seeth that thou art sorie in thy mind, and sufferest from thy whole heart for her, and so hath she shewed thee her clearenesse, and the fairenesse of her beautie.

51 And therefore I bade thee remaine in the field where no house was builded.

52 For I knew that the highest would shew this vnto thee.

53 Therefore I commaunded thee to goe into the field where no foundation nor building is.

54 For in the place where the highest beginneth to shew his citie, there can no mans building be able to stand.

55 And therefore feare not, and let not thine heart be afraid, but go thy way in, and see the beautie and greatnes of the building, as much as thine eyes be able to see.

56 And then shalt thou heare as much as thine eares may comprehend.

57 For thou art blessed aboue many other, & art called with the highest as the few.
58 But to morowe at night thou shalt remaine here:
59 And so shall the highest shew thee visions of the high things, which he will do vnto them that dwell vpon the earth in the last dayes. So I slept the same night and another, like as he commanded me.

The xi. Chapter.

1 The vision of an Eagle comming forth of the sea, and of her feathers. 37 Of a Lion comming out of the forest.

THen sawe I a dreame, and behold, there came vp from the sea an Egle, which had twelue feathered winges, and three heades.
2 And I sawe, and behold, she spread her winges ouer all the earth, and all ỹ windes of the aire blewe on her, and gathered them togither.
3 And I beheld, and out of her feathers there grewe other contrary feathers, and they became little feathers, and small.
4 But her heades remained still, the head in the middest was greater then the other, yet rested it with the residue.
5 Moreouer, I sawe that the Eagle flewe with her winges, and reigned vpon earth, and ouer al them that dwelt vpon the earth.
6 And I sawe that all thinges vnder heauen were subiect vnder her, and no man spake against her, no not one creature vpon earth.
7 I sawe also that the Egle stood vp vpon her clawes, and ‖ gaue a sound with her feathers, and a voyce, saying after this maner, ‖ Or, spake to her feathers, saying.
8 Watch not al together, sleep euery man in his owne place, and watch by course.
9 But let the heades be preserued for the last.
10 Neuertheless, I sawe that the voyce went not out of her heads, but from the middest of her body.
11 And I numbred her contrary feathers, and behold, there were eight of them.
12 And I looked, and beholde, vpon the right side there arose one feather, and reigned ouer all the earth.
13 And so it was that when it reigned, the end of it came, and the place thereof appeared no more: so the nert following stoode vp, and reigned, and had a great time.
14 And it happened that when it reigned, the end of it came also like as the first, so that it appeared no more.
15 Then came there a voice vnto it, & said,
16 Heare thou that hast kept the earth so long, this I say vnto thee before thou beginnest to appeare no more,
17 There shall none after thee attaine vnto thy time, neither vnto the halfe therof.
18 Then arose the third, and reigned as the other afore: and appeared no more also.
19 So went it with all the residue one after an other, so that euery one reigned, and then appeared no more.
20 Then I looked, and behold, in processe of time the feathers that followed stoode vpon the right side, that they might rule also, and some of them ruled: but within a while they appeared no more.
21 For some of them were set vp, but ruled not.
22 After this I looked, and beholde, the twelue feathers appeared no more, nor the two wings:
23 And there was no more vpon the Egles body, but two heades that rested, and fiue winges.
24 Then sawe I also that two winges deuided themselues from the fiue, and remayned vnder the head that was vpon the right side: for the foure continued in their place.
25 So I looked, and behold, the feathers that were vnder the wing, thought to set vp themselues, and to haue the rule.
26 Then was there one set vp, but shortly it appeared no more.
27 And the second was sooner away then the first.
28 And I beheld, & loe, the two that remained, thought also in thẽselues to reigne:
29 And when they so thought, beholde, there awaked one of ỹ heades ỹ were at rest, namely it that was in the middest: for that was greater then the two other heades.
30 And then I sawe that the two heades were ioyned with him:
31 And the head was turned with them that were with him, and did eate vp the two vnder winges that would haue reigned.
32 But this head put the whole earth in feare, and bare rule in it ouer all those that dwelt vpon the earth, with much labour: and he had the gouernance of the world ouer all the winges that had bene.
33 After this I looked, and beholde, the head that was in the middest, suddenly appeared no more, like as the wings.
34 But there remained the two heades which ruled vpon earth, and ouer those that dwelt therein.
35 And I beheld, and loe, the head vpon the right side, deuoured it that was vpon the left side.
36 Then I heard a voyce which said vnto me, Looke before thee, and consider the thing that thou seest.
37 Then I sawe, and behold as it were a Lion that roareth, running hastily out of the wood: and I sawe that he sent out a mans voyce vnto the Egle, and said,
38 Heare thou, I will talke with thee, and the hyest shall say vnto thee,
39 ‖ Is it not thou that hast the victory of ỹ foure beastes, whome I made to reigne vpon earth and in my world, that the ende of their times might come through them?
‖ Or, art not thou he that remainest of the foure beasts?
40 And the fourth came, and ouerranne all all the beasts that were past, and had power ouer the world with great fearefulnesse, and ouer the whole compasse of the earth with most wicked oppression, & so long time dwelt he vpon the earth with deceit.

41 For the earth hast thou not iudged with trueth.

42 For thou hast troubled the meeke, thou hast hurt the peaceable and quiet, thou hast loued liers, & destroyed the dwellings of them that brought forth fruite, and hast cast downe the walles of such as did thee no harme.

43 Therefore is thy wrongfull dealing and blasphemie come vp vnto the highest, and thy pride vnto the mightie.

44 The highest also hath looked vpon the proude times, and beholde, they are ended, and their abominations are fulfilled.

45 And therefore appeare no more thou Egle, and thy horrible wings, and thy wicked feathers, and thy vngratious heads, and thy sinfull clawes, and all thy vaine body:

46 That the earth may be refreshed, and come againe to her selfe, when she is deliuered from thy violence, and that she may hope for the iudgement and mercie of him that made her.

The xij. Chapter.
The declaration of the former visions.

AND it happened when the Lion spake these wordes vnto the Egle, I sawe:

2 And beholde, the head that afore had ỹ vpper hand, appeared no more, neither did the foure wings appeare any more that came to him, and were set vp to reigne, and their kingdome was small, and full of vprore.

3 And I saw, and beholde, they appeared no more, and the whole body of the Egle was burnt, so that the earth was in great feare: then awaked I out of the trouble & traunce of my minde, and from great feare, and saide vnto my spirite,

4 Loe, this hast thou giuen mee, in that thou searchest out the wayes of the highest.

5 Loe, yet am I wearie in my minde, and very weake in my spirite, and little strength is there in mee, for the great feare that I receiued this night.

6 Therefore wil I now beseech the highest, that he wil comfort me vnto the end.

7 And I sayd, Lord, Lord, if I haue found grace before thy sight, and if I am iustified with thee before many other, and if my prayer indeede be come vp before thy face:

8 Comfort me then, and shew me thy seruant the interpretation & plaine difference of this horrible sight, that thou mayest perfectly comfort my soule:

9 For thou hast iudged me worthy to shew me the last times.

10 And hee sayd vnto mee, This is the interpretation of this sight:

11 The Egle whom thou sawest come vp from the sea, is the kingdome which was seene in the * vision of thy brother Daniel: Dan.7.7.

12 But it was not expounded vnto him, therefore now I declare it vnto thee.

13 Behold, the dayes wil come, that there shall rise vp a kingdome vpon earth, and it shall be feared aboue all the kingdomes that were before it.

14 In ‖ the same kingdome shall twelue kings reigne one after another. ‖Or, it.

15 Wherefore the second shall beginne to reigne, and shall haue more time then the other twelue.

16 And this do the twelue wings signifie which thou sawest.

17 As for the voyce which thou heardest speake, and that thou sawest not to goe out from the heads, but from the middes of the body thereof, it betokeneth, 18 That after the time of that kingdome, there shall arise great striuings, and it shall stand in peril of falling: neuertheless, it shall not then fall, but shal be restored againe into his beginning.

19 And the eight feathers vnder ỹ wings, which thou sawest hang vnto her wings, betoken, 20 That in him there shall arise eight kings, whose time shall be but small, & their yeeres swift, and two of them shall perish.

21 But when the midst time commeth, there shalbe foure kept for a time, whilest ‖ his time beginneth to come, that it may be ended: but two shalbe kept vnto the end. ‖Or, ech his time beginneth.

22 And whereas thou sawest three heads resting, this is the interpretation:

23 In his last dayes shall the most high raise vp three kingdomes, and call many things againe into them, and they shal haue the dominion of the earth,

24 And of those that dwell therein, with much ‖ labour, aboue all those that were before them: therefore are they called the heads of the Egle. ‖Or, griefe.

25 For it is they that shal ‖ bring forth his wickednes againe, and that shall performe and finish his last. ‖or, accompliſh his wickednes.

26 And whereas thou sawest that ỹ great head appeared no more, it signifieth that one of them shall die vpon his bed, and yet with payne.

27 For the two that remaine shalbe slaine with the sword.

28 For the sword of the one shall deuoure the other: but at the last shall he fall through the sword himselfe.

29 And whereas thou sawest two feathers vnder the wings, passing towarde the head that is on the right side, 30 It signifieth, that it is they whom the highest hath kept vnto their ende: this is the small kingdome, and full of trouble, as thou sawest.

31 And the Lion whome thou sawest rising vp out of the wood, and roring, and speaking to the Egle, & rebuking her for her vnrighteousnesse, with all the wordes which thou hast heard,

32 Is the winde which the highest hath kept for them and for their wickednesse vnto the end: he shal reproue them, and cast before them their owne spoylings.

33 For hee shall set them alive in iudgement, and shall rebuke them, and correct them.

34 For the residue of my people shal he deliuer by trouble, those that be preserued vpon my borders, and hee shall make them ioyfull vntill the comming of the day of iudgement, whereof I haue spoken vnto thee from the beginning.

35 This is the dreame that thou sawest, and these are the interpretations.

36 Thou only hast bene meete to know this secret of the highest.

37 Therefore write all these thinges that thou hast seene in a booke, and hide them, 38 And teach them to the wise of the people, whose hearts thou knowest may comprehend and keepe these secrets.

39 But waite thou here thy selfe yet seuen dayes moe, that it may be shewed thee whatsoeuer it pleaseth the highest to declare vnto thee. And with that he went his way.

40 And when al the people perceiued that the seuen dayes were past, and I not come againe into the citie, they gathered them all together from the least vnto the most, & came vnto me, and said, 41 What haue we offended thee? & what euill haue we done against thee, that thou forsakest vs, and sittest here in this place?

42 For of all the people thou only art left vs, as a grape of the vine, & as a candle in a darke place, and as an hauen or ship preserued from the tempest.

43 Haue we not els aduersitie inough?

44 If thou shalt forsake vs, were it not better for vs that wee had bene burnt with Sion?

45 For wee are not better then they that died there. And they wept with loude voyce. Then answered I them, and sayd, 46 Be of good comfort, O Israel, and be not heauie, thou house of Iacob.

47 For the highest hath you in remembrance, and the mightie hath not forgotten you in temptation.

48 As for mee I haue not forsaken you, neither am I departed from you: but am come into this place to pray, because of the miserie of Sion, that I might seeke mercie for the low estate of your sanctuarie.

49 And nowe goe your way home euery man, and after these dayes will I come vnto you.

50 So the people went their way into the citie, like as I commanded them:

51 But I remained stil in the fielde seuen dayes, as ‖ the Angel bade mee, and did eate onely of the flowres of the fielde, and had my meate of the herbes in those dayes.

‖ Or, he.

The xiij. Chapter.

2 The vision of a winde comming foorth of the sea, 3 Which became a man. 5 His propertie and power against his enemies. 21 The declaration of this vision.

AND after the seuen dayes, I dreamed a dreame by night.

2 And beholde, there arose a winde from the sea, that it moued all the waues thereof.

3 And I looked, and beholde, there was a strong man with the thousands of heauen: and when hee turned his countenance to looke, all the things trembled that were seene vnder him:

4 And when the voyce went out of his mouth, all they burnt that heard his voyce, like as the earth faileth when it feeleth the fire.

5 After these I sawe, and beholde, there was gathered together a multitude of men out of number, from the foure windes of the heauen, to fight against the man that came out of the sea.

6 And I looked, and beholde, hee graued himselfe a great mountaine, and flew vp vpon it.

7 But I would haue seene the region or place whereout the hill was grauen, and I could not.

8 And I sawe after these, that all they which came to fight against him, were sore afraid, and yet durst they fight.

9 Neuertheselfe, when he sawe the fiercenesse and violence of the people that came, he neither lift vp his hand, ‖ nor helde sworde, nor any weapon:

‖ Or, for he helde no sworde nor any instrument of warre.

10 But only, as I sawe, he sent out of his mouth as it had bin a blast of fire, and out of his lips the wind of the flame, and out of his tongue he cast out sparkes and stormes.

11 And they were all mixt together: the blast of fire, the wind of the flame, & the great storme: and fel with ‖ a rush vpon the people which was prepared to fight, & burnt them vp euery one, so that of the innumerable multitude, there was nothing seene but onely dust and smel of smoke: when I sawe this, I was afraid.

‖ Or, violence

12 Afterward sawe I the same man come downe from the mountaine, and calling vnto him another peaceable ‖ people.

‖ Or, multitude.

13 And there came much people vnto him, some were glad, some were sory, some of them were bound, and other some brought of them that were offered: then was I sicke through great feare, and I awaked, and sayd,

14 Thou hast shewed thy seruant these wonders from the beginning, & hast counted mee worthie that thou mightest receiue my prayer:

15 Shew me now yet the interpretation of this dreame.

16 For thus I conclude in mine vnderstanding: wo vnto them that shall be left in those dayes, and much more woe vnto them that are not left behind:

17 For

17 For they that were not left, were in heauinesse.

18 Nowe vnderstand I the things that are layde vp in the latter dayes, which shall happen vnto them, and to those that are left behinde.

19 Therefore are they come into great perils, & many necessities, like as these dreames declare.

20 Yet is it easier that he which is in danger, fall into these, & nowe to see that which shall chaunce hereafter, then to passe out of this world as a cloud. Then answered he me, and sayde, 21 The interpretation of the sight shall I shewe thee, and I will open vnto thee the thing that thou hast required.

22 Whereas thou hast spoken of them that are left behind, this is the interpretation, 23 He that beareth the peril in that time, hath kept himselfe: they that be fallen into danger, are such as haue workes and faith vnto the most mightie.

24 Know this therefore, that they which be left behind, are more blessed then they that be dead.

25 ‖This is the meaning of the vision, whereas thou sawest a man comming vp from the ‖deepe of the sea, ‖Or, these are the meanings. ‖Or, middest.

26 The same is he whom God the highest hath kept a great season, which by his owne selfe shall deliuer his creature: and hee shall order them that are left behinde.

27 And whereas thou sawest, that out of his mouth there came as a blast of wind, fire and storme:

28 And how that he lift vp neither sword nor weapon, but that the ‖rushing in of him destroyed the whole multitude that came to fight against him: it signifieth, ‖Or, fierce rushing.

29 That the dayes come, when the most highest will begin to deliuer them that are vpon earth:

30 And ‖in a traunce of mind shal he come vpon them that dwell in the earth. ‖Or, he shal astonish the hearts of them. Mat.24.7.

31 And one shall vndertake to * fight against another: one citie against another, one place against another, one people against another, and one realme against another.

32 When this commeth to passe, then shal the tokens come that I shewed thee before: and then shall my sonne be ‖declared, whom thou sawest clime vp as a man. ‖Or, reuealed.

33 And when al the people heare his voice, euery man shall in their owne land leaue the battell they haue one against another:

34 And an innumerable multitude shall be gathered together, as they that be willing to come, and to ouercome him by fighting.

35 But he shall stand vpon the top of the mount Sion.

36 And Sion shall come, & shalbe shewed to all men, being prepared and builded, like as thou sawest the hill grauen forth without any hands.

37 And this my sonne shall rebuke those nations which are fallen into the tempest, for their wickednes and euill imaginations, 38 And into torments like to flame, wherwith they shalbe punished: and without any labour shall he destroy them, euen by the law, which is compared vnto the fire.

39 And whereas thou sawest, that he gathered another peaceable people vnto him, 40 Those are the ten tribes which were caried away prisoners out of their owne land in the time of Oseas the king whome * Salmanasar the king of Assyria tooke prisoners, and caried them ‖ouer the water, and so came they into another land. 4.Reg.17.3 ‖Or, beyond the riuer.

41 But they tooke this counsaile among them selues, that they would leaue the multitude of the heathen, & to go forth into a further countrey, where neuer mankind dwelt:

42 That they might there keepe their statutes, which they neuer kept in their owne land:

43 And so they entred in at the narrowe passages of the riuer of Euphrates.

44 For the most highest then shewed * tokens for them, and held still the flood till they were passed ouer. Iosu.3.15.

45 For thorow the countrey there was a great way, namely of a yere & an halfes iourney: and the same region is called Arsareth.

46 Then dwelt they there vntil the latter time: and when they come forth againe, 47 The highest shall hold still the springs of the streame againe, that they may goe thorowe: therefore sawest thou the multitude with peace.

48 But they that be left behinde of thy people, are those that are found within my borders.

49 Nowe when he destroyeth the multitude of the nations that are gathered together, he shal defend his people that remaine:

50 And then shall hee shewe them great wonders.

51 Then said I, O Lord, Lord, shewe me this: wherefore haue I seene the man comming vp from the ‖deepe of the sea? ‖Or, middest 52 And he said vnto me, Like as thou canst neither seeke out nor knowe the things that are in the deepe of the sea: euen so can no man vpon earth see my Sonne, or those that bee with him, but in the time of ‖the day. ‖Or, that day.

53 This is the interpretation of ỹ dreame which thou sawest, and whereby thou onely art here lightned.

54 For thou hast forsaken thine owne lawe, and applied thy diligence vnto mine, and sought it.

55 Thy life hast thou ordered in wisdome, and hast called vnderstanding thy mother:

56 And therefore haue I shewed thee the treasures of the highest. After other three dayes I wil shewe thee more, and talke with thee more at large, yea, heauie and wonderous things wil I declare vnto thee.

57 Then went I forth into the fielde, giuing prayse and thankes greatly vnto God, because of his wonders which hee did in time,

58 And because hee gouerneth the same, and such things as fall in their seasons: and there I sate three dayes.

The xiiij. Chapter.

3 Howe God appeared to Moses in the bush. 10 All things decline to age. 16 The latter age worse then the former. 29 The ingratitude of Israel. 35 The resurrection and iudgement.

Upon the third day I sate vnder an oke tree, then came there a voyce vnto me out of the bush, and said, Esdras, Esdras.

2 And I sayd, Here am I, Lord: and stood vp vpon my feete.

Exo.3.1. 3 Then sayde he vnto me, In the * bush did I appeare vnto Moses, and talked with him when my people serued in Egypt.

4 And I sent him, and led my people out of Egypt, and brought him vp to the mount Sinai, where I helde him by mee a long season:

5 And told him many wonderous workes, and shewed him the secrets of the times, and the ende, and commaunded him, saying,

6 These wordes shalt thou declare, and these shalt thou hide.

7 And nowe I say vnto thee,

8 That thou lay vp in thine heart the signes that I haue shewed, and the dreames that thou hast seene, and the interpretations which thou hast heard.

9 For thou shalt be taken away from among all, and hencefoorth thou shalt remaine with my counsaile, and with such as be like thee, vntill the times be ended.

10 For the world hath lost his youth, and the times begin to ware olde.

11 For the world is deuided into twelue parts, and the ten parts of it are gone already, and halfe of a tenth part.

12 And there remaineth there that which

|Or, that. is after the halfe of || the tenth part.

13 Therefore set thine house in order, and reforme thy people, comfort such of them as be in trouble, and now renounce corruption.

14 Let goe from thee mortall thoughts, cast away the burdens of men, put off the weake nature,

15 And set aside the thoughtes that are most heauie vnto thee, and haste thee to flee from these times:

Mat.24.7. 16 * For as for such euill and wickednesse as thou hast nowe seene happen, they shal doe yet much worse.

17 For the weaker that the world is by reason of age, the more shall euils encrease vpon them that dwell therein.

18 For the trueth is fled farre away, and leasing is hard at hand: For now hasteth the vision to come which thou hast seene.

19 Then answered I before thee, & sayd,

20 Beholde, Lord, I wil goe as thou hast commanded me, & reforme the people which are present: but they that shalbe borne afterward, who will admonish them? Thus the world is set in darkenesse, and they that dwell therein are without light.

21 For thy Law is burnt, therfore no man knoweth the things that are done of thee, or the workes that shalbe done.

22 But if I haue found grace before thee, sende the holy Ghost into mee, and I shall write all that hath bene done in the world since the beginning, which was written in thy Lawe, that men may finde the path, and that they which will liue in the latter dayes, may liue.

23 And he answered me, saying, Goe thy way, gather the people together, and say vnto them, that they seeke thee not for fourtie dayes.

24 But looke thou gather thee many bore trees, and take with thee Sarea, Dabria, Selemia, Ecanus, & Asiel, these fiue, which are ready to write swiftly:

25 And come hither, and I shall light a candle of vnderstanding in thine heart, which shall not be put out, til the things be performed which thou shalt begin to write.

26 And then shalt thou declare some things openly vnto the perfect, & some things shalt thou shew secretly vnto the wise: to morowe this houre shalt thou begin to write.

27 Then went I forth as he commanded me, and gathered all the people together, and sayde,

28 Heare these wordes, O Israel,

29 Our * fathers at the beginning were Gen.47.4 strangers in Egypt, from whence they were deliuered, 30 And receiued the * lawe of life, which Deut.4.5. they kept not, which yee also haue transgressed after them.

31 Then was the land, euen the land of Sion, parted among you by lot, to possesse but your fathers, and yee your selues haue done vnrighteousnes, and haue not kept the wayes which the highest commanded you:

32 And for so much as hee is a righteous iudge, hee tooke from you in time, the thing that he had giuen you.

33 And nowe are yee here, and your brethren among you.

34 Therefore, if so be that yee will subdue your owne vnderstanding, and reforme your heart, yee shall be kept aliue, and after death shall ye obteine mercie.

35 For after death shall the iudgement come when we shall liue againe: & then shall the names of the righteous be manifest, and the workes of the vngodly shalbe declared.

36 Let no man therefore come nowe vnto me, nor seeke after me these fourtie dayes.

37 So I tooke the fiue men, as hee commanded me, and we went into the fielde, and remained there.

38 The next day a voice called me, saying, Esdras, open thy mouth, and * drinke that Ezec.3.2. I giue

I giue thee to drinke.

39 Then opened I my mouth, and behold, he reached me a full cuppe, which was full as it were with water, but the colour of it was like fire.

40 And I tooke it, and dranke: and when I had dronke it, my heart had vnderstanding, and wisedom grewe in my breast: for my spirit was strengthened in remembrance.

41 And my mouth was opened, and shut no more.

42 The highest gaue vnderstanding vnto the fiue men, that they wrote ye high things of the night, which they vnderstood not.

43 But in the night they did eate bread: as for me I spake in the day, and helde not my tongue by night.

44 In fourtie dayes they wrote two hundred and foure bookes.

45 And it came to passe, when the fourtie dayes were fulfilled, that the highest spake, saying, The first that thou hast written, publish openly, that the worthie and vnworthie may reade it:

46 But keepe the seuentie last, that thou mayest deliuer them onely to such as be wise among the people.

47 For in them is the spring of vnderstanding, the fountaine of wisedome, and the streame of knowledge.

48 And I did so.

The xv. Chapter.

1 The prophecie of Esdras is certaine. 5 The euils that shall come on the world. 9 The Lord wil auenge the innocent blood.

BEhold, speake thou in the eares of my people the wordes of prophecie, which I will put in thy mouth, saith the Lord,

2 And cause them to be written in a letter: for ‖it is the trueth.

‖Or, they are faithfull and true.

3 Feare not the imaginations against thee, let not the vnfaithfulnes of them trouble thee, that speake against thee:

4 For all the vnfaithfull shall die in their vnfaithfulnesse.

5 Behold, (saieth the Lorde) I will bring plagues vpon the world, the sword, hunger, death, and destruction:

6 For wickednes hath the vpper hand in all the earth, and their shamefull workes are fulfilled:

7 Therefore sayth the Lord,

8 I will hold my tongue no more of their wickednesse, which they doe so vngodly, neither will I suffer them in ye things that they deale withall so wickedly: behold, *the innocent & righteous blood crieth vnto mee, and the soules of the iust complaine continually.

*Apoc.6,10 and 19.2.

9 And therefore, saith the Lorde, I will surely auenge, and receiue vnto me all the innocent blood from among them.

10 Behold, my people is ledde as a flocke of sheepe to be slaine, I will not suffer them nowe to dwell in the land of Egypt:

11 But wil bring them out with a mighty hand, and a stretched out arme, and smite it with plagues as afore, and will destroy all the land of it.

12 Egypt shall mourne, and the foundations of it shall be smitten with the plague and punishment that God shal bring vpon it.

13 They that til the ground shal mourne, for their seedes shall bee destroyed through the blasting and hayle, and by an horrible starre.

14 Woe woe the world, and them that dwell therein:

15 For the sworde and their destruction draweth nigh, and one people shall stand vp to fight against another, and swords in their hands.

16 ‖For men shalbe vnstedfast, & some shal do violence vnto other, they shall not regard their king, and the princes shall measure the way of their doings by their power.

‖Or, for there shalbe sedition among men.

17 A man shall desire to go into a citie, and shall not be able.

18 For because of their pride, the cities shalbe troubled, the houses shall tremble, and men shalbe afrayde.

19 A man shall haue no pitie vpon his neighbour, but shal destroy their houses with the sword, and spoyle their goods, because of the ‖hunger of bread, and because of the great trouble.

‖Or, lacke.

20 Behold, saith God, I call together all the kings of the earth to reuerence mee, which are from the ‖vprising from ye South, from the East, and Libanus, to turne vpon them, and reward the things that they haue done to them:

‖Or, West.

21 Like as they doe yet this day vnto my chosen, so will I do also, & recompence them in their bosome: Thus saith the Lord God.

22 My right hand shall not spare the sinners, and my sword shall not cease ouer them that shed the innocent blood vpon earth.

23 The fire is gone out from his wrath, and hath consumed the foundations of the earth, and the sinners like the straw that is kindled.

24 Woe woe them that sinne, and keepe not my commandements, saith the Lord.

25 I will not spare them: go your way ye children from the power, defile not my sanctuarie:

26 For the Lorde knoweth all them that sinne against him, and therefore deliuereth he them vnto death and destruction.

27 For nowe are the plagues come vpon the world, and ye shall remaine in them: for God shall not deliuer you, because yee haue sinned against him.

28 Behold, an horrible vision commeth from the East,

29 Where generations of dragons of Arabia shall come out with many charrets, and the multitude of them shalbe carried as the wind vpon earth, that all they which heare them, may feare and tremble,

30 Euen the Carmanies raging in wrath, shall go forth as the wilde boares of the forest, and with great power shall they come, and stand fighting with them, and shall waste a portion of the land of the Assyrians.

31 And then shal the dragons haue the vpper hand, and remembring their nature, shal turne about, conspiring together in great power to persecute them.

32 Then these shalbe troubled, and keepe silence in their power, and shall flee:

33 And from the lande of the Assyrians shall the enemie besiege them, and consume some of them, and in their host shall be feare and dread, and strife among their kings.

34 Behold clouds from the East, and from the North vnto the South, and they are very horrible to looke vpon, full of wrath and storme:

35 They shall smite one vpon another, and they shall smite down a great multitude of starres vpon the earth, euen their owne starre: and the blood shall be from the sword vnto the belly,

36 And the doung of man vnto the camnels litter,

37 And there shall be great fearefulnesse and trembling vpon earth: and they that see the wrath, shalbe afrayd, and trembling shal come vpon them:

38 And then shal there come great raines from the South, and from the North, & part from the West:

39 And strong windes shal arise from the East, and shall open it, and the cloude which he rayled vp in wrath, and the starre stirred to cause feare towarde the East and West winde, shalbe destroyed:

40 The great cloudes shalbe lift vp, and the mightie clouds full of wrath, & the starre, that they may make all the earth afrayd, and them that dwell therein, and that they may powre out ouer euery high place an horrible starre,

41 Fire, and hayle, and fleeing swordes, and many waters: that all fields may be ful, and all riuers, with the abundance of great waters.

42 And they shal breake downe the cities, and walles, mountaines, and hilles, trees of the wood, and the grasse of the medowes, and all their corne.

43 And they shall goe stedfast vnto Babylon, and make her afraide.

44 They shall come to her, and besiege her, the ‖ starre and all the wrath shal they powre out vpon her, then shall the dust and smoke go vp vnto the heauen, and all they that bee about her, shall bewaile her:

45 And they that remaine vnder her, shal doe seruice vnto them that haue put her in feare.

46 And thou Asia, that comfortest thy selfe also vpon the hope of Babylon, and art the glory of her person:

47 Woe be vnto thee thou wretch, because thou hast made thy selfe like vnto her, and hast decked thy daughters in whoredome, that they might ‖ triumph, and please thy louers, which haue alway desired to commit whoredome with thee.

‖ Or, please & glory in.

48 Thou hast followed the abominable citie in all her workes and inuentions: therefore saith God, 49 I will sende plagues vpon thee, widowhood, pouertie, hunger, warres and pestilence, to waste thy houses with destruction and death.

50 And the glory of thy power shalbe dried vp as a floure, when the heate ryseth that is sent ‖ ouer thee:

‖ Or, vpon.

51 Thou shalt be sicke as a poore wife that is plagued and beaten of women, so that the mightie and louers shall not bee able to receiue thee.

52 Would I so hate thee, sayth the Lord,

53 If thou hadst not alway slaine my chosen, exalting the stroke of thy hands, and said ouer their death when thou wast drunken,

54 Set forth the beautie of thy countenance:

55 The reward of thy whoredome shalbe recompensed thee in thy bosome, therefore shalt thou receiue reward.

56 Like as thou hast done vnto my chosen, saith the Lord, euen, so shall God do vnto thee, and shall deliuer thee into the plague.

57 The children shall die of hunger, and thou shalt fall through the sword: thy cities shalbe broken downe, and all thine shall perish with the sword in the field.

58 They that be in the mountaines, shall die of hunger, and eate their owne flesh, and drinke their owne blood, for very hunger of bread, and thirst of water.

59 Thou as vnhappie shalt come through the sea, and receaue plagues againe.

60 In the passage they shall cast downe the slaine citie, and shal roote out one part of the land, and consume the portion of thy glory, and shall returne to her that was destroyed.

61 They shal treade thee downe like stubble, and they shall be thy fire:

62 And shal consume thee, thy cities, and thy land, and thy mountaines, al thy woods and thy fruitfull trees shall they burne vp with the fire.

63 Thy children shall they carie away captiue, & looke what thou hast, they shall spoyle it, and marre the beautie of thy face.

The xvj. Chapter.

18. 38. Of the euill that shall come vpon the worlde, with admonition howe to gouerne them selues in afflictions.

‖ Or, constellation and tempest.

WOe bee vnto thee Babylon and Asia, woe bee vnto thee Egypt and Syria:

2 Gird vp your selues with clothes of sacke and hayre, and mourne your children, be sory: for your destruction is at hand.

3 A sword is sent vpon you, and who will turne it backe?

4 A fire

4 A fire is sent among you, and who will quench it?

5 Plagues are sent vnto you, and what is he that will driue them away?

6 May any man driue away an hungry Lion in the wood? or may any man quench the fire in stubble when it hath begunne to burne?

7 May one turne againe the arrow that is shot of a strong archer?

8 The mightie Lord sendeth the plagues, and what is he that will driue them away?

9 The fire is kindled, and gone forth in his wrath, and what is he that may quench it?

10 He shall cast lightnings, and who shall not feare? he shall thunder, and who shal not be afraide?

11 The Lord shall threaten, and who shal not vtterly bee beaten to powder at his presence?

12 The earth quaketh, and the foundations thereof, the sea ariseth vp with waues from the deepe, and the waues of it are vnquiet: and the fishes thereof also, before the Lord, and before the glory of his power:

13 For strong is his right hand that bendeth the bowe, his arrowes that he shooteth are sharpe, and shall not misse when they begin to be shot into the ends of the world.

14 Behold, the plagues are sent, and shal not returne againe till they come vpon earth.

15 The fire is kindled, and shall not bee quenched, till it consume the foundations of the earth.

16 Like as an arrow which is shot of a mightie Archer, returneth not backward: euen so the plagues that shall bee sent vpon earth, shall not turne againe.

17 Woe is me, woe is mee, who will deliuer me in those dayes?

18 The beginning of sorowes and great mourning, the beginning of dearth & great death, the beginning of warres, and the powers shall stand in feare: the beginning of mats, and they shall tremble euery one.

19 What shall I do in these things, when the plagues come?

20 Behold, hunger, and plague, trouble, and anguish are sent as scourges for amendment:

21 But for all these things, they shall not turne from their wickednesse, nor be alway mindfull of the scourges.

22 Behold, victuales shalbe so good cheape vpon earth, that they shal thinke themselues to bee in good case: and euen then shall mischiefe grow vpon earth, warres, dearth, and great ‖disquietnesse. ‖Or, confusion.

23 For many of them that dwell vpon earth, shall perish of hunger, & the other that escape the hunger, shall the sword destroy.

24 And the dead shalbe cast out as doung, and there shall bee no man to comfort them: for the earth shall bee wasted, and the cities shall be cast downe.

25 There shall bee no man left to till the earth, and to sowe it.

26 The trees shall giue fruit, & who shall pluck them off, and gather them?

27 The grapes shalbe ripe, and who shall treade them? For all places shall be desolate of men:

28 So that one man shall desire to see another, or to heare his voyce.

29 For of one whole citie, there shalbe ten left, & two of the field, which shall hide themselues in the thicke ‖ bushes, and in the clifts ‖ Or, woods. of stones,

30 Like as when there remaine three or foure Oliues, in the place where Olives grow, or among other trees,

31 Or as when a vineyard is gathered, there are left some grapes of them that diligently sought thorow the vineyard:

32 Euen so, in those dayes, there shall bee three or foure left, by them that search their houses with the sword, 33 And the earth shall be layde waste, and the fields thereof shall ware olde, and her wayes, and all her paths shall growe full of thornes, because no man shal trauaile thorow.

34 The virgins shall mourne, hauing no bridegromes, the women shall make lamentation, hauing no husbands, their daughters shall mourne, hauing no helpers. Luk.18.1

35 In the warres shal their bridegromes be destroyed, and their husbands shall perish of hunger. Cant.1.1.

36 But yee seruants of the Lorde, heare these things, and marke them.

37 Behold the worde of the Lord. Receiue it: beleeue not the gods of whome the Lord spake, Psal.14.6

38 Behold, the plagues draw nie, and are not slacke in tarying.

39 Like as a trauayling woman, which in the ninth moneth bringeth forth a sonne, when the houre of the birth is come, an houre two or three after that, the paines come vpon her bodie, and when the childe commeth to the birth, they tarie not the twinckling of an eye:

40 Euen so shall not the plagues be slacke to come vpon the earth, and the worlde shall mourne, and sorowes shall come vpon it on euery side.

41 O my people heare my worde, make you readie to the battell, and in all euils bee euen as pilgrims vpon earth.

42 He that selleth, let him bee as hee that fleeth away: and he that buyeth, as one that will leese:

43 Whoso occupieth marchandize, as hee that winneth not: and hee that buildeth, as he that shall not dwell therein:

44 He that soweth, as they that shall not reape: he that cutteth the vineyarde, as hee that shall not gather the grapes:

45 They that marie, as they that shall get no children: and they that marie not, as the widowes.

46 And

46 And therefore they that labour, labour in vaine.

47 For strangers shall reape their fruites, and spoile their goods, ouerthrow their houses, and take their children captiues: for in captiuitie and hunger shall they get children.

48 And they that occupie their marchandize with robberie, the more they decke their cities, their houses, their possessions, & their owne persons, 49 The more will I punish them for their sinnes, saith the Lord.

50 Like as a whore enuieth an honest and vertuous woman:

51 So shall righteousnes hate iniquitie, when she decketh her selfe, and shall accuse her to her face, when hee commeth that shall bridle the authour of all sinne vpon earth.

52 And therefore be not ye like thereunto, nor to the workes thereof:

53 For or euer it be long, iniquitie shalbe taken away out of the earth, and righteousnesse shall reigne among you.

54 Let not the sinner say that he hath not sinned: for coales of fire shall burne vpon his head, which saith, Before the Lord God and his glory, I haue not sinned.

Luk.16.15. 55 Beholde, the Lorde *knoweth all the workes of men, their imaginations, their thoughts, and their hearts.

Gene.1.1. 56 For he spake but the worde, *Let the earth bee made, and it was made: Let the heauen be made, and it was created.

57 In his worde were the starres made, and he knoweth the *number of them.

Psal.146.4. 58 He searcheth the ground of the deepe, and the treasures thereof, he hath measured the sea, and what it conteineth.

59 Hee hath shut the sea in the middest of the waters, and with his word hath he hanged the earth vpon the waters.

60 Hee spreadeth out the heauens like a vault, vpon the waters hath he founded it.

61 In the desart and vtte wildernes hath hee made springs of water, and pooles vpon the tops of the mountaines, that the floods might powre downe from the stonie rocks to water the earth.

62 He made man, and put his heart in the midst of the body, and gaue him breath, life, and vnderstanding.

63 Yea, and the spirite of the almightie God which made all things, & hath searched the ground of all the secrets of the earth, 64 He knoweth your imaginations and inuentions, and what yee thinke when yee sinne, and would hide your sinnes.

65 Therefore hath the Lord searched and sought out all your workes, and hee shall bewray you all:

66 And when your sinnes are brought forth, ye shall be ashamed before men, & your own sinnes shalbe your accusers in that day.

67 What will ye do? or howe will ye hide your sinnes before God and his angels?

68 Beholde, God himselfe is the iudge, feare him: leaue off from your sinnes, and forget your vnrighteousnes, and meddle no more with them: so shall God lead you forth, and deliuer you from all trouble.

69 For behold, the heate of a great multitude is kindled ouer you, and they shall take away certaine of you, and shall slay your flesh meate to the idoles.

70 And they that consent vnto them, shall be had in derision, laughed to scorne, and troden vnder foote.

71 For there shalbe in euery place, and in the next cities, a great insurrection vpon those that feare the Lord.

72 They shall be like mad men, they shall spare no man, they shal spoile and waste such as yet feare the Lord:

73 For their goods shall they take from them, and shut them out of their houses.

74 Then shall it be knowen who are my chosen, and they shall be tried as the golde in the fire.

75 Heare, O yee my beloued, saith the Lorde: beholde, the dayes of trouble are at hand, but I will deliuer you from the same.

76 Be not ye afraid, despaire not: for God is your captaine.

77 Who so keepeth my commandements and precepts, saieth the Lorde God, let not your sinnes weigh you downe, and let not your vnrighteousnesse be lift vp.

78 Woe be vnto them that are bound with their sinnes, and couered with their wickednesse, like as a fielde is hedged in with bushes, and the path thereof couered with thornes, that no man may trauaile thorow: it is shut vp, and is cast into the fire for euer, to be consumed therewith.

The ende of the fourth booke of Esdras.

The booke of Tobias.

The first Chapter.

1 Tobias parentage. 3 His godlinesse. 6 His equitie. 8 His charitie and prosperitie. 23 He fleeth, and his goods are confiscate, 25 and after restored.

TObias was of the tribe and citie of Nepthali, which lyeth in the high countreyes of Galilee aboue Naasson, beside the way that leadeth to the west, hauing the citie of Sephet vpon the left side.

2 Though he was taken *prisoner in the dayes of Salmanasar king of the Assyrians, neuertheless being in captiuitie, he forsooke not the way of trueth: *2.reg.17.3

3 Insomuch that whatsoeuer he might get, he parted it dayly with his fellowe prisoners and brethren that were of his kinred.

4 And though he were yonger then al the tribe of Nepthali, yet did not he behaue himselfe childishly in his workes.

5 And when al the other went to the golden Calues, which *Jeroboam the king of Israel had made, he alone fled all their companies: *1.ki.12.25

6 And gate him to Hierusalem vnto the temple of the Lord, and there worshipped the Lord God of Israel, faithfully offering of *all his first fruits and tythes: *Exo.22.29. deu.12.6.

7 So that in the thirde yeere, hee minstred all the tythes vnto the strangers and conuerts,

8 These and such like things did hee obserue, according to the lawe of God, when he was yet but yong.

9 But when he was a man, he tooke out of his own tribe a wife called *Anna: and of her he begate a sonne, whome he called after his owne name, *Num.36.6.

13 And taught him from his youth vp to feare God, and to refraine from all sinne.

11 Now when he, with his wife, his sonne, and with all his ‖ kinred, was come in captiuitie and vnto the citie of Niniue: ‖Or,tribe.

12 *What time as they all did eate of the meates of the heathen, he kept his soule, and was neuer defiled in their meates. *Gen.43.32

13 And forsomuch as he was mindful of the Lorde in all his heart, God gaue him fauour in the sight of Salmanasar the king:

14 which gaue him power to goe where he would, and so had he libertie to doe whatsoeuer he would.

15 So went Tobias vnto all them that were in captiuitie, and comforted them, and gaue them wholesome exhortations.

16 And when he came to Rages, a citie of the Medes, hauing tenne talentes of siluer (of the things wherewith the king had honoured him,)

17 And saw among a great companie of people of his kinred, one Gabelus which was of his owne tribe being in necessitie, he gaue him the said weight of siluer, vnder an hand writing.

18 After a long season, when Salmanasar the king was dead, and Sennacherib his sonne reigned in his steade, which hated the children of Israel:

19 Tobias went dayly thorowout all his kinred, and comforted them, and gaue of his goods to euerie one of them, as much as hee might.

20 He fedde the hungry, clothed the naked, and buried the dead and slaine, and that diligently.

21 And when *Sennacherib the king came againe, and fledde out of Jurie (what time as God punished him for his blasphemie) and in his wrath slew many of the children of Israel, Tobias buried their bodies. *4.Reg.19.35.

22 But when it was told the king, hee commanded to slay him, and tooke away all his goods.

23 Neuertheles, Tobias with his sonne, and with his wife, fled away naked, and was hid: for there were many that loued him.

24 *But after fourtie and fiue dayes, the king was slaine of his owne sonnes: *4.Reg.19.17. 2.chro.32.21.

25 Then came Tobias againe to his house, and all his goods were restored vnto him.

The ii. Chapter.

1 Tobias calleth the faithfull to his table. 3 He leaueth the feast to burie the dead. 10 How he became blind. 19 His wife laboureth for his liuing. 22 She reprocheth him bitterly.

AFter those thinges, vpon a solemne day of the Lord, Tobias made a good feast in his house,

2 And sayd vnto his sonne, Go thy way, and bring hither some of our tribe, such as feare God, that they may make merrie with vs.

3 And whē he was gone, he came againe, and told his father that one of the children of Israel lay slaine vpon the streete.

4 And immediatly he leapt from his table, left the feast, came fasting to the dead coarse, tooke him, & bare him priuily into his house, that when the sunne was downe, hee might safely bury him.

5 And when he had hid the coarse, he did eate his meate with mourning and feare,

6 Remembring the words that the Lord said by the Prophet Amos, Your *high feasts shalbe turned to sorow and heauinesse. *Amos 8.10

7 But when the sonne was downe, hee went his way, and buried him.

8 Then al ‖ his neighbours reproued him, saying, It is not long since it was commanded to slay thee because of this matter, & hast scarce escaped the danger of death, and buriest thou the dead againe? ‖Or,his next of kin.

9 Neuer-

9 Neuertheles, Tobias fearing God more then the king, tooke the bodies of the slaine, and hid them in his house, and buried them at midnights.

10 It happened vpon a day, that hee had buried the dead, & was wearie, came home, and laid him downe by the wall, and slept.

11 And while he was a sleepe, there fell downe vpon his eyes warme doung out of the swallowes neast, so that he was blind.

12 This temptation did God suffer to happen vnto him, that they which came after, might haue an example of his patience, like as of holy Job.

13 For inasmuch as hee euer feared God from his youth vp, and kept his commandements, he grudged not against God, that the plague of blindnesse chanced vnto him:

14 But remained stedfast in the feare of God, and thanked God all the dayes of his life.

15 For like as blessed Job was had in derision of kings: euen so was hee laughed to scorne of his elders and kinsfolks, which said vnto him, 16 Where is the hope for the which thou hast done almes, and buried the dead?

17 But Tobias rebuked them, and spake, Say not so:

18 For wee are the children of holy men, and looke for the life which God shall giue vnto them that neuer turne their beliefe from him.

19 And Anna his wife went dayly to the weauing worke:

20 And looke what liuing she could get with the labour of her hands, she brought it. And it happened that she tooke a kidde, and brought it home:

21 And when her husband heard it cry, he
Deut.22.1. said, * Looke that it be not stollen: restore it againe to the owners, for it is not lawful for vs to eate or to touch any thing of theft.

22 Then was his wife angry, and sayde,
Iob.2.9. * Now is thy hope become vaine openly, and thine almes deedes are manifest.

23 With these and such like words, did she cast him in the teeth.

The iii. Chapter.

3 The prayer of Tobias. 7 Sara Raguels daughter, and the things that came vnto her. 12 Her prayer heard. 19 The Angel Raphael sent.

THen Tobias ‖ tooke it heauily, and with teares began to make his prayer, ‖Or, sighed.

2 Saying, O Lord, thou art righteous, and all thy iudgements are true: yea, all thy wayes are mercy, faithfulnesse, and iudgement.

3 And now, O Lord, be mindfull of mee, and take no vengeance of my sinnes, neyther remember my misdeedes, neyther the misdeeds of my forefathers.

4 For wee haue not bene obedient vn-
Deu.28.15 to thy commandements, * therefore are wee spoyled, brought into captiuitie, into death, into derision and shame into all nations, among whome thou hast scattered vs.

5 And now, O Lord, thy iudgements are great: for we haue not done according to thy commandements, neyther haue we walked innocently before thee.

6 And now, O Lord, deale with me according to thy will, and command my sprite to be receiued in peace: for more expedient were it for me to die, then to liue.

7 At the same time it happened that Sara the daughter of Raguel, at Rages a citie of the Medes, was also reproched by one of her fathers handmaides, 8 That she had seuen husbands, which as soone as they were gone in vnto her, were slaine of the deuill, called Asmodeus.

9 Therefore when she reproued the mayden for her fault, shee answered her, saying, God let vs neuer see sonne nor daughter of thee more vpon earth, thou killer of thy husbands.

10 Wilt thou slay mee also, as thou hast slaine seuen men? At this voyce went Sara into an high chamber of her house, and three dayes and three nights she neither ate nor dranke:

11 But continued in prayer, and besought God with teares, that he would deliuer her from this rebuke.

12 Upon the third day it came to passe, that when she had made an end of prayer, she prayed the Lord, 13 Saying, Blessed be thy name, O God of our fathers, which when thou art wroth, shewest mercie, and in time of trouble thou forgiuest the sinnes of them that call vpon thee.

14 Vnto thee, O Lorde, turne I my face, vnto thee lift I vp mine eyes:

15 I beseech thee, O Lord, loose mee out of the bands of this rebuke, or else take mee vtterly away from the earth.

16 Thou knowest Lord, that I neuer had desire vnto man, and that I haue kept my soule cleane from all vncleanly lust:

17 I haue not kept companie with those that passe their time in sport, neither haue I made my self partaker with them that walke in light behauiour.

18 An husband haue I consented to take, not for my pleasure, but in thy feare.

19 Now peraduenture, either I haue bene vnworthie of them, or els were they vnmeet for me: for thou happily hast kept me to another husband.

20 For why? thy counsell is not in the power of man.

21 But euery one that serueth thee, is sure of this, that if his life be in trying, it shall bee crowned, and if it be in trouble, that God no doubt shall deliuer him: and if his life bee in chastening, that hee shall haue leaue to come vnto thy mercy.

22 For thou hast no pleasure in our ‖damnation: and why? after a stormе, thou makest the weather faire and stil, after weeping and heauinesse, thou giuest great ioy.

23 Thy Name, O God of Israel, be praised for euer.

24 At the same time were both their prayers heard, in the sight of the maiestie of the highest God.

25 And Raphael the holy Angel of the Lorde was sent to helpe them both, whose prayers ‖ came at one time together before God.

The iiij. Chapter.

Precepts and exhortations of Tobias to his sonne.

SO when Tobias thought his prayer to bee heard, that he might die, hee called vnto him his sonne Tobias:

2 And sayde vnto him, sonne, heare the words of my mouth, and laye them in thine heart as a foundation.

3 When God taketh away my soule, bury thou my body: and * holde thy mother in honour, all the dayes of her life.

Exo.20.12.

4 For thou oughtest to remember, what, and howe great perils she suffered for thee in her wombe.

5 And when she also hath fulfilled the time of her life, bury her ‖ beside me.

‖Or, about.

6 Haue God in thy thought all the dayes of thy life, and beware, lest at any time thou consent vnto sinne, and lest thou let slippe the commandements of the Lord our God.

Pro.3.9.

7 * Giue almes of thy goods, and turne neuer thy face from the poore: and so shall it come to passe, that the face of the Lorde shall not be turned away from thee.

Eccle.35.4.

8 * Be mercifull after thy power.

9 If thou haue much, giue plenteously: if thou hast litle, do thy diligence gladly, to giue of that litle:

10 For so gatherest thou thy selfe a good reward in the day of necessitie.

Eccl.29.15.

11 For * mercie deliuereth from all sinne, and from death, and suffreth not the soule to come into darknesse:

12 A great comfort is mercie before the high God, vnto all them that shewe it.

1.Thes.4.3.

13 My sonne, * keepe thee well from all whoredome: and beside thy wife, suffer not thy selfe to know of sinne.

14 Let neuer pride haue rule in thy mind, nor in thy word: for in * pride beganne all destruction.

Gene.3.5.

15 Whosoeuer worketh any thing for thee, * immediatly giue him his hyre, and loke that thy hyred seruants wages remaine not at all with thee.

21 I certifie thee also my sonne, that when thou wast yet but a babe, I deliuered tenne talents of siluer vnto Gabelus at Rages a citie of the Medes, and his hand writing haue I by me:

22 And therfore seeke some meanes, how thou mayest come by him, and receiue of him the saide weight of siluer, and giue him his hand writing againe.

23 My sonne, be not afraide: * trueth it is, we leade here a poore life, but great good shal we haue if we feare God, and depart from all sinne, and doe well.

Rom.8.17.

The v. Chapter.

2 Tobias is sent to Rages: 5 Hee meeteth with the Angel Raphael, which did conduct him.

THen Tobias answered his father, and saide, Father, all that thou hast commanded me, will I doe; and that diligently.

2 But howe shall I require this money, I can not tell, neither doeth hee know me, nor I him: what token shal I giue him? And as for the way thither, I neuer knewe it.

3 Then his father answered him, & said, I haue his hand writing by me, which when thou shewest him, immediatly hee shall paye thee.

4 But goe thy way nowe, and get thee some faithfull man to goe with thee for an hyre, that thou mayest receiue the money while I am yet liuing.

5 Then went Tobias out, and vpon the streete he found a fayre yong man standing, girded vp, and as it were one ready to take his iourney.

6 And he knew not that it was an Angel of God, but saluted him, and sayde, From whence art thou, thou good yong man?

7 He answered, Of the children of Israel. And Tobias saide vnto him, Knowest thou the way that leadeth vnto the countrey of the Medes?

8 He answered, I knowe it well, and all those ‖ streetes haue I gone oft times, and haue lodged with our brother Gabelus that dwelleth in Rages a citie of the Medes, which lyeth vpon the mount Ecbatanis.

‖Or, wayes.

9 Tobias said vnto him, I pray thee tary for me, til I haue told my father these things.

10 Then went Tobias in, and told his father all: at the which his father marueyled, and prayed that he would come in vnto him.

11 Now when he came in, he saluted him, and said, Joy be with thee for euermore.

12 And olde Tobias saide, What ioy can I haue, that sit here in darknesse, and see not the light of heauen?

13 The yong man saide vnto him, Bee of good cheare, God shall helpe thee shortly.

14 And Tobias sayde vnto him, Canst thou bring my sonne to Gabelus vnto the citie of Rages in Media? and when thou commest againe, I shall pay thee thy hyre.

15 And the Angel saide vnto him, I shall leade thy sonne, & bring him to thee againe.

16 Then Tobias answered him, Tel me, I pray thee, of what house, or of what tribe art thou?

17 The Angel Raphael sayde vnto him, Seekest thou after the kinred of an hyreling, or an hyred man himselfe for thy sonne to goe with him?

18 But that I make thee not carefull, I am Azarias, the sonne of great Hananias.

19 And Tobias answered, Thou art come of a great kinred: but I pray thee, bee not displeased, that I desire to know thy kinred.

20 The Angel saide vnto him, Thy sonne shal I leade forth safely, and bring him whole and sound to thee againe.

21 Then answered Tobias, and sayde, Well, goe on your way, and God bee in your iourney, and his Angel beare you company.

22 So when they had prepared al things that they woulde take with them in their iourney, Tobias bade his father and his mother farewell: and they went on their way both together.

23 Nowe when they were gone, his mo-
Tob. 10.4. ther began to weepe, and sayde, * The staffe of our age hast thou taken away, and sent him from vs.

24 Woulde God that money had neuer bene, for the which thou hast sent him away.

25 For our pouertie was sufficient for vs: why, we shoulde haue counted it riches that we sawe our sonne here.

26 Then saide Tobias vnto her, Weepe not, our sonne shall goe safely, and come to vs againe sound, and thine eyes shall see him.

27 For I trust that the good Angel of God shall beare him company, and order well all the things that he doeth, so that he shal come to vs againe with ioy.

28 At these words his mother left off from weeping, and helde her peace.

The vj. Chapter.

2 Tobias deliuered from the fish, 8. Raphael sheweth him certaine medicines. 19 Hee conducteth him towarde Sara.

SO Tobias went on his way, and a dogge followed him, and the first night they abode by the water of Tigris.

2 Then wēt he out to wash his feete, and beholde, there came foorth an horrible fish to deuoure him.

3 Of whome Tobias was afrayde, and cryed with a loude voyce, saying, Lorde, hee commeth vpon me.

4 And the Angel said vnto him, Take him by the gyll, and draw him to thee. And he did so, and drew him vnto the lande: and the fish began to leape at his feete.

5 Then saide the Angel vnto him, Take out the bowels of this fish: and as for the heart, the gall, and the liuer, keepe them by thee: for these things are necessarie and good for medicines.

6 Tobias did so, and rosted the fish, and they tooke it with them in their iourney: the residue they salted, as much as was sufficient for them, till they came to Rages a citie of the Medes.

7 Then Tobias asked the Angel, and said vnto him, I pray thee, brother Azarias, tell me, whereto are these things good of the fish that thou hast bidden mee keepe?

8 The Angel answered him, and said, If thou layest a piece of the heart vpon the coales, the smoke thereof driueth away all euill spirits, whether it be from man or from woman, so that from thencefoorth the same shall come no more vnto them.

9 The gall is good to anoynt or to strike the eyes withall, whereas there is any blemish in them, so that they shalbe whole.

10 And Tobias sayde vnto him, where wilt thou that we remaine? The Angell answered, 11 And saide, * Here is a nigh kinsman of Num. 27.8.

thine, and of thy tribe, one Raguel by name, which hath a daughter called Sara, and hath neither sonne nor daughter but her.

12 All his good belongeth vnto thee, and thou must marry her.

13 And therefore desire her of her father, and he shall giue her thee to wife.

14 Then answered Tobias, and said, As I vnderstand, she hath bene married vnto seuen husbands, and they all are dead: and I haue heard say that the deuill slewe them.

15 I am afraid therefore, lest such things happen vnto mee also: which if it come to passe, seeing I am the onely sonne of my father and my mother, I should bring them in their age with sorowe to their graues.

16 Then saide the Angell Raphael vnto him, Heare me, and I wil tel thee what they be of whom the deuil hath power:

17 Namely, they that receiue marriage after such a fashion, that they shutte God out from them, and from their heart, and giue themselues to their owne lust, euen as it were * an horse and mule which haue no vn- Psal. 31.9.
derstanding: vpō such hath the deuil power.

18 But when thou takest her, and art come into the chamber, withholde thy selfe from her three dayes, and giue thy diligence vnto nothing but vnto prayer with her.

19 And in the first night rost the liuer of the fish, and the deuil shalbe driuen away.

20 The seconde night shalt thou be receiued into the company of the holy Patriarks.

21 The third night shalt thou obteine the blessing of God, so that ‖ whole children shall ‖ Or, sound.
be borne of you.

22 After the third night, take the mayden in the feare of God, and more for the desire of children, then for any fleshly lust, that in the seede of Abraham thou mayest obteine the blessing in children.

of

The vii. Chapter.

Tobias marrieth Sara Raguels daughter.

THen went they vnto Raguel, which receiued them ioyfully.

2 And when Raguel looked vpon Tobias, he said vnto Anna his wife, How like is this yong man vnto my sisters sonne?

3 And when he had spoken this, he saide, whence be ye, yee yong men, and our brethren? They said, Of the tribe of Nephthali, out of the captiuitie of Ninive.

4 Then said Raguel vnto them, Knowe ye my brother Tobias? They saide, Yea, we knowe him well.

5 And when he had spoken much good of him, the Angell saide vnto Raguel, Tobias, of whome thou askest, is this yong mans father.

6 Then Raguel bowed himselfe downe, and wept, and tooke him about the necke, and kissed him,

7 And said, Gods blessing haue thou, my sonne, for thou art the sonne of a good vertuous man.

8 And Anna his wife, & Sara his daughter wept also.

9 Nowe when they had talked together, Raguel bade kill a wether, and to make a feast: and when he had exhorted them to sit downe to dinner,

10 Tobias saide, I will neither eate nor drinke here this day, except thou first graunt me my petition, and promise me to giue mee thy daughter Sara.

11 When Raguel heard this, he was astonied: for he knewe what had happened vnto the other seuen men that went in vnto her: and he began to feare that it should chaunce vnto him in like maner. And while he stoode so in a doubt, and gaue the yong man no answere,

12 The Angell sayd vnto him, Feare not to giue him thy daughter, for vnto this man that feareth God, belongeth thy daughter to wife: therefore might none other haue her.

13 Then saide Raguel, I doubt not but God hath accepted my prayers and teares in his sight:

14 And I beleeue he caused you to come vnto me for ỹ same intent, that this daughter of mine might bee marryed in her owne kinred, according to the * lawe of Moses: and nowe doubt thou not, but I will giue her vnto thee.

Numb. 36. 6.

15 So hee tooke the right hande of his daughter, and gaue her into the right hand of Tobias, and saide, The God of Abraham, the God of Isahac, and the God of Jacob be with you, ioyne you together, and fulfill his blessing in you.

16 And they tooke a letter, and made a writing of the marriage.

17 And then made they merry, and prayed God.

18 And Raguel called Anna his wife vnto him, & bade her prepare another chamber.

19 And thither hee brought Sara his daughter, and she wept.

20 Then sayde he vnto her, Be of good cheare, my daughter: the Lorde of heauen giue thee ioy, for the heauinesse that thou hast suffered.

The viij. Chapter.

2 Tobias driueth away the euill spirite. 4 Hee prayeth to God with his wife. 11 Raguel prepareth a graue for his sonne in lawe. 16 Raguel blesseth the Lord.

NOwe after that they had supped, they brought the young man in to her.

2 Then thought Tobias vpon the wordes of the Angell, and tooke out of his bagge a piece of the liuer of the fish, and laide it vpon the hot coales.

3 So the Angel Raphael tooke holde of the deuill, and sent him away, and bounde him in the wildernesse of the higher Egypt.

4 Then spake Tobias vnto the virgine, and saide, Up Sara, let vs make our prayer vnto God to day, to morowe, and ‖ ouermorowe: for these three nights will we ‖ reconcile our selues with God: and whē the third holy night is past, we shall ioyne together in the duetie of marriage.

‖ Or, the third day.
‖ Or, ioyne our selues to God.

5 For we are the children of holy men, and we may not come together as the heathen that knowe not God.

6 Then kneele they vp both together, and besought God earnestly ‖ that he would preserue them.

‖ Or, that health might be giuen them.

7 And Tobias saide, O Lord God of our fathers, praised be thou of heauen and earth, of the sea, welles, and floods, and of all thy creatures that be therein.

8 Thou * madest Adam of the moulde of the earth, and gauest him Eua for an helper.

Gen. 2. 7.

9 And now Lord, thou knowest that it is not because of voluptuousnesse that I take this sister of mine to wife, but onely for the loue of children, in whom thy name may be blessed for euer.

10 And Sara said, Haue mercy vpon vs, O Lorde, haue mercie vpon vs, and let vs both come whole and sounde together to a good age.

11 And about the cocke crowing it came to passe, that Raguel called his seruants:

12 And they went with him to make a graue.

13 For he saide, It is chaunced now vnto him peraduenture, as it did vnto the other seuen men that went in vnto her.

14 Now when they had made the graue, Raguel came againe to his wife, & said vnto her, Sende one of thy maydens to looke if he be dead, that I may bury him afore it be light day.

15 So thee sent a mayden to see: which when she came into the chamber, found the whole and sound, sleeping together.

16 And so she came againe, and brought good tidings: then Raguel and Anna his wife prayed the Lord, 17 And sayde, Prayed be thou, O Lorde God of Israel, that it is not happened vnto vs as we thought.

18 For thou hast dealt mercifully with vs, and put away from vs the enemie that persecuted vs, 19 And hast shewed mercie vnto yonder two, the onely borne children of their parents: O Lord, cause them to magnifie thee more perfectly, and to offer the sacrifice of thy prayse & of their health: that all people may know that thou only art God in al the earth.

20 And immediatly Raguel commanded his seruants to fill the graue that they had made, with earth, afore it was light:

21 And bade his wife prepare a feast, and to make ready all thinges that were necessarie for meate to such as went by the way.

22 He caused two fat kine also and foure wethers to be slaine, and meates to be prepared for all his neighbours and friends.

23 And Raguel charged Tobias to remaine with him two weekes.

24 As for all the good that he had, he gaue Tobias the halfe of it, and made this writing, that the halfe which remained, should fall vnto Tobias after their death.

The ix. Chapter.

The Angell goeth to Gabelus at the desire of Tobias: which deliuereth the letter, and receiueth the money.

THen Tobias called vnto him the Angell, whome he thought to haue bene a man, and said vnto him, Brother Azarias, I pray thee hearken vnto my wordes.

2 If I should giue my selfe to be thy seruant, I shall not deserue thy prouidence.

3 Neuertheless, I beseech thee that thou wilt take the beastes, and the seruants, and goe vnto Gabelus in Rages the citie of the Medes, and deliuer him his handwriting, and receiue the money of him, and pray him to come to my marriage.

4 For thou knowest thy selfe that my father doth number the dayes: & if I tarry one day too long, he will be sory in his minde.

5 Now seest thou how earnestly Raguel hath required me, so that I can not say him nay.

6 Then tooke Raphael foure of Raguels seruants, and two camels, and went vnto Rages the citie of the Medes: and when he had found Gabelus, he gaue him his hand writing, and receiued all the money.

7 He told him also of Tobias the sonne of Tobi, how all things had happened: & caused him to come with him to the marriage.

8 Nowe when he came into the house of Raguel, he founde Tobias sitting at the table: and he leaped vp, and they kissed one another, and Gabelus wept, and prayed God,

9 And said, the blessing of the God of Israel haue thou, for thou art the sonne of a right vertuous and iust man, and of one that feareth God, and giueth great almes:

10 And blessing haue thy wife, and your elders,

11 That yee may see your children, and your childrens children vnto the third and fourth generation: and your seede be blessed of the God of Israel, which reigneth worlde without ende.

12 And whē they all had said Amen, they went to the feast: but with the feare of the Lord held they the feast of the marriage.

The x. Chapter.

1 Tobias and his wife thinke long for their sonne, to Raguel sendeth away Tobias and Sara.

NOw while yong Tobias made long tarying, by reason of the marriage, his father was full of care and heauinesse, saying, Canst thou thinke what should be the cause that my sonne tarryeth so long: or why he should be kept so long there:

2 Thinkest thou Gabelus is dead, and no man will giue him the money:

3 Thus began he to be very sorowfull, he and Anna his wife with him: and began to weepe both together, because their sonne was not come againe vnto them at the day appointed.

4 As for his mother, shee wept with discomfortable teares, and said, Woe is me my sonne, Oh what ayled vs to send thee away into a strange countrey, thou light of our eyes, thou * staffe of our age, thou comfort of our life, thou hope of our generation: Tob. 5. 19.

5 Seeing all the things that we haue are onely in thee, we should not haue sent thee away from vs.

6 Then Tobias comforted her and sayde, Holde thy peace, and be not discomforted, our sonne is whole and sound: the man that we sent him withall, is faithfull ynough.

7 Neuertheless, shee might in no wise be comforted: but dayly went out, looked about, and went about all the streetes whereby she thought he should come againe, that if it were possible, she might see him comming a farre off.

8 But Raguel sayde vnto his sonne in lawe, O tarie here, and I shal send a messenger vnto thy father Tobias, to tell him that thou art in good health.

9 Tobias saide vnto him, I am sure that my father and my mother count euery day, and that their hearts are sory.

10 So when Raguel had prayed Tobias with many wordes, and he would in no wise heare him, he deliuered Sara vnto him, and ẏ halfe part of all his goods, in seruants, and handmaidens, in sheepe, in camels, and in kine, and much money: and so sent him away from him with health and ioy, 11 And said, The holy Angel of the Lorde bee with you in your iourney, and bring you foorth safe and sounde: that ye may finde all things in good case with your elders, & that mine eyes may see your children afore I die.

and

12 So the elders embraced their daughter, kissed her, and let her goe:

13 Exhorting her to honour her father and mother in lawe, to loue her husband, to rule well her household, to keepe her house in good order, and to shew her selfe faultlesse.

The xj. Chapter.

1 The returne of Tobias to his father. 11 Howe he was receiued. 15 His father hath his sight restored, and prayseth the Lorde.

AS they nowe were going homeward againe, vpon the eleuenth day they came to Charran, which lyeth in the halfe way toward Niniue.

2 And the Angell sayde, Brother Tobias, thou knowest howe thou hast left thy father.

3 Therefore if it please thee, we two will goe before, and let the household, with thy wife and the cattell, come fayre and softly after vs.

4 And when Tobias was content that they shoulde goe before, Raphael sayde vnto him, Take of the gall of the fish with thee: for it shall be necessarie. So Tobias tooke of the gall, and they went their way:

5 But Anna the mother of Tobias sate dayly by the way side vpon the toppe of an hill, from whence shee might see farre about her.

6 And while shee was waiting there for his comming, she looked afarre off, and anon she perceiued her sonne comming, and ranne and tolde her husbande, saying, Beholde, thy sonne commeth.

7 And Raphael saide vnto Tobias, As soone as thou commest into the house, immediatly worship the Lorde thy God, and giue thankes vnto him: then goe to thy father, and kisse him.

8 And straightwayes strike his eyes ouer with the gall of ỹ fish that thou hast brought with thee: for bee sure that his eyes shall straightway bee opened, and thy father shall see the light of heauen, and shall reioyce at the light of thee.

9 Then the dogge that had bene with them in their iourney ranne before, and came as a messenger, and wagged his taile for gladnesse.

10 So the blinde father arose, and began to runne, and stumbled with his feete: and gaue a seruant his hand, and ranne to meete his sonne, 11 Receiued him, and kissed him, bee and his wife, & they both began to weepe for ioy.

12 Nowe when they had worshipped and thanked God, they sate downe.

13 Then tooke Tobias of the fish gall, and anoynted his fathers eyes:

14 And taried halfe an houre, and then began the blemish to goe out of his eyes, like as it had bene the white skinne of an egge:

15 which Tobias tooke and drewe from his eyes, and immediatly hee receiued his sight.

16 Then they praised God, hee and his wife, and all they that knewe him.

17 And Tobias saide, O Lord God of Israel, I giue thee praise and thankes, for thou hast chastened me, and made me whole: and loe, nowe doe I see my sonne Tobias.

18 After seuen dayes came Sara his sonnes wife also whole and sounde, with all the household and cattell, with camels, and much money of his wiues, and with the money that he had receiued of Gabelus.

19 And hee tolde his father and his mother, all the benefites which God had done for him by the man that led him.

20 Achior also and Nabath, Tobias sisters sonnes came, and were glad, and reioyced with him, by reason of all the good thinges that God had shewed vnto him: and so for the space of seuen dayes they made merrie, and were right ioyfull euery one.

The xij. Chapter.

2 Tobias declareth to his father, the pleasures that Raphael had done him: 5 The which hee woulde recompense.

THen Tobias called his sonne vnto him, and saide, What may wee giue this holy man that ‖ went with thee? ‖Or, came.

2 Tobias answered his father, and said, Father, what reward shal we giue him? or what thing can deserue his benefites?

3 Hee hath bene my guide, and brought me safe againe, hee receiued the money from Gabelus, hee caused mee to get my wife, hee droue the euill spirit from her, hee hath bene an occasion of gladnes to her father and mother, he deliuered me that I was not deuoured of the fish, hee hath made thee to see the light of heauen: yea, wee all haue receiued great good of him.

4 Howe should we worthily deserue these thinges vnto him? But, I pray thee my father, that thou wilt desire him, if haply hee will vouchsafe, to take with him the halfe of all that we haue brought.

5 So the father and the sonne called him, and tooke him aside, and began to pray him, that he would be content to take in good worth, the halfe part of all that they had brought.

6 Then sayde hee secretely vnto them, Praise ye the God of heauen, & giue thankes vnto him before all men liuing: for hee hath shewed his mercie vnto you.

7 It is good to hide the kings secrete: but to shewe and to praise the workes of God, it is an honourable thing.

8 Prayer is good with fasting, and mercie is better then to hoorde vp treasures of golde.

9 For mercy deliuereth from death, cleanseth sinne, and causeth to finde mercie and life euerlasting.

10 But they that doe sinne and vnrighteousnes, are the enemies of their owne soule.

11 Wherefore I tell you the trueth, and will hide no secret thing from you.

12 When thou prayedst with teares, and buriedst the dead, and leftest thy dinner, and hiddest the dead in thine house vpon the day time, that thou mightest burie them in the night, I offered thy prayer before the Lord.

13 And because thou wast accept and beloued of God, it was necessarie that temptation should trie thee.

14 And nowe hath the Lorde sent mee to heale thee, and to deliuer Sara thy sonnes wife from the euill spirite.

15 For I am Raphael an Angell, one of the seuen that stand before the Lord.

16 When they heard this, they were sore afraide, and trembled, and fell downe vpon their faces vnto the ground.

17 Then saide the Angel, Peace bee with you, feare not.

18 For whereas I haue bene with you, it is the will of God: giue praise and thankes vnto him.

Gen.18.7. iudi.13.16. 19 * You thought that I did eate and drinke with you, but I vse meate that is inuisible, and drinke that can not bee seene of men.

20 Now therefore is the time that I must turne againe vnto him that sent me: but be yee thankefull vnto God, and tell out all his wonderous workes.

21 And when he had spoken these words, he was taken away out of their sight, so that they could see him no more.

22 Then fell they downe flat vpon their faces, by the space of three houres, and prayed God: and when they rose vp, they tolde all his wonderous workes.

The xiij. Chapter.

A thankesgiuing of Tobias, who exhorteth all to prayse the Lorde.

THen olde Tobias opened his mouth, and praised the Lorde, and saide, Great art thou, O Lorde, for euermore, and thy kingdome world without end.

Deu.32.39. sap.16.13. 2 For thou * scourgest and healest, thou leadest vnto hell, and bringest out againe: and there is none that may escape thine hande.

3 O giue thankes vnto the Lorde, ye children of Israel, and praise him in the sight of the heathen:

4 For among the heathen which knowe him not, hath he scattered you, to the intent that ye shoulde shewe foorth his marueilous workes, and cause them for to knowe, that there is none other God Almightie but he.

5 He hath chastened vs for our misdeeds, and for his own mercies sake shal he saue vs.

6 Consider then how hee hath dealt with you, and praise him with feare and dread: and magnifie the euerlasting king in your workes.

7 I will praise him euen in the land of my captiuitie, for hee hath shewed his maiestie vnto a sinfull people.

8 Turne you therefore, O ye sinners, and doe righteousnes before God, and bee ye sure that he will shewe his mercie vpon you.

9 As for me and my soule, we will reioyce in God.

10 O praise the Lorde all yee his chosen: holde the dayes of gladnesse, and bee thankefull vnto him.

11 O Hierusalem thou citie of God, the Lorde hath punished thee for the workes of thine owne handes.

12 O praise the Lord in thy good things, and giue thankes to the euerlasting God, that he may builde vp his tabernacle againe in thee, that he may call againe vnto thee all such as be in captiuitie, and that thou mayest haue ioy for euermore.

13 With a faire light shalt thou shine, and all the endes of the world shall honour thee.

14 The * people shal come vnto thee from farre, they shall bring giftes, and worship the Lord in thee, and thy land shall they haue for a Sanctuarie: for they shall call vpon the great Name in thee. Esa.49.18. acts.2.5.

15 Cursed shall they bee that despise thee, and all that blaspheme thee shall be condemned: but blessed shall they bee that builde thee vp.

16 As for thee, thou shalt reioyce in thy children: for they all shall bee blessed, and gathered together vnto the Lord.

17 Blessed are all they that loue thee, and that be glad of thy peace.

18 Praise thou the Lord, O my soule: for the Lorde our God hath deliuered his citie Hierusalem from all her troubles.

19 I will count my selfe happie, if my seede remaine to see the clearenesse of Hierusalem.

20 The * gates of Hierusalem shall bee builded with Saphir and Smaragde, and all the compasse of her walles with precious stones. Apo.21.18.

21 All her streetes shall bee paued with white and faire stone, and in all streetes shall Alleluia be sung.

22 Praised bee the Lorde which hath exalted her, that his kingdome may bee vpon her for euermore. Amen.

The xiiij. Chapter.

5 Lessons of Tobias to his sonne. 6 Hee prophecieth the destruction of Ninive, 7 and the restoring of Hierusalem and the temple.

And

AND so Tobias made an ende of speaking: and after that Tobias had gotten his sight againe, he liued fourtie and two yeres, and saw his childrens children.

2 Nowe when hee was an hundred and two yeeres olde, he dyed, and was buried honourably in Niniue.

3 For when hee was fiue and fiftie yeeres of age, he lost the sight of his eyes: and when he was three score yeeres olde, hee gate his sight againe.

4 The residue of his life led he in ioy, and increased well in the feare of God, and departed in peace.

5 But in the houre of his death, hee called vnto him his sonne Tobias, and seuen yong ‖ Springales his sonnes children, and said vnto them,

6 The destruction of Niniue is at hande (for the worde of the Lord cannot faile) and our brethren that are scattered out of the land of Israel, shall come thither againe.

7 And the whole land of it that hath bene waste, shalbe filled, and the house of God that was *burnt in it, shalbe builded againe: and all such as feare God, shall returne thither.

(1.Esd.3.8. and 6.14.)

8 The heathen then also shal forsake their idoles, & come to Hierusalem, & dwell there:

9 And all the kings of the earth shall be glad in her, and worshippe the Lord God of Israel.

10 And therefore, my children, heare your father, * serue the Lorde in the trueth, seeke after his will, to do the thing that pleaseth him:

(Deut. 6.13: iosu. 24.14: 1.reg.7.8.)

11 Commaunde your children that they doe right, giue almes, be mindefull of God, and euer to be thankfull vnto him in trueth, and with all their power.

12 Heare me now therefore, my children, and abide not here: but in what day so euer ye haue buried your mother by me in one sepulchre, get you from hence:

13 For I see that the wickednesse of it shal bring it to destruction and ende.

14 After the death of his mother, Tobias departed away from Niniue, with his wife and children, and with his childrens children, and came againe to his father and mother in lawe, 15 And found them whole, and in a good age, and tooke the care of them: and hee closed their eyes, and was heire vnto all Raguels goods, and saw the fifth generation, and his childrens children.

16 And ninetie and nine yeeres being ended in the feare of God, they buried him with ioy.

17 And all his kinred and posteritie continued in a good life and holy conuersation: so that they were loued and accepted both of God and men, and of all the people of the lande.

The ende of the booke of Tobias.

The booke of Iudith.

The first Chapter.

1 The building of Ecbatanis. 5 Nabuchodonosor made warre against Arphaxad, and ouercame him. 12 He threatneth them that would not helpe him.

ARphard the king of the Medes, subdued many people vnto his dominion, and builded a strong citie, which he called Ecbatanis.

2 The walles of it made hee of free stone, foure square, seuentie cubites high, and thirtie cubites broade: hee made towres thereupon an hundred cubites high.

3 But along the foure corners, euery side was twentie foote broade, he made the ports in the height, like as the towres.

4 This king trusted in his mightie hoste, and in his glorious charets.

5 So in the twelfth yeere of his reigne, it happened that Nabuchodonosor the king of the Assyrians, which reigned in the great citie of Niniue, fought against Arphard:

6 And ouercame him in the great fielde called Ragau, beside Euphrates, and Tigris, and Iadason, in the fielde of Erioth the king of the Elimes.

7 Then was the kingdome of Nabuchodonosor exalted, and his heart was lift vp: and he sent vnto all them that dwelt in Cilicia, in Damascus and Libanus:

8 And vnto the heathen that dwelt in Carmel and Cedar, and to such as dwelt in Galile in the great fielde of Esdrelon:

9 To all them that dwelt in Samaria, and beyond the water of Iordane vnto Hierusalem, and the whole lande of Iesse, vnto the borders of Ethiopia:

10 Vnto all these did Nabuchodonosor the King of the Assyrians sende messengers.

11 But they all with one content woulde not agree vnto him, and sent the messengers againe emptie, and put them away without honour.

12 Then

12 Then Nabuchodonosor the king tooke indignation at all those landes, and sware by his throne and by his kingdome, that hee would be auenged of all those countreys.

The ij. Chapter.

Nabuchodonosor commaunded presumptuously that all people should be brought in subiection.

IN the thirteenth yeere of king Nabuchodonosor, vpon the twentie and two day of the first moneth, it was deuised in the court of Nabuchodonosor the king of the Assyrians, that he would reuenge himselfe.

2 So he called vnto him all the elders, all his captaines and men of warre, and shewed them his secrete counsell,

3 And tolde them that his purpose was to bring ȝ whole earth vnder his dominion.

4 Now when they were all content with this saying, Nabuchodonosor the king called Holophernes the chiefe captaine of his warres,

5 And said vnto him, Goe thy way forth against all the kingdomes of the west, and specially against those that haue despised my commandement.

6 Thou shalt spare no realme, all strong cities shalt thou bring in subiection vnto me.

7 Then Holophernes called together all the captaines and rulers of all the power in Assyria, and mustered the souldiers vnto the hoste, like as the king commaunded him, namely an hundred and twentie thousande fighting men vpon foote, and twelue thousand archers vpon horsebacke.

8 All his ordinance sent hee before with an innumerable multitude of Camels, so that the hoste was well prouided for with oxen ȝ small cattell, ȝ that without number.

9 He appointed to prepare corne out of all Syria in his passage.

10 Much gold and siluer also tooke he out of the kings house.

11 So he tooke his iourney, and all his host, with charets, horsemen, ȝ archers: of who there were so many, that they couered the ground of the land, like the grashoppers.

12 And when hee was come past the borders of the Assyrians, hee came towarde the great mountaines of Ange, which lie vpon the left side of Cilicia: ȝ so he went vpinto all their castles, and wonne euery strong hold.

13 As for the wealthie citie of Melothus he brake it downe, and spoyled all the children of Tharsis, and the Ismaelites, which lay towarde the wildernesse, and vpon the Southside of the lande of Chellon.

14 He went ouer Euphrates also, ȝ came into Mesopotamia, and brake downe all the high cities that were there, from the brooke of Mambre, till a man come to the sea:

15 And hee tooke the borders in, from Cilicia vnto the coastes of Japhet, towarde the South.

16 Hee caried away all the Madianites, and spoyled all their goods, and whosoeuer withstoode him, hee slewe them with the sword.

17 After this, hee went downe into the fielde of Damascus in the time of harueste, and burnt vp all the corne, and all the trees and vines he caused to be cut downe:

18 And the feare of him fell vpon all them that dwelt on the earth.

The iij. Chapter.

1 The people subiect to Holophernes. 12 He destroyed their gods, that Nabuchodonosor might onely be worshipped.

SO the kings and princes of all the cities and landes, sent their Ambassadours, namely, they of Syria and Mesopotamia, Syria Sobal, and Libia, ȝ Cilicia, which came to Holophernes, and said,

2 Let thy wrath cease toward vs: it is better for vs to serue the great king Nabuchodonosor with our liues, and to be subiect vnto thee, then that wee shoulde dye, and with our slaughter suffer the euils of our bondage.

3 All our cities and possessions, all mountaines and hilles, all fieldes, great and smal, cattell, sheepe, goates, horses, and camels, all our goods and housholdes, bee in thy power.

4 Vnder thy subiection bee all that wee haue.

5 We our selues, and also our children, will be thy seruants.

6 Come vnto vs, peaceable lorde, and vse our seruice at thy pleasure.

7 Then came Holophernes downe from the mountaines, with horsemen and great power, and conquered all strong fenced cities, and all that dwelt in the land.

8 And out of all cities hee tooke strong men, and such as were meete for the warre to helpe him.

9 And there came such a feare vpon those countreys, that the inhabitants of all the cities, the princes and rulers, ȝ the people together, went forth to meete him as he came:

10 And receiued him honourably with garlandes and torches, with dauuces, tabrets, and pipes.

11 Neuertheless, though they did this, yet might they not swage his rigorous stomacke, 12 But he destroyed their cities, and hewed downe their woods.

13 For Nabuchodonosor the king had commaunded him that he shoulde roote out all the gods of the ‖ lande, to the intent that he onely might be called and taken for god of the nations, which Holophernes with his power might bring vnder him.

‖ Or, earth.

14 So went hee thorowe Syria, Sobal, and thorowe all Apamea, and all Mesopotamia, tania, and came to the Idumeans in the land of Gabaa, 15 And tooke their cities, and remayned there thirtie dayes, in which space he caused all the whole multitude of his hoste to be gathered together.

The iiij. Chapter.

Eliacim the priest writeth to Bethulia, that they should fortifie themselues. 8 They cryed to the Lorde, and humbled themselues before him.

WHen the children of Israel that dwelt in Jurie heard this, they were sore afraide of him.

2 There came such trembling also and feare vpon them, least her should doe vnto the citie of Hierusalem, and the Temple of the Lorde, as he had done to other cities and their temples.

3 So they sent into all Samaria rounde about vnto Jericho, tooke in and occupied all the toppes of the mountaines,

4 And made fast the townes with walles, and prepared corne for them against the battaile.

5 Eliacim also the Priest wrote vnto all them that dwelt toward Esdrelon, which ouerlooked against the great fielde by Dothain, and vnto all those by whom men might haue passage vnto them,

6 That they should take in the wayes of the mountaines, whereby there might be any way and passage vnto Hierusalem, and that they should holde diligent watch where any straight was betwixt the mountaines.

7 And the children of Israel did as Eliacim the Priest of the Lord had commaunded them.

8 And all the people cryed vnto the Lord earnestly, and humbled their soules with fasting and prayers, they and their wiues:

9 The Priests put on hairie clothes, and layd the yong babes before the temple of the Lord, and couered the altar of the Lord with an hairie cloth:

10 And with one accorde they cryed vnto the Lord God of Israel, that their children should not bee giuen into a pray, and their wiues into a spoyle, that their cities should not be layde waste, & that their ‖ sanctuarie should not be vnhalowed, and so they to be a shame and rebuke vnto the heathen. ‖ Or holy things.

11 Then Eliacim the high Priest of the Lord, went round about all Israel, & spake vnto them, 12 Saying, Be ye sure that the Lord wil heare your petitions, if yee continue stedfast in fastings and prayers in the sight of the Lord.

Exo.17.12. 13 Remember * Moses the seruant of the Lorde, which ouerthrewe the Amalekites that trusted in their might and power, in their hoste, in their shieldes, in their charets, and horsemen, not with weapons, but with holy prayers.

14 Euen so shall all the enemies of Israel bee, if ye continue in this worke that ye haue begun.

15 So vpon this exhortation, they continued in prayer before the Lord.

16 Insomuch that they which offered burnt sacrifices vnto the Lord, offered the offrings vnto the Lord, being arayed in hairie clothes, and had ashes vpon their heads.

17 And they all besought God from their whole heart, that he would visite his people of Israel.

The v. Chapter.

Achior the Ammonite doth declare vnto Holophernes of the remnant of the Israelites.

AND worde came to Holophernes the prince of the warre of the Assyrians, that the children of Israel prepared themselues to make rebellion, and how they had stopped the toppes of the mountaines.

2 Then was he exceeding wroth, and called all the princes of Moab, & the captaines of Ammon,

3 And layde vnto them, Tell me, what people is this that keepeth in the mountaines? Or what manner, and how great cities theirs are? what is their power? Or what maner of hoste haue they? who is their captaine?

4 And why doe they despise vs more then all those that dwel in the East, and come not vnto vs to meete vs, that they might receiue vs with peace?

5 Then * Achior the captaine of all the Ammonites, answered and sayde, Sir, if it please thee to heare, I will tell the trueth before thee, concerning this people that dwell in the mountaines, & there shal no vntrueth goe out of my mouth. Iud.11.7.

6 This people is of the generation of the Chaldees:

7 They dwelt first in * Mesopotamia, for they would not followe the gods of their fathers that were in the land of the Chaldees: Gen.11.31.

8 And so forsooke they the custome of their forefathers which had many gods, and worshipped one God that made heauen and earth: which also * commaunded them that they shoulde goe from thence and dwell at Charran. Gen.12.1.

9 * Now when there came a dearth into the whole land, they went downe to Egypt, and there they dwelt foure hundred yeeres, in the which they multiplyed greatly, that their hoste might not be numbred. Gen.41.54. and 46.6.

10 * And when the king of Egypt oppressed them, and yoked them in building of his cities, with making of clay and bricke, they cried vnto God their Lorde, which punished the whole lande of Egypt with diuers plagues. Exod.1.8.

11 * And when the Egyptians had cast them out, & the plague ceased from them, and they following after them to take them, and to bring them againe into their bondage: Exod.14.4.

12 While

12 While they were fleeing away, the God of heauen opened the sea, so that the waters stoode fast vpon both the sides as a wall: and there went thorowe the bottome of the sea dryshod.

13 In the which place when an innumerable people of the Egyptians followed vpon them, they were so ouerwhelmed with the waters, that there remayned not one to tell them that came after how it happened.

14 So when this people was passed thorow the * red sea, they came into the wildernesse of mount Sina, where neuer man might dwell afore, and where the sonne of man had neuer rested. Exod.16.1.

15 There were the bitter * waters made sweete for them, that they might drinke, and fourtie yeeres had they meate from heauen. Exo.15.25.

16 Whersoeuer they went without bow and arrow, without buckler or sworde, their God fought for them, & caused them to haue the victorie.

17 Yea, no man was able to hurt this people, except it were when they departed vnfaithfully from the worshipping of the Lorde their God.

18 But as oft as they worshipped any other beside their God, he gaue them ouer to be spoyled, to be slayne, and to be put to confusion.

19 Neuertheless, as oft as they were sorie for their departing from the worshippe of their God: the same God of heauen gaue them power and strength to withstand their enemies.

20 Moreouer, they * slewe the king of the Chanaanites, Iebusites, Pherezites, Hethites, Heuites, and Amorites, and all the mightie in Hesebon, and tooke their landes and cities in possession: Iosu.12.21.

21 And so long as they sinned not in the sight of their God, it went well with them: for their God hateth vnrighteousnesse.

22 * For in times past, when they went out of the way which God had giuen them, that they should walke in it, they were destroyed in diuers battailes of many nations, and many of them were caryed away prisoners vnto a strange countrey. Iud.2.11. 4.kin.25.1.

23 * But nowe lately they haue turned themselues againe vnto the Lord their God, and are come together againe out of the countreys where they were scattered abroad: and thus haue they conquered these mountaines, and dwell therein: and as for Hierusalem where their Sanctuarie is, they haue it againe in possession. 1.Esdr.1.1.

24 And therefore, my Lord, make diligent inquisition, if this people haue done wickednes in the sight of their God, then let vs goe vp against them: for doubtlesse their God shal deliuer them into thine handes, and subdue them vnto thy power.

25 But if this people haue not displeased their God, we shall not be able to withstande them: for their God shall defend them, and so shall we be a shame to all the world.

26 Nowe when Achior had spoken out these woordes, all the great men of Holophernes were wroth, and thought to slay him, and sayd one to another, 27 What is hee this whiche daye say that the children of Israel are able to withstande Nabuchodonosor the king, and his hostes: whereas they are an vnweaponed people, without strength or vnderstanding of the feates of warre.

28 That Achior therefore may know that he hath deceiued vs, we will goe vp into the mountaines: and when the mightie men of them are taken, he with them shall be slaine with the sword:

29 That all the people may knowe that Nabuchodonosor is the god of the earth, and that there is none other beside him.

The vj. Chapter.

Holophernes blasphemeth God whom Achior confessed.

SO when they had left off speaking, Holophernes tooke fore indignation, and sayde vnto Achior,

2 For so much as thou hast prophecied vnto vs, saying that the people of * Israel shalbe defended of their God: I will shewe thee that there is no God but Nabuchodonosor. Iud.5.5.

3 Yea, when we slay them al as one man, thou also shalt perish with them through the sword of the Assyrians, and all Israel shal be destroyed with thee:

4 And then shalt thou feele that Nabuchodonosor is the lorde of the whole earth: then shal the sword of my knighthood go thorow thy sides, and thou shalt fall down slaine among the wounded of Israel, and ‖ shalt not come to thy selfe againe, but bee vtterly destroyed with them. ‖ Or, shalt not drawe breath againe.

5 Furthermore, if thou thinkest thy prophecie to be true, why doest thou the change thy colour? why art thou afrayde? Thinkest thou that my woordes are not able to bee performed?

6 But that thou mayest knowe that thou shalt feele these things with them, beholde, from this houre forth, will I send thee vnto yonder people, that when the punishment of my sworde (which they haue worthily deserued) falleth vpon them, thou mayest be punished with them.

7 So Holophernes commaunded his seruants to take Achior, and to carry him vnto Bethulia, and to deliuer him into the handes of the children of Israel.

8 Then Holophernes seruãts tooke him, and went thorow the plaine field: but when they drewe nigh vnto the mountaines, the sling casters came out against them.

9 Neuertheless, they gate them away by the side of the mountaine, and bound Achior hand & foote to a tree, and so left him bound with withs, & turned againe vnto their lord.

10 After

10 After that, the children of Israel went downe from Bethulia, came vnto him, loosed him, brought him into Bethulia, set him in the middest of the people, and asked him what the matter was that the Assyrians had left him bound?

11 Ozias the sonne of Micha, of the tribe of Simeon, and Charmi, which is also called Gothoniel, were the principall rulers at the same time.

12 Nowe when Achior stoode in the middest of the Senatours, and before them all, he tolde them what answere he gaue Holophernes to the thing that he asked him, and how Holophernes people would haue slaine him for so saying,

13 And howe Holophernes himselfe was wroth, & commanded him for the same cause to be deliuered vnto ỹ Israelites: that when he ouercame the children of Israel, he might command Achior also to be put to death with diuers torments, because he saide, The God of heauen is their defender.

14 And when Achior had plainely told out all these things, all the people fell downe vpon their faces, praising the Lord, and powred out their prayers together vnto the Lorde, with a generall complaint and weeping,

15 And saide, O Lord God of heauen and of earth, beholde their pride, and looke vpon our lowlinesse, and consider how it standeth with thy saintes, and make it to be knowen that thou forsakest not those which holde thē fast by thee, & howe that thou bringest them lowe that presume of themselues, and make their boast in their owne strength.

16 So when the weeping & prayer of the people (which they had made the whole day long, was ended) they comforted Achior, 17 Saying, The God of our fathers, whose power and strength thou hast praised, shal so reward thee, that thou shalt rather see their destruction.

18 When the Lorde our God then shall giue his seruaunts this libertie, God be also with thee among vs: so that as it shall please thee, so thou with all thine mayest dwell with vs.

19 Now when Ozias had ended the counsell, he tooke him into his house, and made a great supper, 20 Called the elders to it: and so they refreshed themselues after the fasting.

21 And afterward was all the people called together, which made their prayers all the night long ‖ in the congregation, and besought the God of Israel for helpe.

‖ Or, within the Church.

The vij. Chapter.

Holophernes doeth besiege Bethulia.

THe next day Holophernes commaunded his hoste to goe vp against Bethulia.

2 There were an hundred and twentie thousand fighting men on foote, and two and twenty thousand horsemen, besides the preparing of them that were wonne, and came to them on euery side out of the countreys and cities which he had taken.

3 All these prepared themselues vnto the battaile against the Israelites, and came on by the hil side, vnto the top that looketh ouer against Dothain, from the place which is called Belma, vnto Chelmon, that lyeth toward Esdrelon.

4 Now when the children of Israel sawe so great a multitude of the Assyrians, they fell downe flat vpon the grounde, strawed ashes vpon their heads, and prayed with one accord that the God of Israel woulde shewe his mercie vpon his people.

5 And so they tooke their weapons, and sate betwixt the mountaines in the narrow place, and kept the way day and night.

6 But while Holophernes was going rounde about, he founde the water spring, which from the South side was conueyed into the citie by a conduite, and he commanded their conduite to be cut in sunder.

7 There were welles also not farre from the walles, which they vsed secretly, more for pleasure, ‖ then for necessitie.

‖ Or, then to drinke them.

8 Then went the Ammonites & the Moabites vnto Holophernes, & saide, The children of Israel trust neither in speare nor arrowe, but haue taken in and kept the mountaines, and steepe hilles defend them.

9 That thou maist ouercome them therefore without the striking of any battaile, set men to keepe the welles, that they drawe no water out of them, so shalt thou destroy them without sworde: or at the least they shall be so feeble, that they must bee faine to giue ouer the citie, which they thinke not able to be wonne, for so much as it lyeth in the mountaines.

10 These wordes pleased Holophernes well, and all his men of warre, and he set an hundred at euery well round about.

11 And when this watche had endured twentie dayes, the cisternes and all that had water, fayled them that dwelt in the citie of Bethulia, so that in the whole citie they had not drinke ynough for one day, for the people had water giuen them dayly in a measure.

12 Then came the men and women, yong persons and children, all vnto Ozias, and said all with one voyce, 13 God be * iudge betwixt vs and thee, for thou hast dealt euill with vs: thou wouldest not speake peaceably with the king of the Assyrians, therefore hath God sold vs into their handes. * Exo. 5. 21.

14 And there is no man to helpe vs, whereas wee are brought downe before their eyes in thirst and great destruction.

15 Therefore gather now together al the people that be in the citie, that wee may all yeelde our selues willingly vnto the people of Holophernes:

16 For better it is that we be captiue, and praise praise the Lorde with our liues, then to bee slaine and perish, and to be laughed to scorne, and shamed of euery man, when wee see our wiues and children dye before our eyes.

17 We take heauen and earth this day to record, and the God of our fathers, which punisheth vs according to the deseruing of our sinnes, and giue you warning that ye giue vp the citie now into the power of Holophernes hoste, that our ende may bee short with the sword, which els shall endure long for want of water, and for thirst.

18 Whē they had spoken out these words, there was a great weeping and howling in the whole congregation, and that of euery man, and they cried a ‖ whole houre long vnto God with one voyce,

‖Or, many houres.

Psal.105.6.

19 Saying, * We haue sinned with our fathers, we haue done amisse, we haue dealt wickedly:

20 Thou that art gracious, haue mercie vpon vs, or punish our vnrighteousnes with thine owne scourge, and giue not those ouer that knowledge thee, vnto a people which know thee not:

21 That they may not say among the heathen, Where is their God?

22 And when they were so wearie with this crying and weeping, that they held their peace,

23 Olias stoode vp with watrie eyes, and said, O take good hearts vnto you, deare brethren, and be of good cheare, and let vs waite yet these fiue dayes for mercie of the Lord.

24 Peraduenture hee shall put away his indignation, and giue glory vnto his name.

25 But if hee helpe vs not when the fiue dayes are past, we shall doe as ye haue said.

The viij. Chapter.

The parentage, life, and conuersation of Iudith.

AND it happened when these words came to the eares of Iudith, a widowe, which was the daughter of Merari the sonne of Idor, the sonne of Joseph, the sonne of Olia, ỹ sonne of Elai, the sonne of Jamnor, the sonne of Gedeon, the sonne of Raphaim, the sonne of Achitob, the sonne of Melchia, the sonne of Enan, the sonne of Nathania, the sonne of Salathiel, the sonne of Simeon, the sonne of Ruben:

2 And her husbande was called Manasses, which dyed in the dayes of the barley harueste.

3 For while he was binding the sheaues together in the field, the heate came vpon his head, and hee dyed at Bethulia his citie, & there was he buried beside his fathers.

4 Now was Judith his desolate widowe three yeeres and sixe moneths.

5 And in the higher parts of her house she made her selfe a priuie chamber, where shee dwelt, being closed in with her maydens:

6 She ware a smocke of haire, and fasted all the daies of her life, except the Sabboths, and newe moones, and the solemne dayes that the people of Israel kept.

7 Shee was a very faire and beautifull person, her husband also had left her great riches, a plenteous household, great vnmoueable possessions, and many cattell.

8 This Judith was a woman of a very good report with euery one, for she feared the Lorde greatly: and there was no body that spake an euill word of her.

9 When this Judith heard howe Olias had promised the people, that after the fifth day hee woulde giue vp the citie vnto the Assyrians, she sent for the Elders, Chabri and Charmi.

10 And when they came to her, shee saide, What thing is this, wherein Olias hath consented, that if God helpe not within fiue dayes, he will giue ouer the citie to the Assyrians?

11 What are ye, that ye tempt the Lord?

12 This deuice obteyneth no mercie of God, but prouoketh him vnto wrath and displeasure.

13 Wil ye set the mercy of the Lord a time, and appoint him a day after your will?

14 Neuertheless, for so much as the Lord is pacient, let vs rather repent in this, powring out teares, and beseeching him of grace.

15 For God threatneth not as man, neither will he be prouoked vnto wrath, as the children of men.

16 And therefore let vs heartily fal downe before him, and serue him with a meeke spirite,

17 And with weeping eyes say vnto the Lord, that he deale with vs according to his owne will speedily in mercy: that like as our heart is now vexed & brought lowe through the pride of them, it ‖ may so be comforted through his grace,

‖Or, wee may so glorie.

18 In so much as we folow not the sinnes of our fathers, which forsooke their God, and worshipped other gods:

19 For the which sinne they perished with the sworde, were spoyled & brought to shame of al their enemies: as for vs, we know none other God but onely him.

20 For whose comfort let vs tary with meekenesse, and he shall require and make inquisition for our blood from the vexations of our enemies: he shall bring downe all the heathen that rise vp against vs, & put them to dishonour, euen the Lord our God.

21 Therefore deare brethren, seeing ye are the honourable and elders in the people of God, and their life hangeth all vpon you, lift vp their hearts with your exhortation, that they may call to remembrance howe our fathers also in times past were tempted, that they might bee proued if they worshipped their God aright.

22 They ought to remember * howe our father Abraham being tempted, and tryed

Gen.28.7. 23 So was Isahac, so was *Iacob, so was Moses: and all they that pleased God, passed stedfast in faith through manifolde troubles.

24 Againe, they that receiued not their temptations with the feare of God, but put themselues forth with vnpatiencie and murmuring against God,

1.Cor.10.10. 25 *Perished of the destroyer, and were slaine of serpents.

26 And therefore should wee not vndertake to bee auenged for the thinigs that are done vnto vs:

Rom.8.17. 27 *But to consider that all these punishments are farre lesse then our sinnes & misdeedes, & beleeuing that this correction commeth vnto vs as to the seruants of God, for amendment, and not for our destruction.

28 Then saide Ozias and the elders vnto Judith, All that thou speakest is true, and no man can reproue thy wordes.

29 Pray thou for vs nowe therefore vnto God, for thou art an holy woman, and fearest God.

30 And Judith sayd vnto them, Seeing ye know that my wordes are of God, 31 Then proue my counsaile and deuice if it be of God: and beseech God that hee will bring my counsaile to good end.

32 Thus haue I deuised, Ye shall stand this night before the port, and I will goe foorth with Abra my maiden: and pray ye therefore vnto God, that he will graciously remember his people of Israel within fiue dayes, as ye haue sayd.

33 As for the thing that I goe in hand withall, aske ye no questions of it: and till I bring you word againe of it, doe yee nothing els but pray vnto the Lord our God for me.

34 Then Ozias the prince of the people of Juda said vnto her, Goe thy way in peace, the Lord be with thee, that we may be auenged of our enemies. And so they went from her againe.

The ix. Chapter.

1 Iudith humbleth her selfe before the Lorde, and maketh her prayers for the deliuerance of her people.

‖Or, gone vp

NOwe when they were ‖ gone their way, Judith went into her closet, put on a hairie smocke, strawed ashes vpō her head, fell down before ỹ Lord, and cried vnto him, saying,

Gen.34.25 ‖Or, to reuengement of the strangers.

2 O Lorde God of my father *Simeon, which gauest him a sworde for ‖ a defence against the enemies that vsed violence in their vncleannesse, and that rauished the virgin, and put her to shame and confusion:

4 For thou hast made the first things: and after that, loohe what thou hast taken in hand and deuised, it came euer to passe.

5 For all thy waies are prepared, and thy iudgements are put in thy euerlasting foreknowledge.

6 O looke now vpon the ‖ armies of the Assyrians, like as it was thy pleasure sometime to looke vpon the hoste of the Egyptians, when they being weaponed, persecuted thy seruants, and put their trust in their charets, horsemen, and in the multitude of their men of warre.

7 But thou lookedst vpon their hoste, casting a thicke darkenesse before them.

10 And know not that thou onely art our God, which destroyest warres from the beginning, and ‖ that thou art the Lord.

‖Or, and that it appertaineth to thee to be called Lord.

11 O lift vp thine arme nowe like as euer from the beginning, and in thy power bring their power to nought: cause their might to fall in thy wrath, which make their boast that they will vnhalow and defile thy sanctuarie, and to waste the tabernacle of thy name, and to cast downe the horne of thine altar with their sword.

12 Bring to passe, O Lord, that the pride of ‖ the enemie may be cut downe with his owne sword,

‖Or, of this man.

13 That he may be taken with the snare of his eyes in me, and that thou mayest smite him with the lips of my loue.

14 O giue me a stedfast mind, that I may despise him and his strength, and that I may destroy him.

15 This shall bring thy name an euerlasting remembrance, if the *hand of a woman ouerthrowe him.

Iudg.4.21.

16 *For thy power, O Lord, standeth not in the multitude of men, neither hast thou any pleasure in the strength of horses, neither was there from the beginning any proude persons that pleased thee: but in the prayer of the humble and meeke hath thy pleasure bene euermore.

Iudith 7.2. 2.chr.14.11

17 O thou God of the heauens, thou maker of the waters, and Lord of all creatures, heare me poore woman calling vpon thee, and putting my trust in thy mercie,

18 Remember thy couenant, O Lorde, and minister wordes in my mouth, & stablish this deuice in my heart, that thy house may continue still in holinesse:

19 And that all the heathen may knowe that thou art God, and that there is none other but thou.

The x. Chapter.

1 Iudith decketh her selfe, and goeth foorth of the citie.

11 Shee is taken of the watch of the Assyrians, and brought to Holophernes.

AND when she had left off crying vnto the Lord, she rose vp from the place where she had lien flat before the Lord,

2 And called her maiden Abra, went downe into her house, layd the hairie cloth from her, put off the garments of her widowhood,

3 washed her body, anointed her selfe with precious thinges of sweete sauour, braided and platted her haire, set a coyffe vpon her head, and put on such apparell as belonged vnto gladnesse, slippers vpon her feete, bracelets, spangs, earerings, finger rings, and decked her selfe with all her best aray.

4 The Lord gaue her also a speciall beautie and faireneſſe, for all this decking of her selfe was not done for any voluptuousnesse, but of a right discretion and vertue: therfore did the Lord increase her beautie, so that she was exceeding amiable and well fauoured in all mens eyes.

5 She gaue her maiden Abra also a bottell of wine, a pot with oyle, pottage, cake bread and cheese, and went her way.

6 Now when they came to the port of the citie, they found Ozias and the elders of the citie waiting there.

7 Which when they sawe her, they were astonied, and marueiled greatly at her beautie.

Iudith 8.33 8 Neuertheleſſe, they * asked no question at her, but let her go, saying, The God of our fathers giue thee grace, and with his power performe al the deuice of thy heart, that Hierusalem may reioyce ouer thee, and that thy name may be in the number of the holy and righteous.

9 And all they that were there, said with one voyce, So be it, so be it.

10 Judith made her prayer vnto the Lord, and went out at the port, she and her maide Abra.

11 And as she was going downe the mountaine, it happened that about the spring of the day, the spies of the Assyrians met with her, and tooke her, saying, whence commest thou? or whither goest thou?

12 She answered, I am the daughter of the Hebrewes, and am fled from them: for I know that they shalbe giuen vnto you to be spoyled, because they thought scorne to yeeld themselues vnto you, that they might finde mercy in your sight.

13 Therefore haue I deuised by my selfe after this maner: I wil goe before the prince Holophernes, and tell him all their secrets, and will shewe him howe hee may come by them, and winne them: so that not one man of his hoste shall perish.

14 And when these men had heard her wordes, and considered her faire face, they were astonied (for they wondred at her excellent beautie)

15 And said vnto her, Thou hast saued thy life by finding out this deuice, that thou wouldest come downe to our Lord.

16 And bee thou sure, that when thou commest vnto him, he shal entreat thee wel, and thou shalt please him at the heart. So they brought her into Holophernes pauilion, and tolde him of her.

17 Nowe when shee came in before him, immediatly hee was ouercome and taken with her beautie.

18 Then said his seruants, Who would despise the people of the Iewes, that haue so faire women? should wee not by reason fight against them for these?

19 So when Judith sawe Holophernes sitting in a canopy, which was wrought of purple silke, golde, smaragde, and precious stones, 20 She looked fast vpon him, bowed her selfe, and fell downe vpon the earth: and Holophernes seruants tooke her vp againe at their lordes commandement.

The xj. Chapter.

1 Holophernes comforteth Iudith, 3 and asketh the cause of her comming. 5 Shee deceiueth him by her faire wordes.

THen sayde Holophernes vnto her, Be of good cheere, & feare not in thine heart: for I neuer hurt man that would serue Nabuchodonosor the king.

2 As for thy people, if they had not despised me, I should not haue lift vp my speare against them.

3 But tel me now, what is the cause that thou art departed from them, and wherefore art thou come vnto vs?

4 And Judith said vnto him, Sir, vnderstand the wordes of thy handmaiden: for if thou wilt doe after the wordes of thy handmaiden, the Lord shall bring thy matter to a prosperous effect.

5 As Nabuchodonosor the king of ye earth liueth, and as his power liueth, which is in thee to the punishment of all men that goe wrong: all men shal not onely be subdued vnto him through thee, but all the beasts also of the fielde.

6 For all people speake of thy prudent actiuitie, and it hath euer bin reported how thou onely art good and mightie in all his kingdome, and thy ‖ discretion is commended in all lands. ‖ Or, discipline.

7 The thing is manifest also that * Achior spake, and it is well knowen what thou commaundedst to doe vnto him. Iudith 5.5.

8 For this is plaine, and of a suretie, that our God is so wroth with vs by the reason of our sinnes, that he hath shewed by his Prophets vnto the people, howe that for their sinnes he will deliuer them ouer vnto the enemie.

9 And for so much as the children of Israel knowe that they haue so displeased their God, they are sore afraid of thee.

10 They suffer great hunger also, and for want want of water, they are dead nowe in a maner.

11 Moreouer, they are appointed to slay all their cattell, that they may drinke the blood of them:

12 And are purposed to spend ỹ holy things of their God, which he hath forbidden them to touch, as of corne, wine, and oyle, and they wil consume those things which they ought not to touch with their handes: Seeing now that they doe these things, it is a plaine case that they must needes be destroyed.

13 Which when I thine handmaiden perceiued, I fled from them, and the Lorde hath sent me to shew thee these things.

14 For I thine handmaiden worship God, euen nowe here beside thee: and thy handmaiden shall goe forth, and I wil make my prayer vnto God.

15 And he shall tell me when he will reward them their sinne, then shal I come and shew thee, and bring thee thorow the middest of Hierusalem, so that thou shalt haue all the people of Israel as sheepe without a shepheard, and there shall not so much as one dog barke against thee.

16 For these things are shewed me by the prouidence of God.

17 And for so much as God is displeased with them, he hath sent mee to tell thee the same.

18 These wordes pleased Holophernes, and all his seruants: which marueiled at the wisedome of her, and said one to another, 19 There is not such a womā vpon earth, in fauour, in beauty, and discretion of wordes.

20 And Holophernes sayd vnto her, God hath done well that he hath sent thee hither before thy people, that thou maiest giue them into our hands.

21 And forsomuch as thy promise is good, if thy God performe it vnto me, he shal be my God also, and thou shalt be excellent, & great in the Court of Nabuchodonosor, and thy name shalbe spoken of in all the land.

The xij. Chapter.

Judith woulde not pollute her selfe with the meate of the Gentiles.

THen commanded he her to go in where his treasure lay, & charged that she should haue her dwelling there, and appointed what should be giuen her from his table.

2 Judith answered him, and said, As for Gen.43.32. the *meate that thou hast commaunded to giue me, I may not eate of it as nowe, least I displease my God: but wil eate of such as I haue brought with me.

3 Then saide Holophernes vnto her, If these things that thou hast brought with thee fayle, what shal we doe vnto thee?

4 And Judith sayde, As thy soule liueth, my Lord, thy handmaiden shall not spend all this, til God hath brought to passe in my hād the things that I haue deuised. So his seruants brought her into the tent whereas he had appointed.

5 And as she was going in, she desired that she might haue leaue to go forth by night and before day to her prayer, and to make intercession vnto the Lord.

6 Then commaunded Holophernes his chamberlaines, that she should goe out and in at her pleasure, to pray vnto God those three dayes.

7 And so in the night season she went forth into the valley of Bethulia, and washed her selfe in the well water.

8 And comming vp, she besought the Lord God of Israel that hee woulde prosper her way, for the deliuerance of his people.

9 And so shee went in, & remained cleane in her tent, till shee tooke her meate in the euening.

10 Vpon the fourth day it came to passe, that Holophernes made a supper vnto his seruants, and said vnto Vagao his chamberlaine, Goe thy way, & counsel this Hebrewesse, that shee may be willing to consent to keepe company with me.

11 For it were a shame vnto all the Assyrians, that a woman should so laugh a man to scorne, that shee were come from him vnmedled withall.

12 Then went Vagao vnto Judith, and said, Let not the good daughter be afraide to come in to my Lord, that she may be honored before him, that she may eate & drinke wine, and be mery with him.

13 Vnto whom Judith answered, Who am I, that I should say my Lord nay?

14 Whatsoeuer is good and best before his eyes, I shal doe it: and looke what is his pleasure, that shall I thinke well done as long as I liue.

15 So she stood vp, & deckt her selfe with her apparel, & went in, and stood before him.

16 And Holophernes heart was whole moued: for he burnt in desire toward her.

17 And Holophernes said vnto her, Drink nowe, and sit downe, and be mery, for thou hast found fauour before me.

18 Then said Judith, Sir, I wil drinke, for my minde is merier to day then euer it was in all my life.

19 And she tooke, and did eate, and dranke before him the things that her maiden had prepared for her.

20 And Holophernes was mery with her, and dranke more wine then euer he did afore in his life.

The xiij. Chapter.

7 Judith prayeth for strength. 10 She smiteth off Holophernes head. 12 She returneth to Bethulia, and reioyceth her people.

NOwe when it was late in the night, his seruants made haste euery man to his lodging, and Vagao shut the chamber dores, and went his way.

Plal.105.1. 2 * For they were all ouerladen with wine.

3 So was Judith alone in the chamber.

4 As for Holophernes, he lay vpon the bed all drunken, and of very drunkennesse fell asleepe.

5 Then commaunded Judith her mayden to stand without before the doore, and to waite.

6 And Judith stoode before the bed, making her prayers with teares, and mooued her lips secretly,

7 And said, Strengthen me, O Lord God of Israel, and haue respect vnto the workes of mine hands in this houre, that thou mayst set vp thy citie of Hierusalem, like as thou hast promised: and graunt that I may performe the thing, which in hope that it may be done by thee, I haue deuised.

8 And when she had spoken this, she went to the pillar that was at Holophernes beds head, and loosed his sword that hanged vpon it, and drew it out:

9 And when shee had taken it out of the scabberd, she tooke holde of the hairie lockes of his head, and sayde, Strengthen me, O Lord God, in this houre.

Eccl.31.30. 10 * And with that shee gaue him two strokes vpon the necke, & smote off his head: then tooke she the canopie away from the pillars, and rolled the dead body aside.

11 Immediatly she gate her forth, and deliuered the head of Holophernes vnto her maiden, and bade her put it in her wallet.

12 And so these two went forth together after their custome, as though they would pray: and so passed by the hoste, and came about thorow the valley vnto the port of the citie.

13 And Judith cried a farre off vnto the watchmen vpon the wals, Open the gates, saide she, for God is with vs, which hath shewed his power in Israel.

14 And when they heard her voyce, they called the elders of the citie together.

15 And they came all to meete her, little and great, yong and olde: for they thought not that she should haue come so soone.

16 So they lighted candles, and gathered about her euery one: but shee went vp into an high place, and caused silence to be proclaimed.

17 And when euery man nowe helde his peace, Judith sayd, O prayse the Lorde our God, for hee hath not despised nor forsaken them that put their trust in him:

18 And in mee his handmaiden hee hath performed his mercy, which he promised vnto the house of Israel: Yea, in my hand this same night hath he slaine the enemie of his people.

19 And with that she tooke forth the head of Holophernes out of the wallet, and shewed it them, saying, Beholde the head of Holophernes the captaine of the armie of the Assyrians, and this is his canopie wherein he lay in his drunkennesse, where the Lorde our God hath slaine him by the hand of a woman.

20 But as the Lord liueth, his angel hath kept me, going thither, remaining there, and comming hither againe from thence: and the Lord hath not suffered me his handmayden to be defiled, but without any defiling of sinne hath he brought me againe vnto you, and that with great victorie, so that I am escaped, and ye deliuered.

21 * O giue thankes vnto him euery one, 1.Sa.17.15. for he is gracious, and his mercy endureth for euer.

22 So they prayed the Lord all together, and gaue thanks vnto him, and to her they said, The Lord hath blessed thee in his power, for through thee hee hath brought our enemies to nought.

23 And Ozias the chiefe ruler of the people of Israel, said vnto her, O daughter, blessed art thou of the Lord the high God, aboue all women vpon earth.

24 Blessed be the Lord the maker of heauen and earth, which hath guided thee aright to wound and to smite off the head of the captaine of our enemies.

25 For this day hee hath made thy name so honourable, that thy prayse shall neuer come out of the mouth of men, which shal alway remember the power of the Lord, seeing thou hast not spared thine owne selfe, but put thee in ieopardie, considering the anguish of thy people, and so hast helped their fall before God our Lord.

26 And all the people said, Amen, Amen.

27 Achior also was called, and hee came: then said Judith vnto him, The God of Israel, vnto whom thou gauest witnesse that hee would be auenged of his enemies, euen he hath this night through my hand smitten off the head of all the vnfaithfull.

28 And that thou mayest see that it is so, beholde, this is the head of Holophernes, which in his presumptuous pride despised the God of Israel, and threatned thee with destruction, saying, when the people of Israel is taken, I shall cause thee also to be stickt with the sword.

29 When Achior saw Holophernes head, he fell downe vpon his face to the ground, for very anguish and feare, so that hee swooned withall.

30 But after that he was come againe to himselfe, he fel downe before her, and praised her, saying, 31 Blessed art thou of thy God in all the tabernacles of Jacob: for all the people that heare of thy name, shall prayse the God of Israel, because of thee.

The xiiij. Chapter.

1 Iudith causeth to hang vp the head of Holophernes, 6 Achior ioyneth himselfe to the people of God. 7 The Israelites goe out against the Assyrians.

Judith

Iudith said vnto all the people, Brethren, heare mee, * Sticke vp his head vpon our walles:

2 And when the Sunne ariseth, take euery man his weapon, and fal out violently: not as though ye would goe beside them, but to runne vpon them with violence.

3 When the spies see this, they shall of necessitie be compelled to flee backward, and to raise vp their captaine to the battel.

4 So when their captaines come into Holophernes pauilion, and finde the dead bodie wrapped in the blood, fearefulnesse shall fall vpon them.

5 So when ye perceiue that they flee, follow them without all care, for God shall ‖ deliuer them vnto you to be destroyed.

6 Then Achior seeing the power of God, which hee had shewed vnto the people of Israel, fell off from his heathenish beliefe, and put his trust in God, and let himselfe bee circumcised, and so was hee numbred among the people of Israel, hee and all his posteritie vnto this day.

7 Now as soone as it was day, they sticke vp Holophernes head vpon the walles, and euery man tooke his weapon, and so they went out with an horrible cry.

8 When the spies sawe that, they ranne vnto Holophernes tent.

9 And they that were within the tent, came before his chamber, and made a great rushing, that Holophernes might awake, not by stirring him vp, but by their noyse.

10 For there durst not one of the Assyrians knocke, goe in, or open.

11 But when the captaines and princes, and all the chiefe in the king of the Assyrians host came together, they said vnto the chamberlaines, 12 Goe your way in, and wake him vp: for the mice are crept out of their holes, and dare prouoke vs vnto battell.

13 Then Bagao went into his chamber, stoode before the ‖ bed, and clapped with his handes: for he thought hee had bene sleeping with Judith.

14 But when he hearkened perfectly with his eares, and could perceiue no stirring, he went nigher to the ‖ bed, and lift it vp, and when he sawe the dead body of Holophernes lying there without a head, weltring in his blood vpon the earth, hee cryed with a loude voyce, and with weeping, rent his clothes,

15 And went into Judiths tent, and found her not.

16 And so hee lept out vnto the people, and saide, One woman of the Iewes hath brought all Nabuchodonosors people to shame: for loe, Holophernes lieth vpon the ground, and hath no head.

17 When the chiefe of the Assyrians hoste heard that, they rent their clothes, and there fel an intollerable feare and trembling vpon them: so that their minds were sore afraide.

18 And there was an exceeding great cry in ‖ the whole hoste.

‖ Or, middest of the hoste.

The xv. Chapter.

1 The Assyrians are afraide and flee. 6 The Israelites pursue them.

NOwe when all the hoste heard that Holophernes was beheaded, their minde and counsell fell from them: and being amazed with feare onely and trembling, they saued themselues by fleeing away.

2 One spake not to another, but hanged downe their heads, left all behind them, and made haste to escape from the Hebrewes: for they heard that they were hasting to come after with their weapons, and so they fled by the wayes of the fieldes, and thorowe all the footepaths of the ‖ dales.

‖ Or, woods.

3 And when the children of Israel sawe that they fled, they followed vpon them, and went downe with trumpets, blowing, and making a great cry after them.

4 As for the Assyrians, they had no order, and kept not themselues together, but fledde their way: neuertheless, the children of Israel fell vpon them with one company and order, and discomfited as many as they might get.

5 And Ozias sent messengers vnto all the cities and countries of Israel.

6 So all the region and euery citie sent out their best men after them in harnesse, & smote them with the sword, till they came to the vttermost part of their borders.

7 And the other that were in Bethulia, came into the tents of the Assyrians, & tooke all that they which were fled had left behind them, and so they found great good.

8 And they that came againe to Bethulia from the battell, tooke with them such things as had bene theirs: there was no number of the cattel, and of all costly iewels, so that from the lowest vnto the highest, they were all made rich of the spoiles of them.

9 And Joachim the high priest, came from Hierusalem to Bethulia, with all the elders, that they might see Judith.

10 Nowe when she came out vnto them, they began all to prayse her with one voyce, saying, Thou worship of the citie of Hierusalem, thou ioye of Israel, thou honour of our people.

11 Because thou hast done manly, and thy heart is comforted, and for that thou hast loued cleanlinesse & chastitie, and hast known no man but thine owne husbande: therefore hath the hande of the Lorde comforted thee, and blessed shalt thou be for euer.

12 And all the people saide, So bee it, so be it.

13 In thirtie dayes could the people of Israel scarse gather vp the spoyles of the Assyrians.

14 But all that belonged vnto Holophernes, nes, and had bene his specially, whether it were of golde, of siluer, precious stone, clothing, and all ornaments, they gaue it vnto Judith, and it was deliuered vnto her of the people.

15 And all the people reioyced, both women, maydens, and yong people, with pipes and harpes.

The xvj. Chapter.

1 Iudith praiseth God with a song. 25 She offereth to the Lord Holophernes stuffe. 26 Her continencie, life, and death. 29 All Israel lamenteth her.

THen sang Judith this song vnto the Lord, saying,

2 Beginne vnto the Lorde vpon the tabrets, sing vnto the Lorde vpon the cymbales, O sing vnto him a new song of thankesgiuing, be ioyfull, and call vpon his Name.

3 It is the Lord that destroyeth warres, euen the Lord is his Name:

4 Which hath pitched his tentes in the midst of his people, that hee might deliuer vs from the hand of all our enemies.

5 Assur came out of the mountaines of the North in the multitude of his strength: his people stopped the water brookes, and their horses couered the valleis.

‖Or, borders. 6 He purposed to haue burnt vp my ‖land, and to slay my yong men with the sworde.

7 Hee woulde haue caried away my children and virgins into captiuitie, but the Almightie Lorde hindered him, and deliuered him into the handes of a woman ‖ which brought him to confusion.

‖Or, which did sticke him thorow 8 For their mightie was not destroyed of the yong men, it was not the sonnes of Titan that slew him, neither haue the great giants set themselues against him: but Judith the daughter of Merari, with her faire beautie hath discomfited him, and brought him to nought.

9 For shee layde away her widowes garment, and put on the apparell of gladnesse, to the reioycing of the children of Israel.

10 Shee annoynted her face with oyntment, and bound vp her haire in a coife, and tooke a newe ‖ stoale to beguile him.

‖Or, garment. 11 Her slippers rauished his eyes, her beautie captiuated his mind, with the sword smote she off his necke.

12 The Persians were astonied at her stedfastnesse, and the Medes at her boldnesse.

13 Then howled the armies of the Assyrians, when my simples appeared dry of thirst.

14 The sonnes of the daughters haue pearced them thorow, and slaine them as fugitiue children, they perished in the battell

‖Or, from the face. ‖ for the very feare of the Lord my God.

15 Let vs sing a song of thankesgiuing vnto the Lord, a new song of praise will wee sing vnto our God.

16 Lorde, Lorde, thou art a great God, mightie in power, whom no man may ouercome.

17 All thy creatures must serue thee: * for thou spakest but the worde, and they were made, thou sentest thy spirite, and they were created, & no man can withstand thy voyce. * Gen.1.1. psal.33.9.

18 The mountaines shall moue from the foundations with the waters, the stonie rockes shall melt before thee like ware.

19 But they that feare thee, shalbe great with thee in all things.

20 Woe vnto the people that rose vp against my generation: for the Almightie Lord will auenge himselfe of them, and in the day of iudgement will he visite them.

21 For hee shall giue fire and wormes in their flesh, that they may burne and feele it for euermore.

22 After this it happened, that after the victorie, all the people came to Hierusalem, to giue praise and thanks vnto the Lord: and when they were purified, they offred all their whole burnt sacrifices, and their vowes, and their promised offerings.

23 And Judith offered all Holophernes weapons, and all the iewels that the people had giuen her, and the canopie that shee tooke from his bed, and hanged them vp ‖vnto the Lord.

‖The olde interpreter hath, In anathema obliuionis.

24 The people were ioyfull as the vse is: and this ioy with Judith, by reason of the victorie, endured three moneths.

25 So after these dayes, euery man went home againe, and Judith was in great reputation at Bethulia, and right honourably taken in all the land of Israel.

26 Unto her vertue also was chastitie ioyned, so that after her husbād Manasses died, she neuer knew man all the dayes of her life.

27 Upon the high solemne dayes, she went out with great worship.

28 She dwelt in her husbands house an hundred and fiue yeeres, and left her handmaiden Abra free, 29 And died, and was buried beside her husband in Bethulia: & all the people mourned for her seuen dayes.

30 So long as she liued, there was none that troubled Israel, and many yeeres also after her death.

31 The day wherein this victory was gotten, was solemnly holden, and reckoned of the Iewes in the number of the holydayes, as it is yet greatly holden of the Iewes euer since, vnto this day.

The dreame of Mardocheus.

MArdocheus the ſonne of Iari, the ſonne of Semei, the ſonne of Cis, of the tribe of Beniamin,

2 A Iew, which had his dwelling in the citie of Suſis, a mã of great reputation, & excellent among all them that were in the kings court:

3 Neuertheleſſe, he was one of the priſoners whom * Nabuchodonoſor the king of Babylon had caried away from Hieruſalem vnto Babylon, with Iechonias the king of Iuda.

* 4. Reg. 24. 15. ier. 24. 1.

4 In the ſeconde yeere of the reigne of great Artaxerres, in the firſt day of the moneth Niſan, had this Mardocheus ſuch a dreame.

5 He thought hee heard a great tempeſt, horrible thunderclaps, earthquakes, and great vproze in the land,

6 And that he ſawe two great dragons, ready to fight one againſt another.

7 Their crie was great: at the which roaring and crie, al the heathen were vp to fight againſt the righteous people.

8 And the ſame day was full of darkneſſe, and very vncleare, full of trouble and anguiſh, yea, a great fearefulneſſe was there in the land.

9 The righteous were amaſed, for they feared the plague and euill that was deuiſed ouer them, and were at a point with themſelues to die: So they cried vnto God.

10 And while they were crying, the litle well grew into a great riuer, and into many waters.

11 And with that it was day, & the ſunne roſe vp againe: and the lowly were exalted, and deuoured the glorious and proud.

12 Nowe when Mardocheus had ſeene this dreame, he awoke, and muſed ſtedfaſtly in his heart what God would doe: and ſo he deſired to know all the matter, and his mind was thereupon vntill night.

The xij. Chapter.

Mardocheus vttereth the treaſõ deuiſed againſt the king, and is therefore rewarded of him.

AT the ſame time dwelt Mardocheus with Bagatha and Thara in the kings court, the kings chamberlaines and porters of the palace.

2 But when hee heard their deuice, and had diligently conſidered their imaginations, hee perceiued that they went about to lay their cruell handes vpon the king Artaxerres, and ſo he certified the king thereof.

3 Then cauſed the king to examine the two ‖ gelded with torments: and when they had graunted it, they were put to death.

‖ Or, chamberlaines.

4 This the king cauſed to bee put in the chronicles for an euerlaſting remembrance, and Mardocheus wrote vp the ſame matter.

5 So the king commanded that Mardocheus ſhould remaine in the court, and for this faithfulneſſe of his, hee gaue him a reward.

6 But Aman, the ſonne of Amadathu the Agagite, which was holden in great honour and reputation in the kings court, vndertooke to hurt Mardocheus and his people, becauſe of the two chamberlaines that were put to death.

The xiij. Chapter.

1 The copie of the letters of Artaxerxes againſt the Iewes. 9 The prayer of Mardocheus.

THE great king Artaxerres, which reigneth from India vnto Ethiopia, ouer an hundred and twentie and ſeuen lands, ſendeth his friendly ſalutation vnto all the princes and deputies of the countreys, which be ſubiect vnto his dominion.

2 When I was made lord ouer many people, & had ſubdued the whole earth vnto my dominion, my minde was not with crueltie and wrong to exalt my ſelfe, by the reaſon of my power: but purpoſed with equitie alway and gentleneſſe, to gouerne thoſe that be vnder my iuriſdiction, and wholy to ſet them in a peaceable life, & thereby to bring my kingdome vnto tranquilitie, that men might ſafely go thorow on euery ſide, and to renew peace againe, which all men deſire.

3 Nowe when I aſked my counſellers howe theſe things might bee brought to a good ende, there was one by vs excellent in wiſedome, whoſe good will, trueth, & faithfulneſſe hath oft beene ſhewed and proued, (which was alſo the principall and next vnto the king) Aman by name,

4 Which certified vs, howe ỹ in all lands there was ſcattered abroade a rebellious folke, that made ſtatutes and lawes againſt all other people, and haue alway deſpiſed the proclaimed commaundements of kings, and how that for this cauſe it were not to be ſuffered, suffered, that such rule shoulde continue by you, and not to be put downe.

5 Seeing nowe wee perceiue the same, that this people alone are contrary vnto euery man, vsing strange and other maner of lawes, and withstand our statutes and doings, and goe about to stablish shrewde matters, that our kingdome should neuer come to good estate and stedfastnesse,

6 Therefore we haue commaunded, that all they that are appointed in writing, and shewed vnto you by Aman, which is ordeined and set ouer all our lands, and the most principall next vnto the king, and in maner as a father, shall with their wiues and children bee destroyed and rooted out with the sword of their enemies and aduersaries, and that there shall be no mercie shewed, and no man spared: & this shall be done the fourteenth day of the moneth called Adar, of this yeere:

7 That they which of olde, and nowe also haue euer beene rebellious, may in one day with violence be thrust downe into the hell, to the intent that after this maner our empire may haue peace and tranquilitie.

8 But Mardocheus thought vpon al the workes & noble actes of the Lorde, and made his prayer vnto him, 9 Saying, O Lorde, Lord, thou valiant and almighty king, for all things are in thy power: and if thou wilt helpe and deliuer Israel, there is no man that can withstand or let thee.

10 For thou hast made heauen and earth, and what wonderous thing soeuer is vnder the heauen.

11 Thou art Lord of all things, and there is no man that can resist thy maiestie, O Lord.

12 Thou knowest all things, thou wotest Lorde that it was neither of malice nor presumption, nor for any desire of glory, that I would not bowe downe my self, nor worship ponder proud presumptuous Aman:

13 (For I would haue bene content, and that with good will, if it might haue done Israel any good, to haue kist euen his foote-steppes.)

14 But that I did it because I would not set the honour of a man in the stead of the glory of God, and because I woulde worship none but onely thee, my Lord: and this haue I done in no pride nor presumption.

15 And therefore, O Lord, thou God and king, haue mercie vpon thy people, for they imagine how they may bring vs to nought, yea, their mind and desire is to destroy and to ouerthrowe thy people that hath euer beene thine inheritance of olde.

16 O despise not thy portion, which thou hast deliuered and brought out of Egypt for thine owne selfe.

17 Heare my prayer, and be mercifull vnto thy people whom thou hast chosen for an heritage vnto thy selfe, turne our complaint and sorowe into ioy, that wee may liue, O Lord, and praise thy name: O Lorde, suffer not the mouthes of them that praise thee, to be destroyed.

18 All the people of Israel in like maner cried as earnestly as they coulde vnto the Lorde, for their death and destruction stoode before their eyes.

The xiiij. Chapter.

The prayer of Esther for the deliuerance of her and her people.

QVeene Esther also being in the ‖ battell of death, reiorted vnto the Lord, ‖ Or, perill.

2 Layed away her glorious apparell, and put on the garments that serued for sighing and mourning: In the stead of precious ointment, she scattered ashes and dung vpon her head: and as for her body, she humbled it with fasting, and brought it very lowe: Al the places where she was woont to haue ioy afore, those filled she with her owne haire that shee pluckt off.

3 She prayed also vnto the Lorde God of Israel with these wordes, O my Lord, thou only art our king, helpe me desolate woman, which haue no helper but thee:

4 For my miserie and destruction is hard at my hand.

5 *From my youth vp, I haue heard out of the kinred of my father, that thou tookest Israel from among all people, and so haue our fathers of their forefathers, that they should be thy perpetuall inheritance, & looke what thou diddest promise them, thou hast made it good vnto them. *Deut.4.20.

6 Now Lord, we haue sinned before thee, therefore hast thou giuen vs into the hands our of enemies,

7 Because we worshipped their gods: Lord thou art righteous.

8 Neuertheless, it satisfieth them not that wee are in bitter and heauie captiuitie, & oppressed among them, but they haue laide their hands vpon the hands of their gods,

9 So that they beginne to take away the thing that thou with thy mouth hast ordeined and appointed, to destroy thine inheritance, to shut & to stop the mouthes of them that praise thee, to quench the glory and worship of thine house and thine altar:

10 And to open the mouthes of the heathen, that they may praise the power and vertue of the gods, and to magnifie the fleshly king for euer.

11 O Lord, giue not thy scepter vnto them that be nothing, least they laugh vs to scorne in our miserie and fal: but turne their deuice vpon themselues, and punish him that hath begun the same ouer vs, and set him to an example.

12 Thinke vpon vs, O Lord, & shewe thy selfe vnto vs in the time of our distresse, and of our trouble: strengthe me, O thou king of of Gods, thou Lord of all power:

13 Giue me an eloquent & pleasant speach in my mouth before the lion: turne his heart into the hate of our enemie, to destroy him, and all such as consent vnto him.

14 But deliuer vs with thy hand, & helpe me thy handmaide, which haue no defence nor helper, but onely thee Lord.

15 Thou knowest al things, thou wotest that I loue not the glory and worship of the vnrighteous, and that I hate and abhorre the bedde of all the vncircumcised, and of all heathen.

16 Thou knowest my necessitie, that I hate the token of my preeminence and worship, which I beare vpon my head, what time as I must shewe my selfe and be seene, and that I abhorre it as an vncleane cloth, and that I weare it not when I am quiet and alone by my selfe.

17 Thou knowest also that I thy handmaiden haue not eaten at Amans table, and that I haue had no pleasure nor delight in the kings feast, that I haue not drunke the wine of the drinke offerings,

18 And that I thy handmaiden haue no ioy, since the day that I was brought hither, vnto this day, but onely thee, O Lorde, O thou God of Abraham.

19 O thou mightie God aboue all, heare the voice of them that haue no other hope, and deliuer vs out of the hand of the wicked, and deliuer me out of my feare.

The xv. Chapter.

1 Mardocheus mooueth Esther to goe in vnto the king, and make intercession for her people. 9 And she performed his request.

MArdocheus also bade Esther go in vnto the king, and pray for her people, and for her countrey.

2 Remember (saith hee) the dayes of thy lowe estate, how thou wast nourished vnder my hande: for Aman which is next vnto the king, hath giuen sentence of death against vs:

3 Call thou therefore vpon the Lord, and speake for vs vnto the king, and deliuer vs from death.

4 And vpon the third day it happened, that Esther laid away the mourning garments, and put on glorious apparell,

5 And decked her selfe goodly (after that she had called vpon God, which is the beholder and sauiour of all things) and tooke two maidens with her:

6 Vpon the one she leaned her selfe, as one that was tender:

7 The other followed her, and bare the traine of her vesture.

8 The shine of her beautie made her face rose coloured, the similitude of her face was chearefull and amiable: but her heart was sorowfull for great feare.

9 She went in thorow al the doores, and stoode before the king: the king sate vpon the throne of his kingdome, and was clothed in his goodly aray, all shining with golde, & set with precious stones, & he was very terrible.

10 Hee lift vp his face that shone in the clearenes, and looked grimly vpon her: then fell the Queene downe, was pale and faint, leaned her selfe vpon the heade of her maide that went with her.

11 Neuertheselle, God turned the kings mind, that he was gentle, that he leaped out of his seate for feare, & gate her in his armes, and held her vp till shee came to her selfe a- Pro.21.1.
gaine, he gaue her louing wordes also, and said vnto her,

12 Esther, what is the matter? I am thy brother, be of good cheare:

13 Thou shalt not die, for our commandement toucheth the commons, and not thee: come nigh.

14 And with that he held vp his golden rodde, and laide it vpon her necke, 15 And embraced her friendly, and sayde, Talke with me.

16 Then said she, I saw thee, O Lord, as Gen.33.10 an angel of God, and my heart was troubled 2.reg.19.
for feare of thy maiestie and clearenesse. 27.

17 For excellent and wonderful art thou, O lord, and thy face is full of amitie.

18 But as shee was thus speaking vnto him, she fell downe againe for faintnesse:

19 For the which cause the king was afraid, and all his seruants comforted her.

5 It happeneth oft also, that they which be set in office by the higher power, and vnto whome the business and causes of the subiects are committed to bee handled, ware proude, and defile themselues with shedding of innocent blood, which bringeth them to intollerable hurt.

15 But we finde that the Jewes (which were accuſed of the wicked, that they might

Jewes may freely and without hinderance hold themſelues after their owne ſtatutes:

20 And that they may be helped, and that vpon the thirteenth day of the twelfth mo-neth Adar, they may bee auenged of them, which in the time of their anguiſh & trouble would haue oppreſſed them.

21 For the God that gouerneth al things, hath turned to ioy the day wherein the choſen people ſhould haue periſhed.

22 Moreouer, among the hie ſolemne dayes that ye haue, ye ſhall hold this day alſo with all gladneſſe:

23 That now, and in time to come, this day may bee a remembrance of good, for all ſuch as loue the proſperitie of the Perſians:
but a remembrance of deſtruction to thoſe that be ſeditious vnto vs.

24 All cities and lands that doe not this,

The iiij. Chapter.

1 Of vertue, & the commoditie thereof. 10 The death of the righteous, & the condemnation of the vnfaithfull.

O howe faire is a chaste generation with vertue! the memoriall thereof is immortall: for it is knowen with God and with men.

2 When it is present, men take example at it, and if it go away, yet they desire it: it is crowned, & euer triumpheth, when it hath wonne the reward of the vndefiled battels.

3 But the multitude of the vngodly abounding in children, shall profite nothing, nor giue deepe roote by the seede of adulterie, nor lay any fast foundation.

4 For *though they bud forth in the branches, for a time, yet shall they be shaken with Iere.17.6. mat.7.19. the wind, for they stand not fast, and through the vehemencie of the wind they shalbe rooted out.

5 The vnperfect branches shalbe broken, their fruit shall be vnprofitable, and sowre to eate, yea, meete for nothing.

6 And why? all the children that are borne of the wicked bed, must beare recorde of the wickednesse against their fathers & mothers when they be asked.

7 But though the righteous bee ouertaken with death, yet shall he be in rest.

8 For honourable age is not that which standeth in length of time, nor that that is measured by number of yeeres:

9 But a mans wisedome is the gray haire, and an vndefiled life is the olde age.

10 Hee *pleased God, and was beloued of Gen.5.24. him, so that whereas hee liued among sinners, he translated him. heb.11.5.

11 Yea, speedily was he taken away, to the intent that wickednesse should not alter his vnderstanding, and that deceite shoulde not beguile his soule.

12 For wickednesse with bewitching, doeth darken the honest things: & the lightnesse of ‖voluptuous desire, ‖turneth aside the single mind. ‖Or, concupiscence. ‖Or, chargeth, or altereth.

13 Though he was soone dead, yet fulfilled he much time:

14 For his soule pleased God, therfore hasted he to take him away ‖ from among the wicked. ‖Or, from out of the middest of wickednes.

15 This the people see, and vnderstand it not, they lay not vp such things in their hearts, howe that the louing fauour & mercie of God is vpon his saints, and that hee hath respect vnto his chosen.

16 Thus the righteous that is dead, condemneth the vngodly which are liuing: and the youth that is soone brought to an ende, the long life of the vnrighteous.

17 For they see the ende of the wise: but they vnderstand not what God hath deuised for him: and wherefore the Lord hath taken him away to be in safetie.

18 And why? they see him, & despise him, therfore shall God also laugh them to scorne.

19 So that they themselues shal die hereafter without honour, yea, in shame among the dead for euermore: for without any voice shall he burst those that be pust vp, and shake them from the foundations, so that they shal be laide as vtterly wasted: they shal be in sorrow, and their memoriall perish.

20 So they shall come afrayde in remembrance of their sinns, and their own iniquities before their face shall conuince them.

The

The v. Chapter.

1 The constantnesse of the righteous before their persecutours. 14 The hope of the vnfaithfull is vaine. 15 The blessednesse of the Saints and godly.

THen shall the righteous stande in great boldnes before the face of such as haue dealt extremely with them, and taken away their labours.

2 When they see it, they shalbe vered with horrible feare, and shal wonder at his health, so farre beyond all that they looked for.

3 And changing their opinion, with groning for the vexation of minde, they shall say, This is he whome sometime we had in derision, and iested vpon.

Wisd.3.3. 4 *We fooles thought his life very madnesse, and his ende to be without honour:

5 But loe howe is he counted among the children of God, and his portion is among the saints.

6 Therefore haue we erred from the way of trueth, the light of righteousnes hath not shined vnto vs, and the sunne of vnderstanding rose not vpon vs.

7 We haue wearied our selues in the way of wickednesse and destruction, yea, we haue gone thorowe tedious desarts, but as for the way of the Lord, we haue not knowen it.

8 What good hath pride done vnto vs? or what profit hath the pompe of riches brought vs?

1.Chro.29.15. 9 *All those things are passed away like a shadowe, and as a Poste that passeth by:

10 As a ship that passeth ouer the waues of the water, which when it is gone by, the trace thereof can not bee founde, neither the path of it in the floods:

Pro.30.19. 11 *Or as a bird that flyeth thorowe in the ayre, & no man can see any token where thee is flowen, but onely heareth the noyse of her wings, beating the light winde, parting the ayre through the vehemencie of her going, and flyeth on shaking her wings, whereas afterward no token of her way can be found:

12 Or like as when an arrowe is shot at a marke, it parteth the ayre, which immediatly commeth together againe, so that a man can not knowe where it went thorowe:

13 Euen so we in like maner, as soone as we were borne, began immediatly to drawe to our end, & haue shewed no token of vertue, but are consumed in our owne wickednesse.

This verse is onely in the olde interpreter. Iob 8.9. Or, dust. Or, some.

14 Such wordes they that haue sinned speake in the hell:

15 For the hope of the *vngodly is like a ‖dry thistle flowre that is blowen away with the winde, like a thinne ‖ scummę is scattered abroad with the storme, like as the smoke which is dispersed heere and there with the winde, and as the remembrance of a stranger that tarieth but a day, and then departeth.

Psal.37.5. 16 But the *righteous shall liue for euermore, their reward also is with the Lorde, and the care for them is with the highest.

17 Therefore shal they receiue a glorious kingdome, and a beautifull crowne of the Lordes hand: for with his right hand shal he couer them, and with his arme shall hee defend them.

18 *His iealousie also shal take on harnesse, and he shal arme the creature to be reuenged of his enemies. Psal.17.9.

19 *Hee shall put on righteousnesse for a brestplate, and take vnfaigned iudgement in steade of an helmet. Ephe.6.13.

20 The inuincible shielde of equitie shall he take.

21 His fierce wrath shall he sharpen for a sword, and the whole compasse of the worlde shall fight with him against the vnwise.

22 Then shal the thunder bolts go ‖right out of the lightnings, and come as out of the well bent bowe of the cloudes, to the place appointed. ‖or, straight.

23 And as from an angry caster of stones, there shal fall thicke hayles, and the water of the sea shalbe wroth against them, and the floods shal runne roughly together.

24 Yea, a mightie winde shall stande vp against them, and a storme shall scatter them abroade: thus vnrighteous dealing shall bring all the land to a wildernesse, and wickednesse shall ouerthrowe the royall ‖ seates of the mightie. ‖or, thrones

The vj. Chapter.

2 The calling of the Kings, Princes, and Iudges, which are also exhorted to search wisedome.

WIsedome is * better then strength: and a man of vnderstanding is more worth then one strong. This verse is onely in the olde interpreter. Pro.16.32.

2 Heare therefore (O yee kings) and vnderstande, O learne, ye ẏ be iudges of the ends of the earth.

3 Giue eare, ye that rule the multitudes, and glory in the number of peoples.

4 *For the power is giuen you of the Lorde, and the strength from the highest, which shall trie your workes, and search out your imaginations: Rom.13.1.

5 How that ye being officers of his kingdome, haue not giuen true iudgement, haue not kept the lawe of righteousnesse, nor walked after the will of God.

6 Horribly, and that right soone, shall he appeare vnto you: for an hard iudgement shall they haue that beare rule.

7 Mercy is granted vnto the lowest: but they ẏ be in authoritie, shalbe sore punished.

8 *For he which is Lord ouer all, shal ‖ accept no mans person, neither shal he stand in awe of any mans greatnes: for he hath made the small and great, and careth for all alike. Deu.10.17 ‖Or, feare, or, spare.

9 But the mightie shall haue the sorer tryall.

10 Vnto you therefore (O ye kings) doe I speake, that ye may learne wisedome, and not goe amisse.

11 For they that keepe holinesse ‖ holily, shalbe ‖Or, holy things.

shalbe iudged holy: and they that haue learned such things, shall finde defence.

‖Or, couet my words. ‖Or, be instructed and learned.

12 Wherefore ‖ set your delight vpon my wordes, and desire them, so shall ye ‖ come by nurture.

13 Wisedome is a noble thing, and neuer fadeth away: yea, she is easily seene of them that loue her, and found of such as seeke her.

14 She preuenteth them that desire her, that she may shew her selfe vnto them.

15 Who so awaketh vnto her betimes, shall haue no great trauaile: for he shal finde her sitting ready at his doores.

16 To thinke therefore vpon her, is perfect vnderstanding: and who so watcheth for her, shall quickly be dispatched of care.

17 For she goeth about seeking such as are meete for her, sheweth her selfe cheerefully vnto them ‖ in their goings, & meeteth them with all ‖ diligence.

‖Or, in their wayes. ‖Or, euery thought. ‖Or, discipline.

18 For the vnfaigned desire of ‖ reformation is her beginning: to care for nurture, is loue:

19 And loue is the keeping of her lawes: and the keeping of her lawes, is the assurãce of immortalitie:

20 And immortalitie maketh a man familiar with God.

21 And so the desire of wisedome leadeth to the kingdome euerlasting.

Num. 27. 16. ‖Or, honour

22 * If your delight bee then in royall seates and scepters (O ye kings of the people) set your ‖ lust vpon wisedome, that yee may reigne for euermore.

This verse is onely in the olde interpreter.

23 O loue the light of wisedome, all yee that be rulers of the people.

24 As for wisedome, what she is, and how she came vp, I will tell you, and will not hide the mysteries of God from you: but will seeke her out from the beginning of her natiuitie, and bring the knowledge of her into light, and will not keepe backe the trueth.

25 Neither wil I haue to doe with consuming enuie: for such a man shall not be partaker of wisedome.

26 But the multitude of the wise is the welfare of the worlde: and a wise king is the ‖ vpholding of the people.

‖Or, stay.

27 O receiue nurture then through my wordes, and it shall doe you good.

The vij. Chapter.

Wisedome ought to be preferred aboue all things.

MYself also am a mortal man, like as all other, and am come of ẏ earthly generation of him that was first made,

Iob 10.10.

2 And in my * mothers wombe was fashioned to be fleth in the time of ten moneths, being brought together in blood, through the seede of man, and the pleasure that came with sleepe.

3 And when I was borne, I receiued like ayre as other men, and fell vpon the earth which is of like nature, crying and weeping at the first as all other doe.

4 I was wrapped in swadling clothes, and brought vp with cares.

5 For there is no king that hath had any other beginning of birth:

6 * All men then haue one entrance vnto life, and one going out in like maner.

Iob 1.21. 1.tim.6.7.

7 Wherefore I desired, and vnderstanding was giuen me: I called, and the spirite of wisedome came into me.

8 I set more by her, then by kingdomes and royall seates, & counted riches nothing in comparison of her.

9 * As for precious stone, I compared it not vnto her, for all golde is but a litle gravel vnto her, and siluer shalbe counted but clay before her sight.

Iob 28.15,

10 I loued her aboue ‖ welfare and beautie, and purposed to take her for my light: for her light can not be quenched.

‖Or, health.

11 * All good things together came to me with her, and innumerable riches thorowe her hands.

3.Reg.3. 13.

12 And I was glad in all things, because wisedome went before them: and I knewe not that shee was the mother of them.

13 And I my selfe learned vnfaignedly, and make other men partakers of her without enuie, and hide her riches from no man.

14 For shee is an infinite treasure vnto men: which whoso vse, become partakers of the loue and friendship of God, and are accepted vnto him for the giftes of ‖ wisedome.

‖Or, knowledge.

15 God hath graunted me to speake what my minde conceiueth, and to thinke as is meete for the things that are giuen me: for it is he that leadeth vnto wisedome, and teacheth to vse wisedome aright.

16 For in his hand are both we and our wordes, yea, all our wisdome and knowledge of his workes.

17 For he hath giuen me the true science of the things that are, so that I knowe how the world was made, and the powers of the elements:

18 The beginning, ending, and middest of the times, how ẏ times alter, how one goeth after another, and how they are fulfilled,

19 The course of the yeere, the ordinances of the starres,

20 The natures of liuing things, the furiousnesse of beasts, the power of the windes, the imaginations of men, the diuersities of yong plantes, the vertues of rootes:

21 And all such things as are either secrete or manifest, them haue I learned.

22 For wisedome, which is the worker of all things, hath taught me: for in her is the spirite of vnderstanding, which is holy, one onely, manifolde, subtile, ‖ quicke, mouing, cleare, vndefiled, playne, sweete, louing the thing that is good, sharpe, which cannot be letted, doing good,

‖Or, lively.

23 Kinde to man, stedfast, sure, free from care, hauing all ‖ vertues, ‖ circumspect in all things, and passing thorowe all vnderstanding, cleane and subtile spirits.

‖Or, power ‖Or, hauing regard of.

24 For

24 For wisdome is nimbler then all nimble things, she goeth thorowe, and atteineth to all things, because of her cleannesse.

25 For shee is the breath of the power of God, and a pure influence flowing from the glory of the Almightie God: therefore can no defiled thing come to her.

Hebr.1.3. 26 For* she is the brightnesse of the euerlasting light, the vndefiled mirror of the maiestie of God, and the image of his goodnesse.

27 And being but one, shee can doe all things: and remayning in her selfe, shee renueth all, and in all ages of times entring into holy soules, shee maketh Gods friendes, and Prophets:

28 For God loueth none, if hee dwell not with wisedome.

29 For shee is more beautifull then the sunne, ‖ & giueth more light then the starres, and the day is not to be compared vnto her.

‖Or, aboue al the order of starres.

30 For vpon ‖ the day commeth night: but wickednesse can not ouercome wisedome.

‖Or, it.

The viij. Chapter.

The effects of wisedome.

‖Or, she.

‖ Wisedome reacheth from one ende to another mightily, and ‖ louingly doeth shee order all things.

‖Or, profitably.

‖Or, sought.

2 I haue loued her, and ‖ laboured for her from my youth vp: I did my diligence to marrie my selfe with her, such loue had I vnto her beautie.

3 That shee hath the companie of God, it commendeth her nobilitie: yea, the Lorde of all things himselfe loueth her.

4 For shee is the schoolemystresse of the knowledge of God, and the chuser out of his workes.

‖Or, if riches be a possession that a man would desire.

5 If ‖ a man woulde desire riches in this life, what is richer then wisedome that worketh all things?

6 For if prudencie worke, what is it among all things that worketh better?

7 And if a man loue righteousnes, her labours are but vertues: For why? she teacheth soberneſſe and prudence, ‖ righteousnesse and strength, which are such things as men can haue nothing more profitable in their life.

‖Or, iustice and manhood.

8 If a man desire much ‖ knowledge, she can tell the things that are past, and discerne things for to come: shee knoweth the subtilties of wordes, and can expounde darke sentences: shee foreseeth signes and wonders or euer they come to passe, and the ‖ endes of all times and ages.

‖Or, much experience.

‖Or, succesſe of times.

9 Therefore I purposed after this maner: I will take her into my cõpany, that she may liue with me, knowing for certaintie she shal giue mee good counsell, and speake comfortably vnto me in my carefulnesse and griefe.

10 For her sake shall I be wel and honestly taken among the commons, and with honor among the elders, though I be yong.

11 I shalbe founde to bee of sharpe iudgement, so that I shall bee marueilous in the sight of great men: ‡ and the faces of princes shall wonder at me.

‡ This part of the eleuenth verse is onely in the olde translation.

12 When I hold my tongue, they shal bide my leasure, and when I speake, they shal giue good eare vnto me, and if I talke much, they shall lay their hands vpon their mouth.

13 Moreouer, by the meanes of her, I shal obteine immortalitie, and leaue behinde mee an euerlasting memoriall among them that come after me.

14 ‖ I shall set the people in order, and the nations shalbe subdued vnto me.

‖Or, I shall gouerne the people.

15 Horrible tyrants shalbe afrayde when they do but heare of me, amõg the multitude I shalbe counted good, and mighty in battel.

16 When I come home, I shall finde rest with her: for her companie hath no bitternesse, and her fellowship hath no tediousnes, but mirth and ioy.

17 Now when I considered these things by my selfe, and pondered them in my heart, howe that to be ioyned vnto wisedome is immortalitie, 18 And great pleasure to haue her friendship, and that in the workes of her hands are infinite riches, and that whoso ‖ keepeth company with her, shalbe wise, & that hee which talketh with her shall come to honor: I went about seeking how to get her vnto me.

‖Or, exerciseth talke with her.

19 For I was a lad of ripe wit, and had a good ‖ vnderstanding.

‖ Or, spirite with me.

20 ‖ But when I grewe to more vnderstanding, I came to an vndefiled body.

‖ Or, yea rather being good.

21 Nevertheless, when I perceiued that I coulde not enioy it, except God gaue it me, and that was a point of wisedome also to knowe whose gift it was, I stepped vnto the Lord, and besought him, and with my whole heart I said after this maner.

The ix. Chapter.

A prayer of Solomon to obteine wisedome.

‖Or, the.

O God of ‖ my fathers, and Lord of mercie, thou hast made all things with thy word,

2 And ordeyned man through thy wisedome, that hee shoulde haue dominion ouer the creatures which thou hast made,

3 That he should ‖ order the world according to equitie and righteousnesse, and execute iudgement with a ‖ true heart:

‖ Or, gouerne.

‖ Or, vpright.

4 * Giue me wisedome, which is euer sitting about thy seat, and put me not out from among thy children:

3. Reg. 3.9.

5 * For I thy seruant and sonne of thy handmayden am a feeble person, and of a short time, ‖ and too yong to the vnderstanding of iudgement and lawes.

Psal. 115. 16.

‖ Or, and yet lesse in.

6 And though a man bee neuer so perfect among the childrẽ of men, yet if thy wisdome be not with him, he shalbe nothing regarded.

7 Thou hast chosen me to be a king vnto thy people, and the iudge of thy sonnes and daughters:

8 Thou hast commaunded mee to builde

a temple vpon thy holy mount, and an altar in the citie wherein thou dwelleſt, a likeneſſe of thy holy Tabernacle, which thou haſt prepared from the beginning:

Pro.8.22. 9 *And thy wiſedome with thee, which knoweth thy workes, which alſo was with thee when thou madeſt the world, and knew what was acceptable in thy ſight, and right in thy commandements.

10 O ſende her out of thy holy heauens, and from the throne of thy maieſtie, that ſhe may be with mee, and labour with me, that I may know what is acceptable in thy ſight.

11 For thee knoweth and vnderſtandeth all things, and thee ſhall leade mee ſoberly in ‖Or, by. my workes, and preſerue me ‖ in her power.

12 So ſhall my workes be acceptable, and then ſhall I gouerne thy people righteouſly, and be worthy to ſit in my fathers ſeate.

Eſa.40.13. 13 *For what man is he that can knowe the counſel of God? or who can thinke what the will of God is?

14 For the thoughts of mortall men are ‖Or, dread- ‖miſerable, & our forecaſts are but vncertain. full.

15 For why? a corruptible body is heauie vnto the ſoule, and the earthie manſion keepeth downe ‖ that vnderſtanding that muſeth vpon many things. ‖Or, the minde that hath many cares.

16 Very hardly can wee diſcerne the thinges that are vpon earth, and ‖great labour haue wee or wee can finde the thinges ‖Or, and with much labor finde we out the things that are in our hands. which are before our eyes: and who hath then ſought out the grounde of the thinges that are done in heauen?

17 Oh Lorde who can haue knowledge of thy ‖ vnderſtanding and meaning, except thou giue wiſedome, and ſend thy holy Ghoſt from aboue? ‖Or, counſaile.

18 For ſo the wayes of them which liued on the earth were reformed, and men haue learned the thinges that are pleaſant vnto thee, and were preſerued through wiſedome.

The x. Chapter.

The deliuerance of the righteous, and deſtruction of the enemies commeth through wiſedome.

HE preſerued the firſt fourmed father of the worlde that was created alone, & brought him out of his fall:

Gen.2.20. 2 *And gaue him power to rule all things.

Gen.4.8. 3 But when the vnrighteous went away in his wrath from her, *hee periſhed by the furious deſire to murder his brother.

Gene.7.21. 4 For whom when the water *deſtroyed the whole world, wiſedome againe preſerued it her ſelfe, gouerning the iuſt man by no coſtly worke of wood.

Gen.11.1. 5 *Moreouer, when the nations were confounded or ioyned together in their malicious confederacie, ſhe founde out the righteous, & preſerued him faultleſſe vnto God, and kept him ſtrong againſt the loue of his ſonne.

Gen.19.17. 6 *She preſerued the righteous when he fled from the vngodly that periſhed, what time as the fire fell downe vpō the fiue cities.

7 Like as yet this day the vnfruitful waſte and ſmoking lande giueth teſtimonie of their wickednеſſe: yea, the ‖ vnripe and vntimely fruites that growe vpon the trees, and for a token of a remembrance of the vnfaithfull ſoule, there ſtandeth a pillar of ſalt. ‖Or, neuer riping.

8 For all ſuch as regarded not wiſedome, gate not onely this hurt, that they knew not the things which were good: but alſo left behinde them vnto men a memoriall of their fooliſhneſſe, ſo that in the thinges wherein they ſinned, they could not be hid.

9 But as for ſuch as tooke heede vnto wiſedome, ſhee hath deliuered them from ſorrowe.

14 *And failed him not in the bandes, till Gen.41.40. ſhee had brought him the Scepter of the Realme, and power againſt thoſe that oppreſſed him: as for them that had accuſed him, ſhee declared them to bee lyars, and brought him to perpetuall ‖ worſhip. ‖Or, glory.

15 *She deliuered the righteous people, Exod.1.6. and faultleſſe ſeede, from the nations that oppreſſed them.

16 *Shee entred into the ſoule of the ſer- Exod.3.10. uant of the Lord, and ſtoode by him in wonders and tokens againſt the dreadfull kings.

17 She gaue the ‖ righteous the rewarde ‖Or, the of their labours, and ledde them forth a ma- ſaints. rueilous way: on the day time ſhee was a ſhadowe vnto them, and a light of ſtarres in the night ſeaſon.

18 *She brought them thorowe the red Exo.14.21. ſea, and caried them thorow the great water.

19 But ſhee drowned their enemies in the ſea, but brought them out of the bottome of the deepe.

20 *So the righteous tooke the ſpoyles Exo.12.31. of the vngodly, and *praiſed thy holy Name, Exo.15.1. O Lord, and magnified thy victorious hand with one accorde.

21 For wiſedome openeth the mouth of the dumbe, and maketh the tongues of babes to be eloquent.

The xj. Chapter.

1 The miracles done for Iſrael. 13 The vengeance of ſinners. 28 The great power and mercie of God.

She

SHe ‖ ordered their workes in the *hands of the holy Prophet:
2 So that they went through the wildernesse that was not inhabited, and pitched their tents in the waste desart.
3 *They stood against their enemies, and were auenged of their aduersaries.
4 *When they were thirstie, they called vpon thee, and water was giuen them out of the most high rocke, and their thirst was quenched out of the hard stone.
5 For by the things wherethrough their enemies were punished, were the ‖ children of Israel helped in their neede.
6 For in steade of a fountaine of the perpetuall running flood, all troubled with gorie blood,
7 In reproche of the commaundement published to murder the infants, thou gauest vnto them abundance of water, and that not looked for neither:
8 Declaring by that thirst then, how thou hadst punished thine aduersaries.
9 *For when they were tried and nurtured with fatherly mercie, they knew how the vngodly were iudged and punished in the wrath of God.
10 *For these hast thou exhorted as a father, and proued them: but vnto the other thou hast bene a boysterous king, ‖ laid hard to their charge, and condemned them.
11 Whether they were absent or present, their punishment was alike.
12 For their griefe was double, & mourning for the remembrance of things past.
13 For when they perceiued that their punishments did them good, they ‖ thought vpon the Lorde.
14 For whome, in his casting out before as an abiect, they had denied with derision, him in the ende, when they sawe what happened, they wondred at: for they were of an other thirst then was the iust.
15 But for the foolish deuises of their wickednesse, wherewith being deceiued, they worshipped serpents that had not the vse of reason, and vile beastes, thou sentest a multitude of vnreasonable beastes vpon them for reuengeance:
16 That they might knowe, that looke wherewithal a man sinneth, by the same also shall he be punished.
17 For vnto thy almightie hand that made the world of nought, it was not impossible to sende among them an heape of Beares, or wood Lyons,
18 *Or cruell beastes of a strange kinde, such as are vnknowen, or spoute fire, or cast out a smoking breath, or shoote horrible sparkes out of their eyes:
19 Which might not onely destroy them with hurting, but also kill them with their horrible sight.
20 Yea, without these beastes might they haue bene slaine with one winde, being persecuted by the reuengeance, and scattered abroad through the breath of thy power: neuertheless, thou hast ordered all things in measure, number, and weight.
21 For thou hast euer had great strength & might, and who may withstand the power of thine arme?
22 For why? like as the small thing that the balance weigheth, so is the world before thee: yea, as a droppe of the morning dewe that falleth downe vpon the earth.
23 *But thou hast mercie vpon all, for thou hast power of all thinges, and makest thee as though thou sawest not the sinnes of men, because they should amend, Rom.2.4.
24 For thou louest al the things that are, and hatest none of them whome thou hast made: for thou wouldest not haue made any thing, if thou hadst hated it.
25 Yea, how might any thing endure, if it were not thy will? or howe could any thing be preserued, except it were called of thee?
26 But thou sparest al, for they are thine, O Lorde, thou louer of soules.

The xii. Chapter.

2 The mercie of God toward sinners. 14 The workes of God are vnreproueable. 19 God giueth leasure to repent.

FOr thy incorruptible spirit, O Lorde, is in all things.
2 Therefore chastenest thou the meaturably that go wrong, and warnest them, by putting them in remembrance in what thinges they haue offended, that leauing their wickednes, they may beleeue on thee, O Lorde.
3 *As for those olde inhabiters of thy holy lande, thou mightest not away with them: Deut.9.3. and 12.19.
4 For they committed abominable workes against thee, as witchcraft, sorcerie, and wicked sacrifices:
5 They slewe their owne children without mercie, they did eate vp the bowels of mens flesh, and deuoured the blood in abominable banquets, and had their mad fanaticall priestes:
6 And the fathers were the chiefe murderers of the soules destitute of helpe, these doers thou wouldest destroy by the hands of our fathers:
7 That the land which thou louest aboue all other, might be a meete dwelling for the children of God.
8 Neuertheless, thou sparedst them also as men, and sentest the forerunners of thine hoste euen hornets, to destroy them but by litle and litle.
9 Not that thou wast vnable to subdue the vngodly vnto the righteous in battaile, or with cruell beastes, or with one rough worde to destroy them together:
10 But executing thy iudge was in punishing them by litle and litle, to giue them place for amendeamendment, knowing well that it was an vnrighteous nation, and wicked of nature, & that their thought might neuer be altered:

11 For it was a cursed seede from the beginning, yet hast thou not pardoned their sinnes wherein they offended, for that thou fearest any man.

Rom.9.20. 12 *For who dare say vnto thee, what hast thou done? or who will stande against thy iudgement? or who will blame thee for the nations that perish, whome thou hast made? or who will come before thy face to be reuenged for the vnrighteous men?

1.Pet.5.7. 13 For there is none other God but thou, that carest for al things, that thou mayest declare howe that thy iudgement is not vnright.

14 There dare neither king not tyrant, in thy sight, require accounts of them whome

‖Or, punished. thou hast ‖ destroyed.

15 For so much then as thou art righteous thy selfe, thou orderest all things righteously, thinking it vnseemely for thy power to condemne him that hath not deserued to be punished.

16 For thy power is the beginning of righteousnesse, and because thou art Lorde of all things, it maketh thee to bee gratious vnto all.

17 For when men thinke thee not to be of a full strength, thou declarest thy power, and reproouest the boldenesse of the wise.

‖Or, ruling. 18 But thou ‖ mastering thy power, doest iudge with equitie, and orderest vs with great fauour: for thou mayest vse power whē thou wilt.

19 By such workes now hast thou taught thy people, that the iust man should bee louing, and hast made thy children to bee of a good hope, because thou giuest roome to repentance for sinnes.

20 For in so much as thou hast punished, and with such deliberation and obtestation, the enemies of thy seruaunts which were woorthie to die, whereth rough thou gauest them time and place of amendement, that they might turne from their wickednesse:

21 With howe great circumspection then punishest thou thine owne children, vnto whose fathers thou hast sworne, and made couenants of good promises?

22 So whereas thou doest chasten vs,

‖Or, scourgest. thou ‖ punishest our enemies a thousande times more: to the intent that when we punish, we should diligently thinke of thy goodnesse, and when we our selues are ‖ punished,

‖Or, iudged we should hope for mercie.

23 Wherefore, whereas men haue liued dissolutely and vnrighteously, thou hast punished them sore with their owne abominations.

25 Therefore hast thou sent thē thy iudgement in scorne, as to children voyde of reason.

26 As for such as will not bee reformed by those scornes and rebukes, they shal feele the worthie ‖ punishment of God.

‖Or, iudgement.

27 For looke in what thinges they ‖ disdayned when they ‖ suffered for their sakes whom they counted gods, seeing themselues punished in the ‖ same, they perceiued that he was in deed the true God, whom before they had denied to knowe, and therefore came extreme damnation vpon them.

The xiii. Chapter.

1 All things be vaine, except the knowledge of God. 10 Idolaters and idoles are mocked.

Surely vaine are all men by nature, which were ignorant of God, and * could not out of the Rom.8.19. good thinges that are seene, know him ỹ of himselfe is euerlasting, neither tooke so much regarde of the workes that are made, as thereby to knowe who was the craftesman of them:

2 *But some tooke the fire, some the wind or swift aire, some the course of the starres, Deut.4.19. some the running water, Some tooke Sunne and Moone, or the lightes of heauen, for gods that rule the worlde.

3 But though they had such pleasure in their beautie, that they thought thē to haue bin gods, yet should they haue knowen how much more ‖ fairer he is that made them: for ‖Or, excellent. the ‖ maker of beautie hath ordeined all ‖Or, the first author. things.

4 Or if they marueiled at the power and worke of them, they should haue perceiued thereby, howe much he which made these things, is mightier then they.

5 For by the greatnesse of the beautie and of the creatures, the maker thereof compared with them, may plainely be ‖ knowen. ‖Or, seene.

6 Notwithstanding, they are the lesse to be blamed that seeke God, and would finde him, and yet peraduenture ‖ misse: ‖Or, erre.

7 *For they being occupied in his works, Rom.1.25. doe seeke them diligently, and are perswaded by the sight, because the things are beautiful that are seene.

8 Howbeit, yet neither are they to be excused.

9 For if their vnderstanding and knowledge be so great, that they can ‖ discerne the ‖Or, coniecture. worlde and the creatures, why doe they not rather finde out the Lorde thereof?

10 But miserable are they, and ‖ among ‖Or, in dead thinges. the dead is their hope, that call them gods which are but the workes of mens handes, golde, siluer, and the thing that is found out by ‖ cunning, the similitude of beasts, or any ‖Or, arte. vaine stone that hath beue made by hande of olde.

11 *Or as when a carpenter cutteth down Eccle.44. a tree meete for the purpose, and pareth off al 12. the barke cunningly, and so by arte cunnely ierem.10.3. maketh a vessell profitable to the vse of life:

12 And with that which is cut off from his worke, doeth dresse his meate to fill his belly:

13 And as for the other part that is left, which is profitable for nothing (for it is a crooked peece of wood, and full of knobs) he carueth it diligently by leasure, and according to the knowledge of his cunning, he giueth it some proportion, fashioneth it after the similitude of a man,

14 Or maketh it like some vile beast, straketh it ouer with redde, and painteth it, and looke what foule spot is in it, he casteth some colour vpon it,

15 Then maketh he a ‖conuenient tabernacle for it, setteth it in a wall, and maketh it fast with yron:

16 Prouiding so for it, least it happen to fall, ‖ for it is well knowen that it can not helpe it selfe: for why? it is but an image, and must of necessitie be helped.

17 Then making prayer for his goods, for his marriage, and for children, hee is not ashamed to speake to that which hath no soule.

18 For health, he maketh his petition vnto him that is ‖ sicke: for life, he humbly prayeth vnto him that is dead: he ‖ calleth vpon him for helpe, that hath no experience at all: and to sende him a good iourney, he prayeth him that may not goe.

19 And for gaine, for worke, and for successe of his affaires, he asketh power of him which is without all maner of power.

‖Or, corruptible.

9 * For the vngodly and his vngodlinesse Psal.5.7. are both like abominable vnto God.

10 Euen so the worke, and he that made it also, shalbe punished together.

11 Therefore shal there a plague come vpon the idoles of the heathen: for out of the creature of God they are become an abomination, a ‖ temptation vnto the soules of men, and a snare for the feete of the vnwise.

‖Or, a slander and offence, or stumbling blocke.

12 For why? the ‖ seeking out of idoles, is the beginning of whoredome, and the ‖ bringing vp of them, is the ‖ destruction of life.

‖Or, deuising.

13 For they were not from the beginning, neither shall they continue for euer.

‖Or, inuentions.

14 The vaine glorie of men hath founde them out vpon earth, therefore shall they come shortly to an ende.

‖Or, the corruption.

15 For when a father mourned heauily for his sonne, ‖ suddenly taken away from him, he made him an image: and him which then was but a dead man, he nowe began to worship as a God, and ordeined for his ‖ seruants ceremonies and sacrifices.

‖Or, soone.
‖Or, subiects.

16 Thus by processe of time this ‖ vngratious custome being waxen strong, was kept as a lawe, and images were worshipped by commandement of tyrants.

‖Or, wicked.

17 As for those that were so farre off, that men might not worshippe them present, their visage being drawen out from farre off, was made as the ‖ cleare image of an honourable King, that they might with ‖ affection flatter as well the absent as the present.

‖Or, gorgeous.
‖Or, diligence.

18 Againe, the singular ambition of the craftes man gaue the ignorant also a great occasion to encrease the superstition.

19 For hee willing to please one, peraduenture that ‖ bare rule, laboured with all his cunning to make the image of the best fashion.

20 And so through the beautie of the worke, the ‖ common people being thereto allured, took him nowe for a God, which a little before was but honoured as a man.

‖Or, multitude.

21 And this was to the deceiuing of mans life, when men either with calamitie or tyrannie oppressed, ascribed vnto stones and stockes that name of God which ought not to be giuen to any thing els.

24 So that they kept neyther life nor mariage cleane: but eyther one slue another traiterously, or grieued him by adulterie.

‖Or, of idoles that ought not once to bee named of vs.

27 For why? the honouring of ‖ abominable images, is the beginning, the cauſe and ende of all euill.

‖Or, vniuſtly.

28 For they that worſhip idoles, either they are mad when they are merrie, or prophecie lies, or liue ‖ vngodly, or elſe lightly forſweare themſelues.

‖Or, life.

29 For in ſo much as their truſt is in the idoles which haue no ‖ ſoule, though they ſweare falſely, yet they thinke it ſhal not hurt them.

30 Therfore commeth a great plague vpon them, and that worthily for both cauſes: for they haue an euill opinion of God that giue heede vnto idoles, and they ſweare vniuſtly in deceit, deſpiſing holinesse.

‖Or, iudgement.

31 For it is not the power of them by whome they ſweare, but it is the iuſt ‖ vengeance of ſinners, that puniſheth alwayes the offence of the vngodly doers.

The xv. Chapter.

Rom.9.20.

7 * For the potter tempereth ſoft earth, laboureth it, and giueth it the faſhion; or whatſoeuer veſſell ſerueth for our vſe: and of the ſelfe ſame clay he maketh both the veſſels that ſerue for cleane vſes, and alſo ſuch as ſerue to the contrarie: whereunto euery veſſell ſerueth, the potter him ſelfe being the iudge.

8 So by his wicked labour hee maketh a vaine god of the ſame clay, this doeth euē he which a little before was made of earth him ſelfe, and within a little while after returneth to the ſame out of which he was taken, when the lone of his life ſhall be demanded from him againe.

9 Notwithſtanding he careth not the more for this that he muſt labour, nor that his life is ſhort: but ſtriueth to excell Goldeſmithes and Siluerſmithes, and endeuoureth to doe like the copper ſmithes, and taketh it for an honour to make ‖ deceiueable things.

‖Or, to drawe the ayre or breath.

16 For man made them, and he that borowed his owne ſpirite faſhioned them: but no man can make a god like vnto himſelfe.

17 For ſeing he is but mortall, it is but mortall that hee maketh with vnrighteous hands: he himſelfe is better then they whom he worſhippeth, for he liued, as they did neuer.

18 Yea they worſhipped ſuch beaſtes alſo as are ‖ moſt hatefull: for if they were compared, for ‖ madneſſe they are worſe then others.

Exo. 10.4. apoc. 9.7.

9 *For then when they were bitten with grashoppers and flyes, they dyed, neyther was there any remedie founde for their life, for they were worthy to be punished by such.

10 But not the very teeth of venemous dragons did ouercome thy children: for thy mercie was euer by them, and healed them.

11 For they were pricked, because they should remember thy wordes, but speedily were they healed againe, lest they should fall into so deepe forgetfulnesse, that they might not be called backe by thy benefite.

Exod. 9.23.

16 *For the vngodly that would not know thee, were punished by the strength of thine arme: with strange raynes, hailes, and showres were they persecuted that they could not auoide, and through fire were they consumed.

17 For it was a wonderous thing that fire might doe more then water which quencheth all things: but the worlde is the auenger of the righteous.

18 For sometimes was the fire so tame, that the beastes which were sent to punish the vngodly burnt not, & that because they should see and know that they were persecuted with the punishment of God.

19 And sometime burnt the fire in the middest of the water, that it might destroy the fruites of the vniust land.

23 The fire also forgate his owne strength againe, that the righteous might bee nourished.

24 For the creature ỳ serueth thee which art the maker, is fierce in punishing the vnrighteous, but is easie and gentle to doe good vnto such as put their trust in thee.

25 Therefore did it alter at the same time into all fashions, and was obedient vnto thy grace, which is the nurse of all things, according to the desire of them that had neede thereof:

The xvij. Chapter.

The iudgements of God against the wicked.

FOr great are thy iudgements, O Lord, and cannot be expressed: therefore men doe erre that wil not be reformed by thy wisedome.

2 For when the vnrighteous thought to haue thy holy people in subiection, they were bounde with the bondes of *darkenesse and long night, shut vp vnder roofes, & lay there to escape the eternall prouidence.

Exo. 10,23.

3 And while they thought to be hid in the darkenes of their sinnes, they were scattered abroad in the very middest of the darke couering of forgetfulnesse, put to horrible feare, and ‖ wonderously vexed.

‖Or, astonied with sightes of strange apparitions, yea, many terrible and ‖ strange visions appeared vnto them:

‖ Or, phantasies with wofull coũtenances.

5 No power of the fire might giue them light, neither might the cleare flames of the starres lighten the horrible night:

6 But there appeared vnto them sudden fire onely, very dreadfull: at the which light, wherein they sawe nothing throughly, they were so afraide, that they thought the thing which they sawe to be ‖ the more fearefull.

‖ Or, the worse.

7 *As for the illusions of the magical art, they came to nought, & it was a most shamefull reproch of the pride that they had of their owne wisedome.

Exod. 7.29.

8 For they that promised to driue away the feares and troubles from the sicke soule, were sicke themselues with feare, worthy to be laughed at.

9 For though no terrible thing did feare them, yet were they afraide at the beastes which passed by them, and at the hissing of the Serpents.

10 In so much that with trembling they ‖ swooned, and ‖ said they sawe not the ayre, which no man yet may escape.

‖ Or, dyed. ‖ Or, & denied euento see the ayre.

11 For malice is a dreadfull thing that is condemned by his owne witnesse: and being pressed with conscience, it euer ‖ suspecteth cruell things.

‖ Or, forecasteth.

12 For feare is nothing els but a ‖ betraying of the succours which reason offereth.

‖ Or, a forsaking & reuolting of the helpes which reason suggesteth.

13 And looke how much the lesse his hope is within, the greater doeth he recount his ignorance of that cause that bringeth the torment.

14 But they that did endure the night that in deede was intollerable, & that came from the dungeons of intollerable hell, sleeping the same sleepe, 15 Were sometimes chased with monsterous apparitions, & sometimes they swooned as their owne soules had betrayed them: for an hastie feare, and that was not looked for, came vpon them.

16 And thus whosoeuer was there fallen, he was in prison, but without chaines.

17 For whether a man had occupied husbandry, or had bene an heardman, or labourer in the ‖ woods, if he were taken, he suffered ‖ intollerable necessitie.

‖ Or, alone, or in the desarts.

18 For they were all bounde with one chaine of darknes: whether it were a blasing winde, or a sweete song of the birdes among the thicke branches of the trees, or the vehemencie of hastie running water,

‖ Or, that could not be escaped.

19 Or great noyse of the falling downe of stones, or the running of playing beastes, which they sawe not, or the mightie noyse of roaring wilde beastes, or ‖ the sound that answered againe in the holownes of the mountaines: these terrible things made them swoone for very feare.

‖ Or, eccho.

20 For all the ‖ earth shined with cleare light, and no man was hindered in his labour.

‖ Or, world.

21 Onely vpon them there fell an heauie night, an image of darkenesse that was to come vpon them: yea, they were vnto themselues more heauie then darkenesse.

6 *Of that night were our fathers certified afore, that they knowing vnto what othes they had giuen credence, might be of good cheare.

Exo. 14.24.

7 Thus thy people receiued the health of the righteous, but the vngodly were destroyed.

8 For like as thou hast ‖ reuenged our enemies, so hast thou promoted vs whom thou hast called.

‖ Or, punished.

9 For the righteous children of the good men offered secretly, and made a godly lawe with one consent, that the saintes shoulde in like maner receiue together both good and euill, and that the fathers nowe should first sing prayses.

10 But there was heard a disagreeing voyce of the enemies, and there was a miserable lamentation for children that were bewayled.

11 *The master and the seruant were punished after one maner: and like as the king, so suffered the common people.

Exo. 12.27.

12 So they had innumerable that dyed with one kinde of death altogether, neither were the liuing sufficient to burie ‖ the dead: for in the twinckling of an eye the noblest ofspring of them was destroyed.

‖ Or, them.

13 For whereas they would discredite all thinges, by reason of the enchauntments, in the destruction of the first borne, they acknowledged that this people was the children of God.

14 For while all things were still in silence, lence, and when the night was in the middeſt of her courſe, thy almightie worde, O Lorde, leapt downe from heauen out of thy royall throne,

Or,fierce. 15 As a ‖ rough man of warre in the middeſt of the land that was deſtroyed, 16 And brought thine vnfained commandement as a ſharpe ſworde, and ſtanding vp, filled all things with death, yea, it ſtoode vpon the earth, and reached vnto the heauen.

17 Then the ſighes of the euill dreames vexed them ſuddenly, and fearefulneſſe came vpon them vnawares.

18 Then lay there one heere, another there, halfe dead, halfe quicke, and ſhewed the cauſe of his death.

19 For the viſions that vexed them, ſhewed them theſe thinges afore, that they might not be ignorant wherefore they periſhed.

20 Yea, the temptation of death touched the righteous alſo, & ‖ among the multitude Nu.16.46. 21 * For the blameleſſe man went in all the haſte, and tooke the battell vpon him, brought forth the weapon of his miniſtration, euen prayer, and the reconciliation of incenſe, ſet himſelfe againſt the wrath, and ſo brought the miſerie to an ende, declaring thereby that he was thy ſeruant.

Or,the deſtroyer. 22 For hee ouercame not the ‖ multitude with bodily power or force of weapons: but

Exo.28.11. 24 *And why? in his long garment was all the beautie, and in the foure rowes of the ſtones was the glory of the fathers grauen, and thy maieſtie was writtē in the ‖ crowne 25 Vnto theſe the deſtroyer gaue place, and was afrayde of them: for it was ynough that they onely taſted of the wrath.

The xix Chapter.

1 The death of the Egyptians and the great ioy of the Hebrewes.

AS for the vngodly, the wrath came vpon them without mercie vnto the ende: for he knewe before what ſhould happen vnto them.

2 How that when they had conſented to let them goe, & had ſent them out with great diligence, they woulde repent, and ‖ followe

Or,purſue them, Exod.14.5. vpon them.

3 * For whileſt they were yet mourning and making lamentation by the graues of the dead, they deuiſed another fooliſhneſſe, ſo that they perſecuted them in their fleeting, whome they had caſt out afore with prayer.

4 For the ‖ neceſſitie which they had deſerued, brought them vnto this ende, & made them forget the things that had already happened, that they might by torments fulfill their puniſhment which remayned:

5 And that thy people might trie a maruelious paſſage: and theſe might finde a ſtrange death.

6 For euery creature in his kinde was faſhioned againe of newe, ſeruing the peculiar offices, as was commaunded them, that thy children might be kept without hurt:

7 For the cloud ouerſhadowed their tents, and the dry earth appeared where afore was water: ſo that in the red ſea there was a way without impediment, and the great deepe became a greene fielde:

8 Where thorow all the people went that were defended with thy hande, ſeeing thy marueilous ſtrange wonders.

9 For as the horſes, right ſo they neighed, and leaped like lambes, praiſing thee, (O Lord) which hadſt deliuered them.

10 And why? they were yet mindefull of the things that were done while they dwelt in the ſtrāge land, how the ground brought forth flyes in ſtead of cattell, and howe the riuer ſtrawled with the multitude of frogges in ſtead of fiſhes.

11 * But at the laſt they ſawe a newe generation of birdes, what time as they were ſtirred with luſt, and deſired delicate meates. Exo.16.13 num.11.31

12 For why? the quailes came vp to them from the ſea for their comfort: but puniſhmēt came vpon the ſinners, not without the ſignes which came before to paſſe by vehemencie of the thicke lightnings: for they ſuffered worthily according to their wickednes, becauſe they dealt ſo churliſhly and with an hate of ſtrangers.

13 For ſome would not receiue ‖ men that

‖ Or,gheſtes vnknowen. came vnto them, and were vnknowen: and ſome brought the ſtrangers into bondage that did them good.

14 Not onely ſo, but if they had bene any where regarded, they could not ſuffer it: for they entreated ſtrangers very deſpitefully.

15 Others that had receiued them with great ‖ ſolemnitie, when they were admitted

‖ Or,cities. vnto their ſocietie, they afflicted them with grieuous labours.

16 *Therefore were they ſtricken with blindeneſſe, like as when they that were couered with ſudden darkenes at the doores of the righteous, ſought euery one of them the entrance of his doores. Gen.19.11

17 Thus the elements being changed, agreed among themſelues, like as when tunes are changed vpon an inſtrument of muſike, and yet keepe ſtill a melodie: which may eaſily bee perceiued by the ſight of the things that are come to paſſe.

18 For the earthly things were turned into watrie: and the thing that before ſwam in the water, now went vpon the ground.

19 The fire had power in the water, forgetting getting his owne vertue: and the water forgate his owne kinde to quench the fire.

20 Againe, the flames hurted not the flesh of the corruptible liuing things, though they walked therein, neither melted they that yce kinde of immortall meate, that was of nature apt to melt.

21 For in all things hast thou promoted thy people (O Lorde) and brought them to honour, thou hast not despised them, but alway and in all places hast thou ‖ stande by them. ‖Or, assisted them.

The ende of the booke of Wisedome.

The booke of Iesus the sonne of Sirach, which is called in Latine Ecclesiasticus.

The prologue of Jesus the sonne of Sirach vnto his booke.

MAny and great men haue declared wisedome vnto vs out of the Lawe, out of the Prophetes, and out of other that followed them, in the which thinges, Israel ought to bee commended, by the reason of doctrine and wisedome: therefore they that haue it, and reade it, shoulde not onely themselues be wise therethrough, but serue other also with teaching and writing. After that my graundfather Iesus had giuen diligent labour to reade the Lawe, the Prophetes, and other bookes that were left vs of our fathers, and had well exercised himselfe therein: hee purposed also to write some thing of wisedome and good maners, to the intent that they which were willing to learne, and to be wise, might haue the more vnderstanding, and be the more apt to leade a good conuersation. Wherefore, I exhort you to receiue it louingly, to reade it with diligence, and to take it in good worth, though our wordes be not so eloquent as the famous oratours. For the thing that is written in the Hebrewe tongue, soundeth not so well when it is translated into other speache: not onely this booke of mine, but also the Law, the Prophets, and other bookes sound farre otherwise then they doe, when they are spoken in their owne language.

Nowe in the thirtie and eight yeere, when I came into Egypt, in the time of Ptolome Euerges, and continued there a long season, I founde bookes there left full of great and profounde learning. Wherefore, I thought it good and necessarie to bestowe my diligence and trauaile to interprete this booke: and considering that I had time, I laboured and did my best to performe this booke, and to bring it vnto light, that the strangers also which are disposed to learne, might apply themselues vnto good maners, and liue according to the Lawe of the Lord.

The first Chapter.

1 Wisedome commeth of God. 11 A prayse of the feare of God. 19 The meanes to come by wisedome.

ALL wisedome commeth of God the Lord, and hath bin euer with him, ‖and is before all time. ‖Or, and is with him for euer.

2 Who hath numbred the sande of the sea, the droppes of the raine, and the dayes of ‖time? ‖Or, the worlde.

3 Who hath sought out the ground of Gods wisdome, which hath bene before al things?

4 Wisedome hath bene created before all things, and the vnderstanding of prudence from euerlasting.

5 (Gods word in the height is the well of wisedome, and the euerlasting commandements are the entrance of her)

6 *Vnto whom hath the roote of wisdom bene declared? or who hath knowē her wit? Rom.11. 34.

7 Vnto whome hath the doctrine of wisdome bene discouered and shewed? and who hath vnderstād the manifold entrāce of her?

8 There is one, euen the highest, the maker of all things the almightie, the king of power, of whom men ought to stand greatly in awe, which sitteth vpon his throne, being a God of dominion.

9 Hee hath created her through the holy ghost, hee hath seene her, numbred her, and measured her.

10 Hee hath powred her out vpon all his workes, & vpon all flesh, according to his gift he giueth her richly vnto thē that loue him.

11 The feare of the Lorde is worship and triumph, gladnesse, and a ioyfull crowne.

12 The feare of the Lord maketh a merry heart, giueth gladnes, ioy, and long life.

13 Who so feareth the Lord, it shal go wel with him at the last, & in the day of his death he shalbe blessed.

14 The loue of God is honorable wisdom: looke vnto whome it appeareth, they loue it, for they see what wonderous thinges it doeth.

15 *The feare of the Lorde is the beginning of wisedome, and was made with the faythfull in the mothers wombe, it shall goe with the chosen women, and shalbe knowen Pro.1.7. psal.10.10.

of

must begin againe: and when he thinketh to be come to an ende, hee must goe againe to his labour.

7 What is man? whereto is he worthy? what good or euill can he doe?

Psal.89.10. 8 *If the number of a mans dayes be almost an hundred yeeres, it is much: and no man hath certaine knowledge of his death.

9 Like as the droppes of raine are vnto the sea, and as a grauell stone is in comparison of the sand: so are these fewe yeeres to the dayes of euerlasting.

10 Therefore is the Lorde patient with them, & powreth out his mercy vpon them.

11 He sawe and perceiued the thoughtes and imaginations of their heart that they were euill, therefore heaped he vp his mercifull goodnesse vpon them, and shewed them the way of righteousnesse.

12 The mercy that a man hath, reacheth to his neighbour, but the mercy of God is vpon all flesh: He chasteneth, he teacheth and nurtureth: yea, euen as a shepheard turneth againe his flocke, so doeth he all them that receiue chastening, nurture, and doctrine.

13 Mercifull is hee vnto them that diligently seeke after his iudgements.

14 My sonne, whē thou doest good, make no grudging at it: and whatsoeuer thou giuest, speake no discomfortable wordes.

15 Shall not the deawe coole the heate? euen so is a worde better then a gift.

16 Is not a friendly worde a good honest gift? but a gracious man giueth them both.

17 A foole shal cast a man in the teeth, and that roughly: and a gift of the nigard putteth out the eyes.

18 Get thee righteousnesse before thou come to iudgment, learne before thou speake, and goe to philike or euer thou be sicke.

19 Examine and iudge thy selfe before the iudgement come, and so shalt thou find grace in the sight of God.

1.Cor.11.31. 20 *Humble thy selfe afore thou be sicke: and whilest thou mayest ᵃ sinne, shewe thy conuersion.

ᵃ For hee is not perfect that may sinne and hath not sinned, then he that hath fallen is better.

21 Bee not let to pay thy vowe in good time, & tary not to be iustified vnto thy death: for the reward of God endureth for euer.

22 Before thou prayest, prepare thy soule, and be not as one that tempteth God.

Eccle.7.18. 23 Thinke *vpon the wrathfull indignation that shalbe at ẏ ende, & the houre of vengeance when he shall turne away his face.

Ecclu.11.27. 24 When thou hast ynough, *remember the time of hunger: and when thou art rich, thinke vpon the time of pouertie and scarcenesse.

25 From the morning vntill the euening the time is changed, and all such things are soone done in the sight of God.

26 A wise man feareth God in all things, and in the dayes of transgression he keepeth himselfe from sinne: but the foole doeth not obserue the time.

27 A discrete man hath pleasure in wisedome, and he that findeth her, maketh much of her.

28 They that haue had vnderstanding, haue dealt wisely in words, haue vnderstand the trueth and righteousnesse, and haue sought out wise sentences and iudgements.

29 The chiefe authoritie of speaking is of the Lorde alone: for a mortall man hath but a dead heart.

30 *Follow not thy lustes, but turne thee from thine owne will. Rom.6.6. and 13.14.

31 For if thou giuest thy soule her desires, it shall make thine enemies to laugh thee to scorne.

32 Take not thy pleasure in great voluptuousnesse, & meddle not too much withall.

33 Make not too great cheare of ẏ thing that thou hast wonne by aduantage, lest thou fall into pouertie, and haue nothing in thy purse, eis thou shouldest slanderously lie in waite for thine owne life.

The xix. Chapter.

1 Wine and whoredome bringeth men to pouertie. 6 In thy wordes must thou vse discretion.

A Labouring man that is giuen vnto drunkennesse, shal not be rich: & he that maketh not much of smal things, shal fall by litle and litle.

2 *Wine & women make wise men runnagates, and put men of vnderstanding to reproofe. Gen.19.32. 1.kin.11.1.

3 And hee that companieth adulterers, shall become an impudent man: mothes and wormes shall haue him to heritage, yea, he shalbe set vp to a great example, and his soule shalbe rooted out of the number.

4 *He that is hastie to giue credence, is light minded, and doeth against himselfe. Iosh.22.11.

5 Whoso reioyceth in wickednesse, shalbe punished: but hee that resisteth pleasures, crowneth his owne soule: he that refraineth his tongue: may liue with a troublesome man: he that hateth to be reformed, his life shalbe shortened: and he that abhorreth babbling of wordes, quencheth wickednesse.

6 Hee that offendeth against his owne soule, shall repent it: and he that reioyceth in wickednesse, shalbe punished.

7 Rehearse not a wicked and churlish worde twise, and thou shalt not be hindered.

8 Shew thy secrets neither to friend nor foe: and if thou hast offended, tell it not out.

9 For he shall hearken vnto thee, & marke thee, and when he findeth opportunitie, hee shall hate thee, and so shall he be al way about thee.

10 *If thou hast heard a worde against thy neighbour, let it be dead within thee: and be sure thou shalt haue no harme thereby. Eccle.2.27.

11 A foole trauaileth with a worde, like as a woman that is payned with bearing of a childe.

12 Like as an arrowe shot in a thigh of flesh, so is a worde in a fooles heart.

Leui.19.10 mat.18.19. luke 18.3. 13 *Tell thy friend his fault, lest he be ignorant, and say, I haue not done it: or if hee haue spoken, that he doe it no more.

14 Reprooue thy neighbour, that he keepe his tongue: and if he haue spoken, that he say it no more.

15 Tell thy neighbour his fault, for oft times an offence is made: and giue not credence to euery worde.

Eccle.14.1. 16 *A man falleth sometime with his tongue, but not with his will: for what is he that hath not offended in his tongue?

17 Giue thy neighbour warning before thou threaten him: and giue place vnto the lawe of the Lord.

18 The feare of the Lorde is the first degree to be receiued of him: and wisedome obteineth his loue.

19 The knowledge of the commaundements of the Lord, is the doctrine of life: and they that obey him, shall receiue the fruite of immortalitie.

20 The feare of God is all wisedome: & he that is a righteous man, keepeth the lawe.

21 If a seruant say vnto his master, I will not doe as it pleaseth thee: though afterward he doe it, hee shall displease him that nourisheth him.

22 As for the doctrine of wickednesse, it is no wisedome, and the prudence of sinners is no good vnderstanding: it is but wickednesse and abomination, and a blaspheming of wisedome.

23 A simple man of small vnderstanding that feareth God, is better then one that hath much wisedome, and transgresseth the lawe of the highest.

24 A craftie subtill man can be wise, but he is vnrighteous, & with gistes he wresteth the open and manifest lawe: againe, there is that is wise, and iudgeth righteously.

25 A wicked man can behaue himselfe humbly, and can ducke with his head, & yet is hee but a deceiuer within: hee hideth his face, & disguiseth it, and because he should not be knowen, he preuenteth thee, to hurt thee.

Mat.6.16. 26 *And though he be so weake, that hee can do thee no harme, yet when he may finde opportunitie, he shall doe some euill.

27 A man may bee knowen by his face, and one that hath vnderstanding, may be perceiued by the looke of his countenance.

Eccl.21.23 28 *A mans garment, laughter, and gate, declare what he is.

The xx. Chapter.

1 Of correction and repentance. 6 Of the gift of the wise man, and of the foole. 23 Of lying.

SOme man reproueth his neighbour oft times, but not in due season: againe, some man holdeth his tongue, and he is wise and discreete.

2 It is much better to giue warning and to reproue, then to beare euill will: for hee that knowledgeth himselfe openly, shall be preserued from hurt and destruction.

3 *Like as when a gelded man through desire and lust defileth a maiden: euen so is it with him that vseth violence and vnrighteousnesse in the lawe. Eccl.30.11

4 O how good a thing is it, a man that is reproued, to shewe openly his repentance: for so shalt thou escape wilfull sinne.

5 Some man keepeth silence, & is found wise: but hee that is not ashamed what hee sayth, is hatefull.

6 Some man holdeth his tongue, because he hath not vnderstanding of the language: and some man keepeth silence, waiting a conuenient time.

7 *A wise man will holde his tongue till he see opportunitie, but a wanton and vndiscreete body shall regarde no time. Eccle.32.6.

8 He that vseth many wordes, shall hurt his owne soule: and he that taketh authoritie vpon him vnrighteously, shalbe hated.

9 Some man hath oft times prosperitie in wicked things: againe, some man getteth much, and hath harme and losse.

10 There is some gift that is nothing worth: againe, there is some gift whose reward is double.

11 There is an humilitie for glories sake, and some commeth to worthippe from lowe estate.

12 Some man buyeth much for a litle price, and must pay for it seuen folde.

13 *A wise man with his wordes maketh himselfe to be beloued: but the merrie tales of fooles shalbe powred out. Eccle.6.5.

14 The gift of the vnwise shal doe thee no good, nor yet of the enuious: for his importunitie is seuen folde, for hee looketh to receiue many things for one.

15 *Hee shall giue litle, and say he gaue much: he openeth his mouth and crieth out, as it were one that cryed out wide. Eccle.18.1.

16 To day he lendeth, to morowe asketh he againe: and such a man is to be hated of God and man.

17 The foole sayeth, I haue no friend, I haue no thanke for all my good deedes, yea, euen they that eate my bread speake no good of me: O howe oft, and of how many shall he be laughed to scorne?

18 He taketh a more perillous fall by such wordes, then if he fell vpon the ground: euen so shall the fall of wicked men come hastily.

19 In ỹ mouth of him that is vntaught, are many vnconuenient & vnmeete wordes.

20 A wise sentence shall not be alowed at the mouth of the foole: for he speaketh not it in due season.

21 Some man sinneth not, because hee hath not wherewithall, and in his rest hee shalbe stinged.

22 Some man there is that destroyeth his owne soule with shame, and for an vnwise bodies sake destroyeth he it, and with accepting of persons shall he vndoe himselfe.

23 Some man promiseth his friend a gift for for very shame: and getteth an enemie of him for nought.

24 A lie is a wicked shame in a man: yet shall it be euer in the mouth of the vnwise.

25 A theefe is better then a man that is accustomed to lie: but they both shall haue destruction to heritage.

26 The conditions of liars are vnhonest: and their shame is euer with them.

Gen.41.44 27 *A wise man shal bring himselfe to honour with his wordes: & he that hath vnderstanding, shalbe set by among great men.

Pro.12.11. 28 *He that tilleth his land shall encrease his heape of corne: hee that worketh righteousnesse, shalbe exalted, and he that pleaseth great men, shall escape much euill.

Eccle.23.8. 29 *Rewardes and giftes blinde the eyes of the wise, and make him dumbe that he cannot tell them their faultes.

Eccle.41.18. 30 *Wisedome that is hid, & treasure that is hoarded vp, what profite is in them both?

31 Better is hee that keepeth his ignorance secrete, then a man that hideth his wisedome.

32 The necessarie patience of him that followed the Lord, is better then he that gouerneth his life without the Lorde.

The xxj. Chapter.

1 Not to continue in sinne. 5 The prayer of the afflicted. 6 To hate to be reproued. 17 The mouth of the wise man. 26 The thought of the foole.

Ecclus.3.3. MY sonne, *if thou hast sinned, doe it no more: but pray for thy former sinnes, that they may be forgiuen thee.

2 Flee from sinne, euen as from a serpent: for if thou commest too nigh her, she wil bite thee: the teeth thereof are as the teeth of a Lyon, to slay the soules of men.

3 The wickednesse of man is as a sharpe two edged sworde, which maketh such wounds that they cannot be healed.

4 Strife & wrongfull dealing shall waste away a mans goods, and through pride a rich house shalbe brought to nought: so the riches of the proude shalbe rooted out.

Eccle.3.9. 5 *The prayer of the poore goeth out of the mouth, and commeth vnto the eares, and his vengeance or defence shall come hastily.

6 Whoso hateth to be reproued, it is a token of an vngodly person: but he that feareth God, will remember himselfe.

7 A mightie man is knowen a farre off by his tongue: but he that hath vnderstanding, perceiueth that he shall haue a fall.

a Wo vnto them that get riches and not right, and heape vp that is not their owne! how long will he charge himself with thicke clay? and he heapeth vp for himself no other thing but heauie burdens of wrath. Habac.2.6.

8 Whoso buildeth his house with other mens cost, a is like one that gathereth stones to make his graue.

9 *The congregation of the vngodly is like stubble gathered together, their ende is a flame of fire.

10 The way of the vngodly is set with stones: but in their ende, is hell, darkenesse, and paines.

Eccle.36.7. 11 Hee that keepeth the lawe, will holde fast the vnderstanding thereof: and the ende of the feare of God, is wisedome and vnderstanding.

12 He that is not wise, wil not be taught in good, but the vnwise man aboundeth in wickednesse: and where bitternesse is, there is no vnderstanding.

13 The knowledge of the wise shall flowe like water that runneth ouer: and his counsaile is like a pure fountaine of life.

14 *The heart of a foole is like a broken vessell, he can keepe no wisedome. Eccle.33.5.

15 When a man of vnderstãding heareth a wise worde, he shall commend it, and make much of it: but if a voluptuous man heare it, he shall haue no pleasure therein, but cast it behinde his backe.

16 The talking of a foole is like an heauy burden by the way: but to heare a wise man speake, it is pleasure.

17 Where a doubt is in the congregation, it is asked at the mouth of the wise, and they shall ponder his wordes in their hearts.

18 Like as is a house that is destroied, euẽ so is wisedome vnto a foole: As for the knowledge of the vnwise, it is but darke wordes.

19 Doctrine is vnto him that hath no vnderstanding, euen as fetters about his feete, and like manicles vpon his right hand.

20 *A foole lifteth vp his voyce with laughter: but a wise man shall scarse laugh secretly. Eccle.19.17.

21 Learning is vnto a wise man a iewel of golde, and like an armelet vpon his right arme.

22 A foolish mans foote is soone in his neighbours house: but one that hath experience, shall be ashamed at the person of the mightie.

23 A foole will peepe in at the window into the house: but he that is well nurtured will stand without.

24 A foolish man standeth hearkening at the doore: but he that is wise wil be ashamed.

25 The lippes of the vnwise will be telling foolish things: but the words of such as haue vnderstanding, shalbe weighed in the balance.

26 The heart of fooles is in their mouth: but the mouth of the wise is in his heart.

27 When the vngodly curseth the b blasphemer, he curseth his owne soule. b For while he curseth another, he doeth shame himself, and so curseth himselfe.

28 *A priuie accuser of other men, shall defile his owne soule, and be hated of euery man: but he that keepeth his tongue and is discreete, shall come to honour. Eccle.28.19.

The xxij. Chapter.

1 Of the sluggard. 12 Not to speake much to a foole. 16 A good conscience feareth not.

A Slouthfull body is moulded a of a stone of clay, and euery man will speake to his disprayse.

a That is, like as the foul stone gathereth moste and filth, so doeth the slouthfull body sickernesse of body, and corruption of minde: and as euery man doeth auoide the filthinesse of stones, and shaketh it off: so doeth he auoyde the companye of the lasciuious, and her be accounted like vnto them.

of the dung of oxen, and euery one that toucheth him, must wash his hands againe.

3 A misnurtured sonne is the dishonour of the father: a foolish daughter shall be litle regarded.

4 A wise daughter is an heritage vnto her husband: but she that commeth to dishonestie, bringeth her father in heautnesse.

5 A daughter that is past shame dishonoureth both her father and her husbande: the vngodly shall regard her, but they both shall despise her.

6 A tale out of time, is as musike in mourning: but wisedome knoweth the seasons of correction and doctrine.

7 If children liue honestly, and haue wherewithall, they shal put away the shame of their parents:

8 But if children be proude with hautinesse and foolishnesse, they blot out the nobilitie of their kinred.

9 Whoso teacheth a foole, is euen as one that glueth a potsharde together, as one that telleth a tale to him that heareth him not, and as one that raiseth a man out of a heauie sleepe.

10 Whoso telleth a foole of wisedome, is euen as a man which speaketh to one that is a sleepe, when he hath tolde his tale, he saith, What is the matter?

Eccle. 38. 16. 11 *When one dyeth, lamentation is made for him, because the light faileth him: euen so, let men mourne ouer a foole, for he wanteth vnderstanding. Make but a litle weeping because of the dead, for he is come to rest: but the life of the foole is worse then the death.

Gen. 50. 10 12 *Seuen dayes doe men mourne for him that is dead, but the lamentation ouer the vnwise and vngodly, should endure all the dayes of their life.

13 Talke not much with a foole, & go not with him that hath no vnderstanding: beware of him, lest it turne thee to trauaile, and thou shalt not be defiled with his sinne: Depart from him, & thou shalt finde rest, & shalt not be drawen backe into his foolishnesse.

b Though lead be heauie, yet may it bee borne: but the insolent foole may not bee borne as Ecclesiasticus 28. Heauie is the stone, and weightie is the sande: but the furye of a foole doeth passe them both.

14 b What is heauier then lead? and what should a foole be called els but lead?

15 Sand, salt, and a lumpe of yron is easier to beare, then an vnwise, foolish, and vngodly man.

16 Like as the band of wood bound together in the foundation of the house cannot be loosed: euen so is it with the heart that is stablished in the thought of counsaile. The thought of the wise shall neuer feare, nor be offended at any time.

17 Like as a faire plastered wall in a winter house and a high building may not abide the winde & storme: euen so is a fooles heart afraide in his imagination, hee feareth at euery thing, and can not endure.

18 A wauering heart in the imagination of a foole, will not euer stand in awe: but he that abideth in the commaundements of God, will alway feare.

19 *He that nippeth a mans eye, bringeth forth teares: and he that pricketh the heart, bringeth forth the meaning and thought. 1. Cor. 14. he. 12.

20 Whoso casteth a stone at the birdes, fraieth them away: and he that blasphemeth his friend, breaketh friendship.

21 Though thou drewest a sworde at thy friend, yet despayre not: for thou mayest come againe to thy friend.

22 If he speake sowrely, feare not: for yee may be agreed together againe, except it be that thou blaspheme him, disdaine him, open his secrets, and wound him traiterously: for all such thinges shall driue away a friende.

23 Be faithfull vnto thy neigbour in his pouertie, that thou mayest reioyce with him also in his prosperitie: abide stedfast vnto him in the time of his trouble, that thou mayest be heire with him in his heritage: for pouertie is not alwayes to be contemned, nor the rich that is foolish to be had in estimation.

24 Like as the vapour and smoke goeth out at the ouen before the fire: euen so euill words, rebukes, and threatnings, goe before bloodshedding.

25 Be not ashamed to defende thy friend: as for me, I will not hide my face from him though he should doe me harme: whosoeuer heareth it, shall beware of him.

26 *Who shall set a watch before my mouth, and a sure seale vpon my lippes, that I fall not with them, and that my tongue destroy me not? Psal.

The xxiij. Chapter.

1 A prayer against pride, lecherie, and gluttonie. 23 Many sinnes proceed of adulterie. 27 Of the feare of God.

LOrd, father and gouernour of my life, leaue mee not in their imagination & counsell: oh let me not fall in such rechlesse.

2 Who wil keepe my thought with the scourge, and the doctrine of wisedome in mine heart? that he spare not mine ignorance, that I fall not with them.

3 Lest mine ignorances increase, that mine offences be not many in number, and that my sinnes exceede not: lest I fall before mine enemies, and so mine aduersaries reioyce, whose hope is farre from thy mercy.

4 O Lorde, thou father and God of my life, leaue me not in their imagination: O let me not haue a proude looke, but turne away all voluptuousnesse from me.

5 Take from me the lustes of the body, let not the desires of vncleannesse take holde vpon me.

6 And giue me not ouer into an vnshamefast and obstinate minde.

7 Heare me, O yee children, I will giue you a doctrine how ye shal order your mouth: whoso keepeth it, shall not perish through his lippes, nor bee hurt through wicked workes.

8 As

8 As for the sinner, he shal be taken in his owne vanitie: hee that is proude and cursed shall fall therein.

9 *Let not thy mouth be accustomed with swearing, for in it there are many falles: *let not the naming of God be continually in thy mouth, and meddle not with the names of Saints, for thou shalt not be excused of them. *Exo.20.7. *Deu.5.11.

10 For like as a seruant which is oft punished, can not bee without some sore: euen so, what so euer hee bee that sweareth, and nameth God, shall not bee cleane purged from sinne.

11 A man that vseth much swearing, shal bee filled with wickednesse, and the plague shall neuer goe from his house, if hee beguile his brother, his fault shall be vpon him, if he knowledge not his sinne, he maketh a double offence, and if he sweare in vaine, he shal not be found righteous: for his house shall be full of plagues.

12 The wordes of the swearer bring death, God graunt that it bee not founde in the house of Iacob: but they that feare God eschewe all such, and lie not waltering in sinne.

13 *Vse not thy mouth to vnhoneſt and filthie talking, for in it is the word of sinne. *Leu.24.

14 Remember thy father and thy mother when thou art set among great men: least God forget thee in their sight, and least thou doting in thy custome, suffer rebuke, and wish not to haue bene borne, and so curse the day of thy nativitie.

15 *The man that is accustomed with the wordes of blasphemie, will neuer bee reformed all the dayes of his life. *Ecc.23.16.

16 To sinne twise is too much, but the thirde bringeth wrath and destruction: An hot stomacke cannot bee quenched (euen like a burning fire) till it haue swallowed vp some thing: euen so an vnchaste man hath no rest in his flesh, till he haue kindled a fire.

17 All bread is sweete to an whoremonger, he will not leaue off till he die.

18 *A man that breaketh wedlocke, and regardeth not his soule, but saith, Truly, who seeth me? I am compassed about with darknesse, the walles couer me, no body seeth me, whom needs I to feare? the highest will not remember my sinnes: *Ecc.23.15.

19 He vnderstandeth not that his eyes see all things, for all such feare of men driueth away the feare of God from him: for he feareth onely the eyes of men, and considereth not that the eyes of the Lorde are clearer then the sunne, beholding all the wayes of men, and the grounde of the deepe, and looking euen to mens hearts in secret places.

20 The Lorde God knewe all things or euer they were made, and after they bee brought to passe also hee looketh vpon them all.

21 The same man shall bee openly punished in the streets of the citie, and shalbe chased abroade like a yong horse foole, and when he thinketh least vpon it, he shalbe taken.

22 Thus shall he be put to shame of euery man, because hee would not vnderstande the feare of the Lorde: and *thus shall it goe also with euery wife that leaueth her husbande, and getteth inheritace by a strange mariage. *Exo.20.14.

23 *First, she hath bene vnfaithfull vnto the Law of the highest: secondly, she hath forsaken her owne husbande: thirdly, shee hath played the whore in adulterie, and gotten her children by another man. *Leu.20.10. deut.22.22.

24 She shalbe brought out of the congregation, and her children shalbe looked vpon.

25 Her children shall not take roote: and as for fruite, her branches shall bring forth none.

26 A shamefull report shall shee leaue behinde her, and her dishonour shall not bee put out.

27 And they that remaine, shall knowe that there is nothing better then the feare of God, and that there is nothing sweeter then to take heede vnto the commaundements of the Lord.

28 A great worshippe is it to followe the Lord: for long life shal be receiued of him.

The xxiiij. Chapter.

1 A praise of wisdome proceeding forth of the mouth of God. 6 Of her workes and place where she resteth.

WIsedome shall praise her selfe, and be honoured in God, and reioyce in the middest of the people.

2 In the congregations of the highest shall shee open her mouth, and triumph in the beholding of his power.

3 In the middest of her people shall she bee exalted, and wondered at in the holy fulnesse,

4 In the multitude of the chosen she shall be commended, and among such as bee blessed, she shalbe praised, and shall say,

5 I am come out of the mouth of the highest, first borne before all creatures.

6 I caused the light that faileth not to arise in the heauen, and couered all the earth as a cloude.

7 My dwelling is aboue in the height, and my seate is in the pillar of the cloude.

8 I my selfe alone haue gone rounde about the compasse of heauen, and pearced the ground of the deepe.

9 I haue walked in the floods of the sea, and haue stande in all landes, my dominion is in euery people, and in euery nation, and with my power haue I troden downe the hearts of all both high and lowe.

10 In all these things also I sought rest, and a dwelling in some inheritance.

11 So the creator of all things gaue mee a commandement, and he that made me, appointed mee a Tabernacle, and sayde vnto me, Let thy dwelling be in Iacob, and thine inheritance in Israel, and roote thy selfe among my chosen.

Prou.8.23. 12 *I was created from the beginning, and before the worlde, and shall not leaue off

Exod.31.3. vnto the worlde to come: in the holy *habitation haue I serued before him, and so was I stablished in Sion.

Psal.131.8. 13 In the holy *citie rested I in like maner, and in Hierusalem was my power.

14 I tooke roote in an honourable people, euen in the portion of the Lorde, and in his heritage, and kept mee in the fulnesse of the saints.

15 I am set vp on high like a Cedar vpon Libanus, and as a Cypresse tree vpon the mount Hermon.

16 I am exalted like a Palme tree in Cades, and as a Rose plant in Jericho, as a faire Olive tree in the fielde, and am exalted like as a Plantane tree by the water side.

17 I haue giuen a smell in the streetes as the Cynamom and Balme that hath so good a sauour, yea, a sweete odour haue I giuen as it were myrrhe of the best: I haue made my dwellings to smell as it were of Rozin, Galbanum, of Cloues, Incense, and as Libanus, when it is not hewen downe, and mine odour is as the pure Balme.

a Terebint, is a hard tree syred abroade with long boughes, where out runneth the gumme called a pure Turpentine, which cleanseth the stomacke of putrified humours, and purifieth the eares: so the wisedome of God declared in his Scriptures, spread abroade her manifolde branches of knowledge and vnderstanding to purge the inwarde eares and corruption of the soule.

18 As the [a] Terebint haue I stretched out my branches, and my branches are the branches of honour, and louing sauour.

19 As the vine haue I brought forth fruit of a sweete sauour, and my flowres are the fruite of honour and riches.

20 I am the mother of beautifull loue, of feare, of knowledge, and of holy hope: I giue eternall things to all my children to whome God hath commaunded.

21 In mee is all grace of life and trueth, in me is all hope of life and vertue.

22 O come vnto me, al ye that be desirous of me, and fill your selues with my fruites.

23 For my spirite is sweeter then hony, and so is mine inheritance more then the honie combe: the remembrance of me endureth for euermore.

24 They that eate me, shall haue the more hunger: and they that drinke me, shall thirst the more.

25 Whoso hearkeneth vnto mee, shall not come to confusion, and they that worke in me, shall not offende: they that take me to be knowen, shall haue euerlasting life.

26 All these thinges are the booke of life, the couenant of the highest, and the knowledge of the trueth.

27 Moses commaunded the Lawe in the Exod.20.1. precepts of righteousnesse for an *heritage vnto the house of Jacob, and committed the promise vnto Israel.

28 Let not worke to behaue your selues valiantly with the Lorde, that hee may also establishe you: cleaue vnto him, for the Lord Almightie is but one God, and besides him there is no other Sauiour.

29 [illegible] of Dauid his seruant hee ordeyned to raise vp a most mightie King, sitting in the seate of honour for euermore.)

30 This filleth with wisedome, *like as Gen.2.11. the flood of Phison, and as the flood of Tygris, when the newe fruites are a growing.

31 This bringeth plenteous vnderstanding like Euphrates, and filleth vp as *Jordane in the time of harueste. Iosua.3.13.

32 This maketh nurture to breake forth as the light, and as the water Gehon in the harueste.

33 The first hath not knowen her perfectly: no more shal the last seeke out the ground of her.

34 For her thought is fuller then the sea, and her counsaile is profounder then the great deepe.

35 I wisdome haue cast out floods, I am as a great water brooke out of the riuer, I am as the riuer Nozir, & as a water conduit am I come out of the garden of pleasure.

36 I saide, I will water the garden of my yong plants, and fill the fruite of my birth: So my water brooke became exceeding great, and my riuer approched vnto the sea.

37 For I make doctrine to be vnto al men as light as the faire morning, and I shall make it to be euer the clearer.

38 I will pearse thorowe all the lower partes of the earth, I wil looke vpon all such as bee a sleepe, and lighten all them that put their trust in the Lord.

39 I shall yet powre out doctrine like as prophecie, and leaue it vnto such as seeke after wisedome, and their generation shall I neuer faile vnto the holy euerlasting worlde.

40 *Beholde howe that I haue not laboured for my selfe onely: but for all them Eccle.33. 18. that seeke after the trueth.

The xxv. Chapter.

1 Of three things which please God, and of three which he hateth. 7 Of nine things that be not to be suspected, and of the tenth. 15 Chiefly of the malice of a woman.

THree thinges there are that my spirite fauoureth, which bee allowed before God and men: The vnitie of *brethren, the loue of Gene.13.8. neighbours, a man *and wife that agree wel Rom.12. together. 10.genes.2.

2 Three thinges there bee which my soule hateth, and I vtterly abhorre the life of them: A poore man that is proude, a rich man that is a lyar, and an olde body that doteth, and is vnchaste.

3 If thou hast gathered nothing in thy youth, what wilt thou finde then in thine age?

4 O howe pleasant a thing is it when gray headed men are discreete, and when the elders can giue good counsaile?

5 O howe comely a thing is wisdome vnto aged men? yea, vnderstanding and counsell to men of honour is a glorious thing.

6 The crowne of olde men is to haue much experience, and the feare of God is their worthip.

7 There

7 There be nine thinges which I haue iudged in my heart to be happie, & the tenth will I tell foorth vnto men with my tongue: A man that while hee liueth hath ioy of his children and seeth the fall of his enemies.

Eccle.19.16. and 24.1. Iacob.3.2.

8 * Well is him that dwelleth with an huswife of vnderstanding, and that hath not fallen with his tongue, and that hath not bene faine to serue such as are vnmeete for him.

Or, prudent.

9 Well is him that findeth ‖ a faithfull friend: and well is him which talketh of wisdome to an eare that heareth him.

10 O howe great is hee that findeth wisedome and knowledge? Yet is he not aboue him that feareth the Lord.

11 The feare of God hath set it selfe aboue all things.

12 Blessed is the man vnto whom it is graunted to haue the feare of God: vnto whom shal he be likened that keepeth it fast?

13 The feare of God is the beginning of his loue, and the beginning of faith, is to cleaue fast vnto it.

14 The heautnesse of the heart is all the punishment, and the wickednes of a woman goeth aboue all.

15 All punishment and plague is nothing in comparison to the plague of the heart: euen so, all wickednesse is nothing to the wickednesse of a woman.

16 Whatsoeuer happeneth vnto a man, is nothing in comparison of it that his euill willers doe vnto him: and all vengeance is nothing to the vengeance of the enemie.

17 There is not a more wicked head then the head of the serpent: & there is no wrath aboue the wrath of a woman.

Iob.31.19. 18 I will rather dwell with a * Lion and Dragon, then to keepe house with a wicked wife.

19 The wickednes of a woman changeth her face, shee shall muffle her countenance as it were a beare, and as a sacke shall shee hewe it among the neighbours.

20 Her husbande is brought to shame among his neighbours because of her, and when he heareth it, it maketh him to sigh.

21 All wickednesse is but litle to the wickednesse of a woman: the portion of the vngodly shall fall vpon her.

22 Like as the climing vp a sandy way is to the feete of the aged: euen so is a wife full of wordes to a still quiet man.

Eccle.42.11. Lam.13.2. Gen.3.6. 1.Tim.2. Adam was not deceiued. Eue as the text, c. per 14. We are not saued by the woman, but the same was saued by the seed promised vnto her, which was Christ. The meaning is not that by the woman, but by vpon a woman that hath a constant minde.

19 Perpetuall are the foundations that be laide vpon a whole stonie rocke: so are the commandements of God vpon the heart of an holy woman.

20 There be two things that grieue my heart, and in the third is displeasure come vpon me: When an expert man of warre suffreth scarcenesse and pouertie, when men of vnderstanding and wisedome are not set by, and when one departeth from righteousnes vnto sinne: who so doeth such, the Lord hath prepared him vnto the sword.

21 There be two maner of things which me thinke to be hard and perilous: A marchant cannot lightly keepe him frō wrong, neither a tauerner himselfe from sinne.

The xxvij. Chapter.

1 Of the poore that would be rich. 5 The probation of the man that feareth God. 20 The wicked imagineth euill, which returneth vpon himselfe.

2.Tim.6.9. prou.23.4. BEcause of * pouertie haue many one offended: and hee that seeketh to be rich, turneth his eyes aside.

2 Like as a nasle in the wall sticketh fast betwirt two stones, euen so doth sinne sticke betwirt the buyer and the seller.

3 If hee holde him not diligently in the feare of the Lorde, his house shall soone be ouerthrowen.

4 Like as when one sifteth, the filthines remaineth in the siue: so remaineth there some vncleane thing in the thought of man.

5 The ouen proueth the potters vessell: Pro, 27.21. *so doeth temptation of trouble trye righteous men.

6 The tree of the fielde is knowen by his fruit: so is the thought of mans heart knowen by his wordes.

7 Praise no man, except thou haue heard him, for a man is knowen by his wordes.

8 If thou followest righteousnesse, thou shalt get her, and put her vpon thee as a faire garment: and thou shalt dwell with her, and she shall defend thee for euer, and in the day of knowledge thou shalt finde stedfastnesse.

9 The birdes resort vnto their like: so doeth the trueth turne vnto them that be occupied withall.

10 The Lion waiteth the pray: so doeth sinne vpō them that worke vnrighteousnes.

11 The talking of him that feareth God is nothing but wisedome: as for a foole, hee changeth as the moone.

12 If thou bee among the vndiscreete, keepe thy wordes to a conuenient time: but among such as be wise, speake on hardily.

13 The talking of fooles is abomination, and their sport is voluptuousnesse, and misnurture.

Eccle.13.9. 14 *Much swearing maketh the haire to stand vp: and to striue with such, stoppeth the eares.

15 The strife of the proude is bloodshedding, & their blaspheming is heauy to beare.

16 Who so *discouereth secretes, leeseth his credence, and findeth no friende after his will. Eccle. 10. and 2

17 Loue thy friend, and binde thy selfe in faithfulnesse with him: but if thou bewray his secrets, thou shalt not get him againe.

18 For like as the man is that destroyeth his enemie: so is hee also that dealeth falsely in the friendship of his neighbour.

19 Like as one that letteth a birde go out of his hand, can not take her againe: euen so thou, if thou giue ouer thy frinde, thou canst not get him againe.

20 Yea, thou canst not come by him: for he is too farre off: he is vnto thee as a Roe escaped out of ỹ snare, for his soule is wounded.

21 As for woundes they may be bounde vp againe, and an euill worde may bee reconciled: but who so bewrayeth the secrets of a friende, there is no more hope to be had vnto him.

22 He that *winketh with the eyes, imagineth some euill: and he that knoweth him, will let him alone. Pro.1

23 When thou art present, he shall highly commend and praise thy wordes: but at the last, he shall turne his tale, and slaunder thy saying.

24 Many things haue I hated, but nothing so euill: for the Lorde himselfe also abhorreth such a one.

25 Who so casteth a stone on high, it shall fall vpon his owne head: and he that smiteth with guile, woundeth himselfe.

26 *Who so diggeth a pit, shall fall therein, and hee that layeth a stone in his neighbours way, shall stumble thereon, and hee that layeth a snare for an other, shall be taken in it himselfe. Pro. ecclc.

27 Who so giueth a wicked noysome counsell, it shall come vpon himselfe, and he shall not know from whence.

28 The proude blaspheme, and are scornefull: but vengeance lurketh for them as a Lyon.

29 They that reioyce at the fall of the righteous, shalbe take in the snare: anguish of heart shall consume them before they die.

30 Anger and rigorousnesse are two abominable things, and the vngodly hath them both vpon him.

The xxviij. Chapter.

1 We ought not to desire vengeance, but to forgiue the offence. 13 Of the vices of the tongue, and of the dangers thereof.

HEe that seeketh *vengeance, shall finde vengeance of the Lord, which shall surely keepe his sinnes. Deu. rom.

2 Forgiue thy neighbour the hurt ỹ he hath done thee, & so shal thy sinnes be forgiuen thee also when thou prayest.

3 *A man

3 * A man that beareth hatred against another, howe dare hee desire forgiuenesse of God?

4 Hee that sheweth no mercie to a man which is like himselfe, how dare hee aske forgiuenes of his sinnes?

5 If he that is but flesh, beareth hatred, and keepeth it, who will entreate for his sinnes?

6 Remember the ende, & let enmitie passe, which seeketh death & destruction, and abide thou in the commaundements.

7 Remember the commaundements, so shalt thou not bee rigorous ouer thy neyghbour: thinke vpon the couenant of ỹ highest, and forgiue thy neighbours ignorance.

8 *Beware of strife, and thou shalt make thy sinnes fewer.

9 For an angry man kindleth variance: and the vngodly disquieteth friendes, & putteth discord among them that be at peace.

10 The * more wood there is, the more vehement is the fire, and the mightier that men be, the greater is the wrath: according to his riches, his anger encreaseth, & the longer the strife endureth, the more it burneth.

11 An hasty brawling kindleth a fire, and an hastie strife sheadeth blood: a tongue also that beareth false witnesse, bringeth death.

12 If thou blow the sparke, it shal burne, if thou spit vpon it, it shall go forth, and both these come out of the mouth.

13 *The slaunderer and double tongued is cursed: for many one that be friendes, setteth he at variance.

14 The ‖ thirde tongue hath disquieted many one and driuen them from one lande to another: strong cities of the riche hath it broken downe, and ouerthrowen the houses of great men: the strength of the people hath it brought downe, and bene the decay of mightie nations.

15 The third tongue hath cast out many an honest woman, and robbed them of their labours.

16 Whoso hearkeneth vnto such, shall neuer finde rest, and neuer dwell safely.

17 The stroke of the rod maketh prints in the skin: but the stroke of the tongue smiteth the bones in sunder.

18 There bee many that haue perished with the sword: but many moe through the tongue.

19 Well is him that is kept from an euill tongue, and commeth not in the anger thereof, which draweth not the yoke of such, and is not bound in the bandes of it.

20 For the yoke thereof is of yron, and the bande of it of ‖ steele.

21 The death thereof is a very euill death: hell were better for one, then such a tongue.

22 But the fire of it may not oppresse them that feare God, and the flame thereof may not burne them.

23 Such as forsake the Lorde, shall fall therein, and it shal burne them, and no man shall bee able to quenche it: it shall fall vpon them as a Lion, and deuoure them as a Leoparde.

24 Thou hedgest thy goods with thornes: why doest thou not rather make doores and barres for thy mouth?

25 Thou weighest thy golde and siluer: why doest thou not weygh thy wordes also vpon the ballance, and make a doore and a barre, and a sure bridle for thy mouth?

*26 Beware that thou slyde not in thy tongue, and so fall before thine enemies that lay waite for thee, and thy fall be incurable, euen vnto death.

The xxix. Chapter.

1 How wee ought to lend our money, and do almes. 15 Of a faithfull man answering for his friend. 22 Of liberalitie and hospitalitie.

WHoso will shew mercie, let him lende vnto his neighbour: and hee that is able, let him keepe the commandements.

2 Lend vnto thy neighbour in time of his neede, and pay thou thy neighbour againe in due season.

3 Keepe thy word, & deale faithfully with him: and thou shalt alway find the thing that is necessarie for thee.

4 There hath bene many, that when a thing was lent them, reckned it to be found, and made them trauaile and labour that had helped them.

5 While they receiue any thing, they kisse the hands of such as giue them, and for their neighbours good they humble their voyce: but when they should pay againe, they keepe it backe, and giue euill words, and make many excuses by reason of the time.

6 And though he be able, yet giueth hee scarse the halfe againe, and reckoneth the other to be found: and if he withhold not his money, yet hath hee an enemie of him, and that vndeserued: he paieth him with cursing and rebuke, and giueth him euill wordes for his good deed.

7 There bee many one which are not glad for to lend, not because of euill, but they feare to loose the thing that they lend.

8 Yet haue thou patience with the simple, and withhold not mercy from him.

9 Helpe the poore for the commandements sake, and let him not go emptie from thee, because of his necessitie.

10 Loose thy money for thy brother and neighbors sake, and bury it not vnder a stone where it rusteth and corrupteth.

11 Gather thy treasure after the commandement of the highest, & so shall it bring thee more profite then gold.

12 *Lay vp thine almes in the ‖ hande of the poore, and it shall keepe thee from all euill.

13 *A mans almes is as a purse with him, and shall keepe a mans fauour as the apple of of an eye: and afterward shal it arise, and pay euery man his reward vpon his head.

14 It shal fight for thee against thine enemies, better then the shielde of a Giant, or speare of the mightie.

15 A good honest man is a suretie for his neighbour: but a wicked person letteth him come to shame.

16 Forget not the friendship of thy suretie: for he hath giuen his soule for thee.

17 The vngodly despiseth the good deede of his suretie:

a As he is a foole that is suretie for euery man: so is he vngodly þ will be suretie for no man.

18 *The wicked will not become suretie, and the vnthankefull and ignorant leaueth his suretie in danger.

19 Some man promiseth for his neyghbour: and when he hath lost his honestie, he shall forsake him.

20 Suertiship hath destroyed many a rich man, and remoued them as the waues in the sea, mightie people hath it driuen away, and caused them to wander in strange countreys.

21 An vngodly man transgressing ỹ commandement of the Lord, shal fal into an euil suretiship: and though he force himselfe to get out, yet shal he fall into iudgement.

22 Helpe thy neighbour out after thy power, and beware that thou thy selfe fall not in such debt.

Eccl.39.31 23 *The chiefe thing that keepeth thy life, is water, and bread, clothing, and lodging, to couer thy shame.

24 Better is it to haue a poore liuing in a mans owne house, then delicate fare among the strange.

25 Be it litle or much that thou hast, hold thee content withall: and thou shalt not bee blamed as a vagabond.

b That is, a stranger without any acquaintance or kinred.

26 For a miserable life is it to goe from house to house, and where a man is b fremde, he dare not open his mouth.

27 Though one bee lodged, & haue meate and drinke, yet he shalbe taken as vnworthy, and heare many bitter rough wordes, namely thus,

28 Goe thy way thou stranger, and prepare a table for thy selfe, and feede me also of that thou hast.

29 Giue place thou strãger to an honorable mã, my brother commeth into my house: and so telleth him the necessitie of his house.

30 These things are heauy to a man that hath vnderstanding, namely, the forbidding of the house, and that the lender casteth him in the teeth.

The xxx. Chapter.

1 Of the correction of children. 14 Of the commoditie of health. 17 Death is better then a sorowfull life.

Pro.13.24. and 23.24. WHoso *loueth his childe, hasteth him still vnder correction, that he may haue ioy of him afterward, and that he grope not after his neighbours doores.

Deut.6.7. 2 He that *teacheth his sonne, shall haue ioy in him, and needs not to bee ashamed of him among his acquaintance.

3 Whoso enfourmeth and teacheth his sonne, grieueth the enemie: and before his friendes he may haue ioy of him.

4 Though his father dye, yet is hee as though he were not dead: for he hath left one behinde him that is like him.

5 In his life he sawe him, and had ioy of him, and was not sorie in his death, neither was he ashamed before the enemies.

6 For he left behinde him an auenger against his enemies, and a good doer vnto the friendes.

7 For the life of children he shal binde the woundes together, and his heart is grieued at euery cry.

8 An vntamed horse will be heard, and a wanton childe will be wilfull.

9 If thou bring vp thy sonne delicately, he shall make thee afrayde: and if thou play with him, he shall bring thee to heauinesse.

10 Laugh not with him, least thou weepe with him also, and least thou gnash with thy teeth at the last.

11 *Giue him no libertie in his youth, Eccl and excuse not his folly.

12 Bowe downe his necke while hee is young, hit him vpon the sides while he is but a childe: least he ware stubborne, and giue no more force of thee, and shalt so thou haue heauinesse of soule.

13 Teach thy childe, and be diligent therein, least it be to thy shame.

14 Better is the poore being whole and strong then a man to bee riche, and not to haue his health.

15 Health and welfare is aboue all gold, and a whole body aboue all treasure.

16 There is no riches aboue a sound bodie, and no ioy aboue the ioy of the heart.

17 Death is better then a bitter life, and eternall rest better then continuall sickenesse.

18 a The good things that are put in a close mouth, are like as when meate is layde vpon the graue.

19 What good doth the offering vnto an idole? for he can neither eate, taste, nor smell: euen so is he that is chased of the Lorde, and beareth the reward of iniquitie.

20 Hee seeth with his eyes, and groneth like a gelded man that lyeth with a virgine, and sigheth.

21 Giue not ouer thy minde into heauinesse, and vexe not thy selfe in thine owne counsell.

22 The ioy and cheerefulnes of the heart is the life of man, and a mans gladnesse is the prolonging of his dayes.

23 Loue thine owne soule, and comfort thine heart, as for sorow & heauinesse, driue it farre from thee: for heauinesse hath slayne many a man, and bringeth no profite.

24 Zeale and anger shorten the dayes of the life, carefulnesse and sorow bring age before the time.

25 vnto

25 Unto a mery heart euery thing hath a good taste that he eateth.

The xxxj. Chapter.

1 Wee ought to giue diligent heede to honestie. 2 Of them that take paine to gather riches.

WAuatie and carefulnesse for riches, taketh away the sleepe, and maketh the flesh to consume.

2 When one lieth and taketh care, he waketh euer vp, like as a great sickenesse breaketh the sleepe.

3 The riche hath great labour in gathering his riches together, and then with the pleasure of his riches he taketh his rest, and is refreshed.

4 But whoso laboureth, and prospereth not, he is poore: and though he leaue off, yet is he a begger.

5 He that loueth riches, shall not be iustified: and whoso followeth corruption, shall haue ynough thereof.

6 *Many one are come in great misfortune by the reason of golde, and haue founde their destruction before them.

7 It is a tree of falling vnto them that offer it vp, & all such as be foolish fall therein.

8 *Blessed is the riche which is founde without blemish, and hath not gone after gold, nor hoped in money and treasures.

9 Where is there such a one, and we shall commende him, and call him blessed? for wonderfull things doeth hee among his people.

10 Whoso is tryed and founde perfect in such things, shalbe commended and praysed: who might offende, and hath not offended? who could do euill, and hath not done it?

11 Therefore shal his good bee stablished, and the whole congregation shal declare his almes.

12 If thou sit at a great mans table, open not thy mouth wide vpon it, and say not, There is much meate on it.

13 Remember that an euil eye is a shrew: what thing created is worse then a wicked eye? therefore weepeth it before euery mans face.

14 *Lay not thine hand vpon euery thing that thine eye seeth, and striue not with him in the dish.

15 Ponder by thy selfe what thy neighbour would faine haue, and be discreete in euery poynt.

16 Eate the thing that is set before thee manerly as it becommeth a man: and eate not too much, least thou be abhorred.

17 Leaue thou off first of all, because of nurture, lest thou be he whom no man may satisfie, which may turne to thy decay.

18 When thou sittest among many men, reach not thine hand out first of all, neither call thou first for drinke.

19 *O howe well content is a wise man with a litle wine? so that in sleepe thou shalt not be sicke thereof, nor feele any payne.

20 A sweete wholesome sleepe shall such a one haue, and feele no inwarde griefe: he riseth vp betimes in the morning, and is well at ease in himselfe: but an vnsatiable eater sleepeth vnquietly, and hath ache and payne of the body.

21 If thou feelest that thou hast eaten too much, arise, goe thy way, cast it off thy stomacke, and take thy rest, and it shal ease thee, so that thou shalt bring no sickenesse vnto thy body.

22 My sonne, heare me, & despise me not, and at the last thou shalt finde as I haue told thee: in all thy works be diligent & quicke, so shal there no sickenesse happen vnto thee.

23 *Whoso is liberall in dealing out his meate, many men shal blesse him, and prayse him with their lips, and the same is a sure token of his loue and faithfulnesse. Pro.22.9.

24 But he that is vnfaithfull in meate, the whole citie shall complaine of him: and that is a sure experience of his infidelitie and wickednesse.

25 *Shew not thy valiantnesse in wine, for wine hath destroyed many a man. Iudit. 13.2.

26 The fire proueth the hard yron: euen so doeth wine proue the hearts of the proude, when they be drunken.

27 Wine *soberly drunken, quickneth the life of man: if thou drinkest it measurably, thou shalt be temperate: what is the life of him that is ouercome with wine? what taketh away the life? euen death. Psa.104.15 pro.31.4.

28 Wine was made from the beginning to make men glad, and not for drunkennesse: wine measurably drunken, is a reioycing of the soule and body: a measurable drinking, is healthy to soule and body.

29 But if it bee drunken with excesse, it maketh bitternesse & sorow vnto the minde.

30 Drunkennesse filleth the minde of the foolish with shame and ruine, minisheth the strength, and maketh wounds.

31 *Rebuke not thy neighbour at ỹ wine, and despise him not in his mirth: giue him no despiteful words, and presse not vpon him with contrary sayings. Eccle.20.1

The xxxij. Chapter.

1 Of the discretion and praise of the preacher and of the hearer. 15 Of the feare, faith, and confidence of God.

IF thou bee made a ruler, pride not thy selfe therin, but be thou as one of the people: take diligent care for them, and looke well thereto.

2 And when thou hast done all thy duetie, sit thee downe, that thou mayest be mery with them, and receiue a crowne of honour.

3 Speake thou that art the elder, for it becommeth thee, but with sure knowledge: hinder not musike.

4 Speake not where there is no *audience: and powre not forth wisedome out of time at an importunitie. Eccle.3.3.

5 Like

5 Like as the Carbuncle stone shineth that is set in gold, so doeth a song garnish the wine feast.

6 And as the Smaragde that is set in golde: so is the sweetenesse of musike by the mirth of wine.

7 Giue eare, and be still, and for thy good behauiour thou shalt be loued.

8 Thou yong man speake that becommeth thee, and that is profitable: and yet scarse when thou art twise asked.

9 Comprehend much with few words, in many things be as one that is ignorant: giue eare, and hold thy tongue withall.

10 If thou be among men of high authority, desire not to compare thy self vnto them: and when an elder speaketh, make not thou many words therein.

11 Before the thunder goeth lightning: and before nurture and shamefastnesse goeth loue and fauour.

12 Stand vp betimes, and be not the last: but get thee home soone.

13 And there take thy pastime, and doe what thou wilt: so that thou do no euill, and defile no man.

14 But for all things giue thankes vnto him that hath made thee, & replenished thee with his goodnesse.

15 Whoso feareth the Lorde, will receiue his doctrine: and they that get them to him betimes, shall finde grace.

16 He that seeketh the law, shall be filled withall: as for him that is but fayned, he wil be offended thereat.

17 They that feare the Lorde, shall finde the iudgement: and their righteousnesse shal be kindeled as light.

18 An vngodly man wil not be reformed, but can helpe himselfe with the example of others in his purpose.

19 A man of vnderstanding despiseth no good counsell: but a wilde and proude body hath no feare, yea, euen when hee hath dealt rashly with another man: but his owne doing shalbe his rebuke.

20 My sonne, do nothing without aduisement: so shal it not repent thee after the deed.

21 Go not in the way where thou mayest fall, nor where thou mayest stumble against the stone: againe, neither trust thou to the way that is playne.

22 And beware of thine owne children, and take heede of them that be of thine owne houshold.

23 In all thy works put thy trust in God, from thy whole heart: for that is the keeping of the commandements.

24 Whoso beleeueth Gods worde, taketh heede to the commandements: and he that putteth his trust in the Lorde, shall want nothing.

The xxxiij. Chapter.

1 The deliuerance of him that feareth God. 12 Man is in the hande of God, as the earth is in the hande of the potter.

THere shall no euill happen vnto him that feareth God: but whē hee is in temptation the Lorde shal deliuer him, and keepe him from euill.

2 A wise man hateth not the law, but an hypocrite is as a ship in a raging water.

a As a ship in the surging waues without a guide, dasheth against the rocks, or runneth on the sand: so the hypocrite that is not stayed vpon Gods word, is ouerthrowen with euery blast of trouble and temptation.

3 A man of vnderstanding giueth credence vnto the Law of God, and the law is faithful vnto him.

4 Be sure of the matter, then talke thereof: be first wel instruct, then mayest thou giue answere.

5 The heart of the foolish is like a cart wheele, and his thoughtes runne about like the axeltree.

6 b Like as a wilde horse that neyeth vnder euery one that sitteth vpon him, so is it with a scorneful friende.

b As a horse carryeth euery man, and yet neyeth after euery mare: so is a scorneful friend that wil flatter & serue euery man, & yet laugh him to scorne.

7 Why doeth one day excell another, seeing all the dayes of the yeere come of the sunne?

8 The wisedome of the Lord hath so parted them asunder, and so hath hee ordeined the times and solemne feastes.

9 Some of them hath he chosen and halowed before other dayes.

10 And all men are made of the grounde, and out of the earth of Adam: in the multitude of science hath the Lord sundred them, and made their wayes of diuers fashions.

11 Some of them hath he blessed, made much of them, halowed them, and claymed them to himselfe: but some of them hath hee cursed, brought them low, and put them out of their estate.

12 Like as the clay is in the potters hand, and all the ordering thereof at his pleasure: so are men also in the hand of him that made them, so that hee may giue them as liketh him best.

13 * Against euill, is good, and against death, is life: so is the vngodly against such as feare God. 2.Cor.6.14

14 Beholde, these are the workes of the highest, and there are euen two against two, and one set against another.

15 I am awaked vp last of al, as one that gathereth after in haruest, in the giftes of God, and in his blessing I am encreased, and haue filled my winepresse like a grapegatherer.

16 * Beholde howe I haue not laboured only for my selfe, but for all such as loue nurture and wisedome. Eccl.24.36

17 Heare me, O yee great men of the people, and hearken with your eares yee rulers of the congregation.

18 Giue not thy sonne & wife, thy brother and friend, power ouer thee while thou liuest: and giue not away thy substance and good to another, lest it repent thee, and thou be fayne to aske of them againe.

c Let no man vse them as his seruant, when thou hast committed all thy goodes into his handes.

19 As long as thou liuest and hast breath, c let no man change thee.

20 For better it is thy children to pray thee, thee, then that thou shouldest bee faine to looke in their handes.

21 In all thy workes be excellent, that thy honour be neuer stained.

22 In the time when thou shalt ende thy dayes and finish thy life, distribute thine inheritances.

23 The fodder, the whippe, and the burden belong vnto the Asse: meate, correction, and worke vnto the seruant.

24 If thou set thy seruant to labour, thou shalt finde rest: but if thou let him goe vole, he shall seeke libertie.

25 The yoke and the whip bowe downe the hard necke: but take thou the euill seruant with bonds and correction.

26 Sende him to labour, that he goe not idle: for idlenesse bringeth much euil.

27 Set him to worke, for that belongeth vnto him, and commeth him well.

28 If he be not obedient, binde his feete: but doe not too much vnto him in any wise, and without discretion doe nothing.

Eccl.7.22. 29 *If thou haue a faithfull seruant, let him bee vnto thee as thine owne soule: entreat him as a brother, for in blood hast thou gotten him: if thou haue a seruant, hold him as thy selfe, for thou hast neede of him, as of thy selfe.

30 If thou entreatest him euil, and keepest him hard, and makest him to be proude, and to runne away from thee, thou canst not tell what way thou shalt seeke him.

The xxxiiij. Chapter.

1 Of dreames, diuinations, and enchantments. 6 Wee ought to confute vaine hope, and lying. 13 The praise of them that feare God.

VAin wise people beguile themselues with vaine and deceitfull hope, ‖ and fooles trust in dreames.

‖ Or, dreams make fooles to haue wings: for honour, riches, pleasures, and such like are but as dreames, wherein fooles doe glory: for when they awake from their long sleepe, this thing shall be vanished cleane away.

2 Whoso regardeth dreams, is like him that wil take hold of a shadow, and followe after the winde.

3 Euen so is it with the appearings of dreames: before the face is the likenesse of a face.

4 Who can bee cleansed of the vncleane? or what trueth can be spoken of a liar?

5 Soothsaying, witchcraft, sorcerie, and dreaming, is but vaine: like as when a woman trauaileth with childe, and hath many fantasies in heart.

6 Whereas such visions come not of God, set not thine heart vpon them.

7 For dreames haue deceiued many a man, and they failed that put their trust therein.

8 The Law shalbe fulfilled without lies, and wisedome is sufficient to a faithfull mouth: what knowledge hath hee that is not tried?

9 A wise man that is well instruct, vnderstandeth much: and hee that hath good experience, can talke of wisedome.

10 Hee that hath no experience, knoweth litle, and hee that erreth, causeth much wickednesse: hee that is not tried, what things knoweth he? hee that hath bene deceiued, is full of subtiltie.

11 When I was yet in errour, I learned much also: yea, I was so learned, that I could not expresse it all.

12 And came oft in perill of death therefore, till I was deliuered from it through the grace of God.

13 Now I see that they which feare God haue the right spirite, for their hope standeth in him that can helpe them: and the eyes of the Lord are on them that loue him.

14 Whoso feareth the Lorde, standeth in awe of no man, and is not afraide: for the Lord is his hope and comfort.

15 Blessed is the soule of him that feareth the Lord: in whom putteth he his trust? who is his strength?

16 For the eyes of the Lorde haue respect vnto them that loue him, hee is their mightie protection and strong grounde, a defence for the heate, a refuge for the hot noone day, a succour for stumbling, and an helpe for falling.

17 Hee setteth vp the soule, and lightneth the eyes, he giueth health, life, and blessing.

18 *He that giueth an offring of vnrighteous good, his offering is refused: and the scornfull dealings of the vnrighteous please not God. Pro.21.27

19 The Lord is theirs onely that patiently abide him in the way of the trueth and of righteousnesse.

20 *The highest doeth not allow the gifts of the wicked: and God hath no delight in the offerings of the vngodly, neither may sinne be reconciled in the multitude of oblations. Pro.15.8.

21 Whoso bringeth an offering out of the goods of the poore: doth euen as one that killeth the sonne before his fathers eyes.

22 The bread of the needefull is the life of the poore: he that defraudeth him therof, is a man of blood.

23 Whoso robbeth his neighbour of his liuing, doth as great sinne as though he slue him to death: he that defraudeth the labourer of his hyre, is a blood shedder.

24 When one buildeth and an other breaketh downe, what profite haue they then but labour?

25 When one prayeth and another curseth, whose voyce will the Lord heare?

26 He that washeth himselfe because of a dead body, and then toucheth the dead againe, what doeth his washing?

27 So is it with a man that fasteth for his sinnes, and doeth them againe: who will heare his prayer? or what doeth his fasting helpe him?

a When one rich man hauing gotten his goods by robberie, extortion, briberie, or by craft and subtiltie, vsurie, or symonie, or withholding seruants or labourers wages, and of that will offer a gift vnto God, that he may peace his prayer: on the other part, the poore which is oppressed or defrauded, prayeth to God to see and iudge his cause, whose prayer thinke you will God most chiefly heare?

The xxxv. Chapter.

1 It is well done, to pray and to doe iustifie. 14 The prayer of the faithfull is heard, and of the widow, and of him that humbleth himselfe.

WHo so keepeth the Lawe, bringeth offerings ynowe: hee that Iere.7.2. heedeth fast the commaundements, *offereth the right healthy offering.

2 Hee that is thankefull and recompenceth offereth fine flowre: whoso is mercifull and giueth almes, that is the right thanke offering.

3 God hath pleasure when one departeth from sinne: and to forsake vnrighteousnesse, reconcileth vs with him.

Exo.23.15. 4 *Thou shalt not appeare emptie before the Lord:

5 For all such is done because of the commandement of God.

Gen.4.4. 6 *The offering of the righteous maketh the altar fatte, and a sweete smell is it before the highest.

7 The offering of the righteous is acceptable vnto God, and shall neuer bee forgotten.

8 Giue God his honour with a cheerefull heart: and keepe not backe the firstlings of thine hands.

2.Cor.9.7. 9 *In all thy gifts shew a cheerefull countenance, and halowe thy tythes vnto God with gladnesse.

Tob.4.6. 10 *Giue vnto God according as he hath enriched and prospered thee: and looke what thine hande is able, giue with a cheerefull eye.

11 For the Lord recompenseth and giueth thee seuen times as much againe.

Leu.22.21. 12 *Giue no vnrighteous giftes, for such deut.15.20. will bee not receiue: beware of wrong offerings, for the Lorde is a righteous Iudge, Deu.10.17. and *regardeth no mans person.

13 He accepteth not the person of ꝑ poore: but he heareth the prayer of the oppressed.

14 Hee despiseth not the desire of the fatherlesse, nor the widow when shee powreth out her prayer before him.

15 Doth not God see the teares that runne downe the cheekes of the widow? or heareth he not the complaint ouer such as make her to weepe? For from her cheekes do the teares go vp vnto heauen, and the Lord which heareth them, doeth accept them.

16 Who so seruеth God after his pleasure, shal be accepted: and his prayer reacheth vnto the cloudes.

17 The prayer of him that humbleth himselfe, goeth thorow the cloudes: till shee come nigh shee will not bee comforted, nor goe her way till the highest God haue respect vnto her, giue true sentence, and performe the iudgement.

18 And the Lord wil not be slacke in coming, nor tarry long, till he haue smitten in sunder the backes of the vnmercifull, and auenged himselfe of the heathen, till hee haue taken away the multitude of the cruell, and broken the scepter of the vnrighteous, till he giue euery man after his workes, & rewarde them after their doings, till he haue deliuered his people, maintеyned their cause, and reioyced them in his mercie.

19 How fayre a thing is mercie in the time of anguish and trouble? it is like a cloude of rayne that commeth in the time of drought.

The xxxvj. Chapter.

1 A prayer to God in the person of all faithfull men. 22 The praise of a good woman.

HAue mercie vpon vs, O Lorde, thou God of all thinges, haue respect vnto vs: shewe vs the light of thy mercies,

2 And send thy feare among the heathen and strangers which seeke not after thee, that they may knowe that there is no God but thou, and that they may shewe thy wondrous workes.

3 *Lift vp thine hand ouer the outlandish Iere.10.25.
heathen, that they may learne to knowe thy might and power.

4 Like as thou art hallowed in vs before them: so bring to passe that thou mayest bee magnified also in them before vs,

5 That they may knowe thee, like as wee knowe thee: for there is none other God but onely thou, O Lord.

6 Renewe the tokens, and chaunge the wonderous workes: shewe thine hande and thy right arme gloriously.

7 Rayse vp thine indignation, and power out thy wrath: take away the aduersarie, and smite the enemie.

8 Make the time short, remember the couenant, that thy wondrous workes may bee praised.

9 Let the wrath of the fire consume them that liue so carelesse: and let them perish that doe thy people hurt.

10 Smite in sunder the head of the Princes that bee our enemies, and say, There is none other but we.

11 Gather all the tribes of Jacob together againe, that they may knowe how that there is none other God but onely thou, that they may shew thy wonderous workes: and bee thou thy peoples heritage, like as from the beginning.

12 O Lord haue mercie vpon the people that hath thy Name, & vpon *Israel whom Exod.4.22.
thou hast named to a first borne sonne.

13 O bee mercifull vnto Hierusalem the citie of thy Sanctuarie, the citie of thy rest.

14 Fil Sion with thine vnspeakable vertues, and thy people with thy glorie.

15 Giue witnes vnto thy creature whom thou madest from the beginning, and rayse vp the prophecies that haue bene spoken in thy Name.

16 Reward them that wait for thee, that thy prophets may be found faithfull.

17 *O Lorde, heare the prayer of thy ser- Num.6.23.
uants, according to the blessing of Aaron ouer thy people, and guide thou vs in the way of righteousnesse: that all they which dwell vpon vpon the earth may know that thou art the Lord the eternall God, which is from euerlasting.

18 The belly deuoureth all meates: yet is one meate better then another.

19 Like as the tongue tasteth venison: so doeth an heart of vnderstanding make false words.

20 A froward heart giueth heauines: but a man of experience lifteth him vp againe.

21 The woman receiueth euery man: yet is one daughter better then another.

22 A faire wife reioyceth her husband: & a man loueth nothing better.

23 If there be in her tongue gentlenesse, meekenesse, and wholesome talke: then is not her husband like other men.

24 Hee that hath gotten a vertuous woman, hath a goodly possessiō: she is vnto him a helpe, and a pillar whereon he resteth.

25 Where no hedge is, there the goods are spoiled: and where no housewife is, there the friendlesse mourneth.

26 Like as there is no credence giuen to a robber that goeth from one citie to another: so is not the man beleeued that hath no nest, and must turne in where he may abide in the night.

The xxxvii. Chapter.

1 How a man should know friendes and counsellers, 12 and search the companie of an holy man.

EVery friend saith, I will bee friendly vnto him also: but there is some friend, which is onely a friend in name.

2 Remaineth not there heauinesse vnto death, when a companion and friend is turned to an enemie?

3 O most wicked presumption, from whence art thou sprung vp to couer the earth with falsehood and deceit?

Eccl.6.10. 4 *There is some companion which in prosperitie reioyceth with his friende: but in the time of trouble hee taketh parte against him.

Or, There is some cōpanion that helpeth his friend for the bellies sake, and taketh vp the buckler against the enemie. 5 ¶ There is some companion that mourneth with his friend for the bellies sake: but when trouble commeth, hee taketh holde of the shield.

6 Forget not thy friend in thy minde, and thinke vpon him in thy riches.

7 Seeke no counsel at thy kinsman, and hide thy counsel from such as beare thee no good will.

8 *Euery counseller praiseth his counsel: neuertheleese, there is some that counselleth but for his owne profite.

9 Beware of the counseller, and be aduised afore whereto thou wilt vse him (for hee will counsell for himselfe) least he cast the lot vpon thee,

10 And say vnto thee, Thy way & purpose is good: and afterward he stand against thee, and looke what shall become of thee.

11 Aske no counsel at him that suspecteth thee for an enemie, and hide thy counsell frō such as hate thee: aske no counsell for religion of him that is without religion, nor for iustice, of him that hath no iustice: aske no counsell at a woman, touching her of whom she is ielous, nor at a feareful & faint hearted bodie, in matters of warre: or at a marchant, howe deare hee will cheape thy wares toward his: or at a buyer, of selling, or at an enuious man, of thankes giuing: or at the vnmerciful, of louing kindnesse: or at an vnhoneſt man, of honestie: or at the slouthfull, of working: or at an hyreling which hath no house, of profite or wealth: or at an idle body, of much labour: take no such folks to counsell.

12 But be diligent to seeke counsell at a vertuous man that feareth God, such a one as thou knowest to bee a keeper of the commandements, which hath a mind after thine owne minde, and is sory for thee when thou stumblest.

13 And holde thy counsell fast in thine heart: for there is no man more faithfull to keepe it, then thou thy selfe.

14 For a mans minde is sometime disposed to tell out more, then seuen watchmen that sit aboue in an high place, loking about them.

15 And aboue all this, pray the highest, that he will leade thy way in faithfulnesse and trueth.

16 Before all thy workes, aske counsell first: and or euer thou doest any thing, be wel aduised.

17 There be foure thinges that declare a changed heart, whereout there springeth euil and good, death and life, and a masterfull tongue that babbleth much.

18 Some man is apt, and well instructed in many thinges, and yet very vnprofitable vnto himselfe.

19 Some man there is that can giue wise and prudent counsel, and yet is he hated, and continueth a begger.

20 For that grace is not giuen him of God to be accepted.

21 Another is robbed of al wisedome: yet is he wise vnto himselfe, & the fruite of vnderstanding is commendable in his mouth.

22 A wise man maketh his people wise, and the fruites of his wisedome faile not.

23 A wise man shall be plenteously blessed of God: and all they that see him, shall speake good of him.

24 The life of man standeth in the number of the dayes: but the dayes of Israel are innumerable.

25 A wise man shall obteine faithfulnes and credence among his people, & his name shall be perpetuall.

26 My sonne, proue thy soule in thy life, and if thou see any euill thing, giue it not vnto her.

27 *For all thinges are not profitable for all men, neither hath euery soule pleasure in 1.Cor.6.12 euery thing.

Eccl.31.22 28 *Be not greedy in euery eating, & be not too hastie vpon all meates.

29 For excesse of meates bringeth sickines, and gluttonie commeth at the last to an vnmeasurable heate.

30 Through surfet haue many one perished: but he that dieteth himself temperately, prolongeth his life.

The xxxviii. Chapter.

1 A Phisition is commendable. 16 To burie the dead.
24 The wisedome of him that is learned.

HOnour the Phisition, honour him with that honour that is due vnto him, because of necessitie, for God hath created him.

2 For of the highest commeth medicine, and he shall receiue giftes of the king.

3 The wisedome of the Phisition bringeth him to great worship, and in the sight of the great men of this world he shall be honorably taken.

4 The Lord hath created medicine of the earth: and he that is wise will not abhorre it.

Exo.15.25. iud.5.15. 5 *Was not the bitter water made sweete with a tree, that men might learne to know the vertue thereof?

6 The Lorde hath giuen men wisedome and vnderstanding, that he might be honoured in his wondrous workes.

7 With such doeth he heale men, and taketh away their paynes.

8 Of such doeth the Apothecarie make a confection, yet can no man performe all his workes: for of the Lord commeth prosperous wealth ouer all the earth.

Esa.38.2. 9 *My sonne, despise not this in thy sicknesse: but pray vnto the Lorde, and hee shall make thee whole.

10 Leaue off from sinne, and order thy hands aright, cleanse thine heart from all wickednes.

11 Giue a sweete sauoured offering, and the fine floure for a token of remembraunce: make the offering fatte, as one that giueth the first frutes.

12 And giue roume to the Phisition, for the Lorde hath created him, let him not goe from thee, for thou hast neede of him.

13 The houre may come, that the sicke may be helped through them,

14 when they pray vnto the Lorde, that he may recouer & get health to liue longer.

15 He that sinneth before his maker, shall fall into the handes of the Phisition.

Eccl.22.10. 16 My sonne, *bring forth thy teares ouer
1.the.4.13. the dead, and beginne to mourne, as if thou hadst suffered great harme thy selfe: and then couer his body after a conuenient manner, and despise not his burial.

17 Enforce thy selfe to weep, and prouoke thy selfe to mourne, and make lamentation expediently, and be earnest in mourning, & vse lamentation as he is worthie, and that a day or two, least thou be euil spoken of: & then comfort thy selfe, because of the heauines.

18 *For of heauines commeth death, the heauines of the heart breaketh strength. Pro.15.13. and 17.22.

19 Heauines and pouertie grieueth the heart in temptation and offence.

20 Take no heauines to heart, driue it away, and remember the last things.

21 Forget it not, for there is no turning againe, thou shalt do him no good, but hurt thy selfe.

22 Remember his iudgement, thine also shall be likewise: vnto mee yesterday, vnto thee to day.

23 Let the *remembrance of the dead ceasse in his rest, and comfort thee again ouer him, seeing his spirit is departed from him. 2.S.12.20.

24 The wisedome of the Scribe is at conuenient time of rest: and he that ceaseth frō exercises and labour, shall be wise.

25 How can he get wisedome that holdeth the plough, and he that hath pleasure in the goade and in driuing the oxen, and is occupied in their labours, and his talk is but of the breeding of bullocks?

26 He setteth his heart to make furrowes, and is diligent to giue the kine fodder.

27 So is euery Carpenter also and workmaster that laboureth stil night and day: he carueth, graueth, cutteth out, and his desire is in sundry cunning things, his heart imagineth how he may cūningly cast an image, his diligence also and watching performeth the worke.

28 The yron Smith in like maner bideth by his stithie, and doth his diligēce to labour the yron: the vapour of the fire burneth his flesh, and he must fight with the heate of the furnace: the noyse of the hammer euer soundeth in his eares, & his eies look stil vpon the thing that he maketh: he hath set his minde therevpon, that he will make out his worke, and therefore he watcheth how he may set it out, and bring it to an end.

29 So doeth the potter sit by his work: he turneth the wheele about with his feete, he is diligent and careful in all doings, and maketh his worke in number.

30 He fashioneth the clay with his arme, and with his feete he tempereth it, his heart imagineth how he may make it pleasant, & his diligence is to cleanse the ouen.

31 All these hope in their hands, and euery one thinketh to be cunning in his worke.

32 Without these may not the citie bee mainteined, inhabited, nor occupied:

33 Yet come they not high in the congregation, neither sit they vpon the iudgement seates: they vnderstand not the couenant of the lawe, they can not declare equitie and iudgement, they can not finde out the darke sentences.

34 But through them shal the creature of the worlde be mainteyned, their desire concerneth onely the worke and labour of cunning.

The

The xxxix. Chapter.

1 A wise man. 16 The workes of God. 24 Vnto the good, good things doe profite; but vnto the euill, euen good things are euill.

HE that applyeth his minde to vnderstand the lawe of God, doeth diligently seeke out the wisedome of them of the olde time, and exerciseth himselfe in the Prophets.

2 He keepeth the saying of famous men, and preasseth to the vnderstanding of darke sentences of wisedome.

3 Hee seeketh out the mysterie of secrete sayings, and exerciseth himselfe therein continually.

4 He doeth seruice among great men, and appeareth before the prince, he goeth into a strange countrey, & trauaileth thorowe it: looke what good or euill is among men, hee proueth and seeketh it out.

5 He purposeth in his heart to resort early vnto the Lord that made him, and to pray before the highest god: he openeth his mouth in prayer, and prayeth for his sinnes.

6 When the great Lord will, he shall be filled with the spirite of vnderstanding, that he may then powre out wise sentences, and giue thankes vnto the Lord in his prayer.

7 He shall order his deuise, and leade his knowledge aright, and giue him vnderstanding of secret things.

8 He shall shewe foorth the science of his learning, and reioyce in the couenant of the lawe of the Lord.

9 The whole congregation shal commend his wisedome, and it shall neuer be put out: the remembrance of him shall neuer be forgotten, & his name shall continue from one generation to another.

Eccl.44.14 10 * His wisedome shall bee spoken of among the people, and the whole congregation shall openly declare his prayse.

11 While he liueth, he hath a greater name then a thousand beside: and after death, the same name remaineth vnto him.

12 Yet wil I speake of moe men of vnderstanding, for I am full as the moone.

13 Hearken vnto me ye holy vertuous children, bring forth fruite as the rose that is planted by the brookes of the field.

14 And giue ye a sweete smell as incense, flourish as the rose garden, sing a song of praise, O giue thanks vnto God ouer all his workes.

15 Giue magnificence vnto his name, and set him foorth in his praise with your lippes, and with musike and harmonie: yea, euen with the song of your lippes, with Harpes and playing, and in giuing thankes vnto him, say after this maner:

Gene.1.31. mark.7.37. 16 * All the workes of the Lord are exceeding good, and all his commandements are meete and conuenient in due season.

17 A man neede not to say, What is that? what is that? for at a time conuenient they shal all be sought: at his commandement the water was as a wall, and at the word of his mouth the water stoode still.

18 In his commandement is euery thing acceptable and reconciled, and his health can not be minished.

19 The workes of all flesh are before him, and there is nothing hid from his eyes.

20 He seeth from euerlasting to euerlasting, and there is nothing too wonderfull or high vnto him, 21 A man neede not to say then, what is this, or that? for he hath made all thinges to doe good vnto man.

22 His blessing shall runne ouer as the streame, and moysture the earth like a flood of water.

23 Like as he maketh the drouth: so shall his wrath fall vpon the heathen.

24 His wayes are plaine and right vnto the iust: but the vngodly stumble at them.

25 [a] For the good, are good thinges created from the beginning, and euill things for the vngodly.

a The creatures of God are good by creation. But as good men vse them to the glory of God, the profite of others, & their owne necessitie: so the vngodly doe not acknowledge them as the good gifts of God, but abuse them either in riot and excesse, or els in miserable keeping of thē, take them for their God. 1.Tim.4.4.

26 All things necessarie for the life of man, are created from the beginning: water, fire, yron, and salt, meale, wheate, & honie, milke and wine, oyle and clothing.

27 * All these thinges are created for the best to the faithful: but to the vngodly shal all these things be turned to hurt and harme.

28 There be spirits that are created for vengeance, and in their rigorousnesse haue they fastened their torments: in the time of the ende they shall powre out their strength, and ‖ pacifie the wrath of him that made them.

‖ Or, accōplish.

29 * Fire, haile, hunger, and death: all these things are created for vengeance. Eccle.40.9.

30 The teeth of wilde noysome beasts, the scorpions, serpents, and the sword, are created also for vengeaunce, to the destruction of the vngodly.

31 They shall bee glad to doe his commandements, and when neede is, they shall be ready vpon earth: and when their houre is come, they shall not ouerpasse the commandement of the Lord.

32 Therefore haue I taken a good courage vnto me from the beginning, and haue thought to put these things in writing, and to leaue them behind me:

33 * All the workes of the Lord are good, and he giueth euery one in due season, and when neede is. Gene.1.31.

34 So that no man neede to say, This is worse then that: for in due season they are all pleasant and good.

35 And therefore prayse the Lorde with whole heart and mouth, and giue thankes vnto his name.

The xl. Chapter.

1 Many miseries light in a mans life. 11 All things passe away, but a firme and stable faith remaineth. 14 Of the blessing of the righteous, and prerogatiue of the feare of God.

A Great trauaile is created for all men, and an heauie yoke vpon al the sonnes of Adam, from the day that they go out of their mothers wombe, til they be buried in the earth the mother of all things.

2 Namely their thoughts and imaginations, feare of the heart, counsell, meditations, longing and desiring the day of death:

3 From the highest that sitteth vpon the glorious seate, vnto the lowest and most simple vpon the earth:

4 From him that is gloriously arayed, and weareth a crowne, vnto him that is but homely and simply clothed.

5 There is nothing but wrath, zeale, fearefulnesse, vnquietnesse, and feare of death, rigorousnesse, anger, and strife: & in the night when on should rest & sleepe vpon his bed, the sleepe changeth his vnderstanding and knowledge.

6 A litle or nothing is his rest in the sleepe, as well as in the day of labour: hee feareth, and is disquieted in the vision of his heart, as one that runneth out of a battell.

7 And in the time of health he awaketh, and marueileth that the feare was nothing.

8 Such thinges happen vnto all flesh, both man and beast, but seuen folde to the vngodly.

Eccl.39.35 9 *Moreouer, death, bloodshedding, strife, and sword, oppression, hunger, destruction, and punishment:

10 These thinges are all created against the vngodly, * and for their sakes came the Gen.7.11. flood also.

Gen.3.19. 11 * All that is of the earth, shall turne to the earth againe, and al waters ebbe againe into the sea.

12 All bribes and vnrighteousnesse shall be put away: but faithfulnesse & trueth shall endure for euer.

13 The substance and goods of the vngodly shall be dried vp, and sinke away as a water flood, [a] and they shall make a sound like a great thunder in the raine.

[a] That is, with great tumult & trouble shall they be dispersed abroade like as the roaring thunder.

14 Like as the righteous reioyceth when he openeth his hand: so shall the transgressours be faint, when their goods vanish and consume away.

15 The children of the vngodly shall not obteine many branches:

16 And the vncleane rootes vpon the high rockes, shal be rooted out before the grasse by the water side, and vpon the riuer bankes.

17 Friendlinesse and liberalitie in the increase and blessing of God, is like a paradise and garden of pleasure: such mercy also and kindnesse endureth for euer.

1.Tim.6. phil.4.12. 18 * To labour & to be content with that a man hath, is a sweete pleasaunt life: and that is, to finde a treasure of all treasures.

19 To beget children and to repaire the citie, maketh a perpetuall name: but an honest woman is more worth then they both.

20 Wine and minstrellie reioyceth the heart: but the loue of wisedome is aboue them both.

21 Piping and harping make a sweete noyse: but a friendly tongue goeth beyond them both.

22 Thine eye desireth fauour and beautie: but a greene seed time, rather then them both.

23 A friende and companion come together at opportunitie: but aboue them both is a wife that agreeth with her husband.

24 Brethren and helpers are profitable in time of trouble: but almes shall deliuer more then they both.

25 Gold & siluer fasten the feet: but a good counsell is more pleasant then they both.

26 Temporall substance and strength lift vp the minde: but the feare of the Lord more then they both: the feare of the Lorde wanteth nothing, and needeth no helpe.

27 The feare of the Lorde is a pleasant garden of blessing, and nothing so beautiful as it is.

28 My sonne, leade not a beggers life: for better it were to die then to begge.

29 The life of him that looketh vpon another mans table, is not to bee counted for a life, for hee defileth his soule in other mens meate: but a wise and well nurtured man will beware thereof.

30 Begging is sweete in the mouth of the vnshamefast: but in his belly there burneth a fire.

The xli. Chapter.

1 Of the remembrance of death. 3 Death is not to be feared. 8 A curse vpon them that forsake the lawe of God.

O Death, [a] howe bitter is the remembrance of thee to a man that seeketh rest and comfort in his substance & riches, vnto the man that hath nothing to bestow him, and that hath prosperitie in all things, yea, vnto him that yet is able to receiue meate!

[a] Temporall death is bitter to foure sortes of men: one, to vnfaithfulnesse that looke for no life after this: secondly to them that set their pleasure in their riches, from whence they must needes depart: thirdly, to them that neuer tasted of the crosse: fourthly, to the that be strong & lusty in body, for that they strongly struggle with death: but sweete vnto the contrarie.

2 O death, howe acceptable and good is thy iudgement vnto the needefull, and vnto him whose strength faileth, and that is now in his last age, and that in all things is ful of care and fearefulnesse, vnto him also that is in dispaire, and hath no hope nor patience!

3 Be not thou afraid of death, remember them that haue bene before thee, & that come after thee: this is the iudgement of the Lord ouer all flesh.

4 And why wouldest thou be against this pleasure of the highest? whether it be tenne, an hundred, or a thousand yeeres, ‖ death asketh not howe long one hath liued.

‖ Or, there is no defence for life against the graue.

5 The children of the vngodly are abominable children, & so are they that keepe company with the vngodly.

6 The inheritance of vngodly children shall come to nought, and their posteritie shal haue a perpetuall shame and confusion.

7 The children complaine of an vngodly father:

ther: and why? for his sake they are rebuked and despised.

8 Woe be vnto you, O ye vngodly, which haue forsaken the law of the highest God: for though ye do encrease, yet shall you perish.

9 If ye doe liue, ye shall be accursed: if yee dye, the curse shalbe your portion.

Eccl.40.11 10 *All that is of the earth, shall turne to earth againe: so go the vngodly also out of the curse into destruction.

11 Though men mourne for their body: yet the *name of the vngodly shalbe put out, Prou.22.1. for it is nothing worth.

12 Labour to get thee a good name: for that shal continue surer by thee then a thousand great treasures of gold.

13 A good life hath a number of dayes: but a good name endureth for euer.

14 My children, keepe wisedome in peace: for wisedome that is hid, and a treasure that is not seene, what profite is in them both?

15 A man that hideth his foolishnesse, is better than a man that hideth his wisdome.

16 Therefore be ye turned at my wordes: for it is not good in all things and alway to be ashamed: [b] true faith must prooue & measure it.

17 Bee ashamed of whoredome before father and mother: be ashamed of leasing before the prince and men of authoritie:

18 Of sinne, before the iudge and ruler: of offence, before the congregation and people: of vnrighteousnesse, before a companion and friende:

19 Of theft, before thy neighbours: as for the trueth of God and his couenant, bee not ashamed thereof: [c] bee ashamed to lye with thine elbowes vpon the bread, or to be reproued for giuing or taking:

20 And of silence, vnto them that salute thee: be ashamed to looke vpon harlots:

21 Be ashamed to turne away thy face from thy kinsman: be ashamed ‖ to take and not giue:

22 Be ashamed also to looke vpon an other mans wife, & to make many trifling wordes with her maiden, or to stand by her bed side:

23 Bee ashamed to vpbrayde thy friende: when thou giuest any thing, cast him not in the teeth withall:

24 Or to report the matter that thou hast heard, or to disclose the secrete words: so shalt thou well be shamefast, and shalt find fauour with all men.

The xlii. Chapter

1 The lawe must be taught. 9 A daughter. 14 A woman. 18 God knoweth all things, yea, euen the secrets of the heart.

Leu.19.15. Iacob.2.2. OF these things be not ashamed, and *accept no person to offend. Namely, of these things bee not ashamed:

2 Of the lawe of God, of the couenant, of iudgement to bring the vngodly from his vngodlinesse vnto righteousnes, and to make him a good man.

3 To deale faithfully with thy neighbour and companion, to distribute the heritage vnto the friends:

4 To bee diligent to keepe true measure and weight, to be content whether thou gettest much or little:

5 To deale truely with temporall goods in buying and selling, to bring vp children with diligence, to correct an euill seruant:

6 To keepe that thine is from an euill wife, to set a locke where many hands are:

7 What thou deliuerest and giuest out to be kept, to tell it, and weygh it: to write vp all thy outgiuing and receiuing:

8 To enfourme the vnlearned and vnwise, of the aged that are iudged of the yong: if thou bee diligent in these things, truely thou shalt be learned and wise, and accepted of all men.

9 The daughter maketh the father to watch secretly, and the carefulnesse that hee hath for her taketh away his sleepe, yea, in her youth, lest she should ouergrowe him, and when she hath an husband, lest she should be hated:

10 Lest she should be defiled or rauished in her virginitie, or gotten with child in her fathers house: or when she cometh to the man, lest she behaue her self not right, or continue vnfruitefull.

11 *If thy daughter be wanton, keepe her straitely, lest thee cause thine enemies to laugh thee to scorne, and the whole citie to giue thee an euil report: and so thou be faine to heare thy shame of euery man, and be confounded before all the people. Eccl.26.13

12 *Behold not euery bodies beautie, and haue not much dwelling among women. Eccl.25.28

10 For like as the worme or moth commeth out of clothing: so *doeth wickednesse come of women. Gen.3.9.

14 It is better to bee with an euill man, then with a friendly wife that putteth one to shame and rebuke.

15 I wil remember the words of the Lord, and declare the thing that I haue seene: In the wordes of the Lord are his workes.

16 The Sunne ouerlooketh all things with his shine, ‖ and all his workes are full of the clearenesse thereof. ‖Or, and all the worke thereof is full of the glorie of the Lord, 17 Hath not the Lorde brought to passe, that his saints should tell out all his wonderous works which the almightie Lord hath stablished? all things endure in his glorie.

18 Hee seeketh out the ground of the deepe, and the heart of man, & he knoweth all their imaginations and wisedome: for the Lorde knoweth all science, and he looketh into the token of the time.

19 He declareth the things that are past, and for to come, and discloseth things that are secret.

20 No thought may escape him, neyther may any word be hid from him.

21 Hee hath garnished the high excellent

b True faith must in all things be tried & approued, when & before euery one ought to be allowed. For many must & hath not right faith, & beleeueth as the common sort do: but he must be tried by his works, and so euidently know again.

c Being bidden to another mans table, ye must not be the foremost that ye be bidden, for then ye shall not be worthy that ye be bidden vpon the table with thy hand as that is inhumanity, Ecclus.31. Or, to take away a gift from any man.

workes of his wisedome, and hee is from euerlasting to euerlasting: vnto him may nothing be added, neither can he be diminished, he hath no neede also of any mans counsell.

a As who should say, no man: for where Dauid saith, Psal.17. I shal be satisfied when thy glory appeareth: he speaketh of that glorie which he desireth to obteine which he yet waiting is not satisfied: but when he hath obteined it, he hath the thing he doth desire, and yet is not weary of it, but desireth in that ioy which neuer shalbe ended, as 1.Pet.1.

22 O howe amiable are all his workes, and as a sparke to looke vpon?

23 They liue all, and endure for euer: and whensoeuer neede is, they are all obedient vnto him.

24 They are all double one against another: he hath made nothing that hath fault or blemish.

25 Hee hath stablished the goods of euery one: a and who may be satisfied with his glorie when he seeth it?

The xliii. Chapter.

The summe of the creation of the workes of God.

THe glorie of the height is the faire and cleare firmament, the beautie of the heauen is his glorious clearenesse.

2 The Sunne when it appeareth, declareth the day in the going out of it, a marueilous worke of the highest.

3 At noone it burneth the earth, & who may abide the heate thereof?

4 Who so keepeth an Ouen when it is hotte, three times more doeth the Sunne burne vpon the mountaines: when it breatheth out the fierie beames and shineth, with the brightnesse of it it blindeth the eyes.

5 Great is the Lord that made it, and in his commaundement he causeth it to runne hastily,

Gen.1. 16. 6 * The Moone also in al thinges according to her season, is a declaration of the time, and a signe for the world.

Exod,12.2. 7 The * token of the solemne feast is taken of the moone, a light that minisheth and increaseth againe.

8 The moneth is called after the moone, it groweth wonderously in her changing.

9 The armie of heauen also is in ỹ height: in the firmament of heauē it giueth a cleare and a glorious shine: this is the clearenesse of the starres, the beautifull apparell of heauen, the apparel that the Lord lighteneth in the height.

10 In his holy worke they continue in their order, and not one of them tayleth in his watch.

Gen,9.14. 11 * Looke vpon the Rainebowe, & praise him that made it: very beautifull is it in his shine.

12 He compasseth the heauen about with Esai.40.12. a glorious circle, the * handes of the highest haue bended it.

13 Through his commandement he maketh the snow to fall, and the thunder of his iudgement to smite hastily.

14 Through his commaundement the treasures are opened, and the cloudes flee as the foules.

15 In his power hath hee strengthened the clouds, and broken the hailestones.

16 The mountaines ‖ leape at the sight of him, the winde bloweth according to his will. ‖ Or, moue.

17 The sound of his thunder beateth the earth, and so doeth the storme of the North: the whirle winde also lighteth downe as a feathered foule, casteth out, and spreadeth the snowe abroade, and as the Grashoppers that destroy all, so falleth it downe.

18 The eye marueyleth at the beautie of the whitenes thereof, and the heart is afraid at the raine of it.

19 Hee powreth out the frost vpon earth like salt, and when it is frozen, it is as sharpe as the pricke of a thistle.

20 When the colde North wind bloweth, hard Cristall commeth of the water: he lighteth downe vpon al the gatherings together of water, & putteth on the water as a breastplate.

21 He deuoureth the mountaines, and burneth the wildernesses: and looke what is greene, he putteth it out like fire.

22 The medicine of all these is, when a cloude commeth hastily, and when a deawe commeth vpon the heate, it shall be refreshed againe.

23 In his worde he stilleth the winde, in his counsaile he appeaseth the deepe, & hath planted Ilands in it.

24 They that saile ouer the sea, tell of the perils and harmes thereof, and when wee heare it with our eares, we maruaile therat.

25 For there be strange wonderous workes, diuers maners of nice beasts, & whale fishes.

26 Through him are all thinges set in good order and perfourmed, and in his word all thyngs endure.

27 I speake much, but I cannot sufficiently attaine vnto it: for he himselfe only is the perfection of all wordes.

28 We should prayse the Lord after all our power, for he is great in all his workes.

29 The Lord is to be * feared, yea, very great is he, and marueilous is his power. Psal.96.4.

30 Praise the Lord, and magnifie him as much as ye may, yet doeth he farre exceede al prayse: O magnifie him with all your power and labour earnestly, yet are ye in no wise able sufficiently to prayse him.

31 * Who hath seene him, that hee might tell vs? who can magnifie him so greatly as he is? Psal.106.2.

32 For there are hid yet greater things then these be: as for vs, wee haue seene but fewe of his workes.

33 For the Lorde hath made all things, and giuen wisedome to such as feare God.

The xliiii. Chapter.

1 The praise of certaine holy men, 16 Enoch, 17 Noah, 18 Abraham.

LEt vs commend the noble famous men, and the generation of our forefelders and fathers.

2 Many more glorious actes hath the Lorde done in them, and and shewed his great power euer since the beginning.

Exo.18.20. 3 *The noble famous men reigned in their kingdomes, and bare excellent rule in their wisdome and vnderstanding, they followed the counsell shewed in the prophecies:

4 They ledde the folke through the counsell and wisedome of the scribes of the people, wise sentences are founde in their instructions:

5 They sought the sweetenesse and melodie of musike, and brought forth the pleasant songs in scripture:

6 They were rich also, and could comfort and pacifie those that dwelt with them.

7 All these were very noble and honourable men in their generations, and were well reported of in their times.

8 These haue left a name behind them, so that their praise shall alway be spoken of.

Gene.7.22 6 Afterward there were some whose *remembrance is gone, they came to nought and perished, As though they had neuer bene, and became as though they had neuer bene borne, yea, and their children also with them.

10 Neuertheless, they are louing men, whose righteousnesse shall neuer bee forgotten, but continue by their posteritie.

11 Their children are an holy good heritage: their seed endured fast in the couenant.

12 For their sakes shall their children and seede continue for euer, and their praise shall neuer be put downe.

13 Their bodies are buried in peace, but their name liueth for euermore.

Eccle.39.14. 14 *The people can speake of their wisedome, and the cõgregation can talke of their praise.

Gene.5.24. 15 *Henoch walked right and acceptably before the Lord, therefore was he translated for an example of amendement to the generations.

Gene.6.9. and 7.6. 16 *Noe was a stedfast and righteous man, and in the time of wrath he became a reconciling: therefore was he left a remnant vnto the earth when the flood came.

Gene.9.11. 17 *An euerlasting couenant was made with him, that all flesh should perish no more with the water.

Gene.17.3. 18 *Abraham was a great father of many people, in glorie was there none like vnto him.

19 He kept the law of the highest, and came into a couenant with him.

20 He set the couenant in his flesh, & when he was proued, he was found faithfull.

Gen.22.16 21 *Therefore swore God vnto him with an othe, that he would blesse all people in his seed, that hee would multiply and encrease him as the dust of the earth, and to exalt his seede as the starres: yea, and that his seede should haue the possession and inheritance of the land, from sea to sea, and from the riuer vnto the borders of the world.

22 With Isahac did hee stablish the same couenant, for Abraham his fathers sake: Yea, that gracious blessing and health of all men, & couenant did he stablish with Isahac, and made it rest vpon the head of Jacob.

23 a He knew him in that he prospered him so wel and richly, and gaue him an heritage, and sundred his portion by it selfe, and parted among the twelue tribes.

24 Mercifull men brought he out of him, which found fauour in the sight of all flesh.

a He did alotte him, & made him worthie and meete for such blessings of riches and increase: as els he made be knowen by this blessing, Laban his vncle so often changing his wages, yet did God prosper him, that it did well appeare he bare a fauour to him, as to Joseph and Dauid.

The xlv. Chapter.

1 The praise of Moses, 6 Aaron, and Phinehes.

MOses * beloued of God & men, whose remembrance is in high praise: Exod. 11.3 acts 7.22.

2 Him that the Lord made like in the glorie of the saints, and magnified him, so that the enemies stood in awe of him.

3 Through his words he did great wonders: hee made him glorious in the sight of kings, gaue him commandement before his people, and shewed him glorious power.

4 *Hee stablished him with faithfulnesse and meekenesse, and chose him out of al men. Num.12.3.

5 For hee heard his voice, and he led him in the darke cloude, and there hee *gaue him the commandements, yea, the lawe of life and wisedome: that he might teach Jacob the couenant, and Israel his lawes. Exod.19.7.

6 *He chose Aaron his brother also out of the tribe of Leui, exalted him, and made him such like. Exod.4.14

7 An euerlasting couenant made he with him, and gaue him the priesthood in the people: hee made him glorious in beautifull aray, and clothed him with the garment of honour.

8 He put perfect ioy vpon him, and girded him with strength, hee decht him with side clothes and a tunicle, with an ouerbody coat also, and a girdle.

9 *Round about made hee him belles of gold, and that many: that when he went in, the sound might bee heard, that they might make a noise in the sanctuarie, and giue the people warning. Exo.28.29.

10 The holy garment was wrought and bordered with golde, yellowe silke and purple: and in the breastlap there was a goodly worke, wherein was fastened light and perfectnesse.

11 Upon the same also there was a worke fastened and set with costly precious stones, all bound with golde, and this he brought in his ministration: the stones were fastened for a remembrance, after the number of the twelue tribes of Israel.

12 Upon his miter there was a plate of pure gold, a grauen image of holinesse, a famous and noble worke, garnished, and pleasant to looke vpon.

13 Before him were there seene no such faire ornaments, and these it behooued him alway to vse: there might none other put them them on, but only his children, and his childrens children perpetually.

14 Dayly perfourmed he his burnt offerings two times.

Leuit. 8.12 15 *Moses filled a his hands, and anoynted him with holy oyle: this was now confirmed him with an euerlasting couenant, and to his seede as the dayes of heauen, namely, that his children shoulde alway minister before him, and perfourme the office of the Priesthoode, and wish the people good in his name.

a That was, either to put into his hande the booke of the law written to read vnto the people, or else some sacrifice, that he might offer vnto God for their offences.

16 Before all men liuing chose hee him, that he should offer incense before the Lorde, and make odours for a sweete sauour and remembrance, that he should reconcile the people of the Lord with him againe.

Deu.17.10. 17 *Hee gaue him authoritie also in his commandements, and in the couenant, that he should teach Jacob the statutes and testimonies, and enforme Israel in the lawe.

Num.16.1. 18 *Therefore there stoode vp certaine against him, and had enuie at him in the wildernesse: namely, they that were of Dathan and Abirams side, and the furious congregation of Chore.

19 This the Lord sawe, and it displeased him, and in his wrathfull indignation were they consumed: a great wonder did he vpon them, and consumed them with the fire.

Num.27.8. 20 Besides this, he made *Aaron yet more honourable and glorious, hee gaue him an heritage, & parted the first fruites vnto him: vnto him specially he appointed the bread of sustenance.

21 For the priests did eate of the offerings of the Lorde: this gaue he vnto him and his seede.

Deu.12.12 and 18.1. 22 *Els had he no heritage nor portion in the land and with the people: for the Lorde himselfe is his portion and inheritance.

23 The third noble and excellent man is *Phinehes the sonne of Eleazar, which Nu.25.13. 1.mac.2.26 pleased the God of Israel, because hee had the zeale and feare of the Lord: for when the people were turned backe, hee put himselfe foorth right soone, and that with a good will, to pacifie the wrath of the Lord toward Israel.

24 Therefore was there a couenant of peace made with him, that he should bee the principall among the righteous in the people, that he and his posteritie should haue the office of the priesthood for euer.

25 Like as there was made a couenant with Dauid of the tribe of Juda, that from among his sonnes onely there should bee a king, and that Aaron also and his seed should bee an heritage, to giue vs wisedome in our heart, to iudge his people in righteousnesse, that his goods shoulde not come into forgetfulnes, and that their honour might endure for euer.

The xlvi. Chapter.

1 The prayse of Iosue, 9 Caleb, 13 Samuel.

MAnly and strong in battaile was Jesus the sonne of Naue, and was the *successour of Moses in prophecies, and was giuen to bee captaine of the people, which according vnto his name was a great sauiour vnto the elect of God, to punish the enemies that rose vp against Israel, that Israel might obteine their inheritance. Iosu.12.7. num.27.18 deut.34.9. iosue.1.2.

2 *O how great, noble, and excellent was he, when he lift vp his hande, and drewe out his sword against the cities! Iosu.8.3.

3 Who stood so manly before him? for the Lord himselfe brought in the enemies.

4 *Stood not the sunne still at his commaundement, and one day was as long as two? Iosu.10.13

5 Hee called vpon the highest and most mightie, when the enemies preassed vpon him on euery side, & the mightie Lorde heard him with the haile stones.

6 They smote the heathenish people mightily, and in falling downe they slue all the aduersaries: so that the Heathen knewe his hoste, & al his defence, that the Lord himselfe fought against them: for he followed vpon the mightie men of them.

7 In the *time of Moses also he and Caleb the sonne of Jephune did a good worke, which stood against the enemies, withholde the people from sinne, and stilled the wicked murmuring. Num.15.6.

8 *And of fiue hundred thousande people of foote, they two were preserued to bring them into the heritage, namely, a lande that floweth with milke and hony. Num.26. 65.

6 The Lord *gaue strength also vnto Caleb, which remained with him vnto his age, so that he went vp into the high places of the land, and his seed conquered the same for an heritage: Iosu.14.11.

10 That all the children of Israell might see how good a thing it is to be obedient vnto the Lord.

11 And the iudges or rulers, euery one after his name, whose heart went not a whoring, nor departed from the Lorde, and that forlooke not the Lord vnfaithfully, whose remembrance hath a good report:

12 Yea, their bones florish out of their place, and their names shall neuer bee changed: but honor remaineth still with the children of those holy men.

13 Samuel the Prophet, *beloued of the Lord his God, ordeined a king, and anointed the princes ouer the people. 1.Sam. 10. 1.

14 In the law of the Lord ruled he, & iudged the congregation, and the Lorde had respect vnto Jacob.

15 The Prophet was founde diligent in his faithfulnes: yea, and he is knowen faithfull in his words, because he sawe the God of light.

16 *He called vpon the Lorde almightie, when the enemies preassed vpon him on 1.Sam.7.11

euery side, what time as hee offered the sucking lambe.

17 And the Lord thundered from heauen, and made his voice to be heard with a great noise.

18 He discomfited the princes of Tyre, and all the rulers of the Philistines.

1.Sam.12.7 19 *Before his last end, he made protestation in the sight of the Lorde & his anointed, that hee tooke neither substance nor good of any man, no not so much as a shoe: and no man might accuse him.

20 After this he tolde that his end was at hand, and shewed the king also his ende and death, and from the earth lift he vp his voyce in the prophecie, that the vngodly people should perish.

The xlvij. Chapter.

1 The prayse of Nathan, 2 Dauid, 12 And Solomon.

2.Re.12.2. AFterwarde in the time of king Dauid, there * rose vp a Prophet called Nathan.

2 For like as the fat is taken away from the offering: so was Dauid chosen out of the children of Israel.

3 He played with ỹ Lions as with kids, and with Beares, like as with lambes of sheepe.

1.Sam.17. 34. 4 *Slew hee not a Giant when hee was yet but yong, and tooke away the rebuke from his people, what time as hee tooke the stone in his hand, and smote downe proude Goliath with the sling?

5 For hee called vpon the highest Lord, which gaue him strength in his right hand, so that he ouerthrewe the mightie Giant in the battaile, that hee might set vp the horne of his people againe.

1.Re.18.7. 6 *So he glorified him in ten thousande, and made him to haue a good report in the praise of the Lorde, that he shoulde weare a crowne of glory.

2.Reg.5.7. 7 *For he destroyed the enemies on euery side, rooted out the Philistines his aduersaries, and brake their horne in sunder, like as it is broken yet this day.

8 In all his workes he praised the highest and holiest, and ascribed the honour vnto him: with his whole heart did he prayse the Lord, and loued God that made him.

1.Chr.16.4 9 He set *singers also before the altar, and in their time he made sweet songs, that they might giue prayses euery day to God with songs.

10 Hee ordeined to keepe the holy dayes worshipfully, and that the solemne feastes through the whole yeere should be honourably holden with playing the name of the Lord, and with singing betimes in the morning in the sanctuarie.

2.Sam.12. 13. 11 *The Lord tooke away his sinnes, and exalted his horne for euer: he gaue him the couenant of the kingdome, and the throne of worship in Israel.

12 After him there rose vp the wise sonne called Solomon, who by him dwelt in a large possession, and for his sake he droue the enemies away farre off.

13 This *Solomon raigned with peace in his time, and hee obteyned glory: for God gaue him rest from his enemies on euerie side, that hee might builde him an house in his name, and prepare the sanctuarie for euer. 3.Re.4.21.

14 How wise wast thou in thy youth, and filled with wisdome and vnderstanding, as it were with a water flood?

15 Thou coueredst and filledst the whole lande with similitudes, & wise prudent sentences.

16 Thy name went abrode in the Iles, because of thy peace, thou wast beloued.

17 All lands marueiled at thy songs, prouerbes, similitudes, and at thy interpretations.

18 *And in the name of the Lorde God, which is called the God of Israel, thou gatheredst golde as tinne, and thou haddest as much siluer, as lead. 1.Reg.10. 27.

19 *Thou wast mooued in inordinate loue toward women, and wast ouercome in affection. 1.Reg.11.1

20 Thou stainedst thy honor and worship, yea, thy posteritie defiledst thou also, in bringing the wrath of the Lorde vpon thy children, and hast felt sorow for thy folly.

21 So that thy kingdome was deuided, *and Ephraim became an vnfaithfull and a rebellious kingdome. 1.Reg.12. 17.

22 *Neuertheless, God forsooke not his mercie: neither was hee vtterly destroyed, because of his workes, that he should leaue him no posteritie: as for the seede that came vpon him, which hee loued, hee brought it not vtterly to nought, but gaue yet a remnant vnto Jacob, and a roote vnto Dauid out of him. 2.Sam.7. 15.

23 Thus rested Solomon with his fathers, & out of his seede he left behind him a very foolishnesse of the people, and such one as had no vnderstanding: euen *Roboam, which turned away the people through his counsaile, and Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat, *which caused Israel to sinne, and shewed Ephraim the way of vngodlinesse. 1.Reg.12. 10. 1.Reg.12. 28.

24 In so much that their sinnes and mis-deedes had the vpper hand so sore, that at the last they were driuen out of the lande for the same.

25 Yea, he sought out & brought vp al wickednes, till the venge-aunce came vpon them.

The xlviij. Chapter.

The praise of Elias, Eliseus, Ezechias, and Esaias.

THen stoode vp *Elias the Prophet as a fire, and his worde burnte like a creslet. 3.Reg.17.1

2 He brought an hunger vpon them, and in his zeale hee made them few in number: for they might not away away with the cõmandements of the Lord.

3.Reg.18. 38. 3 *Through the word of the Lord he shut the heauen, and three times brought hee the fire downe.

4 O Elias, howe honourable art thou in thy wonderous deedes? who may make his boast to be like thee?

3.Reg.17. 22. 5 *One that was dead thou raisedst vp from death, and in the worde of the highest thou broughtest him out of the graue againe.

6 Thou hast cast downe kings, & destroied them, and the honourable from their seate.

3.Reg.19. 15. 7 Vpon the mount *Sina thou heardest the iudgement, and vpon Horeb the iudgement of the vengeance:

3.Reg.19. 17. 8 *which diddest anoynt kings to recompence, and ordeynedst Prophets after thee.

4Reg.2.11 9 *Thou wast taken vp in the stormе of fire, in a charet of fierie horses.

10 Thou wast ordeined in the reprouings in time, to pacifie the wrath of the Lorde before it raged, to turne the heartes of the fathers vnto the children, and to set vp the tribes of Jacob againe.

11 Blessed were they that sawe thee, and were garnished in loue, for we liue in life: but after death we shall haue no such name.

4.Reg.2.11 12 *Elias was couered in the stormе, but Elizeus was filled with his spirite: while he liued, he was afraid of no prince, and no man might ouercome him.

4.Reg.13. 21. 13 *There could no word deceiue him, and after his death his body prophecied.

4.Reg.5.14 14 He did wonders in his *life, & in death were his workes marueilous.

15 For all this the people amended not, neither departed they from their sinnes, till they were caried away prisoners out of the 4.Reg.18. 12. land, *and were scattered abroad in al countries, so that of them there remained but a very little people, and a prince vnto the house of Dauid.

16 Howbeit, some of them did right, and some heaped vp vngodlinesse.

4.Reg.18.2 17 *Ezechias made his citie strong, conueyed water into it, digged thorow the stony roche with yron, and made vp a wall by the water side.

4.Reg.18. 13. 18 In his time came *Sennacherib vp, and sent Rabsakes, lift vp his hand against Sion, and defied them with great pride.

19 Then trembled their hearts & hands, so that they sorrowed like a woman trauayling with child.

20 So they called vpon the Lorde which is mercifull, and lift vp their handes before him, immediatly the Lord heard them out of heauen.

21 He thought no more vpon their sinnes, nor gaue them ouer to their enemies: but deliuered them by the hand of Esaias.

4.Reg.19. 22. 22 *He smote the hoste of the Assyrians, and his angel destroyed them.

23 For Ezechias had done the thing that pleased the Lorde, and remained stedfastly in the way of Dauid his father, as Esaias the great and faithfull Prophet in the sight of God had commanded him.

24 *In his time the Sunne went backeward, and he lengthened the kings life. 4.Reg.20. 10.

25 With a right spirit prophecied he what should come to passe at the last: and to such as were sorowfull in Sion hee gaue consolation, wherewith they might comfort themselues for euermore. Esai.38.1, 26 He shewed things that were for to come and secrete, or euer they came to passe.

The xlix. Chapter.

Of Iosias, Ezechias, Dauid, Ieremie, Ezechiel, Zorobabel, Iesus, Nehemias, Enoch, and Ioseph.

THE remembrance of *Iosias is like as when the Apothecarie maketh many precious sweete smelling things together: his remembrance shall be sweete as hony in all mouthes, and as the playing of musike at a banquet of wine. 4.Reg.22.1 2.chr.34.3.

2 He was appointed to turne the people againe, and to take away all abominations of the vngodly.

3 He directed his heart vnto ỹ Lord, and in the time of the vngodly he set vp the worship of God againe.

4 Al kings, except [a] Dauid, Ezechias, and Iosias, committed wickednesse: for euen the kings of Iuda also forsooke the lawe of God.

[a] Thes also were sinners, but either they were not idolaters, which here is chiefly ment: or els they did repent, so ỹ their sinnes were couered, for that they were enimies to idolatrie.

5 For they gaue their horne vnto other, their honour and worship also to a strange people.

6 Therfore was the elect citie of the sanctuarie burnt with fire, & the streetes therof laid desolate and waste in the [b] hand of Jeremie.

[b] That is, according to the prophecie of Jeremie: for ỹ hand or scripture is taken for any maner office and function.

7 For they entreated him euill, which nevertheless was a Prophet, ordeyned from his mothers wombe, that hee might roote out, breake off, & destroy: and that hee might build vp, and plant againe.

8 Ezechiel sawe the glory of the Lord in a vision, which was shewed him vpon the charet of the Cherubims.

9 For he thought vpon the enemies in the raine, to doe good vnto such as had ordered their wayes aright.

10 And the bones of the twelue Prophets florished from out of their place, for they gaue comfort and consolation vnto Jacob, and deliuered them faithfully.

11 *How shall we praise Zorobabel, which was a ring on the right hand.

12 So was *Jesus also the sonne of Josedec: these men in their times builded the house, and set vp the sanctuarie of the Lorde againe, which was prepared for euerlasting worship. Agge.2.24. 1.esdr.3.2. Zach.3.1.

13 And among the elect was *Nehemias, whose renowme was great, which set vp for vs the walls that were broken downe, made the portes and barres againe, and builded our houses anewe. Nehe.7.1.

14 But

14 But vpon the earth there is no man
Gene. 5. 24. created like * Enoch: for hee was taken vp from the earth.

15 Neither was there a like man vnto Joseph, which was lord of his brethren, and the vpholder of his people: ‡ his bones were couered and kept.

‡ For that he prophecied of the deliuerance of Israel from Egypt into Canaan, and also of the resurrection to be made by Christ.

16 Seth and Sem were in great honour among the people, and so was Adam aboue all the beastes when he was created.

The l. Chapter.

1 Of Simon the sonne of Onias. 22 An exhortation to praise the Lord.

1. Mac. 3. 4. SImon the sonne of * Onias the high priest, which in his life set vp the house againe, and in his dayes made fast the temple.

2 The height of the temple also was founded of him, the double building, and the high walles of the temple.

3 In his dayes the welles of water flowed out, and were exceeding full as the sea.

4 He tooke care for his people, and deliuered them from destruction: he kept his citie, and made it strong, that it shoulde not bee besieged.

5 Howe honourable was his conuersation among the people, and when he came out of the house couered with the vaile?

6 He gaue light as the morning starre in the middest of the cloudes, and as the moone when it is full:

7 Hee shined as the sunne in the temple of God, he is as bright as the rainebowe in the faire cloudes,

8 And flourisheth as the flowres and Roses in the spring of the yere, and as Lilies by the riuers of water, like as the branches vpon the mount Libanus in the time of sommer:

9 As a fire and incense that is kindled, like as an whole ornament of pure gold set with all maner of precious stones,

10 And as an Oliue tree that is fruitful, and as a Cypresse tree which groweth vp on high.

11 When hee put on the garment of honour, and was clothed with al beautie, when he went to the holy altar, hee made the garment of holinesse honourable.

12 When he tooke the portions out of the priests hand, he himselfe stoode by the hearth of the altar, and his brethren round about in order, as the branches of Cedar tree vpon the mount Libanus, so stoode they round about him:

13 And as the branches of the Oliue tree, so stoode all the sonnes of Aaron in their glorie, and the oblations of the Lorde in their hands, before all the congregation of Israel.

14 And that hee might sufficiently performe his seruice vpon the altar, and garnish the offring of the highest God, 15 He stretched out his hand, and tooke of the drinke offring, and powred in of the wine: he powred vpon the bottome of the altar a good smell vnto the highest prince.

16 Then beganne the sonnes of Aaron to sing, and to blowe with trumpets, and to make a great noyse, for a remembrance and praise vnto the Lord.

17 Then all the people together were hasted, and fell downe to the earth vpon their faces, to worship the Lord their God, and to giue thanks to the almightie God.

18 They sung goodly also with their voyces, so that there was a pleasant noyse in the great house of the Lord.

19 And the people in their praier besought the Lord the highest, that hee would be mercifull, till the honour of the Lord were performed, and they had ended their ministration and seruice.

20 Then went hee downe, and stretched out his handes ouer the whole multitude of the people of Israel, that they shoulde giue praise and thankes out of their lips vnto the Lord, and to reioyce in his name.

21 He began yet once also to pray, that he might openly shewe the thanksgiuing before the highest,

22 Namely thus, O giue praise and thankes all ye vnto the Lord our God, which hath euer done noble and great thinges, which hath increased our dayes from our mothers wombe, and dealt with vs according to his mercie:

23 That he will giue vs the ioyfulnesse of heart, and peace for our time in Israel:

24 which faithfully keepeth his mercie for vs euermore, and alway deliuereth vs in due season.

25 There be two maner of people that I abhorre frō my heart, as for the third whom I hate, it is no people:

26 They that sit vpon the mountaine of Samaria, the Philistines, and the foolish people that dwell in Sichimis.

27 I Jesus, the sonne of Sirach, Eleazarus of Hierusalem, haue tokened vp these informations and documents of wisedome and vnderstanding in this booke, and powred out the wisedome of my heart.

28 Blessed is hee that exerciseth himselfe therein: and who so taketh such to heart, shal be wise for euer.

29 If he doe these things, he shalbe strong in all: for the light of the Lord leadeth him, which giueth wisdome to the godly: the Lord be praysed for euermore, so be it, so be it.

The lj. Chapter.

The prayer of Iesus the sonne of Sirach.

I Will thanke thee, O Lorde and king, and praise thee, O God my Sauiour: I wil yeeld praise vnto thy name.

2 For thou art my defender and helper, and hast preserued my body from destruction, from the snares of trayterous tongues, and from the lips that are occupied with lyes.

3 Thou haſt bene my helper from ſuch as ſtoode vp againſt mee, and haſt deliuered mee after the multitude of thy mercie, and for thy holy names ſake, from the roaring of them that prepared themſelues to deuoure mee, out of the handes of ſuch as ſought after my life, from the multitude of them that trouble me,

4 And from them that went about to ſet fire vpon me on euery ſide, ſo that I am not burnt in the middeſt of the fire:

5 From the deepe of hel, from an vncleane tongue, from lying wordes, from falſe accuſation to the king, and from an vnrighteous tongue.

6 My ſoule ſhall prayſe the Lorde vnto death: for my life drew nigh vnto hell downeward.

7 They compaſſed mee rounde about on euery ſide, and there was no man to helpe me: I looked about mee if there were any man that would ſuccour me: but there was none.

8 Then thought I vpon thy mercie, O Lord, and vpon thy actes that thou haſt done euer of olde: namely, that thou deliuereſt ſuch as put their truſt in thee, and riddeſt them out of the hands of the heathen.

9 Thus lift I vp my prayer from the earth, and prayed for deliuerance from death.

a Wiſedome is obteined by one of theſe three meanes: firſt, by prayer, as Solomon did and Jacob: ſecondly, by diligent reading of Gods booke, wherein wiſedome is contained, pſal. 19. Sapi. 6. Thirdly, by godly conuerſation and continuing in the feare of God, Pro. 2. Joh. 7. If any man will doe my will, he ſhall knowe my doctrine.

10 I called vpon the Lorde the father of my Lord, that hee would not leaue me without helpe in the day of my trouble, and in the time of the proud.

11 I will prayſe thy name continually, yeelding honour and thankes vnto it: and ſo my prayer was heard.

12 Thou ſauedſt mee from deſtruction, and deliueredſt mee from the vnrighteous time: therfore will I acknowledge and prayſe thee, and magnifie the name of the Lord.

13 When I was yet but yong, or euer I went aſtray, I deſired a wiſedome openly in my prayer.

14 I came therefore before the temple, and ſought her vnto the laſt: then flouriſhed ſhe vnto me, as a grape that is ſoone ripe.

15 My heart reioyced in her, then went my foote the right way: yea, from my youth vp ſought I after her.

16 I bowed downe mine eare, and receiued her: I founde me much wiſedome, and proſpered greatly in her.

17 Therefore will I aſcribe the glorie vnto him that giueth me wiſedome.

18 For I am aduiſed to doe thereafter, I will be ielous to cleaue vnto the thing that is good, ſo ſhall I not be confounded.

19 My ſoule hath wreſtled with her, and I haue bene diligent to be occupied in her: I lift vp my hands on high, then was my ſoule lightened through wiſedome, and I knowledged my fooliſhneſſe.

20 I ordered my ſoule after her, ſhe and I were one heart from the beginning, and I found her in cleanneſſe, and therefore ſhall I not be forſaken.

21 My heart longed after her, and I gate a good treaſure.

22 Through her the Lord hath giuen me a new tongue, wherewith I will praiſe him.

23 *O come vnto mee ye vnlearned, and dwell in the houſe of wiſedome. Eſai.

24 Withdraw we not your ſelues from her, but talke and commune of theſe things: for your ſoules are very thirſtie.

25 I opened my mouth, and ſpake, O come and buy wiſedome without money.

26 Bowe downe your necke vnder her yoke, and your ſoule ſhall receiue wiſedome: ſhe is hard at hand, & is content to be found.

27 *Beholde with your eyes, howe that I haue had but little labour, and yet haue found much reſt. Eccl.

28 O receiue wiſedome, and ye ſhall haue plenteouſneſſe of ſiluer and gold in poſſeſſion.

29 Let your minde reioyce in his mercie, and be not aſhamed of his praiſe.

30 Worke his worke betimes, and he ſhal giue you your reward in due ſeaſon.

The ende of the booke of Ieſus the ſonne of Sirach, which is called in Latine Eccleſiaſticus.

The booke of the Prophet Baruch.

The firſt Chapter.

1 Baruch wrote a booke during the captiuitie of Babylon, which hee read before Iechonias and all the people. 10 The Iewes ſent the booke with money vnto Hieruſalem to their other brethren, to the intent that they ſhould pray for them.

a Barnch was ſecretarie to Jeremie the Prophet, of whom in Jeremie is often made mention.

AND theſe are the wordes of the booke, which were a written by Baruch the ſonne of Nerias, the ſonne of Maaſias, the ſonne of Sedechias, the ſonne of Helchias, at Babylon,

2 In the fifth yere, and in the ſeuenth day of the moneth, what time as the Chaldees tooke Hieruſalem, and burnt it vp with fire.

3 And Baruch did reade the wordes of this booke, that Iechonias the ſonne of Joachim king of Juda might heare, and in the preſence of all the people that were come to heare the booke,

4 And before all the nobles, the kings ſonnes, and before the elders, and before the whole people, from the loweſt vnto the higheſt, before all them that dwelt at Babylon, by

by the water of ‖ Sodi:

5 Which when they heard it, wept, fasted, and prayed before the Lord.

6 They made a collection also of money, according to euery mans power:

7 And sent it to Hierusalem vnto Joachim the sonne of Helchia, the sonne of Salom priest, with the other priestes, and to all the people which were with him at Hierusalem,

8 (what time as they had gotten the ‖ vessels of the temple of the Lord that were taken away out of the temple, that they might bring them againe into the land of Juda the tenth day of the moneth [b] Siuan, namely siluer vessels, which Sedechias the sonne of Josias king of Juda had made,)

9 After that Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon had taken Jechonias, with all his princes, lordes, and all the people, and ledde them captiue from Hierusalem vnto Babylon:

10 And they sayde, Beholde, we haue sent you money to buy you burnt offerings and incense withall, prepare a meate offring, and offer for sinne vpon the altar of the Lord our God,

11 And [c] pray for the prosperitie of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon, and for the welfare of Balthasar his sonne, that their dayes may be vpon earth as the dayes of heauen:

12 That God also may giue vs strength, and lighten our eyes, that wee may liue vnder the defence of Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon, and vnder the protectiō of Balthasar his sonne, that wee may long doe them seruice, and finde fauour in their sight.

13 Pray for vs also vnto the Lorde our God: for wee haue sinned against the Lord our God, and vnto this day is not his wrath turned yet away from vs.

14 And see that ye read this booke, which we haue sent vnto you, to be rehearsed in the temple of the Lord vpon the high dayes, and at times conuenient.

15 Thus shall ye say, [*] The Lord our God is righteous, but we are worthy of confusion and shame, like as it is come to passe this day vnto all Juda, and to euery one that dwelleth at Hierusalem, 16 To our kings, princes, priestes, prophets, and to our fathers.

17 [*] Wee haue sinned before the Lord our God, wee haue not put our trust in him, nor giuen him credence.

18 We haue not obeyed him, we haue not hearkened vnto the voyce of the Lorde our God, to walke in the commandements that he gaue vs openly.

19 Since the day that hee brought our forefathers out of the land of Egypt, vnto this present day, wee haue bene euer a misbeleeuing and an vnfaithfull people vnto the Lord our God, destroying our selues vtterly, and shrinking backe, that wee shoulde not heare his voyce.

20 Wherefore, there are come vpon vs great plagues, and diuers curses, like as the Lorde [*] deuised by Moses his seruant, which brought our fathers out of the land of Egypt, to giue vs a lande that floweth with milke and hony, like as it is to see this day. Deu.28.15.

21 Neuertheless, wee haue not hearkened vnto the voyce of the Lorde our God, according to all the wordes of the Prophets, whom he sent vnto vs and to our rulers.

22 But euery man followed his owne minde and wicked imagination, to offer vnto strange gods, and to doe euill in the sight of the Lord our God.

The ij. Chapter.

1 The Iewes confesse that they iustly suffer for their sinnes. 12 The Lord will that we obey vnto princes, although they be euill.

FOr the which cause the Lorde our God hath performed his deuice, whereof he certified vs, and our heads that ruled in Hierusalem, yea, and our kings, our princes, with all Israel and Juda:

2 And such plagues hath the Lord brought vpon vs, as neuer came to passe vnder the heauen, like as it is fulfilled in Hierusalem, [*] according as it is written in the lawe of Moses, Deu.28.53

3 That a man should eate the flesh of his owne sonne, and the flesh of his owne daughter.

4 Moreouer, he hath deliuered them vnto the handes of all the kings that are round about vs, to be confounded and desolate, and scattered them abroad in all lands & nations.

5 Thus are we brought beneath, and not aboue, because wee haue sinned against the Lorde our God, and haue not bene obedient vnto his voyce.

6 Therefore [*] the Lorde our God is righteous, and wee with our fathers as reason is are brought to open shame, as it is to see this day. Baruc.1.15

7 And as for these plagues that are come vpon vs already, the Lord hath deuised them for vs.

8 Yet would we not pray vnto the Lorde our God, that wee might euery man turne from his vngodly wayes.

9 So the Lorde hath caused such plagues to come vpon vs: for hee is righteous in all his workes which he hath commanded vs.

10 Which wee also haue not done, nor hearkened vnto his voyce, for to walke in the commandements of the Lord, that hee hath giuen vnto vs.

11 And [*] nowe, O Lorde God of Israel, that hast brought thy people out of the land of Egypt with a mightie hand, with tokens and wonders, with thy great power and outstretched arme, and hast gotten thy selfe a name, as it is come to passe this day, Dan.9.15.

12 O Lord our God, wee haue sinned, we haue done wickedly, wee haue behaued our selues vngodly in all thy righteousnesse,

13 Turne thy wrath from vs we beseech thee, for we are but a few left among the heathen where thou hast scattered vs.

14 Heare our prayers, O Lord, and our petitions, bring vs out of captiuitie for thine owne sake, get vs fauour in the sight of them which haue led vs away:

15 That all landes may knowe that thou art the Lord our God, and that Israel and his generation calleth vpon thy name.

Deu.26.15 16 O Lord, * looke downe from thy holy esai.63.15. house vpon vs, encline thine eare, & heare vs.
Psa.113.17 17 * Open thine eyes and behold, for the dead that bee gone downe to their graues, and whose soules are out of their bodies, ascribe vnto the Lord neither praise nor righteousnesse.

18 But the soule that is vexed for the multitude of her sinnes, which goeth on heauily and weakely, whose eyes begin to faile, yea, such a soule ascribeth praise and righteousnesse vnto the Lord.

19 For wee powre out our prayers before thee, and require mercy in thy sight, O Lord our God, not for any godlines of our fathers:

20 But because thou hast sent out thy wrath and indignation vpon vs, according as thou diddest threaten vs by thy seruants the Prophets, saying,

21 Thus saith the Lorde, Bowe downe your shoulders & serue the king of Babylon: so shall ye remaine still in the land that I gaue vnto your fathers.

Iere.27.17. 22 * But if yee will not heare the voyce of the Lorde your God to serue the king of Babylon, 23 I will destroy you in the cities of Iuda, within Hierusalem and without: I will also take from you the voice of mirth, and the voyce of ioy, the voyce of the bridegrome, and the voyce of the bride, and there shall no man dwell more in the land.

24 But they would not hearken vnto thy voyce, to do the king of Babylon seruice: and therefore hast thou performed the wordes that thou spakest by thy seruantes the Prophets: namely, that the bones of our kings, and the bones of our fathers should be translated out of their places:

25 And loe, now are they laid out in the heate of the sunne, and in the cold of ye night, and dead in great misery, with hunger, with sworde, with pestilence, and are cleane cast forth.

26 As for the temple wherein thy name was called vpon: thou hast laide it waste, as it is to see this day, & that for the wickednesse of the house of Israel, and the house of Iuda.

27 O Lorde our God, thou hast intreated vs after all thy goodnes, and according to all that great louing mercy of thine.

Leui.28.14 28 * Like as thou spakest by thy seruant deu.28.15. Moses, in the day when thou diddest commaund him to write thy law before the children of Israel, saying, 29 If ye will not hearken vnto my voyce, then shall this great multitude be turned into a very small people among the nations, for I will scatter them abroade.

30 Notwithstanding, I am sure that this folke will not heare me, for it is an hard necked people: but in the land of their captiuitie they shall remember themselues, 31 And learne to knowe that I am the Lord their God, when I giue them an heart to vnderstand, and eares to heare.

32 Then shal they praise me in the land of their captiuitie, and thinke vpon my name.

33 Then shal they turne them from their hard backes, and from their vngodlinesse: then shall they remember the thinges that happened vnto their fathers which sinned against me.

34 So will I bring them againe vnto the land which I promised with an othe vnto their fathers Abraham, Isaac, and Iacob, and they shalbe lords of it, yea, I will encrease them, and not minish them.

35 And I will make an other couenant with them, such one as shall endure for euer: namely, that I will be their God, and they shalbe my people: and I will no more driue my people the children of Israel out of the land that I haue giuen them.

The iij. Chapter.

36 Onely God was the finder of wisedome, 37 Of the incarnation of Christ.

AND nowe, O Lorde almighty, thou God of Israel, the soule that is in trouble, & the spirit that is vexed, cryeth vnto thee:

2 Heare vs, O Lorde, and haue pitie vpon vs, for thou art a mercifull God: be gracious vnto vs, for we haue sinned before thee.

3 Thou endurest for euer: should we then vtterly perish?

4 O Lord almighty, thou God of Israel, heare now the prayer of the dead Israelites, and of their children which haue sinned before thee, and not hearkened vnto the voyce of the Lorde their God, for the which cause these plagues hang now vpon vs.

5 O Lord, remember not the wickednesse of our forefathers, but thinke vpon thy power and name now at this time:

6 For thou art the Lorde our God, and thee, O Lord, will we praise.

7 For thou hast put thy feare in our hearts, to the intent that we should call vpon thy name, and praise thee in our captiuitie, & that we might turne from the wickednes of our forefathers that sinned before thee.

8 Behold, we are yet this day in our captiuitie, whereas thou hast scattered vs, to be an abomination, curse, and subiect to exactions: like as it hath happened vnto our fathers also, because of all their wickednesse and departing from thee, O Lord our God.

9 O Israel, heare the commaundements of life, ponder them well with thine eares, that thou mayest learne wisedome.

10 But

10 But how happeneth it, Israel, that thou art in thine enemies lande? thou art waren old in a strange countrey, and defiled with the dead.

11 Why art thou become like them that goe downe to their graues?

12 Euen because thou hast forsaken the well of wisedome.

13 For if thou hadst walked in the way of God truly, thou shouldest haue remained still safe in thine owne land.

14 O learne then where is wisedome, where ‖ vertue is, where vnderstanding is: that thou mayest know also frō whence commeth long continuance and life, the light of the eies, and quietnesse.

15 Who euer found out her place? or who came euer into her treasures?

16 Where are the princes of the heathen become, and such as ruled the beastes vpon the earth,

17 They that had their pastime with the foules of the aire, they that hoorded vp siluer and golde wherein men trust so much, and made no end of their gathering?

18 What is become of them that coyned siluer, & were so carefull, and could not bring their workes to passe?

19 They bee rooted out, and gone downe to hell, and other men are come vp in their steades.

20 Yong men haue seene light, and dwelt vpon earth: but the way of reformation haue they not knowen, 21 Nor vnderstand the pathes thereof: neither haue their children receiued it, yea, right farre is it from them.

22 It hath not bene heard of in the land of Chanaan, neither hath it bene seene at Theman.

23 The Agarenes sought after wisedome, but that which is earthly, like as the marchants of the land doe: they of Theman are cunning also, they labour for wisedome and vnderstanding: but the way of true wisdom they know not, neither doe they thinke vpon the pathes thereof.

24 O Israel, how great is the house of God: and how large is the place of his possession?

25 Great is he, and hath none ende: yea, high and vnmeasurable.

26 What is become of those famous giants, that were so great of bodies, & so worthy men of warre?

27 Those hath not the Lord chosen, neither haue they found the way of reformatiō:

28 Therefore were they destroyed, and for so much as they had no wisedome, they perished because of their foolishnesse.

29 Who hath gone vp into heauen to take wisedome there, and brought her downe frō the cloudes?

30 Who hath gone ouer the sea to find her, and hath chosen her aboue gold, & so brought her hither?

31 No man knoweth the wayes of wisedome, neither is there any that can seeke out her pathes.

32 But he that woteth all things, knoweth her, & hath found her out with his foreknowledge, the same is hee which prepared the earth at the beginning, and filled it with all maner of foules and beasts.

33 When hee sendeth out the light, it goeth: and when he calleth it againe, it obeieth him with feare.

34 The starres keepe their watch, & giue their light, yea, and that gladly: when hee calleth them, they say, Here we bee: and so with cherefulnesse they shew light vnto him that made them.

35 This is our God, and there shall none other be compared vnto him.

36 It is he that hath found out all wisedome, and hath giuen her vnto Jacob his seruant, and to Israel his beloued.

37 Afterward did he shew himselfe vpon earth, and dwelt among men.

The iiii. Chapter.

1 The rewarde of them that keepe the lawe, and the punishment of them that despise it.

THis is the booke of the commaundements of God, and the law that endureth for euer: all they that keepe it shall come to life, but such as forsake it shall come to death.

2 Turne thee, O Jacob, and take hold of it, walke by this way through his brightnes and shine.

3 Giue not thine honour to another, and thy worship to a strange people.

4 O Israel, how happie are wee, seeing that God hath shewed vs such things as are pleasant vnto him?

5 Be of good cheere, thou people of God, O thou ancient Israel.

6 Nowe are yee sold among the heathen, howbeit, not for your vtter destruction: but because ye prouoked God the Lord to wrath and displeasure, therefore were yee deliuered vnto your enemies.

7 For yee displeased the euerlasting God that made you, offring vnto deuils, and not to God.

8 Ye haue forgotten him that brought you vp, and yee haue grieued Hierusalem that nursed you.

9 When shee saw that the wrath of God was comming vpon you, she said, Hearken, O ye that dwell about Sion, for God hath brought me into great heauinesse.

10 And why? I see the captiuitie of my people, of my sonnes and daughters, which the euerlasting God will bring vpon them.

11 With ioy did I nourish them: but now must I leaue them with weeping & sorow.

12 Let no man reioyce ouer mee widowe and forsaken, which for the sinnes of my children am desolate of euery man: for why?

they departed from the law of God.

13 They would not know his righteousnesse, nor walke in the waies of his commandements: and as for the pathes of trueth and godlinesse, they had no lust to goe in them.

14 O ye dwellers about Sion, come and let vs call to remembrance the captiuitie that the euerlasting God hath brought vpon my sonnes and daughters.

15 He hath brought a people vpon them from farre, an vncourteous people, and of a strange language, which neither regard the old, nor pitie the young.

16 These haue caried away the deare beloued of the widowes, leauing me alone both desolate and childlesse.

17 But alas, what can I helpe you?

18 Nowe hee that brought these plagues vpon you, deliuer you also from the hands of your enemies.

19 Goe your way, O my children, go your way: for I am desolate and forsaken.

20 I haue put off the clothing of peace, and put vpon me the sackcloth of prayer, and for my time I will call vpon the most highest.

21 Be of good cheere, O my children, cry vnto the Lord, and he shall deliuer you from the power of the princes your enemies.

22 For verily I haue euer a good hope of your prosperous health, yea, a very gladnesse is come vpon me from the holy one, because of the mercy that yee shall haue of our euerlasting sauiour.

23 With mourning and weeping did I let you goe from mee: but with ioy and perpetuall gladnesse shall the Lord bring you againe vnto me.

24 Like as the neighbours of Sion sawe your captiuitie from God: euen so shall they also see shortly your health in God, which shal come on you with great honour and euerlasting worship.

25 O my children, suffer patiently the wrath that shall come vpon you: for the enemie hath persecute thee, but shortly thou shalt see his destruction, and shalt tread vpon his necke.

26 My darlings haue gone rough hard wayes, for they are led away as a flocke that is scattered abroad with the enemies.

27 But be of good comfort, O my childre, and cry vnto the Lorde: for he that led you away, hath you yet in remembrance.

28 And like as yee haue beneminded to swarue from your God: so shall you nowe indeuour your selues ten times more to turne againe, and to seeke him.

29 For he that brought these plagues vpō you, shall bring you euerlasting ioy againe with your health.

30 Take a good heart vnto thee, O Hierusalem: for he which gaue thee that name, exhorteth thee so to doe.

31 The wicked doers that now put thee to trouble, shall perish: and such as haue reioyced at thy fall, shall be punished.

32 The cities whome thy children serue, and that haue caried away thy sonnes, shalbe corrected.

33 For like as they be nowe glad of thy decay, & reioyce at thy fall: so shall they mourne in their owne destruction.

34 The ioy of their multitude shall bee taken away, and their cheare shall be turned to sorow.

35 For a fire shall fall vpon them from the euerlasting God, long to endure, and it shalbe inhabited of deuils for a great season.

36 O Hierusalem, looke about thee toward the East, and behold the * ioy that commeth vnto thee from God. Baruc.5.6

37 For loe, thy sonnes whom thou hast forsaken, & that were scattered abroad, come gathered together from the East and west, reioycing in the word of the holy one, vnto the honour of God.

The v. Chapter.

1 Hierusalem is mooued vnto gladnesse for the returne of her people, and vnder the figure thereof, the church.

PVt off thy mourning clothes, O Hierusalem, and thy sorow, and deck thee with the worship and honour that commeth vnto thee from God with euerlasting glory.

2 God shall put the garment of righteousnesse vpon thee, & set a crowne of euerlasting worship vpon thy head:

3 For vpon thee will GOD declare his brightnesse, that is vnder the heauen.

4 Yea, an euerlasting name shall be giuen thee of God, with peace of righteousnes, and the honour of Gods feare.

5 Arise, O Hierusalem, stand vp on high, looke about thee toward the East, and behold thy children gathered from the East vnto the west, which reioyce in the holy word, hauing God in remembrance.

6 They departed from thee on foote, and were led away of their enemies: but now * shall the Lorde bring them caried with honour, as children of the kingdom. Baruc.4.36

7 For God is purposed to bring downe all stonie mountaines, yea, and all high rockes, to fill the valleys, and so to make them euen with the ground, that Israel may be diligent to liue vnto the honour of God.

8 The woods and all pleasant trees shall ouershadow Israel at the commandement of God.

9 For thither shall God bring Israel with ioyfull mirth, and in the light of his maiestie, with the mercy and righteousnesse that commeth of himselfe.

The vi. Chapter.

A copie of the epistle that Ieremie sent vnto the Iewes, which were led away prisoners by the king of Babylon: wherein hee certifieth them of the thing that was commanded him of God.

Because

In this chapter are the makers and maintainers of images mightily confuted. 1 Or is, for many places.

BEcause of the sinnes that yee haue done against God, ye shal be led away captiue vnto Babylon, euen of Nabuchodonosor the king of Babylon.

2 So when ye be come into Babylon, ye shal remaine there many yeeres, and for a long season, namely, 2 seuen generations: and after that will I bring you away peaceably from thence.

Esai.44.10. 3 *Nowe shall ye see in Babylon gods of gold, of siluer, of wood, and of stone, borne vpon mens shoulders, to cast out a fearefulnesse before the heathen.

4 But looke that yee doe not as the other: be not ye afraid, and let not the feare of them ouercome you.

5 Therefore when ye see the multitude of people worshipping them behind and before, say ye in your hearts, O Lord, it is thou that oughtest onely to be worshipped.

6 Mine angell also shall be with you, and I my selfe will care for your soules.

Or, rogue 7 As for the ‖ timber of those gods, the carpenter hath polished them: yea, guited bee they, and laied ouer with siluer, yet are they but vaine things, and cannot speake.

8 Like as a wench that loueth paramours is trimly deckt: euen so are these made, and hanged with gold.

9 Crownes of gold verily haue their gods vpon their heads: so the priests themselues take gold and siluer from them, and put it to their owne vses:

10 Yea, they giue of the same vnto harlots, and trimme their whores withall: againe they take it from the whores, and decke their gods therewith:

11 Yet cannot these gods deliuer themselues from rust and mothes.

12 When they haue couered them with clothing of purple, they wipe their faces for the dust of the temple, whereof there is much among them.

13 One hath a scepter in his hande as though he were iudge of the country, yet can he not slay such as offend him.

14 Another hath a sword or an axe in his hand: for all that he is neither able to defend himselfe from battell, nor from murderers.

15 By this yee may vnderstand that they be no gods: therefore see that ye neither worship them, nor feare them.

16 For like as a vessell that a man vseth, is nothing worth when it is broken, euen so is it with their gods: when they be set vp in the temple, their eyes be full of dust through the feete of those that come in.

17 And like as the doores are shut in round about vpon him that hath offended the king, or as it were a dead body kept beside a graue: euen so the priests keepe the doores with bars and lockes, least their gods bee spoyled with robbers.

18 They set vp candles before them, yea verily and that many, whereof they cannot see one: but euen as blockes so stand they in the temple.

19 It is said, that the serpents & wormes which come of the earth, gnawe out their hearts, eating them and their clothes also, and yet they feele it not.

20 Their faces are blacke, through the smoke that is in the temple.

21 The owles, swallowes, and birdes flie vpon them, yea, and the cats run ouer their heads.

22 By this ye may be sure that they are no gods, therefore feare them not.

23 The golde that they haue, is to make them beautifull: for all that, except some bodie dight off their rust, they wil giue no shine, and when they were cast into a forme, they felt it not.

24 *They are bought for mony, and haue Esai.46.
no breath of life within them.

25 They must be borne vpon mens shoulders as those that haue no feete, whereby they declare vnto men that they bee nothing worth: confounded be they then that worship them.

26 For if they fall to the ground, they can not rise vp again of themselues: Yea, though one helpe them vp, and set them right, yet are they not able to stand alone, but must haue props set vnder them like dead men.

27 As for the thing that is offered vnto them, their priests sell it, and abuse it, yea, the priests wiues take thereof: but vnto the sicke and poore they giue nothing of it.

28 The woman with child, and the menstruous lay hands of their offerings: By this ye may be sure that they are no gods, therefore be not ye afraid of them.

29 From whence commeth it then that they be called Gods? because women ‖ set before the gods of siluer, gold, and wood, ‖ Or, bring gifts.

30 And the priests sit in their temples hauing ‖ open clothes, whose heads and beards are shauen, and haue nothing vpon their heads, ‖ Or, rent.

31 Roaring and crying vpon their gods, as men do at the feast when one is dead.

32 The priests also take away ye garments of the images, & decke their wiues and children withall.

33 Whether it bee good or euill that any man do vnto them, they are not able to recompence it: they can neither set vp a king, nor put him downe.

34 In like maner, they may neither giue riches, nor reward euill: though a man make a vow vnto them, and keepe it not, they will not require it.

35 They can saue no man from death, neither deliuer the weake from the mightie.

36 They cannot restore a blinde man to his sight, nor helpe any man at his need.

37 They can shew no mercy to ye widow, nor do good to the fatherlesse.

38 Their gods of wood, stone, gold, and siluer, are but euen as other stones that bee hewen of the mountaine: they that worship them, shalbe confounded.

39 How should they thē be taken for gods? yea, how dare men call them gods?

‖Or, reade, The Chaldees also dishonour them, the which, if they shall see a dumbe one that cannot speake, do present it to Bel, and do require that it may speake.

40 ‖And though the Chaldees worshipped them not, hearing that they were but dumb, and could not speake:

41 Yet they themselues offer vnto Bel, and would faine haue him to speake: as who say they could feele that may not moue.

42 But when these men come to vnderstanding, they shall forsake them, for their gods haue no feeling.

43 A great sort of women girt with cords, sit in the streetes, and burne ‖ olive berries: Now if one of them be conueied away, and lie with such as come by, shee casteth her neighbours in the teeth, because she was not worthily reputed, nor her cord broken.

‖Or, strawe.

44 Whatsoeuer is done for them, it is but in vaine & lost: How may it then be thought or said that they are gods?

45 Carpenters & goldsmiths make them: neither be they any other thing but euen what the workeman will make of them.

46 Yea, the goldsmiths themselues that make them, are of no long continuance: how should then the things that are made of them be gods?

47 Vaine therefore are the things, yea, very shame is it that they leaue behind them for their posteritie.

48 For as soone as there commeth any warre or plague vpon them, then the priests imagine where they may hide themselues with them.

49 How can men then thinke that they be gods, which neither may defend themselues from warre, nor deliuer them from misfortune?

50 For seeing they be but of wood, of stone, of siluer, and of gold, all people and kings shal knowe hereafter, that they be but vaine things: yea, it shall be openly declared that they be no gods, but euen the very workes of mens hands, and that God hath nothing to doe with them.

51 It is manifest then, that they are no gods, but the workes of mens hands, and no worke of God in them.

52 They can set no king in the land, nor giue raine vnto men.

53 They can giue no sentence of a matter, neither defend the land from wrong: for they are not able to do so much as a crowe that flieth betwixt heauen and earth.

54 When there happeneth a fire into the house of those gods of wood, and siluer, and of gold, the priests wil escape & saue themselues, but the gods burne as the balks therein.

55 They cannot withstand any king or battell: how may it then be thought or granted that they be gods?

56 Moreouer, these gods of wood, of stone, of golde and siluer, may neither defend themselues from theeues nor robbers.

57 Yea, the very wicked are stronger then they: these strippe them out of their apparell that they be clothed withall, these take their gold and siluer from them, and so get them away, yet can they not helpe themselues.

58 Therefore it is much better for a man to be a king, and so to shew his power, or els a profitable vessel in a house, wherein he that oweth it might haue pleasure, yea, or to be a doore in a house, to keepe such things safe as be therein, then to be such a vaine god.

59 The sunne, the moone, & all the starres, seeing they giue their shine and light, are obedient, and doe men good.

60 When the lightening glistereth, all is cleare.

61 The wind bloweth in euery countrey: and when God commandeth the cloudes to goe round about the whole worlde, they doe as they are bidden.

62 When the fire is sent downe from aboue and commanded, it burneth vp hils and woods: but as for these gods, they are not like one of these things, neither in beautie, neither in strength.

63 Wherefore men should not thinke nor say that they bee gods, seeing they can neither giue sentence in iudgement, nor do men good.

64 For so much now as yee are sure that they be not gods, then feare them not.

65 For they can neither speake euill nor good of kings.

66 They can shew no tokens in heauens for the heathen, neither shine as the sunne, nor giue light as the moone:

67 Yea, the vnreasonable beasts are better then they: for they can get them vnder the roofe, and doe themselues good.

68 So can yee be certified by no manner of meanes that they be gods, therefore feare them not.

69 For like as a scarcrowe in a garden of herbes keepeth nothing: euen so are their gods of wood, of siluer, and gold.

70 And like as a white thorne in an orchard that euery bird sitteth vpon, yea, like as a dead body that is cast in the darke: euen so is it with these gods of wood, siluer, and golde.

71 By the purple and scarlet which they haue vpon them, and soone fadeth away, yee may vnderstand that they bee no gods: yea, they themselues shal be consumed at the last, which shalbe a great confusion of the land.

‖Or, better.

72 ‖Blessed is the godly man that hath no images and worshippeth none: for he shall be farre from reproofe.

The end of the booke of the Prophet Baruch.

The

The song of the three children, which were put into the hot burning ouen. The common translation readeth this song in the third Chapter of Daniel.

25 The prayer of Azarias. 46 The cruelty of the king. 48 The fire deuoureth the Chaldeans. 49 The Angel of the Lord was in the furnace.

AND they walked in the middest of the flame, praysing God, and magnifying the Lord.

25 Then Azarias stood vp, and prayed in this maner, euen in the middest of the fire opened he his mouth, and sayd, 26 Blessed be thou, O Lorde God of our fathers, right worthie to bee prayed and honoured is that name of thine for euermore.

27 For thou art righteous in al the things that thou hast done to vs, yea, faithfull are all thy workes, thy wayes are right, and all thy iudgements are true.

28 In al the things that thou hast brought vpon vs, & vpon the holy citie of our fathers, euen Hierusalem, thou hast executed true iudgement: yea, according to right and equitie hast thou brought all these things vpon vs, because of our sinnes:

29 For why? we haue offended and done wickedly, departing from thee.

30 In all things haue we trespassed, and not obeyed thy commaundements, nor kept them neither done as thou hast bidden vs, that we may prosper.

31 Wherefore all that thou hast brought vpon vs, and euery thing that thou hast done to vs, thou hast done them in true iudgement:

32 As in deliuering vs into the hands of our enemies, among vngodly and wicked abominations, and to an vnrighteous king, yea, the most froward vpon earth.

33 And now we may not opē our mouths, we are become a shame and reproch vnto thy seruants, and to them that worship thee.

34 Yet for thy names sake we beseech thee giue vs not vp for euer, breake not thy couenant,

35 And take not away thy mercy from vs for thy beloued Abrahams sake, for thy seruant Isahacs sake, and for thy holy Israels sake:

36 To whome thou hast spoken and promised, that thou wouldest multiplie their seede as the starres of heauen, & as the sande that lieth vpon the sea shore.

37 For we, O Lord, are become lesse then any people, and be kept vnder this day in all the world, because of our sinnes.

38 So that now we haue neither prince, ruler, prophet, burnt offering, sacrifice, oblation, incense, nor sanctuarie before thee.

39 Neuertheless, in a contrite heart and an humble spirit let vs be receiued, that wee may obteine thy mercie.

40 Like as in the burnt offering of rams and bullockes, and like as in thousandes of fatte lambes: so let our offering bee in thy sight this day, that it may please thee: for there is no confusion vnto them that put their trust in thee.

41 And now we follow thee with al our heart, we feare thee, and seeke thy face.

42 Put vs not to shame: but deale with vs after thy louing kindenesse, and according to the multitude of thy mercies.

43 Deliuer vs by thy miracles, O Lord, and get thy name an honour, that all they which doe thy seruants euill, may bee confounded:

44 Let them be ashamed through thy almightie power, and let their strength bee broken:

45 That they may know how that thou onely art the Lord God, and honour worthy throughout all the world.

46 And the kings seruants that put them in, ceased not to make the ouen hotte with wilde fire, pitche, towe, and faggots.

a Which is called Naphtha, which is a certaine kinde of fatte and chalkie clay.

47 So that the flame went out of the ouen vpon a fourtie and nine cubites.

48 Yea it tooke away and burnt vp those Chaldees that it gate holde vpon beside the ouen.

49 But the angel of the Lord came downe into the ouen of Azaria and his fellowes, and smote the flame of the fire out of the ouen, 50 And made the middes of the ouen as it had bene a colde winde blowing: so the fire neither touched them, grieued them, nor did them hurt.

51 Then these three, as out of one mouth, praised, honoured, and blessed God in the fornace, saying, 52 Blessed bee thou, O Lorde God of our fathers: for thou art praise and honour worthie, yea, and to bee magnified for euermore.

53 Blessed be the holy name of thy glory, for it is worthy to be praised and magnified in all worldes.

54 Blessed be thou in the holy temple of thy glory: for aboue all things thou art to be prayed, yea and more then worthy to bee magnified for euer.

55 Blessed bee thou in the throne of thy kingdome: for aboue all thou art worthie to be well spoken of, and to be more then magnified for euer.

56 Blessed bee thou that lookest thorowe the deepe, and sittest vpon the Cherubims: for thou art worthy to be praised, and aboue all all to be magnified for euer.

57 Blessed bee thou in the firmament of heauen: for thou art praise and honor worthie for euer.

58 O al ye works of the Lord, speake good of the Lord: praise him & set him vp for euer.

59 O yee Angels of the Lord, speake good of the Lord: praise him & set him vp for euer.

Psal.148.4. 60 *O ye heauens, speake good of ye Lord: praise him, and set him vp for euer.

61 O all ye waters that bee aboue the firmament, speake good of the Lord: praise him, and set him vp for euer.

62 O all ye powers of the Lorde, speake good of the Lord: praise him, and set him vp for euer.

63 O ye Sunne & Moone, speake good of the Lord: praise him, and set him vp for euer.

64 O ye Starres of heauen, speake good of the Lord: praise him, & set him vp for euer.

65 O ye showres and dewe, speake good of the Lord: praise him, and set him vp for euer.

66 O all ye windes of God, speake good of the Lord: praise him, and set him vp for euer.

67 O ye fire and heate, speake good of the Lord: praise him, and set him vp for euer.

68 O ye winter & Sommer, speake good of the Lord: praise him, & set him vp for euer.

69 O ye dewes and frosts, speake good of the Lord: praise him, and set him vp for euer.

70 O ye frost and colde, speake good of the Lord: praise him, and set him vp for euer.

71 O ye yce and snow, speake good of the Lord: praise him, and set him vp for euer.

72 O ye nights and dayes, speake good of the Lord: praise him, and set him vp for euer.

73 O ye light and darkenesse, speake good of the Lord: praise him, & set him vp for euer.

74 O ye lightnings and cloudes, speake good of the Lord: praise him, and set him vp for euer.

75 O let the earth speake good of the Lord: yea, let it praise him, and set him vp for euer.

76 O yee mountaines and hilles, speake good of the Lord: praise him, and set him vp for euer.

77 O all ye greene things vpon the earth, speake good of the Lord: praise him, and set him vp for euer.

78 O ye welles, speake good of the Lorde: praise him, and set him vp for euer.

79 O yee seas and floods, speake good of the Lord: praise him, and set him vp for euer.

80 O ye whales, and all that moue in the waters, speake good of the Lord: praise him, and set him vp for euer.

81 O all ye fowles of the ayre, speake good of the Lorde: praise him, and set him vp for euer.

82 O all ye beasts and cattel, speake good of the Lord: praise him, and set him vp for euer.

83 O ye children of men, speake good of the Lorde: praise him, and set him vp for euer.

84 O let Israel speake good of the Lorde: praise him, and set him vp for euer.

85 O ye priestes of the Lord, speake good of the Lord: praise him, and set him vp for euer.

86 O ye seruants of the Lorde, speake good of the Lord: praise him, and set him vp for euer.

87 O ye spirits and soules of the righteous, speake good of the Lord: praise him, and set him vp for euer.

88 O yee holy and humble men of heart, speake ye good of the Lord: praise him, and set him vp for euer.

89 O Anania, Azaria, and Misael, speake ye good of the Lord, praise ye him, and set him vp for euer: which hath deliuered vs from the hell, kept vs from the hand of death, redeemed vs from the midst of the burning flame, and saued vs in the middest of the fire.

90 O giue thankes therefore vnto the Lord, for he is kinde hearted: and his mercie endureth for euer.

91 O all deuoute men, speake yee good of the Lord, the God of all gods: O praise him, and giue him thankes, for his mercy endureth world without ende.

The storie of Susanna, which is the thirteenth Chapter of Daniel after the Latin.

1 The two gouernours are taken with the loue of Susanna. 19 They take her alone in the garden. 20 They entice her to wickednesse. 23 Shee chooseth rather to obey God, though it be to the danger of her life. 34 She is accused, 45 Daniel doth deliuer her. 62 The gouernours are put to death.

THere dwelt a man in Babylon, called Joacim,

2 That tooke a wife, whose name was Susanna, the daughter of Helchia, a very faire woman, and such a one as feared God.

3 Her father and her mother also were good people, and taught their daughter, according to the law of Moses.

4 Now Joacim her husband was a great rich man, and had a faire orchard ioyning vnto his house, & to him resorted the Jewes commonly, because he was a man of reputation among them.

5 The same yeere were there made two iudges, such as the Lord speaketh of, The wickednesse of Babylon commeth from the elders, that is, from the Iudges which seeme to to rule the people.

6 Theſe came oft to Joacims houſe: and all ſuch as had any thing to doe in the lawe, came thither vnto them.

7 Nowe when the people departed away at noone, Suſanna went into her husbands orchard to walke.

8 The two elders ſeeing this, that shee went in dayly and walked, they burned for luſt to her,

9 Yea, they were almoſt out of their wits, and caſt downe their eyes, that they ſhoulde not ſee heauen, nor remember that God is a righteous iudge.

10 For they were both wounded with the loue of her, neither durſt one ſhewe another his griefe:

11 And for ſhame they durſt not tell her their inordinate luſt, that they would fayne haue had to do with her:

12 Yet they layde waite for her earneſtly from day to day, that they might at the leaſt haue a ſight of her.

13 And the one ſayde to the other, Vp, let vs goe home, for it is dinner time. So they went their way one from another.

14 When they returned againe, they came together, enquiring out the matter betwixt themſelues, yea, the one told the other of his wicked luſt: then appoynted they a time when they might take Suſanna alone.

15 It happened alſo that they eſpied out a conuenient time, when ſhee went foorth to walke, as her maner was, and no body with her but two maidens, & thought to waſh her ſelfe in the garden: for it was an hot ſeaſon.

16 And there was not one perſon there, except the two elders that had hid thẽſelues to behold her.

17 So ſhe ſaid to her maidens, Goe, fetch me oyle and ſope, and ſhut the orchard doore, that I may waſh me.

18 And they did as ſhee bade them, & ſhut the orchard doore, and went out themſelues at a backe doore to fetch the thing that ſhee had commanded: ‖ but Suſanna knew not that the elders lay there hid within.

19 Nowe when the maydens were gone forth, the two elders gate them vp, and ran vpon her, ſaying, 20 Now the orchard doores are ſhut, that no man can ſee vs, we haue a luſt vnto thee, therefore conſent vnto vs, and lie with vs.

21 If thou wilt not, we ſhal bring a teſtimoniall againſt thee, that there was a yong fellow with thee, & that thou haſt ſent away the maidens from thee for the ſame cauſe.

22 Suſanna ſighed, and ſaid, Alas, I am in trouble on euery ſide: though I followe your minde, it will bee my death: and if I conſent not vnto you, I can not eſcape your handes.

23 Well, it is better for me to fal into your hand without the deede doing, then to ſinne in the ſight of the Lord.

24 And with that ſhee cryed out with a loude voyce: the elders cryed out againſt her.

25 Then ranne there one to the Orchard dooze, and ſmot it open.

26 Now when the ſeruants of the houſe heard the cry in the orchard, they ruſhed in at the backe dooze, to ſee what the matter was.

27 So when the elders told them, the ſeruants were greatly aſhamed: for why? there was neuer ſuch a report made of Suſanna.

28 On the morowe after came the people to Joacim her husband, and the two elders came alſo full of miſchieuous imaginations againſt Suſanna, to bring her vnto death, 29 And ſpake thus before ỹ people, Send for Suſanna the daughter of Helchias, Joacims wife. And immediatly they ſent for her.

30 So ſhe came with her father and mother, her children, and all her kinred.

31 Now Suſanna was a tender perſon, and marueilous faire of face.

32 Therefore the wicked men commanded to take her clothes from her face (for ſhee was couered) that at the leaſt they might ſo be ſatisfied in her beautie.

33 Then her friendes, yea, and all they that knew her, began to weepe.

34 Theſe two elders ſtood vp in the mids of the people, and laid their handes vpon the head of Suſanna.

35 Which wept, & looked vp toward heauen: for her heart had a ſure truſt in the Lord.

36 And the elders ſayd, As we were walking in the Orcharde alone, this woman came in with her two maydens, whom ſhee ſent away from her, and ſparred the orchard doores:

37 With that a yong fellow which there was hid, came vnto her, and lay with her.

38 As for vs, wee ſtoode in a corner of the Orchard: and when we ſawe this wickedneſſe, we ranne to them, and we ſawe them as they were together.

39 But we could not hold him, for he was ſtronger then we. Thus he opened the dooze, and gate him away.

40 Nowe when wee had taken this woman, wee aſked her what yong fellowe this was, but ſhee would not tell vs. This is the matter, and we be witneſſes of the ſame.

41 The common ſort beleeued them, as thoſe that were the elders and iudges of the people, and ſo they condemned her to death.

42 Suſanna cried out with a loud voyce, and ſayd, O euerlaſting God, thou ſearcher of ſecrets, thou that knoweſt all things before they come to paſſe:

43 Thou woteſt that they haue borne falſe witneſſe againſt mee, and beholde, I muſt die, whereas I neuer did any ſuch things as theſe men haue maliciouſly inuented againſt me.

44 And the Lord heard her voyce.

45 For when ſhe was led forth to death, the Lord raiſed vp the ſpirit of a yong childe, whoſe name was Daniel,

46 which

46 Which cried with a loude voyce, I am cleane from this blood.

47 Then all the people turned towards him, and ſaid, What meane theſe wordes that thou haſt ſpoken?

48 Daniel ſtood in the mids of them, and ſayd, Are ye ſuch fooles, O yee children of Iſrael, that yee cannot diſcerne and know the trueth? Ye haue here condemned a daughter of Iſrael vnto death, & know not the trueth wherefore.

49 Goe ſit in iudgement againe: for they haue ſpoken falſe witneſſe againſt her.

50 Wherefore the people turned againe in all the haſte: and the elders, that is, the principall heads, ſayd vnto him, Come ſit downe here among vs, and ſhewe vs this matter, ſeeing God hath giuen thee as great honour as an elder.

51 And Daniel ſaid vnto them, Put theſe two aſide one from another, and then ſhall I examine them.

52 When they were put aſunder one from another, he called one of them, and ſayd vnto him, O thou olde cankered carle, that haſt vſed thy wickednes ſo long, thine vngratious deedes which thou haſt done afore, are nowe come to light.

53 For thou haſt giuen falſe iudgements, thou haſt oppreſſed the innocent, and letten the guiltie gofree: wheras yet the Lord ſaith, Exod. 23. 7 * The innocent and righteous ſee thou ſlaie not.

54 Well then, if thou haſt ſeene her, tel me vnder what tree ſaweſt thou them companying together? He anſwered, Vnder a ‖ Hulberie tree. ‖ Or, lentiske tree.

55 And Daniel ſaid, Very wel, nowe thou lieſt euen vpon thine head: loe, the meſſenger of the Lord hath receiued the ſentence of him to cut thee in two.

56 Then put he him aſide, & called for the other, and ſayd vnto him, O thou ſeede of Chanaan, but not of Iuda, fairenelle hath deceiued thee, and luſt hath ſubuerted thine heart.

57 Thus dealt ye afore with the daughters of Iſrael, and they for feare conſented vnto you: but the daughter of Iuda would not abide your wickednelle.

58 Nowe tell mee then, vnder what tree didſt thou take them companying together? He anſwered, Vnder a ‖ Pomegranate tree. ‖ Or, a prune tree, or a mirtill tree.

59 Then ſaid Daniel vnto him, Very wel, nowe thou lieſt alſo euen vpon thine head: the meſſenger of the Lord ſtandeth waiting with the ſword to cut thee in two, & ſlay you both.

60 With that all the whole multitude gaue a great ſhowte, and prayſed God, which alway deliuereth them that put their truſt in him.

61 And they came vpon the two elders, whom Daniel had conuict with their owne mouth, that they had giuen falſe witneſſe, 62 And dealt with them euen like wiſe as they would haue done with their neighbors, yea, they did * according to the law of Moſes, Deu. 19. 19 pro. 19. 9. and put them to death: Thus the innocent blood was ſaued the ſame day.

63 Then Helcias & his wife praiſed God for their daughter Suſanna, with Joacim her huſband, and all the kinred, that there was no diſhoneſtie found in her.

64 From that day forth was Daniel had in great reputation in the ſight of the people.

65 And king Aſtiages was laied with his fathers, and Cyrus of Perſia reigned in his ſtead.

The end of the ſtorie of Suſanna.

The ſtorie of Bel and the Dragon, which is the fourteenth chapter of Daniel, after the Latin.

DAniel did eate at the kings table, & was had in reuerence aboue al his friends.

2 There was at Babylon an image called Bel, and there were ſpent vpon him euery day twelue cakes, fourtie ſheepe, and ſixe great pottes of wine.

3 Him did the king worſhip himſelfe, and went daily to honour him, but Daniel worſhipped his owne God: and the king ſaid vnto him, Why doeſt not thou worſhip Bel?

4 He anſwered and ſaid, Becauſe I may not worſhip things y bee made with handes, but the liuing God which made heauen and earth, and hath power ouer all fleſh.

5 The king ſaid vnto him, Thinkeſt thou not that Bel is a liuing God? or ſeeſt thou not how much he eateth and drinketh euery day?

6 Daniel ſmiled, & ſayd, O king, deceiue not thy ſelf: for this is but made of clay within, and of braſſe without, neither eateth he euer any thing.

7 Then the king was wroth, and called for his prieſts, and ſayd vnto them, If ye tell mee not who is this that eateth vp theſe expenſes, ye ſhall die:

8 But if ye can certifie me that Bel eateth them, then Daniel ſhall die: for he hath ſpoken blaſphemie againſt Bel. And Daniel ſaid vnto the king, Let it be, according as thou haſt ſayd.

9 The prieſts of Bel were threeſcore and ten, beſides their wiues and children: And the the king went with Daniel into the temple of Bel.

16 So bels priests sayde, Lo, we will goe out: and set thou the meate there, O king, and powre in the wine, then shut the doore fast, and seale it with thine owne signet:

11 And to morow when thou comest in, if thou findest not that Bel hath eaten vp al, we will suffer death: or els Daniel that hath lyed vpon vs.

12 The priestes thought themselues sure inough: for vnder the ‖altar they had made a priuie entrance, and there went they in euer, and did eate vp what there was.

13 So when they were gone forth, the king set meates before Bel. Nowe Daniel had commaunded his seruants to bring ashes, and these hee ‖sifted throughout all the temple, that the king might see: then went they out, and sparred the doore, sealing it with the kings signet, and so departed.

14 In the night came the priestes, with their wiues and children, as they were wont to doe, and did eate and drinke vp all.

15 In the morning betimes, at the breake of the day, the king arose, and Daniel with him.

16 And the king sayde, Daniel, are the seales whole yet? He answered, Yea, O king, they be whole.

17 Nowe as soone as hee had opened the doore, the king looked vnto the ‖altar, and cryed with a loude voyce: Great art thou, O Bel, and with thee is no deceite.

18 Then laughed Daniel, and held the king that he should not goe in, and sayde, Behold the pauement, marke well, whose footesteps are these?

19 The king sayde, I see the footesteps of men, women, and children.

20 Therefore the king was angrie, and tooke the priestes, with their wiues and children: and they shewed him the priuie doores where they came in, and did eate vp such things as were vpon the altar:

21 For the which cause the king slue them, and deliuered Bel into Daniels power, which destroyed him and his temple.

22 And in that same place there was a great Dragon, which they of Babylon worshipped.

23 And the king said vnto Daniel, Saiest thou not that this is but a God of braste also? Lo, he liueth, he eateth and drinketh, so that thou canst not say that he is no liuing God: therefore worship him.

24 Daniel sayde vnto the king, I will worship the Lord my God, hee is the true liuing God: as for this, hee is not the God of life.

25 But giue me leaue, O king, and I shal destroy this Dragon without sword or staffe. The king sayd, I giue thee leaue.

26 Then Daniel tooke pitch, fatte, and hairie wooll, and did seeth them together, and made lumpes thereof: this he put in the Dragons mouth, and so the Dragon burst in sunder. And Daniel said, Loe, there is he whom ye worshipped.

27 When they of Babylon heard that, they tooke great indignation, and gathered them together against the king, saying, The king is become a Iewe, and he hath destroied Bel, hee hath slaine the Dragon, and put the Priests to death.

28 So they came to the king, and said, Let vs haue Daniel, or els wee will destroy thee and thine house.

29 Nowe when the king sawe that they rushed in so sore vpon him, and that necessitie constrained him, he deliuered Daniel vnto them:

30 Which cast him into the Lions denne, where he was sixe dayes.

31 In the denne there were seuen Lions, and they had giuen them euery day two bodies and two sheepe: which then were not giuen them, to the intent that they might deuour Daniel.

32 There was in Iurie a Prophet called Habacuc, which had made pottage, and broken bread in a bowle, and was going into the field for to bring it to the reapers.

33 But the Angel of the Lord sayde vnto Habacuc, Goe carie the meate that thou hast, into Babylon, vnto Daniel, which is in the Lions denne.

34 And Habacuc sayde, Lorde, I neuer sawe Babylon, and as for the denne, I know it not.

35 *Then the Angel of the Lord took him by the top, and bare him by the haire of the head, and through a mightie winde set him in Babylon vpon the denne. Ezech. 8.3.

36 And Habacuc cried, saying, O Daniel, thou seruant of God, haue, take the ‖breakfast that God hath sent thee. ‖Or, dinner.

37 And Daniel sayde, O God, hast thou thought vpon mee? well, thou neuer failest them that loue thee.

38 So Daniel arose, and did eate. And the Angel of the Lord set Habacuc in his owne place againe immediatly.

39 Vpon the seuenth day the king went to bewep Daniel: and when he came to the denne, he looked in, and behold, Daniel sate in the middest of the Lions.

40 Then cried the king with a loude voyce, saying, Great art thou O Lord God of Daniel, and there is none other besides thee.

41 And hee drewe him out of the Lions denne, and cast those that were the cause of his destruction into the denne, and they were deuoured in a moment before his face.

42 After this wrote the king vnto all people, kinreds, and tongues, that dwelt in all countries,

43 Saying, Peace bee multiplied with you: my commandement is in all the dominion of my realme, that men feare and stand in awe of Daniels God: for hee is the liuing God, which endureth euer:

44 His kingdome abideth vncorrupt, and his power is euerlasting.

45 It is hee that can deliuer and saue, hee doeth wonders and marueilous workes in heauen and in earth: for hee hath saued Daniel from the power of the Lions.

The prayer of Manasses king of Iuda, when he was holden captiue in Babylon.

O Lord Almightie, God of our fathers, Abraham, Isahac, and Iacob, and of the righteous seede of them, which hast made heauen and earth, with all the ornament thereof, which hast ‖ ordained the sea by the word of thy commandement, which hast shut vp the deepe, and hast sealed it for thy feareful and laudable name, which all men feare, and tremble before the face of thy power, and not for the anger of thy threatning, the which is importable to sinners, but the mercie of thy promise is great and vnsearcheable: for thou art the Lord God most high about all the earth, long suffring, and exceeding mercifull, and repentant vpon the malice of men: thou Lord after thy goodnesse hast promised repentance of the remission of sinnes, and thou that art the God of the righteous, hast not put repentance to the righteous, Abraham, Isahac, and Iacob, vnto them that haue not sinned against thee: but because I haue sinned aboue the number of the sandes of the sea, and that mine iniquities are multiplied, I am ‖ humbled with many bands of yron, and there is in me no breathing, I haue prouoked thine anger, and haue done euill before thee, in committing abominations, and multiplying offences: and nowe I bowe the knees of my heart, requiring goodnesse of thee, O Lord. I haue sinned, Lord, I haue sinned, and knowe mine iniquitie. I desire thee by prayer, O Lord, forgiue me, forgiue me, and destroy me not with mine iniquities, neither doe thou alwayes remember mine euils to punish them: but saue me (which am vnworthy) after thy great mercy, and I will praise thee euerlastingly all the dayes of my life: for all the power of heauen praiseth thee, and vnto thee belongeth glory, world without ende. Amen.

A neceſſarie Table for the knowledge of the ſtate of Iuda, from the beginning of the Monarchie of the Greekes (where the Table that we haue ſet forth vpon Eſdras endeth) vntill the death and paſſion of Ieſus Chriſt.

The 70. weekes foreſhewed by Daniel, Dan. 9.	The Monarchie of the Greekes.	The ſtate of the Iewes.

THe Angel of the Lord ſent to Daniel, ſayde, that it was ſeuentie weekes of yeeres, that is to ſay, ſeuentie times ſeuen, which commeth to 490. from the giuing forth of the cõmandement that Hieruſalem ſhould be builded againe & reſtored, vntil Chriſt the Prince. This commandement was giuen forth by the mouth of Darius Longhand, Monarch of the Perſiãs, the yere of his reigne, as it is written in Nehem. 2. Therefore the ſayde ſeuentie weekes ought to begin there, though all agree not therein: for ſome begin it in the ſecond yere of the ſaid Darius: other, the firſt yere of Cyrus. So (...) from the beginning of the ſaid weekes, till the time that Alexãder vſurped the Monarchie, we recken foure yeeres & eighteene weekes, which maketh 130. yeeres. To ſhewe the verifying of the ſaid weeks, according to the aforeſayde prophecie of Daniel 9. we wil proportion them with the yeeres in which the kings of Syria (ſet here in order on the right ſide) haue ended their kingdome ech of them in order.

ALexander the great, ſonne to Philip king of Macedon, conquered the Monarchie of the Perſians from Darius, the 192. yeere of Cyrus the firſt Monarch, & tranſported it to the Greekes: hee reigned ſixe whole yeeres, and the ſeuenth dyed, leauing diuers ſucceſſours, to whome hee deuided the ſayde Monarchie before his death, that is, the kingdomes of Syria, Aſia, Egypt, and Macedonia. We will here treate of his ſucceſſors the kings of Syria onely, becauſe the Scripture maketh mention thereof, and maketh the ſupputation of the yeeres by the time that the ſayd kings reigned, beginning at the firſt; as appeareth in the firſt booke of the Machabees. And we wil orderly ſet their names, and the time that eche of them hath reigned, to conferre them with the number of the weekes placed on the left ſide of this Table, to the ende the ſayde weekes may bee verified, and that the prophecie of Daniel may bee plainely vnderſtood, touching the comming and death of our Sauiour Chriſt.

AFter the people of the Lorde were deliuered from the captiuitie of Babylon by Cyrus, and returned vnto their lande vnder the conduct of Zorobabel, there was no more name of King in Iuda, but Prince and Gouernour, which were for the moſt part of the line of Iuda, and are theſe that followe.

The

The first booke of the Machabees.

The first Chapter.

2 After the death of Alexander the king of Macedonia,
11 Antiochus taketh the kingdome.

AFter that Alexãder king of Macedonia, sonne of Philip, went forth of the land of ‖ Cethim, & slew Darius king of the Persians and Medes, and reigned for him as he had done before in Grecia:

‖ Or, Chettim. a The first warre with the Carthaginenses was fought at this time.

2 It happened that he tooke great warres in hande, wanne very many strong cities, and slue many kings of the earth,

3 Going thorow to the ends of the world, and getting many spoyles of the people, in so much that the whole worlde stoode in awe of him, and therefore was he proude in his heart.

b The beginning of the kingdome of Egypt.

4 b Nowe when he had gathered a mighty strong hoste,

5 And subdued the lands and people, with their Princes, so that they became tributaries vnto him,

6 Then he fell sicke, and when hee perceiued that he must needes dye,

7 He called for his noble estates, which had bene brought vp with him of children, and parted his kingdome among them while he was yet aliue.

8 So Alexander reigned twelue yeeres, and then dyed.

c The beginning of the kingdome of Syria.

9 c After his death fell the kingdome vnto his Princes, and they obteined it euery one in his roome,

10 And caused themselues to be crowned as kings: and so did their children after them many yeeres, and much wickednesse encreased in the world.

‖ Or, Epiphanes.

11 Out of these came the vngratious roote ‖ noble Antiochus, the sonne of Antiochus the king, which had bene a pledge at Rome: and he reigned in the hundred thirtie and seuen yeere of the Empire of the Greeks.

d The beginning of the kingdome of the Partians.

12 d In those dayes went there out of Israel wicked men, which moued much people with their counsell, saying, Let vs goe and make a couenant with the heathen that are round about vs: for since wee departed from them, we haue had much sorowe.

13 So this deuise pleased them well.

e Iosephus lib. 12. cap. 4.

14 e And certaine of the people tooke vpon them for to goe vnto the king, which gaue them licence to doe after the ordinance of the heathen.

f The wicked fall headlong into mischiefe. ‖ Iosephus hath ponderib. & numeris, sayth, that it was by shauing the skinne ouer that part that was circumcised.

15 f Then set they vp an open schoole at Hierusalem, of the lawes of the heathen:

16 g And made them selues vncircumcised, but forsooke the holy testament, and ioyned themselues vnto the heathen, and were sold to doe mischiefe.

17 So when Antiochus began to be mightie in his kingdome, hee went about to obteine the land of Egypt also, that he might haue the dominion of two realmes.

18 Vpon this entred he into Egypt with a strong hoste, with charrets, Elephants, horsemen, and a great number of ships, h The second battel with the Carthaginenses.

19 h And began to warre against Ptolome the king of Egypt: but Ptolome was afrayd of him, and fled, and many of his people were wounded to death.

20 Thus Antiochus wanne many strong cities in Egypt, and tooke away great good out of the land of Egypt.

21 And after that Antiochus had smitten Egypt, hee turned againe in the hundred fourtie and three yeere, and went toward Israel,

22 And came to Hierusalem with a mightie people,

23 And entred proudly into the sanctuarie, and tooke away the golden altar, the candlesticke, and all the ornaments thereof, the table of the shewe bread, the powring vessels, the chargers, the golden spoones, the bayle, the crownes, and golden apparell of the temple, and brake downe all in pieces.

24 He tooke also the siluer and golde, the precious iewels, and the secrete treasures that he found.

25 And when hee had taken away all together, caused a great murder of men, and spoken very proudly, hee departed into his owne land.

26 Therefore there was great lamentation thorowout all Israel,

27 The Princes and the elders of the people mourned, the yong men and the maidens were ‖ defiled, and the faire beautie of women was changed,

‖ Or, made feeble.

28 The bridegrome and the bride tooke them to mourning,

29 The land and those that dwelt therein, was moued: for all the house of Jacob was brought to confusion.

i The battell of Macedonia.

30 i After two yeeres the king sent his chiefe treasurer vnto the cities of Iuda, which came to Hierusalem with a great multitude of people,

31 Speaking peaceable wordes vnto them, but all was deceite: for when they had giuen him credence, 32 He fell suddenly vpon the citie, & smote it sore, and destroyed much people of Israel.

33 And when he had spoyled the citie, he set fire on it, casting downe houses and walls on euery side.

34 The women and their children tooke they captiue, and led away their cattell.

35 Then builded they the citie of Dauid with a great and thicke wall, & with mighty towres, and made it a strong holde for them.

36 Beside all this, they set wicked people, and vngodly men to keepe it,

37 Stored it with weapons & victuals, gathered the goods of Hierusalem, and layd them vp there: thus became it a thieuish castell.

38 Thus they became a heauie burden, laying waite for the people that went into the sanctuarie, and for the cruell destruction of Israel.

39 Thus they shed innocent blood on euery side of the sanctuarie, and defiled it:

40 Insomuch that the citizens were faine to depart, and the citie became an habitation of strangers, being desolate of her owne seede: for her owne natiues were fayne to leaue her.

41 Her sanctuarie was cleane wasted, her holy dayes were turned into mourning, her Sabboths were had in derision, and her honour brought to nought.

k Ioseph. lib. 12. cap. 6. & 7.

42 k Looke howe great her glory was before, so great was her confusion, and her ioy turned into sorowe.

43 Antiochus also the king sent out a commission vnto all his kingdome, that all the people should be one.

44 Then they left euery man his lawe, and all the Heathen agreed to the commandement of king Antiochus:

45 Yea, many of the Israelites consented thereunto, offering vnto idoles, and defiling the Sabboth.

46 So the king Antiochus sent his messengers with his commission vnto Hierusalem, and to all the cities of Iuda, that they should followe the lawes of the Heathen:

47 And forbade the whole burnt offring, meate offering, or peace offering to be made in the temple of God, and that there should no Sabboth nor high day be kept:

48 But commanded that the sanctuarie & the holy people of Israel should be defiled:

49 He commanded also, that there should be set vp altars, temples, and idoles, to offer vp swines flesh, and vncleane beasts,

50 That men should leaue their children vncircumcised, to defile their soules with all maner of vncleannesse and abominations:

51 That they might so forget the law, and change all the holy ordinances of God, 52 And that whosoeuer would not doe according to the commaundement of king Antiochus, should suffer death.

53 In like maner commaunded hee throwout all his realme, & set rulers ouer the people, for to compel them to do these things:

54 Commanding all the cities of Iuda to doe sacrifice vnto idoles.

55 Then went the people vnto the Heathen by heapes, forsooke the law of the Lord, and committed much euil in the land:

56 And they droue the Israelites into secrete places, euen whereseoeuer they could flee for succour.

‖ Nouember.

57 The fifteenth day of the moneth Casleu, in the hundred threescore and fifth yeere, set king Antiochus an abominable idole of desolation vpon the altar of God, & they builded altars throwout all the cities of Iuda, on euery side, 58 Before the doores of the houses, and in the streets, where they burnt incense and did sacrifice.

59 And as for the bookes of the law of God, they ‖ burnt them in the fire, and rent them in pieces.

‖ It is a manifest note of the enemies of God, to burne the bookes of the law. Iustin. eccleslast. lib. 8. cap. 2.

60 Whatsoeuer he was that had a booke of the testament of the Lorde found by him, yea, whosoeuer endeuoured himself to keepe the lawe of the Lorde, the kings commandement was, that they should put him to death.

61 And throughout his authoritie they executed these things euery moneth, vpon the people of Israel that were found of the cities.

62 The twentie and fifth day of the moneth, what time as they did sacrifice vpon the altar, which stoode in the steade of the altar of the Lorde,

63 According to the commaundement of king Antiochus, they put certaine women to death, which had caused their children to be circumcised:

64 Not onely that, but they hanged vp the children by the necks throwout all their houses, slew the circumcisers of them:

65 Yet were there many of the people of Israel, which determined in them selues that they would not eate vncleane things: but chose rather to suffer death, then to be defiled with vncleane meates.

66 So because they would not breake the blessed law of God, they were cruelly slayne.

67 And this great tyrannie encreased very sore vpon the people of Israel.

The ij. Chapter.

The mourning of Mathathias and his sonnes for the destruction of the holy citie.

IN those dayes there did stand vp one Mathathias the sonne of Iohn, the sonne of Simeon the Priest, out of the kinred of Ioarib, from Hierusalem, and dwelt vpon the mount of Modin,

2 And had fiue sonnes: Iohn called Gaddis,

3 Simon called Thassi,

4 Iudas, other wise called Machabeus,

5 Eleazar, other wise called Abaron, and Ionathan, whose surname was Apphus.

6 These sawe the euill that was done among the people of Iuda and Hierusalem.

7 And Mathathias sayd, woe is me, alas that euer I was borne, to see this misorie of my people, and the pitious destruction of the holy citie, and thus to sit so still, it being deliuered in to the hands of the enemies.

8 Her Sanctuarie is come into the power of strangers, her temple is as it were a man that hath lost his good name:

9 Her precious ornaments are carried away captiue, her olde men are slaine in the streetes, & her yong men are fallen through the the sword of the enemies.

10 What people is it that hath not some possession in her kingdome? or who hath not gotten some of her spoyles?

11 All her glory is taken away, she was a free woman, & nowe she is become an handmayde.

12 Beholde, our sanctuary, our beautie and honour is wasted away, and defiled by the Gentiles.

13 What helpeth it vs then to liue?

14 And Mathathias rent his clothes, he and his sonnes, & put sackcloth vpon them, and mourned very sore.

15 Then came the men thither, which were sent of king Antiochus, to compell such as were fled into the citie of Modin, for to do sacrifice, and to burne incense vnto idoles, and to forsake the lawe of God.

16 So many of the people of Israel consented and enclined vnto them: but Mathathias and his sonnes remained stedfast.

17 Then spake the Commissioners of king Antiochus, and said vnto Mathathias, Thou art a noble man, of high reputation, and great in this citie, hauing many fayre children and brethren.

18 Come thou therefore first, and fulfill the kings commaundement, like as all the heathen haue done, yea, and the men of Iuda, and such as remaine at Hierusalem, so shalt thou and thy children bee in the kings fauour, and enriched with gold, siluer, and great rewards.

19 Mathathias answered, & spake with a loude voyce, Though all nations obey the king Antiochus, and fall away euery man from keeping ỹ lawe of their fathers, though they consent to his commandements:

a The father ought to gouerne his children that they shall serue God, so long as he is maister of his household, Iosh.24.

20 a Yet will I & my sonnes and my brethren not fall from the lawes of our fathers.

21 God forbid we should: that were not good for vs that wee should forsake the lawe and ordinances of God, and to agree vnto the commandement of king Antiochus.

22 Therefore we will do no such sacrifice, neither breake the statutes of our law, to go another way.

23 And when he had spoken these words, there came one of the Iewes, which openly in the sight of all did sacrifice vnto the idoles vpon the altar in the citie of Modin, according to the kings commandement.

b It is grieuous to the godly to see the people sinne.

24 When Mathathias saw this, it grieued b him at the heart, so that his reynes shooke withal, and his wrath kindled for very zeale of the lawe: with that hee start vp, and killed the Iewe beside the altar, 25 Yea, and slue the kings Commissioner that compelled him to doe sacrifice, and destroyed the altar at the same time.

Num.25.7. 26 * Such zeale had he vnto the lawe of God, like as Phinehes did vnto Zambri the sonne of Salomi.

27 And Mathathias cryed with a loude voyce thorow the citie, saying, Whoso is feruent in the lawe, & will keepe the couenant, let him followe me.

28 So hee and his sonnes fledde into the mountaines, and left all that euer they had in the citie.

29 Many other godly men also which liued iustly and vprightly, departed into the wildernes, with their children, their wiues, and their cattell, and remained there: for the tyrannie encreased sore vpon them.

30 Nowe when the kings seruants, and the host which was at Hierusalem in the citie of Dauid, heard that certaine men had broken the kings commandement, and were gone their way to the wildernesse into secret places:

31 Then many pursued after them, and after they had ouertaken them, they camped themselues, and set the battel in aray against them in the Sabboth day, 32 And sayd vnto them, Will ye yet rebel? Get you hence, and do the commaundement of king Antiochus, and ye shall liue.

33 They answered, We will not go for thee, neither will we doe the kings commaundement to defile the Sabboth day.

34 Then began they to fight against them:

35 But the other gaue them none other answere, neither cast they one stone at them, nor made fast their priuie places.

36 But said, We will die al in our innocencie, heauen and earth shall testifie with vs, that ye put vs to death wrongfully.

37 Thus they fought against them vpon the Sabboth, and slue both men and cattell, their wiues and their children, to the number of a thousand people.

38 Whē Mathathias & his friends heard this, they mourned for them right sore, 39 And sayd one to another, If so bee that we all doe as our brethren haue done, & fight not for our liues, and for our lawes against the heathen, then shall they the sooner roote vs out of the earth.

40 So they concluded among themselues at the same time, saying,

41 Whatsoeuer he be that cometh to make battell with vs vpon the Sabboth day, wee will fight against him, & not die all as our brethren that were murdered in the wildernes.

42 Vpon this came the assembly of the Assideans vnto them, which were of the strongest men in Israel, and all such as were feruent in the lawe.

43 And all they that were fled for persecution, came to helpe them, & to stand by them:

44 Insomuch that they gathered an hoste of men, and slew the wicked doers in their wrath, & the vngodly men in their wrath: but the rest fled vnto the heathen, and escaped.

45 Then Mathathias and his friendes went about, and destroyed the altars,

46 And circumcised the children that had not yet receiued circumcision, as many as they found within the coasts of Israel,

47 And followed mightily vpon the proud men:

men: and this act prospered in their hands.

48 Insomuch that they kept the lawe against the power of the Gentiles & the kings, and gaue not ouer their dominion vnto wicked doers.

49 After this, when the time drew on fast that Mathathias should die, he said vnto his sonnes, Now is pride and persecution encreased, now is the time of destruction & wrathful displeasure:

50 Wherefore, O my sonnes, be ye feruent in the lawe, and ieopard your liues for the testament of the fathers.

51 Call to remembrance what actes our fathers did in their time, so shall yee receiue great honour, and an euerlasting name.

Gene.22.9 52 *Remember Abraham: was not hee found faithful in temptation, & it was reckoned vnto him for righteousnesse?

Gen.41.40 num.25.15 53 *Joseph in time of his trouble kept the commandement, and was made a lord of Egypt.

Eccl.45.28 54 *Phinehes our father was so feruent for the honour of God, that he obteined the couenant of an euerlasting priesthood.

Iosu.1.2. num.14.6. 55 *Josuah for fulfilling the word of God, was made the captaine of Israel.

Iosu.14.13 56 *Caleb bare record before the congregation, and receiued an heritage.

2.Reg.2.4. 57 *Dauid also in his mercifull kindnes, obtayned the throne of an euerlasting kingdome.

4.Reg.2.11 58 *Elias being zelous and feruent in the law, was taken vp into heauen.

Dan.3.16. 59 *Ananias, Azarias, and Misael, remained stedfast in faith, and were deliuered out of the fire.

Dan.6.22. 60 *In like maner Daniel being vnguiltie, was saued from the mouth of the Lions.

61 And thus ye may consider throughout all ages since the world beganne, that whosoeuer put their trust in God, were not ouercome.

62 Feare not ye then the words of an vngodly man, for his glory is but doung and wormes:

63 To day he is set vp, and to morowe he is gone: for he is turned into earth, and his memoriall is come to nought.

64 Wherefore, O my sonnes, take good heart vnto you, and quite your selues like men in the lawe: for if ye doe the things that are commaunded you in the law of the Lord your God, yee shall obteine great honour therein.

65 And behold, I know that your brother Simon is a man of wisedome: see that yee giue eare vnto him alway, he shalbe a father vnto you.

66 As for Judas Machabeus, he hath euer bene mightie and strong from his youth vp: let him be your captaine, & order the battell of the people.

67 Thus shall ye bring vnto you all those that fauour the lawe, and see that ye auenge the wrong of your people, 68 And recompence the heathen againe, & applie your selues wholy to the commandement of the lawe.

69 So he gaue them his blessing, & was layd by his fathers,

70 And died in the hundred fourtie and sixt yere at Modin, where his sonnes buried him in his fathers sepulchre, and all Israel made great lamentation for him.

The iij. Chapter.

1 Iudas is made ruler ouer the Iewes. 11 He killeth Apollonius and Seron the princes of Syria.

Then stoode vp Judas Machabeus in his fathers steade, Iosep. cap.8 9,10,11,12 Lat.

2 And all his brethren helped him, & so did all they that held with his father, & fought with cheerefulnesse for Israel.

3 So Judas gat his people great honor: he put on a breastplate as a Giant, & arayed himselfe with his harnesse, and defended the host with his sword.

4 In his actes he was like a lion, and as a lions whelpe roaring at his pray.

5 Hee was an enemie to the wicked, and hunted them out, and burnt vp those that vexed his people:

6 So that his enemies fledde for feare of him, and al the workers of vngodlines were put to trouble: such lucke and prosperity was in his hand.

7 This grieued diuers kings: but Jacob was greatly reioyced through his actes, and he gate himselfe a great name for euer.

8 He went thorow the cities of Juda, destroying the vngodly out of them, turning away the wrath from Israel, 9 And receiuing such as were oppressed: & the fame of him went vnto the vttermost part of the earth.

10 Then Apollonius a prince of Syria, gathered a mightie great host of the heathen, and out of Samaria, to fight against Israel:

11 Which when Judas perceiued, hee went foorth to meete him, fought with him, slewe him, and a great multitude with him: the remnant fledde, and hee tooke their substance.

12 Judas also tooke Apollonius owne sword, and fought with it all his life long.

13 Nowe when Seron, a prince of the armie of Syria, heard say that Judas had gathered vnto him the congregation and Church of the faithfull, 14 Hee sayd, I will get me a name and a prayse throughout the Realme: for I will go fight with Judas & them that are with him, as many as haue despised the kings commandement.

15 So he made him readie, & there went with him a great mightie host of the vngodly to stand by him, and to bee auenged of the children of Israel.

16 And when they came nigh vnto Bethoron, Judas went foorth against them with with a small companie.

17 And when his people saw such a great host before them, they sayde vnto Judas, Howe are wee able being so fewe to fight against so great a multitude, and so strong, seeing wee bee so wearie, and haue fasted all this day?

18 But Judas saide, It is a small matter for many to bee ouercome with fewe: yea, there is no difference to the God of heauen, to deliuer by a great multitude, or by a small companie:

19 For the victorie of the battaile standeth not in the multitude of the host, but the strength commeth from heauen.

20 Beholde, they come against vs with a cruel and proud multitude, to destroy vs, our wiues and our children, and to rob vs:

21 But wee will fight for our liues, and for our lawes,

22 And the Lorde himselfe shall destroy them before our face: therefore be not yee afrayde of them.

23 As soone as he had spoken these words, he leapt suddenly vpon them: Thus was Seron smitten, and his host put to flight, 24 And Judas followed vpon them beyond Bethoron, vnto the plaine field, where there were slain eight hundred men of them, and the residue fled into the land of the Philistines.

25 Then all the heathen on euery side were afraid of Judas and his brethren:

Or, fame. 26 So that the ‖ rumour of him came vnto the kings eares: for all the Gentiles could tell of the warres of Judas.

27 So when king Antiochus heard these tidings, hee was angry in his mind: wherefore he sent forth, and gathered an host of his whole realme, very strong armies:

28 And opened his treasurie, and gaue his host a yeeres wages in hand, commaunding them to be readie at all times.

29 Neuertheless, when he saw that there was not money inough in his treasuries, & that through the discord & persecution which he made in the land, to put downe the lawes that had bene of old times, his customes and tributes of the land were minished:

30 He feared that hee was not able for to beare the costs and charges any longer, nor to haue such gifts to giue so liberally as hee did afore, more then the kings that were before him.

31 Wherefore he was heauie in his mind, and thought to goe vnto Persides, for to take tributes of the lande, and so to gather much money.

32 So hee left Lysias, a noble man of the kings blood, to ouersee the kings businesse, from the water Euphrates, vnto the borders of Egypt:

33 And to keepe wel his sonne Antiochus till he came againe.

34 Moreouer, he gaue him halfe of his host, and Elephants, and committed vnto him euery thing, and gaue him the charge of all things that hee would haue done concerning those which dwelt in Juda and Hierusalem:

35 That he should send out an army against them, to destroy and roote out the power of Israel, and the remnant of Hierusalem, to put out their memoriall from that place:

36 To set strangers for to inhabite all their quarters, and to part their lande among them.

37 Thus the king tooke the other part of the host, and departed from Antioch, a citie of his realme, ouer the water Euphrates, in the hundred and fourtie and seuen yere, and went thorow the high countreys.

38 And Lysias chose vnto him Ptolome the sonne of Dorymenius, Nicanor, & Gorgias, mightie men, and the kings friends. Iosephi.cap. 10, lib. ant.

39 These he sent with fourtie thousande footemen, and seuen thousand horsemen, for to go into the land of Juda, and to destroy it, as the king commanded.

40 So they went forth with all their power, & came to Emmaus into the plaine field.

41 When the marchants of the countrey heard the rumor of them, they and their seruants tooke very much siluer and gold, for to buy the children of Israel to bee their bondmen: there came vnto them also yet mo men of warre on euery side, out of Syria, & from the Palestines.

42 Nowe when Judas and his brethren saw that trouble encreased, and that the host drewe nigh vnto their borders, considering the kings words which he commanded vnto the people, namely, that they should vtterly waste and destroy them:

43 They saide one to another, Let vs redresse the decay of our people, let vs fight for our folke, and for our sanctuarie.

44 Then the congregation were soone readie gathered to fight, to pray, & to make supplication vnto God for mercie and grace.

45 As for Hierusalem it lay void, and was as it had bene a wildernesse: there were no man in nor out at it, and the sanctuarie was troden downe, the aliants kept the castle, there was the habitation of the heathen, the mirth of Jacob was taken away, the Pipe & the Harpe was gone from among them.

46 The Israelites gathered them together, & came to Maspha before Hierusalem: for in Maspha was the place where they prayed afore time in Israel.

47 So they fasted that day, and put sackcloth vpon them, cast ashes vpon their heads, rent their clothes,

48 And laide forth the bookes of the law, wherein the heathen sought to paint the likenesse of their images,

49 And brought the Priests ornaments, the firstlings, and the tithes: they set there also the Nazarites, which had accomplished their ‖ vowes before God,

Or, dayes,

50 And

50 And cried with a loude voice towarde heauen, saying, What shal we do with these, and whither shall we cary them away?

51 For thy sanctuarie is troden downe and defiled, the Priests are come to heauines and dishonour.

52 And behold, the heathen are come together for to destroy vs: thou knowest what things they imagine against vs.

53 Howe may wee stand before them, except thou (O God) be our helpe?

54 Then they blew out the trumpet also with a loude voyce.

55 Then Judas ordeyned captaines ouer the people, ouer thousands, ouer hundreds, ouer fiftie, and ouer ten.

Deut.20.5. iudi.7.3. 56 *But as for such as builded them houses, maried wiues, planted them vineyards, and those that were fearefull, he commaunded them euery man to goe home againe acding to the law.

57 So the host remoued, and pitched vpon the South side of Emmaus.

58 And Judas said, Arme your selues, be strong, O my children, make you ready against to morow in the morning, that ye may fight with these people, which are agreed together to destroy vs and our sanctuarie.

59 Better is it for vs to die in battaile, then to see our people and our sanctuarie in such a miserable case.

60 Neuerthelesse, as thy will is, O God in heauen, so be it.

The iiij. Chapter.

Iudas goeth against Gorgias, which lieth in waite.

Ioseph.lib. 12.cap.10. THen tooke Gorgias fiue thousand men of foot, & a thousand of the best horsemen, & remoued out of the campe by night,

2 To come nigh where the Iewes host lay, and so to slay them suddenly: (Now the men that kept the castle, were the conuoyers of them.)

3 Now when Judas heard this, he remoued, and all the strong men that were with him, to smite the chiefe and principall of the kings host at Emmaus:

4 For the armie was not yet come together.

5 In the meane season came Gorgias by night vnto Judas tents, and when he found no man there, he sought them in the mountaines, and thought they had bene fled away beecause of him.

6 But when it was day, Judas shewed himself in the field with three thousand men only, which had neither harnesse, nor swords to their minds.

7 But on the other side they saw that the heathen were mightie, and well harnessed, and their horsemen about them, and all these well expert in feates of warre.

8 Then said Judas to the men that were with him, Feare not yee the multitude of them, be not afraid of their violent running.

9 *Remember how our fathers were deliuered in the red sea, when Pharao followed vpon them with a great host. Exod.14.9.

10 Euen so let vs also crie nowe toward heauen, and the Lord shall haue mercy vpon vs, and remember the couenant of our fathers, yea, and destroy this host before our face this day:

11 And all the heathen shal know that it is God himself which deliuereth and saueth Israel.

12 Then the heathen lift vp their eies, and when they saw that they were comming against them, 13 They went out of their tents into the battaile, and they that were with Judas blew vp the trumpets.

14 So they buckled together, and the heathen were discomfited, & fled ouer the plaine field:

15 But the hindmost of them were slaine with the sword: for they followed them vnto ‖Allaremath, and into the fields of Idumea towarde Azot and Jamnia: so that there were slaine of them vpon a three thousande men. ‖Or, Gazeron.

16 So Judas turned again with his host,

17 And said vnto the people, Be not greedie of the spoiles, wee haue yet a battaile to fight.

18 For Gorgias and his host are here by vs in the mountaines, but stande yee fast against our enemies, and ouercome them, then may ye safely take the spoyles.

19 As Judas was speaking these words, beholde, there appeared one part of them vpon the mount.

20 But when Gorgias saw that they of his part were fled, and the tents burnt vp (for by the smoke they might vnderstande what was done) they perceyuing this, were verie sore afraide:

21 And when they saw also that Judas and his hoste were in the field readie to strike battaile, 22 They fledde euery one into the land of the heathen.

23 So Judas turned againe to spoyle the tents, where they gate much golde, and siluer, precious stones, purple, and great riches.

24 Thus they went home, and sung a song of thankesgiuing, and praysed God in heauen: for hee is gracious, and his mercie endureth for euer.

25 And so Israel had a great victorie in that day.

26 Nowe all the heathen that escaped, came and told Lysias euery thing that had happened.

27 Wherefore Lysias was sore afrayde, and grieued in his minde, because Israel had not gotten such misfortune as he would they shoulde, neither as the king commaunded.

28 The next yeere following, gathered Lysias

Lysias threescore thousand cholen men of foote, and fiue thousand horsemen, to fight against Hierusalem.

29 So they came into Iurie, and pitched their tents at Bethoron: where Iudas came against them with ten thousand men.

30 And when he sawe so great and mighty an hoste, he made his prayer, & said, Blessed be thou, O sauioure of Israel, *which didest destroy the violent power of the giant in the hand of thy seruant Dauid, * and gauest the hoste of the heathen into the hand of Ionathan & sonne of Saul, and of his harnessebearer.

1 Reg. 17. 49.
1 Reg. 14. 13.

31 Put this hoste nowe into the hande of thy people of Israel, & let them bee confounded in their multitude and horsemen.

32 Make them afraid, and discomfite the boldnesse of their strength, that they may bee mooued through their destruction.

33 Cast them downe through the sword of thy louers, then shall all they that knowe thy name, praise thee with thanksgiuing.

34 So they stroke the battell, and there were slaine of Lysias hoste fiue thousande men.

35 Then Lysias seeing the discomfiting of his men, and the manlines of the Iewes, howe they were readie either to liue or to die like men: hee went into Antioch, and chose out men of warre, that when they were gathered together, they might come againe into Iurie.

36 Then said Iudas and his brethren, Beholde, our enemies are discomfited, let vs nowe goe vp to cleanse and repaire the Sanctuarie.

37 Upon this, all the host gathered them together, and went vp into mount Sion.

38 Now when they saw the Sanctuarie laid waste, the altar defiled, the doores burnt vp, the shrubbes growing in the courtes like as in a wood, or vpon mountaines, yea, and that the priests chambers were broken downe,

39 They rent their clothes, and made great lamentation, cast ashes vpon their heads, 40 fell downe flat to the ground vpon their faces, made a great noyse with the trumpets, and cried toward heauen.

41 Then Iudas appointed certaine men to fight against those which were in the castle, till they had cleansed the sanctuarie.

42 So hee chose Priestes that were vndefiled, such as had pleasure in the lawe of God:

43 And they cleansed the Sanctuarie, and bare out the defiled stones into an vncleane place.

44 And for so much as the altar of burnt offerings was vnhalowed, hee tooke aduisement what he might do withall.

45 So he thought it best to destroy it, least it should happen to doe them any shame, for the heathen had defiled it: and therefore they brake it downe, 46 As for the stones, they laid them vp vpon the mountaine by the house in a conuenient place, till there came a Prophet to shewe what should be done with them.

47 So they tooke whole stones, according to the law, and builded a new altar, such one as was before,

48 And made vp the Sanctuarie within and without, and halowed the houses and the courts:

49 They made new holy ornaments, and brought the candlestick, the altar of incense, and the table, into the Temple:

50 The incense laied they vpon the altar, and lighted the lamps which were vpon the candlesticke, that they might burne in the Temple:

51 They set the shew bread vpon the table, and hanged vp the vaile, and finished all the workes which they had begun to make.

52 And vpon the twentie and fifth day of the ninth moneth (which is called the moneth of ‖ Casleu) in the hundred, fourtie, and eight yeere, ‖ Nouember

53 They rose vp betimes in the morning, for to doe sacrifice according to the law, vpon the newe burnt offering altar that they had made.

54 After the time and season that the heathen had defiled it, the same day was it set vp againe, with songs, pipes, harpes, and cymbals.

55 And all the people fel vpon their faces, worshipping and thanking the God of heauen, which had giuen them the victorie.

56 So they kept the dedication of the altar eight dayes, offering burnt sacrifices and thanke offering with gladnesse:

57 They dect the forefront of the Temple also with crownes and shieldes of golde, and halowed the portes and celles, and hanged doores vpon them.

58 Thus there was very great gladnesse among the people, because the blasphemie of the heathen was put away.

59 *So Iudas and his brethren, with the whole congregation of Israel, ordeined that the time of the dedication of the altar should be kept in his season from yeere to yeere, by the space of eight dayes, from the twentie and fifth day of the moneth ‖ Casleu, with mirth and gladnesse. ‖ Nouember. John 10. 22

60 And at the same time builded they vp the mount Sion, with high walles and strong towres round about, least the Gentiles should come and tread it downe as they did afore.

61 Therefore Iudas set men of warre in it, to keepe it, and made it strong for to defend Bethsura, that the people might haue a refuge against the Edomites.

The v. Chapter.

Iudas vanquisheth the Heathen that goe about to destroy Israel, and is holpen of his brethren Simon and Ionathas.

It

Ioseph. cap. xii. lib. xiii.

IT happened also, that when the heathe round about heard how that the altar & the sanctuarie were set vp in their olde estate, it displeased them very sore.

2 Wherefore they thought to destroy the generation of Jacob that was among them: in so much that they began to slay and to persecute certaine of the people.

3 Then Judas fought against the children of Esau in Idumea at Arabathane: for they dwelt round about the Israelites, where hee slew and spoiled a great multitude of them.

4 He thought also vpon the malice and vnfaithfulnes of the children of Bean, how they were a snare and stop vnto the people, & how they laid wait for them in the high way.

5 Wherefore he shut them vp into the towers, and came vnto them, besieged them, and destroyed them vtterly, and burnt vp their towers, with all that were in them.

6 Afterward went he against the children of Ammon, whereof he found a mightie power, and a great multitude of people with Timothie their captaine.

7 So he stroke many battels with them, which were destroyed before him.

8 And when he had slaine them, hee wan Gazer the citie, with the townes belonging thereto, and so turned againe into Jurie.

9 The heathen also in Galaad gathered thē together against the Israelites that were in their quarters, to slay them: but they fled to the castle of Datheman,

10 And sent letters vnto Judas and his brethren, saying, The heathen that are about vs, are gathered against vs on euerie side, to destroy vs:

11 And now they make them readie for to come and lay siege to the castle whereunto we are fled, and Timothie is captaine of their hoste.

12 Come therefore, and deliuer vs out of their hands, for there is a great multitude of vs slaine alreadie.

13 Yea, and our brethren that were at Tubin are slayne and destroyed, well nigh a thousand men, and their wiues, their children, and their goods haue the enemies led away captiue.

14 While these letters were yet a reading, beholde, there came other messengers frō Galilee with rent clothes, which tolde euen the same tidings, 15 And sayde, that they of Ptolemais, of Tyrus, and of Sidon, were gathered against them, and that all Galilee was filled with ‖ enemies to destroy Israel.

‖ Or, strangers.

16 When Judas & the people heard this, they came together a great congregation, to deuise what they might do for their brethren that were in trouble, and besieged of their enemies.

17 And Judas sayd vnto Simon his brother, Choose thee out certaine men, and goe, deliuer the brethren in Galilee: as for me and my brother Jonathas, wee will goe into Galaaditim.

18 So hee left Josephus the sonne of Zacharie, and Azarias to be captaines of the people, to keepe the remnant of the hoste in Jurie, 19 And commanded them, saying, Take the ouersight of this people, and see that ye make no warre against the heathen, vntill the time that we come againe.

20 And vnto Simon he gaue three thousand men, for to goe into Galilee: but Judas himselfe had eight thousand in Galaaditim.

21 Then went Simon into Galilee, and stroke diuers battels with ỹ heathen, whom he discomfited, 22 And followed vpon them into the port of Ptolemais: and there were slayne of the heathen almost three thousand men.

23 So he tooke the spoiles of them, and caried away the Israelites that were in Galilee and Arbatis, with their wiues, their children, and al that they had, and brought them into Jurie with great gladnesse:

24 Judas Machabeus also, and his brother Jonathas, went ouer Jordan, & trauailed three dayes iourney in the wildernesse:

25 Where the Nabathees met them, and receiued them louingly, and told them euery thing that had happened vnto their brethren in Galaaditim:

26 And how that many of them were besieged in Barasa, Bosor, Alimis, Casbon, Mageth, and Carnaim (all these are strong walled and mightie great cities,)

27 And that they were kept in other cities of Galaaditim also, and to morowe they are appointed to bring their hoste vnto these cities, to take them, and to destroy them in one day.

28 So Judas and his hoste turned in all the haste in the wildernesse towarde Bosor, and wan the citie, slewe all the males with the sword, tooke all their goods, and set fire vpon the citie:

29 And in the night they tooke their iourney from thence, and came to the castle:

30 And betimes in the morning when they looked vp, beholde, there was an innumerable people bearing ladders and other instruments of warre, to take the castle, and to ouercome them.

31 When Judas saw that the battaile began, and that the noyse thereof went vp and rang into the heauen, and that there was so great a crie in the citie,

32 He saide vnto his hoste, Fight this day for your brethren:

33 And so came behinde their enemies in three companies, and blew vp the trumpets, and cried in their prayer to God.

34 But so soone as Timotheus hoste perceiued that Machabeus was there, they fled from him: and hee slewe them right fore, so that that there were killed of them the same day almost eight thousand men.

35 Then departed Judas vnto Maspha, layd siege vnto it, and wanne it, slewe all the males in it, spoyled it, and set fire vpon it.

36 From thence went hee and tooke Calbon, Mageth, Boloz, and the other cities in Galaatim.

37 After this gathered Timothie another hoste, which pitched their tentes before Raphon, beyond the water.

38 Judas also sent to spie the hoste, and they brought him worde againe, saying, All the heathen that be rounde about vs, are gathered vnto him, and the hoste is very great:

39 Yea, they haue hyred the Arabians to helpe them, and haue pitched their tentes beyond the water, and are ready to come and fight against thee. So Judas went on to meete them.

40 And Timothie said vnto the captaines of his hoste, When Judas and his hoste come nigh the riuer, if he goe ouer first, we shal not be able to withstand him: for why? he wil be too strong for vs.

41 But if hee dare not come ouer, so that he pitch his tent beyond the water: then wil wee goe ouer, for wee shall be strong ynough against him.

42 Nowe as soone as Judas came to the riuer, hee appointed certaine scribes of the people by the riuer, and commaunded them, saying, See that ye leaue none behinde vpon this side of the riuer, but let euery man come to the battell.

43 So he went first ouer vnto them, and all his people after him, and all the heathen were discomfited before him, and let their weapons fall, and ranne into the Temple that was at Carnaim,

44 Which citie Judas wanne, and burnt the Temple, with all that were in it: So was Carnaim subdued, and might not withstand Judas.

45 Then Judas gathered all the Israelites that were in Galaaditim, from the least vnto the most, with their wiues and their children, a very great hoste, for to come into the land of Israel.

46 So they came vnto Ephron, which was a mightie, great, and strong citie, and lay in their way: for they could not goe by it, neither on the right hande, nor on the left, but must goe thorow it.

47 Neuertheless, they that were in the citie would not let them goe thorowe, but walled vp the portes with stones: and Judas sent vnto them with peaceable wordes, saying,

48 Let vs passe thorowe your lande, that wee may goe into our owne countrey, there shall no body doe you harme, we will but only goe thorowe on foote. But they would not let them in.

49 Wherefore Judas commaunded a proclamation to be made throughout the hoste, that euery man should assault the citie in his order.

50 And so they did their best, like valiant men: and Judas besieged the citie all that day, and all that night, and so wanne it:

51 Where they slewe as many as were males with the edge of the sworde, and destroyed the citie, and spoiled it, and went thorow all the citie ouer them that were slaine.

52 Then went they ouer Jordane, into the plaine fielde before Bethsan.

53 And Judas helped those forward that came behinde, and gaue the people good exhortation all the way through, til they were come into the land of Juda.

54 Thus they went vp vnto the mount Sion, where they offered whole burnt offerings with mirth and thanksgiuing, because there were none of them slaine, but came home againe peaceably.

55 Now what time as Judas and Jonathas were in the land of Galaad, and Simon their brother in Galilee before Ptolomais:

56 Then Josephus the sonne of Zacharie, and Azarias, the captaines, hearing of the actes that were done, and of the battailes that were stricken, said, 57 Let vs get vs a name also, and go fight against the heathen that are round about vs.

58 So they gaue their hoste a commandement, and went toward Jamnia.

59 Then came Gorgias and his men out of the citie to fight against them:

60 Josephus also and Azarias were chased vnto the borders of Jurie, and there were slaine that day of the people of Israel two thousand men: so that there was a great miserie among the people of Israel, 61 And all because they were not obedient vnto Judas & his brethren, but thought they should quit themselues manfully.

62 Neuertheles, they came not of the seed of these men by whom Israel was helped.

63 But the men that were with Judas, were greatly commended in the sight of all Israel, and al the heathen whereseuer their name was heard vpon.

64 And the people came vnto them, bidding them welcome.

65 After this went Judas forth with his brethren, and fought against the children of Esau in the lande that lyeth towarde the South, where he wanne the citie of Hebron, and the townes that lie beside it: and as for the walles and towres round about it, hee burnt them vp.

66 Then remoued he to goe into the land of the ‖ Philistines, and went thorowe Samaria. ‖ Or, strangers.

67 At the same time were there many priests slaine in the battaile, which wilfully and without aduisement went out for to fight to get them honour.

68 And when Judas came to Azot, in the Philistines lande, hee brake downe their altars, burnt the images of their idoles, ſpoyled their cities, and came againe into the land of Juda.

The vj. Chapter.

Antiochus willing to take the citie of Elimas for a praye, is driuen away of the citizens.

NOw when king Antiochus trauailed thorowe the high countreyes, hee heard that Elimas in Perſia was a noble and plenteous citie in ſiluer and golde,

2 And that there was in it a very riche temple, whereas were clothes, coate armours, and ſhields of gold, which Alexander the ſonne of Philip king of Macedonia that reigned firſt in Grecia had left behinde him.

3 Wherefore he went about to take the citie, and to ſpoyle it, but hee was not able: for the citizens were warned of it, and fought with him.

4 And ſo he fled, and departed with great heauineſſe, and came againe into Babylon.

5 Moreouer, there came one which brought him tydings in Perſia, that his hoſtes which were in the land of Juda were driuen away:

6 And howe that Lyſias went forth firſt with a great power, and was driuen away of the Jewes, howe that they had wonne the victorie, and gotten great goods out of the hoſtes that periſhed:

7 Howe they had broken downe the abomination which hee ſet vp vpon the altar at Hieruſalem, and fenced the ſanctuarie with high walles, like as it was afore, yea, and Bethſura his citie alſo.

8 So it chaunced, that when the king heard theſe wordes, he was afraide, and grieued very ſore: wherefore he layde him downe vpon his bedde, and fell ſicke for very ſorrow, and all becauſe it had not happened as hee had deuiſed.

9 And there continued hee long: for his griefe was euer more and more, ſo that hee ſawe he muſt needes die.

10 Therefore he ſent for all his friendes, and ſaide vnto them, The ſleepe is gone from mine eyes, for the very ſorrowe and veration of heart that I haue.

11 For when I conſider in my minde the great aduerſitie that I am come vnto, and the floods of heauineſſe which I am come in, whereas aforetime I was ſo merie, and ſo greatly ſet by, by reaſon of my power:

12 Againe, conſidering the euill that I haue done at Hieruſalem, from whence I tooke all the riches of golde and ſiluer that were in it, and ſent to deſtroy the inhabiters of Jurie without any reaſon why:

13 I know that theſe troubles are come vpon mee for the ſame cauſe: and beholde, I muſt die with great ſorrowe in a ſtraunge lande.

14 Then called he for one Philip, a friend of his, whome hee made ruler of all his realme, 15 And gaue him the crowne, his robe, and his ring, that hee ſhoulde take his ſonne Antiochus vnto him, and bring him vp, till he might reigne himſelfe.

16 So the king Antiochus dyed there, in the hundred, fourtie and nine yeere. Ioſeph. cap. 14. lib. 12.

17 When Lyſias knew that the king was dead, hee ordeined Antiochus his ſonne, whom he had brought vp, to reigne in his fathers ſteade, and called him Eupator.

18 Nowe they that were in the caſtle at Hieruſalem, kept in the Jewes rounde about the Sanctuarie, and ſought euer ſtill to doe them harme, and the ſtrengthening of the heathen.

19 Wherefore Judas thought to deſtroye them, and called all the people together, that they might lay ſiege vnto them.

20 So they came together in the hundred and fiftie yeere, and beſieged them, laying forth their ordonance and inſtruments of warre.

21 Then certaine of them that were beſieged, went forth: vnto whom ſome vngodly men of Iſrael ioyned themſelues alſo, 22 And went vnto the king, ſaying, How long will it bee yer thou puniſh, and auenge our brethren?

23 We haue euer bene minded to doe thy father ſeruice, to walke in his ſtatutes, and to obey his commandements:

24 Therefore our people fell from vs, and whereſoeuer they found any of vs, they ſlue them, and ſpoyled our inheritance.

25 And they haue not onely medled with vs, but with all our countreyes.

26 And beholde, this day are they beſieging the caſtle at Hieruſalem, to take it, and haue made vp the ſtrong holde at Bethſura.

27 And if thou doeſt not preuent them right ſoone, they will do more then theſe, and thou ſhalt not be able to ouercome them.

28 When the king heard this, he was very angrie, and called all his friendes, the captaines of his armie, and all his footemen and horſemen:

29 Hee hired men of warre alſo of other realmes, perteining to the kings that were confederate with him, and of the Iles of the ſea, which came vnto him.

30 And the number of his hoſte was an hundred thouſande footemen, and twentie thouſande horſemen, and thirtie and two Elephants well exerciſed to battel.

31 Theſe came thorowe Idumea vnto Bethſura, and beſieged it a long ſeaſon, and made diuers inſtruments of warre againſt it: but the Jewes came out and burnt them with fire, and fought like men.

32 Then departed Judas from the caſtle at Hieruſalem, and remoued the hoſte toward Bethzacharan, ouer againſt ꝑ kings armie.

33 So the king aroſe before the day, and brought the power of his hoſt into the way to Bethzacharan, where the hoſtes made them ready to the battaile, blowing the trumpets.

34 And

34 And to prouoke the Elephants for to fight, they shewed them the lappe of redde grapes and mulberies,

35 And diuided the Elephants among the hoste: so that by euery Elephant there stoode a thousand men well harnessed, and helmets of steele vpon their heades: yea, vnto euery one of the Elephants also were ordeined fiue hundred horsemen of the best,

36 Which waited on the Elephant, going whereuoeuer he went, and departed not from him.

37 Euery Elephant was couered with a strong towre of wood, fastened thereon with instruments, whereupon were thirtie and two valiant men with weapons to fight, and with him was a man of Inde to rule the beast.

38 As for the remnant of the horsemen, he set them vpon both the sides in two partes, with trumpets to prouoke the hoste, and to stirre vp such as were slowe in the armie.

39 And when the sunne shone vpon their shieldes of golde and steele, the mountaines glistered againe at them, and were as bright as the creslets of fire.

40 The kings hoste also was diuided, one part vpon the high mountaines, the other lowe beneath: so they went on, taking good heede, and keeping their order.

41 And all they that dwelt in the lande, were afraide at the noyse of their hoste, when the multitude went forth, and when the weapons smote together: for the hoste was both great and mightie.

42 Iudas also and his hoste entred into the battell, and slue sixe hundred men of the kings armie.

43 Nowe when Eleazar the sonne of ‖ Saura did see one of the Elephants decked with the kings badge, and was a more goodly beast then the other, hee thought the King should be vpon him:

‖ Or, Abaron.

44 And ieoparded himselfe to deliuer his people, and to get him a perpetual name:

45 Wherefore, hee ranne with a courage vnto the Elephant in the middest of the host, smiting them downe on both the sides, and slue many about him.

46 So went hee to the Elephants feete, and gat him vnder him, [a] and slue him: then fel the Elephant downe vpon him, and there he died.

[a] The example not to be followed, should it be contrary to Gods lawes.

47 Iudas also and his men, seeing the power of the king, and the mightie violence of his hoste, departed from them.

48 And the kings armie went vp against them toward Hierusalem, and pitched their tentes in Iurie beside mount Sion.

49 Moreouer, the king tooke truce with them that were in Bethsura: but when they came out of the citie, because they had no victuals, but were shut vp within, and the land lay vntilled,

50 The king tooke Bethsura, and set men to keepe it, and turned his hoste to the place of the Sanctuarie, 51 And laide siege to it a great while, where hee made all maner ordinance, handbowes, fierie dartes, rachets to cast stones, scorpions to shoote arrowes, and slings.

52 The Iewes also made ordinance against theirs, and fought a long season.

53 But in the citie there were no victuals, for it was the seuenth yere of the warres, and those heathen that remayned in Iurie, had eaten vp all their store.

54 And in the sanctuarie were fewe men left: for the hunger came so vpon them, that they were scattered abroad, euery man to his owne place.

55 So when Lysias heard that Philip, whome Antiochus the king, while hee was yet liuing, had ordeined to bring vp Antiochus his sonne, that he might be king,

56 Was come againe out of Persia and Media with the kings hoste, and thought to obtaine the kingdome, with the gouernance of all things:

57 He gate him to the king in al the haste, and to the captaines of the host, and said, We decrease daily, and our victuals are but smal: againe, the place that we lay siege vnto is very strong, and it were our part to see for the the realme:

58 Let vs agree with these men, and take truce with them, and with all their people, 59 And graunt them to liue after their law as they did afore: for they be grieued, and doe all these thinges against vs, because we haue ‖ despised their lawe.

‖ Or, broken

60 So the king and the princes were content, and sent vnto them to make peace: and they receiued it.

61 Nowe when the king and the princes had made an othe vnto them, they came out of the castle,

62 And the king went vp to mount Sion: but when he saw that the place was well fenced, he brake the othe that hee had made, and commanded to destroy the wall rounde about.

63 Then departed he in all the haste, and returned vnto Antioche, where hee founde Philip hauing dominion of the citie: so hee fought against him, and tooke the citie againe into his hands.

The vij. Chapter.

1 Demetrius reigned after hee had killed Antiochus and Lysias.

IN the hundred fiftie and one yeere, came Demetrius the sonne of Seleucus, from the citie of Rome, with a small company of men, vnto a citie of the sea coast, and there he bare rule.

2 And when hee came to Antioche, the citie of his progenitours, his hoste tooke Antiochus and Lysias, to bring them vnto him.

3 But when it was told him, he said, Let me not see their faces.

4 So the hoste put them to death. Nowe when Demetrius was set vpon the throne of his kingdome,

5 There came vnto him wicked and vngodly men of Israel, whose captaine was Alcimus, that woulde haue bene made high Priest.

6 These men accused the people of Israel vnto the king, saying, Judas and his brethren haue slaine all thy friends, and driuen vs out of our owne land.

7 Wherefore, sende nowe some man to whome thou giuest credence, that hee may go, and see all the destruction which hee hath done vnto vs, and to the kings land, and let him be punished, with all his friends and fauourers.

8 Then the king chose Bacchides a friend of his, which was a man of great power in the realme beyonde the water, and faithfull vnto the king, and sent him to see the destruction that Iudas had done.

9 And as for that wicked Alcimus, hee made him high priest, and commanded him to be auenged of the children of Israel.

10 So they departed from the king and came with a great hoste into the lande of Iuda, sending messengers to Judas and his brethren, & speaking vnto them with peaceable wordes, but vnder deceit.

11 Therefore Judas and his people beleeued not their saying: for they sawe that they were come with a great hoste.

12 After this came the Scribes together vnto Alcimus and Bacchides, to entreate of reasonable couenants.

13 And the Assideans were the first amõg the children of Israel that required peace of them,

14 Saying, Alcimus the priest is come of the seede of Aaron, howe can hee deceiue vs, though he come with an armie?

15 So he gaue them louing wordes, and swore vnto them, and saide, We will doe you no harme, neither your friends.

16 And they beleeued him: but the very same day tooke hee threescore men of them, and slew them, according to the wordes that are written,

Psal.79.3. 17 They haue cast the *flesh of thy saints, and shedde their blood round about Hierusalem, and there was no man that woulde burie them.

18 So there came a great feare and dread among all the people, saying, There is neither trueth nor righteousnesse in them: for they haue broken the appointment and othe that they made.

19 And Bacchides remooued his hoste from Hierusalem, and pitched his tent at Bethzecha, where hee sent foorth and tooke many of them that had forsaken him: he slue many of the people also, and cast them into a great pit.

20 Then committed he the land vnto Alcimus, and left men of warre with him to helpe him: and Bacchides himselfe went vnto the king.

21 And thus Alcimus defended his high priesthood.

22 And all such as vexed Israel, resorted vnto him: in so much that they obtained the lande of Juda, and did much euill vnto the Israelites.

23 Nowe when Judas sawe all the mischiefe that Alcimus and his companie had done (yea more then the heathen themselues) vnto the Israelites, 24 Hee went foorth rounde about all the borders of Iurie, and punished those vnfaithfull runnagates, so that they came no more out into the countrey.

25 So when Alcimus sawe that Judas and his people had gotten the vpper hande, and that he was not able to abide them, hee went againe vnto the king, and laide all the worst of them that he could.

26 *Then the king sent Nicanor, one of his chiefe princes, which bare euill wil vnto Israel, and commanded him that he shoulde vtterly destroy the people. 2.Mac.

27 So Nicanor came to Hierusalem with a great hoste, and sent vnto Judas and his brethren with friendly wordes: but vnder deceit, saying, 28 There shall bee no warre betwixt mee and you, I will come with a fewe men, to see howe ye doe, with friendship.

29 Upon this hee came vnto Judas, and they saluted one another peaceably: but the enemies were appointed to take Judas by violence.

30 Nevertheless, it was told Judas that he came vnto him but vnder deceite, wherefore he gate him away from him, and would see his face no more.

31 When Nicanor perceiued that his counsell was bewrayed, hee went out to fight against Judas beside ‖ Capharsalama: ‖Or, Caphasalama 32 where there were slaine of Nicanors hoste fiue thousand men, and the residue fled vnto the citie of Dauid.

33 After this came Nicanor vppe vnto mount Sion, and the priests with the elders of the people, went forth to salute him peaceably, and to shew him the whole burnt sacrifices that were offered for the king.

34 But hee laughed them and the people to scorne, mocked them, defiled their offrings, and spake disdainefully:

35 Yea, and swore in his wrath, saying, If Judas and his hoste be not deliuered now into my handes, as soone as euer I come againe and farewell, I shall burne vp this house. With ỹ went he out in a great anger.

36 Then the priests came in, and stood before the altar of ỹ temple, weeping, & saying,

37 Forsomuch as thou, O Lord, hast chosen this house, that thy Name might bee called vpon therein, and that it shoulde bee an house of prayer and petition for thy people:

38 Be auenged of this man and his hoste, and let them be slaine wᵗ the sworde: remember the blasphemies of them, and suffer not

them to continue any longer.

39 When Nicanor was gone from Hierusalem, hee pitched his tent at Bethoron, and there an hoste met him out of Syria.

40 And Judas came to Adasa with three thousande men, and made his prayer vnto God, saying,

37.36. 41 "O Lorde, because the messengers of 4.24. king Sannacherib blasphemed thee, the an- ver. 8. gell went foorth, and slue an hundred fourescore and fiue thousande of them:

42 Euen so, destroy thou this hoste before vs this day, that other people may knowe howe that hee hath blasphemed thy Sanctuarie, and punish him according to his maliciousnesse.

43 And so the hostes stroke the fielde the thirteenth day of the moneth ‖ Adar, and Nicanors hoste was discomfited, and he him selfe was first slaine in the battell.

‖ Or, the Macedonians.

44 When Nicanors men of warre sawe that he was killed, they cast away their weapons, and fled:

45 But the Iewes followed vpon them a whole dayes iourney, from Adazer vnto Gazara, blowing with the trumpets, and making tokens after them.

46 So the Iewes came foorth of all the townes rounde about, and blewe out their bornes vpon them, and turned against them: thus were they all slaine, and not one of them left.

47 Then tooke they their substance for a pray, and smote off Nicanors head, and his right hande, which he helde vp so proudly, and brought it with them, and hanged it vp afore Hierusalem.

48 Wherefore the people were exceedingly reioyced, and passed ouer that day in great gladnesse.

49 And Judas ordeined that the same day, namely the thirteenth day of the moneth Adar, shoulde be kept in mirth euery yeere.

50 Thus the lande of Iuda was in rest a litle while.

The viij. Chapter.

1 Iudas considering the power and goodly pollicie of the Romanes, maketh peace with them. 22 The rescript of the Romanes sent vnto the Iewes.

IVdas heard also the fame of the Romanes, that they were mightie and valiant men, and agreeable to all thinges that are required of them, & make peace with all men which come vnto them.

2 And howe they were doughtie men of strength: besides that, it was tolde him of their battailes and noble actes which they did in ‖ Galatia, howe they had conquered them, and brought them vnder tribute,

3 And what great thinges they had done in Spaine: howe that with their wisedom and sober behauiour they had wonne the mines of siluer and golde that lie there,

4 And obteined all the lande, with other places farre from them: howe they had discomfited and slaine downe the kings that came vpon them from the vttermost part of the earth, and how other people gaue them tribute euery yeere:

5 Howe they had slaine and ouercome Philip and Perses kings of ‖ Cethim, and other moe in battel, which had brought their ordinance against them:

‖ Or, the Macedonians.

6 How they discomfited great Antiochus king of Asia, that woulde needes fight with them, hauing an hundred and twentie Elephants, with horsemen, charrets, and a very great hoste:

7 How they tooke him selfe aliue, and ordeined him, with such as shoulde reigne after him, to pay them a great tribute, yea and to finde them good sureties and pledges besides all this:

8 Howe they had taken from him India, Media, and Lydia, his best landes, and giuen them to king Eumenus.

9 Againe, how they perceiuing that the Greekes were comming to bere them,

10 Sent against them a captaine of an hoste, which gaue them battell, slewe many of them, ledde away their wiues and children captiue, spoyled them, tooke possession of their lande, and destroyed their strong holdes, and subdued them to be their bondmen vnto this day.

11 Moreouer, howe that as for other kingdomes & Iles, which sometime withstoode them, they destroyed them, & brought them vnder their dominion:

12 But kept amitie with their owne friendes, and those that were confederate with them, and conquered kingdomes both farre and nigh: and that whosoeuer heard of their renowme, was afraide of them.

13 For whome they would helpe to their kingdomes, those reigned: and whome it liked not them to reigne, they put them downe: and howe they were come to great preeminence,

14 Hauing no king among them, neither any man clothed in purple, to be magnified therethrough:

15 But had ordeined them selues a ‖ parliament, wherein there sate three hundred and twentie Senatours daily vpon the counsell, to dispatch euer the multitude of the people, and to keepe good order:

‖ Or, a counsaile, or Senate house.

16 And howe that euery yeere they chose a ‖ Maior, to haue the gouernance of al their lande, to whome euery man was obedient, and there was neither enuie nor, nor emulation among them.

‖ Or, one man.

17 Then Judas chose Eupolemus the sonne of John, the sonne of ‖ Jacob, and Jason the sonne of Eleazar, and sent them to Rome, for to make friendshippe, and a bond of loue with them,

‖ Or, Accus.

18 That they might take from them the bondage of the Greekes: for the Iewes sawe that the Greekes woulde subdue the kingdome of Israel.

19 So they went vnto Rome, a very great iourney, and came vnto the ‖ parliament, and said,

‖ Or, Senate house.

20 Judas Machabeus, with his brethren, and the people of the Jewes, hath sent vs vnto you, to make a bonde of friendshippe and peace with you, and yet to note vs as your louers and friendes.

21 And that matter pleased the Romanes right well.

22 Wherefore it was written vp: of the which the Romanes made a writing in tables of brasse, and sent it to Hierusalem, that they might haue by them a memoriall of the same peace and bonde of friendshippe after this maner:

23 God saue the Romanes and the people of the Jewes both by sea and by lande, and keepe the swoorde and enemie from them for euermore:

24 If there came first any warre vpon the Romanes, or any of their friendes throughout all their dominion, 25 The people of the Jewes shall helpe them, as the time requireth, and that with all their heartes.

26 Also they shall neither giue nor sende vnto their enemies victuals, weapons, money, nor ships: but fulfill their couenants at the Romanes pleasure, taking nothing of them therefore.

27 Againe, if the people of the Jewes happen first to haue warre, the Romanes shall stande by them with a good will, according as the time will suffer.

28 Neither shall they giue vnto the Jewes enemies victuals, weapons, money, or shippes: Thus are the Romanes content to doe, and shall fulfill their charge without any deceite.

29 According to these articles the Romanes made the bonde with the Jewes.

30 Nowe after these articles said they, If any of the parties will put to them, or take any thing from them, they shall doe it with the consent of both: and whatsoeuer they adde vnto them, or take from them, it shall stand fast.

31 And as touching the euill that Demetrius hath done vnto the Jewes, wee haue written vnto him, saying, wherefore layest thou thy heauie yoke vpon the Jewes our friendes and louers?

32 If they make any complaint of thee againe vnto vs, we shall defende them, and fight with thee by sea and by land according to iustice.

The ix. Chapter.

1 After the death of Nicanor, Demetrius sendeth his armie against Iudas. 18 Iudas is slaine.

IN the meane season, when Demetrius heard that Nicanor and his hoste was slaine in the fielde, hee proceeded further to sende Bacchides and Alcimus againe into Jurie, and the chiefe strength of his hoste with them.

2 So they went foorth by the way that leadeth vnto Galgala, and pitched their tents before Masaloth (which is in Arbelis) & wanne the citie, and slue much people.

3 In the first moneth of the hundred fiftie and two yeere, they brought their hoste, and laide their siege against Hierusalem:

4 But raising their campe, they came to Berea with twentie thousande footemen, and two thousand horsemen.

5 Nowe Judas had pitched his tent at ‖ Laisa, with three thousande chosen men, ‖ Or, Eleasa.

6 And when they sawe the multitude of the other armie that it was so great, they were sore afraide, and many conueyed them selues out of the hoste, in so much that there abode no moe of them but eight hundred men.

7 When Judas sawe that his hoste fayled him, and that he must needes fight, it brake his heart, that he had no time to gather them together: wherefore the man was in extreme trouble.

8 Neuertheless, he said vnto them that remained with him, Vp, let vs goe against our enemies, peraduenture we shall be able to fight with them.

9 But they woulde haue stopped him, saying, We shall not be able: therefore now let vs saue our liues, and turne againe to our brethren, for shoulde wee fight against them, being so fewe?

10 And Judas said, [a] God forbid that wee should flee from them: wherefore if our time be come, let vs die manfully for our brethren, and let vs not staine our honour.

[a] He which was wont to pray and ouercome, is ouercome when he trusteth in his strength, and omitteth prayer.

11 Then the hoste remooued out of the tents, and stood against them, and the horsemen were deuided in two partes: and sling casters and archers went before the hoste, and all the mightie men were foremost in the fielde.

12 Bacchides him selfe was in the right wing of the battell, and the hoste drewe nigh in two partes, and blewe the trumpets.

13 They of Judas side blewe the trumpets also, and the earth shooke at the noyse of the hostes: and they strake a fielde from the morowe till night.

14 And when Judas sawe that Bacchides hoste was strongest on the right side, he tooke with him all the hardie men, 15 And brake the right side of their order, & followed vpon them vnto mount Azot.

16 Nowe when they which were the left wing, sawe that the right wing was discomfited, they pursued Judas and them that were with him hard at the heeles.

17 Then was there a sore battell: for many

ny were slaine & wounded on both the parts.
18 Judas also him selfe was killed, and the remnant fled.
19 So Jonathas and Simon tooke Judas their brother, and buryed him in his fathers sepulchre in the citie of Modin.
20 And al the people of Israel made great lamentation for him, and mourned long, saying, 21 Alas that this worthie should be slaine, which deliuered the people of Israel.
22 As for other things pertaining to the battels of Judas, the noble acts that he did, and of his worthines, they are not written, for they were very many.
Iosephus cap. 4. lib. 12. antiq. 23 Now after the death of Judas, wicked men came vp in all the coastes of Israel, and there arose al such as did worke vngodlines.
24 In those dayes was there a great dearth in the lande, & all the countrey gaue ouer themselues & theirs vnto Bacchides.
25 So Bacchides chose wicked men, and made them lordes in the land.
26 These sought out and made search for Judas friendes, and brought them vnto Bacchides, which auenged himselfe vpon them with great despite.
27 And there came so great trouble in Israel, as was not since the time that no Prophet was seene there.
28 Then came all Judas friendes together, and said vnto Jonathas,
29 For so much as thy brother Judas is dead, there is none like him to goe forth against our enemies, against Bacchides, and such as are aduersaries of our owne people:
30 wherefore this day wee chuse thee for him, to bee our prince and captaine, to order our battell.
31 And Jonathas tooke the gouernance vpon him at the same time, & ruled in steade of his brother Judas.
32 When Bacchides gate knowledge thereof, he sought for to slay him.
33 But Jonathas and Simon his brother perceiuing that, fled into the wildernes of Thecua, with all their company, & pitched their tentes by the water poole of Asphar.
34 Which when Bacchides vnderstoode, he came ouer Jordane with all his hoste vpon the Sabboth day.
35 Now we had Jonathas sent his brother Iohn a captaine of the people, to pray his friendes the Nabuthites, that they would lend thē their ordinance, for they had much.
Or, Ambri. 36 So the children of ‖ Jambri came out of Madaba, and tooke John, and all that he had, and went their way withal when they had taken it.
37 Then came worde vnto Jonathas and Simon his brother, that the children of Jambri made a great mariage, and brought the bride from Madaba with great pompe: for shee was daughter to one of the noblest princes of Chanaan.
38 wherefore they remembred the blood of John their brother, and went vp, & hid themselues vnder the shadowe of the mountaine.
39 So they lift vp their eyes, and looked, and behold, there was much a do, and great preparation: for the bridegrome came forth, and his friendes and his brethren met them with Tympanies, instruments of musicke, and many weapons.
40 Then Jonathas, and they that were with him, rose out of their lurking places against them, and slewe many of them: and the remnant fled into the mountaines, and they tooke all their substance.
41 Thus the marriage was turned to mourning, and the noyse of the melodie into lamentation.
42 And so when they had auenged the a blood of their brother, they returned againe vnto Jordane.
a Blood doe th require blood.
43 Bacchides hearing this, came vnto the very border of Jordane, with a great power, vpon the Sabboth day.
44 And Jonathas saide to his companie, Let vs get vp, and fight against our enemies, for it standeth not with vs to day, as in time past.
45 Behold, our enemies are in our way, the water of Jordane vpon the one side of vs, with bankes, fennes, and woods on the other side, so that there is no place for vs to depart vnto.
46 wherefore cry now vnto heauen, that ye may be deliuered from the power of your enemies: So they strooke the battell.
47 And Jonathas stretched out his hand to smite Bacchides, but he fled backeward.
48 Then Jonathas, & they that were with him, lept into Jordane, and swimmed ouer Jordane vnto ỹ further banke: but the other would not passe ouer Jordane after him.
49 And there was slaine of Bacchides side that day a thousand men,
50 Therefore Bacchides with his hoste turned againe to Hierusalem, and built vp the castles and strong holdes that were in Jurie, Jericho, Emaus, Bethoron, Bethel, Thamnata, ‖ Phara, and ‖ Thapo, with high walles, with portes, and with lockes:
‖ Or, Pharathoni.
51 And set men to keepe them, that they might vse their malice vpon Israel.
‖ Or, Tepho
52 He walled vp the citie Bethsura, Gazara, and the castle, and prouided them with men and victuals.
53 He tooke also the chiefest mens sonnes in the countrey for pledges, and put them in the castle at Hierusalem to be kept.
54 After warde, in the hundred fiftie and three yeere, in the seconde moneth, Alcimus commaunded that they should destroy the walles of the inwarde court of the sanctuarie, and he pulled downe, and began to destroy the monuments of the Prophets.
55 But at the same time Alcimus was plagued, and smitten with a palsie, and his enterprise were hindered, and his mouth was stopped by God, so that hee could no more speake, nor command any of his house concerning his businesse.

56 Thus dyed Alcimus in great miserie at the same time.

57 And when Bacchides sawe that Alcimus was dead, hee turned againe to the king: and so the land was in rest two yeeres.

58 Then all the vngodly men helde a counsell, saying, Behold, Jonathas and his companie are at ease, & dwell without care, wherefore let vs bring Bacchides hither, and he shall take them all in one night.

56 So they went, and gaue Bacchides this counsell:

60 Which arose to come with a great host, and sent letters priuily to his adherents which were in Jurie, to take Jonathas and those that were with him: but they might not, for the other had gotten knowledge of their deuice.

61 And Jonathas tooke fiftie men of the countrey, which were the ringleaders of them, and slewe them.

62 Then Jonathas and Simon, with their cõpanie, departed vnto the citie ‖ Bethbasin, which lieth in the wildernes, and repaired the decay thereof, and made it strong. ‖Or, Bethbessen.

63 When Bacchides knewe this, hee gathered all his hoste, and sent worde to them that were in Jurie.

64 Then came he and laide siege to Bethbasin, and fought against it a long season, and made instruments of warre.

65 Nowe Jonathas left his brother Simon in the citie, and went forth himselfe into the countrey, and came with a certaine number, 66 And slewe ‖ Odomeras and his brethren, and the children of Phaseron in their tentes, so that he began to be strong, and to increase in power. ‖Or, Odareb.

67 As for Simon and his companie they went out of the citie, and burnt vp the instruments of warre, 68 And fought against Bacchides, and discomfited him: and Bacchides was sore vexed, because his counsell and trauell was in vaine.

69 Wherefore he was wroth at the wicked men a that gaue him counsell to come into their lande, and slewe many of them: then purposed he with his company to goe away into his owne countrey. a Wicked counsell falleth on the counsellers.

70 Whereof when Jonathas had knowledge, he sent ambassadours vnto him, for to make peace with him, and that he should deliuer him his prisoners againe.

71 To the which Bacchides consented gladly, and did according to his desire: yea, and made an othe that he shoulde neuer doe him harme all the dayes of his life.

72 So he restored vnto him all the prisoners that he had taken out of the land of Juda, and then turned and went his way into his owne land, neither proceeded he any further to come vnto the borders of Juda.

73 Thus Israel had no more warre, and Jonathas dwelt at Machmas, and began there to gouerne the people, and destroyed the vngodly men out of Israel.

The x. Chapter.

4 Demetrius desireth to haue peace with Ionathas. 48 Alexander mooueth warre against Demetrius. 50 Demetrius is slaine. 51 The friendship of Ptolemeus and Alexander.

IN the hundred and threescore yeere, came Alexander the sonne of ‖ noble Antiochus, and tooke Ptolomais, whose citizens receiued him, and there he reigned. ‖Or, Epiphanes.

2 When Demetrius heard thereof, he gathered an exceeding great hoste, and went forth against him to fight.

3 Wherefore Demetrius sent letters vnto Jonathas, with louing words, and prayed him greatly:

4 For he sayde, Wee will first make peace with him before he binde him selfe with Alexander against vs:

5 Els hee shall remember the euill that we haue done against him, his brother, and his people.

6 And so hee gaue Jonathas leaue to gather an hoste, to make weapons, and to bee confederate with him, and commaunded the pledges that were in the castle to bee deliuered vnto him.

7 Then came Jonathas to Hierusalem, and read the letters in the audience of all the people, and of them that were in the castle.

8 And therefore were they sore afraide, because they heard that the king had giuen him licence to gather an hoste.

9 Thus were the pledges deliuered vnto Jonathas, which restored them to their parents.

10 Jonathas also dwelt at Hierusalē, and began to build vp, and to repaire the citie:

11 Commanding the workemen to wall it, and the mount Sion rounde about with free stone, to be a strong hold: and so they did.

12 As for the heathen ẏ were in the castles which Bacchides had made vp, they fledde:

13 So that euery man left the place, and went into his owne countrey.

14 Only at Bethsura remained certaine of the Iewes, which had forsaken the lawe and commandements of God, for Bethsura was their refuge.

15 Nowe when king Alexander heard of the promises that Demetrius had made vnto Jonathas, and when it was tolde him of the battailes and noble actes which he and his brethren had done, and of the great trauels that they had taken,

16 He sayde, Where shall wee finde such a man: well, we will make him our friende, and be confederate with him.

17 Vpon this hee wrote a letter vnto him, with these words:

18 King

18 King Alexander saluteth his brother Jonathas,

19 We haue heard of thee, that thou art a valiant man, and meete to be our friend:

20 Wherefore this day wee ordeine thee to be the high priest of thy people, and to be called the kings friend, (vpon this he sent him a purple clothing, and a crowne of gold) that thou mayest consider what is for our profite, and keepe friendship toward vs.

21 So in the seuenth moneth of the hundred and threescore yeere, vpon the solemne feast day of the tabernacles, Jonathas put the holy raiment vpon him: then gathered he an hoste, and prepared many weapons.

22 Which when Demetrius heard, hee was maruailous sory,

23 And saide, Alas, what haue we done, that Alexander hath preuented vs, in getting the friendshippe of the Jewes for his owne defence?

24 Yet will I write louingly vnto them also, and promise them dignities & rewardes, that they may be of my side.

25 Whereupon he wrote vnto them these wordes, King Demetrius sendeth greeting vnto the people of the Jewes:

26 Whereas yee haue kept your couenant toward vs, and continued in our friendship, not inclining to our enemies, wee were glad when we heard thereof.

27 Wherefore remaine still, & be faithfull to vs, and wee shall well recompense you for the things that ye haue done on our part.

28 We shall release you of many charges, and giue you rewards.

29 And nowe I discharge you and all the Jewes from tributes, I forgiue you the customes of salt, and release you of the crowne taxes, of the third part of seede,

30 And halfe the fruite of trees, which is mine owne duetie, I doe release them from this day forth, so that they shall not be taken of the land of Juda, nor of the three cities which are added thereunto out of Samaria and Galilee, from this day forth for euermore.

31 Hierusalem also, with all thinges belonging thereto, shalbe holy and free, yea, the tithes and tributes shall pertaine vnto it.

32 As for the power of the castle which is at Hierusalem, I remit and giue it vnto the high priest, that he may set in it such men as he shall choose to keepe it.

33 I freely deliuer all the Jewes that are prisoners throughout all thy realme, so that euery one of them shall be free from paying any tribute, yea, euen of their cattell.

34 All the solemne feasts, Sabboths, new moones, the dayes appointed, the three daies before and after the feast, shall be free for all the Jewes in my realme.

35 So that in them no man shall haue power to do any thing, or to vexe any of them in any maner of cause.

36 There shal thirtie thousand also of the Jewes be written vp in the kings hoste, and haue their wages paide, as all other men of warre of the kings should haue: and of them shall be ordeined certaine to keepe the kings strong holdes, 37 Yea, and some of them shall be set ouer the kings secret affaires: & their gouernours and princes shalbe of themselues, and liue after their owne lawes, as the king hath commanded in the land of Juda.

38 And the three cities that are fallen vnto Jurie from the countrey of Samaria, shal be taken as Jurie, and be vnder one, neither be subiect to any strange lord, but to the high Priest.

39 As for Ptolomais and the land pertaining thereto, I giue it vnto the sanctuarie at Hierusalem, for the necessarie expences of the holy things.

40 Moreouer, I will giue euery yeere fifteene thousand sicles of siluer of the kings reuenues, out of the places appertayning vnto me.

41 And all the ouerplus which they haue not paid for things due, as they did in the former yeeres, from henceforth they shal giue it toward the workes of the temple.

42 And besides this, the fiue thousand sicles of siluer which they receiued yeerely of the accompt appointed for ỹ intertainement of the sanctuarie these yeeres passed, euen these things shalbe released, because they appertaine to the priestes that minister.

43 Item, whosoeuer they be that flee vnto the temple at Hierusalem, or within the liberties thereof, whereas they are fallen into the kings danger for any maner of businesse, they shalbe pardoned, and all the goods that they haue in my realme shalbe free.

44 For the building also and repairing of the worke of the sanctuarie, expences shalbe giuen out of the kings reuenues.

45 Yea, and for the making of the walles rounde about Hierusalem, for the breaking downe of the old, and for the setting vp of the strong holds in Jurie, shall the costes & charges be giuen out of the kings reuenues.

46 But when Jonathas and the people heard these wordes, they gaue no credence vnto them, neither receiued them: for they remembred the great wickednesse that hee had done vnto Israel, and howe sore he had vexed them.

47 Wherefore they agreed vnto Alexãder, for hee was a prince that had dealt friendly with them, and so they stood by him alway. Iosep. cap. 6 lib. 13.

48 Then gathered king Alexander a great hoste, and brought his armie against Demetrius.

49 So the two kings strooke battell together, but Demetrius host fled, and Alexander followed after, and fell vpon them.

50 A mightie sore field was it, continuing till the sunne went downe: and Demetrius was slaine the same day.

51 And Alexander sent Ambassadours vnto Ptolome the king of Egypt, with these wordes, wordes, saying,

52 Forlomuchas I am come againe to my realme, and am set in the throne of my progenitours, and haue gotten the dominion, ouercommed Demetrius,

53 Conquered our lande, and stricken a fielde with him, so that we haue discomfited both him and his hoste, and sit in the throne of his kingdome:

54 Let vs now make friendship together: giue me thy daughter to wife, so shal I be thy sonne in lawe, and both giue thee rewardes and her, according to thy dignitie.

55 Ptolome the king gaue answere, saying, Happy be ỹ day wherein thou art come againe to the land of thy progenitors, and set in the throne of their kingdome:

56 And now wil I fulfill thy writing: but meete me at Ptolomais, that we may see one another, and that I may marry my daughter vnto thee, according to thy desire.

57 So Ptolome went out of Egypt with his daughter Cleopatra, and came vnto Ptolomais in the hundred three score and two yeere, 58 Where king Alexander met him: and he gaue Alexander his daughter Cleopatra, and married them at Ptolomais with great worshippe, like as the maner of kings is to be.

59 Then wrote king Alexander vnto Jonathas, that he should come and meete him.

60 So hee went honourably vnto Ptolomais, and there he met the two kings, and gaue them and their friendes great presents of gold and siluer, and found fauour in their sight.

61 And there came together against Jonathas certaine wicked men ỹ vngratious persons of Israel, making complaints of him: but the king regarded them not.

62 As for Jonathas, the king commaunded to take off his garments, ỹ to clothe him in purple: and so they did. Then the king appointed him to sit by him, 63 And saide vnto his princes, Goe with him into the middest of the citie, and make a proclamation, that no man cõplaine against him of any matter, and that no man trouble him for any maner of cause.

64 So it happened, that when his accusers saw the worship which was proclaimed of him, and that hee was clothed in purple, they fled euery one.

65 And ỹ king made much of him, wrote him among his chiefe friendes, made him a duke, and partaker of his dominion.

Iosep. cap. 6 lib. 13. anti.

66 Thus Jonathas went againe to Hierusalem with peace and gladnesse.

67 In the hundred, threescore ỹ fifth yere, came Demetrius the sonne of Demetrius, from Creta, into his fathers land:

68 Whereof when Alexander heard tell, he was right sorie, ỹ returned vnto Antioch.

69 And Demetrius chose Apollonius, which had the gouernance of Coelosyria, to be his captaine: so he gathered a great hoste, and came vnto Jamnia, and sent word vnto Jonathas the high priest, saying, 70 Darest thou withstand vs thy selfe alone? As for me, I am but laughed to scorne and shamed, because thou diddest vaunt thy strength against vs in the mountaines.

71 Now therefore if thou trustest in thine owne strength, come downe to vs into the plaine fielde, and there let vs try the matter together, for thou shalt knowe that I haue the strength of many cities.

72 And shalt knowe who I am, and the other that stand by me, which say, That your foote is not able to stand before our face, for thy fathers haue beene twise chased in their owne land.

73 And nowe how wilt thou be able to abide so great an hoste of horsemen and footemen in the fielde, whereas is neither rocke, stone, nor place to flee vnto?

74 When Jonathas heard the wordes of Apollonius, hee was mooued in his minde, wherefore hee chose ten thousand men, and went out of Hierusalem: and Simon his brother met him, for to helpe him.

75 And they pitched their tents at Joppa: but the citie kept him forth, for Apollonius garison was in Joppa.

76 Then Jonathas laide siege to it, and they that were in the citie for very feare let him in: and so Jonathas wanne Joppa.

77 Apollonius hearing of this, tooke three thousand horsemen, with a great hoste on foote, ỹ went to Azotus, as though he would goe further, and came immediatly into the plaine fielde, because he had so many horsemen, and put his trust in them.

78 So Jonathas followed vpon him to Azotus, and the armie skirmished with his reereward, and there they strooke the battaile.

79 Nowe had Apollonius left a thousand horsemen behinde them priuily in the tents.

80 And when Jonathas knewe that such waite was laide behinde them, they went rounde about the enemies hoste, and shotte dartes at the people, from the morning to the euening.

81 As for Jonathas people, they kept their order as he had commaunded them, and the enemies horses were weary.

82 Then brought Simon forth his hoste, and set them against the footemen (for the horsemen were weary already:) and so he discomfited them, and they fled.

83 And they that were scattered in the field, gat them to Azotus, and came into the temple of Dagon their idole, that they might there saue their liues.

84 But Jonathas set fire vpon Azotus, and all the cities rounde about it, and tooke their goods, and burnt vp the temple of Dagon, with all them that were fled vnto it.

85 Thus were slaine and burnt weinigh eight thousand men.

86 So Jonathas remoued the hoste from thence, thence, and brought them to Ascalon, where the men of the citie came forth, and met him with great worship.

87 After this went Jonathas and his hoste againe to Hierusalem, with great substance of goods.

88 And when king Alexander heard these things, he thought to doe Jonathas more worship:

89 And sent him a collar of golde, as the vse is to be giuen vnto such as are of ẏ kings next blood: he gaue him also the citie of Accaron, with the landes belonging thereto in possession.

The xj. Chapter.

3 The dissention betweene Ptolemeus and Alexander his sonne in lawe. 17 The death of Alexander.

1 Macc. cap. 7 ver. 13.

AND the king of Egypt gathered an hoste like the sand that lieth vpon the sea shore, and many shippes, and went about through deceite to obteine the kingdome of Alexander, and to ioyne it vnto his owne realme.

2 Upon this hee tooke his iourney into Syria, vsing gentle wordes, so that he was letten into the cities, and men came foorth to meete him: for king Alexander had commanded them so to doe, because he was his father in lawe.

3 Nowe when Ptolome entred into any citie, he left men of warre to keepe it: and this he did throughout all the cities.

4 And when hee came to Azotus, they shewed him the temple of Dagon, & Azotus that was burnt vp, with the other things which were destroyed, the dead bodies cast abroade, and the graues that they had made by the wayes side for such as were slaine in the fielde,

5 And tolde the king that Jonathas had done all these things, to ẏ intent they might get him euill will, but the king said not one word thereto.

6 And Jonathas met the king with great honour at Joppa, where they saluted one an other, and tooke their rest.

7 So when Jonathas had gone with the king vnto the water that was called Eleutherus, he turned againe to Hierusalem.

8 Nowe Ptolome had gotten the dominion of the cities vnto Seleucia vpon the sea coast, imagining wicked counsels against Alexander, 9 And sent Ambassadours vnto Demetrius, saying, Come, let vs make a bonde betwixt vs, so shall I giue thee my daughter that Alexander hath, and thou shalt reigne in thy fathers kingdome.

10 I repent that I gaue Alexander my daughter, for he goeth about to slay me.

11 And thus he slandered Alexander, because he would haue had his realme.

12 Thus he tooke his daughter from him, gaue her vnto Demetrius, and forsooke Alexander, so that his malice was openly knowen.

13 And Ptolome came to Antioch, where he set two crownes vpon his owne head, the crowne of Egypt, and of Asia.

14 In the meane season was king Alexander in Cilicia: for they that dwelt in those places had rebelled against him.

15 But when Alexander heard of this, he came to warre against him: so king Ptolome brought forth his hoste, and met him with a mightie power, and chased him away.

16 Then fled Alexãder into Arabia, there to be defended: and king Ptolemeus honour increased.

17 And Zabdiel the Arabian smote off Alexanders head, and sent it vnto Ptolome.

18 But the third day after died king Ptolome himselfe, and they whom hee had set in the strong holdes, were slaine one of another.

19 And Demetrius reigned in the hundred threescore and seuenth yeere.

20 At the same time gathered Jonathas them that were in Jury, to lay siege vnto the castle which was at Hierusalem, and so they made many instruments of warre against it.

21 Then went there certaine vngodly persons, which hated their owne people, vnto king Demetrius, and tolde him that Jonathas besieged the castle.

22 So when he heard it, he was angrie, and immediatly came vnto Ptolomais, and wrote vnto Jonathas, that he should not lay siege to the castle, but come and speake with him at Ptolomais in all haste.

23 Neuertheless, when Jonathas heard this, he commanded to besiege it: he chose also certaine of the elders and priests of Israel, and put himselfe in perill, 24 And tooke with him golde, siluer, clothing, and diuers presents, and went to Ptolomais vnto the king, and founde him gratious.

25 And though certaine vngodly men of his owne people made cõplaints vpon him,

26 Yet the king intreated him like as his predecessours had done before, and promoted him in the sight of all his friendes,

27 Confirmed him in the high priesthood, with all the worship that hee had afore, and made him his chiefe friend.

28 Jonathas also desired the king that he would make Jurie free, with the three head cities of Samaria, and the lands perteining thereto: vpon this did Jonathas promise him three hundred talents.

29 Whereunto the king consented, and gaue Jonathas writing of the same, conteining these wordes.

30 King Demetrius sendeth greeting vnto his brother Jonathas, and to the people of the Jewes.

31 Wee send you here a copie of the letter which we did write vnto our cousin Lasthenus concerning you, that ye should know it.

32 King

32 King Demetrius sendeth greeting vnto Lasthenus his father.

33 For the faithfulnesse that our friendes the people of the Iewes keepe vnto vs, and for the louing kindnesse which they beare towarde vs, wee are determined to doe them good.

34 Wherefore we assigne vnto the coastes of Judea the three gouernments, Aferema, Lydda, and Ramatha, which are added vnto Jurie from Samaria, and all the lands perteining thereunto, to be freely separated for such as doe sacrifice in Hierusalem, both concerning the payments which the king tooke yeerely aforetime, and the fruite also of the earth and trees:

35 As for other tythes and tributes that belonged vnto vs, we discharge them thereof from this time forth.

36 In like maner wee graunt vnto them all the customes of salt, and crowne taxes, which were brought vnto vs: and this freedome shall they haue firme and stedfast from this time forth for euermore.

37 Therefore see that yee make a copie of these our letters, and deliuer it vnto Jonathas, that it may be set vpon the holy mount in a conuenient place.

38 After this, when Demetrius the king sawe that his land was in rest, & that no resistance was made against him, he sent away all his hoste, euery man to his owne place, except certaine bandes of strangers, whom hee brought from the Iles of the heathen: wherefore all his fathers hoste hated him.

39 Now was there one Triphon, that had bene of Alexanders part afore, which when he sawe that all the hoste murmured against Demetrius, hee went to Simalcue the Arabian, that brought vp Antiochus the sonne of Alexander, 40 And lay fore vpon him to deliuer him this yong Antiochus, that hee might reigne in his fathers steade: he tolde him also what great euill Demetrius had done, and howe his men of warre loued him not: and so remained there a long season.

41 And Jonathas sent vnto king Demetrius, to driue them out which were in the castell at Hierusalem, and those that were in the fortresses, for they did Israel great harme.

42 So Demetrius sent word vnto Jonathas, saying, I will not only doe these things for thee and thy people: but at time conuenient, I wil doe both thee and thy people great worship.

43 But nowe thou shalt do me a pleasure, if thou wilt send me men to helpe me: for all my armie is gone from me.

44 So Jonathas sent him three thousand strong men vnto Antioch, and they came vnto the king, wherefore the king was very glad at their comming.

45 But they that were of the citie, euen an hundred and twentie thousand men, gathered them together in the middest of the citie, and would haue slaine the king:

46 Which fled into his court, and the citizens kept the streetes of the citie, and began to fight.

47 Then the king called for the Iewes helpe, which came vnto him al together, and went abroade throwe the citie, 48 And slewe the same day an hundred thousande men, set fire vpon the citie, and gate many spoyles in that day, and deliuered the king.

49 So when the citizens sawe that the Iewes had gotten their will of the citie, and they themselues disappointed of their purpose, they made their supplication vnto the king, saying,

50 Grant vs peace, & let the Iewes ceasse from troubling vs and the citie.

51 And vpon this they cast away their weapons: thus they made peace, and the Iewes gate great worship in the sight of the king, and in the sight of all that were in his realme, and were spoken of throughout the kingdome: and so they came againe to Hierusalem with great goods.

52 So the king Demetrius sate in the throne of his kingdome, and had peace in his land.

53 Neuertheless, he dissembled in all that euer he spake, and withdrewe himselfe from Jonathas, neither rewarded him according to the benefites which he had done for him, but troubled him very sore.

54 After this came Tryphon againe with yong Antiochus, which reigned, and was crowned king.

55 Then there gathered vnto him all the men of warre, whom Demetrius had put away: these fought against Demetrius, which fled, and turned his backe.

56 So Tryphon tooke the Elephants, and wanne Antioche.

57 And yong Antiochus wrote vnto Jonathas, saying, I confirme thee in thy priesthoode, and make thee ruler of foure comtreys, that thou mayest be a friende of the kings.

58 Vpon this hee sent him golden vessels to be serued in, and gaue him leaue to drinke in gold, to be clothed in purple, and to weare a collar of gold.

59 He made his brother Simon also captaine from the coasts of Tyrus, vnto the borders of Egypt.

60 Then Jonathas tooke his iourney, and went throwe the cities beyond the water of Jordane, and all the men of warre of Syria gathered them vnto him for to helpe him: so he came vnto Ascalon, and they of the citie receiued him honourably.

61 And from thence went he to Gaza, but they would not let him in: wherefore he laid siege vnto it, burning vp and spoyling the places that were about the citie.

62 And ỹ citizens of Gaza submitted them selues selues vnto Jonathes, which made peace with him: but took of their sonnes to pledge, sent them to Hierusalem, and went thorowe the countrey vnto Damascus.

63 Now when Jonathas heard that Demetrius princes were come into Cades, which is in Galilee, with a great hoste, purposing to driue him out of the countrey, 64 He came against them, and left Simō his brother in the land.

65 And Simon came to Bethsura, and laid siege to it a long season, and discomfited them.

66 So they desired to haue peace with him: which he graunted them, & afterwarde put them out from thence, took the citie, and set men to kepe it.

67 And Jonathas with his hoste came to the water of Genelar, & betimes in the morning gate them to the plaine field of Azor.

68 And behold, the hostes of the heathen met them in the field, and laide watch for him in the mountaines, 69 So that whē Jonathas came against them, & other which were laid to watch, rose out of their places, and fought.

70 And they that were of Jonathas side fled euery man, and there was not one of thē left except Mathathias the sonne of Absalomus, and Judas the sonne of Calphi the captaine of the hoste.

71 Then Jonathas rent his clothes, laide earth vpon his head, & made his prayer.

72 And turned againe to them in the field, where they fought together, and he put thē to flight.

73 Now when his owne men that were fled, saw this, they turned againe vnto him, and helped him to follow vpon all their enemies vnto their tentes at Cades, and there they camped.

74 So there were slaine of the heathen the same day three thousand men: & Jonathas turned againe to Hierusalem.

The xii. Chapter.

1 Ionathas sendeth ambassadours to Rome, 2 and to the people of Sparta, to renue their couenans of friendship. 20 Ionathas putteth to flight the princes of Demetrius. 40 Tryphon taketh Ionathas by deceite.

IOnathas seeing that the time was meete for him, chose certaine men, and sent them to Rome, for to stablish and to renue the friendship with them:

2 He sent letters also vnto Sparta, and to other places in like maner.

3 So they went vnto Rome, and entred into the | counsel, and said, Jonathas ‡ high priest, and the people of the Jewes, sent vs vnto you, for to renue the olde friendshippe and bond of loue.

4 Vpon this the Romanes gaue thē free passportes, that men should leade them home into the land of Juda peaceably.

5 And this is the copie of the letters that Jonathas wrote vnto the Spartians,

6 Jonathas the high priest, with the elders, priestes, and the other people of the Jewes, send greeting vnto the Spartians their brethren.

7 There were letters sent long agoe vnto Onias the high priest, from ‖ Arius which reigned then among you, that ye are our brethren, as the copie here vnder written doeth specifie.

‖Or, Darius.

8 And Onias entreated the Ambassador that was sent, honourably, and receiued the letters, wherein there was mention made of the bond of loue and friendship.

9 But as for vs, wee neede no such writings, for why? we haue the holy bookes of scripture in our hands to our comfort.

10 Neuertheselle we had rather send vnto you for the renuing of the brotherhoode & friendship, least we should bee strange vnto you: for it is long since the time that ye sent word vnto vs.

11 Wherefore in the sacrifices that we offer, and other ceremonies vpon the high solemne daies and other, we alway remember you without ceassing, like as reason is, and as it becommeth vs to thinke vpon our brethren, 12 Yea, and are right glad of your prosperous honour.

13 And though we haue had great troubles and warres, so that the kings about vs haue fought against vs:

14 Yet would wee not be grieuous vnto you, nor to other of our louers and friendes in these warres.

15 For wee had helpe from heauen that hath succoured vs, so that wee are deliuered, and our enemies subdued.

16 Wherefore wee chose Numenius the sonne of Antiochus, and Antipater the sonne of Jason, and sent them vnto the Romanes for to renue the old ‖ bonde of friendship and loue with them.

‖or, league.

17 We commanded them also to come vnto you, to salute you, and to deliuer you our letters cōcerning the renouation of our brotherhood.

18 And now ye shall do right well to giue vs an answere thereunto.

19 And this is the copie of the writing which Arius the king of Sparta sent vnto Onias.

20 Arius the king of the Spartians, sendeth greeting vnto Onias the high priest:

21 It is found in writing, that the Spartians and Jewes are brethren, and come out of the generation of Abraham:

22 And now, for so much as this is come to our knowledge, ye shal do wel to write vnto vs of your prosperitie.

23 As for vs, we haue written our minde vnto you, our cattell and goods are yours, & yours ours: these thinges haue we commanded to be shewed vnto you.

24 When Jonathas heard that Demetrius princes were come forth to fight against him with a greater host then afore, 25 He went from Hierusalem, and mette them in the land of Hemath: for he gaue thē not space to come into his owne countrey.

26 And hee sent spies vnto their tentes, which came againe and tolde him that they were appointed to come vpon him in the night season.

27 Wherefore when the sunne was gone downe, Jonathas commanded his men to watch all the night, and to bee ready with weapons for to fight, and set watchmen round about the hoste.

28 But when the aduersaries heard that Jonathas was ready with his men to the battaile, they feared, and were afraid in their hearts, and kindled fires in their tents, brake vp, and gate them away.

29 Neuertheless, Jonathas and his company knew it not till the morning, for they saw the fires burning.

30 Then Jonathas followed vpon them, but hee might not ouertake them, for they were gone ouer the water Eleutherus.

31 So Jonathas departed vnto the Arabians, which were called Zabadei, slue thē, and tooke their goods.

32 He proceeded further also, & came vnto Damascus, and went thorow al the countrey.

33 But Simon his brother took his iourney, and came to Ascalon, and to the next strong holdes, departing vnto Joppa, and wanne it, 34 (for he heard that they would deliuer the hold to them that took Demetrius part,) wherefore he set men of warre in the citie to keepe it.

35 After this came Jonathas home againe, & called the elders of the people together, and deuised with them for to builde vp the strong holdes in Jurie, 36 And to make the walles of Hierusalē higher, to set vp an high wal betwixt the castle and the citie, for to separate it from the citie, that it might be alone, & that men should neither buy nor sell in it.

37 Vpon this they came together for to build vp the citie, and for so much as the wal vpon the brooke of the East side, called Caphetetath, was fallen downe, they repayred it.

38 And Simon set vp Iada in Sephela, and made it strong, setting portes and lockes vpon it.

39 Nowe when Tryphon purposed to reigne in Asia, to be crowned, and to slay the king Antiochus:

40 He was afraid that Jonathas would not suffer him, but fight against him, wherefore he went about to take Jonathas, and to kill him: so hee departed, and came vnto Bethsan.

41 Then went Jonathas forth against him to the battaile, with fourtie thousand chosen men, and came vnto Bethsan also:

42 But when Tryphon sawe that Jonathas came with so great an hoste to destroy him, he was afraide:

43 And therefore he receiued him honourably, commending him vnto al his friends, and gaue him rewards, and commanded his men of warre to be as obedient vnto him, as to himselfe:

44 And saide vnto Jonathas, why hast thou caused this people to take such trauell, seeing there is no warre betwixt vs?

45 Therefore send them home againe, and choose certaine men to waite vpon thee, and come thou with mee to Ptolomais, for I wil giue it thee, with the other strong holds, men of warre, and their officers, as for me, I must depart, this is onely the cause of my comming.

46 Jonathas beleeued him, and did as he said, putting away his hoste, which went into the land of Juda.

47 He kept but three thousand by him, whereof he sent two thousand into Galilee, and one thousand went with himselfe.

48 Now as soone as Jonathas entred into Ptolomais, the Citizens sparred the gates of the citie, and tooke him, and slue all them with the sworde that came in with him.

49 Then sent Tryphon an hoste of footemen and horsemen into Galilee, and into the great plaine field, to destroy al Jonathas company:

50 But when they knew that Jonathas was taken, and all they slaine that waited vpon him, they tooke counsell together, and encouraged one another, and came forth against them ready to fight.

51 So when they which followed vpon them, sawe that it was a matter of life, they turned backe againe.

52 As for the other, they went into the land of Juda peaceably, and bewayled Jonathas and them that were with him right sore: & Israel made great lamentation.

53 Then all the heathen that were round about them, sought to destroy them.

54 For they said, Now haue they no captaine, nor any man to helpe them, therefore let vs ouercome them, & root out their name from among them.

The xiii. Chapter.

1 After Ionathas was taken, Simon is chosen captaine.
17 Of whome Tryphon taking his children and money for the redemption of Ionathas, killeth him and his children.

NOwe when Simon heard that Tryphon gathered a great hoste to come into the lande of Juda, and to destroy it,

2 And sawe that the people was in great fearefulnesse and care: hee came vp to Hierusalem, ruſalem, and gathered the people together,

3 And gaue them exhortation, ſaying, Ye knowe what great battailes I and my brethren, and my fathers houſe haue fought for the law and the ſanctuary, and what maner of troubles we haue ſeene.

4 Through occaſion whereof, all my brethren are ſlaine for Iſraels ſake, and I am left alone.

5 And nowe let me not ſpare mine owne life in any manner of trouble, for I am no better then my brethren:

6 But wil auenge my people and the ſanctuarie, our children and our wiues: for al the heathen are gathered together to deſtroy vs of very malice.

7 At theſe words the hearts of the people were kindled together,

8 So that they cried with a lowde voyce, ſaying, Thou ſhalt be our captaine in ſteade of Judas and Jonathas thy brethren:

9 Order thou our battel, and whatſoeuer thou commandeſt vs, we ſhall doe it.

10 So he gathered all the men of warre, making haſte to finiſh all the walles of Hieruſalem, which hee made ſtrong rounde about.

11 Then ſent hee Jonathas the ſonne of Abſolomus, with a freſh hoſte vnto Joppa, which droue them out that were in the caſtle, and remained there himſelfe.

12 Tryphon alſo remooued from Ptolomais with a great armie, to come into the lande of Juda, and Jonathas with him in ward.

13 And Simon pitched his tents at | Addus before the plaine field. |Or, Addidis.

14 But when Tryphon knewe that Simon ſtoode vp in ſteede of his brother Jonathas, and that he would warre againſt him, he ſent meſſengers vnto him, ſaying, 15 Whereas we haue kept Jonathas thy brother, it is for money that hee is owing in the kings account, concerning the buſineſſe that he had in hand.

16 Wherefore, ſend nowe an hundred talents of ſiluer, and his two ſonnes for ſuretie (that when he is letten forth, he ſhall not forſake vs) and we ſhall ſend him againe.

17 Neuertheleſſe, Simon knewe that he diſſembled in his words: yet commanded hee the money and children to bee deliuered vnto him, leſt the Iſraelites might haue hated him, 18 And ſaide, Becauſe he ſent him not the money and the children, therefore is Jonathas dead.

19 So Simon ſent him the children, and an hundred talents, but hee diſſembled, and would not let Jonathas goe.

20 Afterward came Tryphon into the land to deſtroy it, and went rounde about by the way that leadeth vnto Ador: but whereſoeuer they went, thither went Simon and his hoſte alſo.

21 Nowe they that were in the caſtle, ſent meſſengers vnto Tryphon, that hee ſhoulde make haſte to come by the wilderneſſe, and to ſend them victuals.

22 And Tryphon made ready al his horſemen to come the ſame night: neuertheleſſe, it was a very great ſnowe, ſo that hee came not becauſe of the ſnowe, but hee remooued and went into the countrey of Galaad.

23 And when he drue nigh Baſcama, he ſlue Jonathas and his ſonnes there, 24 And then turned for to goe home into his owne land.

25 Then ſent Simon for to fetch his brothers dead coarſe, and buried it in Modin his fathers citie.

26 So all Iſrael bewailed him with great lamentation, and mourned for him very long.

27 And Simon made vpon the ſepulchre of his father, and his brethren, a building, high to looke vnto, of free ſtone, behinde and before,

28 And ſet vp ſeuen pillars vpon it, one againſt another, for his father, his mother, and foure brethren, 29 And ſet great pillars rounde about them, with armes vpon them, for a perpetuall memorie, and carued ſhippes beſide the armes, that they might be ſeene of men ſayling in the ſea.

30 This ſepulchre which hee made at Modin, ſtandeth yet vnto this day.

31 Now as Tryphon went forth to walke with the yong king Antiochus, hee ſlue him traiterouſly, Ioſephus ca. 10. li. 13.

32 And reigned in his ſteade, crowned himſelfe king of Aſia, and did much euill in the land.

33 Simon alſo built vp the caſtles in Jurie, making them ſtrong, with high towres, great walles, portes, and lockes, and laide vp victuals in the ſtrong holdes.

34 And Simon choſe certaine men, and ſent them to king Demetrius, to deſire him that hee would diſcharge the land from all bondage, for Tryphon had ſpoyled it very ſore.

35 Whereupon Demetrius the king anſwered him, and wrote vnto him after this maner,

36 Demetrius the king ſendeth greeting vnto Simon the high prieſt his friend, with the elders and people of the Iewes:

37 The golden crowne and precious ſtone that ye ſent vnto vs, haue wee receiued, and are ready to make a ſtedfaſt peace with you, yea, and to write vnto our officers for to releaſe you concerning the things wherein we made you free.

38 And the appoyntment that wee make with you, ſhall be firme and ſtable: the ſtrong holdes which ye haue builded, ſhall bee your owne.

39 As for any ouerſight or fault committed vnto this day, we forgiue it, and the crowne tare that ye ought vs alſo: and whereas was any other tribute in Hierusalem, it shall now be no tribute:

40 And looke who are meete among you to be in our court, let him be written vp, that there may be peace betwixt vs.

41 Thus the yoke of the heathen was taken from Israel, in the hundreth and seuentieth yeere.

42 And the people of the Iewes beganne to write in their letters and acts on this maner, In the first yeere of Simon the high Priest, a Gouernour and Prince of the Iewes.

43 In those daies went Simon vnto Gaza, and besieged it round about, where he set vp ordinance of warre, and wan a towre, which he tooke.

44 So they that gate into the towre, leapt into the citie, which was in a great feare:

45 In so much that the people of the citie rent their clothes, and climed vp vpon the walls, with their wiues and children, beseeching Simon to be at one with them, saying,

46 O reward vs not after our wickednesse, but be gracious vnto vs, and we shall do thee seruice.

47 Then Simon for very pitie would fight no more against them, but put them out of the citie, and caused the houses, wherein the images were, to be cleansed, and so entred the citie with Psalmes of praise, giuing thanks vnto the Lord.

48 So when hee had cast all abominations out of the citie, hee set such men in it as kept the lawe of God, and made the citie strong, and builded a dwelling place for him selfe.

49 Nowe when they in the castle at Hierusalem were kept so straitly that they could not come foorth, nor goe into the countrey, and might neither buy nor sell, they were very hungrie, and many of them famished to death:

50 In so much that they besought Simon to be at one with them, which he granted them: so hee put them out from thence, and cleansed the castle from filthinesse.

51 And vpon the twentie and three day of the second moneth, in the hundred threescore and eleuenth yeere, they entred into it with thanksgiuing, and branches of Palme trees, with Harpes, Croudes, Cymbales, & Lutes, singing Psalmes and songs of prayse vnto God, for that the great enemie of Israel was ouercome.

52 And Simon ordeined that the same day should bee kept euery yeere with gladnesse, 53 And made strong the hill of the temple that was beside the castle, where hee dwelt himselfe with his companie.

54 Simon also perceiuing that John his sonne was a mightie man of armes, made him captaine of al the hostes, and caused him to dwell at ‖ Gaza.

‖Or, Gazaris.

The xiiij. Chapter.

1 Demetrius is ouercome of Arsaces. 11 Simon being captaine, there is great quietnesse in Israel. 18 The couenant of friendship with the Romanes, and with the people of Sparta, is renued.

IN the hundred threescore and twelft yere, gathered king Demetrius his hoste, & departed vnto Media, to get him helpe for to fight against Tryphon.

2 Now when Arsaces the king of Persia and Media, heard that Demetrius was entred within his borders, hee sent one of his princes to take him aliue, and to bring him vnto him.

3 So he went and slue Demetrius hoste, tooke himselfe, brought him to Arsaces, which kept him in ward.

4 And all the lande of Juda was in rest so long as Simon liued, for hee sought the wealth of his people, therfore were they glad to haue him for their ruler, and to doe him worship alway.

5 Simon wan the citie of Joppa also for an hauen towne, and made it an entrance into the Iles of the sea.

6 Hee enlarged the borders of his people, and conquered them more land:

7 Hee gathered vp many of their people that were prisoners, he had the dominion of Gaza, Bethsura, and the castle which hee cleansed from filthinesse, and there was no man that resisted him.

8 So that euery man tilled his ground in peace, the land of Juda, and the trees gaue their fruite and increase.

9 The elders sate all in iudgement, and tooke their deuice for the wealth of the land, the young men put on worship and harnesse vpon them.

10 He prouided victuals for the cities, and made goodly strong holdes of them, so that the fame of his worship was spoken of vnto the ende of the world.

11 For hee made peace throughout the land, and Israel was full of mirth and ioy.

12 Euery man sate vnder his vine and figge trees, and there was no man to fray them away.

13 There was none in the lande to fight against them, for then the kings were ouercome.

14 He helped those that were in aduersitie among his people, hee was diligent to see the lawe kept: as for such as were vngodly and wicked, he tooke them away.

15 He set vp the sanctuarie, and increased the holy vessels of the temple.

16 When the Romanes and Spartians had gotten worde that Jonathas was dead, they were right sorie:

17 But when they heard that Simon his brother was made high Priest in his steade, and howe hee had wonne the land againe, with the cities in it:

18 They wrote vnto him in tables of brasse,

to

to renue the friendship and bonde of loue, which they had made afore with Judas and Jonathas his brethren.

19 Which writings were read before the congregation at Hierusalem. And this is the copie of the letters that the Spartians sent:

20 The Senators & Citizens of Sparta, send greeting vnto Simon the great priest, with the elders, priests, and the other people of the Jewes their brethren:

21 When your Ambassadours, that were sent vnto our people, certified vs of your worship, honour, and prosperous welth, we were glad of their comming,

22 And haue written the ambassage in the publique records in this maner: namely, that Numenius the sonne of Antiochus, and Antipater the sonne of Jason, the Jewes ambassadours, are come vnto vs for to renue the old friendship with vs.

23 Upon this, the people consented that the men should bee honourably intreated, and that the copie of their ambassage should be written in the speciall bookes of the people, for a perpetuall memoriall vnto the Spartians: yea, and that we should send a copie of the same vnto Simon the great priest.

24 After this did Simon send Numenius vnto Rome with a golden shielde of a thousand pound weight, to confirme the friendship with them.

25 Which when the Romanes vnderstood, they sayde, What thankes shall wee recompense againe vnto Simon and his children?

26 For he and his brethren, and the house of his father, hath stablished Israel, and ouercommed their enemies, wherefore they graunted him to bee free, and confirmed the libertie thereof: therefore they wrote this in tables of brasse, and set it vpon pillars in mount Sion.

27 The copie of the writing is this, the eighteenth day of the moneth Elul, in the hundred threescore and twelfth yeere, in the third yeere of Simon the high priest,

28 In the great congregation of the priests, rulers of the people, and elders of the countrey at ‖ Saramel, were these wordes openly declared:

‖ Or, Hierusalem.

29 For so much as there was much warre in our lande, therefore Simon the sonne of Mathathias, come of the children of Jarib, and his brethren put themselues in perill, and resisted the enemies of their people, that their sanctuarie and law might be maintained, and did their people great worship.

30 Jonathas in like maner, after that he had gouerned his people, and bene their high priest, died, and lyeth buried beside his elders.

31 After that would their enemies haue troden their holy things vnderfoote, destroied their lande, and vtterly wasted their sanctuarie.

32 Then Simon withstoode them, and fought for his people, spent much of his owne money, weaponed the valiant men of his people, gaue them wages, 33 Made strong the cities of Juda, with Bethsura that lieth vpon the borders of Jurie, where the ordinaunce of their enemies lay somtime, and set Jewes there for to keepe it.

34 Yee made fast Joppa also, which lieth vpon the sea, and ‖ Gaza that bordereth vpon Azotus, where the enemies dwelt afore, and there he set Jewes to keepe it: and whatsoeuer was meete for the subduing of the aduersaries, that layed he therein.

‖ Or, Gazaris.

35 Now when the people sawe the noble actes of Simon, and what worship he purposed to doe for them, his godly behauiour and faithfulnesse which he kept vnto them, and how he sought by al wayes the wealth of his people, because he did all this, therefore they chose him to be their prince and high priest,

36 And in his time they prospered well by him, so that the heathen were taken out of their lande, and they also which were in the citie of Dauid at Hierusalem in the castle, where they went out, and defiled all things that were about the sanctuary, and did great harme vnto cleanlinesse:

37 And Simon put men of the Jewes in it, for the defence of the land and citie, and set vp the walles of Hierusalem.

38 And king Demetrius confirmed him in his high priesthood

39 For these causes, made him his friend, and did him great worship:

40 For he heard that the Romanes called the Jewes their friendes, louers, and brethren: howe honourably they receiued Simons ambassadours:

41 How the Jewes and priests consented that he should bee their prince and high priest perpetually, till God raised vp the true Prophet:

42 And that hee should bee their captaine to care for the sanctuarie, and to set officers vpon the workes thereof, ouer the land, ouer the weapons, ouer the houses of defence, to make prouision for the holy things:

43 And to be obeyed of euery man, and all the writings of the land to bee made in his name, that he should be clothed in purple and golde:

44 And that it should be lawfull for none of the people nor priests to breake any of these things, to withstand his wordes, nor to call any congregation in the land without him: that hee shoulde bee clothed in purple, and weare a coller of gold.

45 And if there were any which disobeied or brake his ordinance, that he shoulde be punished.

46 So all the people consented to allowe Simon, and to doe according to these words:

47 Simon also himselfe tooke it vpon him, and was content to bee the high priest, the captaine and prince of the Iewes and priestes, and to gouerne them all.

48 And they commaunded to make this writing in tables of brasse, and fasten it vnto the wall that compasseth the sanctuarie, in an open place:

49 And to lay vp a copie of the same in the treasurie, that Simon and his posteritie might haue it.

The xv. Chapter.

The Romanes write letters vnto kings and nations in the defence of the Iewes.

MOreouer king Antiochus the sonne of Demetrius sent letters from the Iles of the sea, vnto Simon the high Priest and prince of the Iewes, and to all the people,

2 Concerning these wordes, Antiochus the king sendeth greeting vnto Simon the high priest, and to the people of the Iewes.

3 For so much as certaine wicked men haue gotten the kingdome of our progenitors, I haue purposed to chalenge the realme againe, and to restore it to the olde estate: wherefore I haue gathered a great host, and made shippes of warre,

4 That I may goe thorowe the countrey, and be auenged on them which haue destroyed our lande, and wasted many cities in my realme.

5 And therfore now I make thee free also from all the tributes whereof all kings my progenitors haue discharged thee, and from other customes wherefrom they haue released thee, whatsoeuer they be.

6 Yea, I giue thee leaue to smite money of thine owne within thy land.

7 As for Hierusalem, I will that it be holy and free, and all the weapons and houses of defence which thou hast builded, and keepest in thine hands, shalbe thine:

8 Whereas any thing is or shalbe owing vnto the king, I forgiue it thee, from this time forth, for euermore.

9 And when we haue obteined our kingdome, wee shall doe thee, thy people, and the temple great worship: so that your honour shalbe knowen thorowout the whole world.

10 In the hundred threescore and fourteenth yeere, went Antiochus into his fathers land, and all the men of warre came together vnto him, so that fewe were left with Tryphon.

11 So the king Antiochus followed vpon him, but he fled vnto Dora, which lyeth by the sea side:

12 For hee sawe that there was mischiefe comming vnto him, and that his hoste had forsaken him.

13 Then came Antiochus vnto Dora, with an hundred and twentie thousand men of armes on foote, and eight thousand horsemen: so hee compassed the citie round about, and the ships came by the sea.

14 Thus they vexed the citie by land and by water, in so much that they suffered no man to goe in nor out.

15 In the meane season came Numenius, and they that had bene with him, from the citie of Rome, hauing letters written vnto the kings and prouinces, wherein were conteined these wordes,

16 Lucius the consull of Rome, sendeth greeting vnto Ptolome the king:

17 The Ambassadours of the Iewes our friendes, being sent from Simon the high priest, & from the people of the Iewes, came vnto vs for to renue the olde friendship and bond of loue, 18 Brought a shielde of golde, weighing a thousand pound.

19 Wherefore we thought it good to write vnto the kings and prouinces to do them no harme, nor to take part against them, their cities, nor countreyes, neither to maintaine their enemies against them.

20 And we were content to receiue of them the shield.

21 If there be any wicked persons therefore fled from their countrey vnto you, deliuer them vnto Simon the high priest, that he may punish them according to their owne lawe.

22 The same words wrote the Romanes also vnto Demetrius the king, to Attalus, Araba, Arsaces,

23 And to all regions: as Samsames, to them of Spartia, ‖Delo, ‖Mydo, Sicyon, Caria, Samos, Pamphylia, Lycia, Alicarnassem, and to the Rhodes, to Facelidis, Coo, Sida, Arado, Cotyna, Gnidum, to Cypres, and Cyrene. ‖Or, Delus. ‖Or, Mydus

24 And of euery letter they sent a copie to Simon the high Priest.

25 So Antiochus the king brought his hoste vnto Dora the second time, to take it, where he made diuers ordinances of warre, and kept Tryphon in, that he should not goe either in or out.

26 Then sent Simon vnto Antiochus two thousand chosen men to helpe him, with gold, siluer, and other plenteous things.

27 Neuertheless hee would not receiue them, but brake all the couenant which hee made with Simon afore, and withdrew him selfe from him.

28 He sent Athenobius also a friend of his vnto Simon, for to reason with him, saying, Ye withhold from me Joppa and Gaza, with the castle that is at Hierusalem, which are cities of my realme:

29 Whose borders yee haue destroyed, and done great euil in the land, hauing the dominion in many other places of my kingdome:

30 Wherefore, deliuer nowe the cities which yee haue taken, with the tributes of the places whych ye haue rule vpon without the borders of Jurie:

31 Or else giue me fiue hundreth talents of siluer, yea, and for the harme that yee haue done done in the cities, and for the tributes of the same, other fiue hundred talents: if no, wee shall come and fight against you.

32 So Athenobius the kings friend came to Hierusalem, and when he sawe the great worship and honor of Simon, in gold, siluer, and so great plentie of ornaments, hee marueiled: and told Simon as ꝑ king commanded him.

33 Then answered Simon, and sayd vnto him, As for vs, wee haue neither taken other mens lands, nor withholden them: but onely our fathers heritage, which our enemies had vnrighteously in possession a certaine time.

34 This heritage of our fathers haue wee chalenged in processe of time.

35 And whereas thou complainest concerning Joppa & Gaza, they did great harme to our people, & in our land, yet will we giue an hundred talents for them. Neuertheiesse, Athenobius answered him not one word:

36 But turned againe wrathfully vnto the king, and told him all these wordes, & the great dignitie of Simon, with all that he had seene: and the king was very angry.

37 And in the meane time fled Tryphon by ship vnto Ortholias.

38 Then the king made Cendebeus captaine of the sea cost, and gaue him an hoste of footemen and horsmen, 39 Commanding him to remoue the host toward Jury, and to build vp the citie of Cedron, to make vp the portes, and to warre against the people of the Jewes: as for the king himselfe, he followed vpon Tryphon.

40 So Cendebeus came vnto Jamnia, and began to vexe the people, to tread downe Jurie, to take the people prisoners, to slay them, 41 And to build vp Cedron: where hee set horsemen, and other men of warre, that they might come forth, and go through the streets of Jurie, like as the king had commaunded him.

The xvj. Chapter.

Cendebeus the captaine of Antiochus host, is put to flight of the sonnes of Simon.

THen came vp John from Gaza, & told Simon his father what Cendebeus had done among their people.

2 Upon this called Simon two of his eldest sonnes, Judas and John, and said vnto them, I & my brethren, and my fathers house, haue euer from our youth vp vnto this day, foughten against the enemies of Israel: and God gaue vs good fortune to deliuer Israel oftentimes.

3 And now, forasmuch as I am old, and ye by Gods goodnesse are of a sufficient age, bee ye in stead of me and my brother, to goe forth and fight for our people: and the helpe of God be with you.

4 So he chose twentie thousand fighting men of ꝑ country, with horsemen also, which went forth against Cendebeus, and rested at Modin.

5 In the morning they arose, & went into the playne field, and behold, a mightie great host came against them, both of footmen and horsmen: now was there a water brooke betwixt them.

6 And John remooued the hoste toward them: and when he saw that the people was afrayd to go ouer the water brooke, hee went ouer first himselfe: and the men seeing this, followed him.

7 Then John set his horsemen and footemen in order, the one by the other: for their enemies horsemen were very many.

8 But when they blewe vp the ‖ Priestes trumpets, Cendebeus fled with his hoste: whereof many were slaine, and the remnant gate them to their strong holds. ‖ Or, holy.

9 Judas also Johns brother was wounded at the same time, and John followed still vpon their enemies, till he came to Cedron, which Cendebeus had builded.

10 The enemies fled also vnto the towers that were in the fieldes of Azotus, and those did John burne vp with fire: thus there were slaine two thousand men of them, and John turned againe peaceably into Jurie.

11 And in the field of Jericho was Ptolome the sonne of Abobus made captayne: which because hee had abundance of siluer and gold,

12 (For hee had maried the daughter of Simon the high priest,)

13 Waxed proude in his mind, & thought to conquere the lande, imagining falshoode against Simon and his sonnes, to destroy them.

14 Now as Simon was going about thorowe the cities that were in the countrey of Jurie, and caring for them, he came downe to Jericho with Mathathias and Judas his sonnes, in the hundred threescore and seuenteenth yeere, in the eleuenth moneth, called Sabat.

15 Then Ptolome the sonne of Abobus receiued them, but with deceite, into a strong house of his called Dochus, which hee had builded, where he made them a banket, and had hid men there.

16 So when Simon & his sonnes were merie, and had dronken wel, Ptolome stoode vp, with his men, whom he had hid there, and tooke their weapons, entred into the banket house, & slue Simon with his two sonnes, and certaine of his seruants.

17 Such great vnfaithfulnesse did Ptolome in Israel, & recompensed euil for good.

18 Then wrote Ptolome these things, and sent vnto king Antiochus, requiring him that he should send him an host to helpe him: and so should he deliuer him the land, with the cities and tributes of the same.

19 He sent other men also vnto Gaza, for to take John, and wrote vnto the captaines to come to him, and hee should giue them siluer, gold, and rewards.

to

20 And to Hierusalem hee sent other, to take it, and the sanctuarie.

21 Then ran there one before, and tolde John in Gaza, that his father & his brethren were slaine, and how that Ptolome had sent to slay him also.

22 When John heard this, he was sore abashed, and laied handes on them that were come to destroy him, and slewe them: for hee knew that they went about to kill him.

23 As for other things concerning John, of his warres, of his noble acts, wherein hee behaued himselfe manfully, of the building of walles which hee made, and other of his deeds, 24 They are written in the Chronicles of his priesthood, from the time foorth that hee was made high Priest after his father.

The end of the first booke of the Machabees.

The second booke of the Machabees.

The first Chapter.

1 An Epistle of the Iewes that dwelt at Hierusalem, sent vnto them that dwelt in Egypt, wherein they exhort them to giue thankes for the death of Antiochus. 19 Of the fire that was hidde in the pit. 24 The prayer of Nehemias.

THe brethren of the Iewes which be at Hierusalem, and in the land of Iurie, wish vnto these brethrē of the Iewes ẏ are throughout Egypt, healthe and peace.

2 God be gracious vnto you, and thinke vpon his couenant that he made with Abraham, Isahac, and Jacob, his faithfull seruants:

3 And giue you all such an heart, that yee may loue and serue him, yea, and perfourme his will with an whole heart, and a willing minde:

4 He open your hearts vnto his law, and in his commandements, and send you peace,

5 Heare your praiers, be at one with you, and neuer forsake you in time of trouble.

6 For so much as now we here be praying for you,

7 what time as Demetrius reigned, in the hundred threescore and nine yeere, wee Iewes wrote vnto you in the trouble & violence that came vnto vs in those yeeres, after that Jason departed out of the holy land and kingdome.

8 They burnt vp the portes, and shed innocent blood: then made we our praier vnto the Lord, and were heard, we offred vp sacrifices and fine floure, and lighted the lampes, and set foorth the bread.

Leu. 23, 24. ‖Nouember. 9 *And now come yee vnto the feast of tabernacles, in the moneth ‖ Casleu.

10 In the hundred fourescore and eighteene yeere, the people that was at Hierusalem, and in Iurie, the counsaile, and Judas himselfe, sent this wholesome salutation vnto Aristobulus king Ptolomes master, which came of the generation of the anoynted Priestes, and to the Iewes that were in Egypt:

11 Insomuch as God hath deliuered vs from great perils, we thanke him highly, no lesse at all then if we had banquished the king in battell.

12 For when hee, with those that had fought against the holy citie, did set vpon Persia:

13 For as hee was in Persia, namely the captaine with the great hoste, he perished in the Temple of Naneas, being deceiued thorow the deuice of Naneas Priests.

14 For when Antiochus, as he that should marrie with her, came, and his friends with him, into the place to receiue by name of dowrie the money which the Priestes of Naneas had set foorth, 15 He entred with a small companie into the compasse of the Temple, and so they shut the Temple.

16 Now when Antiochus entred by opening the priuie entrance of the Temple, the priestes stoned the captaine to death, hewed them in pieces that were with him, smote off their heads, and threw them out.

17 In all things God bee prayed, which hath deliuered the wicked into our handes to be punished.

18 Whereas we are now purposed to keep the purification of the Temple vpon ẏ twentie and fifth day of the moneth Casleu, wee thought necessary to certifie you thereof, that ye also might keepe the tabernacles feast day, and the day of the fire, which was giuen vs when Nehemias offered, after that hee had set vp the Temple and the altar.

19 For what time as our fathers were led away into Persia, the Priests which then sought the honour of God, tooke the fire priuily from the altar, & hid it in a valley, where as was a deepe drie pit: and therein they kept it, so that the place was vnknowen to euery man.

20 Now

20 Now after many yeres, when it pleased God that Nehemias should bee sent from the king of Persia, he sent the childrens children of those Priests which had hid the fire, to seeke it: and as they told vs, they found no fire, but thicke water.

21 Then commanded he them to draw it vp, and to bring it him, and the offerings withall: Now when the sacrifices were laid on, and ordered, Nehemias commanded the Priests to sprinckle them and the wood with water.

22 When this was done, & the time come that the Sunne shone which afore was hid in the cloude, there was a great fire kindled, insomuch that euery man marualled.

23 Now all the Priests prayed while the sacrifice was a making: Jonathas prayed first, and the other gaue answere.

24 And Nehemias prayer was after this maner, O Lorde God, maker of all things, thou fearefull & strong, thou righteous and mercifull, thou that art only a gratious king,

25 Onely liberal, only iust, almightie and euerlasting, thou that deliuerest Israel from al trouble, thou that hast chosen the fathers, and halowed them fauourably:

26 Receiue the offering for thy whole people of Israel, preserue thine owne portion, and halowe it, 27 Gather those together that are scattered abroad from vs, deliuer them that are vnder the heathens bondage, looke vpon them which are despised and abhorred: that the heathen may knowe and see howe that thou onely art God, which art our God.

28 Punish them that oppresse and proudly put vs to dishonour.

29 Set thy people againe in thine holy Deut.30.5. place, like as * Moses hath spoken.

30 And the priests sung Psalms of thanks giuing, so long as the sacrifice endured.

31 Now when ỹ sacrifice was burnt, Nehemias commaunded the great stones to bee sprinckled with the residue of the water.

32 Which when it was done, there was kindled a flame of them also: but it was consumed through the light that shined from the altar.

33 So when this matter was knowen, it was told ỹ king of Persia, that in the place where the priests which were led away, had hid fire, there appeared water, and that Nehemias and his companie had purified the sacrifices withall.

34 Then the king, considering and pondering the matter diligently, inclosed ỹ place, and consecrated a Temple, to proue the thing that was done:

35 And when hee found it so in deed, hee gaue the Priests many gifts, and diuers rewardes, yea, hee tooke them with his owne hand, and gaue them.

[1] Ephthar, which is to say, A cleansing: it is also called Nephi, of Nephthar, which is a cleansing.

36 And Nehemias called the same place [2] Nephthar, which is as much to say, as a cleansing: but many men call it Nephi.

The ij. Chapter.

4 How Ieremie hid the tabernacle, the arke, and the altar in the hill. 21 Of the fiue bookes of Iason conteined in one.

IT is found also in the* writings of Ieremie the Prophet, that he commanded them which were caried away, to take fire, as it is said afore. Iere.29.8.

2 He commanded thē also that they should not forget the lawe and commandements of the Lord, & that they should not erre in their mindes, when they see images of siluer and gold, with their ornaments.

3 These and such other things commanded hee them, and exhorted them that they should not let the law of God goe out of their hearts.

4 It is written also, how the Prophet at the commandement of God, charged them to take the tabernacle and the arke with them: and he went forth vnto the mountain where Moses climed vp, and sawe the heritage of God.

5 * And when Jeremie came there, hee Deut.34.1.
found an open caue, wherein he laied the tabernacle, the arke, and the altar of incense, and so stopped the doore.

6 There came certaine men together also, following him to marke the place, but they could not find it.

7 Which when Jeremie perceiued, he reproued them, saying, As for that place it shall be vnknowen, vntill the time that God gather his people together againe, and receiue them vnto mercy.

8 Then shall God shew them these things, and the maiestie of the Lord shal appeare, and the cloude also, like as it was shewed vnto Moses: and like as Salomon desired that the place might be honourably sanctified, and it was shewed him.

9 For hee being a wise man, handled honourably and wisely, * offering vnto God in 2.Reg.8.5.
the halowing of the Temple when it was finished.

10 * And like as when Moses prayed vn- Leui.9.24. to the Lorde, the fire came downe from heauen, and consumed the burnt offering: euen so prayed * Solomon also, and the fire came 2.Chro.7.2 down from heauen, and consumed the whole burnt offering.

11 And Moses sayd, * Because the sinne Leui.10.18 offering was not eaten, therefore it is consumed.

12 In like maner Solomon kept the dedication or hallowing, eight dayes.

13 In the annotations and writings of ‖Jeremie were these things put also: and ‖Some read Nehemias.
how hee made a librarie, and how he gathered out of all countreys the bookes of the kings, and of the Prophets, and of Dauid, and the Epistles of the kings concerning the holy gifts.

14 Euen so Judas also, looke what he learned by experience of warre, and such things things as haue happened vnto vs, hee gathered them all together, and so wee haue them by vs.

15 If ye now desire to haue the same, send some body to fetch them vnto you.

16 Whereas wee then are about to celebrate the purification, we haue written vnto you: therefore ye shall doe well if ye keepe the same dayes.

17 We hope also that the God which deliuered his people, and gaue them all the heritage, kingdome, priesthood, and sanctuarie, Deut. 30. 5. 18 *That hee promised them in the lawe, shall shortly haue mercy vpon vs, and gather vs together from vnder the heauen into his holy place, for hee hath saued vs from great perils, and hath clensed the place.

19 As concerning Judas Machabeus, and his brethrē, the purification of the great temple, the dedication of the altar:

20 Yea, and of the warres that concerne noble Antiochus, and Eupator his sonne:

21 And the miracles shewed from heauen by the valiant actes of those which defended ꝑ Jewes religion, so that a few ran through the whole country, and draue away the barbarous armies:

22 Repayred agayne the Temple that was spoken of throughout all the worlde, deliuered the citie, doyng their best, that the lawe of the Lorde which was put downe, might with all tranquilitie bee restored againe vnto the Lorde that was so mercifull vnto them:

23 As touching Jason also of Cyrene, we haue vndertaken compendiously to bring into one booke the things that were comprehended of him in fiue.

24 For wee considering the multitude of the bookes, & how hard it should be for them that should meddle with stories and acts, and that because of so diuers matters:

25 Haue vndertaken so to comprehend the stories, that such as are disposed to read, might haue pleasure & pastime therein, and that they which are diligent in such things, might the better thinke vpon them: yea, and that whosoeuer read them, might haue profite thereby.

26 Neuertheles, we our selues that haue medled with this matter, for the shortning of it, haue taken no small labour, but great diligence, watchings, and trauell.

27 Like as they that make a feast, would faine do other men pleasure: euen so we also for many mens sakes, are very well content to take the labour:

28 Whereas we may shortly comprehend the things that other men haue truely written.

29 For he that buildeth an house anewe, must prouide for many things to the whole building: but he that painteth it afterward, seeketh but onely that is comely, meet, & conuenient to garnish it withall.

30 Euen so do we also in like maner: and why: he that beginneth first to write a storie, must with his vnderstanding gather ꝑ matter together, set his words in order, and diligently seeke out euery part.

31 But he that afterward will shorten it, vseth few words, and toucheth not the matter at the largest: let this bee sufficient for a prologue.

32 Nowe will we begin to shew the matter: for it is but a foolish thing to make a long prologue, and to be short in the storie it selfe.

The iij. Chapter.

1 Of the honour done vnto the Temple by the kings of the Gentiles. 6 Simon vttereth what treasure is in the Temple.

WHat time as the holy citie was inhabited in al peace & wealth, and when the lawes were yet very well kept: for so was it ordained through the godlinesse of Onias the high Priest, and other godly men that were enemies to wickednesse,

2 It came thereto, that euen the kings and princes themselues did the place great worship, & garnished the Temple with great gifts:

3 Insomuch that Seleucus king of Asia, of his owne rentes bare all the costes belonging to the seruice of the offerings.

4 Then Simon of the tribe of Beniamin, being ruler of the Temple, vpon a variaunce risen betweene him and the high Priest for wickednesse that was done in the citie,

5 For that he could not ouercome Onias, he gat him to Apollonius the sonne of Tharsia, which then was chiefe lord in Coelosyria, and Phenice,

6 And tolde him that the treasure in Hierusalem was full of innumerable money, and howe that the common goods which belong not vnto the offerings, were exceeding great also: yea, and how it were possible that all these might come vnder the kings power.

7 Now when Apollonius had shewed the king of the money, as it was told him: the king called for Heliodorus his treasurer, and sent him with a commaundement to bring him the same money.

8 Immediatly Heliodorus tooke his iourney, but vnder a colour as though hee would go through Coelosyria and Phenice to visite the cities, but his purpose was to fulfill the kings pleasure.

9 So when he came to Hierusalem, and was louingly receiued of the high Priest into the citie, hee tolde what was determined concerning the money, and shewed the cause of his comming: he asked also if it were so in deed.

10 Then the high Priest tolde him, that there was such money laied vp for the vphol-ding

ding of widowes and fatherlesse children,

11 And how that a certaine of it belonged vnto Hircanus the sonne of Tobias, a noble man, and that of all the money (and not as that wicked Simon had reported) there were foure hundred talents of siluer, & two hundred of gold:

12 Yea, and that it were vnpossible for those mens meaning to bee deceiued, that had put assured confidence in the holinesse of the place, and in the maiestie and vndoubted saketie of the Temple, which is had in worship throw the whole world, for the maintenance and honour of the same.

13 Whereunto Heliodorus answered, that the king had commanded him in any wise to bring him the money.

14 So at the day appointed, Heliodorus entred into the Temple to order this matter: wherefore there was no small feare throwout the whole citie.

15 The Priests fell downe before the altar in their vestments, and called vnto heauen vpon him which had made a lawe concerning stuffe giuen to keep, that they should bee safely preserued for such as committed them vnto keeping.

16 Then who so had looked the high priest in the face, it would haue grieued his heart: for his countenance and the changing of his colour, declared the inwarde sorowe of his minde.

17 The man was all in heauinesse, and his bodie in feare: whereby they that looked vpon him might perceiue the griefe of his heart.

18 The other people also came out of their houses by heapes vnto the common prayer, because the place was like to come into confusion:

19 The women came together throwgh the streetes with hairie clothes about their breastes: the virgins also that were kept in, ranne to Onias, some of them ranne to the gates, some vp vpon walles, other some looked out at the windowes, 20 Yea, they all held vp their handes toward heauen, and prayed.

21 A miserable thing was it to looke vpon the common people, and the high Priest, being in such trouble.

22 But they besought almightie God, that the goods which were cõmitted vnto them, might be kept whole for those that had deliuered them vnto their keeping.

23 Neuertheless, the thing that Heliodorus was determined to do, that performed hee in the same place, hee himselfe personally being about the treasurie with his men of warre.

24 But the spirit of almightie God shewed himselfe openly, so that all they which presumed to obey Heliodorus, fell throwgh the power of God, into a great fearefulnesse and dread.

25 For there appeared vnto them an horse, with a terrible man sitting vpon him, decked in goodly aray, and the horse smote at Heliodorus with his forefeete: nowe hee that sate vpon the horse had harnesse of golde vpon him.

26 Moreouer, there appeared two faire and beautifull yong men, of notable strength, in goodly aray, which stood by him, scourged him on both the sides, and gaue him many stripes without ceasing.

27 With that fell Heliodorus suddenly vnto the ground: so they tooke him vp, being compassed about with great darknesse, and bare him out vpon a bere.

28 Thus he that came with so many runners and men of warre into the said treasurie, was borne out, whereas no man might helpe him, being destitute of harnesse and weapons: and so the power of God was manifest and knowen.

29 He lay still dumbe also by the power of God, destitute of all hope and life.

30 And they praised the Lord, that he had shewed his power vpon his place and Temple, which a little afore was full of feare and trouble, and that throwgh the reuelation of the almightie Lorde it was filled with ioy and gladnesse.

31 Then certaine of Heliodorus friends prayed Onias, that in all haste he would call vpon God, to grant him his life which was giuing vp the ghost.

32 So the high Priest, fearing least the king should suspect that the Iewes had done Heliodorus some euil, he offered an offring for his health. a In working some treacherie or sorcerie against him.

33 Now when the high Priest had obteyned his petition, the same yong men in the same clothing appeared, and stood beside Heliodorus, saying, Thanke Onias the high Priest: for, for his sake hath the Lord granted thee thy life.

34 Therefore seeing that God hath scourged thee, giue him praise and thanks, & shew euery man his might and power. And when they had spoken these wordes, they appeared no more.

35 So Heliodorus offered vnto God, made great vowes vnto him which had graunted him his life, thanked Onias, tooke his host, and went againe to the king.

36 Then testified he vnto euery man, of the great workes of God, that hee had seene with his eyes.

37 And when the king asked Heliodorus who were meete to bee sent yet once againe to Hierusalem, he said,

38 If thou hast any enemie or aduersarie vnto thy realme, sent him thither, and thou shalt haue him punished, if he escape with his life: for in that place no doubt there is a speciall power and working of God.

39 For he that dwelleth in heauen, visiteth, and defendeth that place, and all that come to doe it harme, he punisheth, and plagueth them.

40 This

40 This is nowe the matter concerning Heliodorus, and the keeping of the treasurie at Hierusalem.

The iiii. Chapter.

1 Simon reporteth euill of Onias, 7 Iason desiring the office of the high Priest, corrupted the king with rewardes.

THis Simon nowe (of whome wee spake afore) beeing a bewrier of the money, and of his owne naturall countrey, reported the worst of Onias, as though he had moued Heliodorus vnto this, & as though he had bene a bringer vp of euil.

2 Thus was he not ashamed to call him an enemie of the realme, that was so faithfull an ouerseer and defender of the citie and of his people, yea, and so feruent in the lawe of God.

3 But when the malice of Simon increased so farre, that through his friendes there were certaine manslaughters committed:

4 Onias considered the perill that might come through this strife, and how that Apollonius the chiefe lord in Coelosyria and Phenice was all set vpon tyrannie, and Simons malice increased the same.

5 He gate him to the king, not as an accuser of the citizens, but as one that by himself intended the common wealth of the whole multitude:

6 For hee sawe it was not possible to liue in peace, neither Simon to leaue off from his foolishnesse, except the king did looke thereto.

7 But after the death of Seleucus, when Antiochus, which is called the noble, tooke the kingdome, Iason the brother of Onias laboured to bee high Priest:

8 For he came vnto the king, and promised him three hundred and threescore talents of siluer, and of the other rents fourescore talents.

9 Besides this, he promised him yet an hundred and fiftie more, if he might haue licence to set vp a schole and an exercise of weapons, and that he might call them of Hierusalem, Antiochians.

10 Which when the king had graunted, and he had gotten the superioritie, he began immediately to draw his kinsmen to the custome of the heathen,

11 Put downe the things that the Iewes had set vp of loue by John the father of Eupolemus, which was sent Ambassador vnto Rome, for to make the bonde of friendship and loue, he put downe all the lawes and liberties of the Iewes, and set vp the wicked statutes.

12 For when he had made a schole of fence vnder the castle, he drew all the chiefest yong men on his side, and trained them to weare [a] hattes.

13 And there was such a feruent desire to come to the maners of the heathen, and to take vp newe strange fashions, brought in through the vngracious & vnheard wickednesse of Iason, which should not bee called a Priest, but an vngodly person:

14 Insomuch that the Priests were now no more occupied about the seruice of the altar: but despised the Temple, regarded not the offerings, yea, gaue their diligence to learne to fight, to wrestle, to leape, to daunce, and to cast the stone:

15 Not setting by the honor of the fathers, but liked the glory of the Greekes best of all:

16 For the which they stroue perillously, and were greedie to followe their statutes, yea, there lust was in all things to bee like them, which afore were their enemies and destroyers.

17 Howbeit, to do wickedly against the law of God, shall not escape vnpunished: but of this we shall speake hereafter.

18 What time as the ‡ Olympian sports were played at Tyrus, the king himselfe beeing present, ‡ These were kept euery fift yere.

19 This vngratious Iason sent wicked men, bearing frō them of Ierusalem (which nowe were called Antiochians) three hundred drachmes of siluer, for an offering to Hercules: these had they that caried them desired, vnder such a fashion as though they should not haue bene offered, but bestowed to other vses.

20 Neuertheless, he that sent them, sent them to the intent that they should be offered vnto Hercules: but because of those that were present, they were giuen as to the making of ships.

21 And Apollonius the sonne of Menestheus was sent into Egypt, because of the noble men of king Ptolome Philometor. Now whē Antiochus perceiued that he was put out from [b] medling in the realme, hee sought his owne profite, departed frō thence, came to Ioppa, and then to Hierusalem, [b] From his honour and gaines.

22 Where he was honourably receiued of Iason, and of the citie, and was brought in with torch light, and with great praise: and so he turned his host vnto Phenices.

23 After three yeeres, Iason sent Menelaus (the foresaid Simons brother) to beare the money vnto the king, and to bring him answere of other necessarie matters.

24 But he when he was commended to the king for magnifying of his power, turned the Priesthood vnto himselfe, laying vp three hundred talents of siluer for Iason.

25 So when he had gotten commaundements from the king, hee came hauing nothing that becommeth a Priest, but bearing the stomache of a cruell tyrant, and the wrath of a wild brute beast.

26 Then Iason, which had receiued his own brother, seeing that he himselfe was beguiled also, was faine to flee into the land of the Ammonites,

27 And Menelaus gate the dominion but as for the money that hee had promised vnto

[a] These hats were tokens of wantonnes that the Gentiles vsed.

to

to the king, hee did nothing therein, albeit Sostratus the ruler of the castle required it of him.

28 For Sostratus was the man that gathered the customes: wherefore they were both called before the king.

29 Thus was Menelaus put out of the Priesthoode, and Lysimachus his brother came in his stead, and Sostratus left Crates minister of the Cyprians.

* That is, of them that mainteined the cept.

30 It happened in the meane season, that the Tharsians and Mallotians made insurrection, because they were giuen for a present vnto Antiochis the kings concubine.

31 Then came the king in all haste to still them againe, and to pacifie the matter, leauing Andronicus there to be his deputie, as one meete therefore.

32 Nowe Menelaus supposing that hee had gotten a right conuenient time, stole certaine vessels of golde out of the Temple, and gaue them to Andronicus for a present: and some hee solde at Tyrus, and in the cities thereby.

33 Which when Onias knew of a suretie, he reproued him: but he kept him in a sanctuarie beside Daphnis, that lieth by Antioche.

34 Wherefore Menelaus gat him to Andronicus, and prayed him that he would slay Onias. So whē he came to Onias, he counselled him craftily to come out of the sanctuarie, giuing him his hand with an othe (howbeit he suspect him) and then he slewe Onias without any regard of righteousnesse.

35 For the which cause not onely the Iewes, but other nations also, tooke indignation, and were displeased for the vnrighteous death of so godly a man.

36 And when the king was come againe from Cilicia, the Iewes and certaine of the Greekes went vnto him, complayning for the vnrighteous death of Onias.

37 Yea, Antiochus him selfe was sorie in his minde for Onias, so that it pitied him: and he wept, remembring his sobernes, and manerly behauiour.

38 Wherefore hee was so kindled in his minde, that he commaunded Andronicus to be stripped out of his purple clothing, and so to be led thorow out the citie, yea, and the vngracious man to be slaine in the same place where he committed his wickednesse vpon Onias: thus the Lorde rewarded him his punishment, as he had deserued.

39 Now when Lysimachus had done many wicked deedes in the Temple through the counsell of Menelaus, and the voyce came abroad: the multitude gathered them together against Lysimachus, for he had carried out nowe much golde.

40 So when the people arose, and were full of displeasure, Lysimachus armed three thousand vnthrifts to defend him, a certaine tyrant being their captaine, which was growen both in age and woodnesse.

41 They therefore seeing the enterprise of Lysimachus, caught vp, some stones, some blockes endes, and some handfulles of dust that was next at hand, and threwe them vpon the rebelles of Lysimachus band that had set vpon them.

42 Thus there were many of them wounded, some being slaine, and all the other chased away: but as for the wicked churchrobber him selfe, they killed him beside the treasurie.

43 Of these matters therefore there was kept a court against Menelaus.

44 Nowe when the king came to Tyrus, three men that were sent from the Senate, pleaded him guiltie before the king.

45 But Menelaus being nowe conuict, went and promised Ptolome the sonne of Dorymenes to giue him much money, if he would pacifie the king toward him.

46 So Ptolome went to the king into a court, whereas he was set to coole him, and brought him out of that minde:

47 Insomuch that he discharged Menelaus from the accusations, that notwithstanding was cause of all mischiefe: and those poore men, which if they had tolde their cause, yea, before the Scythians, they should haue bene iudged innocent, them hee condemned to death.

48 Thus were they soone punished, which followed vpon the matter for the citie, for the people, and for the holy vessels.

49 Wherefore they also of Tyrus, moued with hatred of that wicked deede, caused them to be very honourably buried.

50 And so through the couetousnesse of them that were in power, Menelaus remained still in authoritie, increasing in malice, to the hurt of the citizens.

The v. Chapter.

2 Of the signes and tokens seene in Hierusalem. 6 Of the ende and office of Iason. 11 The pursuite of Antiochus against the Iewes.

ABout the same time Antiochus vndertooke his seconde voyage into Egypt.

2 And then were there seene throughout al the citie of Hierusalem fourtie dayes long, horsemen running in the ayre, with robes of golde, and as bands of spearemen,

3 And as troupes of horsemen set in aray, incountering and coursing one against another, with shaking of shields, and multitude of darts, and drawing of swordes, and shooting of arrowes, and the glittering of the golden armour seene, and harnesse of all sortes.

4 Wherefore euery man prayed, that those tokens might turne to good.

5 Now when there was gone forth a false rumour, as though Antiochus had bene dead, Iason tooke a thousand men, and came suddenly vpon the citie: the citizens ranne vnto the walles: at the last was the citie taken, and Menelaus fled into the castle.

6 As for Jason, he spared not his owne citizens in the slaughter, neither considered he what great euill it were, to destroy the prosperitie of his owne kinsmen: but did as one that had gotten the victorie of his enemies, and not of his friends.

7 For all this gate he not the superioritie, but at the last receiued confusion for his malice, and fled againe like a vagabond into the land of the Ammonites.

8 Finally, for a rewarde of his wickednesse, he was accused before Aretha the king of the Arabians, insomuch that hee was fayne to flee from citie to citie, being despised of euery man as a forsaker of the lawes, and an abominable person: and at the last, as an open enemie of his owne naturall countrey and of the citizens, hee was driuen into Egypt.

9 Thus hee that afore put many out of their owne natiue land, perished from home himselfe: he went to Lacedemon, thinking there to haue gotten succour by reason of kinred.

10 And hee that afore had cast many one out vnburied, was throwen out himselfe, no man mourning for him, nor putting him in his graue: so that he neither enioyed the buriall of a stranger, neither was he partaker of his fathers sepulchre.

11 Now when this was done, the king suspected that the Iewes would haue fallen from him, wherefore he came in a great displeasure out of Egypt, and tooke the citie by violence.

12 He commanded his men of warre also, that they should kill and not spare: but slay downe such as withstood them, or climed vp vpon the houses.

13 Thus was there a great slaughter of yong men, olde men, women, children, and virgins.

14 In three dayes were there slaine foure score thousand, fourty thousand put in prison: and there were as many solde as were slaine.

15 Yet was he not content with this, but durst go into the most holy Temple of all the world, Menelaus, that traitour to the lawes and to his owne naturall countrey, being his guide.

16 And with his wicked hands tooke the holy vessels, which other kings and cities had giuen thither for the garnishing and honour of the place, them tooke he in his hands vnworthily, and defiled them.

17 So mad was Antiochus, that he considered not howe that God was not a little wroth for the sinnes of them that dwelt in the citie, for the which such confusion came vpon that place.

18 And why? if it had not happened them to haue bene lapped in many sinnes, this Antiochus alloone as he had come, had suddenly bene punished & shut out of his presumption, *like as Heliodorus was, whome Seleucus the king sent to robbe the treasurie.

2.Mac.3.24

19 Neuertheless, God hath not chosen the people for the places sake: but the place for the peoples sake.

20 And therefore is the place become partaker of the peoples trouble, but afterwarde shall it enioy the wealth of them: and like as it was now forsaken in the wrath of almightie God: so when the great God is reconciled, it shall be set vp in high worship againe.

21 So when Antiochus had taken a thousand and eight hundred talents out of the temple, hee gate him to Antioche in all the haste, thinking in his pride that hee might make men sayle vpon the dry land, and to goe vpon the sea, such an high minde had he.

22 He left deputies there to vexe the people: at Hierusalem left hee Philip a Phrygian, in maners more cruell then himselfe that set him there:

23 At Garizim hee left Andronicus and Menelaus, which were more grieuous to the citizens then other.

24 Nowe as he was thus set in malice against the Iewes, he sent Apollonius a cruel prince, with an armie of twentie and two thousand, commaunding him to slay those that were of perfect age, and to sell the women, and the yonger sort.

25 When he came now to Hierusalem, he layned peace, and kept him still vntill the Sabboth day: and then he commanded his men to take them to their weapons, for the Iewes kept holy day:

26 And so he slue all them that were gone forth to the open playne, running here and there throwe the citie with his men weaponed, and murdered a great number.

27 But Judas Machabeus, which was the *tenth, fled into the wildernesse, led his life there with his company among wilde beasts, and vpon the mountaines, dwelling there, and eating herbes, lest they should be partakers of the filthinesse.

*Of them that fled for religion.

The vj. Chapeer.

1 The Iewes are compelled to leaue the Lawe of God. 4 The temple is defiled. 12 The readers are admonished that they shal not abhorre the aduersity wherewith the Lorde afflicteth them. 28 The grieuous paine of Eleazarus.

NOt long after this, sent ‖ the king an olde man of Antioche, for to compell the Iewes to transgresse the ordinances of the fathers, and of the Law of God.

‖ or, Athens.

2 To defile the temple that was at Hierusalem, and to call it the temple of Jupiter Olympius: and that they should be in Garizim, as those which dwell at the place of Jupiter the harberous.

3 This wicked sedition of the vngodly, was heauie vpon all the people:

4 For the temple was full of voluptuousnesse, bibbing and bolling of the heathen, of rybaudes and harlots together: the women went into the holy place, and bare in that was was not lawfull.

5 The altar also was full of vnlawfull things, which ỹ law forbiddeth to lay vpõ it.

6 The Sabboths were not kept, the other solemne feastes of the land were not regarded: to be playne, there durst no man be knowen that he was a Jewe.

7 In the day of the kings birth they were compelled perforce to offer, and when the feast of Bacchus was kept, they were constrayned to weare garlands of yuie, and so to goe about to the honour of Bacchus.

8 Moreouer, through the counsell of Ptolomeus, there went out a commaundement vnto the next cities of the Heathen, against the Jewes, that the like custome and ‖ banket ting should be kept.

‖Or, eating of the flesh that was sacrificed.

9 And whoso would not conforme themselues to the maners of the Gentiles, should be put to death: then might a man haue seene the present miserie.

10 For there were two women accused to haue circumcised their sonnes: whom when they had led round about the citie, the babes hanging at their breastes, they cast them downe headlong ouer the walles.

11 Some that were crept in dennes, and had kept the Sabboth, were accused vnto Philip, and burnt in the fire, because that for the feare of God they kept the cõmandement so fully, and would not defend themselues.

12 Nowe I beseech all those which reade this booke, that they refuse it not for these falles of aduersitie, and iudge the things that are happened, for no destruction, but for a chastening of our people.

13 And why? when God suffereth not sinners long to folow their owne minde, but shortly punisheth them, it is a token of his great louing kindnesse.

14 For this grace haue we of God, more the other people, that he suffreth not vs long to sinne vnpunished, like as other nations:

15 That when the day of iudgement commeth, he may punish them in the fulnesse of their sinnes.

16 If we sinne, hee correcteth vs, but he neuer withdraweth his mercy from vs: and though he punish with aduersitie, yet doeth he neuer forsake his people.

17 But let this that we haue spoken now with few wordes, be for a warning and exhortation ‖ of the heathen: now will we come to the declaring of the matter.

‖ Or, vnto vs.

18 Eleazar one of the principal Scribes, an aged man, and of a well fauoured countenance, was constrayned to gape with open mouth, and to eate swines flesh.

19 But he desiring rather to die gloriously, then to liue with shame, offered himselfe willingly to the martyrdome.

20 Nowe when hee sawe that hee must needes goe to it, he tooke it patiently: for hee was at a point with himselfe, that he would not consent to any vnlawfull thing for any pleasure of life.

21 They that * stoode by, being moued with pitie (but not aright) for the olde friendship of the man, tooke him aside priuily, and prayed him that hee would let such flesh be brought him as were lawfull to eate, & then to make a countenance as though he had eaten of the flesh of the sacrifice, like as the king commaunded,

* They that had the charge of that wicked banket.

22 For so hee might be deliuered from death: and for the old friendship of the man, they shewed him this kindnesse.

23 But hee began to consider discreetely, and as became his age, and the excellencie of his ancient yeres, and the honour of his gray hayres whereunto he was come, & his most honest conuersation from his childehoode, but chiefly the holy lawe made and giuen by God, therefore hee answered consequently, and willed them straightwayes to send him to the graue:

24 For it becommeth not mine age, sayde he, in any wise to dissemble, whereby many yong persons might thinke that Eleazar being fourescore yeeres olde and ten, were now gone to a strange religion:

25 And so through mine hypocrisie for a litle time of a transitorie life, they might be deceiued: by this meanes also should I defile mine age, and make it abominable.

26 For though I were nowe deliuered from the torments of men, yet should I not escape the hand of almightie God, neither aliue nor dead.

27 Wherefore I will dye manfully, and doe as it becommeth mine age:

28 Whereby I may peraduenture leaue an example of stedfastnes for such as be yong, if I with a ready mind, and manfully, die an honest death for the most worthy and holy lawes. When he had sayd these wordes, immediatly he was drawen to the torment.

29 Nowe they that ledde him, and were vnlde a little afore, began to take displeasure, because of the wordes that he sayde: for they thought he had spoke them of an high minde.

30 But when he was in his martyrdome, he mourned and said, Thou, O Lord, which hast the holy knowledge, knowest openly, that whereas I might bee deliuered from death, I suffer these sore paines of my body: but in my minde I am well content to suffer them, because I feare thee.

31 Thus this man dyed, leauing the memorial of his death for an example, not onely vnto yong men, but vnto all the people to be stedfast and manly.

The vij. Chapter.

The punishment of the seuen brethren, and of their mother.

IT happened also that there were seuen brethren with their mother taken, and compelled by the king against the lawe to eate swines flesh, namely, with scourges and leatherne whippes.

2 And one of them which was the chiefe, ſaid, what ſeekeſt thou, and what requireſt thou of vs? As for vs, we are ready rather to ſuffer death, then to offend the lawes of God and the fathers.

3 Then was the king angry, and bade heate cauldrons, and braſen pottes: which when they were made hot,

4 Immediatly he commanded the tongue of him that ſpake firſt, to be cut out, to pull the ſkinne ouer his head, to pare the edges of his handes and feete, yea, and that in the ſight of his mother, and the other of his brethren.

5 Nowe when hee was cleane mangled, hee commaunded a fire to bee made, and ſo (while there was any breath in him) to be fried in the cauldron: In the which when he had bene long payned, the other brethren with their mother, exhorted him to dye manfully, ſaying,

6 The Lord God ſhall regard the trueth, and comfort vs, like as Moſes teſtifieth and declareth in his ſong, ſaying, And hee will Deu.32.43. *haue compaſſion on his ſeruants.

7 So when the firſt was dead after this maner, they brought the ſecond, to haue him in deriſion, pulled the ſkinne with the haire ouer his head, and aſked him if he would eate ſwines fleſh, yer he were payned in the other members alſo thorowout his body.

8 But he anſwered in his owne language, and ſaid, I will not doe it: and ſo he was tormented like as the firſt.

9 And when he was euen at the giuing vp of the ghoſt, he ſaide, Thou moſt vngracious perſon puttеſt vs nowe to death: but the King of the world ſhall raiſe vs vp which die for his lawes, in the reſurrection of euerlaſting life.

10 After him was the third had in deriſion, and when hee was required, he put out his tongue, and that right ſoone, holding forth his hands manfully:

11 And ſpake with a ſtedfaſt faith, Theſe haue I of heauen, but nowe for the lawes of God I deſpiſe them: for my truſt is that I ſhall receiue them of him againe.

12 Inſomuch that the king and they which were with him, marueiled at the yong mans boldneſſe, that hee nothing regarded the paynes.

13 Now when he was dead alſo, they vexed the fourth with torments in like maner.

14 So when he was now at his death, he ſayd, It is better that we, being put to death of men, haue our hope and truſt in God, for he ſhall raiſe vs vp againe: as for thee, thou ſhalt haue no reſurrection to life.

15 And when they had ſpoken to the fifth, they tormented him.

16 Then looked he vnto ye king, and ſaid, Thou haſt power among men, for thou art a mortall man alſo thy ſelfe, to doe what thou wilt: but thinke not that God hath forſaken our generation.

17 Abide thee, tary ſtill a while, and thou ſhalt ſee the great power of God, how he will puniſh thee and thy ſeede.

18 After him they brought the ſixth, which being at the poynt of death, ſaide, Be not deceiued, O king: for this wee ſuffer for our owne ſakes, becauſe we haue offended our God, and therefore marueilous things are ſhewed vpon vs.

19 But thinke not thou which takeſt in hand to ſtriue againſt God, that thou ſhalt eſcape vnpuniſhed.

20 This excellent mother, worthy to be well reported of, and had in remembrance, ſawe her ſeuen ſonnes dye in one day, and ſuffered it patiently, becauſe of the hope that ſhe had in God:

21 Yea, ſhe exhorted euery one of them in her countrey language, and that boldly and ſtedfaſtly with perfect wiſedome, waking vp her wyuiſh thought with a manly ſtomache, and ſaid vnto them,

22 I can not tell howe yee ſprang in my wombe, for I neither gaue you breath, nor ſoule, nor life, it is not I that ioyned ye members of your bodies together,

23 But the maker of the worlde, which faſhioned the birth of man, and beganne all things: euen he alſo of his owne mercy ſhall giue you breath and life againe, like as yee nowe regarde not your owne ſelues for his lawes ſake.

24 Now thought Antiochus that ſhe had deſpiſed him, therefore hee let her goe with her reprooſes, and began to exhort the yongeſt ſonne which was yet left, not onely with wordes, but ſwore vnto him with an othe, that he ſhould make him a rich and wealthie man, if he would forſake the lawes of his fathers: yea, and that he ſhould giue him whatſoeuer were neceſſarie for him.

25 But when the yong man would not be moued for all theſe things, he called his mother, & counſelled her to ſaue her ſonnes life.

26 And when hee had exhorted her with many wordes, ſhee promiſed him that ſhee would ſpeake to her ſonne.

27 So ſhe turned her vnto him, laughing the cruell tyrant to ſcorne, and ſpake in her countrey language, O my ſonne, haue pitie vpon me, that bare thee nine moneths in my wombe, that gaue thee ſucke, nouriſhed thee, and brought thee vp vnto this age:

28 I beſeech thee, my ſonne, looke vpon heauen and earth, and all that is therein, and conſider that God made them and mans generation of nought:

29 So ſhalt thou not feare this hangmã, but ſuffer death ſtedfaſtly, like as thy brethren haue done: that I may receiue thee againe in the ſame mercy with thy brethren.

30 While ſhee was yet ſpeaking theſe wordes, the yong man ſayd, whome looke ye for? wherefore doe ye tary? I will not obey the kings commaundement, but the Lawe that God gaue vs by Moſes.

31 As

31 As for thou that imaginest al mischiefe against the ‖ Iewes, thou shalt not escape the hand of God. (Or, Hebrewes.)

32 For we suffer these thinges because of our sinnes.

33 And though the liuing Lord be angrie with vs a litle while, for our chastening, and reformation, yet shall hee bee at one againe with his seruants.

34 But thou, O godlesse man, and of all other the most wicked, pride not thy selfe through vaine hope, in being so malicious vpon the seruants of God:

35 For thou hast not yet escaped the iudgments of God, which is almightie, and seeth all things.

36 My brethren that haue suffered a litle paine, are nowe vnder the couenant of euerlasting life: but through the iudgement of God, thou shalt bee punished righteously for thy pride.

37 As for mee, like as my brethren haue done, I offer my ‖ soule and my body for the lawes of our fathers, calling vpon God, that hee will soone bee mercifull vnto our people, yea, and with paine and punishment to make thee graunt that he onely is God. (Or, life.)

38 In mee nowe and in my brethren the wrath of almightie God is at an ende, which righteously is fallen vpon all our people.

39 Then the king, being kindled in anger, was more cruel vpon him then vpon all the other, and tooke indignation that hee was so lightly regarded.

40 So this yong man died vndefiled, and put his trust still in the Lord.

41 Last of all after the sonnes, was the mother put to death also.

42 Let this nowe be ynough spoken concerning the offrings and extreme cruelnesse.

The viij. Chapter.

1 Iudas gathereth together his hoste. 9 Nicanor is sent against Iudas. 27 The Iewes giue thankes after they haue put their enemies to flight, deuiding the spoyles vnto the fatherlesse and widowes.

THen Iudas Machabeus, and they that were with him, went priuily into the townes, called their kinsefolkes and friendes together, tooke vnto them all such as continued yet in the faith and lawe of the Iewes, and brought fourty fiue thousand men.

2 So they called vpon the Lorde, that he woulde haue an eye vnto his people which was troden downe of euery man, to bee gracious vnto the temple that was defiled of the vngodly,

3 To haue compassion vpon the destruction of the citie, which was shortly like to bee layde waste, to heare the voyce of the blood that cryed vnto him,

4 To remember the most vnrighteous deathes of yong innocent children, the blasphemies also done vnto his Name, and to punish them.

5 Now when Machabeus had gathered this multitude together, he was too mightie for the heathen: for the wrath of the Lorde was turned into mercie.

6 Hee fell vpon the townes and cities vnwares, burnt them, tooke the most commodious places, and slue many of the enemies:

7 But specially hee made such chases by night, in so much that his manlinesse was spoken of euery where.

8 So when Philippe sawe that the man encreased by litle and litle, and that the matter prospered with him for the most part: hee wrote vnto Ptolome, which was a captaine in Coelosyria and Phenice, to helpe him in the kings businesse.

9 Then sent he Nicanor the sonne of Patroclus, a speciall friende of his, in all the haste, and gaue him of the common sort of the heathen, no lesse then twentie thousand harnessed men, to roote out the whole generation of the Iewes, hauing to helpe him one Gorgias a man of warre, which in matters concerning battels had great experience.

10 Nicanor ordeyned also the tribute which the Romanes shoulde haue had to bee giuen vnto the king out of the captiuitie of the Iewes, namely, two thousand talents.

11 And immediatly hee sent to the cities of the sea coast, requiring them for to buy Iewes to bee their seruants and bondmen, promising to sell them fourescore and ten for one talent: but he considered not the wrath of Almightie God that was to come vpon him.

12 When Iudas knewe of this, hee tolde the Iewes that were with him of Nicanors comming.

13 Nowe were there some of them fearefull, not trusting vnto the righteousnesse of God, and fledde their way, and abode not in that place:

14 But the other solde all that they had left, and besought the Lorde to deliuer them from that wicked Nicanor, which had solde them or euer he came nigh them:

15 And though hee woulde not doe it for their sakes, yet for the couenant that hee made with their fathers, and because they called vpon his holy and glorious Name.

16 And so Machabeus called his men together, namely, about fiue thousande, exhorting them not to agree vnto their enemies, neither to be afraid for the multitude of their aduersaries comming against them vnrighteously, but to fight manly,

17 Considering the reproofe that they had done to the holy place without cause, how they had defiled and oppressed the citie, yea, and destroyed the lawes of the fathers.

18 For they, saide hee, trust in their weapons and boldnesse: but our confidence is in the Almightie Lorde, which in the twinckling of an eye, may both destroye them that come against vs, and all the world.

19 Hee exhorted them also to call to remembrance 4.Reg.19. 35.

memb͛rance the helpe that God shewed vnto Eccle.48. 24. their fathers, as when there perished * an esai. 37.36. hundred fourescore and fiue thousande of Sennacheribs people:

20 And of the battel that they had in Babylon against the Galathians: howe all the Macedonians that came to helpe them, being foure thousande, stoode in feare: and
‖Or, eight thousand. howe they, being only but ‖ fiue thousand, slue an hundred & twenty thousand, through the helpe ẏ was giuen them frō heauen, whereby they also had receiued many benefites.

21 Through these wordes, the men tooke good heartes vnto them, readie to die for the lawe and the countrey.

22 So hee set vpon euery company a captaine, one of his owne brethren, Simon, Joseph, and Jonathas, giuing eche one fifteene hundred men.

‖Or, Eleazarus. 23 Hee caused ‖ Esdras also to reade the holy booke vnto them, and to giue them a token of the helpe of God: then hee himselfe, being captaine in the forefront of the batell, buckled with Nicanor.

24 And God was their helpe, insomuch that they slue aboue nine thousande men, and compelled the more part of Nicanors hoste to flee, they were so wounded & feeble.

25 Thus they tooke the money from those that came to buy them, and followed vpon them on euery side.

26 But when the time came vpon them, they returned, for it was the day before the Sabbath, and therefore they followed no more vpon them.

27 So they tooke their weapons and spoyles, and kept the Sabboth, giuing thankes vnto the Lord, which had deliuered them that day, and shewed them the beginning of his mercie.

28 After the Sabboth, they distributed the spoyles to the sicke, to the fatherlesse, and to widowes, and the residue had they themselues, with theirs.

29 When this was done, and they all had made a generall prayer, they besought the mercifull Lord to be at one with his seruats.

30 Of those also that were with Timotheus and Bacchides, which fought against them, they slewe twentie thousande, wanne high and strong holdes, and diuided moe spoyles, euer giuing an equall portion vnto the sicke, to the fatherlesse, to widowes, and to aged persons.

31 And when they had diligently gathered their weapons together, they layde them all in conuenient places, and the remnant of the spoyles brought they to Hierusalem.

32 They slewe also Philarches that wicked person, which was with Timotheus, and had vexed many Jewes.

33 And when they helde the thankes giuing at Hierusalem for the victorie, they burnt those that had set fire on the portes of the temple, namely, Callisthenes, which was fled into an house, and so they gate a worthie reward for their wickednesse.

34 As for that most vngratious Nicanor, which had brought a thousand marchants to buy the Jewes, 35 He was through the helpe of the Lord brought downe, euen of them whom hee regarded not: in so much that he put off his glorious raimēt, fled by sea, & came alone to Antioche with great shame & dishonour, which he gate through the destruction of his hoste.

36 Thus hee that promised the Romanes to pay them their tribute when he tooke Hierusalem, began now to say plainly, that God was the defender of the Jewes, & therefore not possible to wounde them, because they followed the lawes which God had made.

The ix. Chapter.

1 Antiochus willing to spoyle Persepolis, is driuen to flight. 9 As he persecuted the Iewes, he is stricken of the Lorde. 13 The fained repentance of Antiochus. 28 He dyeth.

AT the same time came Antiochus againe with dishonour out of Persia.

2 For when hee came to Persepolis, and vndertooke to robbe the temple, & to subdue the citie, the people ranne together, and defended themselues, in somuch that he and his were faine to flee with shame: and so after that flight, it happened that Antiochus came againe with dishonour.

3 But when hee came to Ecbatana, hee gate knowledge what was happened vnto Nicanor and Timotheus.

4 Nowe as he was auaunting himselfe in his wrath, he thought he was able to auenge the iniurie that was done to them vpon the Jewes: and therefore commanding to make readie his charet, hasting on his iourney without ceasing, the iudgement of God prouoking him, because hee had spoken so proudly, that he woulde come to Hierusalem, and make it a graue of the Jewes.

5 But the Lorde God of Israel that seeth all thinges, smote him with an incurable and inuisible plague, which no man coulde heale: for as soone as hee had spoken these wordes, there came vpon him an horrible paine of his bowels, and a sore griefe of the inner partes,

6 And that was but right: for hee had martyred other mens bowels with diuers and strange torments.

7 Howbeit, he would in no wise cease from his malice: yea, he was yet ẏ prouder & more malicious against the Jewes: but whyle he was commanding to make haste in the matter, it happened that he fell downe violently from the charret that ran swiftly, so that it bruised his body, and did him great paine.

8 And so he that thought a litle before hee might command the floods of the sea, (so proud was he beyonde the condition of man) and to weigh the high mountaines in a payre of balance, balance, was nowe brought downe to the ground, & caried vpon an horselitter, knowledging the manifest power of God vpō him:

9 So that the wormes came out of the body of this wicked man in abundance: and whiles he was aliue, his flesh fel off for paine and torment, and all his armie was grieued at his ‖ smell.

‖Or, rottennesse.

10 Thus he that a litle afore thought hee might reach to the starres of heauen, him might no man nowe abide nor beare, for the behemencie of stinke.

11 Therefore hee being brought from his great pride, beganne to come to the knowledge of himselfe, for the punishment of God warned him, and his paine encreased euer more and more.

12 And when hee himselfe might not abide his owne stinke, hee saide these wordes, It is reason to bee obedient vnto God, and that a man which is mortal, thinke not thorowe pride, himselfe to be equall vnto God.

13 This wicked person prayed also vnto the Lorde, who nowe woulde haue no mercie vpon him:

14 And as for the citie that hee came vnto so hastily, to bring it downe to the ground, and to make it a graue for dead men, nowe he declareth to deliuer it free.

15 And as touching the Iewes whom he had iudged not worthie to bee buried, but would haue cast them out with their childrē, for to be deuoured of the foules & wild beasts, saying that hee would haue destroyed both olde and yong, nowe hee promised to make them like the citizens of Athens.

16 And whereas hee had spoyled the holy temple afore, nowe hee maketh promise to garnish it with great giftes, to encrease the holy ornaments, and of his owne rentes to beare the costes and charges belonging to the offerings:

17 Yea, and that he would also become a Iewe himselfe, to goe thorowe euery place of the world that was inhabited, and to preach the power of God.

18 But when his paines would not ceasse (for the righteous iudgement of God was come vpon him) out of a very despaire hee wrote vnto the Iewes a letter of intercession, conteining these wordes:

19 The king and prince Antiochus, wisheth vnto the vertuous citizens of the Iewes, much health, and good prosperitie.

20 If ye and your children fare well, and if all things goe after your minde, wee giue great thankes.

21 In my sicknesse also doe I remember you louingly: for as I came out of Persia, and was taken with sore disease, I thought it necessarie to care for the common wealth:

22 Neither despaire I in my selfe, but haue a good hope to escape this sicknesse.

23 But considering that my father ledde an host some time in the higher places, and shewed who should reigne after him,

24 That if there happened any controuersie, or any hard thing were declared, they in the land might knowe their chiefe lord, that there should be no insurrection:

25 Againe, when I ponder with my selfe howe that all the mightie men, and neighbours round about, are laying waite, and looke but for opportunitie to doe harme: I haue ordeyned, that my sonne Antiochus shall reigne after me, whom I haue oft commended to many of you when I was in the higher kingdomes, and haue written vnto him as it followeth hereafter.

26 Therefore I pray you, and require you, to remember the benefites that I haue done vnto you generally, and in especiall, and that euery man will be faithfull to me and my sonne.

27 For I hope that he shall be of sober and louing behauiour, and if hee followe my deuice, he shall be indifferent vnto you.

28 Thus that murderer and blasphemer of God was sore smitten: and like as he had entreated other men, so he dyed a miserable death in a strange countrey vpon a mountaine:

29 And his body, did Philip that went with him, carry away, which fearing the sonne of Antiochus, went into Egypt to Ptolome Philometor.

The x. Chapter.

1 Iudas Machabeus taketh the citie and the temple. 10 He beginneth to shewe the actes of Eupator. 29 Fiue men appeare in the ayre to the helpe of the Iewes. 39 Timothie is slaine.

MAchabeus nowe and his companie, through the helpe of the Lorde, wanne the temple and the citie againe,

2 Destroyed the altars and chappels that the heathen had builded thorowe the streetes,

3 Cleansed the temple, made another altar of brickestone, and after two yeeres they offered sacrifices, set foorth the incense, the lightes, and shewe bread.

4 When that was done, they fell downe flatte vpon the grounde, and besought the Lorde that they might come no more into such trouble: but if they sinned any more against him, he himselfe to chasten them with mercie, and not to come into the handes of those aliants, and blasphemous men.

5 Now vpon the same day that the strangers polluted the temple, it happened that on the very same day it was cleansed againe, namely the twentie and fifth day of the moneth called ‖ Casleu.

‖Or, November.

6 They kept eight daies in gladnesse, like as in the feast of the tabernacles, remembring that not long afore they helde the feast of the tabernacles vpon the mountaines, and in dennes, like beastes.

7 And for the same token they bare greene boughes, branches, and palmes, and sung

psalmes before him that had giuen them good successe to cleanse his place.

8 They agreed also together, and made a statute, that euery yeere those dayes should be solemnely kept of all the people of the Iewes.

9 Nowe Antiochus then, that was called the noble, dyed, it is sufficiently knowen.

10 Nowe will wee speake of Eupator the sonne of that wicked Antiochus, how it happened with him, and so with fewe wordes to comprehend the aduersitie that chanced in the warres.

11 When hee had taken in the kingdome, hee made one Lysias, which had bene captaine of the hoste in Phenice and ‖ Syria, ruler ouer the matters of the realme.

‖ Or, Coelosyria.

12 For Ptolome, that was called Macron, being a ruler for the Iewes, and specially to sitte in iudgement for such wrong as was done vnto them, vndertooke to deale peaceably with them.

13 For the which cause hee was accused of his friends before Eupator: and when hee was suspect to be a traytour, because he had left Cyprus, that Philometor had committed vnto him, and because he departed from noble Antiochus that he was come vnto, hee poysoned himselfe, and dyed.

14 Nowe when Gorgias was gouernour of the same places, he tooke strangers, and vndertooke oft times to warre with the Iewes.

15 Moreouer, the Idumeans that helde the strong holdes, receiued those that were driuen from Hierusalem, and tooke in hand to warre also.

16 But they that were with Machabeus, besought and prayed vnto the Lorde, that he woulde be their helper, and so they fell vpon the strong holdes of the Idumeans, 17 And wanne many places by strength: such as came against them they slue, & killed no lesse of all together then twētie thousand.

18 Neuertheless, some, no lesse then nine thousand, were fled into two strong towres, hauing all maner of ordinance to withstand them.

19 Then Machabeus leauing Simon, Iosephus, Zacheus, & those that were with them, which were very many, went to besiege them, & to fight where most need was.

20 Nowe they that were with Simon, being ledde with couetousnesse, were entreated for money, through certaine of those that lay in the castles, and tooke three score and ten thousand a dragmas, and let some of them escape.

a A dragma is the right part of an ounce, which is about three pence.

21 But when it was tolde Machabeus what had happened, he called the captaines of the people together, accusing those persons that they had solde the brethren for money, and let their enemies goe.

22 So he slue those traytours, and immediatly went in hand with the two castles.

23 And when they had ordered themselues manly with their weapons and handes, they slewe in the two castles moe then twentie thousand.

24 Nowe Timotheus, whom the Iewes had ouercome afore, gathered a multitude of strange people, brought an hoste also of horsemen of the Asians, to winne Iurie by strength.

25 But when he drew nigh, Machabeus and they ẏ were with him, fell to their prayer, sprinkled ashes vpon their heades, being girded with hairie cloth about their loines, 26 Fell downe before the altar, and besought the Lorde that he would be mercifull to them, but an enemie vnto their enemies, and to take part against their aduersaries, according as it is promised in the lawe.

27 So after the prayer they tooke their weapons, and went on further from the citie: and when they came nigh the enemies, they prepared themselues against them.

28 And betimes in the morning at the breake of the day, both the hostes buckled together: the one part had the Lorde for their refuge, which is the giuer of prosperitie, strength, and victorie, the other had a manly stomacke, which is a captaine of warre.

29 The battell nowe being great, there appeared vnto the enemies from heauen fiue goodly men vpon horsebackes, with bridles of golde leading the Iewes:

30 And two of them hauing Machabeus betwixt them, that kept him safe on euery side with their weapons, but shot darts and lightnings vpon ẏ enemies, wherethrough they were confounded with blindnesse, and so sore afraide, that they fell downe.

31 There were slaine of footemen twentie thousand and fiue hundred, and fiue hundred horsemen.

32 As for Timotheus himselfe, he fled vnto Gazara, a very strong hold, wherein Chereas was captaine.

33 But Machabeus and his companie laide siege to it cheerefully foure dayes.

34 Now they that were within, trusting to the strength of the place, cursed and banned exceedingly, and made great crabbing with wicked wordes.

35 Neuertheless, vpon the fifth day in the morning, twentie yong men of Machabeus companie, being set on fire in their mindes, because of the blasphemie, came manfully vnto the wall, & with bolde stomaches smote downe those that they met.

36 Others also clymed vp vpon the towres, vndertaking to set fire vpon the portes, and to burne those blasphemous persons quicke with ẏ fires that they had made: others brake open the gates, and receiued the rest of the armie, and tooke the citie.

37 Two dayes were they destroying the castle, which when they founde Timotheus that was crept in a corner, they killed him, and slewe Chereas his brother in like maner, with Apollophanes.

38 when

38 When this was done, they sung psalmes with praises & thanks giuing vnto the Lord, which had done so great things for Israel, and giuen them the victorie.

The xj. Chapter.

1 Lysias goeth about to ouercome the Iewes. 8 Succour is sent from heauen vnto the Iewes.

NOt long after this, Lysias the kings steward, and a kinsman of his, which had the gouernance of his matters, tooke sore displeasure for the things that had happened.

2 And when hee had gathered fourescore thousande men of foote, with all the horse of the horsemen, hee came against the Iewes, thinking to winne the citie, to make it an habitation of the heathen:

3 And the temple would he haue to be an house of lucre, like as the other gods houses of the heathen are, and to sel the priests office euery yeere,

4 Not considering the power of God, but was wilde in his mind, trusting in the multitude of footemen, in thousandes of horsemen, and in his foure score Elephants.

5 So hee came into Iurie, and then to Bethsura, a castle of defence, lying in a narrowe place, fiue furlongs from Hierusalem, and layd sore siege vnto it.

6 Nowe when Machabeus & his companie knewe that his strong holdes were besieged, they fell to their prayers with weeping and teares before the Lord: and all the people in like maner besought him, that he would send a good angel to deliuer Israel.

7 Machabeus himselfe was the first that made him ready to the battel exhorting the other that were with him, to ieoparde themselues, and to helpe their brethren.

8 And when they were going forth of Hierusalem together with a ready and willing minde, there appeared before them vpon horsebacke, a man in white clothing, with harnesse of gold, shaking his speare.

9 Then they prayed the Lorde all together, which had shewed them mercie, & were comforted in their mindes, insomuch that they were ready not only to fight with men, but with the most cruell beasts, yea, and run through walles of yron.

10 Thus they went on willingly, hauing an helper from heauen, and the Lord merciful vnto them,

11 They fel mightily vpon their enemies like Lions, slew eleuen thousand footemen, sixteene hundred horsemen, and put all the other to flight, 12 Many of them being wounded, & some gate away naked: yea, Lysias himselfe was fayne to flee shamefully, and so to escape.

13 Neuertheless that man was not without vnderstanding, but considered by himselfe that his power was minished, and pondered how the Iewes, being defended by the helpe of almightie God, were not able to bee ouercome: wherefore he sent them word, 14 And promised that he would consent to all things which were reasonable, and to make the king their friend.

15 To the which prayer of Lysias, Machabeus agreed, seeking in all things the common wealth: and whatsoeuer Machabeus wrote vnto Lysias concerning the Iewes, the king granted it.

16 For there were letters written vnto the Iewes from Lysias, conteyning these words, Lysias sendeth greeting to the people of the Iewes, 17 Iohn and ‖ Absalon which were sent from you, deliuered me writings, and required me to fulfill the things concerning their errande. ‖ Or, Absalom.

18 Therefore looke what might be granted, I certified the king thereof: and whatsoeuer was conuenient, he agreed thereto.

19 If yee nowe will bee faithfull in these matters, I shall endeuour my selfe hereafter also to do you good.

20 As concerning these things, by euery article thereof, I haue committed them to your messengers, and to those whome I sent vnto you to commune with you of the same particularly.

21 Fare yee well. In the hundred fourtie and eight yere, the twentie and fourth day of the moneth Dioscorinthus.

22 Nowe the kings letter conteined these wordes, King Antiochus sendeth greeting vnto his brother Lysias:

23 Forasmuch as our father is now translated vnto the gods, our will is, that they which are in our realme, liue without any insurrection, and euery man to bee diligent in his owne matters.

24 Wee vnderstand also that the Iewes would not consent to our father for to bee brought vnto the custome of the Gentiles, but stifely to keepe their owne statutes, for the which cause they require of vs also to let them remaine still after their owne lawes.

25 Wherefore our minde is, that this people shalbe in rest: we haue concluded and determined also to restore them their temple again, that they may liue according to the vse and custome of their forefathers.

26 Thou shalt do vs a pleasure therefore, if thou sende vnto them, and graunt them peace: that when they are certified of our minde, they may be of good cheare, and loue to their owne wealth.

27 And this was the letter that the king wrote vnto the Iewes: King Antiochus sendeth greeting vnto the counsell, and the other people of the Iewes, 28 If ye fare well, we haue our desire: as for vs, we are in good health.

29 Menelaus came and told vs how that your desire was to returne home and peaceably to enioy your owne possessions.

30 Wherefore, those that will come, wee giue

giue them free liberties vnto the thirtieth day of the moneth of ‖Apill,

‖Or, Zanthicus.

31 That they may vse the meates of the Iewes, and their owne lawes, like as afore, and none of them by any maner of wayes to haue harme for things done in ignorance.

32 I haue sent also Menelaus, that hee may comfort you.

33 Fare ye well. In the hundred fourtie and eight yeere, the fifteenth day of the moneth of Apil.

34 The Romanes also sent a letter, conteining these words, Quintus Memmius, and Titus Manilius, ambassadours of the Romanes, sende greeting vnto the people of the Iewes.

35 Looke what Lysias the kings kinsman hath graunted you, we graunt you the same also.

36 But as concerning the things which he referred vnto the king, sende hither some with speede, and ponder the matter diligently among your selues, that we may ‖rail the best to your profite: for we must depart moreouer vnto Antioch.

‖Or, cõsult.

37 And therfore write shortly againe, that we may know your minde.

38 Farewell. In the hundred fourtie and eight yeere, the fifteenth day of the moneth of Apill.

The xij. Chapter.

2 Timotheus troubleth the Iewes. 3 The wicked deede of them of Ioppa against the Iewes.

WHen these couenantes were made, Lysias went vnto the king: and the Iewes tilled their ground.

2 But Timotheus and Apollonius the sonne of Iennei, Ierome, and Demophon the proude, Nicanor the captaine of Cyprus, and they that lay in those places, would not let them liue in rest and peace.

3 They of Ioppa also did euē such a shamefull deede: they prayed the Iewes that dwelt among them, to go with their wiues & children into the shippes which they had prepared, and did with them as though they had ought them no euill will.

4 For so much then as there was gone forth a generall proclamation vnto the citie because of peace, they consented thereto, and suspect nothing: but when they were gone forth into the deepe, they drowned no lesse then two hundred of them.

5 When Judas knewe of this cruelte shewed vnto his people, he commanded those that were with him to make them ready.

6 Exhorting them to call vpon God the righteous Judge, went forth against those murderers of his brethren, set fire in the hauen by night, burnt vp the shippes: and those that escaped from the fire, hee slewe with the sworde.

7 And when he had done this, hee departed, as though he would come againe, and roote out all them of Joppa.

8 But when he had gotten word that the Jamnites were minded to doe in like maner vnto the Iewes which dwelt among them,

9 He came vpon the Jamnites by night, and set fire on the hauen, with the shippes: so that the light of the fire was seene at Hierusalem, vpon a two hundred and fourtie furlongs.

10 Nowe when they were gone from thence nine furlongs in their iourney towarde Timotheus, fiue thousand men on foote, and fiue hundred horsemen of the Arabians fought with him.

11 So when the battel was earnest, and prospered with Judas through the helpe of God, the residue of ỹ Arabians being ouercome, besought Judas to bee at one with them, & promised to giue him certaine ‖ pastures, and to do him good in other things.

a The Nomades of Arabia, so called, because they were shepheardes.

‖Or, cattell.

12 Judas thinking that they should in deede be profitable concerning many things, promised them peace, wherupon they shooke hands, and so they departed to their tents.

13 Judas went also into a citie, which was very fast kept with bridges, fenced round about with walles and diuers kindes of people dwelling therein, called Calpin.

14 They that were within it, put such trust in the strength of the walles, & in their store of victuals, that they were the slacker in their doings, cursing and reuiling Judas with blasphemies, and speaking such words as it becommeth not.

15 But Machabeus calling vpon the great prince of the world (which without a battaile raumes or ordinances of warre, did cast downe the walles of Jericho in the time of Josuah) fell manfully vpon the walles, Ios. 6. 20.

16 Tooke the citie, and through the helpe of the Lord made an exceeding great slaughter: in so much that a lake of two furlongs broade, which lay thereby, seemed to flowe with the blood of the slaine.

17 Then departed they from thence seuen hundred and fiftie furlongs, and came to ‖ Carnea, vnto the Iewes that are called Tubtheni.

‖Or, Characa.

18 But as for Timotheus, they could not get him there: for (not one matter dispatched) hee was departed from thence, and had left certaine men in a very strong hold.

19 But Dositheus, and Sosipater, which were captaines with Machabeus, slue those that Timotheus had left in the house of defence, more then ten thousand men.

20 And Machabeus prepared him with the fiue thousand men that were about him, set them in order by companies, & went forth against Timotheus, which had with him an hundred and twenty thousand men of foote, two thousand and fiue hundred horsemen.

21 When Timotheus had knowledge of Judas comming, he sent the women, children, and the other baggage vnto a citie called called Carnion: for it could not bee wonne, and was hard to come vnto, the wayes of the same places were so narrow.

22 And when Judas his first bande came in sight, the enemies were smitte with feare through the presence of God, which seeth all things: insomuch that they fleeing one heye, another there, were rather discomfited of their owne people, and wounded with the strokes of their owne swordes.

23 Judas also was very earnest in following vpon them, punishing those vngodly, and slew thirtie thousand men of them.

24 Timotheus also himselfe fell into the hands of Dositheus & Sosipater, whome he besought with much craft to let him go with his life, because hee had many of the Jewes fathers and brethren in prison: which, if they put him to death, should be despised.

25 So when hee had promised faithfully to deliuer them againe according to the condition made, they let him go without harme, for the health of the brethren.

26 Then Machabeus marched foorth to Carnion, and Atergation, and there slewe twentie and fiue thousand men.

27 Nowe after that hee had chased away and slayne his enemies, hee remooued the hoste toward Ephron, a strong citie, wherein was Lysias, and a great multitude of diuers nations: and the strong yong men kept the walles, defending them mightily: In this citie was much ordinance and prouision of dartes.

28 But when Judas & his company had called vpon almightie God, which with his power breaketh the strength of the enemies, they wanne the citie, & slue twentie and fiue thousand of them that were within.

29 From thence went they to the citie of the ‖ Scythians, which lyeth fiue hundred furlongs from Hierusalem. ‖Or, Scythopolis.

30 But when the Jewes which were in the citie, testified that the citizens dealt louingly with them, yea, and entreated them kindly in the time of their aduersitie, 31 Judas and his company gaue them thanks, desiring them to be friendly still vnto them: and so they came to Hierusalem, the high feast of weekes being at hand.

32 And after the feast of Pentecost, they went forth against Gorgias the gouernour of Idumea, 33 who came out with three thousande men of foote, and foure hundred horsemen.

34 Which whē they met together, it chanced a fewe of the Jewes to be slaine.

35 And Dositheus one of the Bacenors, a mightie horseman, tooke holde of Gorgias, and would haue taken him quicke: but an horseman of Thracia fell vpon him, & smote off his arme, so that Gorgias escaped, and fled into ‖ Mozesa. ‖Or, Maresa

36 When they nowe that were of ‖ Gorgias side, had fought long, and were wearie, Judas called vpon the Lorde, that hee ‖Or, Eschrin.

woulde be their helper, and captaine of the fielde:

37 And with that hee began in his owne language, and sung Psalmes with a loude voyce, in so much that he made the enemies afrayde, and Gorgias men of warre tooke their flight.

38 So Judas gathered his hoste, & came into the citie of Odolla: & when the seuenth day came vpon them, they cleansed themselues as the custome was, & kept the Sabboth in the same place.

39 And vpon the day following, as necessitie required, Judas & his company came to take vp the bodies of them that were slayne, and to burie them in their fathers graues.

40 Nowe vnder the coates of certaine Jewes which were slaine, they found iewels that they had taken out of the temple, & from the idoles of the Jamnites, * which thing is forbidden the Jewes by the law: then euery man saw that this was the cause wherefore they were slaine. * Deut. 7. 25.

41 And so euery man gaue thankes vnto the Lord for his righteous iudgemēt, which had opened the thing that was hid.

42 They fell downe also vnto their prayers, and besought God that the fault which was made, might be put out of remembrāce: Besides that, Judas exhorted the people earnestly to keepe themselues from such sinne, for so much as they saw before their eies that these men were slaine for the same offence.

43 So hee gathered of euery one a certaine, and sent two thousande drachmes of siluer vnto Hierusalem, that there might a sacrifice bee offered for the misdeede: in the which he did well and right, for he had some consideration and pondering of the life that is after this time.

44 For if hee had not thought that they which were slaine should rise againe, it had bene superfluous and vayne to make any vow or sacrifice for them that were dead.

45 But forsomuch as hee sawe that they which dye in the fauour and beliefe of God, are in good rest and ioy, he thought it to bee good and honourable for a reconciling, to do the same for those which were slayne, that the offence might be forgiuen.

The xiii. Chapter.

1 The comming of Eupator into Iurie. 4 The death of Menelaus.

IN the hundred fourtie & nine yeere, gate Judas knowledge that Antiochus Eupator was comming with a great power into Jurie,

2 And Lysias the steward and ruler, of his matters with him, hauing an hundred and ten thousande men of foote of the Grecians, fiue thousande horsemen, twentie and two Elephants, and three hundred charrets set with hookes.

3 Menelaus

3 Menelaus also ioyned himselfe with them, but with great deceit, spake faire to the king, not for any good to the countrey, but because hee thought to haue bene made some great man of authoritie.

4 But the king of kings mooued Antiochus mind against this vngodly person, and Lysias enformed the king that this Menelaus was the cause of all mischief: so that the king commanded to bring him vnto Berea, and as the maner of them is, to put him vnto death in the same place.

5 There was also in ỹ same place a tower of fiftie cubites high, heaped with ashes: and it had an instrument that turned round, & on euery side it rolled downe into the ashes, and there whosoeuer was condemned of sacrilege, or of any other grieuous crime, was cast of all men vnto the death.

6 Whereinto the king commaunded that shametull person to be cast among the ashes, as one that was cause of all vngraciousnes.

7 And reason it was that the vnthrift should die such a death, and not to be buried:

8 For hee had done much mischiefe vnto the altar of God, whose fire and ashes were holy: therefore was it right that he himselfe also should be destroyed with ashes.

9 But the king was wood in his minde, and came to shew himselfe more cruell vnto the Iewes then his father was.

10 Which when Iudas perceyued, hee commanded the people to call vpon the Lord night and day, that hee would nowe helpe them also, like as he had done alway: for they were afraid to bee put from their lawe, from their naturall countrey, and from the holy temple:

11 And not to suffer the people which a litle while afore began to recouer, to bee subdued againe of the blasphemous nations.

12 So when they had done this together, and besought the Lord for mercy, with weeping and fasting three dayes long, flat vpon the ground, Iudas exhorted them to make themselues ready,

13 But hee and the elders together deuised to goe forth first with the people, afore the king brought his hoste into Iurie, and afore he besieged the citie, & so to commit the matter vnto God.

14 Wherefore hee committed the charge of all things vnto God the maker of all the world, exhorting his people to fight manfully, yea, euen vnto death, for the lawes, the temple, the citie, their owne native country, and to defend the citizens: and he set his host before Modin.

15 Hee gaue them also that were with him a token of the victorie of God, choosing out the manliest yong men, went by night into the kings pauilion, slewe of the hoste fourteene thousande men, and the greatest of the Elephantes, with those that sate vpon them.

16 Thus when they had brought a great feare and rumour among the tentes of their enemies, and all things went prosperously with them, 17 They departed in the breake of the day, God being their helper and defender.

18 Nowe when the king perceiued the manlynesse of the Iewes, he went about to take the strong places by craft, 19 And remoued his hoste vnto Bethsura, which was a wel kept house of defence of the Iewes: but they were chased away, hurt, and discomfited.

20 And Iudas sent vnto them that were in it, such things as were necessary.

21 In the Iewes host also there was one Rhodocus, which told the enemies their secrets: but they sought him out, & when they had gotten him, they put him in prison.

22 After this did the king commune with them that were in Bethsura, tooke truice with them, departed, and strooke a battaile with Iudas, which ouercame him.

23 But when hee vnderstoode that Philip, whome hee had left to be ouerseer of this businesse at Antioch, began to rebell against him, he was astonyed in his minde, so that he yeelded himselfe to the Iewes, and made them an othe to do whatsoeuer they thought right.

24 Nowe when hee was reconciled with them, he offered, made much of the temple, gaue great giftes vnto it, 25 Embraced Machabeus, making him captaine and gouernour from Ptolomais vnto the Gerrhenes.

26 Neuertheles, when he came to Ptolomais, the people of the citie were not content with the bond of friendship: for they were afraid that he would breake the couenant.

27 Then went Lysias vp into the iudgement seate, and excused the fact as wel as he coulde, and enformed the people, shewed them the cause why, and pacified them: so he came againe to Antioch. This is now the matter concerning the kings iourney, and his returne.

The xiiij. Chapter.

By the motion of Alcimus, Demetrius sendeth Nicanor to kill the Iewes.

After three yeeres was Iudas informed how that Demetrius the sonne of Seleucus was come vp with a great power and shippes, through the hauen of Tripolis,

2 To take certaine commodious places and countreys against Antiochus and his captaine Lysias.

3 Nowe Alcimus, which had bene high Priest, and wilfully defiled himselfe in the time of ỹ mixting, seeing that by no meanes hee could bee helped, nor haue any more entrance to the altar,

4 He came to king Demetrius in the hundred, fiftie and one yeere, presenting vnto him him a crowne of gold, a palme, and an olive tree, which as men thought belonged to the temple: and that day held his tongue.

5 But when hee had gotten opportunitie for his madnesse, Demetrius called him to counsel, and asked him what things or counsels the Jewes leaned vnto.

6 He answered, The Jewes that be called Assidei (whose captaine is Judas Machabeus) maintaine warres, make insurrections, and will not let the realme be in peace.

7 For I being depriued of my fathers honour (I meane the high priesthood) am come hither:

8 partly, because I was faithfull vnto the king, and partly, because I sought the profite of mine owne citizens: And why? all our people through the wickednesse of them are not a little troubled.

9 Wherefore I beseech thee, O king, consider all these thinges diligently, and then make some prouision for the lande and the people, according to the kindenesse that thou hast offered vnto them.

10 For as long as Judas liueth, it is not possible that men can liue in peace.

11 When hee had spoken these wordes, other friends also hating euill will at Judas, set the king Demetrius on fire against him.

12 Which immediatly sent Nicanor, ruler of the Elephants, a captaine in Jurie, 13 Commanding him to slay Judas, and to scatter them that were with him, and to make Alcimus high Priest of the great temple.

14 Then the heathen, which fledde out of Jurie from Judas, came to Nicanor by flockes, thinking the harme and decay of the Jewes to be their welfare.

15 Now when the Jewes heard of Nicanors comming, and the gathering together of the heathen, * they sprinkled themselues with earth, and besought him which made them his people, and euer defended his owne portion with euident tokens, that he would preserue them still.

1.Mac.10. 15.

16 So at the commandement of the captaine, they remooued straightwayes from thence, and came to a towne called Dessau.

17 And Simon Judas brother fell in hand with Nicanor: but through the sodaine [Or, silence.] comming of the enemies, he was afraide.

18 Neuertheless, Nicanor hearing the manlinesse of them that were with Judas, and the bold stomaches that they had to fight for their naturall countrey, durst not proue the matter with bloodshedding.

19 Wherefore he sent Posidonius, [Or, Theodotus, Matthias.] Theodorus, and Mathathias before, to giue and to take peace.

20 So when they had taken long aduisement thereupon, and the captaine shewed it vnto the multitude, they were agreed in one minde to haue peace.

21 And they appointed a day to sit vpon these matters quietly among themselues, and for euery one stooles also were brought, and set forth.

22 Neuertheless, Judas commaunded certaine men of armes to waite in conuenient places, least there shoulde suddainly arise any euill through the enemies: and so they communed reasonably together.

23 Nicanor, while hee abode at Hierusalem, ordered himselfe not vnreasonably, but sent away the people that were gathered together.

24 Hee loued Judas euer with his heart, and fauoured him.

25 He prayed him also to take a wife, and to bring forth children. So he married, lined in rest, and they led a common life.

26 But Alcimus perceiuing the loue that was betwixt them, and howe they were agreed together, came to Demetrius, and told him that Nicanor had taken strange matters in hand, and ordeined Judas, an enemie of the Realme, to be the kings successour.

27 Then the king was sore displeased, and through the wicked accusations which Alcimus made of Nicanor, hee was so prouoked, that he wrote vnto Nicanor, saying that hee was very angry for the friendship and agreement which he had made with Machabeus, neuertheless, he commanded him in all the haste that hee should take Machabeus prisoner, and sende him to Antioch.

28 Which letters when Nicanor had seene, hee was at his wits ende, and sore grieued, that hee should breake the thinges wherein they had agreed, specially seeing Machabeus was that man that neuer did him harme.

29 But because he might not withstande the king, he sought opportunitie to fulfill his commandement.

30 Notwithstanding, when Machabeus sawe that Nicanor began to be churlish vnto him, and that he entreated him more roughly then he was wont, he perceiued that such vnkindnesse came not of good, and therefore he gathered a few of his men, and withdrew himselfe from Nicanor.

31 Which when he knew that Machabeus had manfully preuented him, he came into the great and most holy temple, and commanded the priestes which were doing their vsuall offerings, to deliuer him the man.

32 And when they sware that they could not tel where the man was, whom hee sought, 33 He stretched out his right hand toward the temple, and made an othe, saying, * If ye wil not deliuer me Judas captiue, I shall remooue this Temple of God into the plaine fielde, I shal breake downe the altar, and consecrate this temple vnto Bacchus. 1.Ma.7.35.

34 After these wordes, he departed. Then the priestes lift vp their handes toward heauen, and besought him that was euer the defender of their people, saying,

35 Thou, O Lord of all, which hast neede of nothing, wouldest thou the temple of thy habitation should be among vs:

36 Therefore nowe, O most holy Lorde, keepe this house euer vndefiled, which lately was cleansed, and stoppe all the mouthes of the vnrighteous.

37 Nowe was there accused vnto Nicanor one Razis, an Alderman of Hierusalem, a louer of the whole citie, and a man of good report, which for the kinde heart that he bare vnto the people, was called a father of the Iewes.

38 This man oft times when the Iewes were minded to keepe themselues vndefiled, defended and deliuered them, being content stedfastly to spend his body and his life for his people.

39 So Nicanor willing to declare the hate that he bare to the Iewes, sent fiue hundred men of warre to take him.

40 For he thought if he gate him, he should bring the Iewes into great decay.

41 Nowe when the people began to ruth in at his house, to breake the doores, and to set fire on it, he being now taken, fell vpon his sword, a This fact is not to be approued, for that it is contrary to Gods commandement, Thou shalt not kill.

42 Chosing rather to die manfully, then to yeelde himselfe to those wicked doers: and because of his noble stocke, hee had rather haue bene put to extreme cruelties.

43 Notwithstanding, what time hee missed of his stroke for haste, and the multitude rushed in violently betwixt the doores, he ran boldly to the wall, and cast himselfe downe manfully among the heape of them:

44 Which gaue soone place to his fall, so that he fell vpon his belly.

45 Neuertheless, while there was yet breath within him, being kindled in his minde, he rose vp, and while his blood gushed out exceedingly (for hee was very sore wounded) he ranne through the middest of the people, and gate him to the toppe of a rocke.

46 So when his blood was nowe gone, he tooke out his owne bowels, & with both his handes threw them vpon the people, calling vpon the Lorde of life and spirite to reward him this againe: and so he died.

The xv. Chapter.

2 Nicanor goeth about to come vpon Iudas on the Sabboth day. 5 The blasphemie of Nicanor.

NOwe when Nicanor knewe that Judas and his companie were in the countrey of Samaria, he thought with all his power to strike a field with him vpon a Sabboth day.

2 Neuertheless, the Iewes that were compelled to goe with him, said, O doe not so cruelly and vnkindly, but hallow the Sabboth day, and worship him that seeth all things.

3 For all this yet saide the vngratious person, Is there a mightie one in heauen that commanded the Sabboth day to be kept?

4 And whē they said, Yea, the liuing God, the mightie Lorde in heauen commaunded the seuenth day to be kept,

5 He saide, And I am mighty vpon earth, to commaund them for to arme themselues, and to performe the kings businesse: Notwithstanding hee might not haue his purpose.

6 Nicanor had deuised with great pride to ouercome Judas, and to bring away the victorie:

7 But Machabeus had euer a fast confidence & a perfect hope in God, that he would helpe him,

8 And exhorted his people not to be afraid at the comming of the heathen: but alway to remember the helpe that had bene shewed vnto them from heauen, yea, and to bee sure nowe also that Almightie God would giue them the victorie.

9 He spake vnto them out of the law and Prophets, putting them in remembrance of the battailes that they had striuen afore, and made them to be of good courage.

10 So when their hearts were pricked by, hee shewed them also the deceitfulnesse of the Heathen, and howe they would keepe no couenant nor othe.

11 Thus hee weaponed them, not with the armour of shielde and speare, but with wholsome wordes & exhortations, he shewed them a dreame also worthy to bee beleeued, wherethrough he made them all glad.

12 Which was this: He thought that hee sawe Onias, which had bene high Priest, a vertuous and louing man, sad, and of honest conuersation, well spoken, and one that had bene exercised in godlines from a childe, holding vp his hands toward heauen, and praying for his people.

13 After this, there appeared vnto him another man, which was aged, honourable, and glorious.

14 And Onias said, This is a louer of the brethren, and of the people of Israel: this is he that prayeth much for the people, and for all the holy Citie, Jeremie the Prophete of God.

15 He thought also that Jeremie held out his right hand, & gaue vnto Judas a sworde of golde, saying, 16 Take this holy sword, a gift from God, wherewith thou shalt smite downe the enemies of the people of Israel.

17 And so they were well comforted through the wordes of Judas, which were very sweete, and able to stirre vp their courage, and tooke courage vnto them, so that the young men were determined in their mindes to fight, and to abide stiffely at it, insomuch that in the things which they tooke in hand, their boldenesse shewed the same, because the holy citie, the Sanctuarie, and the temple were in perill.

18 For the which they tooke more care, then for their wiues, children, brethren, and kinsefolkes.

19 Againe, they that were in the citie, were were moſt carefull for thoſe which were to fight.

20 Now when they were al in a hope that the iudgement of the matter was at hand, & the enemies drew nigh, the hoſte beeing ſet in aray, the Elephants and horſemen euery one ſtanding in his place,

21 Machabeus conſidering the comming of the multitude, the ordinaunce of diuers weapons, the cruelneſſe of the beaſtes, helde vp his hands toward heauen, calling vpon the Lord that doth wonders, which giueth not the victorie after the multitude of weapons, & power of the hoſte, but to them that pleaſe him, according to his owne will.

22 Therefore in his prayer hee ſaide theſe words, *O Lord, thou that diddeſt ſend thine angel in the time of Ezechias king of Juda, and in the hoſt of Sennacherib ſlueſt an hundred, fourefcore, and fiue thouſand:

*4.Kin.19. 35. vbi.3.21. eccl.48.24. dii.37.36.

23 Send now alſo thy good angel before vs, O Lord of heauens, in the tearefulneſſe and dread of thy mightie arme, 24 That they which come againſt thy holy people to blaſpheme them, may be afraide. And ſo he made an end of his wordes.

25 Then Nicanor and they that were with him, drue nigh, with trumpets & ſhowtings for ioy:

26 But Judas and his company with prayer and calling vpon God, encountred with the enemies.

27 With their hãds they ſmote, but with their hearts they prayed vnto the Lord, and ſlue no leſſe then thirtie and fiue thouſand men: for through the preſent helpe of God they were glorioully comforted.

28 Now when they left off, and were turning againe with ioy, they vnderſtood that Nicanor himſelfe was ſlaine with the other for all his armour.

29 Then they gaue a great ſhowte and a crie, praying the almightie Lorde in their owne language.

30 And Judas, which was euer readie to ſpẽd his body & life for his citizẽs, commãded to ſmite off Nicanors head, with his arme & hand, and to be brought to Hieruſalem.

31 When he came there, he called all the people and the prieſtes to the altar, with thoſe that were in the caſtle, 32 And ſhewed them Nicanors head, and his wicked hand, which he had preſumptuouſly holden vp againſt the temple of God.

33 Hee cauſed the tongue alſo of that vngodly Nicanor to be cut in litle pieces, and to be caſt to the foules, and that cruell mans hand to be hanged vp before the temple.

34 So euery man gaue thankes vnto the lord, ſaying, Bleſſed be he that hath kept his place vndefiled.

35 As for Nicanors head, he hanged it vp vpon the high caſtle, for an euident & plaine token of the helpe of God.

36 And ſo they agreed al together to keepe that day holy, namely, the thirteenth day of the moneth ‖ Adar: ‖Februatie 37 Which in the Syrians lãguage is called, The next day before Mardocheus day.

38 Thus was Nicanor ſlain, & from that time forth the Jewes had the citie in poſſeſſion: and here will I now make an end.

39 If I haue done well, and as the ſtorie required, it is the thing that I deſired: but if I haue ſpoken ſlenderly and barely, I haue done that I could.

40 For as it is hurtfull to drinke wine alone, and then againe water, and as wine tempered with water is pleaſant, & delighteth the taſte: ſo the ſetting out of the matter dilighteth the eare of them that read the ſtorie: and here ſhalbe the ende.

THE NEVVE TESTAMENT of our Sauiour Iesus Christ.

ROM. 1.

I am not ashamed of the Gospell of Christ, because it is the power of God vnto saluation to all that beleeue.

Imprinted at London by the deputies of Christopher Barker, printer to the Queenes Maiestie.

Anno 1591.

The description of the holy land, containing the places mentioned in the foure Euangeliſts, with other places about the ſea coaſtes: Wherein may be ſeene the wayes and iourneys of Chriſt and his Apoſtles in Iudea, Samaria, and Galilee: for into theſe three parts this lande is deuided.

Mount Oliuet is two mile from Ieruſalem, Eaſt and by South. Gethſemani a village, lieth at the foote of the mount, betwixt the ſame and Ieruſalem. Bethphage a village, lieth not farre from it. Alſo in the vale, betwixt the mount and Ieruſalem, Golgotha, or the mount of Caluarie, lieth hard by Ieruſalem, Weſt and by North.

A Table to make plaine the difficultie that is found in Saint Matthew, and Saint Luke, touching the generation of Iesus Christ the sonne of Dauid and his right successour in the kingdome: which description beginneth at Dauid and no higher, because the difficultie is onely in his posteritie.

S. Matthew.		S. Luke.
Dauid begate
Solomon king. Roboam. Abia. Asa. Iosaphat. Ioram. Ochosias.	The posteritie of Solomon left in Ochosias, whereby the kingdome was transported to the line of Nathan in the person of Ioas sonne to Iuda.	Nathan the kings brother. Mathatha. Menna. Melcha. Eliacim. Iona. Ioseph. *Iuda.

Marie the mother of Christ.
IESVS CHRIST.

FOr better vnderstanding of the cōtens of this Table, yee shall note that the euangelistes, Saint Matthewe, and Saint Luke, haue diuersly recited the generation of our Sauiour Christ, according to the flesh, and yet tende both to one end: that is, to proue (that according to that which is written of him in the prophecies) he is descended of the royall blood of Dauid, and rightly succeeded him in the kingdome. So the diuersitie of the saide recitall consisteth in this: that Saint Matthewe setteth foorth the said generation descending from father to sonne, and Saint Luke ascendeth from sonne to father, which come all to one end. But to shewe the agreement of Saint Luke with Saint Matthew, wee haue here set foorth the generation by him described, descending after the order of Saint Matthew, to the ende that the one may bee conferred with the other. Furthermore, Saint Matthew describeth the generation of Ioseph, though it belong nothing to Iesus Christ after the flesh, and Saint Luke that of the virgine Marie: for it was very necessarie to recite both, for as much as women were commonly reputed of the stocke or kinred of their husbands: And so as well on her husbandes side, as on her owne offspring, it is manifest that shee was of the royall line of Dauid.

*Iuda of the line of Nathan, engendred Simeon, called Ioas, which came to the royall seate, because the posteritie of Solomon fayled in Ochosias: and therefore the kingdome belonged to Nathans posteritie, according to the ordinaunce of Dauid, as Philo reciteth, that is, the yongest of the children of Beersebe (which was Solomon) should reigne after him, and that if the posteritie fayled, the kingdome should come to the posteritie of the next younger, which was Nathan: and therefore Nathan was called Ahsear, that is to say, Brother of the prince, and they of his posteritie, Ahsearim, that is to say, Brothers of the prince, and Mathinim, which signifieth, Giuen to succeede. The saide Philo reciteth, that the posteritie of the said Nathan was so honoured of the king Iosaphat, that hee called his children the brothers of Ioram his sonne, and their children the brothers of Ochosias his nephewe: and this is the cause why the Scripture sayeth, that Ioas was the sonne of Ochosias, though he were not his natural sonne, but the sonne of Iuda, descended from Nathan.

Note that S. Matthew going about to describe the generation by fourteenes, did first leaue out Ioas, Amazias, and Azarias, which are setin betweene Ochosias, the last of the race of Solomon, and Ioathan. Further, hee hath left out Ichaas, and Ioasim, placed betweene the same description more perfect and plaine.

*For as much as it seemeth that Saint Luke maketh no mention of the generation of Marie, but rather of Ioseph, for he vseth these wordes, that Iesus was counted the sonne of Ioseph, which was of Heli, that is to say, the sonne of Heli: we must vnderstand that in this place the name of sonne is taken for the name of sonne in law, and that S. Luke meaneth that Ioseph was the sonne in lawe to Heli, for that he tooke to wife the virgin Marie daughter to the said Heli, which maner of speach is common in the scripture: for we finde that Noemi calleth Ruth her daughter, which was but her stepdaughter, her sonnes wife.

The Gospel by Saint Matthewe.

The first Chapter.

1 The genealogie of Christ from Abraham. 18 The mariage of his mother Marie. 20 The Angell satisfieth Iosephs minde. 21 The interpretation of Christs names.

THis * is the b booke of the generation of Iesus Christ the sonne of Dauid, the sonne of Abraham.

2 *Abraham begate Isahac, *Isahac begate Iacob, *Iacob begate Iudas and his brethren.

3 *Iudas begate Phares and Zara of Thamar, Phares begate Esrom, Esrom begate Aram.

4 Aram begate Aminadab, Aminadab begate Naasson, Naasson begate Salmon.

5 Salmon begate Boos of Rachab, Boos begate Obed of Ruth, Obed begate Iesse.

6 *Iesse begate Dauid the king, *Dauid the king begate Solomon, of her that was the wife of Urie.

7 *Solomon begate Roboam, Roboam begate Abia, Abia begate Asa.

8 Asa begate Iosaphat, Iosaphat begate Ioram, Ioram begate Ozias.

9 Ozias begate Ioatham, Ioatham begate Achas, Achas begate Ezechias.

10 *Ezechias begate Manasses, Manasses begate Amon, Amon begate Iosias.

11 *‖ Iosias begate Iechonias and his brethren, about the time they were caried away to Babylon.

12 And after they were brought to Babylon, *Iechonias begate Salathiel, *Salathiel begate Zorobabel.

13 Zorobabel begate Abiud, Abiud begate Eliacim, Eliacim begate Azor.

14 Azor begate Sadoc, Sadoc begate Achen, Achen begate Eliud.

15 Eliud begate Eleazar, Eleazar begate Matthan, Matthan begate Iacob.

16 Iacob begate Ioseph the husbande of Marie, of whom was borne Iesus, that is called Christ.

17 And so all the generations from Abraham to Dauid, are fourteene generations: and from Dauid vntill the carying away into Babylon, are fourteene generations: and from the carying away vnto Babylon vnto Christ, are fourteene generations.

18 *The birth of Iesus Christ was on this wise. When as his mother Marie was betrothed to Ioseph (before they came together) she was found with childe of the holy ghost. Luke.1.27.

19 Then Ioseph her husbande being a righteous man, *and not willing to make her a publique example, was minded priuily to put her away. Deut.24.1.

20 But while he thought these things, behold, the Angel of the Lorde appeared vnto him in a dreame, saying, Ioseph thou sonne of Dauid, feare not to take vnto thee Marie thy wife, for that which is conceiued in her, is of the holy ghost.

21 Shee shall bring foorth a sonne, * and thou shalt call his name Iesus: for hee shall saue his people from their sinnes. Luke 1.38. acts 4.12.

22 (All this was done, that it might bee fulfilled, which was spoken of the Lorde by the Prophet, saying, 23 *Behold, a virgin shalbe with child, and shall bring forth a sonne, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which is by interpretation, God with vs.) Esai.7.14.

24 Then Ioseph, being raised from sleepe, did as the Angell of the Lord had bidde him, and he tooke his wife:

25 cAnd knew her not, till she had brought foorth her first borne sonne, and called his name Iesus.

c Thus should both not ignorant that it meeteth her afterward: as likewise should vse, Matt. 5. 28. and Psal. 110. so they shall any more children.

The ii. Chapter.

1 The time and place of Christs birth. 14 Christ fleeth into Egypt. 16 The yong children are slaine.

WHen * Iesus was borne in Bethlehem, a citie of Iurie, in the dayes of Herode the king: beholde, there came wise men from the East to Hierusalem, The Gospel on the Epiphanie. Luke 2.6.

2 Saying, Where is he that is borne king of the Iewes? for wee haue seene his starre in the East, and are come to worship him.

3 When Herode the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all the citie of Hierusalem with him.

4 And when he had gathered all the chiefe priests and scribes of the people together, he demaunded of them where Christ should bee borne.

5 And

5 And they said vnto him, At Bethlehem in Iurie: for thus it is written by the Prophet,

6 *And thou Bethlehem in the lande of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall there come a captaine, that shall gouerne my people Israel. Mich.5.2. iohn 7.41.

7 Then Herode, when he had priuily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the starre appeared:

8 And hee sent them to Bethlehem, and sayd, Goe, and search diligently for the yong child, and when yee haue founde him, bring me word againe, that I may come and worship him also.

9 When they had heard the king, they departed, and loe, the starre which they saw in the East, went before them, till it came and stoode ouer the place wherein the yong child was.

10 When they sawe the starre, they reioyced exceedingly with great ioy, 11 And went into the house, and they sawe the yong child with Marie his mother, and fell downe, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, presented vnto him gifts, golde, and frankincense, and myrrhe.

12 And after they were warned of God in a dreame that they should not returne to Herod, they departed into their owne countrey another way.

13 When they were departed, behold, the Angel of the Lord appeared to Ioseph in a dreame, saying, Arise, & take the yong childe, and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there till I bring thee word: for it will come to passe, that Herode shal seeke the yong child, to destroy him.

14 When he arose, he tooke the yong child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt:

15 And was there vnto the death of Herode, that it might bee fulfilled which was spoken of the Lorde by the Prophet, saying, Osee.11.1. *Out of Egypt haue I called my sonne.

16 Then Herode, when he sawe that hee was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent foorth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, as many as were two yeeres olde and vnder, according to the time, which hee had diligently searched out of the wise men.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremie the Prophet, saying, 18 In Rama was there a voyce heard, *lamentation, weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not bee comforted, because they were not. Iere.31.15.

19 But when Herode was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dreame to Joseph in Egypt, 20 Saying, Arise, and take the yong child and his mother, and goe into the lande of Israel: for they are dead, which sought the yong childs life.

21 And he arose, and tooke the yong child and his mother, and came into the lande of Israel.

22 But when hee heard that Archelaus did reigne in Iurie in the roome of his father Herode, he was afraid to goe thither: notwithstanding, after hee was warned of God in a dreame, hee turned aside into the parts of Galilee:

23 And when hee was come thither, he dwelt in a citie, which is called Nazareth, that it might bee fulfilled which was spoken by the Prophets, He shall be called a Nazarite.

The Gospel on Innocents day.

a Joseph was not the father of Christ, else the Angel would not haue sayd, Take the child and his mother, but rather, Take thy child.

The iii. Chapter.

1 Iohns preaching, office, life, baptisme, 7 reprehending of the Pharises, 13 and baptizing of Christ in Iordane.

IN those dayes came *John the Baptist, preaching in the wildernesse of Iurie, Mark.1.4. luke 3.3.

2 And saying, aRepent ye: for the kingdome of heuen is at hand. a Or, bee sorie for your sinnes.

3 For this is he that was spoken of by the Prophet Esaias, saying, * The voyce of one crying in the wildernes, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make ye his paths straight. Esai.40.3. mark.1.3.

4 *This John had his raiment of camels haire, & a leaue herne girdle about his loines, his meate was locusts and wild honie. Mark.1.6.

5 *Then went out to him Hierusalem, and al Iurie, and all the region round about Iordane, Mark.1.5. luke 3.7.

6 And were baptized of him in Iordane, confessing their sinnes.

7 But when he sawe many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptisme, he said vnto them, * O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the anger to come? Mat.13.34

8 Bring foorth therefore fruits meete for repentance.

9 And be not of such mind, that ye would say within your selues, * we haue Abraham to our father: for I say vnto you, that God is able of these stones to raise vp children vnto Abraham. Iohn 8.10. ac.13.26.

10 Euen now is the axe also put vnto the roote of the trees: * Therefore euerie tree which bringeth not foorth good fruit, is hewen downe, and cast into the fire. Mat.7.19.

11 *I baptize you in water vnto repentance: but hee that commeth after mee, is mightier then I, whose shoes I am not worthie to beare, hee shall baptize you with the holy ghost and with fire. Mark.1.8. iohn 1.26. luke 3.13.

12 *Whose fanne is in his hand, and hee will throughly purge the floore, and gather his wheate into his garner: but will burne vp the chaffe with vnquenchable fire. Luke 3.18.

13 *Then commeth Jesus from Galilee to Iordane, vnto Iohn, to be baptized of him Mark.1.8. luke 3.22.

14 But

14 But Iohn forbade him, saying, I haue need to be baptized of thee, and comm'est thou to me?

15 Iesus answering, said vnto him, Suffer it to bee so nowe: for thus it becommeth vs to fulfill all righteousnesse. Then he suffered him.

16 And Iesus, when hee was baptized, went vp straight way out of the water: and lo, the heauens were opened vnto him, and Iohn sawe the Spirit of God descending like a dowe, and lighting vpon him.

17 And lo, there came a voice from the heauens, saying, *This is my dearely beloued sonne, in whom I am well pleased.

1 Pet.1.19. Col.1.13.

The iiij. Chapter.

Christ fasteth, and is tempted. 18 He calleth Peter, Andrew, Iames, and Iohn.

THen was *Iesus led vp of the Spirit into wildernesse, to bee tempted of the deuill.

The Gospel on the first Sunday in Lent. Mat.4.1. Luke 4.1.

2 And when he had fasted fourtie dayes & fourtie nights, he was afterward an hungred.

3 And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the sonne of God, commaund that these stones be made bread.

4 But he answered, and saide, It is written, *Man shall not liue by bread onely, but by euery worde that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

Deut.8.3.

5 Then the deuill taketh him vp into the holy citie, and setteth him on a pinacle of the temple,

6 And saith vnto him, If thou be the sonne of God, cast thy selfe downe: For it is written,
*that hee shall giue his angels charge ouer thee, and with their hands they shall lift thee vp, least at any time thou dash thy foote against a stone.

Psal.91.12.

7 Iesus saide vnto him, It is written againe, *Thou shalt not tempt the Lorde thy God.

Deut.6.16.

8 Againe the deuill taketh him vp into an exceeding high mountaine, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glorie of them:

9 And saith vnto him, All these things will I giue thee, if thou wilt fall downe and worship me.

10 Then saith Iesus vnto him, Get thee
hence behinde me, Satan: for it is written,
*Thou shalt worship the Lorde thy God, and him onely shalt thou serue.

Deut.6.13. and 10.20.

11 Then the deuill leaueth him, & behold, the angels came and ministred vnto him.

21 And when hee was gone forth from thence, he sawe other two brethren, Iames the sonne of Zebedee, and Iohn his brother, in the ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets: and he called them.

22 And they immediatly left the ship and their father, and followed him.

Mark.1.20. Luke 5.11.

23 And Iesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their Synagogues, and preaching the Gospel of the kingdome, and healing all maner of sicknesse, and all maner of disease among the people.

Luke 11.39. Act.2.10.

24 And his fame spread abroad thorowout all Syria: and they brought vnto him all sicke people that were taken with diuers diseases, and griptings, and them that were possessed with deuils, and those which were lu-natike, and those that had the palsie, and hee healed them.

The vj. Chapter.

1 Of almes, 5 prayer, 16 of fasting. 19 He forbiddeth the carefull seeking of worldly things.

TAke heede that ye doe not your almes before men, to the intent that ye would be seene of them, or els ye haue no reward of your father which is in heauen.

Rom.12.8.

2 Therefore, * when thou doest thine almes, doe not blowe a trumpet before thee, as hypocrites doe, in the Synagogues, and in the streetes, that they might bee esteemed of men. Verily I say vnto you, they haue their reward.

3 But when thou doest almes, let not thy left hand know, what thy right hand doeth:

4 That thine almes may be in secret: And thy father which seeth in secret, himselfe shall reward thee openly.

5 And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they loue to pray standing in the Synagogues, and in the corners of the streetes, that they may be seene of men. Verily I say vnto you, they haue their reward.

6 But when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy doore, pray to thy father which is in secret, and thy father which seeth in secrete, shall reward thee openly.

7 But when yee pray, babble not much, as the heathen doe. For they thinke that they shall be heard, for their much babblings sake.

8 Be not ye therefore like vnto them: For your father knoweth, what things yee haue neede of, before ye aske of him.

Luke 11.2.

9 After this maner therefore pray ye: * O our father which art in heauen, halowed bee thy name.

10 Let thy kingdome come, Thy will be done, as well in earth, as it is in heauen.

11 Giue vs this day our daily bread.

12 And forgiue vs our debts, as wee forgiue our debters.

Mat.13.19.

13 And lead vs not into temptation, * but deliuer vs from euill: for thine is the kingdome, and the power and the glory, for euer, Amen.

Mat.11.25. and 28.2.

14 For, * if yee forgiue men their trespasses, your heauenly father shall also forgiue you.

15 But, if yee forgiue not men their trespasses: no more shall your father forgiue you your trespasses.

16 Moreouer, when ye fast, bee not of an heauie countenance, as the hypocrites are: for they disfigure their faces, that they might appeare vnto men to fast: Verily I say vnto you, they haue their reward.

17 But thou, when thou fastest, anoynt thine head, and wash thy face:

19 * Hoard not vp for your selues treasures vpon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where theeues breake thorowe, and steale.

Luk.12.33. 1.tim.6.19.

20 * But lay vp for you treasures in heauen, where neither moth nor rust doeth corrupt, and where theeues doe not breake thorowe, nor steale.

Luk.12.34.

21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

22 * The candle of the body is the eye: wherefore if thine eye be single, all the body shall be full of light.

Luk.11.34.

23 But if thine eye be wicked, all thy body shall be full of darkenesse. Wherefore, if the light that is in thee be darkenesse, how great is that darkenesse?

24 * No man can serue two masters: for either hee shall hate the one and loue the other, or els hee shall leane to the one and despise the other. Yee cannot serue God, and a Mammon.

25 * Therefore I say vnto you, Bee not carefull for your life, what yee shall eate or drinke, nor yet for your body what ye shall put on: Is not the life more worth then meate: and the body then raiment?

Luk.12.22. psal.55.23. 1.pet.5.7.

26 Beholde the foules of the ayre: for they sowe not, neither doe they reape, nor cary into barnes, yet your heauenly father feedeth them. Are ye not much better then they?

27 Which of you by taking of carefull thought, can adde one cubite vnto his stature?

28 And why care ye for raiment? Learne of the Lilies of the fielde, howe they growe: they wearie not themselues with labour, neither doe they spinne.

Lilies.

29 And yet I say vnto you, that euen Solomon in all his royaltie, was not arayed like one of these.

30 Wherefore, if God so clothe the grasse of the fielde, which though it stand to day, is to morow cast into the ouen: shall he not much more doe the same for you, O ye of little faith?

31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shal we eate? or, what shal we drinke? or, wherewith shall we be clothed?

32 (For after all these things do the Gentiles seeke:) for your heauenly father knoweth that ye haue neede of all these things.

33 But seeke ye first the kingdome of God, and his righteousnesse, and all these things shalbe added vnto you.

34 Care not then for the morowe: for the 6 And saying, Lord, my seruant lyeth at home sicke of the palsie, grieuously pained.

7 And Iesus saith to him, When I come, I will heale him.

8 The Centurion answered, and sayde, Lord, I am not worthie that thou shouldest come vnder my roofe: but speake the worde onely, and my seruant shalbe healed.

9 For I also my selfe am a man set vnder vnder authoritie, hauing souldiers vnder me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth: and to another, Come, and he commeth: and to my seruant, Doe this, and he doeth it.

10 When Jesus heard these things, he marueiled, and sayd to them that followed, Verely I say vnto you, I haue not found so great faith, no not in Israel.

16 No man putteth a piece of ‖ new cloth in an olde garment, for then the piece taketh away some thing from the garment, and the rent is made worse.

‡Or, rawe cloth.

17 Neither doe men put newe wine into olde bottels: els the bottels breake, and the wine runneth out, and the bottels will perish: but they put newe wine into newe bottels, and both are preserued together.

18 * While hee spake these things vnto them, behold, there came a certaine ruler of the synagogue and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is euen now dead: but come, and lay thy hand vpon her, and she shall liue.

The Gospel on the xxiiij Sunday after Trinitie. Mark.5.22. luke 8.41.

19 And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples.

20 (And behold, a woman which was diseased with an issue of blood twelue yeeres, came behinde him, and touched the hemme of his vesture.

21 For she sayd within her selfe, If I may touch but euen his vesture onely, I shall be safe.

22 But Jesus when he had turned him about, and sawe her, sayd, Daughter, be of good comfort, thy fayth hath made thee safe. And the woman was made whole from that same houre.)

23 And when Jesus came into the rulers house of the synagogue, and saw the minstrels and the people making a noyse, 24 He said vnto them, Giue place, for the mayde is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorne.

25 But when the people were put forth, he went in, and tooke her by the hand: and the mayde arose.

26 And the fame of this went abroade into all that land.

27 And when Jesus departed thence, two blinde men followed him, crying, and saying, O thou sonne of Dauid, haue mercy on vs.

28 And when he was come into ỹ house, the blinde men came to him: and Jesus saith vnto them, Beleeue ye that I am able to doe this? They sayd vnto him, Yea, Lord.

29 Then touched hee their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it vnto you.

30 And their eyes were opened: and Jesus straitely charged them, saying, See that no man know it.

31 But they, when they were departed, spred abroad his name in all that land.

32 As they went out, behold, they brought to him a dumbe man possessed with a deuill.

33 And when the deuill was cast out, the dumbe spake, and the multitudes marueiled, saying, It was neuer so seene in Israel.

34 But the Pharisees sayde, * hee casteth out the deuils through ỹ prince of the deuils.

Mat.12.24. mark.3.22. luke 11.17.

35 * And Jesus went about all the cities & villages, teaching in their Synagogues, and preaching the Gospell of the kingdome, and healing euery sicknesse, and euery disease among the people.

Mar.6.6. luke 13.22.

36 * But when he sawe the multitudes, he was moued with compassion on them, because they were destitute, & scattered abroad, as sheepe hauing no shepheard.

37 Then saith he vnto his disciples, * The haruest truely is plenteous, but the labourers are fewe.

38 Pray ye therefore the Lord of the haruest, that he wil thrust forth labourers into his haruest.

The x. Chapter.

Christ sendeth out his twelue Apostles to preache in Iurie.

AND * when he had called his twelue disciples, he gaue them power against vncleane spirits, to cast them out, and to heale all maner of sicknesse, and all maner of disease.

Mar.3.15. luke 9.1.

2 The names of the twelue Apostles are these: The first, Simon, which is called Peter, and Andrewe his brother, James the sonne of Zebedee, and John his brother:

3 Philip, and Bartholomewe, Thomas, and Matthew, which had bene a Publicane, James the sonne of Alphee, and Lebbeus, whose surname was Taddeus:

4 Simon the Chanaanite, and Judas Iscariot, which also betrayed him.

5 Jesus sent forth these twelue, when he had commanded them, saying, Goe not into the way of the Gentiles, and into the citie of the Samaritanes enter ye not:

6 * But goe rather to the lost sheepe of the house of Israel.

Ac.13.46.

7 As ye goe, preache, saying, * The kingdome of heauen is at hand.

Luke 10.9.

8 Heale the sicke, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out deuils: freely ye haue receiued, freely giue.

9 * Possesse not gold, nor siluer, nor brasse in your purses:

Mark.6.8. luke 9.3.& 22.35.

11 * But to whatsoeuer citie or towne ye shall come, enquire who is worthy in it: and a there abide, till ye goe thence.

Luke 10.8.

a Shift not your lodging, vntil ye go out of that citie.

12 And when ye come into an house, salute the same.

13 And if the house be worthy, let your peace come vpon it: but if it be not worthy, let let your peace returne to you againe.

Mark.6.11. 14 *And whosoeuer shall not receiue you, nor will heare your preaching: when yee depart out of the house, or that citie, shake off the dust of your feete.

15 Verily I say vnto you, It shalbe easier for the lande of the Sodomites and Gomorrheans in the day of iudgement, then for that citie.

Luke 10.3. 16 *Beholde, I send you forth as sheepe in the midst of wolues: be ye therefore wise as the serpents, & harmeles as the Doues.

17 But beware of men: for they shall deliuer you vp to the counsels, and shall scourge you in their Synagogues.

18 And yee shalbe brought to the head rulers and kings for my sake, ‖in witnesse to them, and to the Gentiles.

‖that this may be a witnesse to them, &c.

19 But when they deliuer you vp, take ye no thought, howe or what yee shall speake: for *it shall be giuen you in that same houre what ye shall speake.

Mat.13.11. luk.12.11.

20 For it is not yee that speake, but the spirite of your father, whee it is which speaketh in you.

21 The brother shall deliuer vp the brother to death, and the father the sonne: and the children shall rise against their fathers and mothers, and shall put them to death.

22 And ye shall be hated of all men for my names sake: *but he that endureth to the ende, shalbe saued.

Mat.13.13. luke 21.9.

23 But when they persecute you in this citie, flee yee into another: for verily I say vnto you, yee shall not ende all the cities of Israel, till the sonne of man be come.

24 The disciple is not aboue his master, nor the seruant aboue his lord.

Luke 6.40. Disciple.

25 It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master is, and that the seruant bee as his lord is. If they haue called the Lord of the house Beelzebub, howe much more shall they call them of his houshold?

Luke 10.16 iohn 13.20.

42 *And whosoeuer shal giue vnto one of these little ones to drinke, a cup of cold water onely, in the name of a disciple, verily I say vnto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.

Mark.9.41.

The xj. Chapter.

1 Christ preacheth. 2 Iohn Baptist sendeth his disciples vnto him. 7 Christes testimonie concerning Iohn.

AND it came to passe, that when Iesus had made an ende of commaunding his twelue disciples, he departed thence to teach and to preach in their cities.

2 *When Iohn had heard in the prison the workes of Christ, hee sent two of his disciples,

The Gospel on the third Sunday in Aduent.

3 And sayde vnto him, Art thou he that should come? Or doe we looke for another?

Luke 7.18.

4 Iesus answered, and sayde vnto them, Goe and shewe Iohn againe those things which ye doe heare and see:

5 The blinde receiue their sight, the halt doe walke, the lepers are cleansed, and the deafe heare, the dead are raised vp, and the poore haue the Gospel preached to them.

6 And happie is hee, whosoeuer shall not be offended in me.

Luk.10.21.

7 And as they departed, Iesus began to say vnto the multitude concerning Iohn, What went yee out into the wildernesse to see? A reede shaken with the winde?

8 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Beholde, they that weare soft clothing, are in kings houses.

9 But what went yee out for to see? A Prophet? yea, I say vnto you, and more then a Prophet.

10 For this is hee of whom it is written,

Mala.3.1. *Beholde, I ſende my meſſenger before thy face, which ſhall prepare thy way before thee.

11 Verily I ſay vnto you, Among them that are borne of women, there hath not riſen a greater then Iohn the Baptiſt: notwithſtanding, hee that is leſſe in the kingdome of heauen, is greater then he.

Luk.16.16. 12 *From the dayes of Iohn the Baptiſt, vntill nowe, the kingdome of heauen ſuffereth violence, and the violent pluckе it vnto them.

13 For all the Prophets, and the lawe it ſelfe, prophecied vnto Iohn.

Mala.4.5. 14 And if ye will receiue it, *this is Elias which was for to come.

Luke 7.31. 15 *He that hath eares to heare, let him heare.

16 But whereunto ſhall I liken this generation? It is like vnto little children, ſitting in the markets, and calling vnto their fellowes, 17 And ſaying, We haue piped vnto you, and yee haue not daunced: wee haue [a] mourned vnto you, and ye haue not ſorrowed.

a. We haue ſung mourning ſongs vnto you.

18 For Iohn came neither eating nor drinking, and they ſay, He hath a deuill.

19 The ſonne of man came eating and drinking, and they ſay, Beholde a man gluttonous, and a wine bibber, and a friend vnto publicanes and ſinners: and wiſedome was iuſtified of her children.

Luk.10.13. 20 *Then beganne he to vpbraide the cities, wherein moſt of his mightie workes were done, becauſe they repented not.

21 Woe vnto thee Chorazin, woe vnto thee Bethſaida: for if the mightie workes which were done in you, had bene done in Tyre and Sidon, they would haue repented long agoe in ſackecloth and aſhes, 22 But I ſay vnto you, It ſhall bee eaſier for Tyre and Sidon at the day of iudgement, then for you.

23 And thou Capernaum, which haſt bene lifted vp into heauen, ſhalt be brought downe to hell: for if the mightie workes which haue bene done in thee, had bene done among them of Sodome, they would haue remained vntill this day.

24 But I ſay vnto you, that it ſhall be eaſier for the lande of Sodome, in the day of iudgement, then for thee.

Chriſt excuſeth his diſciples which plucke the eares of corne.

AT that time, * Ieſus went on the Sabboth dayes thorowe the corne, and his diſciples were an hungred, and began to pluck the eares of corne, and to eate. Mark.2.23. luke 6.1. deut.23.25.

2 But when the Phariſes ſaw them, they ſaid vnto him, Behold, thy diſciples doe that which is not lawful to do vpon the Sabboth day.

3 But hee ſayd vnto them, Haue yee not read * what Dauid did when hee was an hungred, and they that were with him, 1.Sam.21.6

4 Howe he entred into the houſe of God, and did eate the ſhew bread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, * but onely for the prieſtes? Exo.29.33. Leuit.8.31. num. 28.9.

5 Or haue ye not read in the * lawe, howe that on the Sabboth dayes the prieſtes in the temple [a] prophane the Sabboth, and are blameleſſe?

a. That is, doe lawfull workes.

6 But I ſay vnto you, that in this place is one greater then the temple.

7 But if yee had knowen what this meaneth, *I will mercie, and not ſacrifice, yee would not haue condemned the guiltleſſe. Oſe.6.7.

8 For the ſonne of man is Lorde of the Sabboth day.

9 *And when he was departed thence, he went into their Synagogue, Mar.3.1. luke 6.6.

10 And beholde, there was a man which had his hande dryed vp, and they aſked him, ſaying, Is it lawfull to heale on the Sabboth dayes? that they might accuſe him.

11 And he ſayde vnto them, What man of you will there bee that ſhall haue one ſheepe: and if it fall into a pit on the Sabboth day, will he not take holde of it, and lift it out?

12 Howe much more then is a man better then a ſheepe? wherefore it is lawfull to doe well on the Sabboth dayes.

13 Then ſaith hee to the man, Stretch forth thy hande: and he ſtretched it forth, and it was reſtored whole, like as the other.

14 Then the Phariſees went out, and held a counſell againſt him, how they might deſtroy him.

15 But when Ieſus knewe it, he departed thence: and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all.

16 And charged them not that they ſhoulde not make him knowen:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was ſpoken by Eſaias the Prophet, ſaying, 20 A bruised reede shall hee not breake, and smoking flaxe shall he not quench, till he send forth iudgement vnto victorie.

21 And in his name shall the Gentiles trust.
Luk.11.14. 22 *Then was brought vnto him one possessed with a deuill, blinde, and dumbe: and he healed him, in so much that the blinde and dumbe both spake and sawe.
23 And all the people were amazed, and sayde, Is not this that sonne of Dauid?
Mat.9.34. mar.3.22. luk.11.17. 24 *But when the Pharisees heard it, they sayde, This fellowe doeth not cast out these deuils, but by Beelzebub the prince of the deuils.
25 But when Jesus knew their thoughts, he saide vnto them, Euery kingdome deuided against it selfe, is brought to desolation: and euery citie or house deuided against it selfe, shall not stand.
26 And if Satan cast out Satan, then were he deuided against himselfe, howe shall then his kingdome endure?
27 Also if I by Beelzebub cast out deuils, by whome doe your children cast them out? Therefore they shall be your Judges.
28 But if I cast out the deuils by the spirit of God, then is the kingdome of God come vpon you.
29 Or els, how can one enter into a strong mans house, and spoyle his goods, except hee first binde the strong man, and then wil spoile his house?
30 He that is not with me, is against me: and hee that gathereth not with mee, scattereth abroade.
Mat.3.28. luke 12.10. iohn 5.13. 31 Wherefore I say vnto you, *All maner of sinne and blasphemie shall be forgiuen vnto men: but the blasphemie against the holy spirite, shall not be forgiuen vnto men.
32 And whosoeuer speaketh a word against the sonne of man, it shall bee forgiuen him: but whosoeuer speaketh against the holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiuen him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come.
33 Either make the tree good, & his fruite good: Or els make the tree euil, and his fruit euill: For the tree is knowen by his fruite.
Luk.6.45. 34 O generations of vipers, howe can ye speake good things, when ye your selues are euill? *For out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaketh.
35 A good man out of the good treasure of the heart, bringeth forth good things: and an euil man out of the euil treasure, bringeth forth euill things.
36 But I say vnto you, That of euery idle word that men shall speake, they shall giue account thereof in the day of iudgement.
37 For of thy words thou shalt be iustified, and of thy wordes thou shalt be condemned.
Mat.16.2. luke 11.29. Leuit.1.12. 38 *Then certaine of the Scribes, and of the Pharisees, answered him, saying, Master, we will see a signe of thee.
39 But hee answered, and sayde to them, An euill and adulterous generation seeketh a signe, and there shall no signe bee giuen to it, but the signe of the Prophet Jonas.
40 *For as Jonas was three dayes and three nights in the whales bellie: so shall the sonne of man be three daies and three nights in the heart of the earth. Ionas 2.1.
41 The men of Nineue shall rise in the iudgement with this nation, and condemne it, *because they repented at the preaching of Jonas, and beholde, here is one greater then Jonas. Ionas 3.5.
42 *The Queene of the South shall rise in the iudgement with this generation, and shal condemne it: for she came from the vttermost parts of the earth to heare the wisedome of Solomon, and behold, in this place is one greater then Solomon. 3.Kin.10.1 2.chro.9.1.
43 When the vncleane spirite is gone out of a man, he walketh throughout drie places seeking rest, and findeth none
44 Then hee sayeth, I will returne into my house from whence I came out. And when he is come, he findeth it emptie, swept, and garnished.
45 Then goeth hee, and taketh with him selfe seuen other spirits worse then himselfe, and they enter in, and dwell there: *And the last state of that man is worse then the first. Euen so shall it be also vnto this froward generation. 2.Pet.2.20. heb.6.4.
46 While he yet talked to the people, *behold, his mother and his brethren stoode without, desiring to speake with him. Mark.3.31. luke 8.20.
47 Then one sayde vnto him, *Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speake with thee. Iohn 15.7.
48 But he answered, and sayde vnto him that tolde him, Who is my mother? Or who are my brethren?
49 And when hee had stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, he said, *Behold my mother and my brethren.
50 For whosoeuer shall doe the will of my father which is in heauen, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

The xiij. Chapter.

3 The parable of the seede, 25 and of the tares.

THe same day when Jesus was gone out of the house, *he sate by the sea side. Marke 4.1. luke 8.5.
2 And great multitudes were gathered together vnto him, so that hee went into the shippe, and sate, and the whole multitude stoode on the shore.
3 And hee spake many things to them in parables, saying, Behold, the sower went forth to sowe.
4 And when hee sowed, some seedes fell by the wayes side: and the foules came, and deuoured them vp.
5 Some fell vpon stonie places, where they had not much earth: and anon they ſprung vp, becauſe they had no deepeneſſe of earth.

6 And when the ſunne was vp, they caught heate: and becauſe they had not root, they withered away.

7 Againe, ſome fell among thornes: and the thornes ſprung vp, and choked them.

8 But ſome fell into good grounde, and brought forth fruite, ſome an hundred folde, ſome ſixtie folde, ſome thirtie folde.

9 Who hath eares to heare, let him heare.

10 And the diſciples came, and ſayde vnto him, Why ſpeakeſt thou vnto them by parables?

11 Hee anſwered, and ſayde vnto them, Becauſe it is giuen vnto you to knowe the ſecretes of the kingdome of heauen, but to them it is not giuen.

Mat.25.29. 12 *For whoſoeuer hath, to him ſhall be giuen, and hee ſhall haue more abundance: but whoſoeuer hath not, from him ſhall be taken away, euen that he hath.

13 Therefore ſpeake I to them in parables: becauſe they ſeeing, ſee not: and hearing, they heare not, neither doe they vnderſtand.

15 For this peoples heart is waxed groſſe, and their eares are dull of hearing, and their eyes haue they cloſed: leaſt at any time they ſhoulde ſee with their eyes, and heare with their eares, and ſhoulde vnderſtand with their heart, and ſhould conuert, that I might heale them.

16 Bleſſed are your eyes, for they ſee: and your eares, for they heare.

Luk.10.24. 17 Verily I ſay vnto you, * that many Prophets and righteous men haue deſired to ſee thoſe things which yee ſee, and haue not ſeene: and to heare thoſe things which ye heare, and haue not heard.

Mark.4.15. luke 8.11. 18 *Heare yee therefore the ſimilitude of the Sower.

19 When one heareth the worde of the kingdome, and vnderſtandeth it not, then commeth that euill, and catcheth away that which was ſowen in his heart: this is hee which receiued ſeede by the way ſide.

20 But hee that receiued the ſeede into ſtonie places, the ſame is he that heareth the word, and anon with ioy receiueth it:

21 Yet hath he not roote in himſelfe, but dureth for a ſeaſon: for when tribulation or perſecution ariſeth becauſe of the worde, by and by he is offended.

22 Hee alſo that receiued ſeede into the thornes, is hee that heareth the worde, and the care of this worlde, and the deceitfulneſſe of riches choke vp the word, and ſo is he made vnfruitefull.

23 But hee that receiued ſeede into the good ground, is hee that heareth the word, and vnderſtandeth it, which alſo beareth fruite, and bringeth forth, ſome an hundred folde, ſome ſixtie folde, ſome thirtie folde.

24 Another parable put hee forth vnto them, ſaying, *The kingdome of heauen is likened vnto a man, which ſowed good ſeede in his field. The Goſpel on the fifth Sunday after the Epiphanie.

25 But while men ſlept, his enemie came and ſowed tares among the wheate, and went his way. Mar.4.16.

26 But when the blade was ſprung vp, and had brought forth fruite, then appeared the tares alſo.

27 So, the ſeruants of the houſholder came, and ſayde vnto him, Syr, diddeſt not thou ſowe good ſeed in thy field, from whence then hath it tares?

28 Hee ſayde vnto them, The malicious man hath done this. The ſeruants ſayde vnto him, Wilt thou then that we goe, and gather them vp?

29 But hee ſayde, Nay: leaſt while ye gather vp the tares, ye roote vp alſo the wheate with them.

30 Let both growe together vntill the harueſt: and in time of harueſt, I will ſay to the reapers, Gather yee together firſt the tares, and binde them in bundels to burne them: but cary the wheate into my barne.

31 Another parable put hee forth vnto them, ſaying, *The kingdome of heauen is like to a graine of muſtard ſeed, which a man tooke, and ſowed in his fielde. Mark.4.30. luke 13.18.

32 Which in deede is the leaſt of all ſeedes: but when it is growen, it is the greateſt among herbes, and is a tree: ſo that the birdes of the ayre come and make their neſts in the branches thereof.

33 *Another parable ſpake he vnto them, ſaying, The kingdome of heauen is like vnto leauen, which a woman tooke, and hid in three peckes of meale, till all were leauened. Luk.13.20.

34 * All theſe things ſpake Jeſus vnto the people in parables, and without a parable ſpake he not vnto them: Mark.4.33.

35 That it might be fulfilled which was ſpoken by the Prophet, ſaying, *I will open my mouth in parables, I will ſpeake forth things which haue bene kept ſecret from the foundation of the world. Pſal.68.2.

36 Then Jeſus, when hee had ſent the people away, went into the houſe: * And his diſciples came vnto him, ſaying, Declare vnto vs the parable of the tares of the field. Mark.4.34

37 He anſwered, & ſaid vnto them, He that ſoweth the good ſeede, is the ſonne of man.

38 The fielde, is the worlde. The good ſeede, the ſame are the children of the kingdome. But the tares, are the children of the wicked.

39 And the enemie that ſowed them, is the deuill. The harueſt, is the ende of the worlde. The reapers, be the Angels. Apoc. 14.15. ioel 3.13.

40 Euen as the tares therefore are gathered and burnt in the fire: ſo ſhall it bee in the ende of the worlde.

Sapien. 3.3. dan. 12.34. 43 *Then shall the righteous shine as the sunne in the kingdome of their father. Who hath eares to heare, let him heare.

44 Againe, the kingdom of heauen is like vnto treasure hid in the fielde: the which, when a man hath found, hideth, and for ioy thereof goeth and selleth al that he hath, and buyeth that fielde.

45 Againe, the kingdom of heauen is like vnto a marchãt man, seeking goodly pearles:

46 which when he had found one precious pearle, went and solde all that hee had, and bought it.

47 Againe, the kingdom of heauen is like vnto a nette that was cast into the sea, and gathered of all kinde, 48 which, when it was full, the Fishers drew to land, and sate downe, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away.

49 So shal it be at the ende of the worlde: the angels shal come forth, and seuer the bad from among the iust, 50 And shall cast thẽ into a furnace of fire: there shalbe wailing and gnashing of teeth.

51 Iesus sayth vnto them, Haue ye vnderstand al these things? They say vnto him, Yea, Lord.

52 Then sayde he vnto them, Therefore euery Scribe which is taught in the kingdome of heauen, is like vnto a man that is an housholder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and olde.

53 And it came to passe, that when Iesus had finished these parables, hee departed thence.

Mar.6.1. luke 4.16. 54 *And when hee came into his owne countrey, hee taught them in their Synagogue, insomuch that they were astonyed, and saide, whence commeth this wisedome, and mightie workes vnto him?

Iohn 6.42. 55 *Is not this the Carpenters sonne? Is not his mother called Marie? and his brethren, Iames, and Ioses, and Simon, and Iudas?

56 And are not all his sisters with vs? whence hath he then all these things?

57 And they were offended in him. But Iesus sayde vnto them, *A Prophet is not without honour, saue in his owne countrie, and in his owne house.

Mark.6.4. luke 4.24. iohn 4.44.

58 And hee did not many mightie works there, because of their vnbeliefe.

The xiiij. Chapter.

10 Iohn is taken and beheaded. 19 Christ feedeth fiue thousand men with fiue loaues and two fishes.

Mark.6.14. luke 9.7. AT that time *Herode the Tetrarch heard of ỹ fame of Iesu,

2 And said vnto his seruants, This is Iohn the Baptist, he is risen from the dead, and therefore great workes do shewe forth themselues in him.

3 *For Herode, when he had taken Iohn, he bound him, and put him in prison for Herodias sake, his brother Philips wife. Mark.6.17. luke 3.19.

4 For Iohn sayde vnto him, *It is not lawfull for thee to haue her. Leu.18.25.

5 And when hee woulde haue put him to death, hee feared the people: *because they counted him as a Prophet. Mat.21.16.

6 But whẽ Herodes birth day was kept, the daughter of Herodias daunced before them, and pleased Herode.

7 Wherefore hee promiseth with an othe, to giue her whatsoeuer she would aske.

8 And she, being before ‖ instructed of her mother, sayde, Giue me here Iohn Baptists head in a platter. ‖Or, enticed, or, enduced.

9 And the king was sory: neuertheless, for the othes sake, & them which sate also at the table, he commanded it to be giuen her:

10 And sent a tormentor, & beheaded Iohn in the prison.

11 And his head was brought in a platter, and giuen to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother.

12 And his disciples came, and tooke vp his body, and buryed it: and went and tolde Iesus.

13 *When Iesus heard of it, he departed thence in a shippe, vnto a desart place out of the way: and when the people had heard thereof, they followed him on foote out of the cities. Mark.6.32. luke 9.10.

14 And when Iesus went forth, he sawe much people, and was moued with mercy toward them, and he healed their sicke.

15 *And when it was euening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desart place, and the houre is nowe past: let the people depart, that they may goe into the villages, and buy them victuals. Mar.6.35. luke 9.12. iohn 6.5.

16 But Iesus said vnto them, They haue no neede to go away: giue ye them to eate.

17 They say vnto him, We haue not here but fiue loaues, and two fishes.

18 He sayd, Bring them hither to me.

19 And when hee had commaunded the people to sit downe on the grasse, and had taken the fiue loaues, and the two fishes, and lifted vp his eyes toward heauen, he blessed: and when he had broken them, hee gaue the loaues to his disciples: and his disciples to the people.

20 And they did al eate, and were sufficed: And they tooke vp (of the fragments that remayned) twelue baskets full.

21 And they that had eaten, were about fiue thousand men, beside women & children.

22 And straightway Iesus constrayned his disciples to get vp into a ship, and to goe before him vnto the other side, while he sent the people away.

23 And when he had sent the people away, he went vp into a mountaine alone to pray: *and when night was come, hee was there himselfe Mark.6.46. iohn 6.16.

himselfe alone:

24 But the ship was nowe in the middest of the sea, and was tost with the waues: for it was a contrary winde.

25 And in the fourth watch of the night, Jesus went vnto them, walking on the sea.

26 And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, That it is a spirite: and they cryed out for feare.

27 But straightway Jesus spake vnto them, saying, Be of good cheare: it is I, be not afrayde.

28 Peter answered him, and sayd, Lorde, if it be thou, bidde me come vnto thee on the water.

29 And he saide, Come. And when Peter was come downe out of the ship, hee walked on the water, to go to Jesus.

30 But when he sawe a mightie winde, he was afrayd: and when he began to sinke, he cryed, saying, Lord, saue me.

31 And immediatly Jesus, when he had stretched forth his hande, caught him, and sayd vnto him, O thou of litle faith, wherefore diddest thou doubt?

32 And when they were come into the ship, the winde ceassed.

33 Then they that were in the ship, came and worshipped him, saying, Of a trueth thou art the sonne of God.

Mar.6.54. 34 *And when they were gone ouer, they came into the land of Genezaret.

35 And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that countrey rounde about, & brought vnto him all that were sicke, 36 And besought him that they might touch the hemme of his garment onely: and as many as touched, were made perfectly whole.

The xv. Chapter.

Christ excuseth his disciples, and rebuketh the Scribes and Pharisees.

Mat.7.1. THen *came to Jesus Scribes & Pharises, which were come from Hierusalem, saying,

2 Why doe thy disciples transgresse the tradition of the elders? for they wash not their handes when they eate bread.

3 But he answered, and sayd vnto them, Why do you also transgresse the commandement of God by your tradition?

Exo.20.12. deut.5.16. Exo.21.17. leuit.20.9. pro.20.20. 4 For God commanded, saying, *Honour thy father & thy mother: And he that curseth *father or mother, let him dye the death.

5 But yee say, Whosoeuer shall say to his father or his mother, By the gift that is offred of me, thou shalt be helped:

6 And so that hee not honour his father or his mother. And thus haue ye made the commaundement of God of none effect by your tradition.

7 Ye hypocrites, full well did Esaias prophecie of you, saying,

Esa.29.13. 8 *This people draweth nigh vnto mee with their mouth, and honoureth mee with their lippes: howbeit, their heart is farre from me.

9 But in vayne they doe worship me, teaching doctrines, precepts of men.

Mar.7.17. 10 *And when hee had called the people to him, he sayd vnto them, Heare and vnderstande.

11 That which goeth into the mouth, defileth not the man: but that which commeth out of the mouth, defileth the man.

12 Then came his disciples, & sayde vnto him, Knowest thou not that the Pharisees were offended after they heard this saying?

Ioh.15.8. 13 But he answered, and said, *Al maner planting which my heauenly father hath not planted, shalbe rooted vp.

Luk.6.39. 14 Let them alone: * they bee blinde leaders of the blind. If the blind lead the blind, both shal fall into the ditch.

Mar.7.17. 15 *Then answered Peter and said vnto him, Declare vnto vs this parable.

16 Jesus sayde, Are yee also yet without vnderstanding?

17 Do not yee yet vnderstand, that whatsoeuer entreth in at the mouth, goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?

18 But those things which proceede out of the mouth, come forth from the heart, and they defile the man.

Gen.6.5. 19 *For out of the heart proceede euill thoughts, murders, adulteries, whordoms, thefts, false witnesse, blasphemies.

20 These are the things which defile a man: But to eate with vnwashen handes, defileth not a man.

The Gospel on the ii. sunday in Lent. Mat.7.24. 21 *And Jesus, when he went thence, departed into the coasts of Tyre and Sidon.

22 And behold, a woman of the Chanaanites, which came out of the same coasts, cried vnto him, saying, Haue mercie on me, O Lorde, thou sonne of Dauid, my daughter is grieuously vexed with a deuill.

23 But he answered not a word. And his disciples came, and besought him, saying, Send her away for she crieth after vs.

Mat.10.6. 24 But he answered, and saide, I am not sent * but vnto the lost sheepe of the house of Israel.

25 Then came shee, and worshipped him, saying, Lord, helpe me.

26 But he answered, and saide, It is not meete to take the childrens bread, and to cast it to litle dogges.

27 And shee sayde, Yes, Lorde: for the litle dogges also eate of the crummes which fall from their masters table.

28 Then Jesus answered, and sayde vnto her, O woman, great is thy faith: bee it done vnto thee euen as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole euen from that same houre.

Mat.7.31. 29 *And Jesus, when hee was departed from thence, came nigh vnto the sea of Galilee, and when he was gone vp into a mountaine, taine, he sate downe there.

Esa.35.5. 30 * Then great multitudes came vnto him, hauing with them those that were lame, blinde, dumbe, maymed, and other many, and cast them downe at Iesus feete, and he healed them:

31 Insomuch that the people wondered, when they sawe the dumbe speake, the maymed to bee whole, the lame to walke, and the blinde to see: and they glorified the God of Israel.

Mark.8.1. 32 * Then Iesus called his disciples vnto him, and sayde, I haue compassion on the people, because they continue with me nowe three dayes, and haue nothing to eate: and I will not let them depart fasting, lest they faint in the way.

33 And his disciples say vnto him, Whence should we get so much bread in the wildernesse, as to suffice so great a multitude?

34 And Iesus saith vnto them, How many loaues haue ye? And they sayde, Seuen, and a fewe litle fishes.

35 And he commanded the people to sitte downe on the ground.

36 And when hee had taken the seuen loaues and the fishes, and had giuen thanks, he brake them, and gaue to his disciples: and the disciples gaue them to the people.

37 And they did all eate, and were sufficed: and they tooke vp of the broken meate that was left, seuen baskets full.

38 And yet they that did eate, were foure thousand men, beside women and children.

39 And when hee had sent away the people, he tooke shippe, and came into the partes of Magdala.

The xvj. Chapter.

1 The Pharises require a token. 6 Iesus warneth his disciples of the Pharises doctrine.

Mark.8.11. luk.12.54. THe * Pharisees also, with the Sadducees, came, and tempting, desired him that he would shewe them a signe from heauen.

2 He answered, and said vnto them, When it is euening, ye say, It will be faire weather: for the skie is red.

3 And in the morning, It will be foule weather to day: for the skie is lowring red. O ye hypocrites, ye can discerne the outwarde appearance of the skie: but can ye not discerne the signes of the times?

Mat.12.34. Ionas.2.1. 4 * A frowarde and adulterous nation requireth * a signe, and there shall no signe bee giuen vnto it, but the signe of the Prophet Ionas. And he left them, and departed.

5 And when his disciples were come to the other side of the water, they had forgotten to take bread with them.

6 Then Iesus said vnto them, Take heed and beware of the leauen of the Pharisees, and of the Sadducees.

7 And they thought in themselues, saying, For we haue taken no bread with vs.

8 Which when Iesus vnderstoode, he said vnto them, O ye of litle faith, why thinke you within your selues, because ye haue brought no bread?

9 * Do ye not yet perceiue, neither remember those fiue loaues of the fiue thousande, and how many baskets tooke ye vp? Mat.14.17.

10 * Neither the seuen loaues of the foure thousand, and howe many baskets tooke ye vp? Mat.15.34.

11 Howe is it that ye doe not vnderstand that I speake it not vnto you concerning bread, that ye should beware of the leauen of the Pharisees, and of the Sadducees?

12 Then vnderstoode they howe that hee bad not them beware of the leauen of the bread: but of the doctrine of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

13 When Iesus came into the coastes of Cesarea, which is called Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, * Whome doe men say that I the sonne of man am? The Gospel on S. Peters day. Mark.8.27. luke 9.18.

14 They sayde, Some say that thou art Iohn Baptist, some Elias, some Jeremias, or one of the Prophets.

15 Hee sayth vnto them, But whome say ye that I am?

16 Simon Peter answered, and sayde, * Thou art Christ, the sonne of ỹ liuing God. Iohn 6, 69.

17 And Iesus answered, and sayde vnto him, Happie art thou Simon Bar Iona: for flesh and blood hath not opened that vnto thee, but my father which is in heauen.

18 And I say also vnto thee, * that thou art Peter, and vpon this rocke I will builde my congregation: and the gates of hell shall not preuaile against it. Iohn 1.42.

19 * And I will giue vnto thee the keyes of the kingdome of heauen: and whatsoeuer thou shalt binde in earth, shall bee bounde in heauen, and whatsoeuer thou shalt loose in earth, shalbe loosed in heauen. Iohn 20,21

20 Then charged hee his disciples that they shoulde tell no man that hee was Iesus Christ.

21 From that time forth began Iesus to shewe vnto his disciples, how that he must goe vnto Hierusalem, and suffer many things of the Elders and high Priestes and Scribes, and must be killed, and be raised againe the third day.

22 And when Peter had taken him aside, he began to rebuke him, saying, Lord, fauour thy selfe, this shall not be vnto thee.

23 But hee turned him about, and sayde vnto Peter, Goe after me, Satan, thou art an offence vnto mee: for thou sauourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men.

24 * Then sayde Iesus vnto his disciples, If any man will goe after mee, let him forsake himselfe, and take vp his crosse, and follow me. Mat.10.38. mark.8.34. and 9.23.

25 * For whosoeuer will saue his life, shall lose it: againe, whosoeuer wil lose his life for my sake, shall finde it. Mat.10.39. luke 6.35. luke 9.24.

The xvij. Chapter.

2 The transfiguration of Christ: 15 He healeth the lunatike.

Mark.9.2. luke 9.27. AND * after sixe dayes, Jesus taketh Peter, James, and John his brother, and bringeth them vp into an high mountaine, out of the way,

2 And was transfigured before them, and his face did shine as the Sunne, and his clothes were as white as the light.

3 And beholde, there appeared vnto them Moses, and Elias talking with him.

4 Then answered Peter, and sayde vnto Jesus, Lord, it is good for vs to bee here. If thou wilt, let vs make here three tabernacles: one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

Mat.3.17. 2.pet.2.17. 5 * While hee yet spake, beholde, a bright cloude ouershadowed them: and beholde, there came a voyce out of the cloude, which sayde, This is my beloued sonne, in whome I am well pleased, heare ye him.

6 And when ỹ disciples heard these things, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid.

7 And Jesus came and touched them, and sayd, Arise ye, and be not afraid.

8 And when they had lift vp their eyes, they sawe no man, saue Jesus onely.

9 And when they came downe from the mountaine, Jesus charged them, saying, Shew the vision to no man, vntill the sonne of man be risen againe from the dead.

Mal.4.5. mat.11.14. mark.9.13. 10 And his disciples asked him, saying, * Why then say the Scribes that Elias must first come?

11 Jesus answered, and sayd vnto them, Elias truely shall first come, and restore all things:

12 But I say vnto you, that Elias is come already, and they knewe him not, but haue done vnto him what so euer they listed: Likewise shall also the sonne of man suffer of them.

13 Then the disciples vnderstoode that he spake vnto them of John Baptist.

Mark.9.14. luke 9.37. 14 * And when they were come to the people, there came to him a certaine man, kneeling downe to him, and saying, 15 Lord, haue mercie on my sonne, for he is lunatike, and sore vexed: for oft times he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water.

16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not heale him.

17 Jesus answered, and said, O faithlesse and peruerse nation, howe long shall I bee with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me.

18 And Jesus rebuked the deuill, and he departed out of him: and the childe was healed euen that same time.

19 Then came the disciples of Jesus secretly, and saide, Why could not we cast him out?

20 Jesus said vnto them, Because of your vnbeliefe: for verily I say vnto you, * If ye haue faith ‖ as a graine of mustard seede, yee shal say vnto this mountaine, Remoue hence to yonder place: and it shall remoue, neither shall any thing be vnpossible vnto you. Luke 17.6. ‖ As much.

21 Howbeit, this kinde ‖ goeth not out, but by prayer and fasting. ‖ Of deuils.

22 * While they were conuersant in Gallilee, Jesus sayde vnto them, It will come to passe, that the sonne of man shall be betrayed into the handes of men: Mat.20.17. mark.9.31. luke 9.44.

23 And they shall kill him, and the third day shall he rise againe. And they were exceeding sorie.

24 And when they were come to Capernaum, they that receiued tribute money, came to Peter, and said, Doeth not your master pay tribute?

25 He saith, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Jesus preuented him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? of whome doe the kings of the earth take tribute or toll? of their owne children, or of the strangers?

26 Peter sayeth vnto him, Of the strangers. Jesus saith vnto him, Then are the children free.

27 Notwithstanding, least we shoulde offend them, goe thou to the sea, & cast an hooke, and take vp the fish that first cõmeth vp: and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt finde a piece of twentie pence: that take, and giue vnto them for me, and thee.

The xviij. Chapter.

3 Hee teacheth his disciples to be humble and harmelesse, 6 to auoyde occasions of euill.

AT * the same time came the disciples vnto Jesus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdome of heauen? The Gospel on S. Michael and all angels. Mark.9.33.

2 Jesus called a litle childe vnto him, and set him in the middes of them,

3 And saide, Verily I say vnto you, * Except yee turne and become as little children, yee shall not enter into the kingdome of heauen. Mat.19.14. luke 9.46. 1.cor.14.20

4 Whosoeuer therefore shall humble himselfe as this little childe, the same is the greatest in the kingdome of heauen.

7 Woe vnto the world because of offences, it must needes bee that offences come: but woe to that man by whome the offence commeth.

Mar.5.30. Mat.9.43. 8 If thine * hand or thy foote offend thee, * cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather then thou hauing two hands or two feete, be cast into the euerlasting fire.

9 And if thine eye offende thee, plucke it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather then hauing two eyes, to be cast into hell fire.

10 Take heede that yee despise not one of these little ones: for I say vnto you, that in heauen their [b] angels doe alwayes beholde the face of my father which is in heauen.

11 * For the sonne of man is come to saue that which was lost.

12 * Howe thinke ye? if a man haue an hundred sheepe, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leaue those ninetie & nine, and goeth into the mountaines, and seeketh that which went astray?

Luke 19.10 Luke 15.4.

13 And if so be that hee finde it, verely I say vnto you, he reioyceth more of that sheep, then of the ninetie and nine which went not astray.

14 Euen so it is not the will of your father which is in heauen, that one of these little ones should perish.

Iohn 20.23

19 Againe, truely I say vnto you, that if two of you shall agree in earth as touching any thing that they shall aske, it shall be done for them of my father which is in heauen.

20 For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the middest of them.

The Gospel on the xxij. Sunday after Trinitie.

22 Iesus saith vnto him, I say not vnto thee, but till seuen times: but vntill seuenty times seuen.

Luke 17.4.

23 Therefore is the kingdome of heauen likened vnto a certain man that was a king, which would take account of his seruants.

24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought vnto him which ought him ten thousand talents.

25 But forasmuch as hee had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be solde, and his wife, and children, & all that he had, and payment to be made.

26 The seruant therefore fell downe, and besought him, saying, Lorde, haue patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

27 Then the Lord of that seruant, moued with pitie, loosed him, and forgaue him the debt.

28 But the same seruant went out, and found one of his fellowes which ought him an hundred pence: and when hee had layde his hands on him, he tooke him by the throte, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

29 And his fellow fell downe at his feete, and besought him, saying, Haue patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

30 And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

31 So when his fellowes saw what was done, they were very sory, and came, and told vnto their lord all that was done.

32 Then his lord, after that he had called him, sayd vnto him, O thou vngracious seruant, I forgaue thee all that debt when thou desiredst me:

33 Shouldest not thou also haue had compassion on thy fellow, euen as I had pitie on thee?

34 And his lord was wroth, and deliuered him to the tormentors, till hee should pay all that was due vnto him.

35 So like wise shall my heauenly father doe also vnto you, if ye from your hearts forgiue not euery one his brother their trespasses.

The xix. Chapter.

3 Christ giueth answere concerning marriage, 21 and teacheth, not to be carefull, 22 nor to loue worldly riches.

AND it came to passe, * that when Iesus had finished these sayings, he gate him from Galile, and came into the coastes of Iurie beyond Iordane: Mark.10.1.

2 And great multitudes followed him, and he healed them there.

3 The Pharisees also came vnto him, tempting him, and saying vnto him, Is it lawfull for a man to put away his wife for euery cause?

4 Hee answered, and sayde vnto them, Haue ye not read * that he which created at the beginning, made them male and female? Gen.1.27.

5 And sayde, * For this cause shall a man leaue his father and his mother, and shall be knit to his wife: and they twayne shall be one flesh. Gen.2.24. Ephe.5.31. 1.Cor.6.16.

6 Wherefore they are no more twayne, but one flesh. Let no man therefore put asunder that which God hath coupled together.

Deut.24.1. 7 They say vnto him, Why did Moses then commande to giue a writing of diuorcement, and to put her away?

8 He sayde vnto them, Moses, because of the hardnesse of your hearts, suffered you to put away your wiues: but from the beginning it was not so.

Mat.5.32. mar.10.11. luke 6.18. 1.cor. 7.11. 9 *I say vnto you, whosoeuer shal put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marrie another, committeth adulterie: and who so marrieth her which is diuorced, doeth commit adulterie.

10 His disciples say vnto him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, then is it not good to marrie.

11 But he sayd vnto them, All men can not receiue this saying, saue they to whome it is giuen.

12 For there are some chaste, which were so borne out of their mothers wombe: & there are some chaste, which were made chaste of men: and there be chaste, which haue made themselues chaste for the kingdome of heauens sake. Hee that is able to receiue it, let him receiue it.

Mar.10.13. luke 18.15. 13 *Then were there brought vnto him yong children, that he should put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them.

14 But Iesus said vnto them, Suffer the yong children, and forbid them not to come vnto me: for to such belongeth the kingdome of heauen.

15 And when he had put his handes on them, he departed thence.

17 He said vnto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, and that is God: But if thou wilt enter into that life, keepe the commandements.

18 He saith vnto him, Which? Iesus said, Exo.20.13. *Thou shalt doe no murder, Thou shalt not commit adulterie, Thou shalt not steale, Thou shalt not beare false witnesse, 19 Honour thy father and thy mother: and, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe.

20 The yong man saieth vnto him, All these things haue I kept from my youth vp: what lacke I yet?

21 Iesus sayd vnto him, If thou wilt be perfect, goe and sell thy substance, and giue to the poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen: and come and follow me.

22 But when the yong man heard that saying, he went away sorie: for he had great possessions.

23 Then Iesus sayde vnto his disciples, Verily I say vnto you, that a riche man shall hardly enter into the kingdome of heauen.

24 And againe I say vnto you, It is easier for a Camell to goe thorowe the eye of a needle, then for the rich to enter into the kingdome of God.

25 When the disciples heard this, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saued?

The xx. Chapter.

1 Christ teacheth by a similitude, that God is debter vnto no man. 20 Hee teacheth his disciples to be lowly, 30 and giueth two blinde men their sight.

FOr the kingdome of heauen is like vnto a man that is an housholder, which went out early in the morning to hyre labourers into his vineyarde. The Go on Sep gesima day.

2 And when hee had agreed with the labourers for a peny a day, hee sent them into his vineyard.

3 And when he went out about the third houre, he saw other standing idle in the market place,

4 And said vnto them, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoeuer is right, I will giue you. And they went their way.

5 Againe, when hee went out about the sixth and ninth houre, he did likewise.

6 And about the eleuenth houre, when hee went out, hee found other standing idle, and saith vnto them, Why stand yee here all the day idle?

7 They say vnto him, Because no man hath hired vs. He saith vnto them, Goe ye also into the vineyard: & whatsoeuer is right, that shall ye receiue.

8 So when euen was come, the lorde of the vineyarde saith vnto his Steward, Call the labourers, and giue them their hire, beginning from the last, vnto the first.

9 And when they came that were hired about the eleuenth houre, they receiued euery man a peny.

10 But when the first came also, they supposed that they should haue receiued more: and they likewise receiued euery man a peny.

11 And whe they had receiued it, they murmured against the good man of the house,

12 Saying, These last haue wrought but one ons house, and thou shalt make them consult vnto vs, which haue borne the burden and feruent heate of the day.

13 But he answered to one of them, and sayd, Friend, I doe thee no wrong: diddest thou not agree with me for a peny?

14 Take that thine is, and goe thy way. I will giue vnto this last, euen as vnto thee.

15 Is it not lawfull for me to doe that I will with mine owne? Is thine eye euill, because I am good?

16 *So the last shall be first, and the first shall be last: for many be called, but fewe chosen.

17 *And Iesus going vp to Hierusalem, tooke the twelue disciples aside in the way, and sayd vnto them,

18 Behold, we goe vp to Hierusalem, and the sonne of man shall be betrayed vnto the chiefe priests and vnto the Scribes, and they shall condemne him to death,

19 *And shall deliuer him to the Gentiles to be mocked, and to be scourged, and to be crucified: and the third day he shall rise againe.

20 *Then came to him the mother of Zebedees children, with her sonnes, worshipping him, & desiring a certaine thing of him.

21 And he sayd vnto her, What wilt thou? She sayth vnto him, Grant, that these my two sonnes may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left, in thy kingdome.

22 But Iesus answered, & sayd, Ye wote not what ye aske. Are ye able to drinke of the cup that I shall drinke of, and to be baptized with the baptisme that I am baptized with? They say vnto him, We are able.

23 He sayth vnto them, Ye shall drinke indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptisme that I am baptized with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to giue, but to them for whome it is prepared of my father.

24 *And when the ten heard this, they disdained at the two brethren.

25 But Iesus, when he had called them vnto him, sayd, Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles haue dominion ouer them, and they that are great, exercise authoritie vpon them.

26 It shal not be so among you: But who soeuer will be great among you, let him bee your minister.

27 And whoso will be chiefe among you, let him be your seruant.

28 Euen as *the sonne of man came not to be ministred vnto, but to minister, and to giue his life a ransome for many.

29 *And as they departed from Hierich, much people followed him.

30 And behold, two blinde men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Iesus passed by, they cryed, saying, O Lorde, thou sonne of Dauid, haue mercy on vs.

31 And the people rebuked them, because they should hold their peace: but they cryed the more, saying, Haue mercy on vs, O Lorde, thou sonne of Dauid.

32 And Iesus stood still, and called them, and sayd, What will ye that I shall doe vnto you?

33 They say vnto him, Lord, that our eies may be opened.

34 So Iesus had compassion on them, & touched their eies: and immediately their eies receiued sight, and they followed him.

The xxi. Chapter.

7 Her rideth into Hierusalem, 19 driueth the marchants out of the Temple, 19 and curseth the figge tree.

AND when they drue nigh vnto Hierusalem, and were come to Bethphage, vnto the mount of Oliues, then sent Iesus two disciples,

2 Saying vnto them, Goe into the village ouer against you, and anone ye shall finde an asse tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them vnto me.

3 And if any man say ought vnto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them, and straightway he will let them goe.

4 All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which is spoken by the Prophet, saying,

5 *Tell ye the daughter of Sion, Behold, thy king commeth vnto thee meeke, and sitting vpon an asse, and a colt, the foale of the asse with him.

6 The disciples went, and did as Iesus commanded them,

7 And brought the asse, and the colt, and put on them their clothes, and he sate thereon.

8 And many of the people spred their garments in the way, other cut downe branches from the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 Moreouer, the multitudes that went before, and that came after cried, saying, Hosanna to the sonne of Dauid: Blessed is hee that commeth in the name of the Lorde, Hosanna in the highest.

10 *And when he was come into Hierusalem, all the citie was moued, saying, Who is this?

11 And the multitude said, This is Iesus that Prophet of Nazareth a citie in Galilee.

12 And Iesus went into the Temple of God, *and cast out all them that sold & bought in the Temple, and ouerthrew the tables of the money changers, and the seates of them that solde doues, 13 And said vnto them, It is written, My house shalbe called the house of prayer, *but ye haue made it a denne of theeues.

28 But what thinke you? A certaine man had two sonnes, and when hee came to the first, he said, Sonne, goe and worke to day in my vineyard.

29 He answered, and said, I will not: but afterward he repented, and went.

30 And when he came to the second, hee said likewise: And he answered, and sayde, I goe sir, and went not.

31 Whether of them twaine did the will of his father? And they said vnto him, The first. Iesus saith vnto them, Verely I say vnto you, that the Publicanes and the harlots goe into the kingdome of God before you.

33 Heare an other similitude. *There was a certaine man, an housholder, which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, & digged a wine presse in it, and builte a towre, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a strange countrey. Esay 5.1. iere.2.21. mark.12.1. luke 20.9.

36 Againe, he sent other seruants, more then the first, & they did vnto them likewise.

37 But last of all, he sent vnto them his owne sonne, saying, They will stand in awe of my sonne.

38 But when the husbandmen sawe the sonne, they said among themselues, *This Mat.26.3. is the heyre, come, let vs kill him, and let vs iohn 11.53. season vpon his inheritance.

39 And they caught him, and thrust him out of the vineyard, and slew him.

40 When the Lorde therefore of the vineyard commeth, what will he doe vnto those husbandmen?

41 They say vnto him, He will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will let out his vineyarde vnto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruite in due seasons.

42 Iesus saith vnto them, *Did ye neuer Psal.118. read in the scriptures, The stone which the 22.23.24.25 builders disalowed, the same is become the head of the corner? This is the Lords doing, and it is marueilous in our eyes.

18 Neither let him which is in the fielde, returne backe to fetch his clothes.

19 And woe shall be in those dayes to them that are with childe, and to them that giue sucke.

20 But pray yee that your flight be not in Ac.1.12. the winter, * neither on the Sabboth day:

21 For then shall bee great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor in any wise shalbe.

22 Yea, and except those dayes should be shortned, there should no flesh be saued: but for the chosens sake those dayes shalbe shortned.

23 Then if any man shall say vnto you, * Loe, here is Christ, or there: beleeue it not. Mar.13.21.

24 For there shall arise false Christes, and luke 17.23. false prophets, and shall shewe great signes, and wonders: insomuch that (if it were possible) they shall deceiue the very elect.

25 Behold, I haue told you before.

26 Wherefore, if they shall say vnto you, Behold, he is in the desart, go not forth: Behold, he is in the secret places, beleeue it not.

27 For as the lightning commeth out of the East, and shineth into the West: so shall also the comming of the sonne of man be.

28 * For whersoeuer the dead carkeise is, Luk.17.37. euen there will the Eagles also be gathered together.

29 Immediatly, after the tribulation of those dayes, * shall the sunne be darkened, Mar.13.24. and the moone shall not giue her light, and luke 21.25. the starres shall fall from heauen, and the ioel 2.31. powers of the heauens shalbe shaken.

30 And then shall appeare the signe of the sonne of man in heauen: and then shall all the kinreds of the earth mourne, * and they Actes 1.7. shall see the sonne of man comming in the clouds of heauen, with power & great glory.

31 * And he shall send his angels with the 1.Cor.15. great sounde of a trumpet, and they shall ga- 52. ther together his chosen frō the foure winds, 1.thes.4.16. euen from one end of heauen to the other.

32 Learne a parable of the fig tree: When his branch is yet tender, and the leaues spring, ye know that sommer is nigh:

33 So likewise yee when yee shall see all these things, be sure that it is neere, euen at the doores.

34 Verely I say vnto you, this generation shall in no wise passe, till all these things be fulfilled.

35 * Heauen and earth shall passe away, Mar.13.32. but my wordes shall in no wise passe away.

36 But of that day and houre knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heauen, but my father onely.

37 But as the dayes of Noe were, so shall also the comming of the sonne of man be.

38 * For as in the dayes that were before Gen.7.5. the flood, they were eating, and drinking, luke 17.28. marrying, and giuing in mariage, euen vntill the day that Noe entred into the arke, 39 And knewe not till the flood came, and tooke them all away: so shall also the comming of the sonne of man be.

40 * Then shall two be in the field: the one Luk.17.35. is receiued, and the other is left alone.

41 * Two women shall be grinding at the 1.Thes.4. mil: the one is receiued, & the other left alone. 17.

42 * Watch therefore, for ye know not what Mar.13.35. houre your Lord doth come.

43 * Of this yet be sure, that if the good Luk.12.39. man of the house had known what watch 2.thes.5.2. the thiefe would come, hee would haue wat- apo.16.15. ched, and would not haue suffered his house to be broken vp.

44 Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an houre as ye thinke not, the sonne of man commeth.

45 Who

45 who then is that faithfull and wise seruaunt, whom his lorde hath made ruler ouer his houshold, to giue them meate in season?

46 Blessed is that seruaunt, whom his Lord when he commeth, shall finde so doing.

47 Verely I say vnto you, that hee shall make him ruler ouer all his goods.

48 But and if that euill seruant shall say in his heart, My lorde will be long a coming:

49 And to beginne to smite his fellowes, yea, and to eate & drinke with the drunken:

50 The same seruants Lord shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an houre that he is not ware of:

51 And shall hew him in pieces, and giue him his portion with the hypocrites: * there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Mat.13.42. and 25.30.

The xxv. Chapter.

1 The ten virgins. 14 The talents deliuered to the seruants. 31 And of the generall iudgement.

THen shall the kingdome of heauen be likened vnto tenne virgins, which when they had taken their lampes, went forth to meete the bridegrome.

2 But fiue of them were wise, & fiue were foolish.

3 They that were foolish, when they had taken their lampes, tooke none oyle with them:

4 But the wise tooke oyle in their vessels, with their lampes also.

5 Whyle the bridegrome taried, they all slumbred and slept.

6 And euen at midnight there was a crie made, Behold, the bridegrome commeth, goe ye out to meete him.

7 Then al those virgins arose, and prepared their lampes.

8 So the foolish said vnto the wise, Giue vs of your oyle, for our lampes are gone out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so, lest there be not ynough for vs and you: but goe ye rather to them that sell, and buy for your selues.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroume came, and they that were ready, went in with him to the mariage, and the doore was shut vp.

11 Afterward came also ỹ other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to vs.

12 But he answered, and saide, Verely I say vnto you, I know you not.

13 *Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day, nor yet the houre, wherein the sonne of man commeth. Mat.24.43. mar.13.33.

14 *Like wise, as when a certaine man taking his iourney into a strange countrey, called his owne seruants, and deliuered vnto them his goods. Luk.19.12.

15 And vnto one hee gaue fiue talents, to another two, and to another one, to euery man after his abilitie, and straightway tooke his iourney.

16 Then hee that had receiued the fiue talents, went and occupied with the same, and made them other fiue talents.

17 And likewise hee that had receiued two, he also gained other two.

18 But hee that had receiued one, went and digged in the earth, and hid his lordes money.

19 After a long season, the lorde of those seruants commeth, & reckoneth with them.

20 And so hee that had receiued fiue talents, came and brought other fiue talents, saying, Lorde, thou deliueredst vnto me fiue talents: behold, I haue gained besides them, fiue talents moe.

21 His lord said vnto him, Well done, thou good and faithfull seruaunt, thou hast beene faithfull ouer fewe things, I will make thee ruler ouer many things: enter thou into the ioy of thy lord.

22 He also that had receiued two talents, came, and saide, Lord, thou deliueredst vnto me two talents: behold, I haue wonne two other talents besides them.

23 His lord said vnto him, Well done, good and faithful seruant, thou hast bene faithful ouer fewe things, I will make thee ruler ouer many things: enter thou into the ioy of thy Lord.

24 Then hee which had receiued the one talent, came, and saide, Lorde I knewe thee that thou art an hard man, reaping where thou hast not sowen, and gathering where thou hast not strawed:

25 And therefore was I afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that thine is.

26 His lord answered, and saide vnto him, Thou euill and slouthfull seruaunt, thou knewest that I reape where I sowed not, and gather where I haue not strawed:

27 Thou oughtest therefore to haue deliuered my money to the exchangers, & then at my comming should I haue receiued mine owne with vantage.

28 Take therefore the talent from him, & giue it vnto him which hath ten talents.

29 *For vnto euery one that hath, shalbe giuen, and he shal haue abundance: but from him that hath not, shalbe taken away, euen that which he hath. Mat.13.12. mark.4.25.

30 And cast the vnprofitable seruant *into vtter darknesse, there shalbe weeping and gnashing of teeth. Mat.8.12. and 22.13.

31 When the Sonne of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit vpon the throne of his glorie.

32 And before him shalbe gathered all nations, and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepheard deuideth his sheepe from the goates.

33 And he shall set the sheepe on his right hand, but the goates on the left.

34 Then shall the king say vnto them which shalbe on his right hand, Come ye blessed fed of my father, inherite the kingdome, which hath bene prepared for you from the foundation of the world.

4 And helde a counſell, that they might take Jeſus ſubtilly, and kill him.

5 But they ſaid, Not on the feaſt day, leaſt there be an vproze among the people.

Mat.14.3. Iohn 11.2. 6 "When Jeſus was in Bethanie, in the houſe of Simon the leaper, 7 There came vnto him a woman, hauing an alabaſter boxe of precious ointment, and powred it on his head as he ſate at the boord.

8 But when his diſciples ſawe it, they had indignation, ſaying, To what purpoſe this waſte?

9 This ointment might haue bene ſolde for much, and geuen to the poore.

10 When Jeſus vnderſtood that he ſaide vnto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for ſhe hath wrought a good worke vpon me.

Deu.15.11. 11 "For ye haue the poore alwayes with you, but me ye haue not alwayes.

12 For in that this woman hath caſt this ointment on my body, ſhe did it to burie me.

13 Verily I ſay vnto you, Whereſoeuer this goſpel ſhall bee preached in the whole world, there ſhall alſo this that this woman hath done, be told for a memoriall of her.

Mar.14.10 luke 22.4. 14 "Then one of the twelue, called Judas Iſcariot, went vnto the chiefe prieſts,

15 And ſaide vnto them, What will yee giue mee, and I will deliuer him vnto you? And they appointed vnto him thirtie ſiluer peeces, 16 And from that time forth, hee ſought opportunitie to betray him.

Mar.14.12 luke 22.7. 17 "The firſt day of ſweete breade, the diſciples came to Jeſus, ſaying vnto him, Where wilt thou that wee ſhall prepare for thee to eate the Paſſeouer?

18 And he ſaid, Go into the citie to ſuch a man, and ſay vnto him, The maiſter ſaieth, My time is at hand, I make the Paſſeouer at thy houſe with my diſciples.

19 And the diſciples did as Jeſus had appointed them, & they made ready the Paſſeouer.

Mar.14.8. luke 22.14. iohn 13.21 20 "When the euen was come, hee ſate downe with the twelue.

21 And as they did eate, he ſaid, Verily I ſay vnto you, that one of you ſhall betray me.

22 And they being exceeding ſorowfull, began euery one of them to ſay vnto him, Lord, is it I?

23 He anſwered and ſaide, Hee that hath dipped his hande with mee in the diſh, the ſame ſhall betray me.

24 The ſonne of man truely goeth as it is written of him: but woe vnto that man by whome the ſonne of man is betrayed: It had bene good for that man if hee had not bene borne.

25 Then Judas, which betrayed him, anſwered, and ſaid, Maiſter, is it I? He ſaid vnto him, Thou haſt ſaid.

1. Cor. 11. 24. 26 When they were eating, "Jeſus, when he had taken the bread, and giuen thanks he brake it and gaue it to the diſciples, and ſaid, Take ye, eate ye, this is my body.

27 And when hee had taken the cup, and giuen thanks, he gaue it them, ſaying, Drinke ye all of it:

28 For this is my blood of the newe teſtament, that is ſhed for many for the remiſſion of ſinnes.

29 But I ſay vnto you, I will of no wiſe drinke henceforth of this fruite of the vine tree, tree, vntill that day when I drinke it new with you in my fathers kingdome.

30 And when they had praised God, they went out vnto the mount of Olives.

Mar.14.27. iohn 16.30 Zach.13.7. 31 Then saith Iesus vnto them, All yee shall be offended because of mee this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepeherd, and the sheepe of the flocke shalbe scattered abroad.

Mar.14.28. and 16.7. 32 But after I am risen againe, I will go before you into Galilee.

33 Peter answered, and saide vnto him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I neuer be offended.

Ioh.13.38. 34 Iesus said vnto him, Verily I say vnto thee, that in this same night before the cocke crowe, thou shalt denie me thrise.

35 Peter said vnto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I by no maner of meanes denie thee. Like wise also said all the disciples.

Mar.14.32 luke 22,39. 36 Then commeth Iesus with them vnto a place called Gethsemane, and saith vnto the disciples, Sit yee there while I goe and pray yonder.

37 And when hee had taken with him Peter, and the two sonnes of Zebedee, he began to be sorowfull and heauie.

38 Then said Iesus vnto them, My soule is exceeding heauie, euen vnto the death: tarie ye here, and watch with me.

39 And when he had gone a little further, hee fell flat on his face, praying, and saying, O my father, if it be possible, let this cup passe from me: neuertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt.

40 And hee commeth vnto the disciples, and findeth them a sleepe, and saith vnto Peter, What could yee not watch with me one houre?

41 Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: The spirit in deed is willing, but the flesh is weake.

42 He went away againe the second time, and prayed, saying, O my father, if this cup may not passe away from me, except I drink it, thy will be fulfilled.

43 And when he came, hee findeth them a sleepe againe: for their eyes were heauie.

44 And hee left them, and went againe and prayed the thirde time, saying the same words.

45 Then commeth he to his disciples, and saieth vnto them, Sleepe henceforth, and take your rest: behold, the houre is at hand, and the sonne of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

46 Rise, let vs be going: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me.

Mar.14.43 luke.22.47 iohn 18.3. 47 While he yet spake, loe, Iudas one of the twelue came, and with him a great multitude with swordes & staues from the chiefe priests and elders of the people.

48 But hee that betraied him, gaue them a token, saying, Whomsoeuer I shall kisse, that same is he, hold him fast.

49 And straightway when he came to Iesus, he said, Haile master, and kissed him.

50 And Iesus saide vnto him, Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they and laid hands on Iesus, and tooke him.

51 And behold, one of them which were with Iesus, stretched out his hand, & drewe his sword, and after that he had stricken a seruant of the hie priests, he smote off his eare.

52 Then saide Iesus vnto him, Turne backe thy sword into his place: for all they that take the sword, shall perish with the sword. Gene.9.6 apo.13.10

53 Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my father, and hee shall sende to mee by me more then twelue legions of angels?

54 But how then shall the scriptures bee fulfilled, that thus it must be? Esa.53.10

56 But all this was done, that the scriptures of the Prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsooke him, and fled. Luke 4.20 mat.26.31

57 And they that had taken Iesus, led him away to Caiaphas the hie priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled. Mar.4.51 luk.22.54 iohn 18.12

58 But Peter followed him a farre off, vnto the hie priests palace, and went in, and sate with the seruants to see the ende.

59 The chiefe priests and elders, and all the counsaile, sought false witnesse against Iesus, to put him to death. Mat.14.55

60 But found none: yea, when many false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came two false witnesses,

61 And said, This fellow said, I am able to destroye the temple of God, and to build it in three dayes. Iohn.2.19

62 And the chiefe priest arose, and said vnto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it that these witnesse against thee?

63 But Iesus held his peace. And the chiefe priest answered, and sayde vnto him, I charge thee by the liuing God, that thou tell vs whether thou bee Christ the sonne of God.

64 Iesus saith vnto him, Thou hast sayd: Neuertheless, I say vnto you, Hereafter shall yee see the sonne of man sitting on the right hand of the power of God, and coming in the clouds of the skie. Mar.16.19 rom.14.10 1.thes.4.16

65 Then the hie priest rent his clothes, saying, Hee hath spoken blasphemie: what neede we of any mo witnesses? Behold, now ye haue heard his blasphemie.

72 And againe he denied with an othe, I do not know the man.

73 And after a while came vnto him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou art euen one of them: for thy speach bewrayeth thee.

74 Then began he to curse and to sweare, saying, I know not the man. And immediatly the cocke crewe.

75 And Peter remembred the wordes of Jesu, which said vnto him, Before the cocke crow, thou shalt denye me thrise. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

The xxvij. Chapter.

2 Christ is deliuered vnto Pilate. 5 Iudas hangeth himselfe.

WHen the morning was come, *al the chiefe priests & elders of the people helde a counsell against Jesus to put him to death.

2 And when they had bounde him, they led him away, and deliuered him to Pontius Pilate the deputie.

3 Then Judas, which had betraied him, when he sawe that hee was condemned, repented him selfe, and brought againe the thirtie ‖ siluer peeces to the chiefe priests and elders,

4 Saying, I haue sinned, in that I haue betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to vs? see thou to that.

5 And when he had cast downe the peeces of siluer in the temple, he departed, *& went his way, and hanged himselfe.

6 And the chiefe priests tooke the siluer peeces, and saide, It is not lawfull for to put them into the treasurie, because it is the price of blood.

7 And when they had taken counsel, they bought with them the potters field, to burie strangers in.

8 Wherefore that field was called, *The field of blood vntill this day.

9 (Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the Prophet, saying, And they tooke the thirtie siluer peeces, the price of him that was valued, whom they bought of the children of Israel:

10 And gaue them for the potters field, as the Lord appointed me.)

11 Jesus stood before the deputie, and the deputie asked him, saying, Art thou the king of the Jewes? Jesus saieth vnto him, Thou saiest.

12 And when he was accused of the chiefe priests and elders, he answered nothing.

13 Then saith Pilate vnto him, Hearest thou not how many things they witnesse against thee?

14 And he answered him to neuer a word: in so much that the deputie marueyled greatly.

15 *At that feast the deputie was woont to let loose vnto the people a prisoner, whom they would. Mar. 15.6. luke 23.17.

16 He had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas.

17 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said vnto them, Whether will yee that I giue loose vnto you Barabbas, or Jesus, which is called Christ?

18 For hee knew that for enuie they had deliuered him.

19 When hee was set downe on the iudgement seate, his wife sent vnto him, saying, Haue thou nothing to doe with that iust man: for I haue suffered many things this day in a dreame because of him.

20 But the chiefe priests and elders perswaded the people that they should aske Barabbas, and destroy Jesus. Mar. 15.11. luke 23.17. iohn. 18.40 acts 3.14.

21 The deputie answered, and said vnto them, Whether of the twaine will ye that I let loose vnto you? They said, Barabbas.

22 Pilate saide vnto them, What shall I doe then with Jesus, which is called Christ? They all sayde vnto him, Let him bee crucified.

23 The deputie said, What euill hath hee done? But they cried exceedingly, saying, Let him be crucified.

24 When Pilate sawe that he could preuaile nothing, but that more buimesse was made, he tooke water, and washed his hands before the people, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this iust person: see ye to it.

25 Then answered al the people, and said, His blood be on vs, and on our children.

26 Then let he Barabbas loose vnto them, and when he had scourged Jesus, he deliuered him to be crucified.

27 *Then the souldiers of the deputie, when they had taken Jesus into the common hall, gathered vnto him all the band of souldiers. Mar. 15.16 iohn 19.1.

28 And when they had stripped him, they put on him a scarlet robe.

29 And when they had platted a crowne of thornes, they put it vpon his head, and a reede in his right hand: and when they had bowed the knee before him, they mocked him, saying, Haile king of the Jewes.

30 And when they had spit vpon him, they tooke the reede, and smote him on the head.

31 And after that they had mocked him, they tooke the robe off him, and put his owne raiment on him, and led him away to crucifie him.

32 And as they came out they founde a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they compelled to beare his crosse. Mar. 15.28 luke 23.26. Mar. 15.22 luke 23.32 iohn 19.17

36 And sitting downe, they watched him there:

37 And set vp ouer his head, his accusation written, THIS IS IESVS, THE KING OF THE IEWES.

38 Then are there two theeues crucified with him: one on the right hand, and another on the left.

39 They that passed by reuiled him, wagging their heads,

Iohn.2.19. 40 And saying, *Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three dayes, saue thy selfe: If thou be the sonne of God, come downe from the crosse.

41 Likewise also the high priests mocking him, with the Scribes and Elders, said, 42 Hee saued other, himselfe can hee not saue: If he be the king of Israel, let him now come downe from the crosse, and we will beleeue him.

Psal.22.9. 43 *He hath trusted in God, let him deliwisd.1.28. uer him now if he will haue him: for he said, I am the sonne of God.

44 The theeues also which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth.

55 And many women were there (beholding him a farre off) which followed Iesus from Galilee, ministring vnto him.

56 Among which was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of Iames and Ioses, and the mother of Zebedees children.

57 When the Euen was come, there came a rich man from the citie of Arimathea, named Ioseph which also himselfe was Iesus disciple.

The Gospel on Easter euen. Mar.15.42. luke 23.50. ioh.19.38.

58 He went to Pilate, and begged the bodie of Iesus: then Pilate commaunded the bodie to be deliuered.

59 And when Ioseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a cleane linnen cloth, 60 And laid it in his new tombe which he had hewen out in the rocke: and when hee had rolled a great stone to the doore of the sepulchre, he departed.

61 And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting ouer against the sepulchre.

62 The next day that followed the day of preparing, the high Priests and Pharisees came together vnto Pilate, 63 Saying, Sir, we remember that this deceiuer saide while he was yet aliue, After three dayes I arise againe.

64 Command therefore, that the sepulchre be made sure vntil the third day, lest his disciples come by night, and steale him away, and say vnto the people, He is risen from the dead: and the last errour shall be worse then the first.

65 Pilate saide vnto them, Yee haue the watch, goe your way, make it as sure as yee knowe.

66 So they went, and when they had sealed vp the stone, they made the sepulchre sure with the watch.

The xxviij. Chapter.

1 The resurrection of Christ. 12 The high Priests giue the souldiers money, to say that Christ was stolen out of his graue.

IN the latter * ende of the Sabboth day, which dawneth the first day of the weeke, came Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary to see the sepulchre. Mark.16.1. iohn 20.12.

2 And beholde, there was a great earthquake, for the angel of the Lorde descended from heauen, and came and rolled backe the stone from the doore, and sate vpon it.

3 His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow.

4 And for feare of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

5 The angel answered, and said vnto the women, Feare ye not: for I knowe that yee seeke Iesus, which was crucified.

6 He is not here, he is risen, as hee sayde. Come, see the place where that the Lorde was layde,

7 And goe quickely, and tell his disciples that that hee is riſen from the dead. And beholde, he goeth before you into Galilee, there ſhal ye ſee him: loe, I haue tolde you.

8 And they departed quickly from the ſepulchre, with feare and great ioye, and did runne, to bring his diſciples word.

9 And as they went to tell his diſciples, beholde, Jeſus met them, ſaying, All haile. And they came, and helde him by the feete, and worſhipped him.

10 Then ſaide Jeſus vnto them, Be not afraid: goe tell my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there ſhall they ſee me.

11 When they were gone, beholde, ſome of the watch came into the citie, and ſhewed vnto the high Prieſtes all the things that were done.

12 And when they were aſſembled with the elders, and had taken counſell, they gaue large money vnto the ſouldiers, 13 Saying, Say ye, His diſciples came by night, and ſtole him away while we ſlept.

14 And if this come to the deputies eares, wee will perſwade him, and make you careleſſe.

15 So they, when they had taken the money, did as they were taught. And this ſaying was noiſed among the Jewes vntil this day.

16 Then the eleuen diſciples went away into Galilee, into a mountaine where Jeſus had appointed them.

17 And when they ſawe him, they worſhipped him: but ſome doubted.

18 And Jeſus came, and ſpake vnto them, ſaying, All power is giuen vnto mee in heauen and in earth.

19 * Goe ye therefore, and teache all nations, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Sonne, & of the holy Ghoſt: Mar. 16. 15.

20 Teaching them to obſerue all things, whatſoeuer I haue commaunded you: and loe, I am with you alway, euen vnto the ende of the world.

WE haue in this description conferred the vse and maner of the celebration of Easter that the Iewes holde, with that which wee vse to recken and beginne at, and also to name the dayes of the weeke, and haue added thereto certaine dayes of the moneth of March, in the yeere that Iesus Christ suffered, to declare the vnderstanding of the saide difficultie. Wherein there is to be noted, that the Lord Iesus celebrated not the Passeouer the same day that the Iewes did: but that he which came not to breake the Lawe, but to fulfill the Lawe in euery point, ate the Lambe with his disciples at the time ordeined by the Lawe, Exod. 12. which is the fourteenth day of the first moneth (that is to say, March) in the afternoone, on the which beganne the saide feast: which fell this yeere on the Friday, the Euen of the Sabboth or day of rest. On the which day, he which was the true Lambe was offered, to the ende that the trueth might agree with the figure: but the Iewes celebrated the said Passeouer the day following at Euen after Sunne set, Iesus Christ being in the graue: for that by tradition of their predecessors, the saide feast which fell on the Friday, according to the Law, was deferred to the nert day, which was the day of their weekely Sabboth, because they would not keepe two feastes together: for this feast day they called the great Sabboth, Iohn 19. and also because (as enemies of the trueth) they woulde seeke all meanes possible to keepe him from being knowen for the Messias.

Here is also to bee noted, that where the eating of the Lambe, the institution of the Sacrament, with the residue before mentioned, is referred to Thursday and Friday: If ye recken according to the Iewes account, who beginne their Friday night on Thursday after Sunne set, and continueth that night and day vntill the nert day after Sunne set, yee shall finde that Christ did eat the Paschal Lambe, instituted the Sacrament of his body and blood, was kissed by Iudas, and was crucified, dead, and buried on Friday. But if ye recken after our vse, then Christ did eate the Paschal Lambe, instituted the Sacrament of his body and blood, and was kissed of Iudas on Thursday, but was crucified, dead, and buried on Friday.

The Gospel by Saint Marke.

The first. Chapter.

2 The office of Iohn Baptist. 9 The baptisme of Christ, 13 his fasting, 14 and preaching.

THe beginning of the Gospell of Jesus Christ, the sonne of God,

2 As it hath bene written in the Prophets, *Beholde, I sende my messeger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

Mala.3.1.

3 *A voyce of him that cryeth in the wildernes, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, and make his paths straight.

Esai.40.3. iohn 1.15. luke 3.4.

4 *Iohn was baptizing in the wildernesse, and preaching the baptisme of repentance for the remission of sinnes.

Matt.3.4.

5 *And all the land of Jury, and they of Hierusalem, went out vnto him, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordane, confessing their sinnes.

Matt.3.5.

6 Iohn was clothed with camels haire, and w a girdle of a skinne about his loynes: * and he did eate locustes and wilde hony,

Leui.11.22

7 *And preached, saying, He that is stronger then I, commeth after me, whose shoe latchet I am not worthie to stoupe downe, and vnloose.

Matt.3.12. luke 3.16. iohn.1.27.

8 I haue baptized you with water: but he shall baptize you with the holy ghost.

9 *And it came to passe in those dayes, that Jesus came frō Nazareth a citie of Galilee, *and was baptized of Iohn in Jordane.

Actes 1.5. Matt. 3.14. luke 3.22. iohn 1.33.

10 And assoone as he was come vp out of the water, he sawe heauen open, and the spirit descending vpon him like a Doue.

11 And there came a voyce from heauen, Thou art my deare sonne, in whome I am well pleased.

12 *And immediatly the spirite driueth him into wildernesse.

Mat.4.1. luke 4.1.

13 And hee was there in the wildernesse fourtie dayes tempted of Satan, and was with the wilde beastes, and the angels ministred vnto him.

14 After that Iohn was deliuered to prison, *Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the Gospell of the kingdome of God,

Mat.4.12. luke 4.14. iohn 4.43.

15 And saying, The time is come, and the kingdome of God is at hand: repent ye, and beleeue the Gospell.

16 *As he walked by the sea of Galilee, he sawe Simon, & Andrew his brother, casting nets into the sea (for they were fishers.)

Mat.4.18. luke 5.2.

17 And Jesus sayde vnto them, Followe me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.

18 And straightway they forsooke their nets, and followed him.

19 And when he had gone a litle further thence, he sawe Iames the sonne of Zebedee, and Iohn his brother, which also were in the shippe mending their nets.

20 And anon he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the ship with the hyred seruants, and followed him.

21 *And they came into Capernaum, and straightway on the Sabboth dayes, he entred into the synagogue, and taught.

Mat.4.28. luke 4.31.

22 *And they were astonied at his learning: for he taught them as one that had authoritie, and not as the Scribes.

Mat.7.28. luke 4.32.

23 *And there was in their synagogue, a man vered with an vncleane spirit, and he cryed aloude,

Luke 4.32.

24 Saying, Let vs alone, what haue we to doe with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? Art thou come to destroy vs? I know thee what thou art, euen that holy one of God.

25 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Holde thy peace, and come out of him.

26 And when the vncleane spirite had torne him, and cryed with a loude voyce, he came out of him.

27 And they were all amazed insomuch that they demaunded one of another among themselues, saying, What thing is this? what newe doctrine is this? For with authoritie commandeth he the fowle spirits, and they doe obey him.

28 And immediatly his fame spredde abroade throughout all the region bordering on Galilee.

29 *And forthwith, whē they were come out of the synagogue, they entred into the house of Simon, and Andrewe, with Iames and Iohn.

Mat.8.14. luke 4.38.

30 But Simons wiues mother lay sicke of a feuer: and anon they tell him of her.

31 And he came and tooke her by ẏ hand, and lift her vp: and immediatly the feuer forsooke her, and she ministred vnto them.

32 And at Euen, when the sunne was downe, they brought vnto him all that were diseased, & thē that were vered with deuils:

33 And all the citie was gathered together at the doore.

34 And he healed many that were sicke of diuers diseases, and cast out many deuils, and suffered not the deuils to speake, because they knewe him.

35 And in the morning very early before day, Jesus when he was risen vp, went out, and departed into a solitarie place, and there prayed.

36 And Simon, and they that were with him, followed after him:

37 And when they had founde him, they said vnto him, All men seeke for thee.

38 And he said vnto them, Let vs goe into the next townes, that I may preach there also: for therefore am I come.

39 And he preached in their synagogues, in all Galilee, and cast the deuils out.

40 *And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling downe to him, and saying vnto him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me cleane.

41 And Jesus, hauing compassiō on him, when he had put foorth his hande, touched him, & saith vnto him, I wil, be thou cleane.

42 And as soone as he had spoken, immediatly the leprosie departed from him, and he was made cleane.

43 And after he had giuen him a straight cōmandement, he sent him away forthwith:

44 And saith vnto him, See thou say nothing to any man: but get thee hence, shewe thy selfe to the priest, * and offer for thy cleansing those things which Moses commāded, for a witnes vnto them.

Leui.14.4. luke 5.12.

45 *But he, as soone as he was departed, began openly to declare many thinges, and to publish this rumor: in so much, that Jesus could no more openly enter into the citie, but was without in desart places: and they came to him from euery quarter.

Math.9.1.

The ii. Chapter.

3 Hee healeth the man of the palsie, 14 and calleth Leui the customer.

Mark.9.1.

AFter a fewe dayes also, * he entred into Capernaum againe, and it was noysed that he was in the house.

2 And anone many were gathered together, insomuch that nowe there was no roome to receiue thē, no not so much as about the doore: and he preached ỹ worde of the Gospel vnto them.

3 And they come vnto him, bringing one sicke of the palsie, which was borne of foure men.

4 And when they coulde not come nigh vnto him for preasse, they vncouered the roofe of the house that he was in: and when they had broken vp the roofe, they doe with cordes let downe the bed wherein the sicke of the palsie lay.

5 When Jesus saw their faith, he said vnto the sicke of the palsie, Sonne, thy sinnes be forgiuen thee.

6 But there were certaine of the Scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts,

7 Why doeth hee thus speake blasphemies? * who can forgiue sinnes but God onely?

Iohn 14.4. esai. 43.15.

8 And immediatly, when Jesus perceiued in his spirite that they so reason within themselues, he saith vnto them, Why reason ye such things in your heartes?

9 Whether is it easier to say to the sicke of the palsie, thy sinnes be forgiuen thee: or to say, Arise, take vp thy bed and walke?

10 But that ye may know that the sonne of mā hath power in earth to forgiue sinnes, (He saith to the sicke of the palsie,) 11 I say vnto thee, Arise, and take vp thy bed, and get thee hence into thine house.

12 And immediately he arose, tooke vp the bed, & went forth before them all, in so much that they were al amazed, and glorified God, saying, We neuer saw it on this fashion.

13 And hee went againe by the sea side, and all the people resorted vnto him, and he taught them.

Mat.9.9. luke 5.27.

14 And as Jesus passed by, He saw Leui the sonne of Alphee sitting at the receite of custome, and saide vnto him, Folow me. And he arose, and followed him.

15 And it came to passe, that when Jesus sate at meate in his house, many publicanes and sinners sate also together at meate with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him.

16 And when the Scribes and Pharisees saw him eate with Publicanes and sinners, they saide vnto his Disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with Publicans and sinners?

17 When Jesus heard that, he saith vnto them, They that be whole, haue no neede of the Phylition, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

18 * And the Disciples of John, and of the Pharisees did fast: and they come and say vnto him, Why doe the Disciples of John, and of the Phaisees fast, but thy Disciples fast not?

1.Tim.1.13 mat.9.14. luke.5.33.

19 And Jesus said vnto them, Can ỹ children of the bride chamber fast, while ỹ bridegrome is with them? As long as they haue ỹ bridegrome with them, they cannot fast.

20 But the dayes wil come, when ỹ bridegrome shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those dayes.

21 No man also soweth a piece of newe cloth vnto an olde garment: otherwayes, his newe piece taketh away somewhat from the olde garment, and so the rent is made worse.

22 And no man powreth newe wine into olde vessels, els the new wine doth burst the vessels, and the wine runneth out, and the vessels wil be marred: But new wine must be put into new vessels.

23 * And it came to passe, that he wēt thorow the corne fields on the Sabboth dayes, and his Disciples began by the way to pluck the eares of corne.

Mat.12.1. luke.6.1.

24 And the Pharisees said vnto him, Beholde, why doe they on the Sabboth dayes that which is not lawfull?

25 And he said vnto them, * Haue yee neuer read what Dauid did, when hee had neede, and was an hungred, both he, & they that were with him?

1.Reg.21.6

26 How he went into the house of God in the dayes of Abiathar the high Priest, & did eate the shewe bread, * which is not lawfull to eate but for the Priestes, and gaue also to them which were with him?

Exo.29.33. leuit.8.31.

27 And he said vnto them, The Sabboth was made for man, & not man for ỹ sabboth.

28 There-

28 Therefore is the ſonne of man Lorde alſo of the Sabboth.

The iii. Chapter.

1 He helpeth the man with the dryed hande, 14 and chooſeth his Apoſtles.

Mat.12.9. luke 6.9. AND * hee entred againe into the Synagogue, and a man was there which had a withered hande:

2 And they watched him, whether he would heale him on the Sabboth day, that they might accuſe him.

3 And he ſaide vnto the man which had the withered hande, Ariſe, and ſtande in the middes.

4 And he ſayeth vnto them, Is it lawful to doe good on the Sabboth dayes, or to doe euill? to ſaue life, or to kill? But they helde their peace.

5 And when he had looked rounde about on them with anger, mourning for the hardneſſe of their heartes, he ſayeth vnto the man, Stretch foorth thine hande. And hee ſtretched it out: and his hande was reſtored as whole as the other.

6 And the Phariſees departed, and ſtraightway gathered a counſell with the Herodians againſt him, that they might deſtroy him.

7 But Jeſus auoyded with his diſciples, to the ſea: and a great multitude followed him from Galilee, and from Jurie,

8 And from Hieruſalem, and from Idumea, and from the region which is beyonde Jordane, and they that dwelt about Tyre & Sidon, a great multitude, when they had heard what things he did, came vnto him.

9 And Jeſus commaunded his diſciples that a ſhippe ſhould waite on him, becauſe of the people, leaſt they ſhould throng him.

10 For he had healed many, in ſo much that they preaſſed vpō him for to touch him, as many as had plagues.

11 And the vncleane ſpirites, when they ſawe him, they fell downe before him at his feete, and cryed, ſaying, Thou art the ſonne of God.

12 And he ſtraightly charged them, that they ſhould not make him knowen.

Mat.10.1. luke 9.1. 13 * And he goeth vp into a mountaine, and calleth vnto him whome hee would: and they came vnto him.

14 And hee ordeined twelue, that they ſhould be with him, and that he might ſend them foorth to preach:

15 And that they might haue power to heale ſickneſſes, and to caſt out deuils.

16 And hee gaue vnto Simon to name Peter.

17 And he called James the ſonne of Zebedee, and John James brother (and gaue them names, Boanerges, which is to ſay, The ſonnes of thunder.)

18 And Andrewe, and Philip, and Bartholomewe, and Matthewe, and Thomas, and James the ſonne of Alphee, and Thaddeus, and Simon the Chananite, 19 And Judas Iſcariot, which alſo betrayed him: and they come into an houſe.

20 And the people commeth together againe, ſo that they coulde not ſo much as eate bread.

21 And when they that belonged vnto him, heard of it, they went out to lay handes vpon him, for they ſaid, He is madde.

22 And the Scribes which came downe from Hieruſalem, ſaide, * He hath Beelzebub, and by the prince of the deuils, caſteth he out deuils. Matt.9.34. and 12.24. luke 11.14.

23 And when he had called them vnto him, he ſaide vnto them in parables, Howe can Satan caſt out Satan?

24 And if a realme be deuided againſt it ſelfe, that realme cannot endure.

25 And if a houſe be deuided againſt it ſelfe, that houſe can not continue.

26 And if Satan make inſurrection againſt him ſelfe, and be deuided, he can not continue, but hath an ende.

27 No man can enter into a ſtrong mans houſe, and take away his goods, except he will firſt binde the ſtrong man, and then wil ſpoyle his houſe.

28 * Verily I ſay vnto you, All ſinnes ſhall be forgiuen vnto the children of men, and blaſphemies, wherewithſoeuer they ſhall blaſpheme: Mar.12.38. luke 12.10. iohn 5.16.

29 But he that ſhall blaſpheme againſt the holy Ghoſt, hath neuer forgiuenelle, but is in danger of eternall damnation.

30 For they ſayde, He hath an vncleane ſpirite.

31 * There came his mother, and his brethren, and ſtanding without, ſent vnto him, calling him. Mat.12.46. luke 8.19.

32 And the people ſate about him, & ſaide vnto him, Beholde, thy mother, and thy brethren, and thy ſiſters ſeeke for thee without.

33 And he anſwered them, ſaying, Who is my mother, or my brethren?

34 And when he had looked round about on them which ſate about him, he ſaid, Beholde my mother and my brethren.

35 For who ſo euer ſhall doe the will of God, the ſame is my brother, and my ſiſter, and mother.

The iiii. Chpter.

3 The parable of the Sower. 37 Chriſt ſtilleth the tempeſt of the ſea, which obeyeth him.

AND * he began againe to teach by the ſea ſide: and there gathered vnto him much people, ſo that he entred into a ſhippe, and ſate in the ſea: and all the people was by the ſea ſide on the ſhore. Matt. 13.1. luke 8.4.

2 And he taught them many thinges by parables, and ſaide vnto them in his doctrine,

3 Hearken, Beholde, there went out a Sower to ſowe:

4 And it fortuned as he sowed, that some fell by the wayes side: and the foules of the ayre came, and deuoured it vp.

5 Some fell on stonie grounde, where it had not much earth: and immediately it sprang vp, because it had no depth of earth.

6 But as soone as the sunne was vp, it caught heate, and because it had no roote, it withered away.

7 And some fell among thornes, and the thornes grew vp, and choked it, and it gaue no fruite.

8 And some fell on good grounde, and did yeelde fruite that sprang vp, and grewe, and brought forth, some thirtie, and some sixtie, and some an hundred.

9 And he saide vnto them, He that hath eares to heare, let him heare.

10 And when he was alone, they that were about him, with the twelue, asked of him the parable.

11 And he sayde vnto them, Vnto you it is giuen to knowe the mysterie of the kingdome of God: but vnto them that are without, all things are done by parables,

Esa. 6.9. mat. 13.14. luke 8.10. iohn 12.40. actes 28.26 rom. 11.8.

12 *That when they see, they may see, and not discerne: and when they heare, they may heare, and not vnderstande, least at any time they shoulde turne, and their sinnes should be forgiuen them.

13 And he said vnto them, Knowe ye not this parable? And how then will ye knowe all parables?

14 The Sower soweth the worde.

15 And they that receiued seede by the way side, are those where the word is sowen, but when they haue heard, Satan commeth immediately, and taketh away the worde that was sowen in their heartes.

16 And likewise they that receiue seede into the stonie grounde, are they, which when they haue heard the worde, at once receiue it with gladnesse:

17 Yet haue no roote in them selues, and so endure but a time: and anon when trouble and persecution ariseth for the wordes sake, immediatly they are offended.

18 And those be they that receiue seede among thornes: and they are such as heare the worde,

1. Tim. 6.17

19 And the cares of the worlde, *and the deceitfulnes of riches, and the lustes of other things entring in, choke the word, and it is made vnfruitfull.

20 And they which receiued seede into good grounde, are such as heare the worde, and receiue it, so that one corne doeth bring forth thirtie, some sixtie, some an hundred.

Mat. 5.15. luke 8.16. and 11.33.

21 And he said vnto them, *Is the candle lighted to be put vnder a bushel, or vnder the table? and not to be put on a candlesticke?

Mat. 10.36 Iuke 8.17. and 12.2.

22 *For there is nothing so priuie, that shall not bee opened: neither hath it bene so secrete, but that it shall come abroade.

23 If any man haue eares to heare, let him heare.

24 And he sayde vnto them, Take heede what yee heare: *with what measure yee mete, with the same shall it be measured to you againe: And vnto you that heare, shall more be giuen. Mat. 7.2. luke 6.38.

25 *For vnto him that hath, shall it be giuen: and from him that hath not, shalbe taken away, euen that which he hath. Mat. 13.12. and 25.29. luke 8.18. and 19.26.

26 And he sayde, So is the kingdome of God, euen as if a man should sowe seede in the grounde.

27 And should sleepe, and rise night and day, and the seede should spring and growe vp, he knoweth not how.

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruite of her selfe, first the blade, then the eare, after that the full corne in the eare.

29 But when the fruite is brought forth, anon he thrusteth in the sickle, because the haruest is come.

30 And he said, *whereunto shall we liken the kingdome of God? Or with what comparison shall we compare it? Mat. 13.31. luke 13.19.

31 It is like a graine of mustarde seede: which when it is sowen in the earth, is lesse then all seedes that be in the earth:

32 And when it is sowen, it groweth vp, and is greater then all herbes, & beareth great branches, so that the fowles of the aire may make their nestes vnder the shadowe of it.

33 *And with many such parables preached he the worde vnto them, as they were able to heare it. Mat. 13.34.

34 But without parable spake hee not vnto them: but when they were alone, hee expounded all things to his disciples.

35 *And the same day when the Euen was come, he saith vnto them, Let vs passe ouer vnto the other side. Mat. 8.23. luke 8.22.

36 And they left the people, and tooke him, euen as he was in the ship, and there were also with him other litle shippes.

37 And there arose a great storme of winde, and the waues dashed into the ship, so that it was nowe full.

38 And he was in the sterne asleepe on a pillowe: and they awake him, and say vnto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish?

39 And he arose, and rebuked the winde, and saide vnto the sea, Peace, and be still: and the winde ceassed, and there followed a great calme.

40 And he saide vnto them, why are yee fearefull? How is it that ye haue no faith?

41 And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, who is this, that both the winde and the sea obey him?

The v. Chapter.

8 Christ deliuereth the possessed from the vncleane spirite. 25 and the woman from the bloodie issue.

Mat. 8.28. luke 8.26.

ND *they came ouer vnto the other side of the Sea, into the countrey of the Gadarenes.

2 And when he was come out of the shippe, immediately there there met him from among the tombes, a man possessed of an vncleane spirit,

3 Which had his abiding among the tombes, and no man coulde binde him, no not with chaines:

4 Because that he had bene often bound with fetters and chaines, and the chaines had bene plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neyther could any man tame him.

5 And alwayes, night and day, he was in the mountaines, and in the tombes, crying, and all to cutting himselfe with stones.

6 But when hee had spied Iesus a farre off, he ranne, and worshipped him,

7 And cryed with a loude voyce, and said, What haue I to doe with thee, Iesus, thou sonne of the most highest God? I require thee in the name of God, that thou torment me not.

8 (For he said vnto him, Come out of the man, thou foule spirit.)

9 And he asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many.

10 And he prayed him instantly that hee would not send thē away out of ỹ countrey.

11 But there was there nigh vnto the mountaines, a great heard of swine, feeding.

12 And all the deuils besought him, saying, Sende vs into the swine, that we may enter into them.

13 And anon Iesus gaue them leaue. And the vncleane spirites went out, and entred into the swine, and the heard ran headlong into the sea (they were about two thousande) and were choked in the sea.

14 And the swineheards fled, and tolde it in the citie, and in the countrey. And they went out for to see what was done:

15 And they come to Iesus, and see him that was vexed with the feend, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right minde: and they were afrayd.

16 And they that sawe it, told them how it came to passe to him that was possessed with the deuill, and also of the swine.

17 And they beganne to pray him to depart out of their coasts.

18 And when he was come into the ship, hee that had bene possessed with the deuill, prayed him that he might be with him.

19 Howbeit, Iesus suffered him not, but saith vnto him, Go home to thy friends, and shew them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and had compassion on thee.

20 And he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis, howe great things Iesus had done for him: and all men did maruaile.

21 And when Iesus was come ouer againe by ship vnto the other side, much people gathered vnto him, and hee was nigh vnto the sea.

Mat.9.18. Luke.8.41. 22 * And behold, there cōmeth one of the rulers of the synagogue, Iairus by name: & when he sawe him, he fell downe at his feet, 23 And besought him greatly, saying, My yong daughter lyeth at point of death, I pray thee come and lay thy handes on her, that she may be safe, and she shall liue.

24 And Iesus went with him, and much people followed him, and thronged him.

25 And there was a certaine woman, which had bene diseased of an issue of blood twelue yeeres, 26 And had suffered many things of many Physycions, and had spent al that she had, and felt none amendement at all, but rather the worse.

27 When she had heard of Iesus, she came in the preasse behinde him, and touched his garment.

28 For she saide, If I may but touch his clothes, I shall be whole.

29 And straightway the fountaine of her blood was dryed vp: and she felt in her body that she was healed of the plague.

30 And Iesus immediately knowing in him selfe that vertue proceeded from him, turned him about in the preasse, and sayde, Who touched my clothes?

31 And his disciples said vnto him, Thou seest the people thrust thee, and askest thou, who did touch me?

32 And he looked round about, for to see her that had done this thing.

33 But the woman fearing, and trembling, knowing what was done within her, came and fell downe before him, and tolde him all the trueth.

34 And he said vnto her, Daughter, thy faith hath saued thee, goe in peace, and bee whole of thy plague.

35 While hee yet spake, there came from the ruler of the synagogues house, certaine which saide, Thy daughter is dead, why diseasest thou the master any further?

36 As soone as Iesus heard the word that was spoken, hee saith vnto the ruler of the synagogue, Be not afraid, onely beleeue.

37 And he suffered no man to follow him, saue Peter, and James, and John, the brother of James.

38 And hee commeth to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, & seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly.

39 And when he was come in, he sayeth vnto them, Why make yee this adoe, and weepe? the damosel is not dead, but sleepeth.

40 And they laught him to scorne: but he, after that he had put them all out, taketh the father and the mother of the damosel, and them that were with him, and entreth in where the damosell lay.

41 And when he had taken the damosel by the hand, he saith vnto her, Talitha cumi, which is, being interpreted, Damosel (I say vnto thee) arise.

42 And straightway the damosel arose, and walked, for she was of the age of twelue yeres: & they were astonied out of measure.

43 And hee charged them straightly that no man should knowe of it: and commaunded to giue her meate.

The vi. Chapter.

Of Christs doings and estimation in his owne countrey.

Mat.13.54 luk.4.19. AND he * departed thence, and came into his own countrey, and his disciples follow him.

2 And when the Sabboth day was come, he beganne to teach in the synagogue: And many hearing him, were astonied, saying, From whence hath he these thinges? And what wisedome is this that is giuen vnto him, and such mightie workes that are wrought by his handes?

3 Is not this the carpenter, Maries sonne, the brother of Iames & Ioses, and of Juda & Simon? And are not his sisters here with vs? And they were offended at him.

Iohn 4.44. 4 Iesus sayde vnto them, * A Prophet is not without honour, but in his owne countrey, and among his owne kinne, and in his owne house.

5 And hee coulde there doe no mightie worke: but layde his handes vpon a fewe sicke folke, and healed them:

6 And he marueiled because of their vnbeliefe. Mat.9.35, luke 13.22. * And he went about by the villages that lay on euery side, teaching.

Mat.10.1. luke 9.1. 7 * And he calleth the twelue, and began to sende them foorth, two and two, and gaue them power against vncleane spirits,

8 And commanded them that they should take nothing in their iourney, saue a staffe [a] onely: no scrippe, no bread, no money in their purse:

a They may take a staffe for their ease, and not to defende them selues, as in Matth. 10.

9 But should be shooed with * sandales: and that they should not put on two coates.

Acts. 12.8. 10 And he saide vnto them, Wheresoeuer ye enter into an house, there abide till yee depart thence.

Mat.10.14. luke 9.5. Acts.13.51 and 18.6. 11 * And whosoeuer shal not receiue you, nor heare you, when ye depart thence, * shake off the dust that is vnder your feete, for a witnesse against them: I say verily vnto you, it shall be easier for the Sodomites and the Gomorrheans in the day of iudgement, then for that citie.

12 And they went out, and preached, that men should repent:

Iames 5.14 13 And they cast out many deuils, * and anointed many that were sicke, with oyle, and healed them.

Matt.14.1. luke 9.7. 14 * And king Herode heard of him, (for his name was spred abroade:) and he sayde that Iohn Baptist was risen from the dead, and therefore mightie workes do shew foorth themselues.

15 Other sayde, That it is Elias. Some sayde, That it is a Prophet, or as one of the Prophets.

Luke.3.19. 16 * But when Herode had heard of him, he sayde, It is Iohn, whome I beheaded, he is risen from death.

17 For Herode himselfe had sent foorth ‖ and laid handes vpon Iohn, and bound him in prison for Herodias sake, his brother Philips wife, because he had married her. ‖ His seruants.

18 For Iohn said vnto Herode, * It is not lawfull for thee to haue thy brothers wife. Leu.18.19.

19 Therefore Herodias laid wait for him, & would haue killed him, but she could not.

20 For Herode feared Iohn, knowing that he was a iust man, and an holy, & gaue him reuerence: and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.

21 And when a conuenient day was come, that Herode on his birth day made a supper to the lordes, high captaines, and chiefe estates of Galilee:

22 And when the daughter of the same Herodias came in, and daunced, and pleased Herode, and them that sate at boord also, the king sayde vnto the Damosel, Aske of mee whatsoeuer thou wilt, & I will giue it thee.

23 And he sware vnto her, Whatsoeuer thou shalt aske of me, I wil giue it thee, euen vnto the one halfe of my kingdome.

24 And shee went foorth, and sayde vnto her mother, What shall I aske? She sayde, Iohn Baptists head.

25 And shee came in straightway with haste vnto the king, and asked, saying, I wil that thou giue mee by and by in a charger, the head of Iohn Baptist.

26 And the king was exceeding sorie, howbeit for his othes sake, and for their sakes which sate at supper also, he would not cast her off.

27 And immediately the king sent the hangman, and commanded his head to bee brought in, and he went and beheaded him in the prison, 28 And brought his head in a charger, and gaue it to the Damosel, & the Damosell gaue it to her mother.

29 And when his disciples heard of it, the came and tooke vp his body, and layde it in a tombe, Luk.9.10. 30 * And the Apostles gather themselues together vnto Iesus, & tolde him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught.

31 And he sayde vnto them, Come yee alone out of the way into the wildernes, and rest a while. For there were many commers and goers, and they had no leasure so much as to eate.

Mat.14.13 luk.9.10. 32 * And they departed by shippe out of the way into a desart place.

33 And the people spyed them when they departed, and many knewe him, and ranne a foote thither out of all cities, and came thither before them, and came together vnto him.

Mat.9.13. and 9.14. Luke 9.11. 34 * And Iesus when he came out, sawe much people, and had compassion on them, because the were like sheepe not hauing a shepheard; * and hee beganne to teach them many things.

Mat.14.15 35 *And when the day was nowe farre spent, his disciples come vnto him, saying, This is a desart place, and nowe the time is farre passed:

36 Let them depart, that they may go into the countrey rounde about, and into the villages, and buy them bread: for they haue nothing to eate.

37 He answered, & sayd vnto them, Giue ye them to eate. And they say vnto him, Shall we goe and buy two hundred peniworth of bread, and giue them to eate?

38 He saith vnto them, How many loaues haue ye? goe and looke. * And when they had Mat.14.17 searched, they say, Fiue, and two fishes. luke 9.13. iohn 6.9.

39 And hee commanded them to make them all sitte downe by companies vpon the greene grasse.

40 And they sate downe, here a row, and there a row, by hundreds, and by fifties.

41 And when he had taken ye fiue loaues, and the two fishes, and looked vp to heauen, he blessed, and brake the loaues, & gaue them to his disciples to set before them: and the two fishes deuided he among them all.

42 And they did all eate, & were satisfied.

43 And they tooke vp twelue baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.

44 And they that did eate the loaues, were about fiue thousand men.

45 And straightway he constrayned his disciples to goe into the ship, and to goe ouer the sea before vnto Bethsaida, while hee should send away the people.

49 And when he had sent them away, he departed into a mountaine to pray.

Mat.14.23. 47 *And when Euen was come, the ship iohn 6.16. was in the middest of the sea, and hee alone on the land.

48 And he saw them troubled in rowing (for the winde was contrary vnto them:) and about the fourth watch of the night, he commeth vnto them, walking vpon the sea, and would haue passed by them.

49 But when they saw him walking vpon the sea, they supposed it had bene a spirit, and cryed out.

50 (For they all saw him, and were troubled.) and anon he talked with them, and sayth vnto them, Be of good cheare, It is I, be not afraide.

51 And hee went vp vnto them into the shippe, and the winde ceassed, and they were sore amazed in themselues beyond measure, and marueiled.

52 For they vnderstood not what was done of the loaues, because their heart was hardened.

Mat.14.34. 53 *And when they had passed ouer, they came into the land of Genezareth, and drew vp into the hauen.

54 And when they were come out of the ship, straight way they knew him, 55 And ranne through out all that region round about, and began to carry about in beds those that were sicke, thither where they heard that he was.

56 And whithersoeuer he entred, into villages, or cities, or fieldes, the layde the sicke folkes in the streetes, and prayed him that they might touch and it were but the hemme of his garment: and as many as touched it, were made whole.

The vii. Chapter.

2 The Pharisees finde faulte at the disciples eating of meate with vnwashen handes. 32 The healing of the deafe and dumbe.

AND * the Pharisees come together vnto him, and certaine of the Scribes, which came from Hierusalem. Mat.15.2.

2 And when they sawe some of his disciples eate bread with defiled (that is to say, with vnwashen hands) they found fault.

3 For the Pharisees, and all the Iewes, except they wash their handes oft, eate not, obseruing the tradition of the elders.

4 And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eate not. And many other things there be, which they haue taken vpon them to obserue, as the washing of cuppes and pottes, brasen vessels, and of tables.

5 Then asked him the Pharisees and Scribes, Why walke not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eate bread with vnwashen hands?

6 He answered & said vnto them, Surely Esaias hath prophecied well of you hypocrites, as it is written, * This people honoureth me with their lippes, but their heart is farre from me. Esa.29.13.

7 Howbeit in vaine do they worship me, teaching doctrines, the commandements of men.

8 For, the commandement of God being layde apart, ye obserue the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.

9 And he said vnto them, Full well ye cast aside the commandement of God, that ye may keepe your owne tradition.

10 For Moses sayde, * Honour thy father Exo.20.12. and thy mother: * and, who so curseth father deut.5.16. ephe.6.2. or mother, let him die the death. Exod.21.1.

11 But ye say, If a man shall say to his fa- leuit.20.9. ther or mother, Corban (that is, by the gift) pro.20.20. that is offered of me, thou shalt be holpen.

12 And so yee suffer him no more to doe ought for his father, or his mother;

13 Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye haue ordeined: And many such things doe ye.

14 * And when he had called all the people vnto him, he sayde vnto them, Hearken Mat.15.10. vnto me euery one of you, and vnderstand.

15 There is nothing without a man that can defile him, when it entreth into him: but the thinges which procede out of a man, those are they that defile the man.

16 If

16 If any man haue eares to heare, let him heare.

17 And when hee came into the houſe away from the people, his diſciples aſked him of the ſimilitude.

18 And he ſaith vnto them, Are ye alſo ſo without vnderſtanding? Do ye not perceiue that whatſoeuer thing frō without entreth into the man, it can not defile him, 19 Becauſe it entreth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all the meates?

20 And he ſaid, that which commeth out of the man defileth the man.

Gene.9.5. and 8.21. 21 *For from within, euen out of the heart of men, proceede euill thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,

22 Thefts, couetouſneſſe, wickednеſſe, deceite, wantonnes, a wicked eye, blaſphemie, pride, foolithneſſe:

Mat.15.21. 23 *All theſe euil things come from within, and defile the man.

24 And from thence he aroſe, & went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entred into an houſe, & would that no man ſhoulde haue knowen, but he could not be hid.

25 For a certaine woman, whoſe yong daughter had an vncleane ſpirite, when ſhe had heard of him, came and fell at his feete.

26 (The woman was a Greeke, out of the nation of Syrophenilla:) and ſhee beſought him that he would caſt out the deuill from her daughter.

27 But Jeſus ſaid vnto her, Let the children firſt be fedde: for it is not meete to take the childrens bread, and to caſt it vnto the litle dogges.

28 She anſwered, & ſayd vnto him, Yes lorde, for the litle dogges alſo eate vnder the table of the childrens crumbes.

29 And he ſaid vnto her, For this ſaying, goe thy way, the deuill is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And when ſhe was come home to her houſe, ſhe found that the deuil was departed, and her daughter lying on the bed.

The Goſpel on the xii. Sunday after Trinitie. 31 And when hee was departed againe from the coaſts of Tyre and Sidon, he came vnto the ſea of Galilee, through the middes of the coaſtes of Decapolis.

32 And they bring vnto him one that was deafe, and had an impediment in his ſpeach: and they pray him to put his handes vpon him.

33 And when he had take him aſide from the people, he put his fingers into his eares, and when he had ſpit, touched his tongue.

34 And when he had looked vp to heauen, ſighed, and ſayd vnto him, Ephphata, that is to ſay, Be thou opened.

35 And ſtraight way his eares were opened, and the ſtring of his tongue was looſed, and he ſpake playne.

36 And he commaunded them that they ſhoulde tell no man: but the more hee commaded them, ſo much the more a great deale they publiſhed it,

37 And were beyonde meaſure aſtonied, ſaying, He hath done all things wel: he hath made both the deafe to heare, and the dumbe to ſpeake.

The viii. Chapter.

6 The miracle of the ſeuen loaues. 34 Howe we ſhould follow Chriſt.

IN thoſe dayes, * the compante being very great, and hauing nothing to eate, when Jeſus had called his diſciples vnto him, he ſayth vnto them, The Goſpel on the vii. ſunday after Trinitie. Mat.15.32.

2 I haue compaſſion on the people, becauſe they haue nowe bene with mee three dayes, and haue nothing to eate:

3 And if I ſende them away faſting to their owne houſes, they ſhall faynt by the way: for diuers of them come from farre.

4 And his diſciples anſwered him, From whence can a man ſatiſfie theſe men with bread here in the wildernеſſe?

5 And he aſked them, howe many loaues haue ye? They ſayd, Seuen.

6 And hee commaunded the people to ſit downe on the grounde: and he tooke the ſeuen loaues, and when he had giuen thanks, he brake, and gaue to his diſciples to ſet before them: and they did ſet them before the people.

7 And they had a fewe ſmall fiſhes: and when he had bleſſed, he commaunded to ſet them alſo before them.

8 So they did eate, and were ſufficed: and they tooke vp of the broken meate that was left, ſeuen baſkets full.

9 And they that had eaten, were about foure thouſand: And he ſent them away.

10 *And anon, when he had entred into a ſhippe with his diſciples, he came into the partes of Dalmanutha. Mat.15.32

11 *And the Phariſees came forth, and began to diſpute with him, ſeeking of him a ſigne from heauen, tempting him. Mat.16.1.

12 And when hee had ſighed deepely in his ſpirite, he ſayeth, Why doe this generation ſeeke a ſigne? Verely I ſay vnto you, There ſhall no a ſigne be giuen vnto this generation.

a It is in the Greeke text, (if a ſigne) which the Hebrewes vſe as a vehement negation. Mat.15.39.

13 *And when he had left them, and entred into the ſhippe againe, he departed ouer the water.

14 *And they had forgotten to take bread with them, neyther had they in the ſhip with them more then one loafe. Mat.16.5.

15 And he charged them, ſaying, *Take heede, beware of the leaue of the Phariſees, and of the leauen of Herode. Matt.16.6.

16 And they reaſoned among themſelues, ſaying, we haue no bread.

17 And when Jeſus knewe it, he ſayeth vnto them, Why reaſon yee, becauſe yee haue no bread? Perceiue ye not yet, neither vnderſtande? Haue yee your heart yet hardened?

18 Hauing

18 Hauing eyes, see ye not? and hauing eares, heare ye not? Doe ye not remember?

John 6.11. 19 When I brake the fiue loaues among fiue thousand men, how many baskets full of broken meate tooke yee vp? They say vnto him, Twelue.

20 When I brake the seuen among foure thousand, howe many baskets of the leauings of the broken meate tooke ye vp? They said, Seuen.

21 And he saide vnto them, Howe happeneth it, that ye doe not vnderstand?

22 And hee commeth to Bethsaida, and they bring a blinde man vnto him, and desired him to touch him.

23 And when he had caught the blinde by the hand, he ledde him out of the towne: and when he had spitte in his eyes, and put his handes vpon him, hee asked him if he sawe ought.

24 And he looked vp, & said, I see men: for I perceiue them walke as trees.

25 After that, hee put his handes againe vpon his eyes, and made him see: and he was restored, and sawe euery man clearely.

26 And hee sent him home to his house, saying, Neither goe into the village, nor tell it to any in the village.

Mat.16.13. luke 9.19. 27 *And Iesus went out, and his disciples, into the villages that long to Cesarea Philippi: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying vnto them, Whom doe men say that I am?

28 And they answered, Iohn Baptist, and some say, Elias: Againe, some say that thou art one of the Prophets.

29 And hee saide vnto them, But whom say yee that I am? Peter answereth, and saith vnto him, Thou art very Christ.

30 And he charged them that they should tell no man.

31 And hee began to teache them that the sonne of man must suffer many things, and be reproued of the elders, and of the high Priestes and Scribes, and be killed, and after three dayes rise againe.

32 And he spake that saying openly. And Peter tooke him aside, and began to rebuke him.

33 But when hee had turned about, and looked on his disciples, hee rebuked Peter, saying, Go after me, Satan: for thou sauourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men.

34 And when he had called the people vnto him, with his disciples also, hee saide vnto them, Mat.10.38. luke 9.23. * whosoeuer will come after me, let him forsake himselfe, and take vp his crosse, and followe me.

Mat.10.39. and 16.25. luke 9.24. iohn 12.25. 35 * For whosoeuer will saue his life, shall lose it: but whosoeuer shall lose his life for my sake and the Gospels, the same shall saue it.

36 For what shal it profit a man, if he shall winne al the world, and lose his owne soule?

37 Or what shal a man giue for a ransome of his soule?

38 Whosoeuer therefore shal be ashamed of me, and of my wordes, in this adulterous and sinnefull generation, of him also shall the sonne of man be ashamed, when he commeth in the glory of his father, with the holy angels. Mat.10.33. luke 9.26.

The ix. Chapter.

1 The transfiguration of Christ. 49 Of seasoning with salt.

AND he said vnto them, *Verely I say vnto you, that there bee some of them that stand here, which shall in no wise taste of death, till they haue seene the kingdome of God come with power. Mat.16.28. luke 9.27.

2 And after sixe dayes, Iesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and leadeth them vp into an high mountaine out of the way alone: and he was transfigured before them.

3 *And his raiment did shine, and became very white, euen as snowe: so as no fuller vpon the earth can white them. Mark.17.2. luke 9.28.

4 And there appeared vnto them Elias with Moses: and they were talking with Iesus.

5 And Peter answered, and said to Iesus, Master, here is good being for vs: and let vs make three tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

6 For he wist not what he should say: for they were sore afraid.

7 And there was a cloude that shadowed them: and a voyce came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloued sonne: heare him.

8 And suddenly when they had looked rounde about, they sawe no man, more then Iesus onely with themselues.

9 *And as they came downe from the hil, he charged them that they should tell no man those things that they had seene, til the sonne of man were risen from the dead. Mat.17.9.

10 And they kept that saying with them, and demaunded one of another, what the rising from the dead should meane.

11 And they asked him, saying, Why then say the Scribes, that *Elias must first come? Mala.4.3.

12 He answered, and saide vnto them, Elias verely when he commeth first, restoreth all things: and the sonne of man, *as it is written of him, shal suffer many things, and be set at nought. Esa.53.4.

13 But I say vnto you, that Elias is come, and they haue done vnto him whatsoeuer they would, as it is written of him.

14 *And when hee came to his disciples, hee sawe much people about them, and the Scribes disputing with them. Mat.17.14. luke 9.38.

15 And straight way all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him, saluted him.

16 And he asked the scribes, What dispute ye ‖ among your selues? ‖ Some reade, with them.

17 And one of the company answered, and said, said, Master, I haue brought vnto thee my sonne, which hath a dumbe spirite:

18 And wheresoeuer hee taketh him, he teareth him, and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, & pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out, and they could not.

19 He answereth him, and saith, O faithlesse nation, howe long shall I be with you, howe long shall I suffer you? Bring him vnto me.

20 And they brought him vnto him: and when hee sawe him, straightway the spirite tare him, and when hee fell downe on the ground, he wallowed, foming.

21 And he asked his father, Howe long is it agoe since this came vnto him? And hee said, Of a childe.

22 And oft times it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst doe any thing, haue mercie on vs, and helpe vs.

23 Jesus saide vnto him, This thing if thou canst beleeue, all things are possible to him that beleeueth.

24 And straight way, when the father of the child had cried with teares, he said, Lord, I beleeue, helpe thou mine vnbeliefe.

25 When Jesus saw that the people came running together, hee rebuked the foule spirit, saying vnto him, Thou dumbe and deafe spirit, I charge thee come out of him, and enter no more into him.

26 And the spirit when he had cried, and rent him sore, came out of him, and hee was as one that had beene dead, insomuch that many said, He is dead.

27 But Jesus, when he had caught him by the hand, lifted him vp: and he arose.

28 And whē he was come into the house, his disciples asked him secretly, Why could not we cast him out?

29 And hee saide vnto them, This kinde ‖ Of deuils. ‖ can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting.

Mat. 17.22. luke 9.22. 30 *And after they departed thence, they tooke their iourney thorowe Galilee, and he would not that any man should knowe it.

31 For he taught his disciples, and saide vnto them, The sonne of man is deliuered into the handes of men, and they shall kill him, and after that hee is killed, he shall rise the third day.

32 But they vnderstoode not that saying, and were afraid to aske him.

Mat. 18.1. luke 9.45. 33 *And he came to Capernaum: & when he was come into the house, he asked them, What was it that yee disputed among your selues by the way?

34 And they held their peace: for by the way they had reasoned among themselues, who should be the chiefest.

35 And when he was set downe, he called the twelue, & saieth vnto them, If any man desire to be first, the same shalbe last of al, and seruant vnto all.

36 And when he had taken a yong child, he set him in the middest of them: and when he had taken him in his armes, he saide vnto them,

37 Whosoeuer shall receiue any such a yong childe in my name, receiueth me: and whosoeuer shall receiue me, receiueth not me, but him that sent me.

38 *Johu answered him, saying, Master, Luke 9.49. we sawe one casting out deuils in thy name, and he followeth not vs, and we forbade him, because he followeth vs not.

39 But Jesus saide, *Forbid him not, for 1. Cor. 12.3 there is no man, which if he doe a miracle in my name, can lightly speake euill of me.

40 For he that is not against vs, is on our part.

41 *Whosoeuer shal giue you a cuppe of colde water to drinke, because yee belong to Christ: verely I say vnto you, he shall not lose his reward. Mat. 10.42.

42 *And whosoeuer shall offende one of Mat. 18.6. these litle ones that beleeue in me, it is bet- luke 17.1. ter for him if a millione were hanged about his necke, and he were cast into the sea.

43 *And if thy hand offend thee, cut it off: Mat. 5.29. It is better for thee to enter into life maimed, then hauing two hands, to go into hell, and 18.8. into fire that neuer shalbe quenched:

44 *Where their worme dyeth not, and Esa. 66.24. the fire is not quenched.

45 And if thy foote offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter halt into life, then hauing thy two feete, to be cast into hel, into fire that neuer shalbe quenched:

46 Where their worme dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

47 And if thine eye offend thee, plucke it out: it is better for thee to enter into ỹ kingdome of God with one eye, then hauing two eyes, to be cast into hell fire:

48 Where their worme dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

49 For euery man shalbe salted with fire, and *euery sacrifice shall be seasoned with Leuit. 2.13. salt.

50 *Salt is good: but if the salt be vnsauerie, with what thing shall you season it? Mat. 5.13. luke 14.34. Haue yee salt in your selues, and haue peace among your selues one with another.

The x. Chapter.

2 Of diuorcement. 7 A rich man questioned how hee should inherite eternall life.

AND *when he rose from thence, Mat. 19.1. hee commeth into the coastes of Jurie, thorough the region that is beyond Jordane: and the people resort vnto him afresh, and as he was wont, he taught them againe.

2 And the Pharisees came, & asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife, tempting him.

3 And he answered, and saide vnto them, What did Moses commaunde you to doe?

4 And

Deut.24.2. 4 And they sayde, * Moses suffered to write a booke of diuorcement, and to put her away.

5 And Jesus answered, and saide vnto them, For the hardnes of your heart, he wrot this precept vnto you.

6 But from the beginning of the creation * God made them male and female,

Gen.1.27. mat.19.4. Gen.2.34. 2.cor.6.16. ephe.5.31. 1.cor.6.16. 7 * And saide, For this cause shall a man leaue his father and mother, and bide by his wife,

8 And they twayne shall be one flesh: so then are they no more twaine, but one flesh.

9 * Therefore, what God hath coupled together, let no man separate.

10 And in the house his disciples asked him againe of the same matter.

Mat.5.32. and 19.9. luke 16.18. 11 And he saith vnto them, * whosoeuer shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adulterie against her.

12 And if a woman shal put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adulterie.

Mat.19.13 luke 18.15. 13 * And they brought yong children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.

14 But when Jesus sawe it, he was sore displeased, and sayde vnto them, Suffer the yong children to come vnto me, and forbidde them not: for to such belongeth the kingdom of God.

15 Verily I say vnto you, Whosoeuer shal not receiue the kingdome of God as a yong childe, he shall in no wise enter therein.

16 And when he had taken them vp in his armes, putting his handes vpon them, he blessed them.

Mat.19.16. luke 18.18. 17 And when he was gone forth into the way, * there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good master, what shall I doe that I may inherite eternall life?

18 Jesus said vnto him, Why callest thou me good? There is no man good but one, which is God.

Exo.20.13. 19 Thou knowest the commandements, Doe not commit adulterie, * Doe not kill, Doe not steale, Doe not beare false witnesse, Defraude no man, Honour thy father and mother.

20 Hee answered, and sayde vnto him, Master, all these haue I obserued from my youth.

21 Jesus beheld him, and loued him, and said vnto him, One thing thou lackest: Goe thy way, sell whatsoeuer thou hast, and giue to the poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen, and come follow me, when thou hast taken vp the crosse.

22 But hee was discomforted because of that saying, and went away mourning: for he had great possessions.

23 And when Jesus had looked round about, he saith vnto his disciples, How hardly shall they that haue riches, enter into the kingdome of God?

24 And the disciples were astonied at his words. But Jesus answereth againe, & saith vnto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches, to enter into the kingdome of God?

25 It is easier for a Camel to goe through the eye of a needle, then for the rich to enter into the kingdome of God.

26 And they were astonied out of measure, saying among themselues, Who then can be saued?

27 Jesus, when he had looked vpon them, saieth, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible.

28 And Peter began to say vnto him, Loe, * we haue forsaken all, and haue followed thee. Mat.19.27. luke 18.28,

29 Jesus answered, and sayd, Verily I say vnto you, There is no man that hath forsaken house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake and the Gospels, 30 But he shall receiue an hundred folde now at this present, houses, & brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions, and in the world to come eternall life.

31 * But many that are first, shalbe last: and the last, first. Mat.19.30. luke 13.30.

32 * And they were in the way going vp to Hierusalem: and Jesus went before them, and they were amazed, and as they followed, were afraid: and when he had againe taken with him the twelue, he began to tell them what things should happen vnto him, Mat.20.17. luke 18.31.

33 Saying, Behold, we goe vp to Hierusalem, and the sonne of man shall be deliuered vnto the high priests, and vnto the Scribes: and they shall condemne him to death, and shall deliuer him to the Gentiles.

34 And they shall mocke him, and scourge him, and spit vpon him, and kill him: and the third day he shall arise.

35 * And James and John the sonnes of Zebedee come vnto him, saying, Master, we will that thou shouldest doe for vs whatsoeuer we shall desire. Mat.20.20, 36 He sayde vnto them, What will ye that I should doe for you?

37 They said vnto him, Graunt vnto vs that we may sit, one on thy right hand, & the other on thy left hand in thy glory.

38 But Jesus said vnto them, Ye wot not what ye aske: Can ye drinke of the cup that I drinke of? and be baptized with the baptisme that I am baptized with?

39 And they said vnto him, That we can. Jesus said vnto them, Ye shal in deede drinke of the cup that I drinke of: and with the baptisme that I am baptized withall, shall ye be baptized:

40 But to sit on my right hand, & on my left hand, is not mine to giue, but it shalbe giuen vnto them for whom it is prepared.

41 And when the other ten heard it, they began to disdaine at James and John.

42 But Jesus, when hee had called them to him, saith vnto them, * Ye know that they Luke 22.25 which seeme to beare rule among the Gentiles, reigne as Lordes ouer them: and they that be great among them, exercise authoritie vpon them.

43 But so shall it not be among you: but whosoeuer of you will be great among you, shalbe your minister:

44 And whosoeuer of you will be the chiefest, shalbe seruant of all.

45 For the sonne of man also came not to be ministred vnto, but to minister, & to giue his life a ransome for many.

Mat.20.29. 46 * And they came to Jericho: and as he luke 19.35. went out of the citie of Jericho with his disciples, and a great number of people, blinde Bartimeus, the sonne of Timeus, sate by the high wayes side, begging.

47 And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to crie, and say, Jesus thou sonne of Dauid, haue mercie on me.

48 And many rebuked him that he should holde his peace: But hee cryed the more a great deale, Thou sonne of Dauid, haue mercie on vs.

49 And Jesus stoode still, and commanded him to be called: and they call the blinde, saying vnto him, Be of good comfort, rise, hee calleth thee.

50 And when he had throwen away his cloke, he rose, and came to Jesus.

51 And Jesus answered, and sayde vnto him, What wilt thou that I doe vnto thee? The blinde sayd vnto him, Master, that I might see.

52 Jesus saide vnto him, Goe thy way, thy faith hath saued thee. And immediatly he receiued his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.

The Contents. Christ rideth to Hierusalem. 28 The Pharisees aske Christ of his authoritie.

Mat.21.1. AND when * they came nigh luke 19.29. to Hierusalem, vnto Bethphage and Bethanie, at the mount of Oliues, hee sendeth foorth two of his disciples,

2 And saith vnto them, Goe your way into the towne that is ouer against you, and as soone as ye be entred into it, yee shall finde a colt tied, whereon neuer man sate, loose him, and bring him hither.

3 And if any man say vnto you, why do ye so? Say ye that the Lord hath needs of him: and straightway he will send him hither.

4 And they went their way, and found the colte tied by the doore without, in a place where two wayes met: and they loose him.

5 And diuers of them that stoode there, sayde vnto them, what doe yee loosing the colte?

6 And they said vnto them euen as Jesus had commanded: and they let them goe.

John 12.14 7 * And they brought the colte to Jesus, and cast their garments on him, and he sate vpon him.

8 And many spred their garments in the way: and other cut downe branches off the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna, blessed is hee that commeth in the name of the Lorde.

10 Blessed be the kingdom that commeth in the name of him that is Lord of our father Dauid, | Hosanna in the highest. |Or, O thou which art.

Mat.21.10. 11 * And Jesus entered into Hierusalem, luke 19.45. and into the Temple, and when hee had looked round about vpon all things, and now the euen tide was come, hee went out vnto Bethanie with the twelue.

12 And on the morowe when they were come from Bethanie, he hungred.

Mat. 21.19 13 * And when he had spied a figge tree a farre off, hauing leaues, he came to see if hee might finde any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaues: for the time of figges was not yet.

14 And Jesus answered, & sayde vnto the figge tree, Neuer man eate fruite of thee hereafter while the world standeth. And his disciples heard it.

15 And they come to Hierusalem, & when Jesus went into the Temple, he began to cast out them that solde and bought in the Temple, and ouerthrew the tables of the money changers, & the seates of them that solde Doues.

16 And would not suffer that any man should carry any stuffe through the Temple.

17 And he taught, saying vnto them, * Is Esay 56.7
it not written, My house shalbe called the house of prayer vnto all nations? * but yee Iere.7.11. haue made it a denne of theeues.

18 And the Scribes & high priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because all the people was astonied at his doctrine.

19 And when euen was come, Jesus went out of the citie.

20 * And in the morning as they passed Mat.21.19 by, they sawe the figge tree dried vp from the rootes.

21 And Peter hauing remembred, saith vnto him, Master, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst, is withered away.

22 And Jesus answering, saith vnto them, Haue faith in God.

23 For verily I say vnto you, that whosoeuer shall say vnto this mountaine, Be thou remooued, and be thou cast into the sea, and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall beleeue that those things which he saith shall come to passe: whatsoeuer he shall say, shalbe vnto him.

26 But if you doe not forgiue, neither will your father which is in heauen forgiue you your treſpaſſes.

27 And they come againe to Hieruſalem: and * as he walked in the Temple, there come to him the high Prieſts, & the Scribes, and the elders, Mat.21.14. luke 20.1.

28 And ſay vnto him, By what authoritie doeſt thou theſe things? and who gaue thee this authoritie to doe theſe things?

29 Jeſus anſwered, and ſaid vnto them, I will alſo aſke of you one queſtion, and anſwere me, and I wil tell you by what authoritie I doe theſe things.

30 The baptiſme of Iohn, whether was it from heauen, or of men? Anſwere me.

31 And they reaſoned with themſelues, ſaying, If we ſhal ſay, From heauen, he will ſay, Why then did ye not beleeue him?

32 But if we ſhal ſay, Of men, * we feare the people: for all men counted Iohn that he was a very Prophet. * This is the third perſon in Greeke.

33 And they anſwering, ſay vnto Jeſus, We cannot tell. And Jeſus anſwering, ſaith vnto them, Neither doe I tell you by what authoritie I doe theſe things.

The xij. Chapter.

1 The vineyard is let out to husbandmen. 41 The poore widowes farthing.

AND * hee began to ſpeake vnto them by parables. A certaine man planted a vineyarde, and he ſet an hedge about it, & digged a wine preſſe, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a ſtrange countrey. Mat.21.33. luke 20.9. eſai.5.1. ier.2.21.

2 And when the time was come, he ſent to the husbandmen a ſeruant, that he might receiue of the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

3 And they caught him, and beate him, and ſent him away emptie.

4 And againe, hee ſent vnto them another ſeruant: and at him they caſt ſtones, and brake his head, and ſent him away all to reuiled.

5 And againe he ſent another, & him they killed: and many other, beating ſome, & killing ſome.

6 And ſo when he had yet but one beloued ſonne, hee ſent him alſo at the laſt vnto them, ſaying, They will ſtand in awe of my ſonne.

7 But the husbandmen ſayde amongſt themſelues, This is the heire, come, let vs kil him, and the inheritance ſhalbe ours.

8 And they tooke him, and killed him, and caſt him out of the vineyard.

9 What ſhall therefore the Lorde of the vineyard doe? He ſhall come and deſtroy the husbandmen, and wil giue the vineyard vnto other.

10 Haue ye not read this ſcripture? * The ſtone which the builders diſalowed, is become the chiefe ſtone of the corner? Pſal.118. 22.mat.21. 42.acts.4.

11 This was the Lords doing, and it is marueilous in our eyes. 11.

12 They went about alſo to take him, and feared the people: for they knew that hee had ſpoken the parable againſt them: and they left him, and went their way.

13 * And they ſent vnto him certaine of the Phariſees and of the Herodians, to take him in his words. Mat.22.15. luke 20.20.

14 And when they were come, they ſay vnto him, Maiſter, wee knowe that thou art true, and careſt for no man: for thou conſidereſt not the perſon of men, but teacheſt the way of God in trueth: Is it lawfull to giue tribute to Ceaſar, or not?

15 Shall we giue, or ſhall wee not giue? But he knowing their hypocriſie, ſayd vnto them, Why tempt ye me? Bring me a penie, that I may ſee it.

16 And they brought it: and he ſaith vnto them, Whoſe is this image and ſuperſcription? And they ſaid vnto him, Ceaſars.

17 And Jeſus anſwering, ſaid vnto them, Giue to * Ceaſar the things that belong to Ceaſar: and to God, the things which pertaine to God. And they marueiled at him. Rom.13.7.

18 * There come alſo vnto him the Sadduces, which ſay there is no reſurrection, and they aſked him, ſaying, Mat.22.23. luke 20.27.

19 Maiſter, * Moſes wrote vnto vs, If any mans brother die, and leaue his wife behinde him, and leaue no children, that his brother ſhould take his wife, and raiſe vp ſeede vnto his brother. Deut.25.5.

20 There were ſeuen brethren: and the firſt tooke a wife, and when he died, left no ſeede behinde him.

21 And the ſecond tooke her, and died, neither left he any ſeede: and the third likewiſe.

22 And ſeuen had her, and left no ſeede behinde them: laſt of all the wife died alſo.

23 In the reſurrection therefore when they ſhal riſe, whoſe wife ſhall ſhe be of them? for ſeuen had her to wife.

24 And Jeſus anſwering, ſayde vnto them, Doe ye not therefore erre, becauſe yee know not the Scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they ſhall riſe from the dead, they neither marrie, nor are giuen in marriage: but are as the angels which are in heauen.

26 As touching the dead that they riſe: haue ye not read in the booke of Moſes, how in the bush God ſpake vnto him, ſaying, * I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Iſaac, and the God of Jacob? Exod.3.6. mat.22.32.

27 He is not the God of the dead, but God of the liuing: ye therefore doe greatly erre.

28 * And when there came one of the Scribes, and had heard them diſputing together, and perceiued that hee had anſwered Mat.22.35.

them well, hee asked him which is the first commandement of all.

29 Jesus answered him, The first of all
Deut.6.4. the commandements is, * Heare, O Israel, the Lord our God is one Lord:

30 And thou shalt loue the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soule, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength. This is the first commandement:

Leui.19.18 mar.22.39. rom.13.9. gala.5.14. jacob 2.8. 31 And the second is like vnto this, * Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe: there is none other commandement greater then these.

32 And the Scribe sayd vnto him, Well, master, thou hast said the trueth: for there is one God, and there is none other but he.

33 And to loue him with all the heart, and with all the vnderstanding, and with all the soule, and with all the strength, and to loue a mans neighbour as himselfe, is greater then all the burnt offerings and sacrifices.

34 And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetely, hee sayde vnto him, Thou art not farre from the kingdome of God. And no man after that durst aske him any question.

Mat.22.41. luke 20.41. 35 * And Jesus answering, said, teaching in the Temple, Howe say the Scribes that Christ is the sonne of Dauid?

37 Dauid himselfe calleth him Lord: and whence is he then his sonne? And much people heard him gladly.

38 And he said vnto them in his doctrine,
Mat.23.6. luke 11.43. * Beware of the Scribes, which desire to walke in long clothing, and loue salutations in the market places,

Luke 21.1. 41 * And when Jesus sate ouer against the treasurie, he beheld howe the people put money into the treasurie: and many that were rich, cast in much.

42 And there came a certaine poore widowe, and she threwe in two mites, which make a farthing.

43 And when he had called vnto him his disciples, he sayth vnto them, Verily I say vnto you, that this poore widdowe hath cast more in, then all they which haue cast into the treasurie.

44 For all they did cast in of their superfluitie: but she of her want, did cast in all that she had, euen all her liuing.

The xiij. Chapter.

2 The destruction of the Temple. 24 Signes before Christes comming. 31 Gods worde shall not passe away.

AND * as he wēt out of the Temple, one of his disciples sayde vnto him, Master, see what stones and what buildings are here. Mat.24.1. luke 21.5.

2 And Jesus answering, sayd vnto him, Seest thou these great buildings? * there shall not be left one stone vpon another, that shall not be throwne downe. Luke 19.45

3 And as hee sate vpon the mount of Olines, ouer against the Temple, Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, asked him secretly,

4 Tell vs, when shal these things be? And what shall be the signe when all these things shalbe fulfilled?

5 And Jesus answering them, began to say, * Take heede least any man deceiue you. Exo.5.6. 2.thes.2.3.

6 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ: and shall deceiue many.

7 When ye shall heare of warres, and tydings of warres, be ye not troubled: For such things must needes be, but the ende shall not be yet.

8 For there shall nation rise against nation, and kingdome against kingdome: and there shall be earthquakes in diuers places, and famines shall there be, & troubles: these are the beginnings of sorowes.

9 But take heede to your selues: for they shall deliuer you vp to counsels, and to synagogues, and ye shall be whipped, yea and shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, that this might be for a witnesse against them.

10 * And the Gospell must first bee published among all nations. Mat. 10.19

11 * But when they shall leade you, deliuering you vp, bee not carefull aforehand, neither take thought what yee shall speake: but whatsoeuer shalbe giuen you in the same houre, that speake yee: for it is not yee that speake, but the holy Ghost. Luke 12.11 and 21.14.

12 The brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the sonne: and the children shall rise against their fathers and mothers, and shall put them to death.

13 And ye shalbe hated of all men for my names sake: but he that shal endure vnto the end, the same shalbe safe.

14 * Moreouer, when yee see the abomination of desolation, whereof is spoken by Daniel the Prophet, standing where it ought not (let him that readeth, vnderstand) then let them that be in Jurie, flee to the mountaines: Mat.14.15. luke 12.11. and 21.14.

15 And let him that is on the house top, not goe downe into the house, neither enter therein, to fetch any thing out of his house.

16 And let him that is in the fielde, not turne backe againe for to take his garment with him.

17 Wo shalbe then to them that are with childe, and to them that giue sucke in those dayes.

18 But

18 But pray yee that your flight be not in the winter:

19 For there shall bee in those dayes such tribulation, as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created, vnto this time, neither shalbe in any wise.

20 And except that the Lorde had shortened those dayes, no flesh should bee saued: but for the elects sake whom hee hath chosen, hee hath shortened those dayes.

Mat.24.23. luke 21,8. 21 *And then, if any man shall say to you, Loe here is Christ, or, loe he is there: beleeue him not.

22 For false Christes, and false prophetes shall rise, and shall shew signes and wonders, to deceiue, if it were possible, euen the elect.

23 But take yee heede: beholde, I haue shewed you all things before.

Exec. 32.7. esa.13.10. Ioel 2.10. 24 *Moreouer, in those dayes, after that tribulation, the Sunne shall bee darkened, and the Moone shall not giue her light:

25 And the Starres of heauen shall fall, and the powers which are in heauen shall be shaken.

26 And then shall they see the Sonne of man comming in the cloudes, with great power and glorie.

27 And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the foure windes, from the ende of the earth, to the vttermost part of heauen.

28 Learne a parable of the Figge tree. When her branche is yet tender, and hath brought foorth leaues, ye knowe that Sommer is neere:

29 So ye in like maner, when ye shall see these things come to passe, vnderstand a that it is nigh, euen at the doores.

a Christ, the kingdome of God.

30 Verily I say vnto you, that this generation shall in no wise passe, till all these things be done.

31 Heauen and earth shal passe away: but my wordes shall in no wise passe away.

32 But of that day and that houre knoweth no man, no not the Angels which are in heauen, neither the Sonne himselfe, saue the father onely.

Mat.24.13. 33 *Take ye heede, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is.

For the sonne of man is. 34 ‖As a man which is gone into a strange countrey, and hath left his house, and giuen authoritie to his seruants, and to euery man his worke, and commaunded the porter to watch:

35 Watch ye therefore (for yee knowe not when the master of the house commeth, at euen, or at midnight, whether at the cocke crowing, or in the dawning.)

36 Lest if hee come sodainly, hee finde you sleeping.

37 And that I say vnto you, I say vnto all, watch.

The xiiij. Chapter.

1 The high Priestes conspire against Christ. 12 The Passeouer is prepared and eaten.

After two dayes was the feast of the Passeouer, and of vnleauened bread: and the high priests, & the Scribes sought howe they might take him by craft, and put him to death. The Gospel on the Monday next before Easter. Mat.26.1; luke 22,1.

2 But they said, Not in the feast day, lest any busmesse arise among the people.

3 *And when he was in Bethanie, in the house of Simon the leper, euen as he sate at meate, there came a woman, hauing an Alabaster box of very precious oyntment, called Narde pisticke: and when she had broken the box, she powred it on his head. Mat.26.6; Iohn 11.2.

4 And there was some that had indignation within themselues, and said, Why was this waste of the oyntment made?

5 For it might haue bene solde for more then three hundred pence, and haue bene giuen to the poore. And they grudged against her.

6 And Iesus saide, Let her alone, why trouble ye her? She hath done a good worke on me.

7 For yee haue poore with you alwayes, and whensoeuer yee will, yee may doe them good: but me haue ye not alwayes.

8 She hath done that she could: she came aforehand to anoynt my body to the burying.

9 Verely I say vnto you, Whereloeuer this Gospell shalbe preached throughout the whole worlde, this also that shee hath done, shalbe rehearsed in remembrance of her.

10 * And Iudas Iscariot, one of the twelue, went away vnto the high Priestes, to betray him vnto them. Mat.26.14. luke 22,4.

11 When they heard that, they were glad, and promised that they would giue him money. And he sought howe he might conueniently betray him.

12 *And the first day of vnleauened bread, when they did kill the Passeouer, his disciples said vnto him, Where wilt thou that we goe and prepare, that thou mayest eate the Passeouer? Mat.26.17. luke 22.7.

13 And he sendeth foorth two of his disciples, and saith vnto them, Goe ye into the citie, and there shall meete you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.

14 And whitherloeuer he shall goe in, say ye to the good man of the house, The master saith, Where is the ghest chamber, where I shall eate the Passeouer with my disciples?

15 And hee will shewe you a large vpper chamber, paued and prepared: there make a ready for vs.

a That is, the Passeouer.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the citie, and found as he had saide vnto them: and they made ready the Passeouer.

17 And when it was now Euentyde, he commeth with the twelue.

18 *And as they sate at boorde, and did eate, Iesus saide, Verily I say vnto you, one of you that eateth with mee, shall betraye mee. Mat.26.26. luke 22.14. Iohn 13.21.

19 And they began to be sorie, and to say vnto him one by one, Is it I? And another said, Is it I?

20 Hee answered, and said vnto them, It is one of the twelue, euen hee that dippeth with me in the platter.

‖shall betray me.

21 The sonne of man truely goeth as it is writte of him: but woe to that man by whom the Sonne of man is betrayed: good were it for that man, if he had neuer bene borne.

Mat.26.26. 1.cor.11. 22.

22 *And as they did eate, Iesus, when he had taken bread and blessed, hee brake it and gaue to them, and saide, Take, eate: this is my body.

23 And when hee had taken the cup, and giuen thankes, hee gaue it to them: and they all dranke of it.

24 And hee saide vnto them, This is my blood of the newe Testament, which is shed for many.

25 Verily I say vnto you, I will drinke no more of the fruite of the vine, vntill that day that I drinke it new in the kingdome of God.

26 And when they had prayed God, they went out into the mount of Olives.

Ioh.16.32. Zach.13.7.

27 *And Iesus saith vnto them, All yee shalbe offended because of me this night: * for it is written, I will smite the shepheard, and the sheepe shalbe scattered.

28 But after that I am risen, I will goe into Galilee before you.

29 Peter said vnto him, Although al men shalbe offended, yet will not I.

30 And Iesus saith vnto him, Verily I say vnto thee, that this day, euen in this night, before the Cocke crowe twise, thou shalt denie me three times.

31 But hee spake more vehemently, If I should die with thee, I will not denie thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all.

Mat.26.30. luke 22.39.

32 * And they came into a place which was named Gethsemani, and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while I shall pray.

33 And hee taketh with him Peter, and Iames, and Iohn, and began to be sore amazed, and to be in an agonie, 34 And saith vnto them, My soule is exceeding heauie, euen vnto the death: tary ye here, and watch.

35 And when he had gone forward a litle, hee fell on the ground, and prayed, that if it were possible, the houre might passe frō him.

36 And hee saide, Abba, father, all things are possible vnto thee, take away this cuppe from me: Neuertheless, not that I will, but that thou wilt, be done.

37 And hee commeth & findeth them sleeping, and saith vnto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? Couldest not thou watch one houre?

38 Watch yee and pray, lest yee enter into temptation: The spirit truely is ready, but the flesh is weake.

39 And againe he went aside, and prayed, and spake the same wordes.

40 And when he returned, he found them a sleepe againe (for their eyes were heauie) neither wist they what to answere him.

41 And he commeth the thirde time, and saith vnto them, Sleepe henceforth, and take your ease: it is ynough, the houre is come, beholde, the sonne of man is betrayed into the handes of sinners.

42 Rise vp, let vs goe: Loe, he that betrayeth me, is at hand.

Mat.26.47. luke 22.47. iohn 18.3.

43 *And immediatly while he yet spake, commeth Iudas, being one of the twelue, and with him a great number of people with swordes and staues, from the high Priestes, and Scribes, and Elders.

44 And hee that betrayed him, had giuen them a generall token, saying, Whosoeuer I shal kisse, that same is he: take him, and leade him away warily.

45 And as soone as hee was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith vnto him, Master, master: and kissed him.

46 And they layde their handes on him, and tooke him.

47 And one of them that stoode by, when hee had drawen out his sworde, smote a seruant of the high Priest, and ‖ cut off his eare.

‖Or, tooke away.

48 And Iesus answered, and sayde vnto them, Yee be come out as vnto a thiefe with swords and with staues for to take me.

49 I was dayly with you in the temple teaching, & ye tooke me not: but these things come to passe that the Scriptures should bee fulfilled.

50 And they all forsooke him, and ranne away.

51 And there followed him a certaine yong man, clothed in linnen vpon the bare: and the yong men caught him.

52 And hee left his linnen garment, and fled from them naked.

Mat.26.57. luke 22.54. iohn 19.24.

53 *And they led Iesus away to the high priest, & with him came all the high priestes, and the Elders, and the Scribes.

54 And Peter followed him a great way off, euen till hee was come into the palace of the high priest: and he sate with the seruants, and warmed himselfe at the fire.

Mat.26.59.

55 *And the high priests and all the counsell sought for witnesse against Iesus to put him to death, and found none:

56 For many bare false witnesse against him, but their witnesse agreed not together.

57 And there arose certaine, and brought false witnesse against him, saying,

Iohn 2.19.

58 We heard him say, *I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three dayes I will build another made without handes.

59 But yet their witnesse agreed not so together.

60 And the high Priest stoode vp in the middes, and asked Iesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? How is it that these beare witnesse against thee?

61 But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Againe, the high priest asked him, and said vnto him, Art thou Christ the sonne of the blessed?

62 *And

Mat.24.30 62 *And Jesus saide, I am: and yee shall see the sonne of man sitting on the right hād of the power of God, and comming in the cloudes of heauen.

63 Then the high priest, hauing rent his clothes, saith, what neede wee any further witnesses?

64 Ye haue heard the blasphemie: what thinke ye? And they all condemned him to be worthie of death.

65 And some began to spit at him, and to couer his face, and to beate him with fistes, and to say vnto him, Prophecie: And the seruants did beate him with roddes.

Mat.26.71. luke 22.58. iohn 18.25. 66 *And as Peter was beneath in the palace, there commeth one of the wenches of the high priest.

67 And whē she saw Peter warming him selfe, after she had looked vpon him, she saith, And thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth.

68 But he denied, saying, I know him not, neither wote I what thou sayest. And hee went out into the porch, and the cocke crew.

69 And a damosel, when she sawe him, began againe to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.

70 And he denied it againe. And anon after, they that stood by saide againe to Peter, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art of Galilee, and thy speach agreeth thereto.

71 But he began to curse & to sweare, saying, I know not this man of whō ye speake.

Mat.27.57. iohn 13.38. 72 *And the second time the Cocke crewe: and Peter remembred the worde that Jesus said vnto him, Before the Cocke crow twise, thou shalt denie me three times: And he began to weepe.

The xv. Chapter.

1 Iesus is deliuered bound to Pilate. 43 Ioseph beggeth Christes body, and buryeth it.

The Gospel on Tuesday next before Easter. Mat.27.1. luk.22.66. AND *anon in the dawning, whē the high Priestes had holde a counsell with the elders, and the Scribes, and the whole congregation, and had bounde Jesus, they caried him away, and deliuered him to Pilate.

2 And Pilate asked him, Art thou the king of the Jewes? And he answering, said vnto him, Thou sayest it.

3 And the high priests accused him of many things, but he answered nothing.

Mat.27.12. luke 23.3. iohn 18.33 4 *So Pilate asked him againe, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witnesse against thee.

5 Jesus yet answered nothing at all, so that Pilate marueiled.

6 At that feast Pilate did deliuer vnto them one prisoner, whōsoeuer they desired.

7 And there was one that was named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that made insurrectiō with him, which men had committed murder also in the insurrection.

8 And the people crying aloude, began to desire that he would doe accōrding as he had euer done vnto them.

9 Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I let loose vnto you the king of the Jewes?

10 (For he knew that the high priests had deliuered him for enuie.)

11 But the high priests moued the people, that he should rather deliuer Barabbas vnto them.

12 Pilate answering againe saide vnto them, What wil ye then that I shall do vnto him whom ye call the king of the Jewes?

13 And they cried againe, Crucifie him.

14 Pilate saide vnto them, What euill hath he done? And they cried the more feruently, Crucifie him.

15 And so Pilate, willing to content the people, let loose Barabbas vnto them, and deliuered vp Jesus, when hee had scourged him, for to be crucified.

16 And the souldiers led him away into the hall, called Prætorium, and they call together the whole band ‖. ‖ of souldiers.

17 And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crowne of thornes, and put it about his head, 18 And began to salute him, saying, Haile king of the Jewes.

19 And they smote him on the head with a reede, and did spit vpon him, and bowing their knees, worshipped him.

20 And when they had mocked him, they tooke off the purple from him, and put his owne clothes on him, and led him out to crucifie him.

21 *And they compell one that passed by, called Simon of Cyrene (cōming out of the fielde, the father of Alexander and Rufus) to beare his crosse. Mat.27.32. luke 23.26.

22 *And they bring him to a place named Golgotha, which is, if a man interprete it, a place of a skull. Mat.27.33. luke 23.33. iohn 19.7.

23 And they gaue him to drinke wine mingled wt Myrrhe: but hee receiued it not.

24 *And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots vpon them, what euery man should take. Mat.27.35.

25 And it was the third houre, ‖ and they crucified him. ‖ Or, when.

26 And the title of his accusation was written ouer, ‖ THE KING OF THE IEWES. ‖ In these wordes.

27 And they crucified with him two thieues, the one on the right hand, and the other on his left.

28 And the Scripture was fulfilled, which saith, *He was counted among the wicked. Esai.53.12.

29 And they that went by, railed on him, wagging their heades, & saying, *Aha, thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three dayes, Iohn 2.19.

30 Saue thy selfe, and come downe from the crosse.

31 Likewise also the high priests mocking him among themselues, with the Scribes, said, saide, He saued other men, himselfe he cannot saue.

32 Let Christ the king of Israel descend now from the crosse, that we may see, and beleeue: And they that were crucified with him, checked him also.

33 And when the sixth houre was come, darkenesse arose ouer all the earth, vntill the ninth houre.

34 And at the ninth houre, Iesus cryed with a loude voyce, saying, * Eloi, Eloi, lamasabachthani? which is, if one interpret it, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? Mat. 27.46. psal. 21.2.

35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard that, saide, Beholde, he calleth for Elias.

36 And one ranne, * and after he had filled a spunge full of vineger, and put it on a reede, he gaue him to drinke, saying, Let him alone, let vs see whether Elias commeth to take him downe. Psal. 69.22.

37 But when Iesus had cried with a loud voyce, he gaue vp the ghost.

38 And the vayle of the temple was rent into two pieces, from the top to the bottome.

39 And when the Centurion, which stood ouer against him, sawe, that when hee had so cried, hee gaue vp the ghost, he saide, Truely this man was the sonne of God.

40 There were also women a good way off, beholding him, among whom was Marie Magdalene, and Marie the mother of Iames the litle, and of Ioses, and Salome:

41 which also when hee was in Galilee, * followed him, and ministred vnto him, and many other women which came vp with him vnto Hierusalem. Luke 8.1.

42 * And nowe when the euen was come, (because it was the day of preparing, that goeth before the Sabboth,) Mat. 27.57. luke 23.50. iohn 19.38.

43 Ioseph of the citie of Arimathea, a noble counseller, which also looked for the kingdome of God, came & went in boldly vnto Pilate, and begged of him the body of Iesus.

44 And Pilate marueiled if he were already dead, & when hee had called vnto him the Centurion, asked of him whether he had bin any while dead.

45 And when he knewe the trueth of the Centurion, he gaue the body to Ioseph.

46 And when hee had bought a linnen cloth, and taken him downe, he wrapped him in the linnen cloth, and laide him in a sepulchre, that was hewen out of the rocke, and rolled a stone vnto the doore of the sepulchre.

47 And Marie Magdalene, and Marie * Ioses beheld where he was layd. *The mother of.

The xvj. Chapter.

1 The women come to the sepulchre. 10 The signes that followe the preaching of the Gospel.

AND when the Sabboth day was past, Marie Magdalene, & Marie the mother of Iames and Salome, bought sweete smelling ointments, that they might come and anoint him.

2 * And very early in the morning, the a first day of the Sabboths, they came vnto the sepulchre, when the sunne was risen. Luke 24.1. iohn 20.1. a That is, Sunday, the first day of the weeke.

3 And they said among themselues, who shall rolle vs away the stone from the doore of the sepulchre?

4 (And when they looked, they see howe that the stone was rolled away) for it was very great.

5 * And when they went into the sepulchre, they sawe a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment, and they were greatly amazed. Mat. 28.1. iohn 20.12.

6 And he saith vnto them, Be not greatly amazed, ye seeke Iesus of Nazareth, which was crucified, he is risen, he is not here, beholde the place where they had put him.

7 But goe your way, and tel his disciples, and Peter, that he goeth before you into Galilee, there shall ye see him, * as he saide vnto you. Mat. 26.32. mar. 14.28.

8 And they went out quickly, & fled from the sepulchre, for they trembled, and were amazed, neither saide they any thing to any man, for they were afraide.

9 When Iesus was risen early, the first day after the Sabboth, * he appeared first to Marie Magdalene, * out of whom hee had cast seuen deuils. Ioh. 20.16. Luke 8.2.

10 And she went and told them that were with him, as they mourned and wept.

11 And they, when they had heard that he was aliue, and had bene seene of her, beleeued it not.

12 After that, hee appeared in another fourme, vnto * two of them, as they walked, and went into the countrey. Luk. 24.13.

13 And they went and told it vnto the residue: and they beleeued not these also.

14 * Afterward, he appeared vnto the eleuen as they sate at meate, and cast in their teeth their vnbeliefe and hardnesse of heart, because they beleeued not them, which had seene that he was risen. The Gospel on the Ascension day. Luk. 24.36. iohn 20.19.

15 * And he saide vnto them, Goe ye into all the worlde, and preach the Gospel to all creatures. Mat. 28.19.

16 He that shall beleeue, and be baptized, shall be saued, * but he that shall not beleeue, shalbe damned. Ioh. 14.48.

17 And these tokens shal follow them that beleeue, * In my name shall they cast out deuils, * they shall speake with newe tongues, Act. 16.18. Actes 2.4.

18 * They shall drive away Serpentes, and if they drinke any deadly thing, it shal in no wise hurt them, * they shall lay hands on the sicke, and they shall recouer. Actes 28.5. Actes 18.8.

19 So then when the Lorde had spoken vnto them, hee was receiued into heauen, * & sate him downe on the right hand of God. Luk. 24.51.

20 And they went forth, & preached euery where, the Lord working with them, * & confirming the word with signes following. Heb. 2.4.

Here endeth the Gospel by Saint Marke.

The

The Gospel by Saint Luke.

The first Chapter.

1 The preface of Luke. 5 Of Zacharias and Elizabeth. 40 Marie visiteth Elizabeth.

FOrasmuch as many haue taken in hande to set forth in order the declaratiō of those things which are most surely ‖beleeued among vs,

‖Or, proued.

2 Euen as they deliuered them vnto vs, which from the beginning saw them themselues with their eies, and were ministers of the [a] worde:

[a] That is, they were doers in such things as here foloweth in the Gospel.

3 It seemed good to mee also, hauing perfect vnderstanding of all things from the beginning, to write vnto thee in order, most excellent Theophilus,

4 That thou mightest know the certaintie of those things wherein thou hast bene taught by mouth.

5 THere was in the dayes of Herode the king of Iurie, a certaine Priest, named Zacharias, * of the course of Abia, and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth.

1.Chr.24.1

6 They were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandements and ordinances of the Lord, blamelesse.

7 And they had no childe, because that Elizabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in age.

8 And it came to passe, that when Zacharias executed the Priests office before God, as his course came,

9 According to the custome of the Priests office, his lot was to burne incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.

10 *And the whole multitude of the people were without in prayer, while the incense was burning.

Leui.16.17 ⁊c.30.7.

11 And there appeared vnto him an Angel of the Lorde, standing on the right side of the altar of the incense.

12 And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and feare fell vpon him.

13 But the Angel saide vnto him, Feare not, Zacharias, for thy prayer is heard, & thy wife Elizabeth shall beare thee a sonne, and thou shalt call his name Iohn.

14 And thou shalt haue ioy and gladnesse, and many shall reioyce at his birth:

15 And he shalbe great in the sight of the Lord, & shall neither drinke wine nor strong drinke, and hee shall bee filled with the holy Ghost, euen from his mothers wombe, 16 *For many of the children of Israel shall he turne to their Lord God.

Mala.4.5. mar.11.14

17 And he shall go before him with the spirit and power of Elias, to turne the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the iust men, to make readie a perfect people for the Lord.

18 And Zacharias said vnto the Angel, By what token shal I know this? For I am old, and my wife well stricken in yeeres.

19 And the Angel answering, saide vnto him, I am Gabriel that stand in the presence of God, and was sent to speake vnto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings.

20 And behold, thou shalt be dumbe, and not be able to speake, vntill the day that these things shall bee performed, because thou beleeuedst not my words, which shalbe fulfilled in their season.

21 And the people waited for Zacharias, and marueyled that he taried so long in the temple.

22 And when hee came out, hee could not speake vnto them: and they perceiued that he had seene a vision in the temple: for he beckened vnto them, and remained speachlesse.

23 And it came to passe, that assoone as the dayes of his office were out, hee departed into his owne house.

24 And after those dayes, his wife Elizabeth conceyued, & hid her selfe fiue moneths, saying,

25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with mee in the dayes wherein hee looked on me, to take from me my rebuke [b] among men.

The Gospel on the annunciation of the virgin Marie.

[b] For it was a chiefe blessing of God, to be fruitfull in children, Gen. 7. Exod. 23. Psal. 127. and 128. because it was a multiplying of the Lords people, and fulfilling of Gods promise, Gene. 13. and therefore it was taken among the Iewes for a reproch to be barren.

26 And in the sixth moneth, the Angel Gabriel was sent from God, vnto a citie of Galilee, named Nazareth, 27 To a virgin, spoused to a man whose name was Ioseph of the house of Dauid, and the virgins name was marie.

28 And when the Angel was come in vnto her, hee said, Haile thou that art in high fauour, the Lord is with thee: Blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what maner of salutation this should be.

30 And the Angel saide vnto her, Feare not, Marie, for thou hast found fauour with God.

31 *For behold, thou shalt conceiue in thy wombe, and beare a sonne, and shalt call his name Iesus.

Esai.7.14.

32 Hee shalbe great, and shalbe called the sonne of the highest, and the Lord God shall giue vnto him the seate of his father Dauid.

33 *And he shall reigne ouer the house of Iacob for euer, and of his kingdome there shall be none ende.

Dan.7.14. mich.4.7.

34 Then said Marie vnto the Angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

35 And the Angel answering, sayde vnto her, The holy Ghost shall come vpon thee, and the power of the highest shall [c] ouershadowe thee. Therefore also that holy thing which shall be borne, shall be called the sonne of God.

[c] Shall worke secretly in thee aboue all reason.

36 And

36 And beholde, thy coulin Elizabeth, she hath also conceiued a sonne in her olde age, and this is her sixth moneth, which was called barren.

37 For with God shall no worde bee vnpossible.

38 And Mary said, Behold the handmaiden of the Lord, bee it vnto me according to thy word: and the Angel departed from her.

39 And Mary arose in those dayes, and went into the hill countrey with haste, into a citie of Juda, 40 And entred into the house of Zacharie, and saluted Elizabeth.

41 And it came to passe, that when Elizabeth heard the salutation of Marie, the babe sprang in her wombe, and Elizabeth was filled with the holy ghost.

42 And she spake out with a loude voyce, and saide, Blessed art thou among women, and the fruite of thy wombe is blessed.

43 And whence commeth this to mee, that the mother of my Lorde shoulde come to me?

44 For loe, alloone as the voyce of thy salutation sounded in mine eares, the babe sprang in my wombe for ioy.

45 And blessed is shee that beleeued, for those things shall be performed which were told her from the Lord.

46 And Marie said, My soule magnifieth the Lord,

47 And my spirit hath reioyced in God my sauiour.

48 For he hath looked on the lowlinesse of his handmaiden: for loe, nowe from henceforth shall all generations call me blessed.

49 Because he that is mightie hath done to me great things, and holy is his name.

50 And his mercy is on them that feare him, from generation to generation.

51 Hee hath shewed strength with his arme, he hath scattered them that are proud, in * the imagination of their hearts.

55 *(Euen as he spake to our fathers Abraham, and to his seede) for euer.

56 And Marie abode with her about three moneths, and afterward returned to her own house.

The Gospel on Saint Iohn Baptists day.

57 Elizabeths time came that she should be deliuered, and she brought forth a sonne.

58 And her neighbours and her cousins heard howe the Lord had shewed great mercie vpon her, and they reioyced with her.

59 And it came to passe, that on the eight day they came to circumcise the childe, and called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

60 And his mother answering, said, Not so, but he shalbe called Iohn.

61 And they said vnto her, There is none in thy kinred that is called by this name.

62 And they made signes to his father, what he would haue him called.

63 And when he had asked for writing tables, hee wrote, saying, His name is Iohn: And they maruelled all.

64 And his mouth was opened immediatly, and his tongue loosed, and hee spake, praising God.

65 And feare came on al them that dwelt round about them, and al these sayings were noysed abroade thorowout all the hill countrey of Jurie.

66 And all they that had heard them, laid them vp in their hearts, saying, What maner of child shall this be: And the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 And his father Zacharias was filled with the holy Ghost, and prophecied, saying, 68 *Praised bee the Lorde God of Israel, for he hath visited and redeemed his people, Matt.1.22.

69 *And hath raised vp an [d] horne of saluation vnto vs, in the house of his seruant Dauid: Psa.132.17 [d] That is, his kingdome and power.

The ij. Chapter.

The taxing of the world by Augustus Cæsar,

AND it came to passe in those daies, that there went a commandement from Augustus Cesar, that all the [a] worlde should be taxed. [a] So much as was subiect to the Romanes.

2 (And this first taxing was made when Cyrenius was Lieutenant of Syria.)

3 And

3 And all went to be taxed, euery man into his owne citie.

4 And Ioseph went vp from Galilee, out of the citie Nazareth, into Iurie, vnto the citie of Dauid, which is called Bethlehem, (because hee was of the house and linage of Dauid,) John 7.42.

5 To be taxed with Marie his spoused wife, being great with childe.

6 And so it was, that while they were there, the dayes were accomplished that shee should be deliuered.

7 And she brought forth her first begotten sonne, and swaddled him, and laid him in a manger, because there was no rowme for them in the Inne.

8 There were in the same countrey shepheards abiding in the fielde, keeping watch ouer their flocke by night.

9 And loe, the Angell of the Lorde stoode hard by them, and the glorie of the Lorde shone round about them, and they were sore afraide.

10 And the Angel said vnto them, Feare not: for beholde, I bring you good tidings of great ioy, that shalbe to all people.

11 For vnto you is borne this day in the citie of Dauid, a Sauiour, which is Christ the Lord.

12 And take this for a signe, Ye shall finde the child swaddled, laid in a manger.

13 And suddenly there was with the Angel a multitude of heauenly souldiers, praising God, and saying, 14 Glorie to God in the highest, and peace on the earth, and among men a good will.

The Gospel on Newe yeres day.

15 And it came to passe, assoone as the Angels were gone away from them into heauen, the men the shepheards said one to another, Let vs go now vnto Bethlehem, & see this thing that is come to passe, which the Lorde hath shewed vnto vs.

16 And they came with haste, and founde Marie and Ioseph, and the babe laide in a manger.

17 And when they had seene it, they published abroade the saying, which was told them of this child.

18 And all they that heard it, wondered at those things which were told them of the shepheards.

19 But Mary kept all those sayings, and pondered them in her heart.

20 And the shepheards returned, glorifying and praysing God for all the things that they had heard and seene, euen as it was told vnto them.

21 And whe the eight day was come, that the child should be circumcised, his name was called Jesus, which was so named of the Angel before he was conceiued in the wombe.

25 And beholde, there was a man in Hierusalem, whose name was Simeon, and the same man was iust & godly, looking for the consolation of Israel: and the holy Ghost was vpon him.

26 And a reuelation was giuen him of the holy Ghost, not to see death, before he had seene the Lords Christ.

27 And hee came by inspiration into the temple: and when the parents brought in the childe Jesus, to doe for him after the custome of the lawe,

28 Then tooke hee him vp in his armes, and praysed God, and said, 29 Lord, now lettest thou thy seruant departe in peace, according to thy promise.

30 For mine eies haue seene thy saluation,

31 Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people.

32 A light to be reuealed to the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.

33 And his father & his mother marueiled at those things which were spoken of him.

34 And Simeon blessed them, and saide vnto Marie his mother, Beholde, this child is set to bee the fall and [c] vprising againe of many in Israel, and for a signe which is spoken against,

38 And she comming in the same instant vpon them, gaue thanks likewise vnto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that looked for redemption in Hierusalem.

39 And when they had performed all things according to the lawe of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their owne citie Nazareth.

40 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was filled with wisedome, and the grace of God was vpon him.

41 Now his parents went to Hierusalem [Deut. 16.1.] euery yeere, at the feast of the Passeouer.

42 And when he was twelue yeeres olde, they ascended vp to Hierusalem, after the custome of the feast day.

3 The preaching of Iohn. 23 The age and genealogie of Christ.

NOwe in the fifteenth yeere of the reigne of Tiberius Cesar, Pontius Pilate being lieutenant of Iurie, & Herode being Tetrach of Galilee, and his brother Philippe Tetrarch of Iturea, and of the region of the Trachonites, & Lysanias the Tetrarch of Abilene,

2 *When Annas and Caiaphas were the high priestes, the word of the Lorde came vnto Iohn, the sonne of Zacharias, in the wildernesse.

3 And hee came into all the coasts about Iordane, preaching the baptisme of repentance, for the remission of sinnes,

4 As it is written in the booke of the wordes of Esaias the Prophet, saying, *The voyce of a cryer in the wildernesse, Prepare yee the way of the Lorde, make his pathes straight.

5 Euery valley shall be filled, and euery mountaine and hill shall bee brought lowe, and things that bee crooked, shall bee made b straight, and the rough wayes shalbe made plaine.

6 And all flesh shall see the saluation of God.

7 Then sayde hee to the people that were come forth to be baptised of him, *O generation of vipers, who hath forewarned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore due fruits of repentance, and begin not to say within your selues, We haue Abraham to our father: for I say vnto you, that God is able of these stones to raise vp children vnto Abraham.

9 Now also is the axe laid vnto the roote of the trees: Euery tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewen downe, and cast into the fire.

10 And the people asked him, saying, What shall we doe then?

11 He answereth and saieth vnto them, *He that hath two coates, let him part with him that hath none, and he that hath meate, let him doe likewise.

12 Then came Publicanes also to be baptized, and said vnto him, Master, what shall we doe?

13 And hee sayde vnto them, Require no more then that which is appointed vnto you.

14 The souldiers likewise demaunded of him, saying, And what shall we doe? And he said vnto them, Doe violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely, and be content with your wages.

15 And the people waited, and all men mused in their hearts of Iohn, whether hee were the Christ.

16 Iohn answered, saying vnto them all, *In deede I baptize you with water, but one stronger then I cometh, whose shoes latchet I am not worthie to vnlowse, he shall baptize you with the holy Ghost, and with fire.

17 *Whose fanne is in his hand, and will throughly purge his floore, and will gather the wheat into his barne, but the chaffe will he burne with vnquenchable fire.

Matth. 4. 1. mark. 1. 12.

IEsus * beeing full of the holy Ghost, returned from Jordan, and was led by the same spirit into wildernesse,
2 Being fourtie dayes tempted of the deuil, and in those dayes did he eate nothing: and when they were ended, hee afterward hungred.
3 And the deuil said vnto him, If thou be the sonne of God, commaund this stone that it be made bread.
Deut. 8. 3. matth. 4. 4. 4 And Jesus answered him, saying, * It is written, that man shall not liue by bread onely, but by euery word of God.
5 And when the deuil had taken him vp into an high mountaine, he shewed him all the kingdomes of the world in a moment of time.
6 And the deuil saide vnto him, All this a power wil I giue thee euery whit, and the glory of them, for that is deliuered vnto me, and to whome soeuer I will, I giue b it.

7 If thou therefore wilt worship mee, it shalbe all thine.
8 Jesus answering, said vnto him, Get thee hence behind me, Satan: for it is written, * Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him onely shalt thou serue.
Deut. 6. 13. and 10. 20.
9 And he carried him to Hierusalem, and set him on a pinacle of the temple, and saide vnto him, If thou be the sonne of God, cast thy selfe downe from hence.
10 For it is written, * that he shal giue his angels charge ouer thee, to keepe thee.
Psal. 91. 12.
11 And in their hands they shal beare thee vp, that thou dash not thy foote at any time against a stone.
12 And Jesus answering, said vnto him, It is said, * Thou shalt not tempt the Lorde thy God.
Deut. 6. 16.
13 And when the deuill had ended all the temptation, he departed from him for a season.
14 And Jesus returned by the power of the spirite into Galilee, and there went a fame of him throughout al the region round about.
15 And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified of all men.

19 And to preach the acceptable yeere of the Lord.
20 And when hee had closed the booke, & giuen it again to the minister, he sate down: and the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.
21 And he began to say vnto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your eares.
22 And all bare him witnes, and wondred at the gracious wordes which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, Is not this Josephs sonne?
23 And he said vnto them, Ye will vtterly say vnto me this prouerbe, Physition, heale thy selfe: whatsoeuer we haue heard done in Capernaum, doe the same heere like wise in thine owne countrey.

Iohn 4. 44. 24 And he saide, * verily I say vnto you, no Prophete is accepted in his owne countrey.

32 * And they were astonied at his doctrine: for his preaching was with power. Mat. 7. 24. mark. 1. 22.

33 * And in the Synagogue there was a man, which had a spirit of a fowle deuil, and cried out with a loude voyce, Mar. 1. 23.

34 Saying, Let vs alone, what haue we to doe with thee, thou Iesus of Nazareth: art thou come to destroye vs? I knowe who thou art, euen the holy One of God.

35 And Iesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the deuill had throwen him in the mids, hee came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 And feare came on them all, and they spake among themselues, saying, What maner of saying is this? For with authoritie and power he commandeth the foule spirits, and they come out.

37 And the fame of him went out into euery place of the countrey round about.

38 * And when hee was risen out of the Synagogue, he entred into Simons house: and Simons wiues mother was taken with a great feuer, and they made intercession to him for her. Matt. 8. 14. mark. 1, 29.

39 And he stood ouer her, and rebuked the feuer, and it left her. And immediately shee arose, and ministred vnto them.

40 When the Sunne was downe, all they that had any sicke with diuers diseases, brought them vnto him: and when hee had layde his handes on euery one of them, hee healed them.

41 * And deuils also came out of many, crying, and saying, Thou art that Christ the Sonne of God. And he rebuking them, suffered them not to speake: for they knew that he was Christ. Mark. 1. 33.

42 And when it was day, hee departed, and went into a desart place: and the people sought him, and came to him, and kept him, that he should not depart from them.

43 And he said vnto them, I must preach the kingdome of God to other cities also: For therefore am I sent.

44 And hee was preaching in the Synagogues of Galilee.

2 And he saw two shippes stand by the lakes side: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And when hee was entred into one of the shippes which pertained to Simon, hee prayed him that hee would thrust out a little from the land: and he sate downe, and taught the people out of the shippe.

4 When he had left speaking, he said vnto Simon, Launche out into the deepe, and let slippe your nets to catch.

5 And Simon answering, said vnto him, Master, we haue laboured all night, & haue taken nothing: neuertheless, at thy commandement I will loose foorth the net.

6 And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes, but their net brake:

7 And they beckened vnto their partners, which were in the other shippe, that they should come and helpe them. And they came, and filled both the shippes that they sunke againe.

8 When Simon Peter saw this, hee fell downe at Iesus knees, saying, Goe out from me, for I am a sinfull man, O Lord.

34 *He said vnto them, Can ye make the childzen of the wedding chamber fast, while the bridegrome is with them? Mat.9.14. mark.2.18.

35 But the daies will come: and when the bridegrome shalbee taken away from them, then shall they fast in those dayes.

36 He spake also vnto them a similitude, No man putteth a piece of newe garment into an old vesture: for then the new renteth the olde, and the piece that was taken out of the new, agreeth not with the olde.

37 And no man powreth new wine into olde vessels: for if he doe, the new wine will burst the vessels, and runne out it selfe, and the vessels shall perish.

38 But new wine must be put into new vessels, and both are preserued.

39 No man also hauing drunk old wine, will straightway haue new: for he saith, The old is better.

1 The disciples plucke the eares of corne on the Sabboth. 47 With what fruite the worde of God is to be heard.

AND it *came to passe on the Second Sabboth after the first, that hee went thorow & corne fieldes: and his disciples plucked the eares of corne, and did eate, rubbing them in their hands. Matt. 12.1. mark. 2.23.

2 And certaine of the Pharisees said vnto them, why doe ye that which is not lawfull to doe on the Sabboth daies?

3 And Iesus answering thẽ, said, *Haue ye not read so much as this that Dauid did, when he himselfe was an hungred, and they which were with him: 1.King. 21. 6.

4 How he went into the house of God, & did take and eate the shewe bread, and gaue also to them that were with him, which is not lawfull to eate *but for the priests only? Exo.19.33.

5 And he said vnto them, That the sonne of man is Lord also of the a Sabboth day.

a That is, hauing power to dispense with the keeping of the Sabboth day.

6 *And it came to passe also in another sabboth, that he entred into the synagogue, and taught: & there was a man whose right hand was dried vp. Matt.12.5. mark.3.1.

7 And the Scribes and Pharisees watched him, whether he would heale on the Sabboth day: that they might finde howe to accuse him.

8 But he knew their thoughts, and saide to the man which had the withered hande, Rise vp, and stand forth in the middes. And he arose, and stood forth.

9 Then said Iesus vnto them, I wil aske you a question, whether is it lawfull on the Sabboth dayes to doe good, or to doe euil: to saue ones life, or destroy it?

10 And when he had beheld them all in compaſſe, he ſaid vnto the mã, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did ſo: and his hand was reſtored againe as whole as the other.

11 And they were filled with madneſſe, and communed together among themſelues what they might doe to Ieſus.

12 And it came to paſſe in thoſe dayes, that he went out into a mountaine to pray, & continued all night there in prayer to God.

13 And when it was day, he called his diſciples: * and of them he choſe twelue, whom also he called Apoſtles:

15 Matthew, and Thomas, Iames the ſonne of Alpheus, and Simon, which is called Zelotes,

16 And Iudas, Iames brother, and Iudas Iſcariot, which also was the traitour.)

17 And when he came downe with them, he ſtood in the plaine field, and the companie of his diſciples, and a great multitude of people, out of all Iurie and Hieruſalem, & from the ſea coaſt of Tyre and Sidon, which came to heare him, and to bee healed of their diſeaſes, 18 And they that were vexed with ſowle ſpirites: and they were healed.

19 And all the people preaſſed to touche him: for there went vertue out of him, & healed them all.

20 And when hee had lifted vp his eies vpon his diſciples, he ſaid, * Bleſſed bee yee poore: for yours is the kingdome of God.

Mat.12.33. mark.7.16.

45 A good man out of the good treaſure of his heart, bringeth forth that which is good: and an euill man out of the euill treaſure of his heart, bringeth forth that which is euill: For of the abundance of the heart, his mouth ſpeaketh.

46 * Why call ye me Lord, Lorde, and doe not as I bid you?

Matt. 7.21. rom.13.2.

47 Whoſoeuer commeth to me, & heareth my ſayings, and doeth the ſame, I will ſhew you to whome he is like.

48 He is like a mã which built an houſe, and digged deepe, and laide the foundation on on the rocke. And when the waters arose, the flood beat vehemently vpon that house, and could not moue it: for it was grounded vpon the rocke.

49 But he that heareth, and doeth it not, is like a man that without foundation built an house vpon the earth: against which the flood did beate vehemently, and it fell immediatly, and the fall of that house was great.

The vii. Chapter.

1 He healeth the captaines seruant. 6 The faith of the Centurion. 37 The woman washeth his feete with her teares.

WHen he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, *he entred into Capernaum. Matth. 8. 1.

2 And a certaine Centurions seruant, which was deare vnto him, being sicke, was in perill of death.

3 And when he heard of Iesus, he sent vnto him the elders of the Iewes, beseeching him that he would come and heale his seruant.

4 And when they came to Iesus, they besought him instantly, saying, He is worthy that thou shouldest doe this for him.

5 For he loueth our nation, and hath built vs a synagogue.

6 Then Iesus went with them. And when he was now not farre from the house, the Centurion sent friendes to him, saying vnto him, Lord, trouble not thy selfe: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter vnder my roofe.

7 Wherefore, I thought not my selfe worthie to come vnto thee: but say thou the word, and my seruant shalbe whole.

8 For I also am a man set vnder power, hauing vnder me souldiers: and I say vnto one, Goe, and hee goeth: and to another Come, and he commeth: and to my seruant, Doe this, and he doeth it.

9 When Iesus heard these thinges, hee marueiled at him, and turned him about, and said vnto the people that followed him, I say vnto you, I haue not founde so great faith, no, not in Israel.

10 And they that were sent, when they were returned home, founde the seruaunt whole that had bene sicke.

The Gospel on the xvi. sunday after Trinitie.

11 And it came to passe the day after, that he went into a citie called Naim: and many of his disciples went with him, and much people.

12 When he came nigh to the gate of the citie, beholde, there was a dead man caryed out, which was the onely sonne of his mother, and he was a widowe: and much people of the citie was with her.

13 And when the Lorde sawe her, he had compassion on her, and said vnto her, Weepe not.

14 And when he was come nigh, he touched the beere (and they that bare him stoode still.) And he saide, Yong man, I say vnto thee, Arise.

15 And he that was dead, sate vp, and began to speake: and he deliuered him to his mother.

16 And there came a feare on them all, and they gaue the glory vnto God, saying that a great Prophet is risen vp among vs, and verily God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went foorth throughout all Iurie, and throughout all the regions which lie rounde about.

18 *And the disciples of Iohn shewed him of all these things. Matt. 12. 2.

19 And Iohn, when he had called vnto him two of his disciples, he sent them to Iesus, saying, Art thou he that commeth, or looke wee for another?

20 When the men were come vnto him, they sayde, Iohn Baptist hath sent vs vnto thee, saying, Art thou he that commeth, or looke we for another?

21 And in that same houre he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of euill spirits, and vnto many that were blinde he gaue sight.

22 Then Iesus answering, saide vnto them, Go your way, & bring word againe to Iohn, what things ye haue seene and heard, how that the blinde see againe, the halt goe, the leapers are cleansed, the deafe heare, the dead rise, to the poore is the Gospel preached.

23 And happie is he whosoeuer shall not be offended at me.

24 And when the messengers of Iohn were departed, he began to speake vnto the people concerning Iohn: What went ye out into the wildernesse for to see? A reede shaken with the winde?

25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft rayment? Beholde, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and liue delicately, are in kings courtes.

26 But what went ye foorth to see? A Prophet? Yea, I say vnto you, and more then a Prophet.

27 This is hee of whome it is written, *Behold, I sed my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee. Mala. 3. 1.

28 For I say vnto you, among womens children is there not a greater Prophet then Iohn Baptist: neuertheless, he that is least in the kingdome of God, is greater then he.

29 And all the people that heard him, and the Publicanes, being baptized with the baptisme of Iohn, *iustified God.

a That is praised God, and acknowledged him to be most faithful, good, and mercifull.

30 But the Pharisees and Lawyers despised the counsaile of God against themselues, being not baptized of him.

31 And the Lord said, *Whereunto shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what thing are they like? Mat. 11. 16.

32 They are like vnto children sitting in the market place, and crying one to another, and saying, We haue piped vnto you, and ye haue not daunced: we haue mourned to you, and ye haue not wept.

33 For Iohn Baptiſt came, neither eating bread, nor drinking wine, and ye ſay, He hath a deuill.

34 The ſonne of man is come, eating and drinking, and ye ſay, Behold a gluttonous man, and a wine bibber, a friend of Publicanes and ſinners.

b That is, the children of wiſedome, or the wiſe which beleeue þ Goſpell, doe acknowledge the wiſedome of God therein, which the Phariſees condemne: ſo that wiſedome is þ iuſtified of her children when the Goſpel is receiued.

35 And wiſedome is iuſtified of b all her children.

36 And one of the Phariſees deſired him that he would eate with him. And hee went into the Phariſees houſe, and ſate downe to meate.

37 And beholde, a woman in that citie, which was a ſinner, when ſhe knewe that Ieſus ſate at meate in the Phariſees houſe, ſhe brought an Alabaſter boxe of oyntment:

Mar. 15.40. iohn 20,11

38 *And ſtoode at his feete behinde him, weeping, and began to waſh his feete with teares, and did wipe them cleane with the haires of her head, and all to kiſſed his feete, and anoynted them with the oyntment.

39 When the Phariſee which had bidden him, ſaw it, he ſpake within himſelfe, ſaying, If this man were a Prophet, he would ſurely know who, & what maner of woman is this that toucheth him: for ſhe is a ſinner.

40 And Ieſus anſwering, ſaid vnto him, Simon, I haue ſomewhat to ſay vnto thee. And he ſaith, Maſter, ſay on.

41 There was a certaine lender, which had two debters: the one ought fiue hundred pence, and the other fiftie.

42 When they had nothing to pay, he forgaue them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will loue him moſt?

43 Simon anſwered, and ſaid, I ſuppoſe, that he to whome hee forgaue moſt. And hee ſaid vnto him, Thou haſt truely iudged.

44 And he turned to the woman, and ſaide vnto Simon, Seeſt thou this woman? I entred into thine houſe, thou gaueſt me no water for my feete: but ſhe hath waſhed my feete with teares, and wiped them with the haires of her head.

45 Thou gaueſt me no kiſſe: but this woman, ſince the time I came in, hath not ceaſſed to kiſſe my feete.

46 Mine head with oyle thou diddeſt not annoint: but this woman hath anoynted my feete with oyntment.

47 Wherefore, I ſay vnto thee, many ſinnes are forgiuen her, for ſhe loued much: to whom litle is forgiuen, the ſame loueth litle.

48 And he ſaid vnto her, Thy ſinnes are forgiuen thee.

49 And they that ſate at meate with him, began to ſay within themſelues, Who is this that forgiueth ſinnes alſo?

50 And he ſaid to the woman, Thy faith hath ſaued thee, go in peace.

Mat.8.23. mark.4.16 22 *And it came to passe on a certaine day, that he went into a shippe, and his disciples also: and he said vnto them, Let vs goe ouer vnto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth.

23 But as they sailed, hee fell asleepe, and there came downe a storme of winde on the lake, and they were filled with water, & were in ieopardie.

24 And they came to him, & awoke him, saying, Master, master, we are lost. Then he rose, and rebuked the winde, and the Tempest of water: and they ceassed, and it waxed calme.

25 And he said vnto them, Where is your faith? And they feared, and wondred, saying one to another, Who is this? for hee commaundeth both the windes and water, and they obey him.

Matth.8.8. mark.5.4. 26 *And they sailed vnto the region of the Gadarenites, which is ouer against Galilee.

27 And when he went out to land, there met him out of the city a certaine man which had deuils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in graues.

28 When he sawe Jesus, and had cried aloude, hee fell downe before him, and with a loude voyce sayde, What haue I to doe with thee Jesus, thou sonne of God most highest? I beseech thee torment me not.

29 (For he commaunded the fowle spirit to come out of the man: for oftentimes hee had caught him, and hee was bounde with chaines, and kept with fetters: and he brake the bands, and was carried of the fiend into the wildernesse.)

30 And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he sayd, Legion: because many deuils were entred into him.

31 And they besought him that he would not command them to goe out into the deepe.

32 And there was there an heard of many swine feeding on an hil: & [b] they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them: and he suffered them.

[b] That is, the deuils.

33 Then went the deuils out of the man, and entred into the swine: & the heard ranne headlong with violence into the lake, and were choked.

34 When the heardmen sawe what was done, they fled: & when they were departed, they told it in the citie, and in the villages.

35 Therefore they came out to see what was done, and came to Jesus, and found the man, out of whom the deuils were departed, sitting at the feete of Jesus, clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

36 They also which sawe it, told them by what meanes he that was possessed of the deuils, was healed.

37 Then the whole multitude of the countrey about the Gadarenites, besought him that hee would depart from them, for they were taken with great feare: & he gate him vp into the ship, and returned backe againe.

38 Then the man, out of whome the deuils were departed, besought him that hee might be with him: but Jesus sent him away saying, 39 Go home againe to thine owne house, and shewe what ‖ thinges soeuer God hath done for thee. And he went his way, & preached throughout all the citie, what things soeuer Jesus had done vnto him.

‖ Or, what great things God hath don vnto thee.

40 And it came to passe, that when Jesus was come againe, the people receiued him: for they were all waiting for him.

41 And behold, there came a man, named Jairus, * and he was a ruler in the Synagogue, and he fel downe at Jesus feete, praying him that he would come into his house.

Mat.9.18. mar.5.22.

42 For he had but one daughter only, vpon a twelue yeres of age, and she lay a dying. (But as he went, the people thronged him.

43 And a woman, hauing an issue of blood twelue yeeres, which had spent all her substance vpon Physicions, neither could be holpen of any,

44 Came behinde him, and touched the hemme of his rayment: and immediatly her issue of blood stanched.

45 And Jesus said, Who is it that touched me? When euerie man denied, Peter & they that were with him, sayd, Master, the people thrust thee, and bere thee, & sayest thou, Who touched me?

46 And Jesus said, Some body hath touched mee: for I perceiue that vertue is gone out of me.

47 When the woman sawe that shee was not hid, shee came trembling, and fell at his feete, and tolde him before all the people, for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediatly.

48 And he sayd vnto her, Daughter, be of good comfort, thy fayth hath saued thee, Goe in peace.)

49 While he yet spake, there commeth one from the ruler of the synagogues house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead, disease not the master.

50 But when Jesus heard that word, hee answered him, saying, Feare not, beleeue only, and she shalbe made whole.

51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to goe in with him, saue Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden.

52 Euery body wept, & sorrowed for her: and he sayd, Weepe not, the damosell is not dead, but sleepeth.

53 And they laughed him to scorne, knowing that she was dead.

54 And he thrust them al out, & tooke her by the hande, and cryed, saying, Maid, arise.

55 And her spirit came againe, and shee arose straightway: and he commaunded to giue her meate.

56 And her parents were astonied: but he warned them that they should tell no man what was done.

The ix. Chapter.

2 The Apostles are sent to preach. 37 Of three that would follow Christ, but after diuers sorts: Of looking backe.

Mat.10.1. mark.3.13. and 6,7. THen * when hee had called the twelue together, gaue them power and authoritie ouer all deuils, and to heale diseases.

2 And he sent them to preach the kingdome of God, and to heale the sicke.

3 And he sayde vnto them, Take nothing to [a] your iourney, neither rodde, nor scrippe, neither bread, neither money, neyther haue two coates apiece a Because this iourney was short, and but for a time, Christ willed that they should make haste, and take nothing with them, whereby they might be letted any thing at all from the businesse.

4 And whatsoeuer house yee enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

5 And whosoeuer will not receiue you, when ye goe out of that citie, shake off the very dust from your feete, for a testimonie against them.

6 And they departed, and went thorowe the townes, preaching the Gospel, and healing euery where.

Mat.6,14. mark.14.1. 7 *And Herode the Tetrach heard of all that was done by him: and hee doubted, because that it was sayde of some, that John was risen from death:

8 And of some, that Elias had appeared: and of some, that one of the olde Prophets was risen.

9 And Herode saide, John haue I beheaded: but who is this of whome I heare such thinges? And he desired to see him.

10 And the Apostles when they returned, tolde him all that they had done. *And Mar.14.13 mark.6,35. he tooke them, and went aside into a solitarie place, nigh vnto the citie called Bethsaida, 11 which when the people knewe, they followed him: and when hee had receiued them, he spake vnto them of the kingdome of God, and healed them that had neede to be healed.

Mat.14.16 mark,6.35. iohn 6.5. 12 *And when the day began to weare away, then came the twelue, and sayde vnto him, Sende the people away, that they may goe into the villages and fieldes rounde about, and lodge, and get meate: for wee are here in a place of wildernesse.

13 But he said vnto them, Giue ye them to eate. And they sayde, We haue no moe but fiue loaues and two fishes, except we shoulde goe and buy meate for all this people.

14 And they were about fiue thousande men. And he said to his disciples, Cause them to sit downe by fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, and made them all to sitte downe.

16 And when hee had taken the fiue loaues and the two fishes, and looked vp to heauen, he blessed them, and brake them, and gaue to the disciples to set before the people.

17 And they did all eate, and were satisfied. And there was taken vp of that remained to them, twelue baskets full of broken meate.

18 *And it came to passe, as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Whome say the people that I am? Mat,16.13. mark.8.27.

19 They answering, said, John the Baptist: some say, Elias: and some say, that one of the olde Prophets is risen.

20 He sayde vnto them, But whome say ye that I am? Peter answering, sayd, Thou art that Christ, of God.

21 And he warned and commanded them to tell no man that thing:

22 Saying, * That the Sonne of man must suffer many things, and bee reprooued of the Elders, and of the high priestes and Scribes, and be slaine, & rise the thirde day. Mat,17.22. mark.8.31.

23 *And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him denie him selfe, and take vp his crosse dayly, and followe me. Mat.10.38.

24 *For whosoeuer will saue his life, shall lose it: but whosoeuer will lose his life, for my sake, the same shall saue it. Mat.10.39. mark.8,35.

25 *For what auantageth it a man, if he winne the whole worlde, and lose him selfe, or runne in danger of himselfe? Mat.16.26. mark,9,36.

26 *For whosoeuer shall bee ashamed of me, and of my wordes, of him shall the sonne of man be ashamed when he shal come in the glorie of him selfe, and of his father, and of the holy angels. Mat,10.33 mark.8.38.

27 *I tell you of a trueth, there bee some standing here, which shall in no wise taste of death, till they see the kingdome of God. Mat,26,28. mark,9,1.

28 *And it came to passe, about an eight dayes after these sayings, hee tooke Peter, and John, and James, and went vp into a mountaine to pray. Mat,27.2, mark,9.2.

29 And it came to passe as hee prayed, the fashion of his countenance was changed, and his garment shining very white.

30 And beholde, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elias, 31 That appeared in glory, and spake of his departing, which he shoulde ende at Hierusalem.

32 But Peter, and they that were with him, were heauie with sleepe: and when they awoke, they sawe his glorie, and the two men standing with him.

33 And it came to passe, as they departed from him, Peter sayde vnto Jesus, Master, it is good being here for vs, and let vs make three tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowing what he said.

34 while

34 Whyle hee thus ſpake, there came a cloud and ouerſhadowed them, and they feared, when they were come into the cloud.

35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, ſaying, This is my deare ſonne, heare him.

36 And as ſoone as the voice was paſt, Jeſus was found alone: and they kept it cloſe, and told no man in thoſe dayes any of thoſe things which they had ſeene.

Mat.17.14. mark.9.17. 37 *And it came to paſſe, that on the nexte day, when they were come downe from the hill, much people met him.

38 And behold, a man of the company cried out, ſaying, Maiſter, I beſeech thee behold my ſonne, for he is all that I haue:

39 And lo, a ſpirit taketh him, and ſuddenly he crieth, and teareth him that hee foameth againe, and with much paine departeth from him, when he renteth him.

40 And I beſought thy diſciples to caſt him out, and they could not.

41 Jeſus anſwering, ſayde, O faithleſſe and peruerſe nation, howe long ſhall I bee with you, & ſhal ſuffer you? bring thy ſonne hither.

42 As hee was yet a comming, the feend rent him, and tare him: and Jeſus rebuked the vncleane ſpirit, and healed the child, and deliuered him againe to his father.

43 And they were all amaſed at the maieſtie of God: But while they wondred euery one at al things which Jeſus did, he ſaid vnto his diſciples, Mat.17.22. mark.9.35. 44 *Let theſe ſayings ſinke downe into your eares: for it will come to paſſe, that the ſonne of mā ſhalbe deliuered into the hands of men.

45 But they wiſt not what that worde meant, and it was hid from them, that they ſhould not vnderſtand it: and they feared to aſke him of that ſaying.

Mat.18.1. mark.9.33. 46 *Then there aroſe a diſputation among them, which of them ſhould bee the greateſt.

47 When Jeſus perceiued the thought of their heart, he tooke a child, and ſet him hard by him, 48 And ſaid vnto them, Whoſoeuer ſhall receiue this child in my name, receiueth me: and whoſoeuer ſhall receiue mee, receiueth him that ſent me: For he that is leaſt among you all, the ſame ſhall be great.

Mark.9.38. 49 *And Johan anſwering, ſaid, Maiſter, we ſawe one caſting out deuils in thy name, and we forbade him, becauſe hee followeth not thee with vs.

50 And Jeſus ſayde vnto him, Forbid yee him not: for hee that is not againſt vs, is with vs.

51 And it came to paſſe, when the time was come that he ſhould be receiued vp, hee ſtedfaſtly ſet his face to goe to Hieruſalem, 52 And ſent meſſengers before his face, and they went and entred into a village of the Samaritanes, to make readie for him.

53 And they did not receiue him, becauſe his [b] face was as though he would go to Hieruſalem, [b] Becauſe they knewe that he was a Jew, and the Samaritanes could not agree with the Jewes. Joh. 4 for that they differed in religion.

54 When his diſciples, James and Johan ſawe this, they ſaid, Lord, wilt thou that wee command fire to come downe from heauen, and conſume them, euen as Elias did?

55 Jeſus turning about, rebuked them, ſaying, Ye wote not what maner ſpirit yee are of.

56 *For the ſonne of man is not come to deſtroy mens liues, but to ſaue them. And they went to another village. Matt.8.19.

57 And it came to paſſe, that as they went walking in the way, a certaine man ſaid vnto him, I will followe thee, Lord, whitherſoeuer thou goeſt.

58 And Jeſus ſayd vnto him, Foxes haue holes, & birds of the aire haue neſts: but the ſonne of man hath not where to lay his head.

59 *And he ſaid vnto another, Followe me: And the ſame ſaid, Lord, ſuffer me firſt to goe and bury my father. Mat.8.21.

60 Jeſus ſaid vnto him, Let the dead burie their dead: but goe thou and preach the kingdome of God.

61 And another ſaid, Lord, I will followe thee: but let mee firſt goe bid them farewell [c] which are at home at my houſe.

62 Jeſus ſaid vnto him, No man hauing put his hand to the plough, & looking backe, is apt to the kingdome of God.

[c] When Chriſt calleth, we may not loke at any thing which may hinder vs frō our vocation, but with all ſpede followe it.

The x. Chapter.

Hee ſendeth the ſeuentie diſciples to preach, giuing them charge how to behaue themſelues,

AFter theſe things, the Lorde appointed other ſeuentie alſo, and ſent them two and two before his face, into euery citie & place, whither he himſelf would come. The Goſpel on S. Luke the Euangeliſts day.

2 Therefore ſaid he vnto them, *The harueſt is great, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lorde of the harueſt, to ſend ‖ forth labourers into his harueſt. Mat.9.37. ‖ Or, thruſt foorth.

3 Goe your wayes: *Beholde, I ſend you forth a lambes among wolues. Mat.10.16.

4 Beare no wallet, neyther ſcrippe, nor ſhoes, and ſalute no man by the way.

5 *Into whatſoeuer houſe ye enter, firſt ſay, Peace be to this houſe. [a] Ye willeth that they ſhould diſpatche his iourney with diligence and ſpede, and not occupie themſelues about other duetie, 2.K.4.4.

6 And if the ſonne [b] of peace be there, your peace ſhall reſt vpon him: if not, it ſhall turne to you againe. Mat.10.14.

7 And in the ſame houſe tary ſtill, eating and drinking ſuch things as they haue: for the labourer is worthie of his reward. Goe not from houſe to houſe. [b] Which loueth the doctrine of peace, that is, the Goſpel.

8 *And into whatſoeuer citie ye enter, and they receiue you, eate ſuch things as are ſet before you: Mat.10.11.

9 And heale the ſicke that are therein, and ſay vnto them, The kingdom of God is come nigh vpon you.

10 But into whatſoeuer citie ye enter, and they receiue you not, go your wayes out into the ſtreetes of the ſame, and ſay,

11 *Euen

Acts 13.51 11 *Euen the very dust of your citie which cleaueth on vs, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding, bee ye sure of this, that the kingdome of God was come nigh vpon you.

12 I say vnto you, That it shalbe easier in that day for Sodome, then for that citie.

Mat.11.21 13 *Wo vnto thee Chorazin, wo vnto thee Bethsaida: for if the mightie workes had bene done in Tyre and Sidon, which haue bene done in you, they had a great while ago repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

14 Therefore it shalbe easier for Tyre and Sidon at the iudgement, then for you.

15 And thou Capernaum, which art exalted to heauen, shalt be thrust downe to hell.

Mat.10.40 ioh.13.20. 16 *He that heareth you, heareth me: & he that despiseth you, despiseth me: and he that despiseth me, despiseth him that sent me.

17 And the seuentie turned againe with ioy, saying, Lorde, euen the very deuils are subdued vnto vs through thy name.

18 And he said vnto them, I saw Satan [c] as it had bene lightning, falling downe from heauen.

[c] The power of Satan is beaten downe by preaching the Gospel.

19 Behold, I giue vnto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and ouer all maner power of the enemie: and nothing shall by any meanes hurt you.

20 But in this reioyce not, that the spirits are subdued vnto you: but rather reioyce, because your names are written in ỹ heauens.

21 The same houre Iesus reioyced in the spirit, and said, I confesse vnto thee, father, Lord of heauen and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast opened them vnto babes: euen so father, for so it pleased thee.

22 All things are giuen me of my father: no man knoweth who the sonne is, but the father: and who the father is but the sonne, and he to whom the sonne will reueale him.

The Gospel on the xiii. sunday after Trinitie. 23 And he turned vnto his disciples, and said secretly, *Happie are the eyes which see the things that ye see.

Mat.13.16. 24 For I tell you, that many Prophets & kings haue desired to see those things which ye see, and haue not seene them: and to heare those things which yee heare, and haue not heard them.

25 And beholde, a certaine lawyer stoode vp, and tempted him, saying, *Master, what Mat.22.35 shall I doe to inherite eternall life? He saide vnto him, 26 What is written in the law? how readest thou?

Deut.6.1. 27 And he answering, said, *Thou shalt loue the Lord thy God with al thy heart, and with all thy soule, and with all thy strength, Leui.19.18 and with all thy mind, * and thy neighbor as thy selfe.

28 And he said vnto him, Thou hast answered right: this doe, and thou shalt liue.

29 But he willing to iustifie himselfe, said vnto Iesus, And who is my neighbour?

30 And Iesus answering, said, A certaine man descended from Hierusalem to Iericho, and fell among theeues, which robbed him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed leauing him halfe dead.

31 And it befell that there came downe a certaine priest that same way, and when hee saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise a Leuite, when he went nigh to the place, came and looked on him, and passed vpon the other side.

33 But a certaine Samaritane as hee iourneyed, came by him: and when he sawe him, he had compassion on him, 34 And went to him, and bound vp his wounds, powring in oile and wine, and set him on his owne beast, and brought him to a common inne, and made prouision for him.

35 And on the morow when he departed, he tooke out [d] two pence, and gaue them to the host, and sayde vnto him, Take cure of him, & whatsoeuer thou spendest more, when I come againe, I will recompense thee.

[d] Which was about 12. pence of sterling money.

36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour vnto him that fell among the theeues?

37 And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Iesus vnto him, Go, and doe thou likewise.

38 Now it came to passe as they went, that he entred into a certaine village: and a certaine woman, named Martha, receiued him into her house.

39 And this woman had a sister, called Mary, which also sate at Iesus feete, and heard his word:

40 But Martha was cumbred about much seruing, and came to him, and sayde, Lorde, doest thou not care that my sister hath left me to serue alone? Bid her therefore that she helpe me.

41 And Iesus answered, and sayde vnto her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful, and troubled about many things:

42 Verily one is needefull, Mary hath chosen the good part, [e] which shall not be taken away from her.

[e] That is, the hearing of the word of God, from which it was not meet that she should be drawen hauing not alwayes opportunitie to heare the same.

The xi. Chapter.

2 Christ teacheth his disciples to pray. 14 Hee driueth out a dumbe deuill.

AND so it was, that as he was praying in a certaine place, when he ceased, one of his disciples saide vnto him, Lorde, teach vs to pray, as Iohn also taught his disciples.

2 And he said vnto them, When ye pray, say, *O our Father which art in heauen, Mark.6.9. Halowed be thy name, Thy kingdome come, Thy will be done, euen in earth also as it is in heauen.

3 Our dayly bread giue vs this day.

4 And forgiue vs our sinnes: for euen we forgiue euery man that trespasseth vs. And lead vs not into temptation, but deliuer vs from the euil.

5 And

5 And hee saide vnto them, Which of you shall haue a friend, and shall goe vnto him at midnight, and say vnto him, Friend, lend me three loaues:

6 For a frinde of mine is come out of the way to me, and I haue nothing to set before him.

7 And he from within shall answere, and say, Trouble me not, the doore is now shut, and my children are with me in bed: I can not rise and giue thee.

8 I say vnto you, Though he will not rise, and giue him, because he is his friend: yet because of his importunitie, he will rise, & giue him as many as he needeth.

Mat.7.7. mar.11.24. iohn 14.13. iames 1.10. Mat.7.7. 9 *And I say vnto you, Aske, and it shalbe giuen you: seeke, and ye shall finde: knocke, and it shalbe opened vnto you.

Mat.9.32. mar.3.20. 11 *If the sonne shall aske bread of any of you that is a father, will he giue him a stone? Or if he aske fish, will he for fish giue him a serpent?

12 Or if he shall aske an egge, will he offer him a scorpion?

13 If yee then, being euill, haue knowledge to giue good giftes vnto your children: howe much more shall your father of heauen giue the holy spirite to them that desire it of him?

The Gospel on the iij. Sunday in Lent. 14 And hee was casting out a deuil, and the same was dumbe. And it came to passe, when the deuil was gone out, the dumbe spake: and the people wondred.

Mat.9.34. 15 But some of them said, *He casteth out deuils, through Beelzebub the chiefe of the deuils.

16 And other tempting him, required of him a signe from heauen.

Mat.12.25. mar.3.44. 17 But he knowing their thoughts, saide vnto them, *Euery kingdom deuided against it selfe, is desolate: and a house deuided against a house, falleth.

18 If Satan also be deuided against himselfe, howe shall his kingdome endure? Because yee say that I cast out deuils through Beelzebub.

[The helpe of. 19 If I by ‖ Beelzebub cast out deuils, by whom do your children cast them out: therefore shall they be your iudges.

20 But if I with the finger of God cast out deuils, no doubt the kingdome of God is come vpon you.

21 When the strong man armed, keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace.

22 But when a stronger then he shal come vpon him, & ouercome him, hee taketh from him all his harnesse wherein he trusted, and deuideth his spoiles.

Mat.12.43. 24 When the vncleane spirit is gone out *of a man, he walketh through drie places, seeking rest: and finding none, hee sayeth, I will returne vnto my house, whence I came out.

Heb.6.4. 1.pet.2.20. 26 *Then goeth hee, and taketh to him seuen other spirits worse then himselfe, & they enter in, and dwell there, and the last state of that man is worse then the first.

27 And it came to passe as hee spake these things, a certaine woman of the company lift vp her voyce, and saide vnto him, Happie is the wombe that bare thee, and the pappes which thou hast sucked.

28 But he said, Yea, rather happy are they that heare the word of God, and keepe it.

Mat.12.38. 29 *When the people were gathered thicke together, he began to say, This is an euil nation: they seeke a signe, and there shall no signe be giuen them, *but the signe of Ionas the Prophet.

3.Re.10.1. 2.chro.9.1. 31 *The Queene of the South shall rise in iudgement with the men of this nation, and condemne them: for she came from the vtmost partes of the earth, to heare the wisedome of Solomon: and beholde, a greater then Solomon is here.

32 The men of Niniue shall rise in iudgement with this nation, and shall condemne them: *for they repented at the preaching of Ionas, and beholde, a greater then Ionas is here.

Ionas 3.5. Mat.5.15. mark.4.21. luke 8.16. 33 *No man when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a priuie place, neither vnder a bushell: but on a candlestiche, that they which come in, may see the light.

Mat.6.22. 34 *The [a] candle of the bodie is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single, all thy body also is ful of light, but if thine eye be euill, all thy body also is full of darkenesse.

a That is, the light.

35 Take heede therefore, that the light which is in thee, be not darkenesse.

36 If all thy body therefore be cleare, hauing no part darke: then shall it all be full of light, euen as when a candle doeth light thee with brightnesse.

37 And as he spake, a certaine Pharisee besought him to dine with him: And Iesus went in, and sate downe to meate.

38 When the Pharisee saw it, he marueiled that he had not first washed before dinner.

Mat.23.29. 39 *And the Lord said vnto him, Now do ye Pharisees make cleane the outside of the cup and the platter: but your inwarde part is full of rauening and wickednesse.

40 Ye fooles, did not hee that made that which is without, make that which is within also?

b Christ requireth here two things. First, that we be cothe ruled by our owne: nere, that we giue almes: for charitie is the perfection of the lawe.

41 But rather [b] giue almes of those things which are ‖ within: and beholde, all things are cleane vnto you.

42 But woe vnto you Pharisees: for yee tithe mint, and rue, and al maner herbs, and passe

Mat.23.6. mar.12.38. 43 Woe vnto you Pharises: for yee loue the vppermost seates in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets.

44 Woe vnto you Scribes and Pharises hypocrites: for yee are as graues which appeare not, & the men that walke ouer them, are not ware of them.

45 Then answered one of the lawyers, and saide vnto him, Master, thus saying, thou puttest vs to rebuke also.

Mat.23.4. act.15.10. 46 *And he said, Woe vnto you also ye lawyers: for yee lade men with burdens greeuous to be borne, and yee your selues touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 Woe vnto you, for ye builde the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 Truely ye beare witnesse that ye alow the deedes of your fathers: for they killed them, and ye builde their sepulchres.

49 Therefore said the wisedome of God, I wil send them Prophets & Apostles, & some of them they shall slay and persecute:

c The pure doctrine, and true vnderstanding of the Scriptures.

53 When hee thus spake vnto them, the lawyers and the Pharisees beganne to vrge him vehemently, & to prouoke him to speake many things:

54 Laying waite for him, and seeking to catch something out of his mouth, whereby they might accuse him.

The xij. Chapter.

1 The leauen of the Pharises is to be auoided. 20 Against care of earthly things.

Mat.16.5. mar.8.14. IN *the meane time, whē there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one another, he began to say vnto his disciples first of all, Beware of ỹ leauen of the Pharises, which is hypocrisie.

Mat.10.26. mar.4.22. 2 *For there is nothing couered, that shal not be vncouered, neither hid, that shall not be known.

3 Therefore, what so euer yee haue spoken in darkenesse, shall be heard in the light: and that which yee haue spoken in the eare, euen in secrete places, shalbe preached on the toppe of the houses.

a Openly, that all men may heare.

Mat.10.28. 4 *And I say vnto you my friends, Be not afraide of them that kill the body, and after that, haue no more that they can doe.

5 But I will forwarne you whom you shall feare: feare him, which after hee hath killed, hath power to cast into hell, yea, I say vnto you, feare him.

6 *Are not fiue sparrowes solde for two farthings, and not one of them is forgotten before God? Mat. 10.29.

7 But, euen the very haires of your head are numbred: Feare not therefore, yee are more of value then many sparowes.

8 *Also I say vnto you, who so euer shall confesse me before men, him shal the sonne of man knowledge also before the angels of God. Mat.10.23. luke 9.26. 2.tim.2,12.

9 But he that shall denie me before men, shalbe denied before the angels of God.

10 And who so euer shall speake a worde against the sonne of man, it shall be forgiuen him: but vnto him that blasphemeth the holy [b] Ghost, it shall not be forgiuen.

b He that shal resist against the worde of God purposely of malice, & against his owne conscience.

11 *And when they bring you vnto the Synagogues, & vnto the rulers and officers, take yee no thought how or what thing yee shall answere, or what ye shall speake: Mat.10,19. mar,13.12.

12 For the holy Ghost shall teach you in the same houre, what ye ought to say.

13 One of the companie saide vnto him, Master, speake to my brother, that he deuide the inheritance with me.

14 And he said vnto him, Man, who made me a iudge, or a deuider ouer you?

15 And he said vnto them, Take heed, and beware of couetousnesse: for no mans life standeth in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

16 And hee put forth a similitude vnto them, saying, *The ground of a certaine rich man brought forth plentifull fruits. Eccl.11.19.

17 And hee thought within himselfe, saying, What shall I doe, because I haue no roume where to bestowe my fruits?

18 And he said, This wil I do, I will pull downe my barnes, and build greater, and therein will I gather all my fruites and my goods.

19 And I wil say to my soule, Soule, thou hast much goods laide vp in store for many yeeres, take thine ease, eate, drinke, and be mery.

20 But God sayd vnto him, Thou foole, this night doe they require thy soule againe from thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast prouided?

21 So is he that gathereth riches to himselfe, and is not rich towards God.

22 And he spake vnto his disciples, Therefore I say vnto you, *Take no thought for your life what yee shall eate, neither for the body what ye shall put on. Mat.6.15. 1.pet.5.7. psal.54.26.

23 The life is more then meate, and the body is more then raiment.

24 Consider the rauens, for they neither sowe nor reape, which neither haue store-house nor barne, and notwithstanding God feedeth them: Howe much more are ye better then the fowles?

25 which

25 Which of you with taking thought, can adde to his stature one cubite?
26 If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take yee thought for the remnant?
27 Consider the Lilies howe they growe, they labour not, they spinne not: and yet I say vnto you, that Solomon in all his royaltie, was not clothed like one of these.
28 If God so clothe the grasse, which is to day in the fielde, and to morowe is cast into the furnace: howe much more will hee clothe you, O ye of litle faith?
29 And aske not yee what ye shall eate, or what ye shall drinke, neither bee ye of doubtfull minde.
30 For all such things do the people of the worlde seeke for: and your father knoweth that ye haue neede of these things.
31 But rather seeke yee after the kingdome of God, and all these things shall be added vnto you.
32 Feare not O litle flocke, for it is your fathers good pleasure to giue you a kingdome.
33 Sell that yee haue, and giue almes: *and prepare you bags which waxe not olde, Matth.6.20 euen a treasure that faileth not in the heauens, where no thiefe approcheth, neither moth corrupteth.
34 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.
35 *Let your loynes be girded about, and 1.Pet.1.13. your lightes burning,
36 And yee your selues bee like vnto men that waite for their Lord, when hee will returne from the wedding, that when hee shall come and knocke, they may open vnto him immediatly.
37 Happie are those seruants, whome the Lord when he commeth, shall finde waking: verily I say vnto you, That hee shall girde himselfe, and make them to sitte downe to meate, and will come forth, and minister vnto them.
38 And if hee shall come in the seconde watch, yea, if he shall come in the third watch, and finde them so, happie are those seruants.
Mat.24.45. 39 *This vnderstand ye, that if the good Luc.16.15 man of the house had knowen what houre the thiefe would come, he would surely haue watched, and not haue suffered his house to be broken thorow.
40 Be ye therefore ready also: for the sonne of man commeth at an houre when ye thinke not.
41 Then Peter sayde vnto him, Master, tellest thou this similitude vnto vs, or to all?
42 And the Lord sayde, Who is a faithfull and wise stewarde, whom his Lord shall make ruler ouer his houshold, to giue them their portion of meate in due season?
43 Happie is that seruant, whome his Lord when he commeth, shall finde so doing.
44 Of a trueth, I say vnto you, that he will make him ruler ouer all his substance.
45 But and if that seruant say in his heart, My Lord delayeth his comming: and shall beginne to smite the seruants and maidens, and to eate and drinke, and to be drunken,
46 The lord of that seruant will come in a day when he looketh not for him and at an houre when hee is not ware, and will hewe him in pieces, and will set him his portion with the vnbeleeuers.
47 And the seruant that knewe his masters will, and prepared not himselfe, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes.
48 But he that knewe not, [c] and did commit things worthie of stripes, shall be beaten with fewe stripes. For vnto whomsoeuer much is giuen, of him shall bee much required: and to whome men haue committed much, of him they will aske the more.
49 I am come to send fire [d] on the earth, and what is my desire, [e] if it be already kindled?
50 Notwithstanding, I must be baptized with a baptisme, [f] and how am I pained till it be ended?
51 *Suppose ye that I am come to sende peace on earth? I tell you, Nay, but rather [g] diuision.
52 For from henceforth there shall be fiue in one house deuided, three against two, and two against three.
53 The father shalbe deuided against the sonne, and the sonne against the father: the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother: the mother in law against her daughter in lawe, and the daughter in law against her mother in lawe.
54 He sayde also to the people, *when ye Mat.16.2. see a cloude rise out of the west, straightway ye say, There commeth a showre: and so it is.
55 And when yee see the South winde blow, ye say, It will be hote, and it commeth to passe.
56 Ye hypocrites, ye can discerne the face of the skie, and of the earth: but howe is it that ye doe not discerne this time?
57 Yea, and why iudge yee not of your selues what is right?
58 *when thou goest with thine aduer- Mat.5.25. sarie to the ruler: as thou art in the way, giue diligence that thou maiest be deliuered from him, lest he draw thee violently to the iudge, and the iudge deliuer thee to the sergeant, and the sergeant cast thee into prison.
59 I tell thee, Thou shalt not depart thence, till thou hast made good the vttermost mite.

[c] Ignorance will not excuse.
[d] That is, the Gospel, which is as a vehement fire, and maketh a change of things thorowe all the world.
[e] That is, but that it be.
[f] He compareth affliction and his death to baptisme.
[g] Christ is not the cause that there is destruction for the Gospel, but the wickednesse of worldlings, which by malice contemning the Gospel, be at variance with all that professe it.

Mat.10.34.

The xiij. Chapter.

8 Of the figge tree that bare no fruite 24 Fewe enter into the kingdome of Christ.

THere were present at the same season, certain men that shewed him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their owne sacrifice.

[a] Pilate murthered them as they were sacrificing.

2 And Iesus answering, sayde vnto them, Suppose yee that these Galileans were greater sinners then all the other Galileans, because they suffered such punishment?

3 I tell you, Nay: but except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

4 Or those eighteene, vpon which the tower in [b] Siloe fell, and slewe them, thinke ye that they were sinners aboue all men that dwelt in Hierusalem?

b Which tower stoode by the fishpoole or riuer Siloam in Hierusalem.

5 I tell you, Nay: but except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

6 He tolde also this similitude: A certaine man had a figge tree planted in his vineyard, and he came and sought fruite thereon, and found none.

7 Then sayde hee vnto the dresser of his vineyard, Beholde, this three yeeres I come seeking fruite in this figge tree, and finde none: cut it downe, why cumbreth it the ground?

8 And hee answering, sayde vnto him, Lorde, let it alone this yeere also, till I shall dig round about it, and dung it:

9 And if it beare fruite, thou mayest let it alone: and if it beare not, then after that thou shalt cut it downe.

10 And hee was teaching in one of their Synagogues on the Sabboth dayes.

11 And beholde, there was a woman which had a spirite of infirmitie eighteene yeeres, and was bowed together, and coulde in no wise lift vp her selfe.

12 When Iesus sawe her, he called her to him, and sayde vnto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thy disease.

13 And he layd his handes on her, and immediatly shee was made straight, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the Synagogue answered with indignation, because that Iesus had healed on the Sabboth day, and sayde vnto the people, There are sixe dayes in which men ought to worke: in them therefore come, that ye may bee healed, and not on the Sabboth day.

15 But the Lord answered him, and said, Thou hypocrite, doth not ech one of you on the Sabboth day loose his oxe or his asse from the stall, and leade him to the water?

16 And ought not this daughter of Abraham, whome Satan hath bound loe eighteene yeeres, bee loosed from this bond on the Sabboth day?

17 And when he said these things, all his aduersaries were ashamed: and all the people reioyced for all the excellent deedes that were done by him.

Mat.13.31. mar.4.31. 18 *Then said Iesus, What is the kingdome of God like? or whereto shall I compare it?

Mat.13.33. 19 *It is like a graine of mustard seede, which a man tooke, and sowed in his garden, and it grew, and waxed a great tree: and the fowles of the aire made nests in the branches of it.

20 *And againe he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdome of God? Mat.9.35.

21 It is like leauen, which a woman tooke and hid in three pecks of meale, till all was leauened.

22 *And he went thorow all townes and villages, teaching, and iourneying towards Hierusalem. Mar.6.6.

23 Then sayde one vnto him, Lord, are there fewe that be saued? and hee sayde vnto them, 24 *Striue [c] to enter in at the straite gate: for many I say vnto you, will seeke to enter in, and shall not be able. Mat.7.13.

c We must endeuour to cut off all impediments that let vs.

25 When the good man of the house is risen vp, and hath shut to the doore, and yee begin to stand without, and to knocke at the doore, saying, Lord, Lord, open vnto vs, and he shall answere, and say vnto you, I knowe you not whence you are:

26 Then shall ye beginne to say, We haue eaten and drunken in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streetes.

27 *And he shall say, I tell you, I knowe you not whence ye are, depart from me all ye that worke iniquitie. Mat.7.13.

28 There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when yee shall see Abraham, and Isahac, and Iacob, and all the Prophets in the kingdome of God, and yee your selues thrust out.

29 And they [d] shall come from the East, and from the West, and from the North, and from the South, and shall sit downe in the kingdome of God.

d The Gentiles which then were strangers.

30 *And beholde, there are last, which shall be [e] first, and there are first, which shall be [f] last. Mat.19.30.

e That is, the Gentiles, which beleeue the Gospel, that were called after the Iewes.

f The Iewes, which though they had the lawe, yet refusing the Gospel, are shut out.

31 The same day came there certaine of the Pharisees, saying vnto him, Get thee out, and depart hence, for Herode will kill thee.

32 And he said vnto them, Goe ye and tell that fore, Behold, I cast out deuils, and I do cures to day and to morow, and the third day I shall be perfected.

33 Neuertheless, I must walke to day and to morowe, and the day following, for it cannot bee that a Prophet perish out of Hierusalem.

34 *O Hierusalem, Hierusalem, which killest the Prophets, and stonest them that are sent vnto thee, howe often would I haue gathered thy children together, as a henne doth gather her yong vnder her wings, and ye would not? Mat.23.37.

35 Beholde, your [g] house is left vnto you desolate. Verily I say vnto you, ye shall not see me, vntill the time come that yee shall say, Blessed is hee that commeth in the name of the Lord.

g That is, the temple and Hierusalem should be destroyed.

The xiiij. Chapter.

1 To feast the poore. 16 Of the great supper. 34 The salt of the earth.

And

The Gospel on the xvij. Sunday after Trinitie.

AND it came to passe, as he went into the house of one of the chiefe Pharisees to eate bread on the Sabboth day, they were watching him.

2 And behold, there was a certaine man before him which had the dropsie.

3 And Jesus answering, spake vnto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heale on the Sabboth day?

4 And they held their peace. And he tooke him, and healed him, and let him goe,

5 And answered them, saying, Which of you shall haue an asse or an ore fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the Sabboth day?

6 And they could not answere him againe to these things.

7 Hee put foorth also a similitude to the ghests, when he marked howe they chose out the chiefe roumes, saying vnto them,

8 When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not downe in the highest roume: least a more honourable man then thou bee bidden of him,

9 And hee that bade thee and him come, and say to thee, Giue this man roume: and thou then beginne with shame to take the lowest roume.

Pro.25.7. 10 *But when thou art bidden, goe and sit in the lowest roume, that when hee that bade thee commeth, hee may say vnto thee, Friend, sit vp higher: then shalt thou haue worship in the presence of them that sitte at meate with thee.

Mat.23.12. luke 18.14 11 *For whosoeuer exalteth himselfe, shal be brought lowe: and he that humbleth himselfe, shalbe exalted.

Eccl.4.7. pro.3.9. 12 Then said he also to him that bade him to meate, *When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbors: least they also bid thee againe, and a recompence be made thee.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call the poore, the maimed, the lame, and the blinde, 14 And thou shalt be happie, for they cannot recompense thee: For thou shalt bee recompensed at the resurrection of the iust men.

15 When one of them that sate at meate also heard these things, hee sayde vnto him, Mat.22.2. apoc.19.9. *Happy is hee that shall eate bread in the kingdome of God.

The Gospel on the ij. Sunday after Trinitie. 16 Then sayde hee vnto him, A certaine man ordeined a great supper, and bade manie:

17 And sent his seruant at supper time, to say to them that were bidden, Come, for all things are nowe ready.

18 And they all at once began to make excuse: The first sayd vnto him, I haue bought a piece of ground, and I must needes goe and see it: I pray thee haue me excused.

19 And another said, I haue bought fiue yoke of oxen, and I goe to proue them: I pray thee haue me excused.

20 And another sayde, I haue married a wife: and therefore I cannot come.

21 And the seruant returned, and shewed his master these things. Then the goodman of the house being angry, sayd to his seruant, Goe out quickly into the broade streetes and lanes of the citie, and bring in hither the poore, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blinde.

22 And the seruant sayd, Lorde, it is done as thou hast commaunded, and yet there is roume.

23 And the Lorde said vnto the seruant, Go out into the high wayes and hedges, and a compell them to come in, that my house may be filled.

a By the power of Gods worde ye shal be preached.

24 For I say vnto you, that none of those men which were bidden, shal taste of my supper.

25 There went a great company with him: and he returned, and said vnto them, 26 *If any man come to me, & hate b not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his owne life also, he cannot be my disciple.

Mat.10.37. luke 9.22.

b Wee must cast away all affection and desire that draweth vs from Christ.

27 *And whosoeuer doeth not beare his crosse, and come after me, cannot be my disciple.

Mat.10.38. mar.8.24.

28 For which of you disposed to builde a tower, sitteth not downe before, and counteth the cost, whether hee haue sufficient to performe it?

29 Least at any time after he hath layde the foundation, and is not able to performe it, all that behold it, begin to mocke him, 30 Saying, This man began to builde, and was not able to make an end.

31 Or what king going to make battell against another king, sitteth not downe first, and casteth in his minde whether he be able with ten thousand, to meete him that commeth against him with twentie thousand?

32 Or els, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and desireth conditions of peace.

33 So likewise, whosoeuer he be of you, that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple.

34 *Salt is good: but if the salt haue lost the saltnesse, wherein shall it be seasoned?

Mat.5.13. mar.9.50.

35 It is neither good for the land, nor yet for the dunghill: but men cast it out at the doores. He that hath eares to heare, let him heare.

The xv. Chapter.

The great mercie of God is set foorth in the parable of the lost sheepe.

THen resorted vnto him all the Publicanes and sinners, for to heare him.

The Gospel on the ij. Sunday after Trinitie.

2 And the Pharisees and Scribes murmured, saying, He receiueth sinners, and eateth with them.

3 But hee put foorth this parable vnto them, saying,

Mar. 18, 12. 4 * What man of you, hauing an hundred sheepe, if he lose one of them, doeth not leaue ninetie and nine in the wildernesse, and goe after that which is lost, vntill hee finde it?

5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, reioycing.

6 And when he commeth home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying vnto them, Reioyce with me: for I haue found my sheepe which was lost.

7 I say vnto you, that like wise ioy shall be in heauen ouer one sinner that repenteth, more then ouer ninetie & nine iust persons, which neede no repentance.

a That piece of this money, is somewhat more then fiue pence of olde sterling money

8 Either what woman hauing a ten pieces of siluer, if shee lose one piece, doeth not light a candle, and sweepe the house, & seeke diligently till she finde it?

9 And when she hath found it, she calleth her friendes and her neighbours together, saying, Reioyce with me, for I haue founde the piece which I had lost.

10 Likewise I say vnto you, there is ioy in the presence of the angels of God ouer one sinner that repenteth.

11 And he said, A certaine man had two sonnes:

12 And the yonger of them said to his father, Father, giue me the portion of the substance that to me belongeth. And he deuided vnto them his liuing.

13 And not many dayes after, when the yonger sonne had gathered al that he had together, hee tooke his iourney into a farre countrey, and there wasted his substance with riotous liuing.

14 And when he had spent all, there arose a great dearth in that land, and he began to lacke.

15 And going, he ioyned himselfe to a citizen of that countrey: and he sent him into his fields to feede swine.

16 And he would faine haue filled his belly with the cods that the swine did eate: and no man gaue vnto him.

17 And when hee came to himselfe, hee said, How many hired seruãts of my fathers haue bread ynough and spare, and I perish with hunger?

18 I will arise and goe to my father, and will say vnto him, Father, I haue sinned against heauen, and before thee, 19 And am no more worthy to bee called thy sonne: make mee as one of thy hired seruants.

20 And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ranne, and fell on his necke, and all to kissed him.

21 And the sonne said vnto him, Father, I haue sinned against heauen, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy thy sonne.

22 But the father saide to his seruants, Bring forth the best garment, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feete, 23 And bring hither that fat calfe, and kill it, and let vs eate, and be merry.

24 For this my sonne was dead, and is aliue againe: hee was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry.

25 The elder brother was in the field: and when he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard minstrelsie and daunsing, 26 And called one of his seruants, and asked what those things meant.

27 And he said vnto him, Thy brother is come, & thy father hath killed the fat calfe, because he hath receiued him safe and sound.

28 And he was angry, and would not goe in: therefore came his father out, and entreated him.

29 He answering, said to his father, Loe, these many yeeres doe I serue thee, neither brake I at any time thy commaundement, and yet thou neuer gauest me a kidde, that I might make merry with my friends:

30 But as soone as this thy sonne was come, which hath deuoured thy liuing with harlots, thou hast for his pleasure killed that fat Calfe.

31 And he said vnto him, Sonne, thou art euer with me, and all that I haue is thine.

32 It was meete that wee shoulde make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is aliue againe: and was lost, and is found.

The xvj. Chapter.

13 No man can serue two masters. 19 The rich glutton, and Lazarus.

AND hee said vnto his disciples, There was a certaine rich mã which had a Steward, and the same was accused vnto him that he had wasted his goods. The Gospel on the ix. Sunday after Trinitie,

2 And when he had called him, hee sayd vnto him, Howe is it that I heare this of thee? Giue accompts of thy stewardship: for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 The Steward saide within himselfe, what shall I doe, for my master taketh away from me the stewardship? I can not digge, and to begge I am ashamed.

4 I wote what to doe, that when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receiue me into their houses.

5 So when hee had called all his masters detters together, hee saide vnto the first, Howe much owest thou vnto my master?

6 And he sayd, An hundred measures of oyle. And he said vnto him, Take thy bil, and sit downe quickly, and write fiftie.

7 Then said he to another, Howe much owest thou? And hee sayd, An hundred measures of wheate. Hee saide vnto him, Take thy bill, and write fourescore.

8 And a He speaketh after the common sort, not that such unrighteousnesse is praise worthie, but because it is thought wisedome in the eyes of the world.

b Lay vp your treasure in heauen.

c For that riches are euill of themselues, but that for the most part they be occasion of euill.

d God for their euils shall receiue you into the euerlasting e reward your good workes, not for the worthinesse thereof, but for his promise sake.

8 And the Lord commended the vniust Steward, because hee had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their nation wiser then the children of light.

9 And I say vnto you, Make you a friends of the b vnrighteous Mammon, that when ye shall haue neede, they may receiue you into the euerlasting c habitations.

10 He that is faithfull in that which is least, is faithfull also in much: and he that is vnrighteous in the least, is vnrighteous also in much.

11 So then, if ye haue not bene faithfull in the vnrighteous Mammon, who shall trust you in the true treasure?

12 And if yee haue not bene faithfull in that which is anothers mans, who shal giue you that which is your owne?

13 No seruant can serue two masters, for either he shall hate the one, and loue the other: or els he shall leane to the one, and despise the other: ye cannot serue God & Mammon.

14 All these things heard the Pharisees also which were couetous: and they mocked him greatly.

15 And he sayde vnto them, Ye are they which iustifie your selues before men, but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men, is abomination in the sight of God.

Mat.6.24. mar.11.12. 16 *The lawe and the Prophets reigned vntill Iohn, and since that time the glad tydings of the kingdome of God is preached, and euery man striueth to goe in.

Mat.5.18. 17 *Easier it is for heauen and earth to passe away, then one title of the lawe to fayle.

Mat.5.32. 1.cor.7.11. 18 *Whosoeuer forsaketh his wife, and marrieth another, committeth aduiterie: and hee that marrieth her that is diuorced from her husbande, committeth aduiterie also.

The Gospel on the first Sunday after Trinitie.

19 There was a certaine rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine white, and fared very deliciously euery day.

20 And there was a certaine begger named Lazarus, which was layde at his gate full of sores:

21 And desiring to be refreshed with the crummes which fell from the rich mans boord, and no man gaue vnto him: but the dogs came and licked his sores.

e The kingdome of heauen.

22 And it came to passe that the begger dyed, and was caried by the Angels into e Abrahams bosome: the rich man also dyed, and was buried.

23 And being in hell in torments, when he had lifted vp his eyes, he seeth Abraham a farre off, and Lazarus in his bosome:

24 And he cried, and sayd, Father Abraham, haue mercie on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and coole my tongue, for I am tormented in this flame.

25 But Abraham sayd, Sonne, remember that thou in thy life time receiuedst thy pleasure, and likewise Lazarus paines, but nowe is he comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 Besides all this, betweene vs and you there is a great gulfe stedfastly set, so that they which would goe from hence to you, can not, neither haue they passage to vs that would come from thence.

27 Then he sayd, I pray thee therefore father, that thou wouldest send him to my fathers house:

28 For I haue fiue brethren, that he may witnesse vnto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.

29 Abraham sayth vnto him, They haue Moses and the Prophets, let them heare them.

30 And he sayde, Nay, father Abraham: but if one come vnto them from the dead, they will repent.

31 He sayd vnto him, If they heare not Moses and the Prophets, f neither will they beleeue though one rose from death.

f We must seeke for truth in gods word, and not of the dead.

The xvij. Chapter.

1 Christ teacheth to auoyde offences. 30 The maner of Christes comming.

4 And though he sinne against thee seuen times in a day, and seuen b times in a day turne againe to thee, saying, I repent, thou shalt forgiue him.

b That is, often as many times.

5 And the Apostles sayde vnto the Lorde, Increase our faith.

6 *And the Lord sayd, If ye had faith as much as a graine of mustard seede, ye should say vnto this Sycamine tree, Be thou plucked vp by the roote, and be thou planted in the sea, and it should obey you. Mat.17.20.

7 But which of you, hauing a seruaunt plowing, or feeding cattel, will say vnto him by and by when he were come from the field, Go and sit downe at the table?

8 And will not rather say vnto him, Dresse where with I may suppe, and gird vp thy selfe, and serue me, till I haue eaten and dronken: and afterward thou shalt eate and drinke?

9 Doeth he thanke that seruant because he did the things that were commanded vnto him? I trowe not.

10 So likewise yee, when yee shall haue done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are vnprofitable seruants: wee haue done that which was our duetie to doe.

11 And so it was, as he went to Hierusa-

The Gospel on the xiiij. Sunday after Trinitie.

lem, that hee passed thorowe the middes of Samaria and Galilee.

12 And as he entred into a certaine village, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stoode a farre off, 13 And they put foorth their voyces, and sayd, Jesu master, haue mercy on vs.

14 When he sawe them, he sayd vnto them, *Goe shewe your selues vnto the c Priestes. And it came to passe, that as they went, they were cleansed.

15 And one of them, when hee sawe that he was healed, turned backe againe with a loude voyce, glorifying God, 16 And fell downe on his face at his feete, giuing him thankes: and the same was a Samaritane.

17 And Jesus answering, said, Are there not ten cleansed, but where are those nine?

18 There are not found that returned againe, to giue glory to God, saue onely this stranger.

19 And he sayd vnto him, Arise, goe thy way, thy faith hath made thee whole.

20 When he was demaunded of the Pharisees when the kingdome of God commeth, he answering them, sayd, The kingdome of God commeth not with obseruation.

21 Neither shal they say, Lo here, lo there: for behold, the kingdome of God is d within you.

22 And he sayde vnto the disciples, The dayes wil come when ye shal desire to see one e day of the sonne of man, & ye shall not see it.

23 And they shall say to you, See here, see there: goe not after them, nor folow them.

24 For as the lightning that lightneth out of the one part that is vnder heauen, shineth vnto the other part which is vnder heauē: so shall also the sonne of man be in his f day.

25 But first must he suffer many things, and be disalowed of this nation.

26 *And as it was in the dayes of Noe: so shal it be also in the dayes of the sonne of mā.

27 They did eate and drinke, they married wiues, and were maried, euen vnto the same day that Noe went into the arke: and the flood came, and destroyed them all.

28 *Likewise also as it was in the dayes of Lot, they did eate, they drank, they bought, they solde, they planted, they builded:

29 But euen the same day that Lot went out of Sodome, it rained fire and brimstone from heauen, and destroyed them all:

30 Euen thus shall it be in the day when the sonne of man is reuealed.

31 At that day ‖ hee which shall be on the house top, and his stuffe in the house, let him not come downe to take it out: and let not him that is in the fielde, turne backe againe likewise to the things that he left behinde.

32 *Remember Lots wife.

33 *Whosoeuer will go about to saue his life, shall lose it, and whosoeuer shall lose his life, shall quicken it.

34 *I tell you, in that night there shalbe two in one bed, the one shalbe receiued, the other shalbe left alone.

35 Two women shall bee grinding together: the one shall be receiued, and the other left alone.

36 Two men shall be in the fielde: the one shall be receiued, and the other forsaken.

37 And they answering, sayd vnto him, *where, Lord? He sayd vnto them, Where soeuer the body shalbe, thither will also the Eagles g be gathered together.

The xviij. Chapter.

1 Christ teacheth to continue in prayer. 31 Hee foreshewith his death.

AND he put forth a parable vnto them, to this ende, that men ought *alwayes to pray, and not to be *weary:

1.Thes.5.17.

2 Saying, There was in a certaine citie a certaine Judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man.

a The Greke worde signifieth not to faynte backe, as cowardes in warre, or in danger.

3 And there was a certaine widow in the same citie, and she came vnto him, saying, ‖ Auenge me of mine aduersarie:

‖ or, doe me iustice against mine aduersarie,

4 And he would not for a while. But afterward he said within him selfe, Though I feare not God, nor care for man,

5 Yet because this widowe much troubleth me, I wil auenge her, least she come at the last, and make me weary.

6 And the Lord sayd, Heare what the vnrighteous Judge saith.

7 And shall not God auenge his elect, which cry day & night vnto him, yea, though b he deferre them?

b That is, although her terme slowe in reuenging their iniuries.

8 I tell you that hee will auenge them, and that quickly. Neuertheless, when the sonne of man commeth, shall hee finde faith on the earth?

9 And he tolde this parable vnto certaine which trusted in themselues that they were righteous, and despised other:

The Gospel on the xj. Sunday after Trinitie.

10 Two men went vp into the temple to pray, the one a Pharisee, & the other a Publicane.

11 The Pharisee stoode and prayed thus with himselfe, God, I thanke thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, vniust, adulterers, or as this Publicane.

12 I fast twise in the weeke, I giue tithe of all that I possesse.

13 And the Publicane standing a farre off, would not lift vp his eyes to heauen: but smote vpon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.

14 I tell you, this man departed home to his house iustified rather then the other: *for euery one that exalteth himselfe, shalbe brought lowe: & he that humbleth himselfe, shalbe exalted.

Mat.23.12. luke 14.11.

15 They brought vnto him also c infants, that hee should touch them: when his disciples sawe, they rebuked them.

c The worde signifieth sucking babes.

16 But Jesus, when he had called them d vnto him, sayde, Suffer litle children to come d That is, those that carp the babes.

come vnto me, and forbid them not: for vnto
e Both infants in age, & also in simplicitie & plainenesse. such belongeth the kingdome of God.
17 Verily I say vnto you, whosoeuer shal not receiue the kingdome of God as a f little child, shall in no wise enter therein.
f Laying aside all malice and enuie.
18 And a certaine ruler asked him, saying, Good master, what ought I to doe to possesse eternall life?
Mat.19.16. 19 Iesus sayde vnto him, why callest thou me good? None is good, saue God only.
20 Thou knowest the commandements, Exo.20.13 Doe not commit adulterie, Doe not kill, Do not steale, Doe not beare false witnesse, Honour thy father and thy mother.
21 And hee sayde, All these haue I kept from my youth vp.
22 When Iesus heard that, he sayde vnto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: Sell all that thou hast, and distribute vnto the poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen, and come, folowe me.
23 When he heard this, he was very sory: for he was very rich.
24 When Iesus saw that he was very sory, he sayd, How hardly shall they that haue money enter into the kingdome of God?
25 For it is easier for a Camel to goe thorow a needles eye, then for a rich man to enter into the kingdome of God.
26 And they that heard it, said, And who then can be saued?
27 And hee sayde, The things which are vnpossible with men, are possible with God.
Mar.19.27. mar.10.28. 28 Then Peter sayd, Lo, we haue forsaken all, and followed thee.
29 He sayd vnto them, Verily I say vnto you, there is no man that hath forsaken house, either parents, either brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdome of Gods sake, 30 Which shal not receiue manifold more in this world, and in the world to come life euerlasting.
The Gospel on Quinquagesima Sunday. 31 Iesus tooke vnto him the twelue, and sayd vnto them, Behold, we goe vp to Hierusalem, and all things shalbe fulfilled to the sonne of man that are written by the prophets.
Mat.20.17. mar.10.32. 32 For he shalbe deliuered vnto the Gentiles, and shalbe mocked, and spitefully entreated, and spitted on:
33 And when they haue scourged him, they will put him to death, and the third day he shall rise.
34 And they vnderstoode none of all these things: and this saying was hid from them, so that they perceiued not the things which were spoken.
Mat.20.29. mar.10.46. 35 And it came to passe, that as hee was come nigh vnto Iericho, a certaine blinde man sate by the wayes side, begging.
36 And when he heard the people passe by, he asked what it meant.
37 And they sayd vnto him, that Iesus of Nazareth passeth by.
38 And he cryed, saying, Iesu, thou sonne of Dauid, haue mercy on me.
39 And they which went before, rebuked him, that hee should hold his peace: but he cryed so much the more, Thou sonne of Dauid, haue mercy on me.
40 And Iesus standing, commanded him to be brought vnto him: and when hee was come neere, he asked him, 41 Saying, What wilt thou that I shall do vnto thee? And he sayd, Lord, that I may receiue my sight.
42 And Iesus sayde vnto him, Receiue thy sight, thy faith hath saued thee.
43 And immediatly he receiued his sight, and followed him, glorifying God: and all the people when they sawe it, gaue praise vnto God.

The xix Chapter.

Christ rideth to Hierusalem, and weeping ouer it, foresheweth the destruction thereof.

ND Iesus entred in, and went thorow Iericho.
2 And behold, there was a man named Zacheus, which was the chiefe among the Publicanes, & was rich also:
3 And he sought meanes to see Iesus what he should be, and could not for the preasse, because he was little of stature.
4 And he ranne before, and climed vp into a wild figge tree, to see him: for he was to come that way.
5 And when Iesus came to the place, hee looked vp, and saw him, and sayd vnto him, Zache, come downe at once: for to day I must abide at thy house.
6 And he came downe hastily, & receiued him ioyfully.
7 And when they all saw it, they murmured, saying, that he was gone in to tary with a man that is a sinner.
8 And Zache stoode forth, and sayde vnto the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I giue to the poore, and if I haue taken from any man by forged ‖ cauillation, I restore him foure folde.
‖ Or, false accusation.
9 Iesus sayd vnto him, This day is saluation come to a this house: because that he is also the child of b Abraham.
10 For the sonne of man is come to seeke and to saue that which was lost.
11 And as they heard these things, he added, and spake a parable, because hee was nigh to Hierusalem, & because they thought that the kingdome of God should shortly appeare.
12 Hee sayde therefore, A certaine noble man went into a farre countrey, to receiue for himselfe a kingdome, and to come againe.
13 And when he had called his tenne seruants, he deliuered the ten ‖ pieces of money, saying vnto them, c Occupie till I d come.
‖ Or, pounds.
14 But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, Wee will not haue this man to reigne ouer vs.
15 And it came to passe, that when hee had returned, receiuing his kingdome, then he c God will not haue his seruants idle, nor his graces hid in them.

d That is, till his second coming, which shalbe when he commeth to iudgement.

hee commaunded these seruants to bee called vnto him, to whom he had giuen the money, that he might knowe how much euery man had gained in occupying.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy piece hath gayned ten pieces.

17 And he said vnto him, Well, thou good seruant: because thou hast been faithfull in a very little thing, haue thou authoritie ouer ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lorde, thy piece hath encreased fiue pieces.

19 And to the same he sayde, Be thou also ruler ouer fiue cities.

20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy piece, which I haue layd vp in a napkin:

21 For I feared thee, because thou art a straite man: thou takest vp that thou laydest not downe, and reapest that thou diddest not sowe.

22 Then he saith vnto him, Of thine owne mouth will I iudge thee, thou euill seruant. Knewest thou that I am a straite man, taking vp that I layd not downe, and reaping that I did not sowe:

23 And wherefore gauest not thou my money into ỹ banke, y at my comming I might haue required mine owne with vantage?

24 And he sayd vnto them that stoode by, Take from him that piece, and giue it to him that hath ten pieces.

25 And they said vnto him, Lord, he hath ten pieces.

Mat.13.12. and 25.29. mark.4.25. luk.8.18.

26 For I say vnto you, *That vnto euery one which hath, shalbe giuen: and from him that hath not, shalbe taken away euen that he hath.

27 Moreouer, these mine enemies which would not that I should reigne ouer them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

28 And when hee had thus spoken, hee went forward, ascending vp to Hierusalem.

Matt.21.1 marke.11.1

29 *And it came to passe, when hee was come nigh to Bethphage and Bethanie, besides the mount which is called Olivet, hee sent two of his disciples, 30 Saying, Go ye into the towne which is ouer against you, in the which at your entring ye shal find a Colt tied, whereon yet neuer man sate: loose him, & bring him hither.

31 And if any man aske you, why doe yee loose him? Thus shall ye say vnto him, Because the Lord hath neede of him.

32 They that were sent, went their way, and found euen as he had said vnto them.

33 And as they were a loosing the Colt, the owners thereof sayde vnto them, Why loose ye the Colt?

34 And they said, For the Lord hath neede of him.

Matt.21.7 iohn.12.14

35 *And they brought him to Iesus: and their garments being cast on the Colt, they set Iesus thereon.

36 And as he went, they spredde their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was now come nigh to the going, as went of the mount Olivet, the whole multitude of the disciples began reioycing to praise God with a loude voyce, for all the miracles that they had seene, 38 Saying, Blessed be the king that commeth in the name of the Lord: peace in heauen, and glory in the highest.

39 And some of the Pharisees of the company sayd vnto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40 He answering, sayde vnto them, I tell you, that if these would hold their peace, then shal the stones cry immediatly.

41 And when he was come neere, hee beheld the citie, and wept on it, 42 Saying, If thou hadst knowen those things which belong vnto thy peace, euen in this thy day: but now are they hidde from thine eyes.

The Gospel on the x. Sunday after Trinitie. Mat.24.1. mark.13.1.

43 For the dayes shall come vpon thee, that thine enemies also shall cast a banke about thee, and compasse thee round, & keepe thee in on euery side, 44 And make thee euen with the ground, and thy children which are in thee: and they shall not leaue in thee one stone vpon an other, because thou knowest not the time of thy visitation.

45 *And he went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therin, & them that bought,

47 And hee taught daily in the temple. But the high priestes and the Scribes, and the chiefe of the people went about to destroy him, 48 And could not finde what to doe: for all the people did hang of him, when they heard him.

The xx. Chapter.

17 Christ the stone reprooued. 41 Christ the sonne of Dauid,

AND *it came to passe, that on one of those daies, as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the Gospell, the high Priests and the Scribes came vpon him, with the elders,

Mar.11.27. mar.11.27.

2 And spake vnto him, saying, Tel vs, by what authoritie doest thou these things? Either who is hee, that gaue thee this authoritie?

3 He answering, sayde vnto them, I will also aske you one word, and answere me.

4 The baptisme of *John, was it from heauen, or of men?

a That is, the whole ministerie of Iohn.

5 And they reasoned with them selues, saying, If we shall say, From heauen, he will say, Why then beleeued ye him not?

6 But and if we say, Of men, all the people will stone vs: For they be perswaded that John is a Prophet.

7 And

7 And they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.

8 And Iesus said vnto them, Neither tell I you by what authoritie I do these things.

9 Then began he to put foorth to the people this parable: A certaine man planted a vineyard, and let it foorth to husbandmen, and went himselfe into a straunge countrey for a great season.

Esai.5.1. Ier.2.21. mat.21.33. mark.12.1.

10 And when the time was come, he sent a seruant to the husbandmen, that they should giue him of the fruit of the vineyard. But they, when they had beaten him, sent him away emptie.

11 And againe, hee sent yet another seruant: but they, when they had beaten him also, and entreated him shamefully, sent him away emptie.

12 Againe, hee sent the third, and when they had wounded him also, they cast him out.

13 Then saide the Lorde of the vineyarde, what shal I do? I will send my deare sonne: it may be they will reuerence him when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned within themselues, saying, This is the heire, come, let vs kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 And when they had cast him out of the vineyard, they killed him. What then shal the Lorde of the vineyard do vnto them?

16 Hee shall come and destroy those husbandmen, and shal let out his vineyard to other. When they heard this, they sayde, God forbid.

Ps.118.22 17 And he beheld them, and saide, What is this then that is written, The stone that the builders disalowed, the same is become the head of the corner?

b Why the corner stone, that maketh vnite, is vsed of Christ, who is called of the Iewes.

18 Whosoeuer shall stumble vpon that stone, shall be broken: but on whomsoeuer it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

19 And the high Priests and the Scribes the same houre went about to lay hands on him, and they feared the people: for they perceiued that he had spoken this similitude against them.

20 And they watched him, and sent forth spies, which should faine themselues righteous men, that they might take holde of his wordes, to deliuer him vnto the power and authoritie of the deputie.

Mat.22.16. mar.12.13. 21 And they asked him, saying, Maister, we know that thou saiest and teachest right, neither considerest thou the outward appearance of any man, but teachest the way of God truely:

22 Is it lawfull for vs to giue tribute vnto Cesar, or no?

23 When he had perceiued their craftines, he said vnto them, Why tempt ye me?

24 Shew me a penie: whose image and superscription hath it? They answering, said, Cesars.

25 And he said vnto them, Giue then vnto Cesar the things which belong vnto Cesar, and vnto God, the things that be Gods.

Rom. 13.7.

26 And they could not reproue his saying before the people: and they marueiled at his answere, and held their peace.

27 Then came to him certaine of the Sadducees (which deny that there is any resurrection) and they asked him,

Mat.22.23. mar.12.18.

28 Saying, Maister, Moses wrote vnto vs, If any mans brother die, hauing a wife, Deut.25.5. and he die without children, that euen his brother should take his wife, and raise vp seede vnto his brother.

29 There were therefore seuen brethren: and the first, when he had taken a wife, died without children.

30 And the second tooke her to wife, and he died childelesse.

31 And the third tooke her, and in like maner the seuen: and left no children behinde them, and died.

32 Last of all the woman died also.

33 Now in the resurrection, whose wife of them is she? for seuen had her to wife.

34 Iesus answering, said vnto them, The children of this worlde marrie wiues, and are married:

c That is all that remaine in the world, & are abiding therein.

35 But they which shall be counted worthie to enioy that worlde, and the resurrection from the dead, do not marrie wiues, neither are married:

36 For neither can they die any more, for they are equall vnto the Angels, and are the sonnes of God, in as much as they are the children of the resurrection.

37 And that the dead be raised, Moses Exod.3.6. also shewed beside the bramble bush, when hee calleth the Lorde, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isahac, & the God of Iacob.

38 For hee is not a God of dead, but of liuing: for all liue vnto him.

39 Then certaine of the Pharisees answering, said, Maister, thou hast well said.

40 And after that, durst they not aske him any question at all.

41 And he said vnto them, How say they that Christ is Dauids sonne?

Mat.22.42. mar.12.35.

42 And Dauid himselfe saith in the booke of the psalmes, The Lord said vnto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, Psal.110.1.

43 Till I make thine enemies thy foote stoole.

44 Dauid therefore calleth him Lord, and how is he then his sonne?

d For he knew is not Lorde but his father, & therefore it followeth that Christ is God.

45 Then in the audience of all the people, he said vnto his disciples,

46 Beware of the Scribes, which will go in long robes, and loue greetings in the Mat.23.6. mar.12.38. markets, and the highest seates in the Synagogues, and the chiefe roume at feasts, 47 Which deuoure widowes houses, vnder colour of long prayers: the same shall receiue greater damnation.

1 Of the ende of the world.

Mat.12.41. AND he looked vp, & sawe the rich men, which cast their gifts into the treasurie.

2 He sawe also certaine poore widowe which threwe in thither two mites.

3 And he said, Of a truth I say vnto you, that this poore widowe hath cast in more then they all.

4 For all these haue of their superfluitie cast in vnto the offerings of God: but she of her pouertie hath cast in all the liuing that she had.

Mat.24.1. mar.13.1. luke 19.43. 5 *And vnto some that spake of the temple, howe it was garnished with goodly stones and gifts, he said,

6 As for those things which ye behold, the dayes will come, in the which there shal not be left one stone vpon another, that shall not be throwne downe.

7 And they asked him, saying, Master, when shall these things be? and what signe will there be, when these things shall come to passe?

8 And he said, Take heed that ye be not deceiued: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ, & the time draweth neere: go ye not therefore after them.

9 But when ye shall heare of warres and seditions, be not afraid: for these things must first come to passe, but the end followeth not by and by.

10 Then said he vnto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdome against kingdome:

Mat.24.8. mark.13.9. 11 *And great earthquakes shall be in diuerse places, and hungers, and pestilences, and fearefull things: and great signes shall there be from heauen.

12 But before all these, they shal lay their hands on you, & persecute you, deliuering you vp to the Synagogues, and into prisons; and shall bring you vnto kings, and rulers, for my names sake.

13 And it shall turne to you for a testimoniall.

Luk.12.11 mat.10.19. mar.13.11. 14 *Bee at a sure point therefore in your hearts, not to studie before what ye shall answere.

15 For I will giue you a mouth and wisdome, where against all your aduersaries shal not be able to speake, nor resist.

16 Yea, ye shalbe betraied also of your parents, & brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends, and some of you shall they put to death.

17 And hated shall ye be of all men for my names sake.

Mat.10.30. 18 *And there shall in no case one haire of your head perish.

19 Possesse yee your soules by your *patience.

* That is, possesse their soules in patience, vnto whom God giueth a reward vnto the perfite, and vnto the rest.

20 And when ye shal see Hierusalem beseged with an hoste, then be sure that the desolation of the same is nigh.

Mat.24.15. 21 Then let them which are in Iurie, flee to the mountaines, and let them which are in the middes of it, depart out, and let not them that are in other countreys, enter therein.

22 For these bee the dayes of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.

23 But woe vnto them that are with child, and to them that giue sucke in those dayes, for there shall be great distresse in the lande, and wrath ouer this people.

24 And they shall fall through the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captiue into all nations, and Hierusalem shall be troden downe of the Gentiles, vntil the time of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

25 And there shall bee signes in the Sunne, and in the Moone, & in the starres, and vpon the earth trouble among the nations, with perplexitie, the sea and the waues roaring:

26 Mennes hearts failing them for feare, and for looking after those things which are comming on the worlde: for the powers of heauen shalbe shaken.

27 And then shal they see the sonne of man comming in a cloude, with power and great glorie.

28 And when these things begin to come to passe, then looke vp, & lift vp your heades, for your redemption draweth nigh.

Rom.8.23.

29 And he shewed them a similitude, Behold the figge tree, and all the trees, 30 when they shoot forth their buddes, yee beholding, know of your owne selues that sommer is then nigh at hand.

31 So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to passe, bee ye sure that the kingdome of God is nigh.

32 Verily I say vnto you, this generation shall in no wise passe, till all be fulfilled.

33 Heauen and earth shall passe, but my words shall in no wise passe.

34 Take heed to your selues, least at any time your hearts bee ouercome with surfetting, and drunkennes, and cares of this life, and so that day come vpon you vnawares.

35 For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

36 Watch ye therefore, at all times praying, that yee may bee accompted worthie to escape all these things that shall come, & that ye may stand before the sonne of man.

33 And hee sayde vnto him, Lorde, I am ready to goe with thee both into prison, and to death.

34 *And hee sayde, I tell thee Peter, the Cocke shall in no wise crowe this day, before that thou shalt thrise denie that thou knowest me. Mat.26.34. mar.14.30. iohn 13.38.

35 *And he said vnto them, When I sent you without wallet, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, No. Mat.10.9.

36 Then said he vnto them, But nowe he that hath a wallet, let him take it vp, and like wise his scrip: and he that hath none, let him sell his coate, and buy a sword.

37 For I say vnto you, that yet the same which is written must be performed in mee, which is, *Euen among the wicked was he reputed: For those things which are written of me, haue an ende. Esai.53.12.

38 And they sayde, Lord, beholde, here are two swordes. And he sayde vnto them, It is ynough.

39 *And he came out, and went as he was wont to mount Oliuet, and his disciples followed him. Mat.26.36. mar.14.32.

40 *And when hee came to the place, hee sayd vnto them, Pray, lest yee fall into temptation. Mat.26.41. mar.14.38.

41 And hee was pulled away from them about a stones cast, and kneeled downe, and prayed, 42 Saying, Father, if thou wilt, remoue this cup from me, neuertheless, not my will, but thine be done.

43 And there appeared an Angel vnto him from heauen, comforting him.

44 And hee was in an *agonie, and hee prayed more earnestly, and his sweate was like droppes of blood, trickling downe to the ground. * Yet all the powers of Gods wrath and indignation were against him.

45 And when he rose vp from prayer, and was was come to his disciples, hee founde them sleeping for heauinesse, 46 And sayde vnto them, Why sleepe yee? Rise, and pray, lest ye fall into temptation.

Mat.26.47. Mar.14.43 iohn 18.3. 47 While he yet spake, behold, there came a companie, and hee that was called Iudas, one of the twelue, went before them, & prased nigh vnto Iesus, to kisse him.

48 But Iesus saide vnto him, Iudas, betraiest thou the sonne of man with a kisse?

49 When they which were about him, saw what would follow, they said vnto him, Lord, shall we smite with sword?

50 And one of them smote the seruant of the high Priest, and tooke away his right eare.

51 Iesus answered, and saide, Suffer ye thus farre foorth. And when hee touched his eare, he healed him.

52 Then Iesus said vnto the high priests and ‖rulers of the temple, & the elders which were come to him, Be ye come out as vnto a theefe, with swordes and staues?

‖Or, captaines.

53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched foorth no handes against mee: But this is euen your very houre, and the power of darkenesse.

Mat.26.57. mar.14.53. iohn 18.24. 54 * Then tooke they him, and ledde him, and brought him to the high Priests house, and Peter followed a farre off.

Mat.26.69. mar.14.66. iohn 18.26 55 * And when they had kindled a fire in the middes of the hall, and were set downe together, Peter also sate downe among them.

56 But when a certaine wench beheld him as he sate by the fire, and earnestly looked vpon him, she said, This same fellow was also with him.

57 And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

58 And after a while another saw him, and sayde, Thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of an houre after, another affirmed, saying, Verily this fellow was with him also: for he is of Galilee.

60 And Peter sayde, Man, I wote not what thou sayest. And immediately while he yet spake, the Cocke crew.

61 And the Lord turned backe, and looked vpon Peter: and Peter remembred the word

Mat.26.34 iohn 18.27. of the Lord, how he had sayd vnto him, * Before the Cocke crowe, thou shalt denie mee thrise.

62 And Peter went out, and wept bitterly.

63 And the men that held Iesus, mocked him, and smote him.

64 And when they had blindfolded him, they strooke him on the face, and asked him, saying, Areede, who is he that smote thee?

65 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

Mat.27.1. mark.15.1. iohn 18.28. 66 * And assoone as it was day, the elders of the people, and the high Priestes, and the Scribes came together, and ledde him into their councell, saying, 67 Art thou hee Christ? Tell vs. And he said vnto them, If I tell you, you will not beleeue in any wise.

68 And if I aske you, you will not in any wise answere me, nor let me goe.

69 Hereafter shall the sonne of man sit on the right hand of the power of God.

70 Then saide they all, Art thou then the sonne of God? He said, Ye say that I am.

71 And they sayd, what need we any further witnesse? For we our selues haue heard of his owne mouth.

The xxiij. Chapter.

Iesus is accused before Pilate, and sent to Herode.

AND the whole multitude of them arose, and led him vnto Pilate.

The Gospel on the thursday next before Easter.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, Wee founde this fellowe peruerting the people, * and forbidding to giue tribute to Cesar, saying that he is Christ a king.

Mat.22.21. mar.12.17.

3 * And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the king of the Iewes? He answered him, and said, Thou sayest it.

Mat.27.11. mark.15.2. iohn 18.33.

4 Then said Pilate to the high priests and to the people, I finde no fault in this man.

5 And they were the more fierce, saying, He moueth the people, teaching throughout all Iurie, and began at Galilee, euen to this place.

6 When Pilate heard mention of Galilee, hee asked whether the man were of Galilee.

7 And as soone as he knew that he belonged vnto Herods iurisdiction, he sent him to Herode, which was also at Hierusalem at that time.

8 And when Herode saw Iesus, he was exceeding glad, for he was desirous to see him of a long season, because hee had heard many things of him, and he trusted to haue seene some miracle done by him.

9 Then hee questioned with him many words, but he answered him nothing.

10 The high Priests and Scribes stoode forth, and accused him stoutly.

11 And Herode with his men of warre despited him, and when hee had mocked him, he arayed him in a white clothing, and sent him againe to Pilate.

12 * And the same day Pilate and Herode were made friends together, for before they were at variance betweene themselues.

Mat.27.23. mar.15.14. iohn 18.38.

13 And Pilate, when hee had called together the high Priests, and the rulers, and the people, 14 Sayde vnto them, Yee haue brought this man vnto me, as one that peruerteth the people, and beholde, I hauing examined him before you, haue found no fault in this man, of those things whereof ye accuse him.

15 No, nor yet Herode: for I sent you to him, and loe, nothing worthie of death is done to him.

16 I

16 I will therefore chasten him, and let him goe.

17 For of necessitie he must haue let one loose vnto them at the feast.

18 And all the people cried aloude, saying, Away with him, and deliuer to vs Barabbas, 19 Which for a certaine insurrection made in the citie, & for murder was cast in prison.

20 Pilate therefore spake again to them, willing to let Iesus loose.

21 But they cried, saying, Crucifie him, crucifie him.

22 He said vnto them the third time, Why what euill hath he done? I haue found no cause of death in him, I will therefore chasten him, and let him goe.

23 And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified: and the voices of them, and of the high priestes, preuailed.

24 And Pilate gaue sentence that it should be as they required.

25 And hee let loose vnto them him that for insurrection and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired, and he deliuered Iesus to their will.

Mat.27.32. mar.15.21.

26 ¶ And as they leade him away, they caught one Simon of Cyrene, comming out of the fielde, and on him layde they the crosse, that he might beare it after Iesus.

27 And there followed him a great compasse of people, and of women, which also bewailed and lamented him.

28 But Iesus turning backe vnto them, said, Ye daughters of Hierusalem, weepe not for mee, but weepe for your selues, and for your children.

29 For beholde, the dayes are comming, in the which they shall say, Happie are the barren, and the wombes that neuer bare, and the paps which neuer gaue sucke.

30 Then shall they begin to say to the mountaines, * Fall on vs, and to the hilles, Couer vs.

Hos.10.8. apo.6.16.

31 For if they doe these things in a moyst tree, what shall be done in the drie?

Mat.27.38.

32 * And there were other two euill doers ledde with him, to be put to death.

Mat.27.38. mar.15.27. Ioh.19.18.

33 * And after that they were come to the place which is called Caluarie, there they crucified him, and the euill doers, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.

34 Then saide Iesus, Father, forgiue them, for they wote not what they doe: And they parted his rayment, and cast lots.

35 And the people stoode, beholding, and the rulers mocked him with them, saying, Hee saued other men, let him saue himselfe, if he be hee Christ the chosen of God.

36 The souldiers also mocked him, comming to him, and offering him vineger, 37 And saying, If thou be the king of the Iewes, saue thy selfe.

38 And a superscription was written ouer him, with letters of Greeke, and Latine, and Hebrewe, THIS IS THE KING OF THE IEWES.

39 And one of the euill doers, which were hanged, railed on him, saying, If thou bee Christ, saue thy selfe and vs.

40 But the other answering, rebuked him, saying, Fearest thou not God, seeing thou art in the same damnation?

41 And we truely are righteously punished, for we receiue according to our deedes, but this man hath done nothing amisse.

42 And he said vnto Iesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdome.

Mat.17.25. mar.9.11. luke 9.22.

43 And Iesus saide vnto him, Verely I say vnto thee, to day shalt thou be with me in paradise.

44 And it was about the sixth houre, and there was a darke vaile ouer all the earth, vntill the ninth houre.

45 And the Sunne was darkened, and the vaile of the temple was rent, euen thorowe the middes.

Psal.30.6.

46 And when Iesus had cryed with a loude voice, he said, Father, into thy handes I will commende my spirite: And when he thus had said, he gaue vp the ghost.

47 When the Centurion sawe that was done, he glorified God, saying, Verely this was a righteous man.

Iob.10.6.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, when they sawe the things which were done, smote their breastes, and returned.

49 And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Galilee, stoode afarre off, beholding these things.

The Gospel on the Monday in Easter.

50 * And behold, there was a man named Ioseph, a counseller, and hee was a good man, and a iust,

Mat.27.24. mar.15.43. Ioh.19.38.

51 (The same had not consented to the counsell and deede of them) which was of Arimathea, a citie of the Iewes, which same also waited for the kingdome of God.

52 He went vnto Pilate, and begged the body of Iesus.

53 And when he had taken it downe, hee wrapped it in a linnen cloth, and laide it in a sepulchre that was hewen in stone, wherein neuer man before was laide.

54 And that day was the preparing of the Sabboth, and the Sabboth drewe on.

55 The women that followed after, which had come with him from Galilee, beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid.

56 And they returned, & prepared sweete odours and ointmentes, but rested the Sabboth day, according to the commandement.

The xxiiij. Chapter.

1 Christ appeareth to the two disciples that went to Emaus.

Mar.16.1. Ioh.20.21.

Vpon the * first day of the Sabboths, very early in the morning they came vnto the sepulchre, bringing the sweete odours which they had prepared,

* there is the same law in the text.

and other women with them.

2 And they founde the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

3 And they went in, but found not the body of the Lord Jesu.

4 And it came to passe, as they were amazed thereat, beholde, two men stoode by them in shining garments.

5 And as they were afraide, and bowed downe their faces to the earth, they saide vnto them, why seeke yee the liuing among the dead?

Mat.17.23. mar.9.31. luke 9.22.

6 He is not here, but is risen. Remember how hee spake vnto you when he was yet in Galilee,

7 Saying, The Sonne of man must bee deliuered into the handes of sinfull men, and be crucified, and the thirde day rise.

8 And they remembred his wordes,

9 And returned from the sepulchre, and tolde all these things vnto those eleuen, and to all the remnant.

10 It was Marie Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary Jacobi, and other that were with them, which told these things vnto the Apostles.

11 And their wordes seemed to them layned things, neither beleeued they them.

Ioh. 10.6.

12 *Then arose Peter, and came vnto the sepulchre, and when he had looked in, he sawe the linnen clothes layd by themselues, and departed, wondring in himselfe at that which was come to passe.

The Gospel on the Mũday in Easter weeke.

13 And beholde, two of them went that same day to a village called Emaus, which was from Hierusalem about threescore furlongs.

Mat.16.12. b That is, but.

14 And they talked together of all these things that had come to passe.

15 And it came to passe, that while they communed together, and reasoned, Jesus himselfe drewe neere, and went with them.

16 But their eyes were holden, that they should not know him.

17 And he saide vnto them, what maner of communications are these that yee haue one to another as ye walke, and are sad?

18 And the one of them, whose name was Cleophas, answering, saide vnto him, Art thou onely a stranger in Hierusalem, and hast not knowen the things which are come to passe there in these dayes?

19 Hee saide vnto them, what thinges? And they saide vnto him, Of Jesus of Nazareth, which was a Prophet, mightie in deede and word before God and all the people, 20 And how the high Priests and our rulers deliuered him to be condemned to death, and haue crucified him.

21 But wee trusted that it had bene hee which shoulde haue redeemed Israel: and as touching all these thinges, to day is euen the thirde day since they were done.

22 Yea, and certaine women also of our company made vs astonied, which came early vnto the sepulchre, 23 And when they founde not his body, they came, saying that they had seene a vision of Angels, which say that he was aliue.

24 And certaine of them which were with vs, went to the sepulchre, and founde it euen so as the women had said, but him they sawe not.

25 And he saide vnto them, O fooles, and slowe of heart, to beleeue all that the Prophets haue spoken.

26 Ought not Christ to haue suffred these things, and to enter into his glory?

27 And he beganne at Moses, and all the Prophetes, and throughout interpreted vnto them in all the Scriptures, those things which were written of him selfe.

28 And they drewe nigh vnto the village, whither they went: and hee made as though he would haue gone further.

29 And they constrained him, saying, Abide with vs, for it draweth toward euen, and the day is farre passed. And hee went in to tarry with them.

30 And it came to passe, as he sate at meate with them, hee tooke bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gaue to them.

c This word blessed, Signifieth here nothing else, but to giue thanks as appeareth by many places of Scripture. Luke 22.

31 And their eyes were opened, and they knewe him, and hee vanished out of their sight.

32 And they sayde one vnto another, Did not our hearts burne within vs, while hee talked with vs by the way, and opened to vs the Scriptures?

33 And they rose vp the same houre, and returned againe to Hierusalem, and founde the eleuen gathered together, and them that were with them, 34 Saying, The Lorde is risen indeede, and hath appeared vnto Simon.

35 And they told what things were done in the way, and how hee was knowen of them in the breaking of the bread.

The Gospel on the tuesday in Easter weeke. Mat.16.12. ioh. 20.19.

36 And as they thus spake, Jesus himselfe stoode in the middest of them, and saith vnto them, Peace be vnto you.

37 But they were abashed and afraid, and supposed that they had seene a spirit.

38 And hee saide vnto them, why are yee troubled, and why doe thoughtes arise in your hearts?

39 Beholde my handes and my feete, that it is euen I my selfe: handle me and see, for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me haue.

40 And when hee had thus spoken, hee shewed them his handes and his feete.

41 And while they yet beleeued not for ioy, and wondered, he saide vnto them, Haue ye here any meate?

42 And they offered him a piece of a broyled fish, and of an hony combe.

43 And hee tooke it, and did eate before them.

44 And hee saide vnto them, These are the wordes which I spake vnto you, while I was yet with you, that all must needes be fulfil-fulfilled which were written of mee in the Law of Moses, and in the Prophets, and in the Psalmes.

45 Then opened he their ‖ wits, that they might vnderstand the Scriptures,

46 And saide vnto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoued Christ to suffer, and to rise from death the thirde day:

47 And that repentance and remission of sinnes shoulde be preached in his Name among all nations, and must beginne at Hierusalem.

48 And ye are witnesses of these things.

‖Or, minds.

49 *And beholde, I will send the promise of my father vpon you: But tarie ye in the citie of Hierusalem, vntill ye bee endued with power from on high. Ioh. 15.26. acts, 1.4.

50 And he ledde them out into Bethanie, and lift vp his handes, and blessed them.

51 * And it came to passe, as hee blessed them, hee departed from them, and was caried vp into heauen. Mar. 10.19. acts. 1.9.

52 And when they had worshipped him, they returned to Hierusalem, with great ioy:

53 And were continually in the Temple, praysing and landing God.

Here endeth the Gospel by Saint Luke.

The Gospel by Saint Iohn.

The first Chapter.

1 The diuinitie, humanitie, and office of Christ. 15 The testimonie of Iohn. 39 The calling of Andrewe, Peter, Philip, and Nathanael.

The Gospel on Christmas day.

IN the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, & ‖ God was that Word.

‖ Or, and that worde was God. Gen. 1.1.

2 * The same was in the beginning with God.

3 All thinges were made by it, and without a it, was made nothing that was made.

a Without Christ no creature was made.

4 In it was life, and the life was the light of men.

5 And the light shineth in the darkenesse, and the darkenesse comprehendeth it not.

6 * There was a man sent from God, whose name was Iohn:

Matth. 3.1. mark. 1.2. luke 3.2.

7 The same came for a witnesse, that hee shoulde beare witnesse of the b light, that all men through him might beleeue.

b That is, of Christ, which is the true light.

8 Hee was not that light, but was sent to beare witnesse of the light.

9 That light was the true light, which lighteth euery man that commeth into the world.

10 He was in the world, * and the worlde was made by him, and the worlde knewe him not. Hebr. 11.4.

11 He came into his owne, and his owne receiued him not.

12 But as many as receiued him, to them gaue he c power to be the sonnes of God, euen to them that beleeued on his Name, c Soueraigne, mightie, or liberall.

13 Which ‖ were borne not of bloud, nor of the will of the flesh, nor yet of the will of man, but of God.

‖ Or, was made.

14 * And the same worde became d flesh, and dwelt among vs (and we sawe the glorie of it, as the glorie of the onely begotten Sonne that came from the Father) full of grace and trueth. Matt. 1.16. luke 2.7.

d That is to say, Man.

15 Iohn beareth witnesse of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, Hee that commeth after mee, is preferred before me, for he was ‖ before me.

‖ Or, worthier then I, Colos. 1.19.

16 And of his * fulnesse haue all we receiued, and grace e for grace.

e That is, God doeth fauour vs, and giueth grace to so many as beleeue in Christ, and are become his members, that God in his Sonne is well pleased. 1. Ioh. 4.12. 1. tim. 6.16.

17 For the Lawe was giuen by Moses, but grace and trueth came by Iesus Christ.

18 *No man hath seene God at any time, the onely begotten Sonne, which is in the bosome of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 And this is the recorde of Iohn, when the Iewes sent Priestes and Leuites from Hierusalem to aske him, What art thou?

The Gospel on the iiij. Sunday in Aduent.

20 And hee confessed, and denied not, and said plainely, I am not that Christ.

21 And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he saith, I am not. Art thou that Prophet? And he answered, No.

22 Then saide they vnto him, What art thou, that wee may giue an answere to them that sent vs? what sayest thou of thy selfe?

23 * Hee saide, I am the voyce of a crier in the wildernes: Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the Prophet Esaias. Esay 40.3. matth. 3.3. luke 3.4.

24 And they which were sent, were of the Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, and sayde vnto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neyther ‖ a Prophete?

‖ Or, that Prophet.

26 Iohn answered them, saying, I baptize with water, but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not,

27 * He it is, which though he came after me, was before me, whose shoes latchet I am not worthie to vnlooce. Matth. 3.1. mar. 1.7. luke 3.16. acts. 19.4.

28 These things were done in ‖ Bethabara beyonde Iordaine, where Iohn was baptizing.

‖ Or, some reade, Bethania.

29 The next day, Iohn seeth Iesus comming vnto him, and sayeth, Beholde the Lambe of God, which taketh away the sinne of the world.

30 This is he of whom I saide, After me commeth a man, which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And I knewe him not: but that hee should bee declared to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water.

Matt. 3. 16. mar. 1. 10. luke 3. 22. 32 *And Iohn bare record, saying, I sawe the Spirit descending from heauen, like vnto a Doue, and it abode vpon him.

33 And I knewe him not: but he that sent mee to baptize with water, the same sayde vnto me, vpon whom thou shalt see the spirite descending, and tarrying still on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the holy Ghost.

34 And I sawe, and bare record, that this is the sonne of God.

35 The next day after, Iohn stood againe, and two of his disciples.

36 And when he beheelde Iesus walking, he saith, Beholde the Lambe of God.

37 And the two disciples heard him speake, and they followed Iesus.

38 And Iesus, when hee turned about, and sawe them following him, sayeth vnto them, what seeke yee? They saide vnto him, Rabbi, (which is to say if one interprete it, Master) where dwellest thou?

39 Hee saith vnto them, Come and see. They came, and sawe where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the †tenth houre.

† That was about two houres before night.

40 One of the two which heard Iohn speake, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peters brother.

41 The same findeth his brother Simon first, and saith vnto him, We haue founde the Messias, which is by interpretation, the ‖anoynted,

‖Or, the Christ.

42 And brought him to Iesus. And when Iesus beheelde him, hee saide, Thou art Simon the sonne of Iona, thou shalt bee called Cephas, which is by interpretation, a stone.

43 The day following, Iesus would goe foorth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith vnto him, Follow me.

44 Philip was of Bethsaida, out of the citie of Andrew and Peter.

45 Philip findeth Nathanael, and sayeth vnto him, Wee haue founde him of whome Gen. 49. 18. *Moses in the Lawe and the *Prophets did write, Iesus of Nazareth the sonne of †Ioseph.

esay. 4. 2. † He speaketh after the common opinion, for most men supposed him to be Ioseph's sonne.

46 And Nathanael saide vnto him, Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith vnto him, Come and see.

47 Iesus sawe Nathanael comming to him, and saith of him, Beholde a right Israelite, in whom is no guile.

48 Nathanael saith vnto him, whence knowest thou me? Iesus answered, and said vnto him, Before that Philip called thee, being vnder the figge tree, I sawe thee.

49 Nathanael answered, and saith vnto him, Rabbi, thou art euen the very Sonne of God, thou art the king of Israel.

50 Iesus answered, and saide vnto him, Because I said vnto thee, I sawe thee vnder the figge tree, thou ‖beleeuest: thou shalt see greater things then these.

‖Or, beleeuest thou?

51 And hee saith vnto him, verily, verily I say vnto you, hereafter shall yee see heauen open, and the Angels of God ascending and descending vpon the sonne of man.

The ij. Chapter.

Christ turneth water into wine.

AND the thirde day was there a mariage in Cana ‖a citie of Galilee, and the mother of Iesus was there.

The Gospel on the ij. Sunday after the Epiphanie.

‖Or, towne.

2 And both Iesus was called and his disciples vnto the marriage.

3 And when they wanted wine, the mother of Iesus saith vnto him, They haue no wine.

4 Iesus saith vnto her, woman, what haue I to doe with thee? mine houre is not yet come.

5 His mother saith vnto the ‖ministers, whatsoeuer he saith vnto you, doe it.

‖Or, seruants.

6 And there were set there six water pots of stone, after the maner of the purifying of the Iewes, conteyning two or three ‖firkins apiece.

‖Or, measures.

7 Iesus saith vnto them, Fill the water pots with water. And they filled them vp to the brimme.

8 And hee saith vnto them, Draw out nowe, and beare vnto the gouernour of the feast. And they bare it.

9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine (and knewe not whence it was, but the ministers which drew the water knewe) the gouernour of the feast calleth the bridegrome,

10 And saith vnto him, Euery man at the beginning doeth set foorth good wine, and when the ghestes haue well drunke, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine vntill now.

11 This beginning of miracles did Iesus in Cana of Galilee, and shewed his glory: and his disciples beleeued on him.

12 After this he went downe to Capernaum, and his mother, & his brethren, and his disciples, & there continued not many dayes.

13 And the Iewes Passeouer was at hand, and Iesus went vp to Hierusalem, 14 And found sitting in the Temple those that solde oxen, and sheepe, and doues, and changers of money.

15 And when he had made as it were a scourge of small cordes, he drone them all out of the Temple, with the sheepe and oxen, and powred out the changers money, and ouerthrew the tables:

16 And saide vnto them that solde doues, Haue these thinges hence, and make not my fathers house an house of marchandise.

17 And his disciples remembred that it was

Psal.69.10. was written, The zeale of thyne house hath euen eaten me.

18 Then answered the Iewes, and sayde vnto him, What token shewest thou vnto vs, seeing that thou doest these things?

19 Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Mat.26.61. and 27.40. mar.14.58. and 15.29. *Destroy this temple, and in three dayes I will reare it vp.

20 Then said the Iewes, Fourtie and sixe yeeres was this Temple a building, & wilt thou reare it vp in three dayes?

21 But he spake of the Temple of his body.

22 When therefore hee was risen from death, his disciples remembred that he thus had said: and they beleeued the Scripture, and the words which Iesus had said.

23 When hee was in Hierusalem at the Passeouer, in the feast day, many beleeued on his name, when they saw his miracles which he did.

24 But Iesus did not commit him selfe vnto them, because he knew all men, 25 And needed not that any should testifie of man: for he knew what was in man.

The iiii. Chapter.

3 Christ teacheth Nicodemus. 16 The loue of God toward the world.

The Gospel on Trinitie Sunday.

THere was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Iewes:

2 The same came to Iesus by night, and sayde vnto him, Rabbi, wee knowe that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God bee with him.

3 Iesus answered, and said vnto him, Verily, verily I say vnto thee, except a man be borne from aboue, he cannot see the kingdome of God.

4 Nicodemus saith vnto him, Howe can a man be borne when he is olde? can hee enter the second time into his mothers wombe, and be borne?

5 Iesus answered, Verily, verily I say vnto thee, except a man bee borne of water and of the spirit, hee can not enter into the kingdome of God.

6 That which is borne of the flesh, is flesh, and that which is borne of the spirit, is spirit.

7 Marueile not thou that I saide vnto thee, Ye must be borne from aboue.

8 The winde bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it commeth, and whither it goeth: So is every one that is borne of the spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered, and saide vnto him, How can these things be?

10 Iesus answered, and said vnto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things?

11 Verily, verily I say vnto thee, wee speake that we do know, and testifie that we haue seene: and ye receiue not our witnesse.

12 If I haue told you earthly things, and ye beleeue not: how shall ye beleeue if I tell you of heauenly things?

13 And no man hath ascended vp to a heauen, but he that came downe from heauen, euen the sonne of man which is in a heauen.

14 *And as Moses lift vp the serpent in the wildernesse; euen so must the sonne of man be lift vp:

15 That whosoeuer beleeueth in him, should not perish, but haue eternal life.

16 *† For God so loued the world, that he gaue his onely begotten sonne: that whosoeuer beleeueth in him, should not perish, but haue euerlasting life.

17 For God sent not his sonne into the world to condemne the world: but that the b world through him might be saued.

18 He that beleeueth on him, is not condemned: but he that beleeueth not, is condemned already, because he hath not beleeued in the name of the onely begotten sonne of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, * that light is come into the world, and men loued darkenesse rather then light: because their deedes were euill.

20 For euery one that euil doeth, hateth the light, neither commeth to the light, least his deedes should be reproued.

21 But he that doeth truely, commeth to the light, that his deedes may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

22 After these things, came Iesus & his disciples into the land of Iurie, and there he tarried with them, and d baptized.

23 *And Iohn also was baptizing in Aenon, neare to Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, & were baptized.

24 For Iohn was not yet cast into prison.

25 And there arose a question betweene Iohns disciples and the Iewes, about purifying.

26 And they came vnto Iohn, and sayde vnto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Iordane, *to whome thou hast witnesse, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him.

27 Iohn answered, and said, A man can receiue nothing, except it be giuen him from heauen.

28 Yee your selues are witnesses, howe that I sayde, *I am not that Christ, but am sent before him.

29 He that hath the bride, is ‖ bridegroome: but ‖ the friend of the bridegroome, which standeth and heareth him, reioyceth greatly because of the bridegroomes voyce. This my ioy therefore is fulfilled.

30 He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 He that commeth from on high, is aboue all: he that is of the earth, is earthly, a No man hath bin or can know the mysteries of Christes kingdome, but by Christ himselfe.

b This is sometime taken for the whole nation of mankind, and sometime for the elect, as Rom. 5.19. 2.Cor.5.19. and so Christ was no Prophet, but onely to his owne nation.

7 Christ wearied, asketh water of the woman of Samaria. 19. The liuely water.

After that the Lord knew howe the Pharisees had heard that Iesus made and baptized moe disciples then Iohn,

2 (Though that Iesus himselfe baptized not, but his disciples:)

3 He left Iurie, and departed againe into Galilee.

4 For it was so that he must needes go thorow Samaria.

5 Then commeth he to a citie of Samaria, which is called Sychar, neere to the possession * that Iacob gaue to his sonne Ioseph.

Gen. 33.19 and 48.22. Ios. 24.32.

6 And there was Iacobs well. Iesus then being wearie of his iourney, sate thus on the well: and it was about the a sixth houre.

a That is, twelue of the clocke.

7 And there commeth a woman of Samaria to drawe water: Iesus saith vnto her, Giue me drinke.

8 For his disciples were gone away vnto the towne to buy meate.

9 Then sayeth the woman of Samaria vnto him, How is it that thou, being a Iew, askest drinke of me, which am a woman of Samaria? For the Iewes meddle not with the Samaritanes.

10 Iesus answered, and sayd vnto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saieth to thee, Giue mee drinke: thou wouldest haue asked of him, and hee would haue giuen thee water of life.

11 The woman saith vnto him, Syr, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deepe: from whence then hast thou that water of life?

12 Art thou greater then our father Iacob, which gaue vs the well, and he himselfe dranke thereof, and his children, and his cattell?

13 Iesus answered, and saide vnto her, Whosoeuer drinketh of this water, shal thirst againe:

14 But whosoeuer drinketh of the water that I shall giue him, shall neuer be more a thirst: but the water that I shall giue him, shalbe in him a well of water springing vp into euerlasting life.

15 The woman sayeth vnto him, Syr, giue me of that water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.

16 Iesus sayth vnto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered, and sayd vnto him, I haue no husband. Iesus sayde vnto her, Thou hast well sayde, I haue no husband.

18 For thou hast had fiue husbands: and he whom thou now hast, is not thy husband: In that saydest thou truely.

19 The woman sayth vnto him, Syr, I perceiue that thou art a Prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped in this mountaine, and ye say, that * in Hierusalem is the place where men ought to worship. Deut. 12.6.

21 Iesus saith vnto her, Woman, beleeue me, the houre commeth, when yee shall neither in this mountaine, nor yet at Hierusalem worship the father.

22 * Ye worship ye wot not what: wee know what we worship: for saluation commeth of the Iewes. 4. Reg. 17. 29.

23 But the houre commeth, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the father in spirit, and in trueth: for such the father also requireth to worship him.

24 * God is a spirit, and they that worship him, must worship him in spirite, and in the trueth. 2. Cor. 3.17

25 The woman sayth vnto him, I wote that Messias commeth, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell vs all things.

26 Iesus sayeth vnto her, I that speake vnto thee, am he.

27 And immediatly came his disciples, and maruelled that hee talked with the woman: Yet no man saide, What seekest thou, or, why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her water pot, and went her way into the citie, and sayth to the men, 29 Come, see a man which tolde mee all things that euer I did: Is not hee that Christ?

30 Then they went out of the citie, and came vnto him.

31 In ỹ meane while his disciples prayed him, saying, Maister, eate.

32 He said vnto them, I haue meate to eate that ye wot not of.

33 Therefore said his disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eate?

34 Iesus saith vnto them, My meate is that I doe the will of him that sent me, and finish his worke.

35 Say not ye, There are yet foure moneths, and then commeth harueste? Behold, I say vnto you, Lift vp your eyes, and looke on the regions: * for they are white alreadie vnto harueste. Matt. 9.37. luke 10.2.

36 And

36 And he that reapeth, receiueth wages, and gathereth fruite vnto life eternall: that both he that soweth, and hee that reapeth, might reioyce together.

37 And herein is the saying true, That one soweth, and another reapeth.

38 I sent you to reape that, whereon yee bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entred into their labours.

39 Many of the Samaritanes of that citie beleeued on him, for the saying of the woman, which testified, That he tolde mee all that euer I did.

40 So, when the Samaritanes were come vnto him, they besought him that hee would tarrie with them: and hee abode there two dayes.

41 And many mo beleeued, because of his owne word:

42 And sayd vnto the woman, Now we beleeue, not because of thy saying: for wee haue heard him our selues, and know we that this is euen that Christ, the Sauiour of the world.

43 After two dayes hee departed thence, and went away into Galilee.

Mat.13.58 marke 6.4. luke 4.24.

44 *For Iesus him selfe testified, that a Prophet hath none honour in his owne countrey.

45 Then when hee was come into Galilee, the Galileans receiued him, when they had seene all the things that he did at Hierusalem at the feast: for they went also vnto the feast day.

The Gospel on the xix. Sunday after Trinitie.

46 *So Iesus came againe into Cana of Galilee, where hee made the water wine. And there was a certaine ruler, whose sonne was sicke at Capernaum.

47 When the same heard that Iesus was come out of Iurie into Galilee, he went vnto him, & besought him that he would come downe, and heale his sonne: for he was euen at the point of death.

48 Then sayd Iesus vnto him, Except ye see signes and wonders, ye will in no wise beleeue.

49 The ruler sayth vnto him, Syr, come downe or euer that my sonne die.

50 Iesus sayth vnto him, Goe thy way, thy sonne liueth. And the man beleeued the word that Iesus had spoken vnto him, and he went his way.

51 And as hee was nowe going downe, the seruants met him, and told him, saying, Thy sonne liueth.

52 Then enquired hee of them the houre when he began to amend: and they sayd vnto him, Yesterday at the seuenth houre the feuer left him.

53 So the father knew, that it was done the same houre, in the which Iesus sayd vnto him, Thy sonne liueth: and hee beleeued, and all his houshold.

54 This is againe the second miracle that Iesus did, when he was come out of Iurie into Galilee.

The v. Chapter.

Christ healeth on the Sabboth day the man that was sicke thirtie and eight yeeres.

Leuit.23.2. deut.16.1.

AFter this, there was a feast day of the Iewes, and Iesus went vp to Hierusalem.

a Where sheep were solde: Or, els by the sheepe poole, that is, where they washed sheep, or where sheepe dranke.

2 And there is at Hierusalem by the a sheepe market, a poole, which is called in the Hebrue tongue Bethesda, hauing fiue porches.

3 In which lay a great multitude of sicke folke, of blind, halt, and withered, waiting for the mouing of the water.

4 For an angel went downe at a certaine season into the poole, and troubled the water: whosoeuer then first after the troubling of the water stepped in, was made whole of whatsoeuer disease he had.

5 And a certaine man was there, which had bene diseased thirtie and eight yeeres.

6 When Iesus sawe him lie, and knewe that he nowe long time had bene diseased, hee sayth vnto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The sicke man answered him, Syr, I haue no man when the water is troubled, to put me into the poole: but in the meane time, while I am about to come, another steppeth downe before me.

8 Iesus saith vnto him, Rise, take vp thy bed, and walke.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and tooke vp his bed, and walked: And on the same day was the Sabboth.

10 The Iewes therefore sayde vnto him that was made whole, It is the Sabboth day, *it is not lawfull for thee to carrie thy bed.

Iere.17.1.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, said vnto me, Take vp thy bed, & walke.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which sayd vnto thee, Take vp thy bed, and walke?

13 And he that was healed, wist not who it was: for Iesus had gotten himselfe away, because that there was a preasse of people in that place.

14 Afterward Iesus findeth him in the Temple, and sayde vnto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sinne no more, lest a worse thing come vnto thee.

15 The man departed, & tolde the Iewes that it was Iesus which had made him whole.

16 And therefore did the Iewes persecute Iesus, and sought the meanes to slay him, because he had done these things on the Sabboth day.

17 Iesus answered them, My father worketh hitherto, and I worke.

18 Therefore the Iewes sought the more to kill him, not onely because he had broken the Sabboth, but sayde also, that God was his father, and making himselfe equall with God.

19 Then answered Iesus, and sayd vnto them, Verily, verily I say vnto you, The sonne can do nothing of himselfe, but that he seeth the father do: for whatsoeuer he doeth, that also doeth the sonne likewise.

20 For the father loueth the sonne, and sheweth him all things that he himself doth: and he will shewe him greater workes then these, because ye should marueile.

21 For likewise as the father raiseth vp the dead, and quickeneth them: euen so the sonne quickeneth whom he will.

22 Neither iudgeth the father any man: but hath committed all iudgement vnto the sonne, 23 Because that all men should honour the sonne, euen as they honour the father. He that honoureth not the sonne, the same honoureth not the father which hath sent him.

24 Verily, verily I say vnto you, He that heareth my word, and beleeueth on him that sent me, hath euerlasting life, and shall not come into damnation: but is escaped from death vnto life.

25 Verily, verily I say vnto you, The houre is comming, and nowe is, when the b dead shall heare the voyce of the sonne of God: and they that heare, c shall liue.

b [Meaning those that are drowned in sinne.
c That is, they that receiue it by faith.

26 For as the father hath life in himselfe: so likewise hath he giuen to the sonne to haue life in himselfe:

27 And hath giuen him power also to iudge, because he is the sonne of man.

28 Marueile not at this: for the houre is comming, in the which all that are in the graues, shall heare his voyce, 29 And shall come forth, * they that haue done good, vnto the resurrection of life, and they that haue done euill, vnto the resurrection of damnation.

Mat. 25. 41

30 I can of mine owne selfe doe nothing: as I heare, I iudge: and my iudgement is iust, because I seeke not mine owne will, but the will of the father, which hath sent me.

31 *If I beare witnesse of my selfe, my witnesse is not true.

Iohn 8. 14.

32 *There is another that beareth witnesse of me, and I am sure that the witnesse which he witnesseth of me, is true.

Mat. 3. 17.

33 *Ye sent vnto Iohn, and he bare witnesse vnto the trueth.

Iohn 1. 27.

34 But I receiue not the record of man: neuertheles, these things I say, that ye might be saued.

35 He was a burning and a shining light: and ye would for a season haue reioyced in his light.

36 But I haue greater witnesse then the witnesse of Iohn: for the workes which the father hath giuen me to finish, the same workes that I doe, beare witnesse of me, that the father hath sent me.

37 And the father him selfe which hath sent me, * hath borne witnes of me. Ye haue not heard his voyce at any time, * nor seene his shape.

Mat. 3. 17. and 17. 5.
Deut. 4. 12.

38 And his worde haue ye not abiding in you: for whome he hath sent, him ye beleeue not.

39 Search the scriptures, for in them ye thinke ye haue eternal life, and they are they which testifie of me.

40 And yet will ye not come to me, that ye might haue life.

41 I receiue not the praise of men.

42 But I know you, that ye haue not the loue of God in you.

43 I am come in my fathers name, and ye receiue me not: * if another shall come in his owne name, him will ye receiue.

Iohn 12. 41

44 How can ye beleeue, which receiue honour one of another, and seeke not the honor that commeth of God onely?

45 Do not thinke that I will accuse you, to my father: there is one that accuseth you, euen Moses, in whom ye trust.

46 For had ye beleeued Moses, ye would haue beleeued me: * for he wrote of me.

Gen. 3. 15. deut. 18. 15

47 But if ye beleeue not his writings, how shall ye beleeue my words?

The vi. Chapter.

19 Faith is the worke of God. 35 Of the bread of life, 40 Of faith.

AFter these things, Iesus went his way ouer the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias:

2 And a great multitude followed him, because they sawe his miracles which hee did on them that were diseased.

3 And Iesus went vp into a mountaine, and there he sate with his disciples.

4 And the Passeouer, * a feast of the Iewes, was nigh.

Leuit. 23. 2. deut. 16. 1. The Gospel on the xxv. Sunday after Trinitie.

5 *When Iesus then lift vp his eyes, and sawe a great companie come vnto him, hee saith vnto Philip, Whence shal we buy bread, that these may eate?

Mat. 14. 16. mark. 6. 38. luke 9. 13.

6 (This he sayd to proue him: for he him selfe knew what he would do.)

7 Philip answered him, Two hundred a penyworth of bread are not sufficient for them, that euery man may take a litle.

a This summe amounteth to about fiue pounds sterling.

8 One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peters brother, saith vnto him, 9 There is a litle lad here, which hath fiue barley loaues, and two fishes: but what are they among so many?

10 And Iesus sayde, Make the people sit downe. There was much grasse in the place. So the men sate downe, in number about fiue thousand.

11 And Iesus tooke the bread, and when he had giuen thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set downe, and likewise of the fishes, as much as they would.

12 When they were filled, he said vnto his disciples, Gather vp the broken meate that remaineth, that nothing be lost.

13 And they gathered it together, and filled twelue baskets with the broken meate of the fiue barely loaues, which broken meate remained remained vnto them that had eaten.

14 Then those men, when they had seene the miracle that Iesus did, said, This is of a truth the same Prophet that should come into the world.

15 When Iesus therefore perceiued that they would come and take him vp by force, to make him king, he departed againe into a mountaine himselfe alone.

Mat.14.25. mark 6.47. 16 *And when euen was nowe come, his disciples went downe vnto the sea, 17 And gate vp into a shippe, and went ouer the sea towardes Capernaum: and it was nowe darke, and Iesus was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose with a great winde that blewe.

19 So when they had rowed about xxv. or xxx. furlongs, they saw Iesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh vnto the ship: and they were afraide.

20 But hee saieth vnto them, It is I, be not afraide.

21 And they would haue receiued him into the ship, and immediatly the shippe was at the land whither they went.

22 The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea, sawe that there was none other shippe there, saue that one whereinto his disciples were entred, and that Iesus went not in with his disciples into the ship, but that his disciples were gone away alone:

23 Howbeit, there came other ships from Tiberias, nigh vnto the place where they did eate bread, after that the Lord had giuen thanks.

24 When the people therefore sawe that Iesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also tooke shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Iesus.

25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said vnto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

26 Iesus answered them, and said, Verily, verily I say vnto you, Ye seeke me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eate of the loaues, and were filled.

27 Labour not for the meate which perisheth, but for that meate which endureth vnto euerlasting life, which meate the sonne of man shall giue vnto you: * for him hath God the father sealed.

Matt. 3.17. and 17.3. Iohn 1.32.

28 Then said they vnto him, What shall we doe, that we might worke the workes of God?

29 Iesus answered, and said vnto them, 1.Ioh. 3.23. *This is the worke of God, that yee beleeue on him whom he hath sent.

30 They said therefore vnto him, What signe shewest thou then, that wee may see, and beleeue thee? what doest thou worke?

31 Our fathers did eate Manna in the desart, as it is written, *He gaue them bread from heauen to eate.

Exo.16.14. num.11.7. psal.78.24. wisd.16.20

32 Then Iesus said vnto them, Verily, verily I say vnto you, Moses gaue you not that bread from heauen, but my father giueth you the true bread from heauen.

33 For the bread of God is he which commeth downe from heauen, and giueth life vnto the world.

34 Then said they vnto him, Lord, euermore giue vs this bread.

35 And Iesus said vnto them, I am the bread of life: he that commeth to me, shal not hunger in any wise: * and he that beleeueth on me, shall neuer thirst. Eccl.24.19.

36 But I say vnto you, that yee also haue seene me, and yet ye beleeue not.

37 All that the father giueth me, shal come to me, and him that commeth to me, I will in no wise cast out.

38 For I came downe from heauen, not to doe mine owne will, but the will of him that sent me.

39 And this is the fathers will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath giuen me, I shall lose nothing, but raise it vp againe at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that euery one which seeth the sonne, & beleeueth on him, may haue euerlasting life: and I will raise him vp at the last day.

41 The Iewes then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread of life which came downe from heauen.

42 And they said, *Is not this Iesus, the sonne of Ioseph, whose father and mother we know? howe is it then that he sayeth, I came downe from heauen? Mat. 13.55

43 Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Murmure not among your selues.

44 No man can come to me, except the father, which hath sent me, draw him: and I will raise him vp at the last day.

45 It is written in the Prophets, * And they shall be all taught of God. Euery man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the father, commeth vnto me, Esai 54.13. iere.31.33.

46 Not that any man hath seene the father, *saue he which is of God, the same hath seene the father. Mat.11.27.

47 Verily, verily I say vnto you, He that putteth his trust in mee, hath euerlasting life.

48 I am that bread of life.

49 Your fathers did eate *Manna in the wilderneſse, and are dead. Exo.16.15.

50 This is that bread which commeth downe from heauen, that if any man eate thereof, he should not die.

51 I am that liuing bread, which came downe from heauen. If any man eate of this bread, he shal liue for euer: and the bread that I will giue, is my flesh, which I will giue for the life of the world.

52 The Iewes therefore stroue amongst themselues, saying, Howe can this fellowe giue vs that flesh of his to eate?

53 Then Iesus said vnto them, Verily, verily I say vnto you, Except ye eate the flesh of the ſonne of man, and drinke his blood, ye haue no life in you.

of

1.Cor.11. 27. 54 *Whoſo eateth my fleſh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternall life, and I will raiſe him vp at the laſt day.

55 For my fleſh is meate in deede, and my blood is drinke in deede.

56 He that eateth my fleſh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him.

57 As the liuing father hath ſent me, and I liue by the father: Euen ſo, hee that eateth me, ſhall liue by the meanes of me.

58 This is that bread which came downe from heauen: not as your fathers did eate Manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread, ſhall liue euer.

59 Theſe things ſaid he in the ſynagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of his diſciples, when they had heard this, ſaid, This is an hard ſaying, who can abide the hearing of it?

61 When Ieſus knew in himſelfe that his diſciples murmured at it, he ſaid vnto them, Doth this offend you?

62 What and if yee ſhall ſee the ſonne of Iohn 3.13. man aſcende * vp thither where hee was before?

63 It is the ſpirite that quickeneth, the fleſh profiteth [a] nothing: the wordes that I ſpeake vnto you, are ſpirit and life.

64 But there are ſome of you that beleeue not. For Ieſus knewe from the beginning, which they were that beleeued not, and who ſhould betray him.

65 And he ſaid, Therefore ſaid I vnto you, that no man can come vnto me, except it were giuen vnto him of my father.

66 From that time many of his diſciples went backe, and walked no more with him.

67 Then ſaid Ieſus vnto the twelue, Will ye alſo goe away?

68 Then Simon Peter anſwered him, Lord, to whom ſhall we goe? Thou haſt the wordes of eternall life:

Mat.16.16. 69 *And wee beleeue and are ſure that thou art that Chriſt, the ſonne of the liuing God.

70 Ieſus anſwered them, Haue not I choſen you twelue, and one of you is a deuill?

71 He ſpake of Iudas Iſcariot the ſonne of Simon: for hee it was that ſhould betray him, being one of the twelue.

a To wit, if it be ſeperate from the ſpirit, whereof it hath the force. For it commeth of the power of the ſpirit, that the fleſh giueth vs life, & feedeth vs: And therefore, that we may be truely fed and nouriſhed with it, we muſt bring the ſpirituall mouth of faith to receiue it.

The vij. Chapter.

1 Ieſus fled the murmuring Iewes. 5 Chriſts kinſemen beleeued not on him.

AFter theſe things, Ieſus went about in Galilee: for he would not goe about in Iurie, becauſe that the Iewes ſought to kill him.

Leui.23.34 a At this feaſt they dwelled ſeuen dayes in their tents. 2 The Iewes feaſt of tabernacles * [a] was at hand.

3 His brethren therefore ſaide vnto him, Get thee hence, and goe into Iurie, that thy diſciples alſo may ſee the workes that thou doeſt.

4 There is no man that doeth any thing in ſecret, & he himſelfe ſeeketh to be knowen openly: If thou doe ſuch things, ſhewe thy ſelfe to the world.

5 For neither his brethren beleeued in him.

6 Then Ieſus ſaide vnto them, My time is not yet come: but your time is alway ready.

7 The world cannot hate you, but me it hateth, becauſe I teſtifie of it, that the workes thereof are euill.

8 Goe ye vp vnto this feaſt: I goe not vp yet vnto this feaſt, *for my time is not yet full come. Iohn 8.20.

9 When hee had ſaide theſe wordes vnto them, he abode ſtill in Galilee.

10 But when his brethren were gone vp, then went he alſo vp vnto the feaſt, not openly, but as it were priuily.

11 Then ſought him the Iewes at the feaſt, and ſaid, Where is he?

12 And much murmuring of him was there among the people: For ſome ſaid, He is good: Other ſaide, Nay: but he deceiueth the people.

13 Howbeit, no man ſpake openly of him, for feare of the Iewes.

14 Nowe when halfe of the feaſt was done, Ieſus went vp into the temple, and taught.

15 And the Iewes marueiled, ſaying, How knoweth he the ſcriptures, ſeeing that he neuer learned?

16 Ieſus anſwered them, and ſaide, My doctrine is not mine, but his that ſent me.

17 If any man will doe his will, hee ſhall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I ſpeake of my ſelfe.

18 Hee that ſpeaketh of himſelfe, ſeeketh his owne glorie: but he that ſeeketh his glorie that ſent him, the ſame is true, and no vnrighteouſneſſe is in him.

19 *Did not Moſes giue you the law, and Exo.24.7. yet none of you keepeth the lawe? *why goe Iohn 5.18. ye about to kill me?

20 The people anſwered, and ſaid, Thou haſt the deuill: who goeth about to kill thee?

21 Ieſus anſwered, and ſaide vnto them, I haue done one worke, and ye all marueile.

22 *Moſes therefore gaue vnto you the Leuit.12.3. circumciſion (not becauſe it is of Moſes, but Gen.17.10 of the fathers) and yet yee on the Sabboth day circumcile a man.

23 If a man on the Sabboth day receiue circumciſion, without breaking of the lawe of Moſes: diſdaine ye at me, becauſe I haue made a man euery whit whole on the Sabboth day?

24 *Iudge not after the vtter appearance, Deut.1.16. but iudge with a righteous iudgement.

25 Then ſaide ſome of them of Hieruſalem, Is not this hee, whom they goe about to kill?

26 But

26 But loe, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing vnto him: doe the rulers know in deede that this is very Christ?

Or, openly

27 Howbeit, we know this man whence he is: but when Christ commeth, no man knoweth whence he is.

28 Then cried Jesus in the temple as hee taught, saying, Ye know both me, & whence I am: & I am not come of my selfe, but he that sent me, is true, whom yee know not.

29 But I know him, for I am of him, and he hath sent me.

30 Then they sought to take him: but no man laide hands on him, because his houre was not yet come.

31 Many of the people beleeued on him, and said, When Christ commeth, will he doe more miracles then these that this man hath done?

32 The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such thinges concerning him: And the Pharisees and the high priests sent seruants to take him.

33 Then said Jesus vnto them, Yet am I a little while with you, and then I goe vnto him that sent me.

34 Ye shall seeke me, and shall not finde me: and where I am, thither can yee not come.

Iohn 13.33

35 Then saide the Iewes among themselues, whither will hee goe, that we shall not finde him? will hee goe vnto the dispersed among the Grecians, and teach the Gentiles?

36 What maner of saying is this that hee saide, Ye shall seeke me, and shall not finde me: and where I am, thither can yee not come.

37 In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stoode, and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come vnto me, and drinke.

Leu. 23. 36.

38 He that beleeueth on me as the scripture hath saide, out of his belly shall flowe riuers of water of life.

Deu. 18. 15.

39 (But this spake he of the spirit which they that beleeue on him, should receiue: for the holy Ghost was not yet [giuen: because that Jesus was not yet glorified.)

Ioel 2. 28. acts 2. 17.

[Or, giuen: vnderstanding by the holy ghost, the visible gifts of the holy ghost.

40 Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is the Prophet.

41 But other saide, This is Christ. But some said, Shall Christ come out of Galilee?

Micha. 5. 2. matt. 2. 5.

42 Hath not the scripture said, that Christ commeth of the seede of Dauid, and out of the towne of Bethlehem, where Dauid was?

43 So was there dissention among the people because of him.

44 And some of them would haue taken him, but no man laid hands on him.

45 Then came the seruants to the high priests and Pharisees, & they said vnto them, Why haue ye not brought him?

46 The seruants answered, Neuer man spake as this man doeth.

Iohn 7. 47

47 Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceiued?

48 Haue any of the rulers or of the Pharisees beleeued on him?

49 But this common people which know not the lawe, are cursed.

50 Nicodemus (he that came to Jesus by night, being one of them,) said vnto them,

Iohn 3. 2.

51 Doth our law iudge any man before it heare him, and know what he doeth?

Deu. 17. 8. & 19. 15.

52 They answered, and said vnto him, Art thou also of Galilee? search, and looke: for out of Galilee ariseth no Prophet.

53 And euery man went vnto his owne house.

Chapter.

1 Christ the light of the world. 56 Abraham did see

Jesus went out vnto mount Oliuet:

2 And early in the morning hee came againe into the temple, and all the people came vnto him, and he sate downe, and taught them.

3 And the Scribes & Pharisees brought vnto him a woman taken in adulterie, and when they had set her in the middes,

4 They said vnto him, Master, this woman was taken in adulterie, euen as the deede was a doing.

5 Moses in the law commanded vs that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?

Luk. 20. 10.

6 This they said, tempting him, that they might accuse him. But Jesus stouped downe, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.

7 So when they continued asking him, he lift vp himselfe, and said vnto them, Let him that is among you without sinne, first cast the stone at her.

Deut. 17. 7.

8 And againe, he stouped downe, & wrote on the ground.

9 And when they heard this, being accused of their owne consciences, they went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, euen vnto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the mids.

10 When Jesus had lift vp himselfe, and saw no man but the woman, he saide vnto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She saide, No man, Lord. And Jesus said, Neither doe I condemne thee: Goe, and sinne no more.

12 Then spake Jesus againe vnto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me, shall not in any wise walke in darkenesse, but shall haue the light of life.

Iohn 1. 5. and 9. 5.

13 The Pharisees therefore saide vnto him, Thou bearest record of thy selfe, thy record is not true.

14 Jesus

14 Iesus answered, and saide vnto them, Iohn 5.31. *Though I beare record of my selfe, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go: but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

15 Ye iudge after the flesh, but I iudge no man.

16 And if I iudge, my iudgement is true: for I am not alone, but I and the father that sent me.

Deut.17.6. and 19.15. mat.18.16. 2.cor.13.1. heb.10.28. 17 *It is also written in your lawe, that the testimonie of two men is true.

18 I am one that beareth witnesse of my selfe, and the father that sent me, beareth witnesse of me.

19 Then said they vnto him, where is thy father? Iesus answered, Yee neither know me, nor yet my father: if yee had known me, ye should haue known my father also.

20 These wordes spake Iesus in the treasurie, as hee taught in the temple: and no man laide hands on him, for his houre was not yet come.

21 Then said Iesus againe vnto them, I goe my way, and yee shall seeke me, and shall die in your sinnes: whither I goe, thither can ye not come.

22 Then said the Iewes, will he kill himselfe, because he saith, whither I go, thither can ye not come?

23 And he said vnto them, Ye are from beneath, I am from aboue: yee are of this world, I am not of this world.

24 I saide therefore vnto you, that ye shall die in your sinnes. For if yee beleeue not that I am he, ye shall die in your sinnes.

25 Then saide they vnto him, who art thou? And Iesus saith vnto them, Euen the very same thing that I saide vnto you from the beginning.

26 I haue many things to say, & to iudge of you: Yea, and he that sent me is true, and I speake to the world those things which I haue heard of him.

27 Howbeit, they vnderstood not that hee spake to them of his father.

28 Then saide Iesus vnto them, when ye haue lift vp on high the sonne of man, then shall ye know that I am hee, and that I doe nothing of my selfe: but as my father hath taught me, euen so I speake these things.

29 And he that sent me, is with me: the father hath not left me alone: for I do alwaies those things that please him.

30 As he spake those wordes, many beleeued on him.

31 Then said Iesus to those Iewes which beleeued on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my very disciples.

32 And ye shall know the trueth, and the trueth shall make you free.

33 They [a] answered him, We be Abrahams seede, and were neuer bonde to any man: how saiest thou then, Ye shall be made free?

[a] These were not those Iewes that beleeued, but mockers, that beleeued not.

34 Iesus answered them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, *That whosoeuer committeth sinne, is the seruant of sinne. Rom. 6.20. 2.pet.2.19.

35 And the seruant abideth not in the house for euer: but the sonne abideth euer.

36 If the sonne therefore shall make you free, then ye shall be free in deede.

37 I know that ye are Abrahams seede; but yet seeke meanes to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

38 I speake that which I haue seene with my father: and yee doe that which yee haue seene with your father.

39 They answered, and said vnto him, Abraham is our father. Iesus saith vnto them, If ye were Abrahams children, ye would doe the workes of Abraham.

40 But now ye go about to kill me, a man that hath told you the trueth, which I haue heard of God: this did not Abraham.

41 Ye doe the deedes of your father. Then said they to him, we be not borne of fornication, we haue one father, euen God.

42 Iesus saide vnto them, If God were your father, truely ye would loue me, for I proceeded forth, and came from God: neither came I of my selfe, but he sent me.

43 Why do ye not know my speech? euen because ye cannot heare my word.

44 *Yee are of your father the deuil, and the lustes of your father will ye doe: he was a murtherer from the beginning, and abode not in the trueth, because there is no trueth in him. When hee speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his owne: for hee is a lier, and the father of it. 1.Ioh.3.8.

45 And because I tel you the trueth, therefore ye beleeue me not.

46 *Which of you rebuketh me of sinne? If I say the trueth, why doe ye not beleeue me? The Gospel on the 1. Sunday in Lent.

47 He that is of God, heareth Gods words: Ye therefore heare them not, because yee are not of God. 1.Ioh.4.6.

48 Then answered the Iewes, and saide vnto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritane, and hast a deuil?

49 Iesus answered, I haue not a deuil: but I honour my father, and yee doe dishonour me.

50 I seeke not mine owne glorie, there is one that seeketh, and iudgeth.

51 Verily, verily I say vnto you, If a man keepe my saying, he shall neuer see death.

52 Then said the Iewes vnto him, Now know we that thou hast a deuil. Abraham is dead, and the Prophets: and thou saiest, If a man keepe my saying, hee shall neuer taste of death.

53 Art thou greater then our father Abraham, which is dead? and the Prophets are dead: whom makest thou thy selfe?

54 Iesus answered, If I glorifie my selfe, my glorie is nothing: It is my father that glorifieth me, which yee say, that he is your God:

55 And

55 And yet ye haue not knowen him, but I know him: and if I say that I know him not, I shall be a liar like vnto you: but I know him, and keepe his saying.

56 Your father Abraham was [b] glad to see my day: and he saw it, and reioyced.

57 Then said the Iewes vnto him, Thou art not yet fiftie yeeres olde, and hast thou seene Abraham?

58 Iesus said vnto them, Verily, verily I say vnto you, Before Abraham was, I am.

59 Then tooke they vp stones to cast at him: but Iesus was hidde, and went out of the temple.

[b] Or the meaning of Christ in the day, which thing Abraham did see a litle off, with the eies of faith.

The ix. Chapter.

Christ restoreth sight vpon the Sabboth day to him that was borne blinde.

AND as Iesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sinne, this man or his parents, that he was borne blinde?

3 Iesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor yet his parentes: but that the workes of God should be made manifest in him.

4 I must worke the workes of him that sent me, while it is [a] day: The night commeth, when no man can worke.

5 As long as I am in the world, *I am the light of the world.

6 When hee had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the clay vpon the eies of the blind,

7 And said vnto him, Go wash thee in the poole of Siloe (which by interpretation is as much to say, as sent.) Hee went his way therefore, and washed, and came againe seeing.

8 The neighbours therfore, and they that had seene him before when hee was blinde, said, Is not this he that sate and begged?

9 Some said, This is he: Other said, Hee is like him. He himselfe said, I am euen he.

10 Therefore said they vnto him, Howe were thine eies opened?

11 He answered, and said, The man that is called Iesus, made clay, & anoynted mine eies, and said vnto me, Goe to the poole Siloe, and washe: and when I went and washed, I receiued my sight.

12 Then said they vnto him, where is he? He said I cannot tell.

13 They brought to the Pharisees him, that a litle before was blinde.

14 And it was the Sabboth day when Iesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then againe the Pharisees also asked him how he had receiued his sight. Hee said vnto them, He put clay vpon mine eyes, and I washed, and doe see.

16 Therefore said some of the Pharisees, This man is not of God, because hee keepeth not the Sabboth day. Other said, How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? and there was a [c] strife among them.

17 They say vnto the blinde man againe, What sayest thou of him, because hee hath opened thine eyes? Hee said, Hee is a Prophet.

18 But the Iewes did not beleeue the man how that hee had bene blinde, and receiued his sight, vntil they called the parents of him that had receiued his sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your sonne, whome ye say that he was borne blinde? how doeth he now see then?

20 His parents answered them, and said, Wee knowe that this is our sonne, and that he was borne blinde:

21 But by what meanes he nowe seeth, we cannot tell, or who hath opened his eyes, cannot we tell, he is of age, aske him, he shall speake for himselfe.

22 Such wordes spake his parents, because they feared the Iewes: for the Iewes had agreed already, that if any man did confesse that hee was Christ, he should be excommunicate out of the synagogue.

23 Therefore saide his parents, Hee is of age, aske him.

24 Then againe called they the man that was blinde, and saide vnto him, Giue God the praise, wee knowe that this man is a sinner.

25 He answered, and saide, Whether hee be a sinner or no, I cannot tell: One thing I am sure of, that whereas I was blinde, now I see.

26 Then saide they to him againe, What did he to thee? How opened he thine eyes?

27 Hee answered them, I tolde you yet while, and yee did not heare: wherefore would you heare it againe? Will ye also bee his disciples?

28 Then rated they him, and saide, Thou art his Disciple: we are Moses disciples.

29 We are sure that God spake vnto Moses: as for this fellowe, wee knowe not from whence he is.

30 The man answered, & said vnto them, This is a maruellous thing, that yee wote not from whence he is, and yet hee hath opened mine eyes.

31 For wee be sure that God heareth not sinners: but if any man bee a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him heareth he.

32 Since the worlde beganne was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was borne blinde:

33 If this man were not of God, he could doe nothing.

34 They answered, and saide vnto him, Thou art altogether borne in sinne, & doest thou teach vs? And they cast him out.

35 Iesus heard that they had excommunicate him: and when he had found him, hee said vnto him, Doest thou beleeue on the sonne of God?

36 He answered & said, who is he, Lorde, that I might beleeue on him?

37 And Iesus said vnto him, Thou hast both seen him, and it is he that talketh with thee.

38 And he said, Lord, I beleeue: and bee b worshipped him.

b He declared his faith by his outwarde profession. Iohn. 3.17. and 12.47.

39 And Iesus said vnto him, *I am come vnto iudgement in this worlde, that they which see not, might see, & that they which see, might bee made blinde.

40 And some of ỹ Pharisees which were with him, heard these words, and saide vnto him, Are we blinde also?

41 Iesus saide vnto them. If yee were blinde, ye should haue no sinne, but now ye say, We see: therfore your sinne remaineth.

The x. Chapter.

1 Christ the true shepheard, and the doore, 34 Princes called gods.

The Gospel on the Tuesday after Whitsũday.

VErily, verily I say vnto you, He that entreth not in by the doore into the sheepefold, but climeth vp some other way, the same is a thiefe and a robber.

2 But he that entreth in by the doore, is the shepheard of the sheepe.

3 To him the porter openeth, & the sheepe heare his voyce, and hee calleth his owne sheepe by name, and leadeth them out.

4 And when he shall put forth his owne sheepe, he goeth before them, and the sheepe follow him: for they know his voyce.

5 A stranger will they in no wise follow, but wil flee from him, for they know not the voyce of strangers.

6 This prouerb spake Iesus vnto them: but they vnderstoode not what thinges they were which he spake vnto them.

7 Then said Iesus vnto them again, Verily, verily I say vnto you, I am the doore of the sheepe.

a He meaneth al false prophets, who led not men to Christ, but frõ him to other, or els preached themselues.

8 All, a euen as many as came before me, are theeues and robbers: but the sheepe did not heare them.

9 I am the doore: by me if any man enter in, he shal be safe, and shal goe in, and goe out, and find pasture.

10 The thiefe commeth not, but for to steale, kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might haue life, and that they might haue it more abundantly.

The Gospel on the ii. sunday after Easter. Esai. 40.11. Ierc. 34.23.

11 I am the * good shepheard: the good shepheard giueth his life for the sheepe.

12 An hireling, and he which is not the shepheard, neither the sheepe are his owne, seeth the wolfe comming, and leaueth the sheepe, and fleeth: and the wolfe catcheth thẽ, and scattereth the sheepe.

13 The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheepe.

14 I am the good shepheard, and know my sheep, and am known of mine.

15 As the father knoweth me, euen so know I also the father: and I giue my life for the sheepe.

b To wit, they among the Gentiles which they were c strangers from Gods Church. Eze. 37.22. Esay 35.7.

16 And other b sheepe I haue, which are not of this fold: thẽ also I must bring, & they shall heare my voyce, c and there shall be one folde and one shepheard.

17 Therefore doeth my father loue me, because I put my life from me, that I might take it againe.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I put it away of my selfe: I haue power to put it from me, and I haue power to take it again. *This commandement haue I receiued of my father. Acts 4.28.

19 There was a dissention therefore againe among the Iewes for these things.

20 And many of them said, He hath a deuil, and is mad, why heare ye him?

21 Other said, These are not the wordes of him that hath a deuill. Can a deuill open the eyes of the blind?

22 *And it was at Hierusalem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter: 1.Mac.4.59

23 And Iesus walked in the temple, euen in Salomons porch.

24 Then came the Iewes rounde about him, and said vnto him, How long dost thou make vs to doubt? If thou be Christ, tell vs plainely.

25 Iesus answered them, I told you, and ye beleeued not: the workes that I doe in my fathers name, they beare witnesse of me.

26 But ye beleeue not, because ye are not of my sheepe, as I said vnto you.

27 My sheepe heare my voyce, & I knowe them, and they follow me:

28 And I giue vnto them eternall life, & they shall neuer perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.

29 My father which gaue them mee, is greater then all: and no man is able to take them out of my fathers hand.

30 I and my father are one.

31 Then the Iewes tooke vp stones, to stone him withall.

32 Iesus answered them, Many good workes haue I shewed you from my father, for which worke of them doe ye stone me?

33 The Iewes answered him, saying, For a good worke we stone thee not, but for thy blasphemie, and because that thou, being a man, makest thy selfe God.

34 Iesus answered them, *Is it not writ- Psal.82.6.
ten in your law, I said, ye are gods?

35 If he called them gods, vnto whõ the word of God was spoken, and the scripture cannot be broken:

36 Say ye of him, whõ the father hath sãctified and sent into the world, Thou blaspheme: because I said, I am the sonne of God?

37 If I doe not the workes of my father, beleeue me not.

38 But if I do, and if ye beleue not me, beleeue the workes: that yee may know and beleeue, that the father is in me, and I in him.

39 Againe

39 Againe they went about to take him: and he escaped out of their hand,

40 And went away againe beyond Iordane, into the place where Iohn was first baptizing: and there he abode.

41 And many resorted vnto him, and said, Iohn did no miracle: but all things that Iohn spake of this man, were true.

42 And many beleeued on him there.

The xj. Chapter.

43 Christ raiseth Lazarus from death. 45 Certaine Iewes before Christ.

A Certaine man was sicke, named Lazarus, of Bethanie, the towne of Marie and her sister Martha.

2 (It was that Marie which anointed the Lorde with ointment, and wiped his feete with her haire, whose brother Lazarus was sicke.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent vnto him, saying, Lorde, beholde, hee whom thou louest is sicke.

4 When Iesus heard that, he sayde, This infirmitie is not vnto death, but for the glorie of God: that the sonne of God might bee glorified thereby.

5 Iesus loued Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 When hee had heard therefore that hee was sicke, he abode two dayes still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that, saith hee to his disciples, Let vs goe into Iurie againe.

8 His disciples say vnto him, Master, the Iewes lately sought to stone thee, and goest thou thither againe?

9 Iesus answered, Are there not twelue houres in the day? If any man walke in the day, hee stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But if a man walke in the night, hee stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things said he, and after that, he sayeth vnto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeth, but I goe, that I may awake him out of sleepe.

12 Then sayde his disciples, Lord, if he sleepe, he shall doe well enough.

13 Howbeit, Iesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleepe.

14 Then sayde Iesus vnto them plainely, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes, that I was not there (because ye may beleeue:) Nevertheless, let vs goe vnto him.

16 Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, vnto his fellowe disciples, Let vs also goe, that we may die with him.

17 Then when Iesus came, he found that hee had lien in his grave foure dayes already.

18 (Bethanie was nigh vnto Hierusalem, about a fifteene furlongs off:)

a Which is about two miles.

19 And many of the Iewes came to Martha and Marie, to comfort them ouer their brother.

20 Martha, as soone as she heard that Iesus was comming, went and met him: but Mary sate still in the house.

21 Then said Martha vnto Iesus, Lord, if thou hadest bene here, my brother had not died.

22 But euen now I know, that whatsoeuer thou wilt aske of God, God will giue it thee.

23 Iesus saith vnto her, Thy brother shall rise againe.

24 Martha saith vnto him, I knowe that he shall rise againe in the *resurrection at the last day. *Ioh.5.29. luk.14.14.

25 Iesus sayde vnto her, I am the resurrection, and the *life: he that beleeueth on mee, yea, though hee were dead, yet shall hee liue. *Ioh.6.35.

26 And whosoeuer liueth, and beleeueth on me, shall neuer die. Beleeuest thou this?

27 She saith vnto him, Yea Lord, I beleeue that thou art Christ the sonne of God, which should come into the world.

28 And when shee had so sayde, shee went her way, and called Marie her sister secretly, saying, The master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 As soone as she heard that, she ariseth quickely, and commeth vnto him.

30 Iesus was not yet come into the towne: but was in that place where Martha met him.

31 The Iewes then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they sawe Marie that she rose vp hastily, and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth vnto the graue, to weepe there.

32 Then when Marie was come where Iesus was, and sawe him, she fell downe at his feete, saying vnto him, Lord, if thou hadest bene here, my brother had not bene dead.

33 When Iesus therefore sawe her weeping, and the Iewes also weeping which came with her, he groned *in the spirit, and was troubled in himselfe, b For very compassion, feeling in himselfe our miseries.

34 And sayde, Where haue ye layde him? They say vnto him, Lord, Come, and see.

35 Iesus wept.

36 Then said the Iewes, Behold, how he loued him.

37 And some of them said, Could not this man, which opened the eyes of the blinde, haue caused that this man also should not haue died? Ioh.9.6.

38 Iesus therefore againe groning in himselfe, commeth to the graue. It was a caue, and a stone laid on it.

39 Iesus saide, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith vnto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath bene dead foure dayes.

40 Iesus saith vnto her, Said I not vnto thee, that if thou wouldest beleeue, thou shouldest see the glorie of God?

41 Then they tooke away the stone from the place where the dead was laide. And Iesus lift vp his eyes, and sayde, Father, I thanke thee, that thou hast heard me.

42 Howbeit, I knowe that thou hearest me alwayes: but because of the people which stand by, I said it, that they may beleeue that thou hast sent me.

43 And when hee thus had spoken, hee cried with a loude voyce, Lazarus, come foorth.

44 And hee that was dead, came foorth, bound hand and foote with graue clothes: and his face was bounde about with a napkin. Iesus saith vnto them, Loose him, and let him goe.

45 Then many of the Iewes which came to Marie, and had seene the things which Iesus did, beleeued on him.

46 But some of them went their wayes to the Pharisees, and told them what Iesus had done.

47 Then gathered the high Priestes and the Pharisees a counsell, and said, what doe we? for this man doth many miracles.

48 If we let him scape thus, all men will beleeue on him, and the Romanes shall come, and take away both our roome, and the people.

c May the same way that they thought to escape danger, they fel into it.

49 And one of them, named Caiaphas, being the high Priest that same yeere, sayde vnto them, Ye perceiue nothing at all,

Ioh. 14.8. 50 Nor consider that it is expedient for vs, that one man shoulde die for the people, and not that all the nation perish.

51 This spake he not of himselfe: but being high Priest that same yeere, he prophecied that Iesus should die for that nation:

52 And not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad.

53 Then from that day foorth they tooke counsell together for to put him to death.

54 Iesus therefore walked no more openly among the Iewes: but went his way thence into a countrey nigh to a wildernesse, into a citie which is called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 And the Iewes Easter was nigh at hand, and many went out of the countrey vp to Hierusalem before the Easter, to purifie themselues.

56 Then sought they for Iesus, and spake among themselues, as they stood in the temple, What thinke ye, seeing hee commeth not to the feast day?

57 Both the high Priests and the Pharisees had giuen a commaundement, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

The xii. Chapter.

3 Marie anointeth Iesus feete. 37 Wherefore the Iewes beleeue not.

THen Iesus sixe daies before the Passeouer, came to Bethanie, where Lazarus was, which had beene dead, whom he raised from death. Mat. 26.6. mar. 14.3.

2 There they made him a supper, and Martha serued: but Lazarus was one of them sate at the table with him.

3 Then tooke Marie a pounde of oyntment, of Spikenard, very costly, and anoynted Iesus feete, and wiped his feete cleane with her haire: and the house was filled with the odour of the oyntment.

4 Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simons sonne, which shoulde betray him,

5 Why was not this oyntment solde for three hundred pence, and giuen to the poore?

6 * This he said, not that hee cared for the poore: but because hee was a theefe, and had the bagge, and bare that which was giuen. John 13.29 a The wicked thinke all lost that escapeth their handes.

7 Then sayde Iesus, Let her alone, against the day of my burying hath shee kept this.

8 For the poore alwayes yee haue with you: but me haue ye not alwayes.

9 Much people of the Iewes therefore had knowledge that he was there: and they came, not for Iesus sake onely, but that they might see Lazarus also, whome hee raised from death.

10 But the high Priestes held a counsell, that they might put Lazarus to death also, 11 Because that for his sake many of the Iewes went away, and beleeued on Iesus.

12 * On the next day, much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Iesus commeth to Hierusalem, Mat. 21.8. mar. 11.7.

13 Tooke branches of Palme trees, and went foorth to meete him, and cried, b Hosanna, blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord, king of Israel.

b That is, Saue I beseech thee.

14 And Iesus, when he had found a yong Asse, sate thereon, as it is written, 15 * Feare not, daughter of Sion, behold, thy king commeth, sitting on an Asses Colt. Zacha. 9.9.

16 These things vnderstoode not his disciples at the first: but when Iesus was glorified, then remembred they that such things were written of him, and that such things they had done vnto him.

17 The people that was with him, when he called Lazarus out of his graue, and raised him from death, bare record.

18 Therefore meete him the people also, because they heard that hee had done such a miracle.

19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselues, Perceiue ye how ye preuaile nothing? Behold, all the whole worlde is gone after him.

20 There came certaine Grekes among them, that came to worship at the feast:

21 The same came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida, a citie of Galilee, and and desired him, saying, Sir, we would faine see Iesus.

22 Philip commeth and telleth Andrew: and againe Andrew and Philip tell Iesus.

23 And Iesus answered them, saying, The houre is come, that the sonne of man should be glorified.

24 Verily, verily I say vnto you, Except the wheate corne fall into the ground, and die, it abideth alone: if it die, it bringeth forth much fruite.

Mat.10.39. and 16.25. mark.8.35. luke 9.24. and 17.33. 25 * He that loueth his life, shall loose it: and he that hateth his life in this world, shal keepe it vnto life eternall.

26 If any man minister vnto me, let him follow me: and where I am, there shall also my minister be: If any man minister vnto me, him will my father honour.

27 Now is my soule troubled, and what shall I say? Father, saue me from this houre, but therefore came I into this houre.

28 Father, glorifie thy name. Then came there a voyce from heauen, saying, I both haue glorified it, and will glorifie it againe.

29 The people therefore that stoode by, and heard it, sayde that it thundred: other sayd, An angel spake to him.

30 Iesus answered and sayd, This voyce came not because of me, but for your sakes.

31 Nowe is the iudgement of this world: Nowe shall the prince of this world be cast out.

32 And I, if I were lift vp from the earth, will draw all men vnto me.

33 (This he sayde, signifying what death he should die.)

Psal.110.4. esai.40.8. 34 The people answered him, * We haue heard out of the law, that Christ abideth euer: and how sayest thou, The sonne of man must be lift vp? who is that sonne of man?

Iohn 1.9. 35 Then Iesus sayd vnto them, Yet a litle while is the * light with you: walke while ye haue light, lest the darkenesse come on you: for he that walketh in the darke, wooteth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye haue light, beleeue on the light, that ye may be the children of the light. These things spake Iesus, and departed, and was hid from them.

37 But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet beleeued they not on him:

Esai.53.1. rom.10.16. 38 That the saying of Esaias the Prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, who hath beleeued our saying? and to whom hath the arme of the Lord been declared?

39 Therefore could they not beleeue, because that Esaias said againe, Esai.6.9. mat.13.14. mark.4.12. luke 8.11. actes 28.26. 40 * He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart, that they should not see with their eyes, and lest they should vnderstand with their heart, and should be conuerted, and I should heale them.

41 Such things saide Esaias, when he sawe his glory, and spake of him.

42 Neuertheles, among the chiefe rulers also many beleeued on him: but because of the Pharisees they did not confesse him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue.

43 * For they loued the praise of men more then the prayse of God. Iohn 5.44.

44 Iesus cried and said, He that beleeueth on me, beleeueth not on me, but on him that sent me.

45 And he that seeth me, seeth him that sent me.

46 I am come * a light into the world, that whosoeuer beleeueth on me, should not bide in darkenesse. Iohn 8.18. and 9.39.

47 * And if any man heare my wordes, & beleeue not, I iudge him not: for I came not to iudge the world, but to saue the world. Iohn 3.17.

48 He that refuseth me, and receiueth not my words, hath one that iudgeth him: * the word that I haue spoken, the same shal iudge him in the last day. Mar.16.26.

49 For I haue not spoken of my selfe: but the father which sent me, he gaue me a commandement what I should say, and what I should speake.

50 And I know that his commandement is life euerlasting: whatsoeuer I speake therefore, euen as the father bade me, so I speake.

The xiij. Chapter.

1 Christ washeth the Apostles feete. 35 Whereby Christs disciples are knowen.

BEfore * the feast of the Passeouer, when Iesus knewe that his houre was come that hee should depart out of this world vnto the father, when he loued his owne which were in the world, vnto the end he loued them. Mat.26.2. mark.14.1. luke 22.1.

2 And when it was nowe supper (after that the deuill had put in the heart of Iudas Iscariot Simons sonne to betray him) | Some read And when supper was ended.

3 Iesus knowing that the father had giuen all things vnto his hands, and that hee was come from God, and went to God:

4 He riseth from supper, and layeth aside his vpper garments: and when he had taken a towell, he girded himselfe.

5 After that, he powreth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples feete, and to wipe them with the towell wherewith he was girded.

6 Then commeth hee to Simon Peter: and Peter sayth vnto him, Lord, doest thou wash my feete?

7 Iesus answered, and saide vnto him, What I doe, thou knowest not nowe: but thou shalt know hereafter.

8 Peter sayth vnto him, Thou shalt neuer wash my feete. Iesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.

9 Simon Peter sayth vnto him, Lord, not my feete onely, but also my handes, and my head.

10 Iesus sayth to him, He that is washed, needeth not saue to wash his feete, but is cleane euery whit: And yee are cleane, but not all.

11 For he knewe who it was that should betray him; therefore sayd he, Ye are not all cleane.

12 So after hee had washed their feete, and receiued his clothes, and was set downe againe, he said vnto them, Wote yee what I haue done to you?

13 Ye call me Master and Lorde, and ye say well: for so am I.

14 If I then your Lord and Master haue washed your feete, ye also ought to wash one anothers feete.

15 For I haue giuen you an ensample, that ye should doe as I haue done to you.

Iohn 15.20 mar 10.24. luke 6.40.

16 *Verily, verily I say vnto you, the seruant is not greater then his master, neither the messenger greater then he that sent him.

17 If ye know these things, happie are ye if ye doe them.

18 I speake not of you all, I know whom I haue chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, * Hee that eateth bread with me, hath lift vp his heele against me.

Psal. 41.10. a Wonder pestilence of friendship, forketh his destruction.

19 Nowe tell I you before it come, that when it is come to passe, yee might beleeue that I am he.

Mat. 10.40. luke 10.16.

20 *Verily, verily I say vnto you, he that receiueth whomsoeuer I sende, receiueth me: and he that receiueth me, receiueth him that sent me.

Mat. 26.21. mar. 14.18. luke 22.21.

21 *When Iesus had thus sayd, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily I say vnto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 There was one of Iesus disciples leaning on Iesus bosome, euen he whom Iesus loued.

24 To him beckened Simon Peter therefore, that he should aske who it should be of whom he spake.

25 He then, when hee leaned on Iesus breast, sayd vnto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Iesus answered, He it is to whom I shall giue a sop, when I haue dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gaue it to Iudas Iscariot the sonne of Simon.

[he had taken.

27 And after [the sop, Sathan entred into him. Then said Iesus vnto him, That thou doest, doe quickly.

28 That wist no man at the table, for what intent he spake vnto him.

29 Some of them thought, because Iudas had the bagge, that Iesus had sayd vnto him, Buy those things that we haue need of against the feast: or that hee should giue some thing to the poore.

30 As soone then as he had receiued the sop, he went immediately out: and it was night.

31 Therefore, when hee was gone out, Iesus sayd, Now is the sonne of man glorified: and God is glorified in him.

32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorifie him in himself, and shall straightway glorifie him.

33 Little children, yet a little while am I with you. Ye shall seeke me: and as I sayde vnto the Iewes, whither I goe, thither can ye not come: so to you also say I nowe. Iohn 7.14.

34 *A newe commandement giue I vnto you, That ye loue together; as I haue loued you, that euen so ye loue one another. Iohn 15.18 leuit. 19.18.

35 By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye haue loue one to another.

36 Simon Peter sayd vnto him, Lorde, whither goest thou? Iesus answered him, whither I goe, thou canst not follow me nowe: but thou shalt follow me afterwards. Mat. 26.34. mar. 14.30. luke 22.34.

37 Peter sayd vnto him, Lorde, why can not I follow thee nowe? I will leaue my life for thy sake.

38 Iesus answereth him, Wilt thou leopard thy life for my sake? verily, verily I say vnto thee, the Cocke shall not crowe, till thou haue denied me thrise.

The xiij. Chapter.

Her armeth his disciples with consolation against trouble.

ANd the said vnto his disciples, Let not your heart be troubled: yee beleeue in God, beleeue also in me. The Gospel on S. Philip and Iames day.

2 In my fathers house are many dwelling places: if it were not so, I would haue told you: I go to prepare a place for you.

3 And if I goe to prepare a place for you, I will come againe, and receiue you vnto my selfe, that where I am, there may ye be also.

4 And whither I goe, ye know, and the way ye know.

5 Thomas saith vnto him, Lorde, wee know not whither thou goest: and howe can we know the way?

6 Iesus saith vnto him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life: no man commeth vnto the father, but by me.

7 If ye had known me, ye should haue known my father also: and nowe ye know him, and haue seene him.

8 Philip saith vnto him, Lord, shewe vs the father, and it suffiseth vs.

9 Iesus saith vnto him, Haue I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seene me, hath seene the father: and howe sayest thou then, Shewe vs the father?

10 Beleeuest thou not that I am in the father, and the father in me? The wordes that I speake vnto you, I speake not of my selfe: but the father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the workes.

11 Beleeue me that I am in the father, and the father in me: or else beleeue me for the workes sake.

12 Verily, verily I say vnto you, he that beleeueth on me, the workes that I doe, the same same shall he doe also, and greater workes than these shall he do, because I go vnto the father.

Matt.7.7. mar.11.24 Iames 1.5.

13 And whatsoeuer yee shall aske in my name, that will I do, that the father may be glorified in the sonne.

14 If ye shal aske any thing in my name, I will doe it.

The Gospel on Whitsunday.

15 If ye loue me, keepe my commaundements.

16 And I will pray the father, & hee shall giue you another comforter, that hee may bide with you for euer, 17 Euen the spirit of trueth, whome the worlde cannot receiue, because the worlde seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye knowe him, for he dwelleth with you, & shal be in you.

18 I will not leaue you comfortlesse, I come to you.

19 Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more: but yee seeme me, because I liue, and ye shall liue also.

20 That day shall yee knowe, that I am in my father, and you in me, and I in you.

21 He that hath my commaundements, and keepeth them, the same is he that loueth me: and he that loueth me, shall bee loued of my father, and I will loue him, & will shewe mine owne selfe to him.

22 Iudas saith vnto him, not Iudas Iscariot, Lord, what is come, that thou wilt shewe thy selfe vnto vs, and not vnto the world?

23 Iesus answered, & said vnto him, If a man loue me, he will keepe my sayings: and my father will loue him, and we will come vnto him, & make our dwelling with him.

24 He that loueth me not, keepeth not my sayings, and the word which ye heare, is not mine, but the fathers which sent me.

25 These things haue I spoken vnto you, being yet yet present with you.

26 But the Comforter which is the holy Ghost, whome the father will sende in my name, he shal teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoeuer I haue said vnto you.

27 Peace I leaue with you, my peace I giue vnto you: not as the world giueth, giue I vnto you: let not your heart bee troubled, neither let it feare.

28 Ye haue heard howe I said vnto you, I goe away, and come againe vnto you. If ye loue me, yee would verily reioyce, because I said, I go vnto the father: for the father is greater then I.

29 And now haue I shewed you before it come to passe, that when it is come to passe, ye might beleeue.

a Satan is the prince of the world, because he exercileth tyrannie in this world, & worldlings are subiect vnto him.

30 Hereafter will I not talke many words vnto you: for the a prince of this worlde commeth, and hath nought in me.

b Because Christ was without sinne.

31 But that the world may know that I loue the father: and as the father gaue me commaundement, euen so doe I. Arise, let vs go hence.

The xv. Chapter.

y The consolation betweene Christ & his members, vnder the parable of the vine.

I Am the true vine, and my father is the husbandman.

The Gospel on S. Markes day. Mat.15,13.

2 Euery a branch that beareth not fruite in me, he taketh away: and euery branch that beareth fruite, he purgeth, that it may bring forth more fruite.

Ioh. 13. 11.

3 Now are yee cleane through the word which I haue spoken vnto you.

4 Bide in me, & I in you: As the branch can not beare fruite of it selfe, except it bide in the vine: no more can yee, except ye a abide in me.

a Those bring forth no fruit, that are not graft in Christ.

5 I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruite: for without me can ye do nothing.

6 If a man bide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and withereth, and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they burne.

7 If ye bide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall aske what ye will, and it shall be done for you.

8 Herein is my father glorified, that yee beare much fruit, and become my disciples.

9 As the father hath loued me, euen so haue I loued you: continue you in my loue.

b That is, the loue wherewith Christ loued vs.

10 If ye keepe my commaundements, ye shall abide in my loue, euen as I haue kept my fathers commaundements, and abide in his loue.

11 These things haue I spoken vnto you, that my ioy might remaine in you, and that your ioy might be full.

The Gospel on S. Barnabe Apostle. Iohn 13.34 1.Ioh.3.11 1.thess.4.9.

12 This is my commaundement, that ye loue together, as I haue loued you.

13 Greater loue hath no man then this, that a man bestow his life for his friends.

14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoeuer I command you.

15 Henceforth call I not you seruaunts, for the seruant knoweth not what his lorde doeth, but you haue I called friends: for all things that I haue heard of my father, haue I made known vnto you.

c So that there is nothing omitted that is necessary for our saluation. Mat. 28, 19 16 Ye haue not chosen mee, but I haue chosen you, & ordained you, that you should goe and bring forth fruite, & that your fruite should remaine: that whatsoeuer ye shal aske of the father in my name, he may giue it you.

The Gospel on S. Simon and Iudes day.

17 This commaund I you, that yee loue together.

18 If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.

19 If yee were of the worlde, the world would loue his owne: howbeit, because yee are not of the worlde, but I haue chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

20 Remember the worde that I sayde vnto you, The seruant is not greater then his lord: if they haue persecuted mee, they will also persecute you: if they haue kept my saying, they will keepe [d] yours also.

Iohn 13.16 mat.10.24

21 But all these things will they doe vnto you for my names sake, because they haue not knowen him that sent me.

22 If I had not come, and spoken vnto them, they should haue had no sinne: but nowe haue they nothing to cloke their sinne withall.

23 He that hateth me, hateth my father also.

24 If I had not done among them the workes which none other man did, they should haue had no [e] sinne: but nowe haue they both seene, and hated both me and my father.

25 But this commeth to passe, that the word might bee fulfilled that is written in their law, *They hated me without a cause.

26 But when the comforter is come, *whome I will sende vnto you from the father, euen the spirit of trueth, which proceedeth of the father, he shall testifie of me.

27 And ye shall beare witnes also, because ye haue bene with me from the beginning.

The xvj. Chapter.

7 Of the holy Ghost, and of his office. 17 Of Christes ascension. 23 To aske in the name of Christ.

THese things haue I sayd vnto you, because yee should not bee offended.

2 They shall put you out of their synagogue: yea, the time commeth, that whosoeuer killeth you, will thinke that he doeth God seruice.

3 And such things will they do vnto you because they haue not knowen the father, neither yet me.

4 But these things haue I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember them that I told you: These things said I not vnto you at the beginning, because I was present with you.

5 But nowe I goe my way to him that sent me, and none of you asketh me, whither goest thou?

6 But because I haue sayde such things vnto you, sorow hath filled your hearts.

7 Neuertheless I tell you the trueth, it is expedient for you that I goe away: for if I goe not away, that Comforter will not come vnto you: but if I depart, I will send him vnto you.

8 And when he is come, he will [f] rebuke the world of sinne, and of righteousnesse, and of iudgement.

9 Of sinne, because they beleeued not on me.

10 Of righteousnesse, because [g] I goe to my father, and ye see me no more.

11 Of iudgement, because the prince of this world is iudged alreadie.

12 I haue yet many things to say vnto you, but ye cannot beare them away nowe.

13 Howbeit, when he is come which is the spirit of trueth, hee will leade you into all trueth. For he shall not speake of himselfe: but whatsoeuer he shal heare, that shall he speake: and he will shew you things to come.

14 He shall glorifie me: for he shall receiue of mine, and shall shewe vnto you.

15 All things that the father hath, are mine: therefore saide I vnto you, that hee taketh of mine, and shall shewe vnto you.

16 After a while, and ye shall not see mee: and againe after a while, and ye shall see me: for I goe to the father.

17 Then saide some of his disciples betweene themselues, what is this that hee saith vnto vs, After a while, and yee shall not see me, and againe, After a while, and ye shall see me: and, That I goe to the father?

18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, After a while? we cannot tell what he saith.

19 Iesus perceiued that they would aske him, and saide vnto them, Doe yee enquire among your selues of that I sayde, After a while, and yee shall not see mee: and againe, After a while, and ye shall see me?

20 Verily, verily I say vnto you, that yee shall weepe and lament, the worlde shall reioyce: ye shall sorowe, but your sorow shall be turned to ioy.

21 A woman, when she trauaileth, hath sorowe, because her houre is come: but as soone as she is deliuered of the childe, shee remembreth no more the anguish, for ioye that a man is borne into the world.

22 And ye now therefore haue sorow: but I will see you [h] againe, and your hearts shall reioyce, and your ioye no man taketh from you.

23 And in that day shall yee aske mee no question: *verily, verily I say vnto you, whatsoeuer yee shall aske the father in my Name, he will giue it you.

24 Hitherto haue yee asked [i] nothing in my Name: aske, and ye shal receiue, that your ioy may be full.

25 These things haue I spoken vnto you by prouerbs: the time commeth when I shal no more speake vnto you by prouerbes, but I shall shew you plainely of my father.

26 At that day shall ye aske in my Name: and I say not vnto you that I will pray vnto my father for you:

27 For the father himselfe loueth you, because yee haue loued mee, and haue beleeued that I came out from God.

28 I went out from the father, and came into the worlde: againe, I leaue the worlde, and goe to the father.

29 His disciples say vnto him, Loe, nowe talkest thou plainely, and speakest no prouerbe.

30 Nowe are we sure that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man shoulde aske thee any question: therefore beleeue we that thou camest from God.

31 Iesus answered them, Do ye now beleeue?

32 *Behold,

[d] Persecutes their worde, not that it doth disagree from Gods worde, but because they preach it, 2. Cor. 4.

[e] They are without all excuse that follow not the word of God preached vnto them.

The Gospel on the iij. Sunday after Easter.

[f] Or, conuince.

[g] That when the world shall see after his ascension the power of his spirit, shewed vpon the Apostles by him, they shall be compelled to confesse that he was iust, and that he was not condemned of God for a blasphemer, (as they had iudged) but receiued vp into heauen. Acts 2. 27.

[h] By the power of the holy Ghost, which I will shewe to you, whereby your hearts shalbe comforted.

The Gospel on the fifth sunday after Easter, Mat. 7. 7.

[i] They were not yet indued with the excellent knowledge, that he was the onely mediator, and therefore that which they asked before, was nothing in respect of that which they should aske and obtaine by faith, when their knowledge was grounded, and that he was ascended.

Mat.26.31. mar.14.27. 32 *Behold, the houre draweth nigh, and is alreadie come, that yee shalbe scattered, euery man to his owne, and shall leaue me alone: and yet am I not alone, for the father is with me.

33 These words haue I spoken vnto you, that in mee yee might haue peace, for in the world ye haue tribulation: but bee of good cheare, I haue ouercome the world.

The xvij. Chapter.

Christ prayeth to his father, that their glorie might be made manifest.

THese wordes spake Jesus, & lift vp his eyes to heauen, and said, Father, the houre is come, glorifie thy sonne, that thy sonne also may glorifie thee:

Mat.28.18. 2 *As thou hast giuen him power ouer all flesh, that he should giue eternall life to as many as thou hast giuen him.

3 This is the life eternall, that they might knowe thee the onely true God, and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent.

4 I haue glorified thee on the earth: I haue finished the worke which thou gauest me to doe.

5 And nowe glorifie thou me, O father, with thine owne selfe, with the glorie which I had with thee yer the world was.

a That is, to the Apostles.

6 I haue declared thy name vnto the men *which thou gauest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gauest them mee, and they haue kept thy word.

Iohn 26.27 7 *Nowe they haue knowen that all things whatsoeuer thou hast giuen me, are of thee:

8 For I haue giuen vnto them the words which thou gauest mee, and they haue receiued them, and haue knowen surely that I came out from thee, and they haue beleeued that thou didst send me.

b That is, the Apostles, that hold the head, and not Christ.

9 I pray for them, I pray not for the b world: but for them which thou hast giuen me, for they are thine.

10 And all mine are thine, and thine, are mine: and I am glorified in them.

11 And nowe am I not in the world, and they are in the worlde, and I come to thee. Holy father, keepe through thine owne name them, which thou hast giuen mee, that they may also be c one, as we are.

c That they may be ioyned together in loue and vnitie of loue, faith, and spirit.

12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gauest mee, haue I kept, and none of them is lost, but that d lost childe: *that the scripture might be fulfilled.

d That is, Iudas Iscariot. Psal.109.8.

13 Nowe come I to thee, and these wordes speake I in the world, that they might haue my ioy fulfilled in themselues.

14 I haue giuen them thy word, and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the worlde, euen as I also am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the worlde, but that thou shouldest keepe them from the euill.

16 They are not of the worlde, as I also am not of the world.

17 Sanctifie them through thy trueth: thy word is the trueth.

18 As thou diddest send me into the world: euen so haue I also sent them into the world.

19 And for their sakes sanctifie I my selfe, that they also might bee sanctified through the trueth.

20 Neuertheless, I pray not for them alone: but for them also which shall beleeue on me through their preaching:

21 That they all may bee one, as thou father art in mee, and I in thee, and that they also may be one in vs: that the world may beleeue that thou hast sent me.

22 And the glorie which thou gauest me, I haue giuen them: that they also may bee one, as we also are one.

23 I in them, and thou in mee, that they may be made perfect in one, & that the world may knowe that thou hast sent me, and hast loued them, as thou hast loued me.

Iohn 12.26 c That is, after they haue fulfilled their course in this life, they may enioy eternall life.

24 *Father, I will that they which thou hast giuen me, be c with me where I am, that they may see my glory which thou hast giuen me: for thou louedst mee before the foundation of the world.

25 O righteous father, the worlde also hath not knowen thee: but I haue knowen thee, and these haue knowen that thou hast sent me.

26 And I haue declared vnto them thy name, and will declare it: that the loue wherwith thou hast loued mee, may bee in them, and I in them.

The xviij. Chapter.

Christ is betraied by Iudas. 40 The Iewes aske Barabbas to be let loose.

WHen Jesus had spoken these wordes, he went forth with his disciples ouer the brooke Cedron, where was a garden, into the which hee entred and his disciples. The Gospel on good Friday. Mat.26.36. mar.14.32. luke 22.39.

2 Judas also which betraied him, knewe the place: for Jesus oft times resorted thither with his disciples.

3 *Judas then, after hee had receiued a band of men, and officers of the high priests and Pharisees, commeth thither with lanternes, and torches, and weapons. Mat.26.47. Mar.14.43. luke 22.47.

4 And Jesus knowing all things that should come on him, went forth, and said vnto them, Whom seeke ye?

5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith vnto them, I am he. Judas also which betraied him, stoode with them.

6 As soone then as he had said vnto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.

7 Then asked hee them againe, Whome seeke ye? They said, Jesus of Nazareth.

8 Jesus answered, I haue told you that I

I am he: If ye seeke me therefore, [a] let these goe their way.

Iohn 17.12

10 Then Simon Peter hauing a sword, drewe it, and smote the high priests seruant, and cutte off his right eare: The seruants name was Malchus.

11 Therefore said Iesus vnto Peter, Put vp thy sworde into the sheath: Shall I not drinke of the cuppe which my father hath giuen me?

12 Then the companie, and the captaine, and officers of the Iewes, tooke Iesus, and bound him,

Luke 3.2.

13 *And led him away to Annas first, (for he was father in law vnto Caiaphas) which was the high Priest that same yeere. And Annas sent Christ bounde vnto Caiaphas the high priest.

Iohn 11.50

14 *Caiaphas was he which gaue counsell to the Iewes, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

Mat.26.58.

15 *And Simon Peter followed Iesus, and so did another [b] disciple: That disciple was knowen vnto the high priest, and went in with Iesus into the palace of the high priest.

[b] That is, Iohn.

16 But Peter stoode at the doore without. Then went out that other disciple, which was knowen vnto the high Priest, and spake vnto the Damosell that kept the doore, and brought in Peter.

17 Then saith the damosell that kept the doore vnto Peter, Art not thou also one of this mans disciples? He saith, I am not.

18 The seruants and officers stood there, which had made a fire of coales (for it was colde) and they warmed themselues: Peter also was standing among them, warming him.

19 The high Priest then asked Iesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Iesus answered him, I spake openly to the worlde, I euer taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither all the Iewes resort, and in secret haue I said nothing.

21 Why askest thou me? Aske them which heard mee what I haue saide vnto them: behold, they can tell what I said.

22 When hee had thus spoken, one of the officers which stoode by, smote Iesus with a rodde, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?

23 Iesus answered him, If I haue euill spoken, beare witnesse of the euill: but if I haue well spoken, why smitest thou me?

24 *Now Annas had sent him bound vnto Caiaphas the high priest.

Mat.26.57.

25 Simon Peter was standing and warming himselfe: *Then saide they vnto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.

Mat.26.69.

26 One of the seruants of the high priests (his cousin whose eare Peter smote off) saith vnto him, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Peter therefore denied againe, and immediatly the cocke crewe.

28 *Then led they Iesus from Caiaphas into the hall of iudgement: It was in the morning, and they themselues went not into the iudgement hall, lest they shoulde bee defiled: *but that they might eate the Passeouer.

Acts. 10.28

29 Pilate then went out vnto them, and said, what accusation bring you against this man?

30 They answered and said vnto him, If he were not an euil doer, we would not haue deliuered him vnto thee.

31 Then sayd Pilate vnto them, Take ye him, and iudge him after your owne lawe. The Iewes therefore sayde vnto him, It is not lawfull [c] for vs to kill any man.

[c] Because the Romanes had taken that authoritie from them.

32 *That the wordes of Iesus might be fulfilled, which hee spake, signifying what death he should die.

33 *Then Pilate entred into the iudgement hall againe, and called Iesus, and said vnto him, Art thou the king of the Iewes?

Mat.27.19. Mat.27.11.

34 Iesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thy selfe? or did other tell it thee of mee?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Iew? Thine owne nation and high Priestes haue deliuered thee vnto me: what hast thou done?

36 Iesus answered, My kingdome is not of this worlde: if my kingdome were of this world, then would my seruants surely fight, that I should not be deliuered to the Iewes: but nowe is my kingdome not from hence.

37 Pilate therefore sayde vnto him, Art thou a king then? Iesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king: for this cause am I borne, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should beare witnesse vnto the truth: and all that are of the trueth heare my voyce.

38 Pilate saith vnto him, what is trueth? And when hee had said this, hee went out againe vnto the Iewes, and saith vnto them, I finde in him no fault at all.

39 *Ye haue a custome that I should deliuer you one loose at the Passeouer: will yee that I loose vnto you the king of the Iewes?

Mat.27.15. mark.15.6. luke 23.17.

Acts. 3.14.

The xix. Chapter.

1 Christ is whipped, beaten, and crowned. 11 All power is of God.

THen Pilate tooke Iesus therefore, and scourged him.

2 *And the souldiers, when they had wounde a crowne of thornes, they did put it on his head, and they did cast about him a purple garment,

Mat.27.26. mar.15.18.

3 And said, Haile, king of the Iewes: and strooke

Iewes, Behold your King.

15 They cried, Away with him, away with him, crucifie him. Pilate saieth vnto them, Shall I crucifie your King? The high priestes answered, We haue no King but Cesar.

16 *Then deliuered he him therefore vnto them to bee crucified: and they tooke Jesus, and led him away. Mat.27.31. mar.15.21. luke 23. 20

17 And he bearing his crosse, went foorth into a place which is called the place of a skull, but in the Hebrue, Golgotha:

18 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the middes.

19 And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the crosse. The writing was, IESVS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE IEWES.

20 This title read many of the Iewes: for the place where Jesus was crucified, was nigh to the citie: and it was written in Hebrue, and Greeke, and Latine.

21 Then said the high priests of the Iewes to Pilate, Write not the King of the Iewes: but that he said, I am King of the Iewes.

22 Pilate answered, What I haue written, that haue I written.

23 Then the souldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, tooke his garments, (and made foure parts, to euery souldier a part) & also his coate: now the coate was without seame, wouen from the toppe throughout. Mat.27.35 mar.15.24. luke 23.33

24 They said therefore among themselues, Let vs not deuide it, but cast lottes for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, saying, * They parted my raiment among them, and for my coate did they cast lottes. And the souldiers did such things in deede. Psal.22.29.

25 There stood by the crosse of Jesus, his mother, and his mothers sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene.

26 When Jesus therefore saw his mother and the disciple standing by, whom he loued, he saith vnto his mother, Woman, behold thy sonne. a That is, John.

27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother. And from that houre the disciple tooke her vnto his owne house.

28 After these things, Jesus knowing that all things were now performed, * that the Scripture might be fulfilled, he saieth, I thirst. Psal.69.22.

29 So there stood a vessell by, full of vineger: Therefore when they had filled a spunge with vineger, and put it vpon hyssope, they offered it to his mouth.

30 When Jesus therefore had receiued the vineger, he said, It is b finished, and when he had bowed his head, he gaue vp the ghost. b The mystery of mans redemption and salvation, is perfected by the onely sacrifice of Christ the promise to the fathers fulfilled, the ceremonies of the lawe ended.

31 The Iewes therefore, because it was the preparing of the Sabboth, that the bodies should not remaine vpon the crosse on the Sabboth day (for that Sabboth day was an high day) besought Pilate that their legges might be broken, and that they might be taken downe.

32 Then came the souldiers, and c brake the legges of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him. c Because they were not yet dead, for that was their customs.

33 But when they came to Jesus, & sawe that he was dead already, they brake not his legges.

34 But one of the souldiers with a speare thrust him into the side, and forthwith came out blood and water.

35 And he that saw it, bare record, and his record is true, and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might beleeue also.

36 For these things were done that the Scripture should be fulfilled, * A bone of him shall not be broken. Num.9.12. exo.12.46.

37 And againe another scripture saieth, * They shall looke on him whome they pearsed. Zac.12.10.

38 *After this, Joseph of Arimathea (being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for feare of the Iewes,) besought Pilat that he might take downe the body of Jesus, and Pilate gaue him licence: hee came therefore, and tooke the body of Jesus. Mat.27.57 mar.15.42. luke 23.50.

39 And

39 And there came also Nicodemus, which at the beginning came to Jesus by night, and brought of myrrhe and aloes mingled together, about an hundred pound waight.

40 Then take they the body of Jesus, and wound it in linnē clothes, with the odours, as the maner of the Iewes is to bury.

41 And in the place where hee was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was neuer man yet laide.

42 There layde they Jesus therefore, because of the preparing of the Sabboth of the Iewes, for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

The xx. Chapter.

Mat. 16, 1. luke 14, 1,

3 Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

4 They ran both together, and the other disciple did outrunne Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

7 And the napkin that was about his head, not lying with the linnen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by it selfe.

8 Then went in also that other disciple which came first to the sepulchre, and hee sawe, and beleeued.

9 For as yet they knewe not the Scripture, that he should rise from death.

10 Then the disciples went away againe vnto their owne house.

14 When she had thus said, she turned her selfe backe, and saw Jesus standing, & knew not that it was Jesus.

15 Jesus saieth vnto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whome seekest thou? She supposing that it had beene the gardener, saith vnto him, Sir, if thou haue borne him hence, tell me, where thou hast layd him, and I will fetch him.

16 Jesus saith vnto her, Mary. She turned her selfe, and sayde vnto him, Rabboni, which is to say, Master.

26 And after eight dayes, againe his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: Then came Jesus, the doores being shut, and stood in the middes, and saide, Peace bee vnto you.

27 After that saith he to Thomas, Bring thy finger hither, and see my hands, & reach hither thy hande, and thrust it into my side, and be not faithlesse, but beleeuing.

28 Thomas answered, and said vnto him, My Lord, and my God.

The xxj. Chapter.

Christ forewarneth Peter of his death and persecution.

Afterwarde did Jesus shewe himselfe againe to his disciples at the sea of Tiberias, and on this wise shewed he himselfe.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas, which is called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sonnes of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter saith vnto them, I goe a fishing. They say vnto him, We also goe with thee. They went their way, and entred into a shippe immediately, and that night caught they nothing.

4 But when the morning was nowe come, Jesus stoode on the shore: neuertheless, the disciples knewe not that it was Jesus.

5 Jesus saieth vnto them, ‖ Children, haue ye any meate? They answered him, No.

6 And hee saith vnto them, Cast out the net on the right side of the shippe, and ye shall finde. They cast out therefore, and anon they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

7 Then said the disciple whome Jesus loued, vnto Peter, It is the Lorde. When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lorde, he girt his coate vnto him (for hee was naked) and did cast himselfe into the sea.

8 The other disciples came in a little ship, (for they were not farre from land, but as it were two hundred cubites) drawing the net with fishes.

9 As soone then as they were come to land, they saw hote coles, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Jesus saith vnto them, Bring of the fish, which ye haue nowe caught.

11 Simon Peter went vp, and drewe the net to the land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three, & for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Jesus saieth vnto them, Come, and dine. And none of the disciples durst aske him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jesus then commeth, & taketh bread, and giueth them, and fish likewise.

14 This is nowe the third time that Jesus appeared to his disciples, after that hee was risen from death.

15 So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon ‖ Jonans, louest thou me more than these? He saith vnto him, Yea Lorde, thou knowest that I loue thee. He saith vnto him, Feede my lambes.

‖ Or, sonne of Iona.

16 He saith to him againe the seconde time, Simon Jonans, louest thou me? He saith vnto him, Yea Lorde, thou knowest that I loue thee. He saith vnto him, Feede my sheepe.

17 He said vnto him the third time, Simon Jonans, louest thou me? Peter was sorie, because he said vnto him the third time, Louest thou me? And hee saide vnto him, Lord, thou knowest all things, thou knowest that I loue thee. Jesus saith vnto him, Feede my sheepe.

18 Verily, verily I say vnto thee, when thou wast yonger, thou girdedst thy selfe, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and leade thee whither thou wouldest not.

19 This spake hee, signifying by what death he should glorifie God. And when hee had spoken this, he saith vnto him, Followe me.

20 Peter turning about, seeth the disciple whom Jesus loued, following, which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee? John 13.23

21 When Peter therefore saw him, hee saith to Jesus, Lord, what shall he doe?

22 Jesus saith vnto him, If I will haue him to tarie till I come, what is that to thee? Followe thou me. The Gospel on S. Johns Euangelists day.

23 Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not vnto him, He shal not die: but, If I will that he tarie till I come, what is that to thee?

24 The same disciple is hee which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things, and we knowe that his testimonie is true. John 20.3.

25 ¶ There are also many other things which Jesus did, the which if they should be written euery one, I suppose the world could not conteine the bookes that should be written. Amen.

THE FIRST BOOKE HAVE I made, O Theophilus, of all that Iesus began both to doe and teach,

2 until the day in which he was taken vp, after that he through the holy Ghost had giuen commaundements vnto the Apostles, whom he had chosen:

3 To whom also he shewed himselfe alyue after his passion, and that by many tokens, appearing vnto them fourtie dayes, & speaking of the kingdome of God:

4 And gathering them together, commaunded them that they should not depart from Hierusalem, but waite for the promise of the father, * whereof saith he, ye haue heard of mee.

11 which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing vp into heauen? This same Iesus which is taken vp from you into heauen, shall so come, euen as ye haue seene him goe into heauen.

12 Then returned they vnto Hierusalem, from the mount that is called Olivet, which is from Hierusalem a Sabboth dates iourney.

13 And when they were come in, they went vp into a parlour, where abode both Peter, and Iames, and Iohn, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthewe, Iames the sonne of Alpheus, and Simon Zelotes, and Iudas the brother of Iames.

14 These all continued with one accorde in prayer and supplication with the women, and Marie the mother of Iesus, and with his brethren.

3 Which seeing Peter and John about to goe into the temple, asked almes.

4 And Peter fastening his eyes vpon him, with John, said, Looke on vs.

5 And he gaue heede vnto them, trusting to receiue something of them.

6 Then said Peter, Siluer and gold haue I none, but such as I haue, giue I thee: In the Name of Iesus Christ of Nazareth rise vp, and walke.

7 And hee tooke him by the right hande, and lift him vp: and immediatly his feete and ancle bones receiued strength.

8 And he leaping vp, stoode, and walked, and entred with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praysing God.

9 And all the people sawe him walking and praysing God.

10 And they knewe him, that it was hee which sate for the almes at the beautifull gate of the Temple: and they wondered, and were sore astonied at that which had happened vnto him.

7 Seuen Deacons are ordained in the Church. 11 Steuen is accused.

IN those dayes, when the number of the disciples grew, there arose a murmuring among the Grecians against the He-brues, because their widowes were neglected in the ministration.

2 Then the twelue called the multitude of the disciples vnto them, and said, It is not reason that we should leaue the word of God you among you seuen men of honest report, and full of the holy Ghost, and wisedome, whom we may appoint ouer this businesse. 4 But we will giue our selues continually to prayer, and to the ministring of the word. 5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen a man full of faith and holy ghost, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicholas a conuert of Antioch: 6 Whom they set before the Apostles: and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them.

7 And the word of God increased, and the number of the disciples multiplied in Hieru-salem greatly; and a great companie of the Priests were obedient to the faith.

ders, and the Scribes, and came vpon him, and caught him, and brought him to the councell,

ing stedfastly on him, saw his face as it had

The viij. Chapter.

1 The Apoſtles are ſcattered abroade. 38 Philip baptiſeth the Eunuch.

AND Saul was conſenting vnto his death: and at that time there was a great perſecution againſt the Church which was at Hieruſalem, and they were all ſcattered abroade throughout the regions of Iurie, and Samaria, except the Apoſtles.

2 And deuout men caried Steuen together to his buriall, and made great lamentation ouer him.

3 As for Saul, hee made hauocke of the Church, entring into euery houſe, & drawing out both men and women, did put them into priſon.

4 Therefore they that were ſcattered abroade, went euery where preaching the word of God.

5 Then came Philip into the citie of Samaria, and preached Chriſt vnto them.

6 And the people gaue heede vnto thoſe things which Philip ſpake, with one accord, hearing and ſeeing the miracles which he did.

7 For vnclene ſpirits, crying with loude voice, came out of many that were poſſeſſed with them: and many taken with palſies, and many that halted, were healed.

8 And there was great ioy in that citie.

9 But there was a certaine man called Simon, which before time in the ſame citie vſed witchcraft, and bewitched the people of Samaria, ſaying that hee was a man that could doe great things:

10 To whom they all gaue heede, from the leaſt to the greateſt, ſaying, This man is the great power [illegible].

11 And [illegible] let vnto by, becauſe that of long time [illegible] bewitched them with ſoceries.

12 But when they beleeued Philips preaching of the [illegible]dome of God, and of the name of Ieſus Chriſt, they were baptized, both men and women.

13 Then Simon [illegible] beleeued alſo: and when hee was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondred, beholding the miracles and tignes which were done.

14 When the Apoſtles which were at Hieruſalem, heard ſay that Samaria had receiued the worde of God, they ſent vnto them Peter and Iohn.

15 Which when they were come downe, prayed for them that they might receiue the holy Ghoſt.

16 (For as yet hee was come downe vpon none of them: but they were baptized [a] onely in the name of Chriſt Ieſu.)

17 Then laide they their hands on them, and they receiued the holy Ghoſt.

18 And when Simon ſawe that through laying on of the Apoſtles handes, the holy Ghoſt was giuen, he offered them money, 19 Saying, Giue me alſo this power, that on whomſoeuer I put the hands, he may receiue the holy Ghoſt.

20 But Peter ſaid vnto him, Thy money periſh with thee, becauſe thou haſt thought that the gift of God may bee obteyned with money.

21 Thou haſt neither part nor fellowſhip in this buſineſſe: for thy heart is not right in the ſight of God.

22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedneſſe, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiuen thee.

23 For I perceiue that thou art [b] in the gall of bitternes, and in the bonde of [c] iniquitie.

24 Then anſwered Simon, and ſaide, Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of theſe things which ye haue ſpoken, fall on me.

25 And they, when they had teſtified and preached the worde of the Lord, returned toward Hieruſalem, and preached the Goſpel in many villages of the Samaritanes.

26 And the Angel of the Lord ſpake vnto Philip, ſaying, Ariſe, and goe toward the South, vnto the way that goeth downe from Hieruſalem vnto Gaza, which is deſert.

27 And hee aroſe, and went: and behold, a man of Ethiopia, an Eunuch, and of great authoritie with Candace, Queene of the Ethiopians, and hee had the rule of all her treaſure, which came to Hieruſalem for to worſhip, 28 And as hee returned, hee ſate in his charet, and red Eſaias the Prophet.

29 Then the Spirit ſaid vnto Philip, Come neere, and ioyne thy ſelfe to this charet.

30 And

[a] They that were baptized onely in the name of Chriſt, no doubt had receiued the holy Ghoſt ſufficiently ſanctifying their ſalutation: but for further confirmation of Chriſts religion, moſt worthily for ſtoode the moſt rich and liberall gifts of the holy Ghoſt appeared among the Chriſtians by laying on of the hands of the Apoſtles.

[b] Thou art ſhed in vnrighteouſneſſe & ſinne. Thou haſt bene long with the Prophet, neither will thou chuſe but be ſtayed.

30 And Philip ranne thither to him, and heard him reade the Prophet Esaias, & said, Vnderstandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he saide, How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Philip that he would come vp, and sit with him.

32 The tenor of the Scripture, which he read, was this, * He was ledde as a sheepe to the slaughter, and like a lambe dumbe before the shearer: so opened not hee his mouth.

Esai 53.7.

33 In his humilitie, his iudgement is exalted: but who shall declare his generation? For his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the Eunuch answered Philippe, and saide, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the Prophet this? of himselfe, or of some other man?

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same Scripture, and preached vnto him Jesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came vnto a certaine water: & the Eunuch said, See, here is water, what doth let me to be baptized?

37 Philip saide vnto him, If thou beleevest with all thine heart, thou maist. And he answered, and saide, I beleeue that Jesus Christ is the sonne of God.

38 And he commanded the charet to stand still: and they went downe both into the water, both Philip, and also the Eunuch, and he baptized him.

39 And as soone as they were come out of the water, the spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the Eunuch sawe him no more: and he went on his way reioycing.

40 But Philippe was founde at Azotus: and hee walked thorowout the countrey, preaching in all the cities, till hee came to Cesarea.

The ix. Chapter.

3 The conuersion of Saul. 34 Peter healeth Eneas, 40 and raiseth vp Tabitha.

AND *Saul *yet breathing out threatnings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lorde, went vnto the high Priest, Rom. 9.3. The Epistle on the conuersion of S. Paul.

2 And desired of him letters to carie to Damascus, to the Synagogues, that if he founde any of this way, whether they were men or women, hee might bring them bound vnto Hierusalem.

* Saul wasted & destroyed with rage and cruelte against Christes Church, which declareth vnfeyned man to be no man vnlesse he haue the true knowledge of God.

3 And when hee iourneyed, it came to passe, that as hee was come nigh to Damascus, suddenly there shined roundе about him a light from heauen.

4 And he fell to the earth, & heard a voice saying vnto him, * Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

1. Cor. 15.8

5 And he saide, who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: It is hard for thee to kicke against the pricks.

6 And hee both trembling and astonied, saide, Lord, what wilt thou haue me to doe? And the Lord saide vnto him, Arise, and goe into the citie, and it shall be tolde thee what thou must doe.

7 The men also which iourneyed with him, stoode amazed, [b] hearing a voyce, but seeing no man.

[b] No marueile though weake & corruptible flesh was amazed at heauenly things, & at the voice of God, seeing by it came to passe, that they heard a voyce, as here is written, and heard no voice, as is written in the 22. Chapter. For they heard a voyce, and vnderstoode it not.

8 And Saul arose from the earth, and when his eyes were opened, he sawe no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.

9 And he was three dayes without sight, and neither did eate nor drinke.

10 And there was a certaine disciple at Damascus, named Ananias: and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he saide, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 And the Lord said vnto him, Arise, and goe into the streete, which is called Straight, and seeke in the house of Judas, after one called Saul, of Tarsus: for beholde, hee prayeth, 12 And hath seene in a vision, a man named Ananias, comming in to him, and putting his hands on him, that hee might receiue his sight.

13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I haue heard by many of this man, how much euill he hath done to thy saints at Hierusalem:

14 And here he hath authoritie of the high priestes, to bind all that call on thy name.

15 The Lord said vnto him, Goe thy way: for he is a chosen vessell vnto me, to beare my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel.

16 For I will shew him howe great things he must suffer for my names sake.

17 And Ananias went his way, and entred into the house, and put his handes on him, and said, Brother Saul, the Lord (euen Jesus that appeared vnto thee in the way as thou camest) hath sent me, that thou mightest receiue thy sight, and be filled with the holy Ghost.

18 And immediatly there fell from his eyes as it had beene scales, and hee receiued sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized.

19 And when hee had receiued meate, he was comforted. Then was Saul certaine dayes with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20 And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the sonne of God.

21 But all that heard him, were amazed, and saide, Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Hierusalem, & came hither for that intent, that hee might bring them bound vnto the high priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jewes which dwelt at Damascus, proouing by conferring one Scripture with another, that this is very Christ.

23 And after that many dayes were fulfilled, the Jewes tooke counsell together to kill him.

24 But

24 But their laying awaite was knowen of Saul: * and they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

25 Then the disciples tooke him by night, and put him downe by the wall, and let him downe in a basket.

26 And when Saul was come to Hierusalem, hee assayed to couple himselfe to the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, and beleeued not that he was a disciple.

27 But Barnabas tooke him, & brought him to the Apostles, and declared vnto them howe he had seene the Lord in the way, and that hee had spoken to him, and howe he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Iesus.

28 And he was with them comming in, and going out at Hierusalem, 29 Speaking boldly in the name of the Lorde Iesus, and hee spake and disputed against the Grecians: but they went about to slay him.

30 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him to Cesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

31 Then had the Churches rest throughout all Iurie, and Galilee, and Samaria, and were edified, and walked in the feare of the Lorde, and multiplied by the comfort of the holy Ghost.

32 And it came to passe, as Peter walked throughout all quarters, hee came also to the saints which dwelt at Lydda.

33 And there he found a certaine man named Eneas, which had kept his bed eight yeeres, and was sicke of the palsie.

34 And Peter said vnto him, Eneas, Iesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, & make thy bed. And he arose immediately.

35 And all that dwelt at Lydda and Saron, saw him, which turned to the Lord.

36 There was also at Ioppa a certaine woman, a disciple, named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas: the same was full of good workes, and almes deedes, which she did.

37 And it came to passe in those dayes that shee was sicke, and died: whome when they had washed, they laid her in an vpper chamber.

38 And forasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Ioppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent vnto him two men, desiring him that he would not be grieued to come to them.

39 Then Peter arose, & came with them: when hee was come, they brought him into the vpper chamber: And all the widowes stoode rounde about weeping, and shewing the coates and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them.

40 And Peter put them all forth, & kneeled downe, and prayed, and turned him to the bodie, and said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eies, and when she saw Peter, she sate vp.

41 And he gaue her his hand, and lift her vp: and when he had called the saints and widowes, he deliuered her aliue.

42 And it was knowen throughout all Ioppa, and many beleeued in the Lord.

43 And it came to passe, that he tarried many dayes in Ioppa, with one Simon a Tanner.

The x Chapter.

1 The vision that Peter sawe. 17 He was sent to Cornelius.

THere was a certaine man in Cesarea, called Cornelius, a centurion of the band, called the Italian band,

2 A deuoute man, & one that feared God with all his household, which gaue much almes to the people, and prayed God alway.

3 The same sawe by a vision euidently, about the ninth houre of the day, an angell of God comming in to him, and saying vnto him, Cornelius.

4 And when hee looked on him, hee was afraied, and sayde, what is it, Lorde? And hee said vnto him, Thy prayers and thine almes are come vp into remembrance before God.

5 And nowe send men to Ioppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter.

6 Hee lodgeth with one Simon a Tanner, whose house is by the sea side: he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to doe.

7 And when the Angel which spake vnto Cornelius, was departed, hee called two of his household seruants, and a deuout souldier of them that waited on him,

8 And told them all the matter, and sent them to Ioppa.

9 On the morowe as they went on their iourney, and drew nigh vnto the citie, Peter went vp into the highest part of the house to pray, about the sixth houre.

10 And when he wared hungry, he would haue eaten: But while they made readie hee fell into a traunce,

11 And hee seeth [b] heauen opened, and a certaine vessell come downe vnto him, as it had bene a great sheete, knit at the foure corners, and let downe to the earth:

12 Wherein were all maner of foure footed beasts of the earth, and wilde beasts, and such as creepe, and fowles of the aire.

13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter: kill, and eate.

14 But Peter said, Not so, Lorde: for I haue neuer eaten any thing that is common or vncleane.

15 And the voice spake vnto him againe the seconde time, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

16 This was done thrise: and the vessell was receiued vp againe into heauen.

17 Nowe while Peter doubted in himselfe what this vision which he had seene a Tabitha is called Dorcas. Dorcas signifieth a Roe backe, a beast of sharp sight. Such an one was Tabitha, in this effect, that she being an earthly farre from heauen, did behold heauenly things, and hyde earthly things, and hyde heauen with godly workes.

a The prayers and almes of Cornelius pleased God before he knew Christ: teaching vs that whatsoeuer faith commeth short of, God accepteth it, for Christ sake. Gen. 18. 19. Exod. 33. 19. Iohn 3. 8. Rom. 9. 15. Iames 4. 6. 1 Pet. 5. 5.

b This vision doeth chiefly signifie two things. First, that the vncleanes of meates made vnto the Iewes is taken away, & abolished now. Secondly, for the graces & gifts of God are common vnto the Gentiles, and belong vnto them aswell as vnto the Iewes.

should meane: beholde, the men which were sente from Cornelius, had made inquirance for Simons house, and stoode before the doore, 18 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was sirnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 While Peter thought on the vision, the spirit said vnto him, Beholde, three men seeke thee.

20 Arise therefore, and get thee downe, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I haue sent them.

21 Then Peter went downe to the men which were sent vnto him from Cornelius, and sayde, Beholde, I am he, whome ye seeke: what is the cause wherefore yee are come?

22 And they said, Cornelius the captaine, a iust man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the people of the Iewes, was warned by an holy angell, to sende for thee into his house, and to heare words of thee.

23 Then called he them in, and lodged them: And on the morow Peter went away with them, and certaine brethren from Ioppa accompanied him.

24 And the third day after, entred they into Cesarea: and Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and speciall friends.

25 And it came to passe as Peter came in, Cornelius met him, and fell downe * at his feete, and worshipped him.

26 But Peter tooke him vp, saying, Stand vp, I my selfe also am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he came in, and findeth many that were come together.

28 And he said vnto them, Ye know how that it is an vnlawfull thing for a man that is a Iew, to company or come vnto one of another nation: but God hath shewed mee, that I should not call any man common or vncleane.

29 Therefore came I vnto you without delay, as soone as I was sent for: I aske therefore for what intent ye haue sent for me?

30 And Cornelius said, Foure dayes agoe vntill this houre I was fasting, and at the ninth houre I prayed in my house, and beholde, a man stood before me in bright clothing, 31 And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine almes deedes are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Ioppa, and call for Simon, whose sirname is Peter, he is lodged in the house of one Simon a Tanner, by the sea side, who when hee commeth, shal speake vnto thee.

33 Then sent I for thee immediatly, and thou hast wel done that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to heare all things that are commanded vnto thee of God.

34 Then Peter opened his mouth, & said, * Of a trueth I perceiue that God hath no regard of persons: The Epistle on Munday in Whitsun weeke. Deu.10.17. rom. 2.11. 1.pet.1.17. luke 4.14.

36 Touching the worde which God sent vnto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Iesus Christ (he is Lord ouer all.)

37 Ye know (I say) the word was published throughout all Iurie, beginning in Galilee, after the baptisme which Iohn preached:

38 How God anointed Iesus of Nazareth with the holy Ghost, and with power, who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the deuil: for God was with him.

39 And wee are witnesses of all things which he did in the land of the Iewes, and at Hierusalem, whom they slue, when they had hanged him on a tree.

40 Him God raysed vp the third day, and shewed him openly,

41 Not to all the people, but vnto vs witnesses, chosen before of God, euen to vs which did eate and drinke with him after hee rose from the dead.

42 And he commanded vs to preach vnto the people, and to testifie that it is hee which was ordeyned of God to bee the Iudge of quicke and dead.

43 * To him giue all the Prophets witnesse, that through his name whosoeuer beleeueth in him, shall receiue remission of sinnes. Acts. 15.9. iere. 31.34. mich. 7.11.

44 While Peter yet spake these words, the holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

45 And they of the circumcision which beleeued, were astonied, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was powred out the gift of the holy Ghost.

46 For they heard them speake with tongues, and magnifie God. Then answered Peter, 47 Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which haue receiued the holy Ghost as well as we?

48 And he commanded them to bee baptized in the name of the Lorde. Then prayed they him to tary certaine dayes.

The xj. Chapter.

22 Barnabas and Paul preach at Antiochia, 28 Agabus propheciech dearth to come.

AND the Apostles and brethren that were in Iurie, heard that the heathen had also receyued the word of God.

2 And when Peter was come vp to Hierusalem, they that were of the circumcision contended against him,

3 Saying, Thou wentest in to men vncircumcised, and didst eate with them.

4 But Peter rehearsed the matter from the

the beginning, and expounded it by order vnto them, saying,

5 I was in the citie of Ioppa praying, & in a traunce I saw a vision, a certaine vessell descend, as it had bene a great sheet, let down from heauen by foure corners, and it came euen vnto me.

6 Vpon the which when I had fastened mine eies, I considered, and saw fourefooted beastes of the earth, and wilde beastes and such as creepe, and foules of the ayre.

7 And I heard a voice, saying vnto me, Arise Peter, slay, and eate.

8 But I said, Not so, Lorde: for nothing common or vnclean hath at any time entred into my mouth.

9 But the voyce answered me againe frō heauen, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

a What meate diuers the Iewes held as vnlaw-full to the eaters of them lawe, they called it common or vncleane.

10 And this was done three times: and all were taken vp againe into heauen.

11 And beholde, immediatly there were three men already come vnto ‡ house where I was, sent from Cesarea vnto me.

12 And the spirite saide vnto me, that I shoulde goe with them, nothing doubting: Moreouer, these six brethren accompanied me, and we entred into the mans house:

13 And he shewed vs how he had seene an Angel in his house, which stood and said vnto him, Send men to Ioppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter:

14 He shall tell thee words, whereby both thou, and all thy house shalbe saued.

15 And as I began to speake, the holy Ghost fell on them, * as he did on vs at the beginning.

Acts 2.4.

16 Then remembred I the worde of the Lorde, howe that he said, * Iohn baptized with water: but ye shalbe baptized with b the holy Ghost.

Iohn 1.17. acts. 1.5.

b Or bee baptized with the holy Ghost, is to receiue the fulfilling graces & gifts of the holy Ghost.

17 Forasmuch then as God gaue the the like gift as he did vnto vs when we beleeued on the Lord Iesus Christ: what was I that I should haue withstand God?

18 When they heard these thinges, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles graunted repentance vnto life.

19 * They also which were scattered abroad through the affliction that arose about Steuen, walked throughout vnto Phenice, and Cypres, and Antioch, preaching the word to no man, but vnto the Iewes onely.

Acts 8.1.

20 And some of them were men of Cypres and Cyrene, which when they were come to Antioch, spake vnto the Grecians, and preached the Lord Iesus.

21 And the hand of the Lorde was with them: and a great number beleeued, and turned vnto the Lord.

22 Then tydings of these thinges came vnto the eares of the Church which was in Hierusalem: and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should goe vnto Antioch.

The Epistle on S. Barnabe Apostle.

23 Which when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleaue vnto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the holy Ghost, and of faith: and much people was added vnto the Lord.

25 Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus for to seeke Saul.

26 And when he had found him, he brought him vnto Antioch. And it came to passe, that a whole yeere they had their conuersation with the Church there, & taught much people: insomuch that the disciples at Antioch were the * first that were called Christians.

c That is that they were the first Christians that vsed that name of people both of the Iewes & gentiles, graffed into one bodie, & were made bolde openly to confesse the Lord of Christ.

27 And in those dayes, came prophets from Hierusalem vnto Antioch.

The Epistle on S. Iames. ‡ Apostle.

28 And there stood vp one of them, named Agabus, and signified by the d spirite, that there should be great dearth throughout all the world: which came to passe in the dayes of Claudius Cesar.

d The spirit signifies sundry things in holy Scripture: but here it signifies that the spirit of God was the author of this prophesying that thereby men might beleeue, & also the knowledge was not so graciously open then of the course of the starres or any other naturall cause.

29 Then the disciples, euery man according to his habilitie, purposed to sende succour vnto the brethren which dwelt in Iurie.

30 Which thing they also did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

The xij. Chapter.

1 Herode persecuteth the Christians, 24 The Gospell flourisheth.

AT the same time Herod ‡ king stretched forth his handes to vexe certaine of the Church.

The Epistle on S. Peters day.

2 And he killed Iames ‡ brother of Iohn with the sword.

3 And because hee sawe it pleased the Iewes, hee proceeded further, and took Peter also. (Then were the dayes of sweete bread.)

4 And when he had caught him, hee put him in prison also, & deliuered him to foure * quaternions of souldiers to be kept, intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

* That is, foure souldiers.

5 And Peter was kept in prison, but prayer was made without ceasing of the Church vnto God for him.

6 And when Herode would haue brought him forth vnto the people, the same night Peter was sleeping betweene two souldiers bound with two chaines, and the keepers before the doore kept the prison.

7 And behold, the Angel of the Lord was there present, and a light shined in the prison: and hee smote Peter on the side, and stirred him vp, saying, Arise vp quickly. And his chaines fell off from his hands.

8 And the Angel said vnto him, Gird thy selfe, and binde on thy sandales. And so he did. And he saith vnto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

9 And Peter came out, & followed him, and wist not ‡ it was trueth which was done by the Angel: but thought he had seene a vision.

10 When they were past the first and the second watch, they came vnto the Iron gate that leadeth vnto the citie, which opened to them by the own accord: and they went out, and passed on thorow one stret, & forthwith the angel departed from him.

11 And when Peter was come to himselfe, he saide, Now I know of a surete that the Lorde hath sent his Angell, and hath deliuered me out of the hand of Herode, and from all the wayting for of the people of the Iewes.

12 And as hee considered the thing, he came to the house of Marie the mother of Iohn, whose syrname was Marke, where many were gathered together in prayer.

13 As Peter knocked at the entrie doore, a damosell came forth to hearken, named Rhoda.

14 And when she knew Peters voyce, she opened not the doore for gladnes, but ran in, and tolde how Peter stoode before the doore.

15 And they said vnto her, Thou art mad. But she affirmed that it was euen so. Then said they, It is his [b] angel.

16 But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the doore, and sawe him, they were astonied.

17 And when hee had beckened vnto the with the hand, that they might holde their peace, he told them by what meanes ꝑ Lorde had brought him out of the prison: And hee said, Goe shew these thinges vnto Iames, & to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place.

18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no litle adoe among the souldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herode had sought for him, & found him not, he examined the keepers, and commaunded them to be carried away. And hee descended from Iurie to Cesarea, & there abode.

20 And Herode was displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: but they came all with one accord to him, and made intercession vnto Blastus the kings chamberlaine, and desired peace, because their countrey was nourished by the kings countrey.

21 And vpon the day appointed, Herode arayed him in royall apparell, and set him in his seate, and made an oration vnto them.

22 And the people gaue a shoute, saying, It is the voyce of a God, and not of a man.

23 And immediatly the Angel of the Lord smote him, because he gaue not God the honour, and he was eaten of [c] wormes, & gaue vp the ghost.

24 And the word of God grew, and [d] multiplied.

25 And Barnabas and Saul returned to Hierusalem, when they had fulfilled their office, and tooke with them Iohn, whose syrname was Marke.

[b] That they did know by gods worde, that angels were appointed to defend the faithfull, and also in those dayes they were accustomed to see such sights.

[c] The vilenesse of the punishment declareth here, that God hateth all pride and tyrannie. His grandfather also was eaten of lice.

[d] The more that tyrants goe about to suppresse gods word, ꝑ more doeth it encrease and multiplie.

2 As they ministred to the [a] Lord, and fasted, the holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul, for the worke whereunto I haue called them.

4 And they, after they were sent forth of the holy Ghost, departed vnto Seleucia, and from thence they sayled to Cyprus,

5 And when they were at Salamine, they preached the worde of God in the synagogues of the Iewes: & they had also Iohn to their minister.

6 And when they had gone thorowe the Ile vnto Paphos, they found a certaine sorcerer, a false prophet, a Iewe, whose name was Barieshu:

7 Which was with the deputie of ꝑ countrey, one Sergius Paulus, a prudent man: the same when he had called vnto him Barnabas and Saul, desired to heare the worde of God.

8 But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstoode them, seeking to turne the deputie away from the faith.

9 Then Saul (which also is called Paul) being full of the holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,

10 And sayde, O full of all subtiltie and all mischiefe, thou childe of the deuill, thou enemie of all righteousnesse, wilt thou not ceasse to peruert the right wayes of the Lorde?

11 And now behold, the hand of the Lord is vpon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sunne for a season. And immediatly there fell on him a mist and a darknesse, and hee went about, seeking them that shoulde leade him by the hand.

12 Then the deputie, when he saw what was done, beleeued, and wondered at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Nowe when they that were with Paul, were departed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: and Iohn, when he departed from them, returned to Hierusalem, 14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidis, and went into the synagogue on the Sabboth day, and sate downe.

15 And after the reading of the lawe and the Prophetes, the rulers of the synagogue sent vnto them, saying, Yee men and brethren, if ye haue any word to exhort the people, say on.

16 Then

16 Then Paul stood vp, and when hee had beckened with the hand for silence, said, Men of Israel, and ye that feare God, giue audience.

3.Reg.2.10

37 But he whom God raised againe, saw no corruption.

38 Be it knowen vnto you therefore, yee men and brethren, that through this man is preached vnto you the forgiuenesse of sinnes:

39 And by him, all that beleeue, are iustified from all things, from which ye could not be iustified by the Law of Moses.

40 Beware therefore, lest that fall on you, which is spoken of in the Prophets, 41 *Beholde, ye despisers, and woonder, and perish ye: for I do a worke in your dayes, a worke which yee shall in no wise beleeue, though a man declare it to you plainely.

Abac.1.5.

42 And when they were gone out of the Synagogue of the Iewes, the Gentiles besought that these wordes might be preached to them the nert Sabboth.

43 Nowe when the congregation was broken vp, many of the Iewes, & deuout Proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas, which speaking to them, exhorted them to continue in the grace of God.

44 And the nert Sabboth day came almost the whole citie together to heare the word of God.

45 But when the Iewes saw the people, they were full of indignation, & spake against those thinges which were spoken of Paul, speaking against, and railing.

46 Then Paul & Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessarie that the word of God should first haue bene spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, & think your selues vnworthy of euerlasting life, lo, we turne to the Gentiles.

Esai.49.10.

47 For so hath the Lord commanded vs, saying, *I haue made thee a light of the Gentiles, that thou be the saluation vnto the end of the world.

48 And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordeined to eternall life, beleeued.

49 And the worde of the Lord was published throughout all the region.

50 But the Iewes mooued the deuoute [c] and honest women, and the chiefe men of the citie, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, & expelled them out of their coasts.

51 But they shooke off the dust of their [d] feet against them, and came vnto Iconium.

52 And the disciples were filled with ioy, and with the holy Ghost.

c There were wealthy and substantiall women, and yet superstitious, being led with a blinde zeale, whome the common people esteemed very godly, and therefore Luke speaketh here of these women, as the world esteemed them.

d This they did according to the commandement of the Gospel, for a witnesse of their trauell, that they came into their citie, and offered to them the doctrine of the Gospel, which they contemned, and thereby signified also that they so detested their companie for this their contempt that they would not haue the dust of their citie hang vpon their feete.

The xiiij. Chapter.

1 God giueth ſucceſſe to his worde. 19 Paul is ſtoned.

AND it came to paſſe in Iconium, that they went both together into the Synagogue of the Iewes, and ſo ſpake, that a great multitude both of the Iewes, and alſo of the Greekes beleeued.

2 But the vnbeleeuing Iewes ſtirred vp, and corrupted the minds of the Gentiles againſt the brethren.

3 Long time therefore abode they there, ſpeaking boldly with the helpe of the Lorde, which gaue teſtimonie vnto the worde of his grace, and granted ſignes and wonders to be done by their hands.

a As it is a curſed vnitie which doeth ſeparate vs from God, ſo it is better an hundredtimes that a few depart from all the world, and to be at vnitie with God, then being at variance with him, to be in peace with the world.

4 But the multitude of the Citie a was diuided: and part helde with the Iewes, and part with the Apoſtles.

5 And when there was an aſſault made both of the Gentiles, and alſo of the Iewes, with their rulers, to doe them violence, and to ſtone them,

6 They were ware of it, and fled vnto Lyſtra & Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and vnto the region that lyeth round about.

b The perſecution of the Goſpell, is an occaſion oftentimes of further aduancement of the Goſpell.

7 And there were they preaching the b Goſpel.

8 And there ſate a certaine man at Lyſtra, weake in his feete, being a creeple from his mothers wombe, and neuer had walked.

9 The ſame heard Paul ſpeake: which beholding him, and perceiuing that he had faith to be whole,

10 Said with a lowde voyce, Stand vp right on thy feete: And he ſtart vp, and walked.

11 And when the people ſaw what Paul had done, they lift vp their voyces, ſaying in the ſpeech of Lycaonia, The Gods are come downe to vs in the likeneſſe of men.

12 And they called Barnabas Jupiter, and Paul Mercurius, becauſe hee was the chiefe ſpeaker.

13 Then Jupiters Prieſt, which was before their Citie, brought Oxen, and garlands vnto the doore, and would haue done ſacrifice with the people.

14 Which when the Apoſtles, Barnabas and Paul heard of, they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying,

15 And ſaying, Sirs, why doe ye theſe things? we alſo are mortall men like vnto you, and preach vnto you the Goſpell, that ye ſhoulde turne from theſe vanities, vnto the liuing God, * which made Heauen and earth, and the ſea, and all things that are therein.

Geneſ. 1.1. pſal. 146.6. apoca. 14.7 Pſal. 81.13.

16 The which in times paſt, * ſuffered all nations to walke in their owne wayes.

17 Neuertheles, he left not himſelfe without witneſſe, in that he ſhewed his benefites from Heauen, in giuing vs raine, and fruitfull ſeaſons, filling our heartes with foode and gladneſſe.

18 And with theſe ſayings ſcarſe refrained they the people, that they had not done ſacrifice vnto them.

19 Then thither came certaine Iewes from Antioch and Iconium, which when they had perſwaded the c people, * and had ſtoned Paul, drew him out of the citie, ſuppoſing he had bene dead.

c They that a little before would haue worſhipped Paul as God, now they are content that he ſhould be ſtoned as a wicked man: ſuch inconſtancie is in the ignorant multitude.

20 Howbeit, when the diſciples ſtoode round about him, he roſe vp, and came into the citie, and the next day hee departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

21 And when they had preached the Goſpell to that citie, and had taught many, they returned againe to Lyſtra, and to Iconium, and Antioch,

2. Cor. 11. 25.

22 And ſtrengthened the diſciples ſoules againe, and exhorted them to continue in the faith, and that we muſt through much tribulation enter into the kingdome of God.

23 And when they had ordeined them Elders by election in euery Church, and had prayed with d faſting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they beleeued.

d Here we learne, that whenſoeuer we goe about any waighty matter, we ought with abſtinence prepare our mindes vnto prayer, that it may be the more earneſt.

24 And when they had gone throughout Piſidia, they came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had ſpoken the worde of God in Perga, they deſcended into Attalia, 26 And thence departed by ſhippe to Antioch, from whence they were committed vnto the grace of God, to the worke which they fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the Church together, they rehearſed all that God had done with them, and howe he had opened the doore of faith vnto the Gentiles.

28 And there they abode long time with the diſciples.

The xv. Chapter.

1 The decree of the Apoſtles concerning circumciſion, and other ceremonies of the Iewes. 35 Paul & Barnabas preach in Antioch. 39 Paul and Barnabas falling at ſtrife, breake company.

AND certaine men which came downe from Jurie, taught the brethren, and ſaide, * Except ye be circumciſed after the maner of Moſes, ye cannot bee ſaued.

Gen. 5.1.

2 So when there was riſen diſſention & diſputing not a little vnto Paul and Barnabas againſt thē, they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certaine other of them, ſhould goe vp to Hieruſalem vnto the Apoſtles and Elders, about this queſtion.

3 And after they were brought on their way by the Church, they paſſed thorow Phenice and Samaria, declaring the conuerſation of the Gentiles: and they brought great ioy vnto all the brethren.

4 And

4 And when they were come to Hierusalem, they were receiued of the Church, and of the Apostles, and Elders, and they declared all thinges that God had done with them.

5 Then rose vp certaine of the sect of the Pharisees which did beleeue, saying, that it was needefull to circumcise them, & to command to keepe the law of Moses.

6 And the Apostles and Elders came together for to consider of this matter.

7 And when there had beene much disputing, Peter rose vp, and said vnto them, Ye men and brethren, ye know how that a good while agoe, God did chose among vs, that the Gentiles by my mouth should heare the word of the Gospell, and beleeue.

Act. 10. 30. and 11. 13.

8 And God, which knoweth the hearts, bare them witnesse, and gaue vnto them the holy Ghost, euen as he did vnto vs:

9 * And put no difference betweene vs and them, purifying their hearts by faith.

Act. 10. 43. 1. cor. 1. 1. matt. 23. 4.

10 Now therefore why tempt ye God, to put on the disciples neckes the a yoke, which neither our fathers nor we were able to beare?

a Ye meaneth the whole law, and not the ceremonies onely, and calleth it a yoke not: able to bee borne, because no man, not the most holy and perfect that euer was (Christ onely excepted) was able to performe the same in all poynts, both outwardly according to the letter, and inwardly according to the spirit.

11 But we beleeue that through the grace of the Lord Iesus Christ, we shalbe saued, euen as they.

12 Then al the multitude kept silence, and gaue audience to Barnabas & Paul, which tolde what signes and wonders God had shewed among the Gentiles by them.

13 And when they held their peace, Iames answered, saying, Men and brethren, harken vnto me.

14 Simeon tolde how God at the beginning did visite, to receiue of the Gentiles a people in his name.

15 And to this agree the words of the prophets, as it is written,

Amos 9. 11

16 * After this I will returne, and will build againe ẏ b tabernacle of Dauid, which is fallen downe: and that which is fallen in decay of it, will I build againe, and I will set it vp:

b The Prophet in this place, prophesied of Christs comming in ẏ flesh, which should builde againe the tabernacle of Dauid, which figured Gods Church, but then vtterly defaced and thought to raine, by the Pharisaicall and Iewish superstitions.

17 That the residue of men might seeke after the Lorde, and all the Gentiles vpon whom my name is called, sayeth the Lorde, which doeth all these things.

18 Known vnto God are all his workes from the beginning of the world.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that wee trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles are turned to God:

20 But that we write vnto them, that they abstaine themselues from filthinesse of idoles, and from fornication, and from strangled, and from blood.

21 For Moses of olde time hath in euery citie them that preach him in the Synagogues, when he is read euery Sabboth day.

22 Then pleased it the Apostles and Elders, with the whole Church, to send chosen men of their owne company to Antioche, with Paul and Barnabas: That is, Iudas, whose surname was Barsabas, and Silas, which were chiefe men among the brethren.

23 And wrote letters by them after this maner, The Apostles, and Elders, and brethren, sende greeting vnto the brethren, which are of the Gentiles in Antiochia, Syria, and Cilicia.

24 Forasmuch as we haue heard that certaine which departed from vs, haue troubled you with wordes, and combred your mindes, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keepe the lawe, to whome we gaue no such commandement:

25 It seemed therefore to vs a good thing, when we were come together with one accord, to send chosen men vnto you, with our beloued Barnabas and Paul,

26 Men that haue ieopарded their liues for the name of our Lord Iesus Christ.

27 We haue sent therefore Iudas and Silas, which shall also tell you the same things by mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the holy Ghost and to vs, to lay vpon you no greater burden then these necessarie things:

29 That is to say, That yee abstaine from things offered to idoles, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keepe your selues, ye shall do wel. So fare ye well.

30 Now therefore, when they were departed, they came to Antioche: & when they had gathered the multitude together, they deliuered the Epistle, 31 which when they had read, they reioyced of the consolation.

32 And Iudas & Silas, being Prophets also themselues, exhorted the brethren with many wordes, and strengthened them:

33 And after they had tarried there a space, they were let go in peace of the brethren vnto the Apostles.

34 Notwithstanding, it pleased Silas to abide there still.

35 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching & preaching the worde of the Lord, with other many also.

36 But after a certaine space, Paul sayd vnto Barnabas, Let vs go againe and visite our brethren in euery citie where wee haue preached the worde of the Lord, and know and see how they doe.

37 And Barnabas gaue counsell to take with them Iohn, whose surname was Marke.

38 But Paul would not take him vnto their company, which departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the worke.

39 And c the contention was so sharpe betweene them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so Barnabas tooke Marke, and sayled vnto Cyprus.

c God suffereth the weake perfect to fall, & permitteth their infirmities to the setting forth of his glory, as this breach of company caused the Gospell to be preached in more places.

40 And Paul chose Silas, and departed, being committed of the brethren vnto the grace of God.

4 And he went thorow Syria and Cilicia, stablishing the Churches.

The xvi. Chapter.

1 Paul circumciseth Timothie. 7 The spirit sendeth him to Macedonie, 14 Lydia is conuerted.

THen came he to Derbe, and to Lystra: and behold, a certaine disciple was there, named Timotheus, a womans son which was a Jewesse, and beleeued: but his father was a Greeke. Rom. 16. 21 phil. 1. 19. 1. thes. 3. 1.

2 Which was well reported of the brethren that were at Lystra and Iconium.

3 Paul would that hee should goe forth with him, and tooke and circumcised him, because of the Jewes which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Greeke.

4 And as they went through the cities, they deliuered them the decrees for to keepe, that were *ordeined of the Apostles and Elders which were at Hierusalem. Acts. 15. 28

5 And so were the Churches stablished in the faith, and increased in number dayly.

6 Now when they had gone throughout Phrygia, and the region of Galatia, & were forbidden of the holy Ghost to preach the word in Asia,

7 They comming to Mysia, sought to goe into Bithynia: but the spirit suffered them not.

8 And they passing thorowe Mysia, came downe to Troada.

9 And a vision appeared to Paul in the night: There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come into Macedonia, and helpe vs.

10 And after he had seene the vision, immediatly we prepared to goe into Macedonia, gathering by conference, that the Lord had called vs for to preach the Gospel vnto them.

11 Then we being caryed from Troada, came with a straight course to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis:

12 And from thence to Philippos, which is the chiefe citie in the parties of Macedonia, and a free citie: and we were in that citie abiding certaine dayes.

13 And on the day of the Sabbothes wee went out of the citie, beside a riuer, where prayer was wont to be made, and wee sate downe, and spake vnto the women which resorted thither.

14 And a certaine woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the citie of the Thyatirians, which worshipped God, gaue vs audience: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended vnto the things which were spoke of Paul.

15 And when she was baptized, and her houshold, she besought vs, saying, If ye haue iudged me to bee faithfull to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained vs.

16 And it came to passe, as wee went to prayer, a certaine damosell possessed with a spirit of soothsaying, met vs: which brought her masters much vantage with soothsaying.

a Which could tell of things past, & gesse at thinges to come, which knowledge in many things God permitteth to the deuiles into this end (as Austen noteth) that he might the more mightily deceiue those that would beleeue him.

17 The same followed Paul and vs, and cryed, saying, These men are the seruants of the most high God, which shewe vnto vs the way of saluation.

18 And this did she many dayes: but Paul not content, turned about, and said to the spirit, I commaund thee in the name of Iesu Christ, that thou come out of her. And hee came out the same houre.

19 And when her masters sawe that the hope of their gaines was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drewe them into the market place, vnto the rulers,

20 And brought them to the officers, saying, These men being Jewes, doe exceedingly trouble our citie:

21 And preach ordinances, which are not lawfull for vs to receiue, neither to obserue, seeing we are Romanes.

22 And the people ranne against them, and the officers rent their clothes, and commanded *to beate them with roddes. 1. Cor. 11. 25 1. thessa. 2.

23 And when they had layd many stripes vpon them, they cast them into prison, commaunding the iayloure of the prison to keepe them diligently.

24 Which when he had receiued such commandement, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feete fast in the stockes.

25 And at midnight, Paul & Silas prayed and lauded God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 And sodenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundation of the prison was shaken: and immediatly all the doores opened, and euery mans bandes were loosed.

27 When the keeper of the prison waked out of his sleepe, and sawe the prison doores open, he drew out his sword, and would haue killed himselfe, supposing that the prisoners had bene fled.

28 But Paul cryed with a loude voyce, saying, Do thy selfe no harme, for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell downe before Paul and Silas, 30 And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I doe to be saued?

31 And they sayde, Beleeue on the Lorde Iesus Christ, and thou shalt be saued, and thy household.

32 And they spake vnto him the worde of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

33 And he tooke them the same houre of the night, and washed their wounds, & was baptized himselfe, and all they of his household straightway.

34 And when he had brought them into his house, he set meat before them, and ioyed that that her with all his houshold beleeued on God.

35 And when it was day, the officers sent the sergeants, saying, Let those men go.

36 And the keeper of the prison tolde this saying to Paul, The officers have sent word to loose you: Nowe therefore, get you hence, and go in peace.

37 Then sayde Paul vnto them, They have beaten vs openly vncondemned, being Romanes, & have cast vs into prison, nowe doe they thrust vs out priuily? Nay verily: but let them come them selues, and fetch vs out.

38 And the sergeants tolde these wordes vnto the officers: and they feared when they heard that they were Romanes.

39 And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the citie.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entred into the house of *Lydia, and when Act. 16. 14. they had seene the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

The xvii. Chapter.

Paul commeth to Thessalonica, where the Iewes set the citie in an vprore.

NOw they made their iourney thorowe Amphypolis, and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a Synagogue of the Iewes.

2 And Paul, as his maner was, went in vnto them, and three Sabboth dayes disputed with them out of the scriptures,

3 Opening and alleaging, that Christ must needes have suffered and risen againe from the dead: and that this is Christ Iesus which I preach vnto you.

4 And some of them beleeued, and ioyned with Paul and Silas, and of the deuoute Greekes a great multitude, and of the chiefe women not a fewe.

5 But the Iewes which beleeued not, mooued with enuie, tooke vnto them certaine vagabonds, and euill men, and gathered a company, and set all the citie on a roare, and made assault vnto the house of Iason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they found them not, they drewe Iason and certaine brethren vnto the heads of the citie, crying, These that have troubled the world, are come hither also,

7 whome Iason hath receiued priuily: and these all doe contrary to the decrees of Ceasar, a saying that there is another king, one Iesus.

8 And they troubled the people, and the officers of the citie, when they heard these things.

9 And when they had taken sufficient suretie of Iason, and of the other, they let them goe.

10 And the brethren immediatly sent away Paul and Silas by night vnto Berea: which when they were come thither, they entred into the Synagogue of the Iewes.

11 These were the nobler of birth among them of Thessalonica, which receiued the word with all readinesse of minde, and searched the Scriptures dayly, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them beleeued: also of honest women which were Greekes, and of men not a fewe.

13 But when the Iewes of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither, and moued the people.

14 And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul, to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

15 And they that guided Paul, brought him vnto Athens, and receiued a commandement vnto Silas and Timotheus, for to come to him with speed, and were their way.

16 While Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was mooued in him, when he saw the citie giuen to worshipping of idoles.

17 Therefore disputed he in the Synagogue with the Iewes, and with the deuout persons, and in the market dayly with them that came vnto him by chance.

18 Then certaine philosophers of the b Epicures, and of the c Stoikes, disputed with him: and some sayd, what will this babbler say? Other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of newe gods: because he preached vnto them Iesus, and the resurrection.

19 And they tooke him, and brought him into the streete of Mars, saying, May wee knowe what this newe doctrine whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certaine straunge things to our eares: we would know therefore what these things meane.

21 (For all the Athenians and strangers which were there, had leasure to nothing els but either to tel or to heare some new thing.)

22 Then Paul stood in the middes of the streete of Mars, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceiue that in all things ye are too superstitious.

23 For as I passed by, and beheld the maner how ye worship your gods, I found an altar wherein was written, Vnto an vnknowen God. Whom yee then ignorantly worship, him shew I vnto you.

24 "God that made the world, and al that Acts 7. 48. are in it, seeing that hee is Lorde of heauen and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands:

25 "Neyther is worshipped with mens Psal. 50. 8. handes, as though hee needed of any thing, seeing he himselfe giueth life and breath to all euery where:

26 And hath made of one blood all nations of men, for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, & also the boundes of their habitation:

a Like quarell picking they laid against Christ: so these be the weapos wherby the world continually fighteth against the members of Christ, treason and sedition.

b The Epicures were a sect of learned men, which (being without the knowledge of God) held opinion, that there was no life or ioy after this life, but that all mans felicitie did consist in the pleasures of this world.

c The Stoikes were another kind of learned men, which likewise wanting the knowledge of God, affirmed that mans whole felicitie & happines did consist in the qualities and vertues of the minde.

27 That they should seeke the Lorde, if perhappes they might haue felt and founde him, thoughe he be not farre from euery one of vs.

28 For in him we liue, and moue, & haue our being, as certaine of your owne Poets haue sayd, For we are also his offspring.

Esai.40.18. d The Apostle termeth vs the generation of God, not that we be of the substance and nature of God, but because God hath created vs, and by his sonne Iesus Christ hath redeemed vs, and made vs his children by adoption, 29 *For as much then as we are the d offspring of God, we ought not to thinke that the Godhead is like vnto golde, siluer, or stone grauen by arte and mans deuice.

30 And the time of this ignorance God winked at, but nowe bindeth all men euery where to repent:

31 Because he hath appointed the day in the which he will iudge the worlde in righteousnesse, by that man whom he hath appointed, and hath offered faith to all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

32 And when they heard of the resurrection from the dead, some mocked: and other sayde, We will heare thee againe of this matter.

33 So Paul departed from among them.

34 Howbeit, certaine men claue vnto him, and beleeued: among the which was Dionys Areopagita, and a woman named Damaris, and other with them.

The xviii. Chapter.

3 Paul preacheth at Corinth. 24 Of Apollos, 26 Aquila and Priscilla.

AFter these things, Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth,

2 And found a certaine Iewe named *Aquila, borne in Pontus, lately come from Italie with his wife Priscilla, (because that Claudius had commaunded all Iewes to depart from Rome) and he came vnto them.

Rom.16.5.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, and wrought (for by their occupation they were Tent makers.)

4 And he disputed in the Synagogue euery Sabboth, and exhorted the Iewes, and the Greekes.

5 And when Silas & Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was constrayned by the spirit to testifie to the Iewes that Iesus was Christ.

6 And when they sayd contrarie, and blasphemed, *he shooke his rayment, and sayde vnto them, Your blood be a vpon your owne heads: from henceforth will I go blamelesse vnto the Gentiles.

Mat.12.14. actes 13.51

a By this Hebrue speach he signifieth, that he that dieth & perisheth, shal perish through his owne fault.

7 And he departed thence, and entred into a certaine mans house, named Iustus, a worshipper of God, whose house ioyned hard to the Synagogue.

8 *And one Crispus, the chiefe ruler of the Synagogue, beleeued on the Lord with all his houshold: and many of the Corinthians, hearing, beleeued, and were baptized.

1.Cor.1.14

9 Then spake the Lorde to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afrayd, but speake, and hold not thy peace.

10 For I am with thee, and no man shall inuade thee, to hurt thee: for I haue much people in this citie.

11 And hee continued there a yeere and sixe moneths, teaching the word of God among them.

12 And when Gallio was the deputie of Achaia, the Iewes made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the iudgement seate, 13 Saying, This fellow perswadeth men to worship God contrary to the law.

14 And when Paul nowe was about to open his mouth, Gallio said vnto the Iewes, If it were a matter of wrong, or an euill deede, O ye Iewes, reason would that I should beare with you:

15 But if it be a question of wordes and names, or of your lawe, looke yee to it your selues: for I will bee no iudge of such matters.

16 And hee draue them from the iudgement seate.

17 Then all the Greekes tooke Sosthenes the chiefe ruler of the Synagogue, and smote him before the iudgement seate: and Gallio cared for none of those things.

18 And Paul after this taried there yet a good while, and then tooke his leaue of the brethren, & sailed thence into Syria, (Aquila and Priscilla accompanying him,) And hee shore his head in b Cenchrea: for he had a vow.

b Cenchrea is a hauen at Corinth, where Paul taking ship, did shaue his head, according to his vowe. For according to the law of Moses, they that vowed themselues to God, were commanded to suffer their haire to growe as long as they would continue Nazarites, and afterward to shaue it, and to burne it. This did Paul, not forgetting what he had before decreed with the Apostles, touching the abolishing of the lawe: but lest the Iewes which beleeued should be offended, he framed himselfe a Iewe, to winne the Iewes. 1.Cor.9.1.

19 And he came to Ephesus, & left them there: but he himselfe entred into the Synagogue, and reasoned with the Iewes.

20 When they desired him to tarie longer time with them, he consented not:

21 But bade them farewell, saying, I must needs at this feast that commeth, be in Hierusalem, but I will returne againe vnto you, *if God will: and he sailed from Ephesus.

2.Cor.4.19 iames 4.16. 1.Cor.1.12

22 And when he was come vnto Cesarea, and ascended vp, & saluted the Church, he went to Antioch.

23 And when he had tarried there a while, he departed, and went ouer all the countrey of Galatia and Phrygia by order, strengthening all the disciples.

24 *And a certaine Iewe, named Apollos, borne at Alexandria, came to Ephesus, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures.

25 The same was instructed in the way of the Lord, & being feruent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing onely the baptisme of Iohn.

26 And the same began to speake boldly in the Synagogue: whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they tooke him vnto them, and c expounded vnto him the way of God perfectly.

c Apollos being a learned man, was not ashamed to be taught and instructed in the doctrine of Christ of a poore crafts man and his wife.

27 And when he was disposed to goe into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receiue him: which when hee was was come, helped them much which had beleeued through grace.

28 For he ouercame the Iewes mightily, and that openly, shewing by the Scriptures that Iesus was that Christ.

The xix. Chapter.

3 Of Baptisme. 6 Of the holy Ghost giuen by Pauls hands. 9 The Iewes blaspheme the doctrine of Paul.

AND it came to passe, that while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul passed through the vpper coasts, and came to Ephesus, & founde certaine disciples,

2 And saide vnto them, Haue yee receiued the a holy Ghost since yee beleeued? And they said vnto him, Wee haue not heard whether there be any holy Ghost or no.

3 And he said vnto them, Vnto what then were yee baptized? And they sayde, Vnto b Johns baptisme.

4 Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptisme of repentance, saying vnto the people, that they should beleeue on him which shoulde come after him, that is, on Christ Iesus.

5 When they heard this, they were baptised in c the name of the Lord Iesus.

6 And when Paul had laid his hands vpon them, the holy Ghost came on them, and they spake with tongues, and prophecied.

7 And all the men were about twelue.

8 And hee went into the Synagogue, and spake boldely for the space of three moneths, disputing and perswading those things that appertaine to the kingdome of God.

9 But when diuers wared hard hearted, and beleeued not, but spake euill of the way of the Lord, and that before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the Disciples: and he disputed daily in the schoole of one called Tyrannus.

10 And this continued by the space of two yeeres, so that all they which dwelt in Asia, hearde the worde of the Lorde Iesus, both Iewes and Greekes.

11 And God wrought special miracles by by the hands of Paul:

12 So that from his bodie were brought vnto the sicke, napkins, and partlets, and the diseases departed from them, and the euil spirits went out of them.

13 Then certaine of the vagabond Iewes, exorcistes, tooke vpon them to call ouer them which had euill spirits, the name of the Lord Iesus, saying, Wee adiure you by Iesus whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were seuen sonnes of one Sceua a Iewe, and chiefe of the Priestes, which did so.

15 And the euill spirit answered, and said, Iesus I know, and Paul I know, but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the euill spirite was, ranne on them, and ouercame them, and preuailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was knowen to al the Iewes and Greekes also which dwelt at Ephesus, and feare came on them all, and the name of the Lorde Iesus was magnified.

18 And many that beleeued, came, and confessed, and shewed their workes.

19 Many also of them which vsed curious craftes, brought their bookes and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fiftie thousand pieces of siluer.

20 So mightily grewe the worde of God, and preuailed.

21 After these thinges were ended, Paul purposed in the spirite, when he had passed ouer Macedonia and Achaia, to goe to Hierusalem, saying, After I haue bin there, I must also see Rome.

22 So sent hee into Macedonia two of them that ministred vnto him, Timotheus and Erastus, but he himselfe remained in Asia for a season.

23 And the same time there arose no little adoe about that way.

24 For a certaine man, named Demetrius, a siluer smith, which made siluer shrines for Diana, ministred no small gaine vnto the craftsmen:

25 Whome hee called together, with the workemen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, yee know that by this craft wee haue aduantage.

26 Moreouer, ye see and heare, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath perswaded and turned away much people, saying that they bee no gods, which are made with hands.

27 So that not onely this our craft commeth into perill to be set at nought: but also that the temple of the great goddesse Diana should bee despised, and her magnificence should bee destroyed, whome all Asia and the world worshippeth.

28 And when they hearde these sayings, they were ful of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

29 And al the citie was on a roze, and they rushed into the common hal with one assent, and caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Pauls companions.

30 When Paul would haue entred in vnto the people, the Disciples suffred him not.

31 But certain of the chiefe of Asia, which were his friends, sent vnto him, desiring him that hee woulde not preasse into the common hall.

32 Some therefore cryed one thing, and some another: and the assembly was all out of quiet, and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And certaine of the people drewe Alexander out of the multitude, the Iewes thrusting him forwards. And Alexander beckened with the hande, and woulde haue giuen the people an answere.

34 But a By the holy Ghost, here he meaneth the visible graces of the holy spirit.

b In this place, Johns baptisme signifieth Johns doctrine, which therefore is so called, for that he ioined his doctrine with the vse of baptisme in them that beleeued.

c That were baptised, were not baptised with water, being before baptised of John with water: but they were baptised with visible gifts of the holy Ghost which S. Luke declaring how it was, witnesseth that it was by the laying on of Saint Pauls hands.

34 But when they knewe that he was a Iewe, there arose a showte almost for the space of two houres of all men, crying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

35 And when the towne clarke had pacified the people, he saide, Yee men of Ephesus, what man is it that knoweth not howe that the citie of the Ephesians is ‖ the temple keeper of the great goddesse Diana, and of the image which came downe from Iupiter?

‖ Some reade, a worshipper.

36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to doe nothing rashly.

37 For ye haue brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of Churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddesse.

38 Wherefore if Demetrius, & the crafts men which are with him, haue a matter against any man, the lawe is open, and there are Deputies, let them accuse one another.

39 But if yee enquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a lawfull assembly.

40 For we are in ieopardie to be accused of this daies vprore, forasmuch as there is no cause whereby we may giue a reckoning of this concourse of people.

41 And when he had thus spoken, he let the assembly depart.

The xx. Chapter.

1 Paul goeth into Macedonia and Grecia: 7 He celebrateth the Lords supper, and preacheth.

AND after the vprore was ceased, Paul called the Disciples, and tooke his leaue of them, and departed, for to go into Macedonia:

2 And when he had gone ouer those parts, and had giuen them a long exhortation, hee came into Greece,

3 And there abode three moneths: & when the Iewes laid waite for him, as he was about to saile into Syria, hee purposed to returne thorow Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia Sopater of Berea: and of the Thessalonians Aristarcus, and Secundus, and Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus: and out of Asia Tychicus and Trophimus.

5 These going before, taried vs at Troas:

6 And wee sayled away from Philippos, after the daies of sweete bread, and came vnto them to Troas in fiue daies, where wee abode seuen daies.

7 And vpon one of the Sabboth dayes, when the Disciples came together for to *breake bread, Paul reasoned with them, ready to depart on the morrowe, and continued the talke vnto midnight.

Acts 2.46.

8 And there were many lights in an vpper chamber where they were gathered together.

9 And there sate in a windowe a certaine yong man named Eutychus, being fallen into a deepe sleepe: and as Paul was long reasoning, hee was the more ouercome with sleepe, and fell downe from the third loft, and was taken vp dead.

10 But when Paul went downe, he fell on him, and embraced him, and saide, Make nothing a doe: for his life is in him.

11 When hee therefore was come vp againe, and had broken bread and eaten, and talked a long whyle, euen till the morning, so he departed.

12 And they brought the yong man aliue, and were not a little comforted.

13 And we went afore to ship, and sailed vnto Asson, there to receiue Paul: for so had hee appointed, minding himselfe to goe a foote.

14 And when he was come to vs to Asson, we tooke him in, and came to Mitylene.

15 And we sailed thence, & came the next day ouer against Chios, and the next day we arriued at Samos, & taried at Trogyllium: the next day we came to Miletum.

16 For Paul had determined to saile ouer by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia: for he hasted, if it were possible for him, to be at Hierusalem the day of Pentecost.

17 And from Miletum he sent to Ephesus, and called the Elders of the Church.

18 which when they were come to him, he saide vnto them, Yee knowe from the first day that I came into Asia, after what maner I haue bene with you at all seasons,

19 Seruing the Lorde with all humblenesse of minde, and with many teares, and temptations, which came vnto mee by the layings of waite of the Iewes:

20 And howe I kept backe nothing that was profitable vnto you, but haue shewed you, and haue taught you openly & throughout euery house,

21 Witnessing both to the Iewes and also to the Greekes, the repentaunce that is toward God, and the faith which is toward our Lord Iesus Christ.

22 And nowe beholde, I go bound in the spirite vnto Hierusalem, not knowing the things that shall come vnto me:

a That is to say, I goe by the impulsion and commandement of the holy Ghost, who bindeth me as with a band.

23 But that the holy Ghost witnesseth in euery citie, saying that bondes and troubles abide me.

24 But none of these thinges moue mee, neither count I my life deare vnto my selfe, so that I might fulfill my course with ioy, and the ministerie which I haue receiued of the Lorde Iesu, to testifie the Gospell of the grace of God.

25 And now behold, I am sure that henceforth ye all, among whom I haue gone preaching the kingdome of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore, I take you to recorde this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men.

27 For I haue kept nothing backe, but haue shewed you all the counsell of God.

28 Take

28 Take heede therefore vnto your selues, and to all the flocke, ouer the which the holy ghost hath made you ouerseers, to rule the church of God, which hee hath purchased with his owne blood.

b That which appertaineth to Christs manhoode (which is shedding of blood) is here spoken of his Godhead, because of the communion of the properties and vnion of two natures in one person.

26 For I know this, that after my departing, shal grieuous wolues enter in among you, not sparing the flocke.

30 Also of your owne selues shall men arise, speaking peruerse thinges, to draw away disciples after them.

c Through their ambition, which is another of al sects and perelles.

31 Therefore watch, and remember that by the space of three yeeres I ceased not to warne euery one night and day with teares.

32 And now brethren, I commend you to God, and to the worde of his grace, which is able to build further, and to giue you an inheritance among al them which are sanctified.

33 I haue desired no mans siluer, or gold, or peasure.

1.Cor.4.12 1.the.2.9. 2.thes.3.8.

34 Yea, you your selues know, that these d hands haue ministred vnto my necessities, and to them that were with me.

35 I haue shewed you all things, how that so labouring yee ought to helpe the weake, and to remember the wordes of the Lord Iesu, (howe that hee said) It is more blessed to giue, then to receiue.

36 And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled downe, and prayed with them all.

37 And they all wept sore, and fell on Pauls neck, and kissed him, 38 Sorowing most of all for the wordes which he spake, that they should see his face no more: And they accompanied him vnto the ship.

The xxi. Chapter.

1 Pauls iourney by ship. 8 Of Philip the Euangelist, 10 and Agabus the Prophet.

AND when it came to passe that we had lanched forth, and were departed from them, wee came with a straight course vnto Choos, & the day following vnto the Rhodes, & from thence vnto Patara.

2 And when wee had found a ship sailing vnto Phenice, we went aboord, & set forth.

3 Nowe when Cyprus began to appeare vnto vs, we left it on the left hand, and sayled into Syria, and came vnto Tyre: for there the ship vnladed the burden.

4 And when we had found disciples, wee taried there seuen dayes: who sayd to Paul through the spirit, that he should not go vp to Hierusalem.

5 And when the dayes were ended, we departed, and went our way, & they al brought vs on our way, with wiues and children, til we were come out of the citie: and we kneeled downe on the shore, and prayed.

6 And when we had taken our leaue one of another, we tooke ship, and they returned home againe.

7 When we had full ended the course from Tyre, we came downe to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day, we that were of Pauls company, departed, and came vnto Cesarea, and we entred into the house of Philip the Euangelist (e which was one of the seuen) and abode with him. Acts 6.5.

9 And the same man had foure daughters, virgins, which did prophecie.

10 And as we taried there a good many of dayes, there came a certaine Prophet from Iurie named Agabus.

11 And when he was come vnto vs, hee tooke Pauls girdle, and bounde his owne handes and feete, and saide, Thus sayeth the holy Ghost, So shall the Iewes at Hierusalem bind the man that oweth this girdle, and shall deliuer him into the handes of the Gentiles.

12 And when we heard these things, both we and other which were of the same place, besought him that hee would not goe vp to Hierusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, what doe yee weeping and bering mine heart? for I am readie, not to be bound onely, but also to die at Hierusalem for the name of the Lorde Iesus.

14 And whē we could not turne his mind, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lorde be fulfilled.

15 And after those dayes we tooke vp our burdens, and went vp to Hierusalem.

16 There went with vs also certaine of the disciples of Cesarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge.

17 And when we were come to Hierusalem, the brethren receiued vs gladly.

18 And on the morow Paul went in with vs vnto f James, and all the elders came together.

f This James was ℔ Lords brother, the sonne of Ioseph, which was the sister of the blessed virgin: which James afterward was bishop of Hierusalem.

19 And when he had saluted them, he told by order all things that God hath wrought among the Gentiles by his ministery.

20 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said vnto him, Thou seest, brother, howe many thousand Iewes there are which beleeue, and they are all earnest followers of the lawe.

21 And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all ℣ Iewes, which are among the Gentiles, to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walke after the customes.

22 What is it therefore? the multitude must needes come together: for they shall heare that thou art come.

23 Doe therefore this that we say to thee: we haue foure men which haue a vowe on them, 24 Them take, & purifie thy self with them, and doe cost on them, that they may shaue their heades: & all shall know ℣ those things which they haue heard concerning thee, are Num.6.18.

are nothing, but that thou thy selfe also walkest and keepest the lawe.

25 As touching the Gentiles which beleue, * we haue written and concluded, that they obserue no such thing, saue onely that they keepe themselues from things offred to Acts 15.20 idoles, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul tooke the men, and the next day purifying himselfe with them, entred into the temple, * declaring the accomplishment of the dayes of the purification, vntil that an offring should be offred for euery one of them. Num.6.13.

27 And when the seuen dayes were almost ended, the Iewes which were of Asia, when they sawe him in the temple, mooued all the people, and laid handes on him,

28 Crying, Men of Israel, helpe: this is the man that teacheth all men euerie where against the people, and the lawe, and this place: hee hath also brought Grekes into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

29 (For they had seene before with him in the citie, Trophimus an Ephesian, whome they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)

30 And all the citie was mooued, and the people swarmed together: and they tooke Paul, and drewe him out of the temple: and forthwith the doores were shut.

31 And as they went about to kill him, tidings came vnto the high captaine of the souldiers, that all Hierusalem was in an vprore.

b God oftentimes appointeth his magistrates to deliuer his faithfull ministers from all dangers of their enimies.

32 Which immediatly tooke b souldiers, and vnder captaines, and ranne downe vnto them: and when they sawe the chiefe captaine and the souldiers, they left smiting of Paul.

33 Then the chiefe captaine came neere, and tooke him, and commanded him to bee bound with two chaines, and demaunded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the people: and when he could not know the certaintie for the rage, he commanded him to be caried into the castle.

35 And when he came vpon the stayres, it was so that he was borne of the souldiers for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him.

37 And when Paul began to be caried into the castle, he saide vnto the high captaine, May I speake vnto thee? who saide, Canst thou speake Greeke?

18 * Art thou not that Egyptian which before these dayes madest an vprore, and leddest out into the wildernes foure thousand men that were murderers? Acts 5.36.

39 But Paul said, I am a man which am a Iew of Tarsus, a citie in Cilicia, a citizen of no vile citie: and I beseech thee suffer me to speake vnto the people. Acts 22.3.

40 And when he had giuen him licence, Paul stood on the stayres, & beckened with the hande vnto the people: and when there was made a great silence, hee spake vnto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying.

The xxii. Chapter.

3 Paul rendreth an account of his life and doctrine. 25 He escapeth the whippe, by reason hee was a citizen of Rome.

MEn, brethren, and fathers, heare ye mine answer which I make vnto you.

2 (And when they heard that he spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence: and he saith,)

3 I am verily a man which am a Iewe, borne in Tarsus a citie in Cilicia, and yet brought vp in this citie at the feete of Gamaliel, and taught according to the perfect maner of the lawe of the fathers, & was zealous towardes God, as ye all are this same day.

4 And * I persecuted this way vnto the death, binding and deliuering into prisons both men and women, Acts 9.8.

5 As also the chiefe priest doeth beare me witnesse, and all the estate of the elders: of whom also I receiued letters vnto the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them which were there, bound vnto Hierusalem, for to be punished.

6 And it came to passe, that as I made my iourney, and was come nigh vnto Damascus about noone, suddenly there shone from heauen a great light round about me:

7 And I fell vnto the earth, and heard a voice, saying vnto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 And I answered, who art thou, Lord? And he said vnto me, I am Iesus of Nazareth * whom thou persecutest.

a Iesus was now in heauen, and could not be persecuted of Paul: But the persecution which Paul exercised against the faithfull being his members, Christ counted it as done to himselfe.

9 And they that were with me, saw verily the light, and were afraid: but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

10 And I said, what shall I doe, Lorde? And the Lord said vnto me, Arise, and go into Damascus: and there it shall be tolde thee of all things which are appointed for thee to doe.

11 And when I sawe nothing for the brightnes of the light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus.

12 And one Ananias, a deuout man as pertaining to the lawe, hauing a good report of all the Iewes which there dwelt, 13 Came vnto me, and stood, and said vnto me, Brother Saul, receiue thy sight. And the same houre I looked vp vpon him.

14 And he sayd, The God of our fathers hath ordeined thee before, that thou shouldest know his will, and see that iust one, and shouldest heare the voice of his mouth.

15 For thou shalt be his witnes vnto all men, of those things which thou hast seene & heard:

16 And

16 And now, why tarieſt thou? Ariſe, and bee baptized, and waſh away thy ſinnes, in calling on the name of the Lord.

17 And it came to paſſe, that when I was come againe to Hieruſalem, and prayed in the temple, I was in a traunce, 18 And ſawe him, ſaying vnto me, Make haſte, and get thee quickely out of Hieruſalem: for they will not receiue thy witneſſe concerning me.

Act.8.3. 19 And I ſaide, Lord, they know that * I priſoned, and beat in euery ſynagogue them that beleeued on thee.

20 And when the blood of thy witneſſe Steuen was ſhed, * I alſo was ſtanding by, and conſenting vnto his death, and kept the raiment of them that ſlew him.

Act.7.58.

21 And he ſayde vnto mee, Depart: for I will ſend thee farre hence vnto the Gentiles.

22 And they gaue him audience vnto this word, and then lift vp their voyces, and ſaid, Away with ſuch a fellowe from the earth: for it is no reaſon that he ſhould liue.

23 And as they cried and caſt off their clothes, and threw duſt into the ayre, 24 The chiefe captaine commanded him to bee brought into the caſtle, and bade that he ſhould bee ſcourged, and examined: that hee might knowe wherefore they cried ſo on him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul ſaid vnto the Centurion that ſtoode by, Is it lawful for you to ſcourge a man that is a [b] Romane, and vncondemned?

b Ye was not borne at Rome, but at Tarſus: the citizens whereof enioy the priuiledge of the citie of Rome, and were counted as Romanes.

26 When the Centurion heard that, hee went and tolde the chiefe captaine, ſaying, Take heede what thou doeſt, for this man is a Romane.

27 Then the chiefe captaine came, and ſaid vnto him, Tell me, art thou a Romane? He ſaid, Yea.

28 And the chiefe captaine anſwered, With a great ſumme obtained I this freedome. And Paul ſaid, I was free borne.

29 Then ſtraight way departed from him they which ſhould haue examined him: and the chiefe captaine alſo was afraide after hee knewe that hee was a Romane, and becauſe he had bound him.

30 On the morowe, becauſe hee woulde haue knowen the certainetie wherefore he was accuſed of the Jewes, hee looſed him from his bandes, and commaunded the high prieſts and all the counſell to come together, and brought Paul foorth, and ſet him before them.

The xxiij. Chapter.

1 Paul commeth before the counſaile. 2 Ananias cauſeth him to be ſtricken.

AND Paul earneſtly beholding the counſaile, ſayde, Men and brethren, I haue liued in all good conſcience before God vntill this day.

2 And the high Prieſt Ananias commanded them that ſtoode by, to ſmite him on the mouth.

3 Then ſayde Paul vnto him, God ſhall ſmite thee thou [a] painted wall: for ſitteſt thou and iudgeſt me after the lawe, and commandeſt me to be ſmitten contrary to the lawe?

a Paul doth not curſe the high Prieſt, but denounce sharpely the punishment of God, which ſhould light vpon him, in the way of prophecying.

4 And they that ſtoode by, ſayde, Reuileſt thou Gods high Prieſt?

5 Then ſaide Paul, I wiſt not, brethren, [b] that he was the high Prieſt: for it is written, * Thou ſhalt not curſe the ruler of thy people.

b It is thought that Paul in mockerie thus excuſed himſelfe, as though thus he ſhould ſay, I ſee nothing in this man worthie the office of the high Prieſt.

Exo.22.28.

6 But when Paul perceiued that the one part were Sadduces, and the other Phariſees, he cried out in the counſaile, * Men and brethren, I am a Phariſee, the ſonne of a Phariſee: of the hope and reſurrection of the dead I am iudged.

Phil.3.5. act.24.22.

7 And when he had ſo ſayde, there aroſe a debate betweene the Phariſees and the Saduces: and the multitude was diuided.

8 * For the Saduces ſay that there is no reſurrection, neither angell, nor ſpirite: but the Phariſees confeſſe both.

Mat.22.23.

9 And there aroſe a great cry: and when the Scribes which were of the Phariſees part aroſe, they ſtroue, ſaying, Wee finde no euill in this man: but if a ſpirite or an Angel hath ſpoken to him, let vs not ſtriue againſt God.

10 And when there aroſe a great debate, the chiefe captaine fearing leſt Paul ſhoulde haue bene plucht aſunder of them, commanded the ſouldiers to goe downe, and to take him from among them, and to bring him into the caſtle.

11 And the night following, the Lord ſtoode by him, and ſaide, Bee of good cheere, Paul: for as thou haſt teſtified of me in Hieruſalem, ſo muſt thou beare witneſſe alſo at Rome.

12 And when it was day, certaine of the Jewes gathered themſelues together, and made a [c] bowe, ſaying that they would neither eate nor drinke till they had killed Paul.

c The word properly ſignifieth curſing, as when a man either ſweareth, voweth, or wiſheth himſelfe to die, or to be giuen to the deuil, except he bring his purpoſe to paſſe.

13 And they were more then fourtie men, which had made this conſpiracie.

14 And they came to the chiefe prieſts and elders, and ſaid, Wee haue bound our ſelues with a bowe, that we will eate nothing vntill we haue ſlaine Paul.

15 Nowe therefore giue ye knowledge to the chiefe captaine, and to the counſaile, that hee bring him foorth vnto you to morowe, as though yee woulde knowe ſomething more perfectly of him: and wee, or euer hee come neere, are readie to kill him.

16 And when Pauls ſiſters ſonne heard of their laying awaite, hee went and entred into the caſtle, and told Paul.

17 And Paul called one of the vnder captaines vnto him, and ſaide, Bring this yong man vnto the high captaine: for hee hath a certaine thing to ſhew him.

18 And he tooke him, and brought him to the high captaine, and ſaid, Paul the priſoner called me vnto him, and prayed me to bring this yong man vnto thee, which hath a certaine matter to shewe thee.

19 Then the high captaine tooke him by the hand, and went with him out of the way, and asked him, What is it that thou hast to tell me?

20 And he saide, The Jewes are determined to desire thee, that thou wouldest bring foorth Paul to morowe into the counsaile, as though they woulde enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But follow not thou their mindes: for there lie in waite for him of them moe then fourtie men, which haue bound themselues with a vowe, that they will neither eate nor drinke, till they haue killed him: and nowe are they ready, and looke for a promise from thee.

22 The chiefe captaine then let the yong man depart, and charged him, See thou tell it out to no man, that thou hast shewed these things to me.

23 And hee called vnto him two vndercaptaines, saying, Make ready two hundred souldiers to goe to Cesarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearemen two hundred, at the third houre of the night:

24 And deliuer them beastes, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe vnto Felix the high deputie.

25 And hee wrote a letter after this maner,

26 Claudius Lysias, vnto the most mightie ruler Felix, sendeth greetings.

27 This man was taken of the Jewes, and should haue bene killed of them: Then came I with an armie, and rescued him, and perceiued that he was a Romane:

28 And when I would haue knowen the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their counsaile.

29 Whome I perceiued to bee accused of questions of their lawe, but hauing nothing layde to his charge worthie of death, or of bondes.

30 And when it was shewed mee howe that the Jewes laid waite for the man, I sent him straightway to thee, & gaue commandement to his accusers, that the things which they haue against him, they should tell before thee. Farewell.

31 Then the souldiers as it was commanded them, tooke Paul, and brought him nigh to Antipatridis.

32 On the morow, they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned vnto the castle.

33 Which when they came to Cesarea, and deliuered the Epistle to the deputie, presented Paul also before him.

34 And when the deputie had read the letter, he asked of what prouince hee was. And when he vnderstoode that he was of Cilicia:

35 I will heare thee, sayd he, when thine accusers are come also. And hee commanded him to be kept in Herods iudgement hall.

The xxiiij. Chapter.

Paul being accused, answereth for his life and doctrine.

AND after fiue dayes, Ananias the hie Priest descended with the elders, and with a certaine Orator, named Tertullus, which appeared before the deputy against Paul.

2 And when Paul was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that wee haue [a] obtained great quietnesse by the meanes of thee, and that many good things are done vnto this nation through thy prouidence,

3 That allowe we euer, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thanks.

4 Notwithstanding, that I be not tedious vnto thee, I pray thee, that thou wouldest heare vs of thy curtesie a fewe wordes.

5 For we haue found this man a pestilent fellowe, and a mouer of debate vnto all the Jewes in the whole world, and a mainteiner of the sect of the Nazarites.

6 Which also hath gone about to pollute the temple: whom we tooke, and would haue iudged according to our lawe.

7 But the high captaine Lysias came vpon vs, and with great violence tooke him away out of our hands,

8 Commanding his accusers to come vnto thee, of whome thou mayest, if thou wilt enquire, knowe the certaintie of all these things whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jewes likewise affirmed, saying that these things were so.

10 Then Paul, after that the deputie himselfe had beckened vnto him that he shoulde speake, answered, With a more quiet minde doe I answere for my selfe, for as much as I vnderstande that thou hast bene of many yeeres a iudge vnto this nation:

11 Because that thou maiest knowe, that there are yet but twelue dayes, since I went vp to Hierusalem for to worship.

12 And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising vp the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the citie:

13 Neither can they proue the things whereof they accuse me.

14 But this I confesse vnto thee, that after the way which they call [b] heresie, so worship I the God of my fathers, beleeuing all things which are written in the Lawe and the Prophets,

15 And haue hope towards God, that the resurrection of the dead, which they themselues looke for also, shall bee both of the iust and vniust.

16 And herein studie I, to haue alway a cleare conscience towarde God, and toward men.

17 Nowe after many yeeres, I came and brought almes to my nation, and offrings:

18 *In the which they found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor yet

[a] Felix by his diligence had taken Eleazarus the captaine of the murderers, and put the Egyptians to flight, which raised vp tumults in Iurie. For these the Orator praised him: otherwayes he was both cruell and coueteous.

[b] No marueil though in our time Gods true religion be called heresie, for so it was counted of the wicked, euen in the beginning of Christs kingdome.

Act. 21. 27.

yet with vnquietnesse.

19 Howbeit, there were certaine Iewes out of Asia,

20 Which ought to be here c present before thee, and accuse me, if they had ought against me.

21 Or els let these same here say, if they haue found any euill doing in mee, while I stand here in the counsaile.

22 Except it be for this one voyce, that I cried standing among them, * That of the resurrection from the dead, am I iudged of you this day.

23 And when Felix heard these things, he deferred them: for he knewe very well of that way, and sayde, When Lysias the captaine is come downe, I will know the vttermost of your matter.

24 And he commanded an vndercaptaine to keepe Paul, and to let him haue rest, and that hee should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister vnto him, or to come vnto him.

25 And after certaine dayes, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, which was a Iewesse, hee called foorth Paul, and heard him of the faith which is toward Christ.

26 And as he reasoned of righteousnesse, temperance, and iudgement to come, Felix d trembled, and answered, Goe thy way for this time, when I haue a conuenient season, I will send for thee.

27 He hoped also that money should haue bene giuen him of Paul, that he might lose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftner, and communed with him.

28 But after two yeeres, Portius Festus came into Felix roume: and Felix willing to shewe the Iewes a pleasure, left Paul bound.

c These accusers spake but vpon false reports, which the Hebrewes in Hierusalem vsed to spread, and durst not for shamappeare themselues. Acts 23.7.

d Such is the might & force of Gods heauenly worde, that it causeth the very wicked to tremble and quake.

The xxv. Chapter.

1 The Iewes accuse Paul before Festus. 8 Hee answereth for himselfe.

NOw when Festus was come into the prouince, after three dayes hee ascended from Cesarea to Hierusalem.

2 Then enformed him the high priest, and the chiefe of the Iewes, against Paul, and they besought him,

3 And desired fauour against him, that he would send for him to Hierusalem, laying waite in the way to kill him.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cesarea, & that he himselfe would depart shortly thither.

5 Let them therefore, sayde hee, which among you are able, come down with vs, and accuse him, if there be any fault in this man.

6 And when hee had taried among them more then ten dayes, he went downe vnto Cesarea, and the next day sate downe in the iudgement seate, and commaunded Paul to be brought.

7 Who being come, the Iewes which were come from Hierusalem, stoode about him, and layde many and grieuous complaints against Paul, which they could not prooue,

8 While he answered for himselfe, that neither against the lawe of the Iewes, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cesar, haue I offended any thing at all.

9 But Festus willing to doe the Iewes a pleasure, answered Paul, and sayde, Wilt thou go vp to Hierusalem, and there be iudged of these things before me?

10 Then sayde Paul, I stande at Cesars iudgment seat, where I ought to be iudged, to the Iewes haue I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 For if I doe any wrong, or haue committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof they accuse mee, no man may deliuer me vnto them, I appeale vnto Cesar.

12 Then spake Festus with the counsaile, and answered, Hast thou appealed vnto Cesar? vnto Cesar shalt thou goe.

13 And after certaine dayes, king Agrippa and Bernice, came vnto Cesarea, to salute Festus.

14 And when they had bene there a good season, Festus rehearsed Pauls cause vnto the king, saying, There is a certaine man left in bonds of Felix.

15 About whome, when I came to Hierusalem, the high priests & the Elders of the Iewes enformed mee, and desired to haue iudgement against him.

16 To whome I answered, It is not the maner of the Romanes, for fauour to deliuer any man that hee should perish, before that he which is accused, haue the accusers face to face, and haue licence to answere for himselfe concerning the crime laide against him.

17 Therefore when they were come thither, without any delay, on the morowe I sate on the iudgement seate, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whome, when the accusers stoode vp, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed:

19 But had certaine questions against him of their owne superstition, and of one Iesus, which was dead, whome Paul affirmed to be aliue.

20 And because I doubted of such maner of questions, I asked him whether he would goe to Hierusalem, and there be iudged of these matters.

21 But when Paul had appealed to be kept vnto the knowledge of Augustus, I commaunded him to be kept, till I might sende him to Cesar.

22 Then Agrippa sayde vnto Festus, I would also heare the man my selfe. To morowe, sayd he, thou shalt heare him.

23 And on the morow when Agrippa was come and Bernice, with great pompe, & were entred into the counsaile house, with the chiefe captaines, & chiefe men of the citie, at a While Paul lyued vnder the lawe like other Iewes, his conuersation was perfect & notable, and after his conuersion vnto Christ, he became a more notable example of innocency: but it is a common case, that the seruants of God are euill spoken of for their well doing.

b The iniquity of the iudge, who contrary to equitie, willing to pleasure the Iewes desired how to betray Paul, haue Paul to appeale, which is the vttermost remedy for such as by wrong iudgement are oppressed: and this appellation by Gods prouidence, was a meane that Paul should testifie of Christ at Rome also.

Festus commandement was Paul brought foorth.

24 And Festus sayd, King Agrippa, & all men which are here present with vs, yee see this man, about whome all the multitude of the Iewes haue entreated mee, both at Hierusalem, and also here, crying that he ought not to liue any longer.

25 Yet found I nothing worthy of death that he had committed: Neuertheless, seeing that he hath appealed to Augustus, I haue determined to send him, 26 Of whome I haue no certaine thing to write vnto my Lorde: wherefore I haue brought him foorth before you, and specially before thee, O king Agrippa, that after examination had, I might haue somewhat to write.

27 For mee thinketh it vnreasonable for to send a prisoner, and not to shew the causes which are laid against him.

The xxvj. Chapter.

1 King Agrippa heareth Paul. 25 Pauls modest answere against the iniurie of Festus.

THen Agrippa sayd vnto Paul, Thou art permitted to speake for thy selfe. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himselfe.

2 I thinke my selfe happy King Agrippa, because I shall answere this day before thee of all the things whereof I am accused of the Iewes:

3 Namely, because thou art expert in all customes and questions which are among a the Iewes: wherefore I beseech thee to heare me patiently.

4 My life that I haue led of a child, which was at the first among mine owne nation at Hierusalem, know all the Iewes,

5 which knewe me from the beginning, (if they would testifie) that after ỹ most straitest sect of our b religion, I liued a Pharisee.

6 And now I stand, and am iudged for the hope of the promise made of God vnto our fathers:

7 Vnto which promise our twelue tribes instantly seruing God day and night, hope to come: For which hopes sake, King Agrippa, I am accused of the Iewes.

8 Why should it bee thought a thing incredible vnto you, that God raiseth the dead?

9 I also verily thought in my selfe, that I ought to doe many contrary things, cleane against the name of Iesus of Nazareth:

Act. 8. 3.

10 * Which thing I also did in Hierusalem, and many of the saints did I shut vp in prison, hauing receiued authoritie of the high priests, and when they were put to death, I gaue the sentence.

11 And I punished them oft in euery synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme, and was yet more mad vpon them, and persecuted them euen vnto strange cities.

12 * About which things as I went to Damascus, with authoritie and commission of the high priests, 13 Euen at midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heauen, aboue the brightnesse of the sunne, shine round about me, and them which iourneyed with me.

14 And when wee were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voyce speaking vnto mee in the Hebrew tongue, & saying, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kicke against the pricks.

15 And I sayde, Who art thou, Lorde? And he sayde, I am Iesus whome thou persecutest.

16 But rise and stand vpon thy feete, for I haue appeared vnto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witnesse, both of those things which thou hast seene, and of those things in the which I wil appeare vnto thee,

17 Deliuering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, vnto whom now I send thee, 18 To open their eyes, that they may be turned from darknesse to light, and from the power of Satan vnto God, that they may receiue forgiuenes of sinnes, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me.

19 Wherefore, O king Agrippa, I was not disobeient vnto the heauenly vision:

20 But shewed first vnto them of Damascus, and at Hierusalem, and throughout all the coastes of Iurie, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turne to God, and doe such workes as become them that repent.

21 For this cause the Iewes caught mee in the Temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Seeing therefore that I haue obteined helpe of God, I continue vnto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things then those which ỹ Prophets and Moses did say should come:

23 That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should shew light vnto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus spake for himselfe, Festus sayd with a loude voyce, Paul, thou art beside thy c selfe, much learning doeth make thee madde.

25 But hee sayde, I am not madde, most noble Festus, but speake foorth the wordes of trueth and soberneſse.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speake freely, neither beleeue I, that any of these things are hidden from him, for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 King Agrippa, beleeuest thou the Prophets? I wote well that thou beleeuest.

28 Then Agrippa said vnto Paul, Somewhat thou perswadest d me to be a christian.

29 And Paul said, I would to God, that not a Ye knewe much, but hee failed in the right applying of his knowledge, as they doe which be wise in their owne conceits only, and haue the zeale of God, but not according to knowledge.

b He taketh the sect of the Pharisees to be perfectest, because their doctrine was better then the other sects. The Saduces denied the resurrection of the dead. The Essees gloryed in straitnesse of life, litle regarded true doctrine.

c Festus being much troubled with Pauls declaration, and hauing nothing to say against it, yet would not yeelde vnto it, but clamorously condemned it as wicked and superstitious: For worldlings are loth to be cumbred with godly matters, & count all such foolish that regarde themselues therewith.

d He saw a litle light, but it was soone out, like vnto those that hearing a sermon, are for ỹ time well minded, but after returne to their olde trade.

not onely thou, but also all that heare me to day, were both some what, & also in a great deale such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when hee had thus spoken, the king rose vp, and the deputie, and Bernice, and they that sate with them.

31 And when they were gone apart, they talked betweene themselues, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death, or of bonds.

32 Then said Agrippa vnto Festus, This man might haue bene let loose, if he had not appealed vnto Cesar.

The xxvij. Chapter.

1 Paul shippeth toward Rome. 3 Iulius the captaine entreateth him courteously.

AND when it was concluded that we should saile into Italy, they deliuered both Paul and certaine other prisoners, vnto one named Julius, an vndercaptaine of Augustus band.

2 Cor. 11. 32. 2 And we entred into a shippe of Adramyttium, and loosed from land, appointed to saile by the coasts of Asia, and Aristarchus out of Macedonia, of the countrey of Thessalonica, tarying still with vs.

3 And the next day wee came to Sidon: And Julius courteously entreated Paul, and gaue him libertie to go vnto his friends, and to refresh himselfe.

4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed hard by Cyprus, because the windes were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed ouer the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra a citie which is in Lycia,

6 And there the vndercaptaine found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italie, and he put vs therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many dayes, and scarse were come ouer against Gnidum, because the winde withstoode vs, wee sayled hard by ‖ Candie, ouer against Salmone, ‖ Or, Creta, which was an high hill of Candie.

8 And with much worke sailed beyond it, and came vnto a place which is called the faire hauens, nigh whereunto was the citie of Lasea.

9 When much time was spent, and when sayling was nowe ieopardous, because also that the fast was nowe already past, Paul put them in remembrance,

10 And sayd vnto them, Sirs, I perceiue that this voyage wil be with hurt and much damage, not of the lading and shippe onely, but also of our liues.

11 Neuertheless, the vndercaptaine beleeued the gouernour and the master of the shippe, more then those things which were spoken of Paul.

12 And because the Hauen was not commodious to winter in, many tooke counsell to depart thence, if by any meanes they might attaine to Phenice, and there to winter, which is an Hauen of Candie, and lieth towarde the Southwest and Northwest winde.

13 And when the South wind blew softly, they supposing that they had obteined their purpose, loosed vnto Asson, and sayled past Candie.

14 But not long after, there arose against their purpose a stawe of winde out of the Northeast, which is called Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not resist the winde, we let her goe, and were driuen with the weather.

16 But wee were carried into an Ile, which is called Clauda, & had much worke to come by a boate, 17 Which they tooke vp, and vsed helpe, and made fast the shippe, fearing least they should fall into the Syrtes: and so they let downe a ‖ vessell, and were caried.

‖ Some reade, the sailes.

18 The next day when wee were tossed with an exceeding tempest, they lightned the shippe:

19 And the third day we cast out with our owne hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither the sunne nor starres in many dayes appeared, & no small tempest lay vpon vs, all hope that wee should be saued was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence, Paul stood forth in the middes of them, and sayd, Sirs, ye should haue harkened vnto mee, and not haue loosed from Candie, and to haue gayned vnto vs this harme and losse.

22 And nowe I exhort you to be of good cheere: for there shall be no losse of any mans life among you, but of the ship.

23 For there stoode by mee this night the angell of God, whose I am, and whome I serue, 24 Saying, Feare not, Paul, thou must be brought before Cesar, and loe, God hath giuen thee a all them that sayle with thee.

a The graces and blessings which God giueth to his children, stirre many times the enemies, which are vnworthy to receiue the fruite thereof.

25 Wherefore sirs, be of good cheere: for I beleeue God, that it shall be euen as it was tolde me.

26 Howbeit, wee must be cast into a certaine Iland.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as wee were sayling in Adria about midnight, the shipmen deemed that they drewe neere to some countrey:

28 And sounded, and found it twentie fadomes: and when they had gone a litle further, they sounded againe, and found it fifteene fadomes.

29 Then fearing least we should haue fallen on some rocke, they cast foure ankers out of the sterne, and wished for the day.

30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let downe the boate into the sea, vnder a colour as though they would haue cast ankers out of the foreship.

31 Paul sayde to the vndercaptaine, and to the souldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye [b] cannot be saued.

32 Then the souldiers cut off the rope of the boate, and let it fall away.

33 And when the day began to appeare, Paul besought them all to take meate, saying, This is the fourteenth day that ye haue tarried, and continued fasting, receiuing nothing at all.

34 Wherefore, I pray you to take meate, for this no doubt is for your health, for there shall not [c] an haire fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when hee had thus spoken, hee tooke bread, and gaue thanks to God in presence of them all: and when hee had broken it, he began to eate.

36 Then were they all of good cheere, and they also tooke meate.

37 And wee were altogether in the ship, two hundred threescore, and sixteene soules.

38 And when they had eaten ynough, they lighted the ship, and cast out the wheate into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they knewe not the land: but they spied a certaine hauen with a banke, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship.

40 And when they had taken vp the ankers, they committed ‖ themselues vnto the sea, and loosed the rudder bandes, and hoysed vp the maine saile to the wind, and drew to land.

41 And when they fell into a place which had the sea on both sides, they thrust in the ship, and the forepart stucke fast and mooued not, but the hinder part brake with the violence of the waues.

42 And the souldiers counsell was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them, when he had swomme out, should runne away.

43 But the vndercaptaine, willing to saue Paul, kept them from their purpose, and commaunded that they which could swimme, should cast themselues first into the sea, and scape to land:

44 And the other, some on boordes, and some on broken pieces of the ship: & so it came to passe, that they escaped all safe to land.

[b] Paul would vse such meanes as God had ordeined, least he should seeme to haue tempted him.

[c] By this Hebrew speach is meant, that they should be in all points safe and sound.

‖ Or, the ship.

The xxviij. Chapter.

5 The Viper hurteth not Pauls hand. 23 Paul preacheth Christ at Rome.

AND when they were escaped, then they knewe that the Ile was called Melita.

2 And the barbarous people shewed vs no little kindnesse, for they kindled a fire, and receiued vs euery one, because of the present raine, and because of the colde.

3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and layd them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heate, and caught him by the hand.

4 And when the strangers sawe the beast hang on his hand, they sayde among themselues, No doubt this man is a [a] murtherer, whom though hee hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to liue.

5 And hee shooke off the viper into the fire, and [b] felt no harme.

6 Howbeit, they waited when hee should haue swollen, or fallen downe dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and sawe no harme come to him, they changed their mindes, and said that he was a [c] God.

7 In the same quarters were possessions of the chiefe man of the Ile, whose name was Publius, which receiued vs, and lodged vs three day courteously.

8 And it came to passe that the father of Publius lay sicke of a feuer, and of a bloody flixe, to whom Paul entred in, and prayed, and layd his hands on him, and healed him.

9 So when this was done, other also which had diseases in the Ile, came, & were healed:

10 Which also did vs great honour, and when we departed, they laded vs with such things as were necessary.

11 And after three moneths we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintred in the Ile, whose badge was [d] Castor and Pollux.

12 And when we came to Syracusa, we tarried there three dayes.

13 And from thence wee fet a compasse, and came to Rhegium, and after one day the South winde blewe, and wee came the next day to Puteolus:

14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarrie with them seuen dayes: and so we came toward Rome.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of vs, they came to meete vs at Appii forum, and at the three tauernes: when Paul sawe them, he thanked God, & waxed bolde.

16 And when we came to Rome, the vndercaptaine deliuered the prisoners to the chiefe captaine of the hoste: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himselfe, with a souldier that kept him.

17 And it came to passe, that after three dayes, Paul called the chiefe of the Iewes together. And when they were come together, he sayd vnto them, Men and brethren, though I haue committed nothing against the people or lawes of the fathers, yet was I deliuered prisoner from Hierusalem into the hands of the Romanes.

18 Which when they had examined mee, would haue let me goe, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Iewes spake contrary, I was constrained to appeale vnto Cesar, not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause then haue I called for you, euen to see you, and to speake with you: because that for the [c] hope of Israel I am bound

[a] Such is the peruerse iudgement of men, that they condemne them whom they see in any affliction.

[b] By this miracle, God performed his promise made to his disciples, that neither serpents nor poyson should hurt them, and also by the same, was confirmed the Gospel of his sonne Iesus Christ, which Paul preached vnto the world.

[c] Behold the extremitie of Infidels: for after any rage and errour, they fall forthwith into the contrary.

bound with this chayne.

31 And they kepte vnto him, neyther receiued letters out of Iurie concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came, shewed or spake any harme of thee.

22 But we will heare of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, wee know that euery where it is spoken against.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him in his lodging, to whome hee expounded & testified the kingdome of God, perswading them concerning Iesus, both out of the lawe of Moses, and out of the Prophets, euen from morning to night.

24 And some were perswaded in the things which were spoken, and some beleeued not.

25 And when they agreed not among themselues, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, (that is to say,) well spake the holy Ghost by Esaias the prophet, vnto our fathers, 26 Saying, *Goe vnto this people, and say, With your eares shall ye heare, and shall not vnderstand, and with your eyes shall yee see, and not perceiue.

27 For the heart of this people is waxed grosse, and their eares are dull of hearing, & their eyes haue they closed, lest they should see with their eyes, & heare with their eares, and vnderstand with their hearts, & should be conuerted, and I should heale them.

28 Be it knowen therefore vnto you, that this saluation of God is sent vnto the Gentiles, and they shall heare it.

29 And when hee had sayd these wordes, the Iewes departed, & had great reasoning among themselues.

30 And Paul dwelt two yeeres full in his owne hyred house, & receiued all that came in vnto him, 31 Preaching the kingdome of God, and teaching those things which concerne the Lorde Iesus Christ, with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

The

The Epistle of the Apostle Saint Paul to the Romanes.

The first Chapter.

1 Paul sheweth to whom and to what purpose he is called. 16 What the Gospel is. 18 The vengeance of God vpon the wicked. 20 The vse of the creatures. 24 The ingratitude and punishment of the wicked.

PAul the seruant of Jesus Christ, [a] called to be an Apostle, seuered into the Gospel of God,

2 Which he had promised afore by his Prophets in the holy Scriptures

3 Of his sonne, which was made of the seed of Dauid after the flesh:

4 And hath bene declared to be the sonne of [b] God, with power after the spirite that sanctifieth, by the resurrection from the dead, of Jesus Christ our Lord:

5 By whome wee haue receiued grace and Apostleship, that obedience might be giuen vnto the faith in his name among all Heathen,

6 Among whom, ye are also the called of Jesus Christ:

7 To all that bee in Rome, beloued of God, saints by calling: Grace to you, and peace from God our father, and the Lord Jesus Christ:

8 First verily I thanke my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is published throughout all the world.

9 For God is my witnesse, whom I serue with my spirite in the Gospel of his sonne, that without ceassing I make mention of you:

10 Praying alwayes in my prayers, that by some meane at the last, one time or other, I might make a prosperous iourney by the will of God, to come vnto you.

11 For I long to see you, that I might bestow among you some spirituall gift, that yee might bee stablished, 12 That is, that I might haue consolation together with you, each with others faith, yours and mine.

13 I would that ye should know, brethren, howe that I haue oftentimes purposed to come vnto you (and haue bene let hitherto) that I might haue some fruite also among you, as among other of the Gentiles.

14 I am detter both to the Greekes, and to the [c] barbarous, both to the wise, and to the vnwise.

15 So that as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the Gospel to you that are at Rome also.

16 For I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ, because it is the power of God vnto saluation to all that beleeue, to the Jew first, and also to the Greeke.

17 For by it is the righteousnesse of God opened from faith to faith: as it is written, The iust shall liue by faith.

18 For the wrath of God [d] is reuealed from heauen, against all vngodlinesse and vnrighteousnesse of men, which [e] withholde the trueth in vnrighteousnesse, 19 For that that may be knowen of God, is manifest among them, because God hath shewed it vnto them.

20 For his inuisible things, being vnderstanded by his workes, through the creation of the world, are seene, that is, both his eternall power and Godhead, so that they are without excuse:

21 Because that when they knewe God, notwithstanding they glorified him not as God, neither were thankeful, but waxed full of vanities in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was blinded.

22 When they counted themselues wise, they became fooles:

23 And turned the glory of the vncorruptible God vnto an image, made not onely after the similitude of a corruptible man, but also, of birdes, and foure footed beasts, and of creeping beasts.

24 Wherefore God gaue them vp to vncleannesse, through the lusts of their owne hearts, that their owne bodies shoulde be defiled among themselues.

25 Which changed his [f] trueth for a lie, and worshipped & serued the creature, more then the creator, which is to bee prayed for euer, Amen.

26 Wherefore God gaue them vp vnto shamefull lustes, for euen their women did change the naturall vse, into that which is against nature.

27 And likewise also, the men left the naturall vse of the woman, and burnt in their lustes one with another, and men with men wrought filthinesse, and receiued in themselues the rewarde of their errour (as it was according.)

28 And as they regarded not to knowe God: euen so, God deliuered them vp vnto a lewd minde, that they should do those things which were not comely:

29 Being full of all vnrighteousnesse, fornication, craftinesse, couetousnesse, maliciousnesse, full of enuie, murther, debate, deceite, euill conditioned, whisperers,

30 Backebiters, haters of GOD, despitefull, proude, boasters, bringers vp of euill things, disobedient to father and mother:

31 Without vnderstanding, couenant breakers, without naturall affection, truce breakers, vnmercifull.

[a] By this he declareth that he came not into the office of the Apostleship by his owne arrogancie, but by the calling of God, whereby he differeth from the false Apostles.

[b] Three maner of wayes Paul sheweth here Christ to be declared the sonne of God. First, by power or working of miracles. Secondly, by the holy Ghost appearing in visible signes. Thirdly, by his resurrection from the dead.

[c] All those that were not Jewes, by a common word were called Heathen. And here they are diuided into Greekes and Barbarous. By Greekes, he vnderstandeth those that were learned, ciuill, and of good bringing vp. By barbarous, he meaneth rude and sauage people, with whome no man could well haue to do.

[d] Which appearance the world knoweth nothing of. For in the sight of God all men are godlesse, sinners, and the children of wrath, and when they knowe any thing of God, yet they be nought, because they neither thanke him nor serue him, and therefore plagues are powred vpon them from heauen.

[e] They holde the trueth in vnrighteousnesse, which vnderstand the trueth, and do not expresse the same in their deedes and life.

[f] By his trueth here he vnderstandeth the glorie of God, and his true religion: and a lie he calleth idoles, because the idolaters went about to take away from wood and stone that which they were thinking them to be neither wood nor stone but attributed to them that they were not, that is, diuine power and nature.

23 The

32 The which knowing the righteousnesse of God (howe that they which commit such things, are worthy of death) not onely doe the same, but also haue pleasure in them that doe them.

The ij. Chapter.

1 Gods iudgement vpon the hypocrites. 13 All men are sinners.

Mat. 17. 1.

THerefore art thou vnexcusable, O man, whosoeuer * thou bee that [a] iudgest: for in that same wherein thou iudgest another, thou condemnest thy selfe. For thou that iudgest, doest euen the selfe same things.

a Saint Paul breaketh here against those men only, who being themselues filled with all wickednesse and impietie, yet be of all other most busie and curious in noting and reprehending other mens faults: not of any godly zeale, but to multiplie themselues, and to bring other men into hatred and contempt.

2 But wee are sure that the iudgement of God is according to the trueth, against them which commit such things.

3 Thinkest thou this, O thou man that iudgest them which do such things, and doest the same thy selfe, that thou shalt escape the iudgement of God?

4 Either despisest thou the riches of his goodnesse, and patience, and long sufferance, not knowing that the goodnesse of God leadeth thee to repentance?

5 But thou, after thy stubburnnesse and heart that cannot repent, heapest vnto thy selfe wrath, against the day of wrath and declaration of the righteous iudgement of God:

Mat. 16. 27.

6 * Which will reward euery man according to his [b] deedes:

b Not that our workes be of such merite that they deserue reward: but the scriptures vse this kinde of speaking, that thereby it may prouoke and stirre vp men vnto good liuing, wherevnto our faith may the more appeare, which good works God of his free grace doth reward.

7 To them which by continuing in well doing seeke for glorie, and honour, and immortalitie, eternall life:

8 But vnto them that are contentious, and doe not obey the trueth, but obey vnrighteousnesse, shall come indignation and wrath,

9 Tribulation, and anguish, vpon euery soule of man that doeth euill, of the Iew first, and also of the Greeke:

10 But glorie, and honour, and peace, to euery man that doeth good, to the Iewe first, and also to the Greeke.

2. Par. 19. 7. acts, 10. 34.

11 * For there is no respect of persons with God.

12 For whosoeuer hath sinned without lawe, shall also perish without lawe: and as many as haue sinned in the lawe, shalbe iudged by the lawe,

Iam. 1. 22.

13 (For in the sight of God, * the hearers of the lawe are not righteous: but the doers of the lawe shalbe iustified.

14 For when the Gentiles which haue not the lawe, doe of nature the things conteined in the lawe: they hauing not the lawe, are a lawe vnto themselues,

15 Which shewe the workes of the lawe written in their hearts, their conscience bearing them witnesse, and their thoughts accusing one another, or excusing)

16 At the day when God shall iudge the secretes of men by Iesus Christ, according to my [c] Gospel.

c It is his Gospel, both for the feruent loue and zeale that he beareth to it, and also for the great paines that he hath taken in setting forth the same.

17 Beholde, thou art called a Iewe, and [d] restest in the lawe, and makest thy boast of God, d He awaketh the Iewes which were a sleepe through a certaine securitie and confidence in the lawe.

18 And knowest his will, and allowest the things that bee excellent, informed by the lawe:

19 And beleeuest that thou thy selfe art a guide of the blinde, a light of them which are in darkenesse, 20 An informer of them which lacke discretion, a teacher of the vnlearned: which hast the forme of knowledge, and of the truth in the lawe.

21 Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thy selfe? Thou preachest a man shoulde not steale, yet stealest thou?

22 Thou that saiest a man should not commit adulterie, breakest thou wedlocke? Thou abhorrest idoles, and yet committest sacrilege?

23 Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law, dishonourest thou God?

24 For the name of God is euill spoken of among the Gentiles through you, as it is written,

25 For circumcision verily auaileth, if thou keepe the lawe: but if thou be a breaker of the lawe, thy circumcision is made vncircumcision.

26 Therefore, if the [e] vncircumcision keepe the ordinances of the law, shall not his vncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

e By this word he meaneth all the people, of what countrey or nation soeuer they be, which haue not receiued the signe of circumcision, according to the lawe of idoles.

27 And shall not vncircumcision which is by nature, if it keepe the lawe, iudge thee, which being vnder the letter and circumcision doest transgresse the lawe?

28 For hee is not a Iewe, which is a Iewe ‖ outwarde. Neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh.

‖ Or, openly.

29 But hee is a Iewe, which is one ‖ inwardly, and the circumcision of the heart, which consisteth in the spirite, and not in the letter, is circumcision whose praise is not of men, but of God.

‖ or, secretly.

The iij. Chapter.

1 The Iewes haue a prerogatiue. 24 All are iustified by grace through faith, and not through workes.

WHat preferment then hath the Iewe? Or what profite is there of circumcision?

a Which is the performance of Gods promise. For faith is taken after two sortes, both for our beliefe, when we assure our selues that God will performe his promise, and also for the stedfastnesse of Gods promise to his people. For although some of the Iewes did not beleeue, yet Gods truth neuer failed.

2 Much euery way. First, for because that vnto them were committed the words of God.

3 What then though some of them did not beleeue? Shall their vnbeliefe make the [a] faith of God without effect?

4 God forbid: Yea, let God be true, and euery man a liar, as it is written, That thou mightest be iustified in thy sayings, and ouercome when thou art iudged.

5 But if our vnrighteousnesse setteth forth the righteousnesse of God, what shall wee say?

say? Is God vnrighteous which taketh vengeance? (I speake after the maner of men,)

6 God forbid: for howe then shall God iudge the world?

7 For if the trueth of God hath more abounded through my lye vnto his glory, why am I as yet iudged as a sinner?

8 And not rather (as wee be slanderously reported, and as some affirme that we say) let vs doe euill, that good may come thereof? whose damnation is iust.

9 What then, are we better then they? No, in no wise: for wee haue before accused both Iewes and Gentiles, that they are all vnder sinne:

Gal.3.22. 10 As it is written, * There is none righteous, no not one:

Psal.13.2. and 52.3. 11 * There is none that vnderstandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.

12 They are all gone out of the way, they are all become vnprofitable, there is none that doeth good, no not one.

13 Their throte is an open sepulchre, with their tongues they haue deceiued, the poyson of Aspes is vnder their lippes.

Psal.9.7. 14 * whose mouth is full of cursing and bitternesse:

Prou.1.16. esai.59.7. 15 * Their feete are swift to shead blood.

16 * Heartes griefe and miserie are in their wayes:

Psal.16.1. 17 And the way of peace haue they not knowen.

Psal.36.2. 18 * There is no feare of God before their eyes.

19 Nowe we know that what things soeuer the lawe saith, it saith it to them which are vnder the lawe: that euery mouth may be stopped, and that all the world may be endangered to God.

b He includeth here the whole lawe, both the ceremoniall and morall, whose workes cannot iustifie, because they be imperfect in all men.

20 Because that by the deedes of the [b] lawe, there shall no flesh bee iustified in his sight: For by the lawe commeth the knowledge of sinne.

21 * But nowe the righteousnesse of God without the lawe is made manifest, being witnessed by the lawe and the Prophets.

Rom.2.17.

22 The righteousnesse of God commeth by the faith of Iesus Christ, vnto all, and vpon all them that beleeue. There is no difference:

23 For all haue sinned, and haue neede of the glorie of God,

24 But are iustified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Iesu:

c Which is a sacrifying of Gods iustification. That whereas wee were sometime condemned to dye, God made his only sonne Christ Iesus a sacrifice for our sinnes, to reconcile vs againe by faith vnto Gods fauour.

25 whom God hath set forth to be a [c] propitiation, through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousnesse, by the forgiuing of the sinnes that are past, 26 which God did suffer, to shewe at this time his righteousnesse: that hee might bee iust, and the iustifier of him which beleeueth on Iesus.

27 Where is then thy boasting? It is excluded. By what law? Of workes? Nay: but by the lawe of faith.

28 Therefore, we holde that a man is iustified by faith, without the deedes of the lawe.

29 Is he the God of the Iewes onely? Is hee not also of the Gentiles? Yes, euen of the Gentiles also.

30 For it is one God which shall iustifie the circumcision by [d] faith, and vncircumcision through faith.

d speaking, that the Iewe & the Gentile are both iustified by one meanes, which is by faith.

31 Doe we then destroy the law through faith? God forbid: but we rather maintaine the lawe.

The iiij. Chapter.

7 Iustification is the free gift of God, as it appeareth by Dauid and Abraham, 13 and also by the office of the lawe and faith.

WHat shall wee say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, did finde?

2 For if Abraham were iustified by workes, then hath hee wherein to boast, but not before God.

3 For what saith the Scripture? * Abraham beleeued God, and it was counted vnto him for righteousnesse.

Gen.15.6. gal.3.6. iames 2.23.

4 To him that worketh, is the reward not reckened of grace, but of duetie.

5 To him that worketh [a] not, but beleeueth on him that iustifieth the [b] vngodly, his faith is counted for righteousnesse.

a That is, which meaneth not as doctrine saluation through the worthynesse of his workes.

b God is said to iustifie the vngodly, because he pardoneth his sinnes, and of a wicked man maketh him good.

6 Euen as Dauid describeth the blessednesse of the man vnto whome God imputeth righteousnesse without workes:

7 Saying, * Blessed are they whose vnrighteousnesses are forgiuen, and whose sinnes are couered.

Psal.32.1. The Epistle on newe yeeres day.

8 Blessed is that man to whom the Lord will not impute sinne.

9 Came this blessednesse then vpon the circumcision onely, or vpon the vncircumcision also? For we say that faith was reckened to Abraham for righteousnes.

10 How was it then reckened? when hee was in the circumcision, or when he was in the vncircumcision? Not in the circumcision, but in vncircumcision.

11 * And hee receiued the signe of circumcision, as the [c] seale of the righteousnesse of faith, which he had yet being vncircumcised: that hee should be the father of all them that beleeue, though they be not circumcised, that righteousnesse may bee imputed vnto them also.

Gene.17. 11.

c So was Abrahams circumcision called, because therby was sealed the righteousnesse that through faith was imputed to him before his circumcision.

12 And that hee might bee father of circumcision, not vnto them onely which came of the circumcised, but vnto them also that walke in the steppes of the faith that was in our father Abraham, before the time of circumcision.

13 For the promise that he should bee the heire of the worlde, was not to Abraham, or to his seede through the lawe, but through the righteousnesse of faith.

14 For if they which are of the lawe be heires, then is faith but vaine, and the promise made of none effect:

15 Because the lawe causeth wrath: for where no lawe is, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore by faith is the inheritance giuen that it might bee by grace, that the promise might be sure to all the seede, not to that onely which is of the lawe, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, which is the father of vs all.

Gen.17.4. 17 (As it is written, * I haue made thee a father of many nations) before God whome yee beleeued, which restored the dead vnto life, and calleth those things which be not, as [d] though they were.

d In the creation of the world this appeared: For when he commanded any thing to be, forthwith it was.

18 Who contrary to hope, [e] beleeued in hope, that hee should bee the father of many nations: according to that which was spoken, * So shall thy seede be.

e That is, which beleeued and hoped for those things which God did promise, when as to mans reason they were without hope. Gene.15.5.

19 And hee fainted not in the faith, nor considered his owne body now dead, when hee was almost an hundred yeeres olde, neither yet the [f] deadnesse of Saraes wombe.

f For that she was past child bearing.

20 He staggered not at the promise of God through vnbeliefe: but was strong in faith, giuing glorie to God, 21 And being full certified, that what he had promised, he was able also to performe.

22 And therefore was it reckened to him for righteousnesse.

23 Neuertheless, it is not written for him onely, that it was reckened to him:

24 But also for vs, to whome it shalbe reckened, so that we beleeue on him that raysed vp Jesus our Lord from the dead, 25 Which was deliuered for our sinnes, and was raised againe for our iustification.

The v. Chapter.

1 The fruite of faith. 12 From whence commeth death, and from whence life.

THerefore being iustified by faith, wee are at [a] peace with God, through our Lord Jesus Christ:

a By peace, which is the fruite of faith, is ment the incredible and most constant ioy of minde, our conscience being quiet, and established in Gods grace.

2 * By whom also we haue had an entrance by faith, vnto this grace wherein we stand, and reioyce in hope of the glorie of God.

Ephe.2.23. Iames 1.3.

3 Not that onely: * but also we reioyce in tribulations, knowing that tribulation worketh patience:

4 Patience proofe: proofe hope:

5 And hope maketh not [b] ashamed, because the loue of God is shed abroade in our hearts by the holy Ghost, which is giuen vnto vs.

b Both for that the hope of the godly is not disappointed of that which they hope for, and also for that they are not ashamed of any affliction in this world, as the worldly minded be: but constantly abide without shame, what soeuer trouble God doth laid on them.

6 For when wee were yet weake, according to the time, Christ died for the vngodly.

7 Now scarse will any man die for the righteous: Yet peraduenture for the good, some man durst die.

8 But God setteth out his loue towarde vs, seeing that while wee were yet sinners, Christ died for vs.

9 Much more then now, we that are iustified by his blood, shall be saued from wrath through him.

10 For if when wee were enemies, wee were reconciled to God by the death of his Sonne: much more, seeing wee are reconciled, we shalbe saued by his life.

11 Not onely so, but wee also ioy in God, through our Lorde Jesus Christ, by whome we haue now receiued the atonement.

12 Wherefore, as by one man sinne entred into the world, and death by sinne: euen so, death entred into all men, inasmuch as all haue sinned.

13 For vnto the lawe was sinne in the world: but sinne is not imputed when there is no lawe.

14 Neuertheless, death reigned frō Adam to Moses, euen them also that had not sinned with like transgression as did Adam, which was [c] figure of him that was to come.

15 But not as the sinne, so is the free gift. For if through the sinne of one many be dead: much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man Jesus Christ, hath abounded vnto many.

16 And not as by one that sinned, euen so the gift, for the sinne entred by one offence into condemnation: but the gift [c] of many sinnes into iustification.

c For by Christ we are not onely deliuered from the sinnes of Adam, but also from all such sinnes as we haue added thereunto.

17 For if by the sinne of one, death reigned by the meanes of one, much more they, which receiue abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousnesse, shall reigne in life by the meanes of one, Jesus Christ.

18 Like wise then, as by the sinne of one, sinne came on al men to condemnation: euen so, by the righteousnesse of one good came vpon all men to the righteousnesse of life.

19 For as by one mans disobedience many became sinners: so by the obedience of one, shall many be made righteous.

20 But the lawe in the meane time entred in, that sinne shoulde increase. But where sinne was plenteous, grace was more plenteous.

21 That as sinne hath reigned vnto death: euen so might grace reigne through righteousnesse vnto eternall life, by Jesus Christ our Lord.

The vj. Chapter.

Newnesse of life followeth iustification, to the which hee exhorteth.

WHat shall we say then? Shall wee continue in sinne, that grace may abounde? God forbid.

a Ye dieth to sinne, in whom the strength of sinne is broken by the power of Christ.

2 Howe shall wee that are dead [a] to sinne, liue any longer therein.

The Epistle on the vj. Sunday after Trinitie.

3 Knowe ye not, that all we which haue bene baptized into Jesus Christ, haue bene baptized [b] into his death?

b That is, that sinne through Christs death may be abolished and die in vs: and that as we are inwardly by holy water in our baptisme, so inward dy our sinnes may be washed away, and cleansed by the bloud of Christ.

4 Wee are buried then with him by bap-

tisme into his death, that like wise as Christ was rayled vp from the dead by the glorie of the Father: euen so, we also should walke in newnesse of life.

5 For if wee be graft together by the likenesse of his death: euen so shall wee be partakers of the resurrection:

6 Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him also, that the body of sinne might vtterly bee destroyed, that henceforth we should not serue sinne.

7 For hee that is dead, is iustified from sinne.

8 And if wee be dead with Christ, wee beleeue that we shall also liue with him:

9 Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead, dieth no more, death hath no more power ouer him.

10 For as touching that hee died, hee died concerning sinne once: And as touching that he liueth, he liueth vnto God.

11 Likewyse reckon your selues to bee dead vnto sinne: but aliue vnto God, through Iesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let not sinne reigne therefore in your mortall body, that yee should thereunto obey by the lustes of it.

13 Neither giue ye your members ‖as instruments of vnrighteousnesse vnto sinne: but giue your selues vnto God, as they that are aliue from the dead, & your members ‖as instruments of righteousnesse vnto God.

14 For sinne shall not haue power ouer you, because ye are not vnder the [c] lawe, but vnder grace.

15 What then? shall wee sinne, because we are not vnder the Law, but vnder grace? God forbid.

16 * Knowe yee not howe that to whome soeuer ye commit your selues as seruants to obey, his seruants ye are to whome ye obey: whether it be of sinne vnto death, or of obedience vnto righteousnesse?

17 But God be thanked, that ye were the seruants of sinne: but yee haue obeyed with heart the fourme of doctrine, into the which ye were brought vnto.

18 Being then made free from sinne, yee are become the seruants of righteousnesse.

19 I speake after [d] the maner of men, because of the infirmitie of your flesh. For, as ye haue giuen your members seruants to vncleannesse and iniquitie, vnto iniquitie: euen so now giue your members seruants to righteousnesse, vnto holinesse.

20 For when yee were the seruaunts of sinne, ye were free from righteousnesse.

21 What fruite had yee then in those things, whereof yee are nowe ashamed? For the ende of those things, is death.

22 But nowe yee being made free from sinne, and made the seruants of God, haue your fruite vnto holinesse, and the ende euerlasting life.

23 For the rewarde of sinne is death: but the gift of God is eternall life, through Iesus Christ our Lorde.

‖Or, weapons.

‖Or, weapons.

[c] That is, vnder the curse of the law, whose office is to accuse and condemne: but vnder grace, whereby we haue forgiuenesse of our sinnes, & are sanctified by the holy ghost into newnesse of life. Ioh.8,24.

[d] Paul vseth to speake gently to their friendly, and not to exact so much as they might, but so farre forth as reason requireth.

The vij. Chapter.

The fight betweene the lawe of the flesh, and the lawe of the spirite.

KNowe ye not brethren (for I speake to them that knowe the [a] lawe) how that the lawe hath power ouer a man, as long as he liueth?

2 For the woman which hath an husband, is bound by the lawe to her husband, as long as he liueth: but if the husband be dead, shee is loosed from the lawe of her husband.

3 So then if while her husbande liueth, she couple her selfe with another man, shee shalbe ‖counted a wedlocke breaker: but if her husband be dead, shee is free from the lawe, so that shee is no wedlocke breaker, though shee couple her selfe with another man.

4 Euen so, yee also my brethren, are dead concerning the lawe by the [b] body of Christ, that ye shoulde be coupled to another, who is rayled from the dead, that wee should bring foorth fruite vnto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the lustes of sinne which were by the lawe wrought in our members, to bring foorth fruite vnto death.

6 But nowe are wee deliuered from the lawe, and dead vnto it whereunto wee were in bondage, that wee shoulde serue in newnesse of spirite, and not in the oldenesse of the letter.

7 What shall wee say then? Is the lawe sinne? God forbid. Neuertheless, I sinne not sinne, but by the lawe: for I had not knowen lust, except the lawe had saide, Thou shalt not lust.

8 But sinne taking occasion by the commaundement, wrought in mee all maner of concupiscence. For without the lawe sinne was dead.

9 I once liued without lawe: but when the commandement came, sinne reuiued,

10 And I was dead: and the very same commaundement which was ordeined vnto life, was found to be vnto mee an occasion of death.

11 For sinne taking occasion by the commaundement, hath deceiued mee, and by the same slew me.

12 Wherefore the lawe is holy, and the commandement holy, and iust, and good.

13 Was that then which was good, made death vnto me? God forbid. But sinne, that sinne might appeare, by that which was good to worke death in me: that sinne by the commaundement might bee out of measure sinfull.

14 For we know that the lawe is spirituall: but I am carnall, solde vnder [c] sinne.

15 For that which I doe, I allow not: for what I woulde, that doe I not: but what I hate, that doe I.

16 If I doe nowe that which I woulde not,

[a] Before the comming of Christ, all men were inuerted and bound to the law, which did them none other seruice but discouered their sinne and wickednesse, forcing them to seeke helpe for their sinne elsewhere. Now then the law being abolished for her imperfection, and they clensed through Gods grace, are ioyned vnto Christ their new husband, him to serue in vnspotte of life.

‖Or, called.

[b] Because the body of Christ is made an offering & a sacrifice for our sinnes, wherewith God is pleased & his iustice appeased: and by Christes lose the holy Ghost is giuen to all beleeuers, wherethe the power of sinne is in vs daily weakened: we are counted dead to the law, for that the lawe hath no dominion ouer vs.

[c] Like as both men are vnder sinne by nature, & cannot but sinne, so are they not able of their owne strength to obey gods lawes, though we do neither like nor allow.

not, I consent vnto the lawe that it is good.
17 Nowe then, it is not I that doe it: but sinne that dwelleth in me.
18 For I knowe, that in me (that is to say in my flesh) dwelleth no good thing. For to will, is present with mee: but I finde no meanes to performe that which is good.
19 For the good that I would, doe I not: but the euill which I woulde not, that doe I.
20 And if I doe that I would not, then is it not I any longer that doeth it, but sinne that dwelleth in me.
21 I finde then by the lawe, that when I would doe good, euil is present with me.
22 For I delite in the lawe of God, after the inward man.
23 But I see another lawe in my members, rebelling against the law of my minde, and subduing mee vnto the lawe of sinne, which is in my members.
24 O wretched man that I am: who shall deliuer me from the [d] body of this death?
25 I thanke God through Iesus Christ our Lorde. So then, with the minde I my selfe serue the law of God: but with the flesh, the lawe of sinne.

d It is called the body of sinne, for that it is an whole lumpe of sinne, tossing & tormenting the whole man, and plucking him fro God, wherby plagues and miseries are heaped on, and man lieth as he were in the middest of death.

The viij. Chapter.

1 The assurance of the faithfull. 6 The fruites of the holy Ghost.

THere is then no damnation to them which are in Christ Iesu, which walke not after the flesh, but after the spirit.
2 For the lawe of the [a] spirit of life, through Iesus Christ, hath made mee free from the lawe of sinne and death.
3 For what the lawe coulde not doe, in as much as it was weake through the flesh, God hauing sent his owne sonne, in the similitude of sinfull flesh, euen by sinne, [b] condemned sinne in the flesh:
4 That the righteousnesse of the lawe might be fulfilled in vs, which walke not after the flesh, but after the spirit.
5 For they that are carnall, are [c] carnally minded: but they that are spirituall, are spiritually minded.
6 To be carnally minded, is death: but to be spiritually minded, is life and peace:
7 Because that the fleshly minde is enmitie against God: for it is not obedient to the lawe of God, neither can be.
8 So then, they that are in the flesh, cannot please God.
9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the spirit, if so be that the spirit of God dwel in you. If any man haue not the spirite of Christ, the same is none of his.
10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of [d] sinne: but the spirite is life for righteousnesse sake.
11 But if the spirite of him that rayled vp Iesus from the dead, dwell in you: euen hee that rayled vp Christ from the dead, shall also quicken your mortall bodies, because that his spirit dwelleth in you.
12 Therefore brethren, wee are debters, not to the flesh, to liue after the flesh.
13 For if ye liue after the flesh, ye shall die: but if yee through the spirite, doe mortifie the deedes of the body, ye shall liue.
14 For as many as are led by the spirite of God, they are the sonnes of God.
15 For yee haue not receiued the spirite of bondage againe to feare: but yee haue receiued the spirite of adoption, whereby wee cry, Abba, father.
16 The spirite it selfe beareth witnesse to our spirit, that we are the sonnes of God.
17 If wee bee sonnes, then are wee also heires, the heires of God, and ioynt heires with Christ: so that we suffer together, that we may be also glorified together.
18 For I am certainely perswaded, that the afflictions of this time, are not worthy of the glorie which shalbe shewed vpon vs.
19 For the earnest expectation of the creature abideth, looking when the sonnes of God shall appeare:
20 Because the [e] creature is subiect to vanitie, not willing, but for him which hath subdued the same in hope.
21 For the creature it selfe shall bee made free from the bondage of corruption, into the glorious libertie of the sonnes of God.
22 For we know that euery creature groneth with vs also, and trauaileth in paine with vs, euen vnto this time.
23 Not onely they, but wee also which haue the first fruites of the spirite, and wee our selues mourne in our selues, wayting for the adoption, euen the deliuerance of our bodie.
24 For wee are saued by hope: But hope that is seene, is no hope. For howe can a man hope for that which he seeth?
25 But and if we hope for that which we see not, then do we with patience abide for it.
26 Likewise, the spirite also helpeth our infirmities. For we know not what to desire as wee ought: but the spirite it selfe maketh great [g] intercession for vs, with gronings, which cannot be expressed.
27 And he that searcheth the hearts, knoweth what is the meaning of the spirite: for he maketh intercession for the saints, according to the pleasure of God.
28 For wee knowe that all things worke for the best, vnto them that loue God, to them which also are called of purpose.
29 For those which he knew before, he also did predestinate, that they shoulde bee like fashioned vnto the shape of his sonne, that he might be the first begotten among many brethren.
30 Moreouer, whom he did predestinate, them also hee called: and whome hee called, them also he iustified: and whom he iustified, them also he glorified.
31 What shal we then say to these things?

The Epistle on the viij. sunday after Trinitie.

The Epistle on the iiij. sunday after Trinitie.

a The lawe of the spirite and the lawe of sinne, is here taken improperly for the power and strength of the lawe & sinne: and it is called the spirit of life, because it quickeneth & giueth life.

b God through the sacrifice of sinne, which Christ his only sonne offered vpon the crosse in his flesh, hath condemned and abolished sinne, which reigned in our mortall flesh.

c φρονημα and φρονημα, Greeke words do not so much signifie wisedome and prudence, as affection, carefulnes, and minding of any thing.

d Albeit wee haue a body which is dead to all goodnes, by reason of sinne, which so stroogly raigneth in it, per whom we are grafted in Christ, his spirit of life giueth vs life, and iustifieth vs.

e κτισις signifieth to weigh, or to consider. But because the matter was certaine, and Saint Paule nothing doubted therof, it is thus made: I am perswaded.

f The creatures shall not be restored before Gods children bee brought to the perfection. In the meane season they bestir, grone, and waite.

g The right fourme and affection of prayer, commeth by the holy Ghost, who maketh intercession for vs, not that hee prayeth and mourneth: but that he so stirreth our hearts, that we lift them vp to heauen earnestly and feruently, which is the true prayer.

If God be on our side, who can be against vs?

32 Which spared not his owne sonne, but gaue him for vs all: howe shall he not with him also giue vs all things?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of Gods chosen? It is God that iustifieth:

34 Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ which died, yea rather which is raised againe, which is also on the right hande of God, and maketh intercession for vs.

35 Who shall separate vs from the loue of Christ? shall tribulation, or anguish, or persecution, either hunger, either nakednesse, either perill, either sworde?

Psal.44.23. 36 As it is written, *For thy sake are we killed all day long, and are counted as sheepe for the slaughter.

37 Nay in all these thinges we ouercome, through him that loued vs.

38 For I am sure, that neither death, neither life, neither angels, nor rule, neither power, neither things present, nor things to come,

39 Neither height, nor depth, neither any other creature, shall be able to separate vs from the loue of God, which is in Christ Iesu our Lord.

The ix. Chpter.

Paul declareth his feruent loue toward his nation.

I Say the trueth in Christ, I lye not (my conscience also bearing me witnesse by the holy Ghost)

2 That I haue great heauinesse, and continuall sorowe in my heart.

3 For I haue wished my selfe to be cursed from [a] Christ, for my brethren, my kinsmen as pertaining to the flesh.

4 Which are the Israelites: to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the couenants, and the lawe that was giuen, and the seruice of God, and the promises:

5 Of whom are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came which is God, in all things to be praysed for euer, Amen.

6 And it can not be, that the word of God hath taken none effect. For they are not all Israelites, which are of Israel:

7 Neither are they all children, that are the seede of Abraham: but in Isaac shal thy seede be called.

8 That is to say, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but they which be the children of promise, are counted the seede.

Gen.18.10 Gen.25.21

9 For this is the word of promise, *About this time will I come, and Sara shall haue a sonne.

10 Not onely this, but also *Rebecca was with child by one, euen by our father Isaac.

11 For yet the children were borne, when they had neither done good, neither bad, (that the purpose of God by [b] election might stand: not by reason of workes, but by the caller)

12 It was said vnto her, The elder shall serue the yonger.

13 As it is written, Iacob haue I loued, but Esau haue I hated.

14 What shall we say then? is there any vnrighteousnesse with God? God forbid.

15 For he sayeth to Moses, I will shewe mercie, to whomsoeuer I shewe mercie: and will haue compassion, on whomsoeuer I haue compassion.

16 So then election is not of the willer, nor of the runner, but of God that sheweth mercie.

17 For the scripture saith vnto Pharao, *Euen for this same purpose haue I stirred thee vp, that I might shewe my power in thee, and that my name might bee declared throughout all the world.

Exod.9.16.

18 So hath he mercie on whom he will, and whom he will he hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then vnto mee, why then blameth he vs yet? For who hath resisted his will?

20 But, O man, what art thou which disputest with God? *Shal the worke say to the workeman, why hast thou made me on this fashion?

Esay.45.9

21 *Hath not the potter power ouer the clay, euen of the same lumpe to make one vessell vnto honour, and another vnto dishonour?

Wis.15.7. Ierem.18.6.

22 What if God, willing to shewe his wrath, and to make his power knowen, suffered with long patience the vessels of wrath ordained to destruction.

23 To declare the riches of his glorie on the vessels of mercie, which he had prepared vnto glory?

24 Whome also he called, I meane vs, not of the Iewes onely, but also of the Gentiles.

25 As he saith also in Osee, *I will call them my people, which were not my people: and her beloued, which was not beloued.

Osee. 2.23. 1.pet.2.10.

26 *And it shall come to passe, that in the place where it was sayd vnto them, Yee are not my people: there shall they be called the children of the liuing God.

Osee 1.10.

27 And Esaias cryeth concerning Israel, *Though the number of the children of Israel bee as the sand of the sea, yet but a remnant shalbe saued.

Esay 10.22. c The word here to take for a thing of matter. The Lorde diminished his people by sundry plagues, persecutions, & banishment, and brought them to a very fewe. Likewise meaneth Paul, that a fewe of them shall be saued, which if we not receiue flattering shall abandon to vnrighteousnesse to the great of God.

28 For he finisheth the [c] worde, and maketh it short in righteousnesse: for a short word will the Lord make on earth.

29 And as Esaias sayd before, Except the Lord of Sabboth had left vs [d] seede, we had bene made as Sodoma, and had bene like vnto Gomorrha.

d The seede or spirituall Iacob, whome God of his mere grace & mercie hath chosen to be his people & children of promise.

30 What shall we say then? that the Gentiles which followed not righteousnes, haue obtained righteousnes: euen the righteousnes which commeth of faith:

a He sawe the sore destruction of his whole nation, falling so farre from Gods true religion: he considered how sore God should be dishonored, when his wonderful benefites and dwellings bestowed vpon his people, should take none effect, but vtterly be defaced: which so might slip mooued him, that he wished rather to be cut off fro Christ, then those thinges should come to passe.

b The will and purpose of god is the cause of the election & reprobation. For his mercie and calling though Christ are the meanes of saluation, and the withholding of his mercie, is the cause of damnation.

31 But Israel which followed the lawe of righteousnesse, hath not attained to the lawe of righteousnesse.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the workes of the lawe: for they haue stumbled at the stumbling stone, 33 As it is written, Beholde, I put in *Sion a stumbling stone, and a roche of offence, and whosoeuer beleeueth on him, shall not be confounded.

a Christ worth institue vs by faith without workes, which thing the Iewes & Infidelaries can not beleue. Therefore they stumble at Christ, and are offended with him.

The x. Chapter.

BRethren, my hearts desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saued.

2 For I beare them record, that they haue a zeale of God: but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant of Gods righteousnesse, and going about to stablish their b owne righteousnesse, haue not bene obedient vnto the righteousnesse of God.

4 For Christ is the ende of the lawe, c for righteousnesse to all that beleeue.

5 For Moses writeth of the righteousnesse which is of the lawe, howe that the man which doeth those things, shall liue by them.

6 But the righteousnes which is of faith, speaketh on this wise: Say not thou in thine heart, who shall ascend into d heauen? that is to fetch Christ downe from aboue.

7 Either who shall descend into the deepe? that is to fetche vp Christ againe from the dead.

8 But what saith he? The worde is nigh thee, euen in thy mouth, & in thy heart. This same is the word of faith, which we preach.

9 † For if thou shalt knowledge with thy mouth the Lord Iesus, and shalt beleeue in thine heart that God raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saued.

10 For with the heart man beleeueth vnto righteousnesse, and with the mouth confession is made vnto saluation.

11 For the scripture sayth, whosoeuer beleeueth on him, shall not be confounded.

12 There is no difference betweene the Iewe and the Greeke: for the same Lorde ouer all, is rich vnto all that call vpon him.

13 For whosoeuer shall call on the name of the Lord, shall be saued.

14 Howe then shall they call on him, on whome they haue not beleeued? Howe shall they beleeue on him, of whome they haue not heard? Howe shall they heare without a preacher?

15 And howe shal they preach, except they bee sent? As it is written, Howe beautifull are the feete of them which bring good tidings of peace, & bring good tidings of good things?

16 But they haue not all obeyed the Gospell: for Esaias saith, Lord, who hath beleeued our sayings?

17 So then faith commeth by hearing, and hearing commeth by the word of God.

18 But (I aske) haue they not heard? No doubt, their sounde went out into all lands, and their wordes into the ends of the world.

19 But I demaund whether Israel did know, or not? First Moses sayth, * I will prouoke you to emule by them that are no people, & by a foolish nation I wil anger you. Deu. 32. 21.

20 And Esaias is bold, & saith, * I haue bene found of them that sought me not: I haue bene made manifest vnto them that asked not after me. Esay 65. 1.

21 But against Israel he saith, * All day long haue I stretched out my handes vnto a people that beleeueth not, but speaketh against me. Esay 65. 2.

† The Epistle on Saint Andrewes day.

The xi. Chapter.

29 God repenteth him not of his gifts. 33 The depth of Gods iudgements.

I Say then, hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Beniamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which he knewe before. Wote ye not what the scripture saith of Elias? howe he maketh intercession to God against Israel,

3 * Saying, Lorde, they haue killed thy Prophets, and digged downe thine a altars, and I am left alone, and they seeke my life. 1. King. 19. 10.

4 But what saith the answere of God vnto him? I haue reserued vnto my selfe seuen thousand men, which haue not bowed the knee to the image of Baal.

5 Euen so at this time there is a remnant, according to the election of grace.

6 If it be of grace, then is it not nowe of workes: for then grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it now no grace, for then worke is no more worke.

7 What then? Israel hath not obteyned that which hee seeketh for, but the election hath obteined it, the remnant hath beene ‖ blinded.

8 (According as it is written, * God hath giuen them the spirite of b remorse: eyes, that they should not see, & eares, that they should not heare) euen vnto this day. Esay 29. 10 mat. 13. 14.

9 And Dauid sayth, Let their table bee made a snare, and a trappe, and a stumbling stocke, and a recompence vnto them.

10 Let their eyes be ‖ blinded, that they see not, and bowe thou downe their backes alway.

11 I say then, Haue they therefore stumbled, that they should fall? God forbid: but through their fall, saluation is come vnto the c Gentiles, for to prouoke them withall.

12 Nowe if the fall of them, be the riches of the world, and the minishing of them, the riches of the Gentiles: howe much more their fulnesse?

13 For I speake to you Gentiles, in as much a Those altars he meaneth vpon Abraham, Isahac, and Iacob did offer sacrifices in times past, vpon which it was lawfull for the Iewes to doe sacrifice, vntill the building of the Temple.

‖ Or, hardened.

b That is, pricking and vnquietnesse of conscience.

‖ Or, darkenes

c That is, for that the Iewes contemning the Gospel of Christ, fell a way fro God, the preaching of the Gospel came vnto the Gentiles, which is their saluation.

14 If by any meane I may prouoke them which are my flesh, and might saue some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them, be the reconciling of the world, what shal the receiuing of them be, but life from the dead?

16 For if the first fruits be holy, the whole lumpe also is holy. And if the roote bee holy, the branches also.

17 And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou being a wilde Oliue tree, wast graffed in among them, and made partaker of the roote and fatnesse of the Oliue tree:

18 Boast not thy selfe against the branches. For if thou boast thy selfe, thou bearest not the roote, but the roote thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches are broken off, that I might be graft in.

20 Well: because of vnbeliefe they were broken off, and thou stoodest stedfast in faith. Be not high minded, but feare.

21 For seeing that God spared not the naturall branches, take heede least it come to passe, that he spare not thee.

22 Behold therefore the kindnesse and rigorousnesse of God: on them which fell, rigorousnesse: but towards thee, kindnesse, if thou continue in kindnesse: or els thou also shalt be hewen off.

23 And they, if they bide not still in vnbeliefe, shall be graffed in: for God is of power to graffe them in againe.

24 For if thou were cut out of a naturall wild Oliue tree, and were graffed, contrary to nature, in a true Oliue tree: howe much more shall these which be the naturall branches, be graffed in their owne Oliue tree?

25 For I would not, brethren, that yee should be ignorant of this mysterie, (least ye should be wise in our owne conceites) that partly ‖blindnesse is happened in Israel, vntill the fulnesse of the Gentiles be come in.

‖Or, hardnesse.

26 And so all Israel shall be saued, as it is

Esa. 59. 20. written, * There shall come out of Sion he that doeth deliuer, and shall turne away vngodlinesse from Jacob.

27 And this is my couenant vnto them

Esay 27. 9. * when I shall take away their sinnes.

28 As concerning the Gospell, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are loued for the fathers sakes.

29 For the free gifts and calling of God, are without repentance.

30 For as yee in time past haue not beleeued God, yet haue nowe obteined mercie through their vnbeliefe:

31 Euen so nowe haue they not ‖ beleeued the mercie shewed vnto you, that they also may obteine mercie.

‖Or, obeied

32 For God hath shut vp all nations in vnbeliefe, that he might haue mercie on all.

33 O the deepenesse of the riches both of the wisedome and knowledge of God: howe vnsearchable are his iudgements, and his wayes past finding out!

Sapi. 9. 13. Esa. 40. 13. 1. Cor. 2. 16.

34 For * who hath knowen the minde of the Lord? Or who hath ben his counseller?

35 Either who hath geuen vnto him first, and he shalbe recompensed againe?

36 For of him, and through him, and for him, are all things: to whom be glory for euer. Amen.

2 And be not yee fashioned like vnto this world: but be ye changed in your shape, by the renuing of your mind, that ye may proue what is the good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God.

a The world hath diuers significations in the scriptures, but here it is taken specially for the nature and disposition of men in the world, which inordinately serue their lustes and pleasures. b serued not God in holinesse of life. c godly conuersation.

2 For I say, through the grace giuen vnto mee, to euery man that is among you, that no man esteeme of him selfe, more then hee ought to esteeme: but so esteeme himselfe that he behaue himselfe discretely, according as God hath dealt to euery man the measure of faith.

3 For as wee haue many members in one bodie, and all members haue not one office:

4 So wee, being many, are one body in Christ, & euery one, members one of another.

5 Seeing that we haue diuers gifts, according to the grace that is giuen vnto vs: either prophecie, after the measure of faith:

6 Either office, in administration: or hee that teacheth, in teaching:

7 Either he that exhorteth, in exhorting: he that giueth, in singlenesse: he that ruleth, in diligence: he that is mercifull, in cheerefulnesse.

8 Loue, without dissimulation, hating euill, cleauing to good:

9 Affectioned one to another with brotherly loue, in giuing honour, going one before another.

10 Not slouthfull in businesse, feruent in spirit, seruing the Lord.

11 Reioycing in hope, patient in trouble, instant in prayer.

12 Distributing to the necessitie of saints, giuen to hospitalitie.

13 * Blesse them which persecute you, blesse, and curse not.

14 Reioyce with them that doe reioyce, and weepe with them that weepe.

15 * Being of like affection one towards another, being not high minded: but making your selues equall to them of the lower sort. † Bee not wise in your owne opinions.

16 * Recompencing to no man euill for euill. Prouiding afore hande things honest, not onely before God, but also in the sight of all men.

17 If

Heb.12.14

18 *If it be possible, as much as lieth in you, liue peaceably with all men.

19 Dearely beloued, auenge not your selues, but rather giue place vnto wrath: for it is written, Auengeance is mine, I will repay, saith the Lord.

20 Therefore, if thine enemie hunger, feede him: if he thirst, giue him drinke: for in so doing, thou shalt heape coales of fire on his head.

21 Be not ouercome of euill, but ouercome euill with good.

4. For either must they bear with the penalty, or else his conscience that beare him witnesse, that Gods burning wrath hangeth ouer him.

The xiii. Chapter.

1 Of obedience to the rulers, which beare not the sword in vaine. 8 Charitie must measure all our doings.

The Epistle on the fourth Sunday after the Epiphanie. Sapi.6.4.

LEt euery soule bee subiect vnto the higher powers: for there is no power but of God. The powers that be, are ordeined of God.

2 Whosoeuer therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist, shall receiue to themselues damnation.

3 For rulers are not fearefull to good workes, but to the euill. Wilt thou not feare the power? Doe well, and thou shalt haue praise of the same.

4 For hee is the minister of God for thy wealth. But if thou do euill, feare, for he beareth not the sword in vaine: for hee is the minister of God, reuenger of wrath on him that doeth euill.

5 Wherefore ye must needs be subiect, not onely for feare of ‖ punishment: but also because of a conscience.

‖ Or, wrath.

a For we are bound in conscience by the word of God, to obey the higher powers and in disobeying, we should hurt the consciences of others thorowe our euil example.

6 And for this cause pay yee tribute, for they are Gods ministers, seruing for the same purpose.

7 Giue to euery man therefore his duety, tribute to whome tribute is due, custome to whom custome, feare to whom feare, honour to whom honour belongeth.

The Epistle on the first Sunday in Aduent.

8 Owe nothing to no man, but to loue one another: (for hee that loueth another, hath fulfilled the lawe.

9 For this, *Thou shalt not commit adulterie, thou shalt not kill, thou shalt not steale, thou shalt not beare false witnesse, thou shalt not lust: *and if there be any other commandement, it is in fewe wordes comprehended in this saying: Namely, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe.

Exo.20.14. deut.5.18. Leu.19.18. mat.21.39. mar.12.31. galat.5.14. iames 2.8.

10 Charitie worketh no ill to his neighbour, therefore the fulfilling of the lawe is charitie.

11 And chiefly considering the season, howe that it is time that we should nowe awake out of sleepe: for now is our saluation b nearer then when we beleeued.

b The further we go, the neare are we to the end. Now therefore our perfect and full saluation is nearer then when we first began to beleeue.

12 The night is passed, the day is come nigh. Let vs therefore cast away the deeds of darkenesse, * and let vs put on the armour of light.

Luk.21.14

13 Let vs walke honestly, as in the day, not in rioting and drunkennesse, neyther in chambring and wantonnes, neither in strife and enuying.

14 But put ye on the Lord Iesus Christ, and make not prouision for the flesh, to fulfill the lusts thereof.

The xiiii. Chapter.

One ought to beare with another's conscience in charitie.

HIm that is weake in the faith receiue not to doubtfulnesse of disputations.

a That is not to enter into curious disputations touching such matters of religion, wherewith they trouble the consciences of many, be cause as yet attaining vnto the more perfect knowledge of religion, they are offended with vnprofitable reasoning.

2 One beleeueth that he may eat euery thing: another which is weake, eateth herbes.

3 Let not him that eateth, despise him that eateth not: and let not him which eateth not, iudge him that eateth. For God hath receiued him.

4 What art thou that iudgest another mans seruant? To his owne master he standeth or falleth: Yea, he shall be holden vp, for God is able to make him stand.

5 This man putteth difference betweene day and day. Another man counteth all dayes alike. Let euery man be fully perswaded in his owne b minde.

b We must be assured in our conscience by Gods word in all things that we do, that if we be strong, we may know what is our liberte: and if we be weake, we may learne to profite dayly.

6 He that esteemeth the day, esteemeth it vnto the Lord: and he that esteemeth not the day, to the Lord he doeth not esteeme it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giueth God thankes: and he that eateth not, eateth not to the Lord, and giueth God thankes.

7 For none of vs liueth to himselfe, and no man dieth to himselfe.

8 For if we liue, we liue vnto the Lord: and if wee die, wee die vnto the Lord: whether wee liue therefore, or die, wee are the Lords.

9 For to this end Christ both died, & rose, and reuiued, that he might be Lord both of dead and quicke.

10 But why doest thou then iudge thy brother? Either, why dost thou set at nought thy brother? * wee shall all stand before the iudgement seate of Christ. 2.Cor.1.10

11 For it is written, * I liue, saieth the Lord, and all knees shall bowe to me, and all tongues shall giue praise to God. Esay 45.23 phil.2.10.

12 So shall euery one of vs giue account of himselfe to God.

13 Let vs not therefore iudge one another any more: but iudge this rather, that no man put a stumbling blocke, or an occasion to fal, in his brothers way.

14 For I know, and am perswaded by the Lord Iesus, that there is nothing common of it selfe, but vnto him that iudgeth it to be common, to him it is common.

15 But if thy brother be grieued with thy meate, nowe walkest thou not charitably: *destroy not him with thy meate, for whom Christ dyed. 1.Cor.8.11

16 Let not your good be euill spoken of.

17 For the kingdome of God is not meat and and drinke: but righteousnesse, and peace, and ioy in the holy Ghost.

18 For hee that in these things serueth Christ, pleaseth God, and is commended of men.

19 Let vs therefore follow the thinges which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edifie another.

20 Destroy not the worke of God for meates sake: all things are pure, but it is euill for that man which eateth with offence.

Titus 1.15.

21 It is good neither to eate flesh, neither to drinke wine, neither anything whereby thy brother stumbleth, either is offended, or is made weake.

c Faith is here taken for a full perswasion of the christian liberty in things indifferent.

22 Hast thou c faith? haue it with thy selfe before God. Happie is he that condemneth not himselfe in that thing which hee alloweth.

d This sentence, both affirmative & negative, doth take to be generally meant of all actions whether they be which proceede not of a right conscience, and an vndoubted faith, grounded vpon the word of God.

23 For hee that maketh conscience, is damned if hee eate, because hee eateth not of faith: for whatsoeuer is not of faith, is d sinne.

The xv. Chapter.

1 Paul sheweth his zeale toward them, 30 and requireth the like of them.

WE which are strong, ought to beare the frailenes of the weake, and not to stande in our owne conceits.

a To edifie, signifieth to do all maner of duelies to one neighbour either to bring him to Christ, or if he be won that he may go forward to better.

2 Let euery man please his neighbour in that that is good to a edifying.

3 For Christ pleased not himselfe, but as it is written, The rebukes of them which rebuked thee, fell on me.

4 For whatsoeuer things haue bin written aforetime, were writte for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures, might haue hope.

The Epistle on the ij. Sunday in Aduent.

5 The God of patience and consolation, 1.Cor.1.10 * graunt you to be like minded one towards another, after the ensample of Christ Iesu:

6 That ye al agreeing together, may with one mouth praise God, and the father of our Lord Iesus Christ.

7 Wherefore receiue ye one another, as Christ receiued vs, to the glory of God.

8 And I say, that Iesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the trueth of God, to confirme the promises made vnto the fathers:

9 And that the Gentiles might glorifie 1.Re.21.50 God, for his mercie, as it is written, * For psal.18.50. this cause I wil praise thee among the Gentiles, and sing vnto thy name.

Deu.32.49. 10 And againe he saith, * Reioyce ye Gentiles with his people.

Psal.117.1. 11 And againe, * Praise the Lorde all yee Gentiles, and laude him all yee people together.

Esa.11,10. 12 And againe, Esaias saith, * There shall be the roote of Iesse, and he that shall rise to reigne ouer the Gentiles, in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 The God of hope fill you with all ioy and peace in beleeuing, that yee may be rich in hope, through the power of the holy Ghost.

14 I my selfe am perswaded of you, my brethren, that yee also are full of goodnesse, and filled with all knowledge, able also to exhort one another.

15 Neuertheles, brethren, I haue written more boldly vnto you, as putting you in remembrance through the grace that is giuen to me of God,

16 That I should be the minister of Iesus Christ to the Gentiles, ‖ and should minister the Gospel of God, that the offering of the b Gentiles might be acceptable, and sanctified by the holy Ghost.

‖ Or, sacrificing.

b He calleth here the offering of the Gentiles, whom he had to God by preaching of the Gospel.

17 I haue therefore whereof I may reioyce through Christ Iesus, in those things which pertaine to God.

18 For I will not be bold to speake of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient with word and deede, 19 In mightie signes and wonders, by the power of the spirit of God, so that from Hierusalem, and the coasts round about vnto Illyricum, I haue fully preached the Gospel of Christ.

20 So haue I enforced my selfe to preach the Gospel, not where Christ was named, least I shoulde haue built vpon another mans foundation.

c Another mans foundation he calleth here the Churches that were taught and instructed of other Apostles.

21 But as it is written, * To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that heare not, shall vnderstand.

Esai,52.15.

22 For this cause I haue bene oft let, that I could not come vnto you:

23 But now hauing no more to do in these countreis, & also hauing a great desire many yeeres to come vnto you,

24 Whensoeuer I take my iourney into Spaine, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my iourney, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, after that I be somewhat filled with you.

25 But now goe I vnto Hierusalem, to minister vnto the d saints.

d That is, to carry to the poore saints that liued at Hierusalem, the almes that he gathered for them among the Gentiles where he preached.

26 For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia, to make a certaine common gathering for the poore saintes which are at Hierusalem.

27 * It hath pleased them verily, and their detters are they. For if the Gentiles bee made partakers of their spirituall things, their duetie is to minister vnto them in carnall things.

1.Cor,9.11

28 When I haue performed this, & haue e sealed to them this fruite, I wil come to you into Spaine.

e That is, when I shal faithfully deliuer it to the, as it were sealed most surely. By fruit, he meaneth almes, which is the fruits of the faith of those that had receiued the Gospel.

29 And I am sure that when I come vnto you, I shall come with abundance of the blessing of the Gospel of Christ.

30 I beseech you brethren for the Lorde Iesus Christes sake, and for the loue of the spirit, that ye helpe me in my businesse with your your prayers to God for me:

32 That I may bee deliuered from them that beleeue not in Iurie, and that this my seruice which I haue at Hierusalem, may be accepted of the saints:

33 That I may come vnto you with ioy by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed.

33 The God of peace be with you all, Amen.

The xvj. Chapter.

1 A number of salutations. 17 Paul willeth them to beware of false brethren. 20 Hee prayeth and giueth thankes for them.

I Commende vnto you Phebe our sister, which is a minister of the [a] Church of Cenchrea:

a In the primitiue church ancient widowes & other vertuous women, were chosen & appointed to minister vnto the needie, and therefore called ministers: and not because they had any publique authoritie to teach in the congregation. Acts, 11.3.

2 That ye receiue her in the Lord, as it becommeth saints, and that yee assist her in whatsoeuer businesse she hath neede of you: for shee hath succored many, and my selfe also.

3 * Greete Priscilla, and Aquila, my helpers in Christ Iesu:

4 (which haue for my life laide downe their owne neckes: vnto whom, not onely I giue thankes, but also all the Churches of the Gentiles.)

5 Likewise greete the Church that is in their house. Salute my welbeloued Epenetus, which is the first fruites of Achaia in Christ.

6 Greete Mary, which bestowed much labour on vs.

7 Salute Andronicus & Iunia my cousins, and prisoners with me also, which are well taken among the Apostles, and were in Christ before me.

8 Greete Amplias my beloued in the Lord.

9 Salute Urban, our helper in Christ, Stachys my beloued.

10 Salute Apelles, approued in Christ. Salute them which are of Aristobulus houshold.

11 Salute Herodion my kinsman. Greete them that be of the houshold of Narcissus, which are in the Lord.

12 Salute Tryphena and Tryphosa, which labour in the Lorde. Salute the beloued Persis, which laboured much in the Lord.

13 Salute Rufus chosen in the Lorde, and his mother and mine.

14 Greete Asyncritus, Phlegon, Herman, Patrobas, Mercurius, and the brethren which are with them.

15 Salute Philologus, & Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, & all the saints which are with them.

16 * Salute one another with an holy kisse. The Churches of Christ salute you. 2.Cor.13.12.

17 Nowe I beseech you brethren, [c] marke them which cause diuision, and giue occasion of euill, contrary to the doctrine which ye haue learned, and auoide them.

b This was a signe of amitie among the Iewes, which S. Paul willeth to be holy, that is, that it come from a minde full of godly charitie.

c There are two markes to know the false Apostles by: the one is, when they leane from Christ & serue their belie: the other, when they regarde not the holy scripture, but preach lies, and abuse them as lies.

18 For they that are such, serue not the Lord Iesus Christ, but their owne belly, and with sweete and flattering wordes deceiue the hearts of the innocents.

19 For your obedience is gone abroade vnto all men. I am glad therefore on your behalfe: but yet I would haue you wise vnto that which is good, and simple concerning euill.

20 The God of peace shall treade Satan vnder your feete shortly. The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with you. Amen.

21 *Timotheus my worke fellow, & Lucius, and Iason, and Sosipater my kinsmen salute you. Acts.16.1. phil.2.19.

22 I Tertius, which wrote this Epistle, salute you in the Lord.

23 Gaius mine hoste, and of the whole Church, saluteth you. Erastus the chamberlaine of the citie saluteth you, and Quartus his brother.

24 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with you all, Amen.

25 * To him that is of power to stablish you, according to my Gospel, and preaching of Iesus Christ, * by reuealing of the mysterie which was kept secrete since the worlde began, Ephes.3.20. Ephes.3.9. coloss.1.2. 1.tim.1.7. titus 1,1.

26 But nowe is opened, and by the scriptures of the Prophets, at the cõmandement of the euerlasting God, to the obedience of faith, among all nations published, 27 To the same God, wise onely, be glory, through Iesus Christ, for euer, Amen.

This Epistle was written to the Romanes from Corinthus, and sent by Phebe the minister of the Church at Cenchrea.

R. E.

The first Epistle of Saint Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians.

The first Chapter.

1 Hee praiseth the great graces of God shewed towarde them, 10 Exhorting them to concord and humilitie.

PAul called to be an Apostle of Jesus Christ, thorough the wil of God, & brother Sosthenes:

2 vnto the Church of God which is at Corinthus, to them that *are sanctified in Christ Jesus, a saints by calling, * with all that call on the name of the Lord Jesus Christ in euery place, both of theirs and ours:

Acts.15.9.

a Made holy by the free mercie & calling of God.

Rom.1.7.

3 Grace be vnto you, and peace from God our father, and from the Lorde Jesus Christ.

The Epistle on the xviij. Sunday after Trinitie.

4 I thanke my God alwayes on your behalfe, for the grace of God which is giuen you in Jesus Christ,

5 That in all things yee are enriched in him, in all vtterance and in all knowledge:

6 As the testimonie of Jesus Christ was confirmed in you.

7 So that ye are destitute of no gift, waiting for the appearing of our Lorde Jesus Christ.

‖Or, confirme.

8 which shall also ‖ strengthen you vnto the end, that ye may be b blamelesse in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

b For there is no condemnation to them that are graffed in Christ Jesus.

9 *God is faithfull, by whom ye haue bin called vnto the fellowship of his sonne Jesus Christ our Lord.

1.Thes.5.24.

10 Nowe I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lorde Jesus Christ, that yee all speake one thing, and that there be no dissentions among you: but that yee be perfectly ioyned together in the same mind, and in the same meaning.

11 For it hath bene declared vnto me, my brethren, of you, by them which are of the house of Cloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 This I say, that euery one of you saith, I am of Paul, and I am of *Apollo, and I am of Cephas, and I am of Christ.

Acts.18.24.

13 Is Christ diuided? was Paul crucified for you? either were ye baptized in the name of Paul?

14 I thanke God that I baptized none of you but *Crispus and Gaius:

Acts.18.28.

15 Least any shoulde say that I had baptized in mine owne name.

16 I baptized also the houshold of Stephanas: Besides, I knowe not whether I baptized any other.

Gal.5.2. 1.pet.1.16.

a When men should attribute that vnto eloquence, which onely belonged to the power of God.

17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the Gospel: *not with wisedome of a wordes, least the crosse of Christ shoulde be made of none effect.

18 For a preaching of the crosse is to them that perish, foolishnesse: but vnto vs which are saued, it is the power of God. Rom. 1.16.

19 For it is written: I will destroy the wisedome of the wise, and will cast away the *vnderstanding of the prudent. Esa. 29.14.

20 Where is the wise? where is the Scribe? where is the disputer of this worlde? hath not God made the wisedome of this worlde foolish?

21 For after that in the wisedome of God, the world through their wisedome knewe not God, it pleased God through foolishnesse of preaching, to saue them that beleeue.

22 For the Iewes require a signe, and the Grecians seeke after wisedome. Mat. 12.38.

23 But wee preach Christ crucified, vnto the Iewes a stumbling blocke, and vnto the Grecians, foolishnesse:

24 But vnto them which are called, both Iewes and Grecians, Christ, the power of God, and the wisedome of God.

25 For the foolishnes of God is wiser then men: and the weakenesse of God is stronger then men.

26 Brethren, ye see your calling, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mightie, not many noble are called:

27 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the worlde, to confounde the wise: and God hath chosen the weake things of the worlde, to confounde the things which are mightie:

28 And vnnoble things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are:

29 That no flesh shoulde glory in his presence.

30 And of him are yee in Christ Jesus, which of God is made vnto vs wisdome, and righteousnesse, and sanctification, and redemption:

31 That according as it is written, *Hee that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord. Iere. 9.23.

The ij. Chapter.

Hee putteth for example his maner of preaching, which was according to the tenor of the Gospel.

AND I, brethren, when I came to you, *came not in ‖ gloriousnesse of words, or of wisedome, shewing vnto you the a testimonie of God. Wisd. 1.17. ‖Or, excellencie. a That is, the Gospel, where by God doth manifest himselfe to the world, as without God, to be vnrighteousnesse and foolishnesse.

2 For I esteemed not to know any thing amog you, saue Jesus Christ, & him crucified.

3 And I was among you in weakenesse, and in feare, and in much trembling.

4 And my wordes and my preaching *was not with enticing words of mans wisdome, 2.Pet.1.16.

dome, but in shewing of the spirite, and of power:

5 That your faith should not stand in the wisdome of men, but in the power of God.

6 And we speake wisedome among them that are perfect: not the wisedome of this world, neither of the princes of this worlde, which come to nought.

7 But we speake the wisedome of God in a mysterie, euen the hid wisedome which God ordeyned before the worlde, vnto our glory.

8 which none of the princes of this world knewe: for had they knowen it, they would not haue crucified the Lord of glory.

Esai. 64.4. 9 But as it is written, *The eye hath not seene, and the eare hath not heard, neither haue entred into the hart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that loue him.

10 But God hath reuealed them vnto vs by his spirit: for the spirit sercheth al things, yea the deepe things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, saue the [b] spirite of man which is in him? Euen so the things of God knoweth no man, but the spirit of God.

b spans mind which vnderstandeth and iudgeth.

12 And wee haue not receiued the spirit of the worlde, but the spirite which is of God, that we might knowe the things that are giuen to vs of God.

2.Pet.1.16. 13 *Which things also we speake, not in the words which mans wisedome teacheth, but which the holy Ghost teacheth: comparing spirituall things with spirituall things.

14 But the naturall man perceiueth not the things of the spirite of God, for they are foolishnesse vnto him: Neither can hee knowe them, because they are spiritually discerned.

Pro.27.19. 15 *But he that is spirituall, discerneth all things, yet he himselfe is iudged of no man.

Rom.11.34 esai.40,13. 16 *For who hath knowen the minde of the Lorde, that he might instruct him? But we haue [c] the mind of Christ.

c That is, Christs spirit.

The iij. Chapter.

3 Paul rebuketh the sects and authors thereof. 13 Christ is the foundation of the Church.

AND I couldē not speake vnto you brethren, as vnto spirituall, but as vnto carnal, euen as vnto [a] babes in Christ.

a Being ingrafted in Christ by faith, we begin to moue by his spirit: & as we profit in faith, we grow vp to a ripe age. And here let him take heede that teacheth, lest for milke he giue poison. For milke and strong meate in effect are one, but onely differ in maner and forme.

2 I haue nourished you with milke, and not with meate: for ye then were not strong, neither are ye as yet.

3 For yee are yet carnall: Seeing then there is among you enuying, and strife, and sectes, are ye not carnall, and walke as men?

4 For while one sayeth, I am of Paul, and another, I am of Apollo, are yee not carnall?

5 For what is Paul? what is Apollo? but ministers by whom ye beleeued, euen as the Lord gaue to euery man.

6 I haue planted, Apollo watered: but God gaue the encrease.

7 So then, neither is he that planteth any thing: neither he that watereth: but God that giueth the encrease.

8 He that planteth, and he that watereth, are one: *and euery man shall receiue his reward according to his labour. Psal.62.13. gal.6.5.

9 For wee together are Gods labourers, ye are Gods husbandry, yee are Gods building.

10 According to the grace of God which is giuen vnto me, as a wise master builder haue I laide the foundation, & another buildeth thereon. But let euery man [b] take heede how he buildeth vpon.

b He reproueth with the ministers of Corinth, as teachers of curious doctrine and questions.

11 For other foundation can no man lay then that is laid, which is Iesus Christ.

12 If any man build on this foundation, golde, siluer, precious stones, timber, hay, or stubble:

13 Euery mans worke shall be made manifest. The day shall declare it, because it shall be reuealed by the fire, and the fire shall trie euery mans worke what it is.

14 If any mans worke that he hath built vpon abide, he shall receiue a reward.

15 If any mans worke burne, he shall suffer losse, but he shalbe safe himselfe: yet as it were through fire.

16 *Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the spirit of God dwelleth in you? 1.Cor.6.19

17 If any man ‖ defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy: for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are. ‖ Or, destroy

18 Let no man deceiue himselfe: if any man among you seeme to himselfe to be wise in this world, let him become a foole, that he may be wise.

19 For the wisedome of this worlde, is foolishnesse with God: for it is written, *He compasseth the wise in [c] their owne craftinesse. Iob.5.13, c When they themselues are entangled in the same snares which they laid for others.

20 And againe, The Lorde knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they be vaine.

21 Therefore let no man glory in [d] men, for all things are yours:

d But in God, who worketh by his ministers to his owne glory, and the comfort of his church.

22 Whether Paul, or Apollo, or Cephas, either the worlde, either life, or death, whether things present, or things to come, al are yours:

23 But yee are Christes, and Christ is Gods.

The iiij. Chapter.

1 After that he had described the office of a true Apostle, 3 seeing they did not acknowledge him such one, 4 he appealeth to Gods iudgement.

LEt a man so esteeme of vs as the ministers of Christ, and disposers of the secrets of God. The Epistle on the iii. Sunday in Aduent.

2 Furthermore, it is required in the disposers, that a man be found faithfull.

3 With

3 With mee it is but a very smalle thing that I should be iudged of you, either of mans iudgement: yea, I iudge not a mine owne selfe.

a Whether I haue great gifts or little, few or many.

4 For I know nothing by my selfe, yet am I not thereby iustified: but hee that iudgeth me, is the Lord.

Mat. 7. 1. rom. 2. 1.

5 *Therefore iudge nothing before the time, vntill the Lord come, who will lighten the hidden things of darkenesse, and open the councels of the hearts: and then shall euery man haue praise of God.

6 And these things brethren, I haue figuratiuely applied vnto my selfe and to Apollos, for your sakes: that yee might learne by vs, not to be wise about that which is written, that you swell not one against another for any mans cause.

b To wit, from other men, and preferre one before.

7 For who b separateth thee? And what hast thou? thou hast not receiued? If thou hast receiued it, why doest thou glory as though thou hadst not receiued it?

8 Now are yee full, now are ye rich, yee haue reigned as kings without vs, and I would to God yee did reigne, that wee also might reigne with you.

9 For me thinketh that God hath set forth vs which are the last Apostles, as it were men appointed to death. For we are made a gasing stocke vnto the world, and to angels, and to men.

c By this bitter mocking, in abusing himselfe, and taxing the Corinthians, he teacheth the ashamed of their vaine pomp.

10 Wee are c fooles for Christes sake, but ye are wise in Christ. We are weake, but yee are strong: Yee are honourable, but we are despised.

Or, houre.

11 Euen vnto this ‖ time wee both hunger and thirst, and are naked, & are buffeted, and haue no certaine d welling place,

Act. 20. 34. 1. thes. 2. 9. 2. thes. 3. 8.

12 *And labour, working with our owne hands: being reuiled, we bleese: being persecuted, we suffer it:

Matt. 5. 44.

13 *Being defamed, wee pray: wee are made as the filthinesse of the worlde, and are the offcouring of all things vnto this day.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloued sonnes I warne you.

15 For though ye haue ten thousand instructers in Christ, yet haue ye not many fathers: for in Christ Iesus I haue begotten you through the Gospel.

16 Wherefore I desire you, bee ye followers of me.

17 For this cause haue I sent vnto you Timotheus, which is my beloued sonne, and faithfull in the Lord, who shall put you in remembrance of my waies which be in Christ, as I teach euery where in all churches.

18 Some are swolne, as though I would come no more at you:

19 *But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will, and will know, not the words of them which are swollen, but the power.

Act. 19. 21. iam. 4. 15.

20 For the kingdome of God is not in word, but in d power.

d Of the holy ghost.

21 What will ye? Shal I come vnto you with a rodde, or in loue, and in the spirite of meeknesse?

The v. Chapter.

1 He reproueth sharpely their negligence in punishing him that had committed incest. 3 willing them to excommunicate him. 7 to imbrace pietie, & flee wickednesse.

IT is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not named among the Gentiles: that one should haue his father's wife.

a Who would thinke that you would suffer that mischiefe vnpunished, which the most barbarous nations abhorre to speake of.

2 And yee are puffed vp, and haue not rather sorowed, that he that hath done this deede, might be taken away from among you.

Col. 2. 5.

3 For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, haue determined already, as though I were present, that he that hath so done this deede,

4 In the name of our Lord Iesus Christ, you being gathered together, and my spirite with your with the power of the Lord Iesus Christ,

5 *To deliuer such a one vnto Satan, for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirite may bee saued in the day of the Lorde Iesus.

1. Tim. 1. 20

6 Your glorying is not b good. *Know ye not that a litle leauen leaueneth the whole lumpe?

b Seeing you suffer such monstrous vices vnpunished.

Gal. 5. 9.

7 Purge out therefore the olde leauen, that ye may bee a new lumpe, as ye are vnleauened. For euen Christ our Passeouer is ‖ offered vp for vs.

‖ Or, is slain.

8 Therefore let vs keepe holyday, not with olde leauen, neither with the leauen of maliciousnesse and wickednesse: but with the vnleauened bread of purenesse and truth.

9 I wrote vnto you in an epistle, that ye should not company with fornicatours.

10 I did not meane not at all with the fornicatours of this worlde, or with the couetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters: for then must yee needes haue gone out of the world.

11 But nowe this I write vnto you, not to company together, if any that is called a brother bee a fornicatour, or couetous, or a worshipper of idoles, or a rayler, or a drunkard, or an extortioner: with him that is such not to eate.

12 For what haue I to doe to iudge them that are without? doe not ye iudge them that are within?

13 Them that are without, God shall iudge. And yee shall put away from among you that wicked person.

The vi. Chapter.

7 Christians ought rather to suffer. 12 He reproueth the abusing of christian libertie, 15 and sheweth that we ought to serue God purely, both in body and soule.

for, against.

a Ye calleth them vniust, bicause they are not sanctified in Christ.

DAre any of you hauing busines with another, bee iudged vnder the a vniust, and not rather vnder the saints?
2 Doe ye not know that the saints shal iudge the world? If the worlde shalbe iudged by you, are yee vnworthie to iudge the smallest matters?
3 Know ye not how that wee shall iudge the angels? How much more, things that pertaine to this life?
4 If then yee haue iudgement of things pertaining to this life, set vp them to iudge which are least esteemed in the Church.
5 I speake it to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no not one that shall be able to iudge betweene his brethren?
6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that vnder the vnbeleeuers?
7 Now therefore, there is vtterly a ‖fault among you, because ye goe to lawe one with another: * why rather suffer ye not wrong? why rather suffer ye not harme?
8 Nay, * ye your selues doe wrong, & doe harme, and that to your brethren.
9 Know ye not that the vnrighteous shal not inherite the kingdome of God? Bee not deceiued: neither fornicatours, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselues with mankind,
10 Nor theeues, nor couetous, nor drunkards, nor reuilers, nor ‖pillers, shal inherit the kingdome of God.
11 * And some such like you were: but yee are washed, but ye are sanctified, but yee are iustified in the name of the Lord Iesus, and by the spirit of our God.
12 All things are lawfull vnto me, but all things are not profitable: al things are lawful for me, but I will not bee brought vnder the b power of any.
13 Meates for the belly, and the belly for meates: but God shal destroy both it & them. Now the body is not for c fornication, but for the Lord: and the Lord for the body.
14 And God both hath raised vp ỹ Lorde, * and also shall raise vs vp by his power.
15 Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? Shall I then take the members of Christ, & make them the members of an harlot? God forbid.
16 What, know ye not that he which is coupled with an harlot, is one ‖ body? * For two (saith he) shalbe one flesh.
17 But he that is coupled vnto the Lord, is one spirit.
18 Flee fornication: Euery sinne that a man doeth, is without the body: but he that committeth fornication, sinneth against his owne body.
19 What, * know yee not that your body is the temple of the holy Ghost which is in you, whom yee haue of God, and ye are not your owne?
20 * For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorifie God in your body, and in your spirit, which are gods.

Or, want.

1. Cor. 6.16

d To liue after your owne will, but after the will of him that hath bought you. 1. Pet. 1.16.

The vii. Chapter.

The Apostle answereth to certaine questions which the Corinthians desired to know.

NOw as concerning the things whereof ye wrote vnto me: It is a good for a man not to touch a woman.
2 Neuertheless, to auoide fornication, let euery man haue his owne wife, and let euery woman haue her owne husband.
3 * Let the husband giue vnto the wife due beneuolence: Likewise also the wife vnto the husband.
4 The wife hath not the power of her owne body, but the husband: And likewise also the husband hath not the power of his owne body, but the wife.
5 Defraud you not the one the other, except it be with both your consents for a time, that yee may giue your selues to fasting and prayer: and after ward come together again, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinencie.
6 This I say ‖ of fauour, and b not of commandement.
7 For I would that all men were euen as I my selfe: but euery man hath his proper gift of God, one after this maner, another after that.
8 I say therfore to the vnmaried and widowes, it is good for them if they abide euen as I:
9 But if they cannot abstaine, let them marry: for it is better to marry the to burne.
10 Vnto the maried commaund, not I, but the Lord, * Let not the wife depart from her husband:
11 But and if she depart, let her remaine vnmarried, or be reconciled to her husband againe: And let not the husband put away his wife.
12 But to the remnant speake I, not the Lord, If any brother haue a wife that beleeueth not, and she consent to dwell with him, let him not put her away.
13 And the woman which hath to her husband an infidel, and he consent to dwel with her, let her not put him away.
14 For the vnbeleeuing husband is sanctified by the wife, & the vnbeleeuing wife is sanctified by the husband: els were your children vncleane, but now are they c holy.
15 But if the vnbeleeuing depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not made subiect in such things: but God hath called vs in peace.
16 For how knowest thou, O woman, whether thou shalt saue thy husband? or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt saue thy wife?
17 But as God hath distributed to euery man, as ỹ Lord hath called euery one, so let him a Or expedient, because marriage though it meane corruption, & not by Gods institution, bringeth cares and troubles.

1. Pet. 3.7.

‖ Or by way of sufferance,

b He shewes that he commandeth not precisely to marry, but that God hath graunted that remedy vnto them which cannot liue chaste.

Mat. 5.32. and 19.9

c They that are borne of either of the parents faithfull, are also counted members of Christs church, because of the promis.

him walke, and so ordaine I in all Churches.

18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not adde vncircumcision: Is any called in vncircumcision? let him not be circumcised.

19 Circumcision is nothing, and vncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandements of God.

Ephe.4.1. 20 * Let euery man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called a seruant? care not for it: neuertheleſſe, if thou maiſt be made free, vſe it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord being a ſeruant, is the Lords free man: likewiſe also hee that is called being free, is Chriſtes ſeruant.

1.Pet.1.20. 23 *Ye are bought with a price, be not yee the ſeruants of men.

24 Brethren, let euery man wherein hee is called, therein abide [d] with God.

d Or, ſincerely, as in the preſence of God.

25 Nowe concerning virgins, I haue no commaundement of the Lord: yet giue I counſell, as one that hath obtained mercie of the Lord to be faithfull.

26 I ſuppoſe therefore that it is good for the preſent neceſſitie, that I ſay, it is good for a man ſo to be.

27 Art thou bound vnto a wife? ſeeke not to bee looſed. Art thou looſed from a wife? ſeeke not a wife.

28 But and if thou marrie, thou haſt not ſinned, and if a virgin marrie, ſhee hath not ſinned: neuertheleſſe, ſuch ſhall haue trouble in the fleſh: but | I beare with you.

|Or, ſpare you.

29 But this ſay I brethren, becauſe the time is ſhort: it remaineth that they alſo which haue wiues, bee as though they had none:

30 And they that weepe, as though they wept not: and they that reioyce, as though they reioyced not: and they that buye, as though they poſſeſſed not:

31 And they that vſe this worlde, as not abuſing it: for the fashion of this world goeth away.

32 I would haue you without care. He that is vnmarried, careth for the things that belong to the Lord, howe hee may pleaſe the Lord:

33 But he that hath married, careth for the things that are of the worlde, howe hee may pleaſe his wife.

34 There is difference betweene a virgin and a wife: the vnmarried woman careth for the things that are of the Lord, that ſhe may bee holy both in body and in ſpirite: but ſhee that is married, careth for the things that pertaine to the worlde, howe ſhee may pleaſe her huſband.

35 This ſpeake I for your profite: not that I may caſt a ſnare vpon you, but for comelineſſe ſake, and ſitting faſt vnto the Lorde without ſeparation.

36 But if any man thinke that it is vncomely for his virgin if ſhee paſſe the time of marriage, [c] and needs ſo require, let him doe what he will, hee ſinneth not: let them be married.

c That is, that ſhe ſhould marrie and auoide fornication.

37 Neuertheleſſe, he that ſtandeth ſtedfaſt in his heart, hauing no neede, but hath power ouer his owne will, and hath ſo decreed in his heart that hee will keepe his virgin, doeth well.

38 So then hee that giueth in marriage doeth well: but he that giueth not in marriage, doth better.

39 *The wife is bound to the | lawe as long as her huſband liueth: but if her huſband be dead, ſhe is at libertie to bee married to whom ſhe will, onely in the Lord.

Rom.7.1. |Or, by the law of mariage.

40 But ſhe is happier if ſhe ſo abide, after my iudgement: * and I thinke verily that I haue the ſpirit of God.

1.Theſ.4.8.

The viij. Chapter.

Hee rebuketh them that vſe their libertie to the ſlander of other, in going to the idolatrous ſacrifices.

AS touching things offered vnto idols, we know that we all haue knowledge. Knowledge maketh a man ſwell: but charitie edifieth.

2 If any man thinke that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to knowe.

3 But if any man loue God, the ſame is | knowen of him.

|or, taught.

4 As concerning therefore the eating of thoſe things that are offered in ſacrifice vnto idols, wee knowe that an idoll is nothing in the worlde, and that there is none other God but one.

5 And though there bee that are called gods, whether in heauen or in earth (as there be gods many, and [a] lords many:)

a Which hauing ſtoles, yet are eſteemed of men as kings and ſeigneurs.

6 Yet vnto vs is there but one God, which is the father of whom are all things, and we in him, * and one Lorde Ieſus Chriſt, by whom are all things, and we by him.

Iohn 13.13 1.cor.12.3.

7 But there is not in euery man that knowledge: for ſome hauing conſcience of the idol vnto this houre, eate as a thing offered vnto idoles, and their conſcience being weake, is defiled.

8 But meate doth not commend to God: for neither if we eate, haue we the more: neither if we eate not, haue we the leſſe.

9 But take heede leſt by any meanes this libertie of yours become a ſtumbling to them that are weake.

10 For if any man ſee thee which haſt knowledge, ſit at meate in the idols temple: ſhall not the conſcience of him which is weake, bee [b] boldened to eate thoſe things which are offered to idols, b By this example without any ground of doctrine.

11 And through thy knowledge ſhall the [c] weake brother perish, for whom Chriſt died?

c Whereas not againſt his conſcience.

12 But when ye ſinne ſo againſt the brethren, and wound their weake conſcience, ye ſinne againſt Chriſt.

Rom.14.21

13 Wherefore, * if meate offende my brother, I will eate no flesh while the worlde standeth, lest I should offend my brother.

The ix. Chapter.

He exhorteth them by his example to vse their libertie to the edification of others.

AM I not an Apostle? am I not free? haue I not seene Jesus Christ our Lord? Are not ye my worke in the Lord?

2 If I bee not an Apostle vnto other, yet doubtlesse am I vnto you: for the seale of mine Apostleship are ye in the Lord.

3 Mine answere to them that aske me, is this,

4 Haue wee not power to eate and to drinke?

5 Haue we not power to leade about a [b] sister a woman as well as other Apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord and Cephas?

6 Is the libertie of not labouring ‖ taken from me and Barnabes onely?

7 Who goeth a warfare any time at his owne cost? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruite thereof? or who feedeth a flocke, and eateth not of the milke of the flocke?

8 Say I these things after the maner of men? or saith not the law the same also?

9 For it is written in the lawe of Moses, Thou shalt not muosell the mouth of the ore that treadeth out the corne. Doth God take care for oxen?

10 Either saith he it not altogether for our sakes? For our sakes no doubt this is written: that hee which eareth, shoulde eare in hope: and that hee which thresheth in hope, shoulde be partaker of his hope.

11 If we haue sowen vnto you spirituall things, it is a great thing if wee shall reape your carnall things?

12 If others be partakers of their power ouer you, wherefore are not wee rather? Neuertheless, wee haue not vsed this power: but suffer all things, lest wee shoulde hinder the Gospel of Christ.

13 Doe ye not know that they which minister about holy things, eate of the things of the temple? and they which waite at the altar, are partakers with the altar?

14 Euen so hath the Lord ordained, that they which preach the Gospel, shoulde liue of the Gospel.

15 But I haue vsed none of these things. Neuertheless, I wrote not these things, that it should be so done vnto me: For it were better for me to die, then that any man should make my ‖ reioycing vaine.

16 For if I preach the Gospel, I haue nothing to ‖ reioyce of: for necessitie is laid vpon me. But woe is vnto me, if I preach not the Gospel.

17 For if I do this thing with a good will, I haue a reward: but if against my will, the dispensation is committed vnto me.

18 What is my reward then? Verily that when I preach the Gospel, I may make the Gospel of Christ free, that I misuse not mine authoritie in the Gospel.

19 For though I be free from all men, yet haue I made my selfe seruant vnto all men, that I might winne the more.

20 Vnto the Iewes, I became as a Iewe, that I might winne the Iewes: to them that are vnder the lawe, as vnder the lawe, that I might winne them that are vnder the lawe:

21 To them that are vnder the lawe, as without lawe (when I was not without lawe as pertaining to the lawe of God, but was in the lawe of Christ) that I might winne them that are without lawe.

22 To the weake became I as weake, that I might winne the weake: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all meanes saue some.

23 And this I doe for the Gospels sake, that I might be partaker thereof.

24 Know ye not that they which runne in a race, runne all, but one receiueth the reward? So runne, that ye may obtaine.

25 Euery man that proueth masteries, absteineth from all things: and they doe it to obtaine a corruptible crowne, but wee to obtaine an incorruptible crowne.

26 I therefore so runne, not as at an vncertaine thing: so fight I, not as one that beateth the ayre:

27 But I tame my [d] body and bring it into subiection: lest by any meanes that when I haue preached to other, I my selfe shoulde be a caste away.

The x. Chapter.

1 He feareth them with the examples of the Iewes, that they put not their trust carnally in the graces of God, 14 exhorting them to flee all idolatrie, 23 and offence of their neighbour,

BRethren, I wolde not that ye should be ignorant, how that al our fathers were vnder the cloud and all passed through the Sea:

2 And were all baptized ‖ vnto Moses in the cloud, and in the sea:

3 And did all eate of the same [a] spirituall meate:

4 And did all drinke of the same spirituall drinke: (for they dranke of that spirituall rocke that followed them: and that rocke was [b] Christ.)

5 But in many of them had God no delight: for they were ouerthrowen in the wildernesse.

6 These things verily are our ensamples, that wee shoulde not bee lusters after euill things as they also lusted.

7 Neither bee yee idolaters, as were some of them, as it is written, * The people sate downe to eate and drinke, and rose vp to play.

8 Neither let vs commit fornication, as some

* I neede no further declaration, but the workes that I haue wrought among you.

b Or a sister, a wife. S. Paul vseth none other word to expresse a wife then γυνή, Valla, what needeth it to adde a woman, where was premised a sister? Wherefore I thinke (saith he) it ought to be translated a wife, specially, because it is expressed in the singular number γυναῖκα. The old translation printed, transposeth the words saying, Mulierem sororem, where the most old written copies constantly haue Sororem mulierem, as all the Greeke copies ἀδελφὴν γυναῖκα haue.

Exo.32.6.

‖Or, did commit fornication.

some of them committed ‖ fornication, and fell in one day three and twentie thousand.

9 Neither let vs tempt Christ, as some of them tempted, & were destroyed of serpents.

10 Neither murmure ye, as some of them murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer.

11 All these things happened vnto them for ensamples: but they are written e for our admonition, vpon whome the endes of the world are come.

e How God will plague vs, if we be subiect to the like vices.

12 Wherefore, let him that thinketh hee standeth, take heede lest he fall.

13 There hath no temptation taken you, but such as foloweth the nature of man: but God is faithfull, which shall not suffer you to be tempted aboue that you are able: but shall with the temptation make away to escape, that ye may be able to beare it.

14 Wherefore my dearely beloued, flee from idolatrie.

15 I speake as vnto them which haue discretion: iudge ye what I say.

16 The cup of blessing which we blesse, is it not the partaking of the blood of Christ? The bread which wee breake, is it not the partaking of the body of Christ?

17 For wee that are many, are one bread, and one body, in as much as wee all are partakers of one bread.

18 Beholde Israel which is after the flesh: are not they which eate of the sacrifices, partakers of the altar?

19 What say I then? that the idoll is any thing? or that it which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?

20 But this I say that the things which the Gentiles offer in sacrifice, they offer to deuils, and not to God: and I woulde not that yee shoulde haue d fellowship with the deuils.

d Which is, to assemble in that compasse, where idoles are called vpon.

21 Yee cannot drinke the cup of the Lord, and the cup of deuils: Yee cannot bee partakers of the Lordes table, and of the table of deuils.

27 If any of them which beleeue not, bid you to a feast and yee be disposed to goe, whatsoeuer is set before you, eate, asking no question for conscience sake.

28 But if any man say vnto you, This is offered in sacrifice vnto idoles, eate not for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake. The earth is the Lords, and the plentie thereof.

29 Conscience I say, not of thine owne selfe, but of the other: For why is my e liberty iudged of another mans conscience?

e We must take heede that through our abuse, our liberty be not condemned.

30 For, if I by Gods benefite may be partaker of the giftes of God, why am I euill spoken of, for that wherefore I giue thanks?

Col. 3. 7. 31 * Whether therefore yee eate or drinke, or whatsoeuer yee doe, doe all to the glorie of God.

33 Euen as I please all men in al things, not seeking mine owne profite, but the profite of many, that they may be saued.

The xj. Chapter.

2. Thes. 3. 9. BE * ye followers of mee, euen as I am of Christ.

5 But euery woman that prayeth or prophecieth bareheaded, dishonesteth her head: for that is euen all one as if she were shauen.

6 If the woman bee not couered, let her also be shorne: if it bee a shame for a woman to be shorne, or shauen, let her be couered.

a Some thing to couer her head, in signe of subiection.

11 Neuertheless, neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man, euen so is the man also by the woman, but all things of God.

13 Iudge in your selues, whether it bee comely that a woman pray vnto God bareheaded?

14 Doth not nature it selfe teach you, that it is a shame for a man, if he haue long haire?

15 But if a woman haue long haire, it is a praise for her: for her haire is giuen her for a couering.

16 If any man luſt to ſtriue, wee haue no ſuch cuſtome, neither the Churches of God.

The Epiſtle on the Thurſday next before Eaſter.

17 This I warne you of, and commend not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worſe.

18 For firſt of all, when ye come together in the Church, I heare that there bee diſſentions among you, and I partly beleeue it.

19 For there muſt be alſo hereſies among you, that they which are ‖ approoued among you, might be knowen.

‖ Or, tried.

20 When yee come together therefore into one place, ‖ you cannot eate the Lordes ſupper:

‖ Or, this is not to eate.

21 For euery one preuenteth other, in eating his owne ſupper: and one is hungrie, and another is drunken.

22 What, haue yee not houſes to eate and to drinke in? Or deſpiſe yee the Church of God, and ſhame them that haue not? what ſhall I ſay vnto you, ſhal I praiſe you? in this I praiſe you not.

23 That which I deliuered vnto you, I receiued of the Lord, that the Lord Ieſus the ſame night in the which hee was betrayed, tooke bread:

24 And when hee had giuen thanks, hee brake it, and ſayde, * Take yee, eate yee, this is my bodie which is broken for you: this doe in remembrance of me.

Mat. 26. 26. mar. 14. 22. luke 22. 17.

25 After the ſame maner alſo he tooke the cuppe when hee had ſupped, ſaying, This cup is the newe Teſtament in my blood: this doe ye, as oft as ye drinke it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye eate this bread, and drinke this cup, ye doe ſhew the Lordes death till he come.

27 Wherefore, whoſoeuer ſhall eate this bread, and drinke this cup of the Lorde [b] vnworthily, ſhall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

[b] By perverting the true and pure vſe of the ſame.

28 * But let a man examine himſelfe, and ſo let him eate of this bread, and drinke of this cup.

2. Cor. 13. 1

29 For hee that eateth and drinketh vnworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation vnto him [c] ſelfe, making no difference of the Lords body.

[c] But as though theſe holy myſteries of the Lords body and blood were common meate, ſo without reuerence he commeth vnto them.

30 For this cauſe many are weake and ſicke among you, and many ſleepe.

31 For if we would iudge our ſelues, wee ſhould not be ‖ iudged.

‖ Or, puniſhed.

32 But when wee are ‖ iudged, wee are ‖ chaſtened of the Lord, that we ſhould not be damned with the world.

‖ Or, puniſhed.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eate, tarie one for another.

‖ Or, inſtructed.

34 If any man hunger, let him eate at home, that yee come not together vnto condemnation. The reſt will I ſet in order, when I come.

The xii. Chapter.

1 The diuerſitie of the gifts of the holy Ghoſt, ought to be vſed to the edifying of Chriſtes Church, 12 as the members of mans body ſerue to the vſe of another.

ONcerning ſpirituall gifts, brethren, I woulde not haue you ignorant.

The Epiſtle on the iiii. Sunday after Trinitie.

2 Yee knowe that yee were Gentiles, caried away vnto dumbe idols, euen as ye were [a] led.

[a] By Satans ſuggeſtion. Mar. 9. 39.

3 Wherefore I declare vnto you, that * no man ſpeaking by the ſpirite of God ‖ defieth Ieſus: * alſo no man can ſay ‖ that Ieſus is the Lord, but by the holy Ghoſt.

‖ Or, calleth Ieſus accurſed. Ioh. 13. 13. phil. 2. 10. ‖ Some read, the Lord Ieſus.

4 There are diuerſities of giftes, but it is the ſelfe ſame ſpirit.

5 And there are differences of adminiſtrations, but it is the ſelfe ſame Lord.

6 And there are diuers maners of operations, but it is the ſelfe ſame God, which worketh all in all.

7 The manifeſtation of the ſpirit, is giuen to euery man to profite withall:

8 For to one is giuen by the ſpirit the word of wiſedome, to another the word of knowledge by the ſame ſpirit:

9 To another is giuen faith by the ſame ſpirite, to another the gift of healing by the ſame ſpirit:

10 To another power to doe miracles, to another [b] prophecie, to another diſcerning of ſpirits, to another diuers kindes of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues.

[b] Speaking, the declaration of Gods myſteries.

11 * But theſe all worketh euen that one and the ſelfe ſame ſpirite, diuiding to euery man ſeuerally, euen as he will.

Rom. 12. 3. ephes. 4. 8.

12 For as the bodie is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: euen ſo is Chriſt alſo.

13 For by one ſpirite are wee all baptized into one body, whether we be Iewes or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free: and haue all drunke of one ſpirit.

14 For the bodie is not one member, but many.

15 If the foote doe ſay, Becauſe I am not the hand, I am not of the body: is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the eare doe ſay, Becauſe I am not the eye, I am not of the body: is it therefore not of the body?

17 If all the body were an eye, where were then the hearing? If all were hearing, where were the ſmelling?

18 But now hath God ſet the members, euery one of them ſeuerall in the body, as it hath pleaſed him.

19 If they were all one member, where were the body?

20 Nowe are there many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot ſay vnto the hand, I haue no neede of thee: nor againe, the head to the feete, I haue no neede of you.

22 Yea rather a great deale thoſe members of the body which ſeeme to be more [c] feeble, are neceſſarie:

[c] Whoſe vſe ſeemeth to be more vile.

23 And vpon thoſe members of the body which we thinke to be leſſe honourable, wee owe

a We are more carefull to cou∣ser them.

owe [d] more honour: and our vncomely parts haue more comelinesse.

24 For our comely members neede it not: but God hath tempered the body together, hauing giuen the more honour to that part which lacked,

25 That there should bee no strife in the body: but that the members should haue the same care one for an other.

26 And if one member suffer, all the members suffer with it. If one member be honoured, all the members reioyce with it.

27 Yee are the body of Christ, & members [e] in part.

e That is, euery one is a member of the body of Christ in his part. Ephe. 4. 11.

28 *And God hath ordeined some in the Church, first Apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly Teachers, then them that doe myracles: after that, the gifts of healing, helpers, gouernours, ‖ diuersities of tongues.

‖ Or, kindes.

29 Are all Apostles? are all Prophets? are all Teachers? are all doers of myracles?

30 Haue all the giftes of healing? doe all speake with tongues? doe all interprete?

31 Couet after the best gifts: And yet shew I vnto you a more excellent way.

The xiij. Chapter.

Because loue is the fountaine and rule of edifying the Church, he setteth foorth the nature, office, and prayse thereof.

The Epistle on Quinquagesima Sunday.

THough I speake [a] with the tongues of men, and of angels, and haue not charitie, I am as sounding brasse, or as a tinckling Cymbal.

a If the Angels had tongues, and I had the vse therof, & did not bestow them to profite my neighbour it were nothing but vain babling.

2 And though I haue prophecie, and vnderstand all secrets, and all knowledge: yea if I haue all fayth, so that I can remooue mountains, and haue not charitie, I am nothing.

3 And though I bestowe all my goods to feede the poore, and though I giue my bodie that I should be burned, and haue not charitie, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Charitie suffereth long, & is courteous: Charitie enuieth not, charitie doeth not frowardly, ‖ swelleth not,

‖ Or, is not puft vp.

5 Dealeth not dishonestly, seeketh not her owne, is not bitter, thinketh not euill,

6 Reioyceth not in iniquitie, but reioiceth in the trueth:

7 Suffreth al things, beleeueth al things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

8 Though that prophecyings faile, either tongues cease, or knowledge vanish away, yet charitie falleth neuer away.

‖ Or, in part.

9 For our knowledge is ‖ vnperfect, and our prophecying is vnperfect:

10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is vnperfect shall bee done away.

11 Whē I was a child, I spake as a child, I vnderstood as a child, I imagined as a child: but as soone as I was a man, I put away childishnesse.

b The mysteries of God.

12 Now we see in a [b] glasse, euen in a darke speaking: but then shall wee see face to face. Now I know vnperfectly: but then shall I know, euen as I am knowen.

13 Now abideth fayth, hope, and charitie, these three, but the chiefe of these is charitie.

The xiij. Chapter.

1 Hee exhorteth to charitie, commendeth the gift of tongues, and other spirituall gifts. 5 But chiefly prophecyings.

FOlow after charitie, and couet spirituall gifts: but most chiefly that ye may prophecie.

2 For he that speaketh with an vnknowen tongue, speaketh not vnto men, but vnto God: for no man [a] heareth him: Howbeit, in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.

a Vnderstandeth him.

3 But he that prophecieth, speaketh vnto men to edifying, and exhortation, and comfort.

4 He y speaketh with an vnknowen tongue, edifieth himselfe: but hee that prophecieth, edifieth the Church.

5 I would y yee all spake with [b] tongues, but rather that ye prophecied: for greater is hee that prophecieth, then hee that speaketh with tongues, except he expound it, that the Church may receiue edifying.

b Tongue in this place and such like, signifieth not the instrument that we speake with, but propriete of soure language, that the hearer vnderstandeth not without an interpreter.

6 Now brethren, if I come vnto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profite you, except I shall speake to you either by reuelation, or by knowledge, or by prophecying, or by doctrine?

7 And euen things without life, giuing sound, whether it be a pipe, or an harpe, except they giue a distinction in the soundes, how shal it be knowen what is piped or harped?

8 For if the Trumpe giue an vncertaine sound, who shalbe prepared to the warre?

9 So likewise you, except ye vtter words by the tongue easie to bee vnderstood, how shall it be knowen what is spoken? for yee shall speake in the [c] aire.

c Your words shalbe lost, for ye shal neither glorifie God therby, nor profite man.

10 There are happily so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them are without signification.

11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voyce, I shalbe vnto him that speaketh an aliant, and he that speaketh shall be an aliant vnto me.

12 Euen so ye, forasmuch as ye couet spirituall gifts, seeke that ye may excell, vnto the edifying of the Church.

13 Wherefore, let him that speaketh with tongue, pray that he may interprete.

14 For if I pray with an vnknowen tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my vnderstanding is vnfruitfull.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and will pray with the vnderstanding also: I will [d] sing with the spirit, and will sing with the vnderstanding also.

d Or, make by singing.

16 For when thou shalt bleese with the spirit, how shal he that ‖ occupieth the roume

‖ Or, filleth

of

of the vnlearned say Amen at thy giuing of thanks, seeing hee vnderstandeth not what thou sayest?

17 Thou verily giuest thankes well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thanke my God, I speake w tongues more then ye all.

19 Yet had I rather in the Church to speake fiue wordes with my vnderstanding, that by my voyce I might teach other also, then ten thousand wordes in an vnknowen tongue.

20 Brethren, bee not children in vnderstanding: howbeit, as concerning naughtinesse be ye children, but in vnderstanding be perfect.

Esai. 28. 11 21 In the lawe it is written, *with men of sundry tongues and sundry lippes, will I speake vnto this people: and yet for all that, will they not heare me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore tongues are for a signe, not to them that beleeue, but to them that beleeue not: but prophecying serueth not for them that beleeue not, but for them which beleeue.

23 If therefore all the Church be come together in one place, & all spake with tongues, and there come in they that are vnlearned, or they which beleeue not, will they not say that ye are mad?

24 But if all prophecie, and there come in one that beleeueth not, or one vnlearned: he is rebuked of all men, hee is iudged of all men.

25 And so are the secrets of his heart made manifest, and so hauing fallen downe on his face, he will worship God, saying that God is in you of a trueth.

26 How is it then brethren? when ye come together, euery one of you hath a Psalme, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a reuelation, hath an interpretation: Let all things be done vnto edifying.

27 If any man speake with tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course, and let one interprete.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keepe silence in the Church, & let him speake to himselfe, and to God.

29 Let the Prophets speake two or three, and let the other iudge.

30 If any reuelation be made to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.

31 For yee may all prophecie one by one, that all may learne, & all may be comforted.

c That is, the doctrine that they do bring, as being put in mind by the spirit of God.

32 And the c spirites of the Prophets are subiect to the Prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all Churches of the saintes.

1. Tim. 1. 12. 34 *Let your women keepe silence in the Churches: for it is not permitted vnto them to speake: but they are commanded to bee vnder obedience, *as saith the law.

Gen. 3. 16. 35 If they will learne any thing, let them aske their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speake in the Church.

36 Spring the worde of God from you? either came it vnto you onely?

37 If any man thinke himselfe to bee a Prophet, either spirituall, let him know that the things that I write vnto you, are the commandements of the Lord.

38 But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore brethren, couet to prophecie, and forbid not to speake with tongues.

40 Let all things be done honestly, and in order.

The xv. Chapter.

1 He proueth the resurrection of the dead, 3 and first that Christ is risen.

MOreouer, *brethren, I declare vnto you, the Gospell which I preached vnto you, which also ye haue receiued, and wherein ye ‖ haue continued, The Epistle on the xi. Sunday after Trinitie, Gal. 11. 1. ‖ Or, stood.

2 By the which also yee are saued, if yee keepe the doctrine which I preached vnto you, except ye haue beleeued in vayne.

3 For I deliuered vnto you first of all, that which also I a receiued, how that Christ died for our sinnes, according to the scriptures:

a Ye heareth that nothing ought to be taught, which we haue not learned by Gods word.

4 *And that he was buried, and that hee arose the third day, according to the scriptures: Iohn 2. 1.

5 *And that he was seene of Cephas, then of the twelue: Ioh. 20. 19.

6 After that hee was seene of mo then fiue hundred brethren at once: of which, the more part remaine vnto this day, and some are fallen a sleepe.

7 And after that he was seene of James, then of all the Apostles.

8 *And last of all he was seene of me, as of one borne out of due time. Act. 9. 4. ephes. 3. 8.

9 For I am the least of the Apostles, which am not woorthy to bee called an Apostle, because I persecuted the Church of God.

10 *But by the grace of God, I am that I am, and his grace which is in mee, was not vaine: but I laboured more abundantly then they all, yet not I, but the grace of God which is with me. Ephes. 3. 7.

11 Therefore, whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so haue ye beleeued.

12 If Christ be preached, how that he rose from the dead: how say some among you, that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 If there bee no rising of the dead, then is Christ not risen.

14 If Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vaine, and your faith is also b vaine.

b For if Christ be swallowed vp of death, there remaineth no hope of life any more.

15 Yea, and wee are found false witnesses of God, because we haue testified of God, how that he raised vp Christ: whom he raised not vp, if so be that the dead rise not.

16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ risen,

17 If it be so that Christ is not risen, then is your faith vaine, ye are yet in your sinnes:

18 But

18 But also they which are fallen a sleepe in Christ, are perished.

19 If in this life onely wee haue hope in Christ, then are we of al men most miserable.

20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and is become the first fruites of them that slept.

21 For since by man came death, euen so by man came the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as by Adam all die, euen so in Christ shall all be made alyue.

23 But euery man in his owne order: the first fruits is Christ, afterward they that are Christs at his comming.

24 Then commeth the end, when he shall haue deliuered vp the kingdome to God the father, when he shal haue put down all rule, and all authoritie and power.

25 For he must reigne, till he shall haue put all his enemies vnder his feete.

26 The last enemie that shal be destroyed, is death.

27 For he hath put downe all things vnder his feete: But when he saith, All things are put vnder him, it is manifest that hee is excepted which did put all things vnder him.

28 And when all things shall be subdued vnto him, then shal the sonne also himselfe be subiect vnto him that put all things vnder him, that God may be all in all.

29 Els what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?

30 And why stand wee in ieopardie euery houre?

31 I protest by your reioycing which I haue in Christ Iesu our Lord, I die daily.

32 If I haue fought with beasts at Ephesus, after the manner of men, what auaunteth it me, if the dead rise not? Let vs eate and drinke, for to morow we die.

33 Be ye not deceiued: Euil words corrupt good maners.

34 Awake to righteousnesse, and sinne not: for some haue not the knowledge of God, I speake this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, Howe are the dead raysed vp? with what body doe they come?

36 Thou foole, that which thou sowest, is not quickened, except it die.

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall bee, but bare corne, it may chance of wheate, or of some other corne.

38 But God giueth it a bodie, as it hath pleased him, and to euery seed his owne body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one maner of flesh of men, another flesh of beastes, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestiall bodies, and bodies terrestriall: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestriall another.

41 There is one glory of the sunne, and another glory of the moone, and another glory of the starres: for one starre differeth from another starre in glory.

42 So is the resurrection of the dead. It is sowen in corruption, it riseth in incorruption.

43 It is sowen in dishonour, it riseth in honour. It is sowen in weaknesse, it riseth in power.

44 It is sowen a naturall body, it riseth a spirituall body: There is a naturall body, and there is a spirituall body.

45 And so it is also written, The first man *Adam was made a liuing soule, and the last Adam was made a quickening spirit.

46 Howbeit, that is not first which is spirituall, but that which is naturall, and then that which is spirituall.

47 The first man is of the earth, earthy, the second man is the Lord from heauen.

48 As is the earthy, such are they that are earthy: and as is the heauenly, such are they also that are heauenly.

49 And as we haue borne the image of the earthie, we shall also beare the image of the heauenly.

50 This I say, brethren, that flesh & blood cannot inherite the kingdom of God: neither doth corruption inherite incorruption.

51 Behold, I shewe you a mysterie. Wee shall not all sleepe, but wee shall all be changed 52 In a moment, in the twinckling of an eye, at the last trumpe (for the trumpe shall blow) and the dead shall rise incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortall must put on immortalitie.

54 When this corruptible shall haue put on incorruption, and this mortall shall haue put on immortalitie, then shal be brought to passe the saying that is written, Death is swalowed vp in victorie.

55 O death, where is thy sting? O hell, where is thy victorie?

56 The sting of death is sinne, and the strength of sinne is the law.

57 But thankes bee vnto God, which giueth vs the victory through our Lord Iesus Christ.

58 Therefore my beloued brethren, be yee stedfast, vnmooueable, alwayes abounding in the worke of the Lord, for as much as yee know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

¶ The first Epistle to the Corinthians, was written from Philippos, by Stephana, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus, and Timotheus.

G. G.

The second Epistle of Saint Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians.

The first Chapter.

He declareth the great profite that commeth to the faithfull by their afflictions.

PAul an Apostle of Iesu Christ, by the wil of God, and brother Timotheus, vnto the Church of God, which is at Corinthus, with al the saints which are in all Achaia:

2 Grace be with you, and peace from God the father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

Ephes. 1. 3. 1. pet. 1. 3.

3 *Blessed be God the father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which is the father of mercies, and the God of all comfort:

4 Which comforteth vs in all our tribulation, that wee may bee able to comfort them which are in all maner trouble, with the comfort wherewith we our selues are comforted of God.

a Which I suffer for Christ, or which Christ suffereth in me.

5 For as the [a] afflictions of Christ are plenteous in vs: euen so is our consolation plenteous by Christ.

6 Whether we bee troubled, it is for your consolation and saluation, which saluation is wrought by the suffering of the same afflictions which wee also suffer: or whether wee bee comforted, it is for your consolation and saluation, and our hope of you is stedfast:

7 Knowing that as yee are partakers of the afflictions, so ye shall bee partakers also of the consolation.

8 For we would not, brethren, haue you ignorant of our trouble which came vnto vs in Asia: that wee were grieued out of measure, passing strength, in so much that wee were in great doubt, euen of life.

9 But wee receiued the sentence of death in our selues, that wee should not put our trust in our selues, but in God, which raiseth the dead:

10 Who deliuered vs from so great a death, and and doeth deliuer: in whome we trust that hereafter also he will deliuer vs:

Ro. 15. 30. 11 You also helping together by prayer for vs, that for the benefits bestowed vpon vs by the meanes of many persons, thanks may be giuen of many on our behalfe.

12 For our reioycing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicitie and godly pureneſſe, not with fleshly wisedome, [b] but by the grace of God, we haue had our conuersation in the world, and most of all to you wards.

[b] Using that wisedome which God gaue me from heauen.

13 For we write none other things vnto you then that ye read, & also that ye acknowledge: and I trust ye shall acknowledge vnto the ende.

14 Euen as yee haue acknowledged vs partly, that we are your reioycing, euen as ye [c] are ours in the day of the [d] Lord Iesus.

[c] We cause we haue won you to Christ.
[d] Which shall abolish all worldly glory.

15 And in this confidence was I minded first to haue come vnto you, that yee might haue had ‖ one pleasure more:

‖ Or, the second benefite.

16 And to passe by you into Macedonia, and to come againe out of Macedonia vnto you, and to be led forth of you into Iurie.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I vse lightneſſe? or minde I [e] carnally those things which I mind, that with mee should be yea, yea, and nay, nay?

[e] Not to affirme one thing, & then to deny it, which is a signe of inconstancie.

18 Yea [f] God is faithfull, for our preaching to you, was not yea, and nay.

[f] He taketh God to witneſſe that he preacheth the truth.

19 For Gods sonne Iesus Christ, which was preached among you by vs, euen by me, and Syluanus, and Timotheus, was not yea and nay, but in him it was yea.

20 For all the promises of God in him are yea, and are in him, Amen, vnto the glory of God by vs.

21 And he which stablisheth vs with you in Christ, and hath anointed vs, is God:

22 Which hath also sealed vs, and hath giuen the earnest of the spirit in our hearts.

23 I call God for a record vnto my soule, that to spare you, I came not as yet vnto Corinthus.

24 Not that we be lords ouer your faith, but are helpers of your ioy: for by faith yee stand.

The ii. Chapter.

Paul reioyceth in God for the efficacie of his doctrine.

BUt I determined this in my selfe, that I would not come againe to you in heauinesse.

2 For if I make you sory, who is hee that maketh me glad but the same which is made sory by me?

[a] Which was giuen to Satan, but now doeth repent.

3 And I wrote this same vnto you, least when I came, I should take heauinesse of them of whome I ought to reioyce, hauing confidence in you all, that my ioy, is the ioy of you all.

4 For in great affliction and anguish of heart, I wrote vnto you with many teares: not that ye should be made sorie, but that yee might perceiue the loue which I haue most abundantly vnto you.

5 But if any man hath caused sorow, the same hath not made mee sory, but partly, (least I should ouergreeue) you all.

6 It is sufficient vnto the same man that he was rebuked of many.

7 So that now contrariwise ye ought rather to forgiue him, and comfort him, least the same person shoulde bee swallowed vp with much heauinesse.

8 Wherefore, I pray you, that you would confirme your loue towards him.

9 For to this ende also did I write, that I might know the proofe of you, whether ye be obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgiue any thing, I forgiue also: for if I forgiue any thing, to whom I forgaue it, for your sakes forgaue I it: in the [b] sight of Christ,

[b] That is, truely and from mine heart, euen as in the presence of Christ.

11 Lest we should be circumuented of Satan: for we are not ignorant of his deuises.

12 Furthermore, when I came to Troada, to preach Christs Gospel, and a doore was opened vnto me of the Lord.

13 I had no rest in my spirite, because I found not Titus my brother, but when I had taken my leaue of them, I went away into Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be vnto God, which alwayes causeth vs to triumph in [c] Christ, and openeth the sauour of his knowledge by vs in euery place.

[c] In working mightily by vs, he maketh vs partakers of his victorie and triumph.

15 For we are vnto God the sweete sauour of Christ in them that are saued, and in them which perish.

16 To the one are we the sauour of death, vnto death: and vnto the other, the sauour of life, vnto life: *And who is meete vnto these things?

Rom. 11. 16

17 For we are not as many are, which chop and change with the word of God: but as of pureneſſe, but as of God in the sight of God, speake we ‖ in Christ.

‖ Or, of Christ.

The iii. Chapter.

Paul exalteth his apostleship against the bragges of the false Apostles.

DOe wee begin to commend our selues againe? Or need we, as some other Epistles of commendation vnto you? or letters of commendation from you?

2 Ye are our Epistle written in our hearts, ‖ vnderstood and read of all men:

‖ Or, knowē

3 For as much as ye are manifestly declared that ye are the Epistle of Christ ministred by vs, written not with inke, but with the spirit of the liuing God, not in stonie tables, but in fleshly tables of the heart:

4 Such trust haue we through Christ to God ward:

The Epistle on the xii. Sunday after Trinitie.

5 Not that we are sufficient of our selues, to thinke any thing, as of our selues: but our sufficiencie is of God:

6 Which hath made vs able ministers of the new testament, not of the letter, but of the spirite: for the letter killeth, but the spirit

a opening the spiritual doctrine which is in our hearts.

a spirit giueth life.

7 But if the ministration of death in letters figured in stones, was with glory, so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly beholde the face of Moses, for b the glorie of his countenance, which glory is done away:

b After that God had spoken with him, and giuen him the lawe.

8 Howe shall not the ministration of the spirit be much more in glory?

9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory: much more doeth the ministration of righteousnesse exceede in glory.

10 For euen that which was glorified, was not glorified in this behalfe, because of the exceeding glory.

11 For if that which is put away was glorious: much more that which remaineth, is glorious.

12 Seeing then that we haue such hope, we vse great boldnesse of speach:

a Moses hiding the lawe as it was compared with the shadowes, so that the Iewes eyes were not lightened, but blinded, and so could not come to Christ, who was the ende therof. Again, the Gospell letteth vnoth the glorie of God clearely, not couering our eyes, but taking the darkenesse away from them.

13 And not as Moses, which put a vaile ouer his face, that the children of Israel shoulde not stedfastly looke into the ende of that which is abolished.

14 But their minds were ‖ blinded: for vntill this day remayneth the same vaile vntaken away in the reading of the olde Testament, which vaile is put away in Christ.

15 But euen vnto this day when Moses is read, the vaile is laid vpon their heart.

‖ Or, hardened.

16 Neuertheles, when it shall turne to the Lord, the vaile shal be taken away.

17 *The Lord is the spirit: and where the spirit of the Lord is, there is libertie.

Iohn 4. 24.

18 But we all beholding as in a d myrrour the glory of the Lorde, with his face open, are chaunged vnto the same image from glory to glory, euen as of the spirite of the Lord.

d In Christ who is God manifest in the flesh, we see God ℣ father as in a most cleare glasse.

The iiii. Chapter.

1 Hee declareth his diligence and roundnesse in his office, 17 shewing what profite commeth thereby.

The Epistle on S. Matthewe the Apostle.

THerefore seeing that wee haue such a ministerie, as wee haue receiued mercy, we faint not:

2 But haue cast from vs the cloakes of vnhonestie, walking not in craftinesse, neither handling the word of God deceitfully, but in opening of the trueth, commending our selues to euery mans conscience in the sight of God.

3 If our Gospel be hid, it is hid in them that are lost:

a To wit, Satan.

4 In whom the a God of this world hath blinded the mindes of them which beleeue not, least the light of the Gospel of the glory of Christ should shine vnto them, (which is the image of God.)

5 For we preach not our selues, but Christ Iesus the Lorde, & our selues your seruants for Iesus sake.

Gen. 1, 3.

6 For it is God that * commaunded the light to shine out of darkenes, who hath shined in our hearts, for to giue the light of the knowledge of the glory of God, in the face of Iesus Christ.

7 But wee haue this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellencie of the power may be Gods, and not of vs.

8 We are troubled on euery side, yet are we not ‖ without shift: wee are in pouertie, but not in extreeme pouertie.

‖ Or, driuen into a narrow corner.

9 Wee are persecuted, but are not forsaken therein: we are cast downe, but we perish not:

10 Wee alwayes beare about in the body the dying of our Lorde Iesus, that the life of Iesus might also bee made manifest in our bodie.

11 For wee which liue, are alwayes deliuered vnto death for Iesus sake, that the life also of Iesus might be made manifest in our mortall flesh.

12 So then, death worketh in vs, but life in you.

13 Seeing then that wee haue the same spirit of faith (according as it is written, * I beleeued, and therefore haue I spoken:) we also beleeue, and therefore speake:

Psal. 11, 10

14 Knowing that he, which raised vp the Lorde Iesus, shall raise vp vs also by the meanes of Iesus, and shall set vs with you.

15 For all things ‖ do I for your sakes, that the plenteous grace by thanksgiuing of manie, may redound to the praise of God.

‖ Or, are done.

16 Wherefore wee are not wearied: but though our outward man perish: yet the inward man is renued day by day.

17 For the momentanie lightnesse of our tribulation, prepareth an exceeding and an eternall weight of glory vnto vs:

b Which is so called, in respect of the everlasting life.

18 Whyle we looke not on the things which are seene, but on the things which are not seene: for the things which are seene, are temporall: but the thinges which are not seene, are eternall.

The v. Chapter.

Paul proceedeth to declare the vtilitie that commeth by the crosse.

FOr we know that if our earthly a house of this tabernacle were destroied, we haue a building of God, euen an habitation not made with handes, but eternall in heauen.

a After this body shall be dissolued, it shalbe made incorruptible and immortal.

2 For therefore sigh wee, desiring vpon our clothing to be further clothed with our house which is from heauen.

3 If so bee that wee * being clothed, shall not be found naked.

Apo. 16. 15

4 For we that are in this tabernacle, sigh, being burdened, because we would not put off our clothing, but vpon the same put on more, that mortality might be swallowed vp of life.

5 Hee that hath ordained vs for the selfe same thing, is God, which hath also giuen vnto vs the earnest of the spirit.

6 Therefore we are alway of good cheare, and and know we that as long as wee are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord.

7 (For we walke by faith, not after outward appearance.)

8 Neuertheles, we are of good comfort, and had rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

9 Wherefore, whether we be at home, or from home, we endeuour our selues to be accepted vnto him.

Rom.14.10 10 *For we must all appeare before the iudgement seate of Christ, that euery man may receiue the workes of his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

b By iustifying the same faith which we preach to others.

11 Knowing therefore the feare of the Lord, we perswade men, for we are b known wel ynough vnto God: I trust also that wee are known in your consciences.

12 For wee commend not our selues againe vnto you, but giue you an occasion to glory on our behalfe, that ye may haue somewhat against them which glory in the face, and not in the heart.

c The Greeke saith thus: Whether wee be out of wit, to God we be out of wit: whether wee be wise, to you we be wise.

13 For c if we be too feruent, to God are we too feruent: or if wee keepe measure, for your cause keepe we measure.

14 For the loue of Christ constraineth vs, because wee thus iudge, that if one died for all, then were all dead.

15 And he died for all, that they which liue, should not henceforth liue vnto themselues, but vnto him which died for them, and rose againe.

d According to the estimation of the flesh: but as he is guided by the spirit of God.

16 Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the d flesh: Insomuch though wee haue known Christ after the flesh, now yet henceforth know we him no more.

Esai.43.19. apoc.21.5.

17 *Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a newe creature: Olde things are passed away, behold, all things are become newe.

18 And all things are of God, which hath reconciled vs vnto himselfe by Iesus Christ, and hath giuen to vs the ministerie of reconciliation.

19 For God was in Christ, reconciling the world to himselfe, not imputing their sinnes vnto them, and hath committed to vs the preaching of the atonement.

20 Now then are wee messengers for Christ, euen as though God did beseech you through vs: so pray we you in Christes stead, that ye be reconciled vnto God.

21 For he hath made him to be sinne for vs, which knew no sinne, that we should be made the righteousnesse of God in him.

The vj. Chapter.

An exhortation to Christian life.

The Epistle on the first Sunday in Lent. Esai.49.8.

WE also as helpers to him exhort you, that yee receiue not the grace of God in vaine.

2 (For hee saieth, *I haue heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of saluation haue I succoured thee: Behold, now is that a accepted time, behold, now is that day of saluation.)

a To wit, Gods free mercie wherein he hath powred forth his infinite loue.

3 Giuing no offence in any thing, that the ministerie be not blamed:

4 But in all things behauing our selues as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in anguishes,

5 In stripes, in prisonments, in strifes, in labours, in watchings, in fastings,

6 By pureneſſe, by knowledge, by long suffering, by kindnesse, by the holy Ghost, by loue vnfeigned:

7 By the worde of trueth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousnesse on the right hand and on the left,

8 By honour & dishonour, by euill report and good report, as deceiuers, and yet true,

9 As vnknowen, and yet knowen: as dying, and behold we liue: as chastened, and not killed:

10 As sorowing, and yet alway mery: as poore, and yet making many rich: as hauing nothing, and yet possessing all things.

b Signifying his most vehement affection.

11 O ye Corinthians, our b mouth is open vnto you, our heart is enlarged.

12 Ye are not pressed into a narow roome in vs, but are pressed into a narow roome in your owne bowels.

c Shewe like affection towardes me.

13 Now for the same recompence (I speak as vnto my children) be ye also c enlarged.

|Or, be not ye vnequally yoked.

14 And |beare not ye the yoke together with the vnbeleeuers. For what felowship hath righteousnesse with vnrighteousnesse, or what communion hath light with darknesse?

15 Or what concorde hath Christ with Belial? either what part hath he that beleeueth with an infidell?

16 Or what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for yee are the temple of the liuing God, as saith God, *I will dwell in them, and walke in them, and will be their God, and they shalbe my people. 1.Cor.3.13 leui.26.12.

17 *Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separated from them (saith the Lord) and touch no vncleane thing, and I will receiue you, Esai.52.11.

18 *And will be a father vnto you, and ye shalbe my sonnes and daughters, saieth the Lord almightie. Iere.31.1.

The vij. Chapter.

He exhorteth them by the promise of God to keepe themselues pure.

HAuing therefore these promises (dearely beloued) let vs cleanse our selues from all filthinesse of the flesh and a spirit, perfecting holines in the feare of God.

a That is, of body & soule.

2 |Receiue b vs: wee haue wronged no man, we haue corrupted no man, wee haue defrauded no man.

|Or, vnderstand.

b Or, preach the Gospell vnto vs.

3 I speake not this to condemne you, for I haue shewed you before, that ye are in our hearts to die and liue with you.

4 I vse great boldnesse of speech towards you, I glory greatly in you: I am filled with comfort, and am exceeding ioyous in all our tribulation.

5 For when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but wee were troubled on euery side: without were fightings, within were feares.

6 Neuertheless, God that comforteth the humble, comforted vs by the comming of Titus.

7 And not by his comming onely, but also by the consolation which hee receiued of you, when he tolde vs your vehement desire, your weeping, your feruent minde toward me: so that I reioyced the more.

8 For though I made you sory with a letter, I repent not, though I did repent: For I perceiued that the same Epistle made you sorie, though it were but for a season.

9 I now reioyce: not that yee were made sorie, but that yee were made sorie to repentance: for yee were made sorie to God ward, that in nothing ye might be hurt by vs.

1. Pet. 2. 19. 10 * For godly sorow causeth repentance vnto saluation, not to be repented of: but the sorow of the world causeth death.

11 For beholde, this selfe same thing that ye were made sory to God ward, howe much carefulnes it hath wrought in you: yea what c clearing of your selues, yea what indignation, yea what feare, yea what vehement desire, yea what zeale, yea what punishment? for in all things yee haue shewed your selues that ye were cleare in that matter.

c In asking God forgiuenesse.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote vnto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the hurt, neither for his cause that was hurt: ‖ but that your good minde to vs ward, might appeare among you in the sight of God.

‖ Or, but your care towards you in the sight of God, might appeare vnto you. So hath Codex Complutẽsis, Ambrosius, and Theophilactus, and so readeth the old translation, & the translation of Stephanus.

13 Therefore wee are comforted in your comfort: yea and exceedingly the more ioyed we for the ioy of Titus, because his spirite was refreshed by you all.

14 But if I haue boasted any thing vnto him of you, I haue not bene ashamed therein, for as wee speake all things vnto you in trueth, euen so our boasting which I made vnto Titus, is found a trueth.

15 And his ‖ inwarde affection is more abundant toward you, whyle he remembreth the obedience of you all, how with feare and trembling ye receiued him.

‖ Or, his bowels are.

16 I reioice that I haue confidence in you in all things.

The viij. Chapter.

1 By the example of the Macedonians, 9 and Christ, he exhorteth them to continue in releeuing the poore saints, commending their good beginning.

MOreouer, wee doe you to wit, brethren, of the grace of God, which was giuen in the Churches of Macedonia,

2 How that in much triall of affliction their ioy abounded, and their deepe pouertie abounded into the riches of their liberalitie.

3 For to their powers (I beare them recorde) yea and beyonde their powers, they were willing of themselues:

4 Praying vs with great instance, that we would receiue this a grace & societie of the ministerie which is toward the saints.

a Grace here signifieth beneuolence & almes.

5 And this they did not as wee looked for: but gaue their owne selues first to the Lord, and after vnto vs by the will of God,

6 That we should desire Titus to accomplish the same grace among you also, euen as he had begun.

7 Nowe therefore, as ye are plenteous in all things, in faith, and in worde, & in knowledge, and in all feruentnesse, and in loue, which ye haue to vs: euen so, see that yee be plenteous in this grace also.

8 This say I not by commaundement, ‖ but because of the feruentnesse of other, and proouing the vnfainednesse of your loue.

‖ Or, reade, but thorow the feruentnesse of other, prouoking also the perfectnesse of your loue.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lorde Iesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poore, that ye through his pouertie might be made rich.

10 And I giue counsell herein: for this is expedient for you, which haue begun not to doe onely, but also to will a yeere agoe.

11 Now therefore performe to doe it also: that as there appeared in you a readinesse to will, euen so there may appeare a readinesse to perfourme, of that which ye haue.

12 For if there be first a willing minde, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 Truely, not that other bee set at ease, and you burdened:

14 But of like condition now at this time your abundance supplieth their want, that their abundance also may supply your want, and there may be equalitie:

15 As it is written, * He that had gathered much, had nothing ouer, and he that had gathered litle, had no lacke. Exo. 16. 18

16 Thankes be vnto God, which put the same earnest care for you in the heart of Titus.

17 Because he accepted the exhortation: and being the more carefull, came of his owne accord vnto you.

18 Wee haue sent with him that brother b whose prayse is in the Gospell throughout all the Churches:

b In preaching the Gospell. Some vnderstande Luke, other, Barnabas.

19 (And not that onely, but hee was also chosen of the Churches to be a fellowe with vs in our iourney, concerning this ‖ grace that is ministred by vs vnto the glorie of the same Lorde, and declaration of your ready minde,)

‖ Or, beneficence.

20 Eschewing this, that any man should rebuke vs in this plenteous distribution that is ministred by vs:

21 Making prouision for c honest things, not only in the sight of the Lorde, but also in the c This well doing is applied vnto Gods man.

the sight of men.

22 Wee haue sent with them a brother of ours, whom we haue proued diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, for the great confidence | which I haue in you:

|Or, which he hath.

23 Whether any doe inquire of Titus, he is my fellow and helper concerning you: or of other which are our brethren, they are the messengers of the Churches, and the glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore, shew ye vnto them the proofe of your loue, and of our boasting on your behalfe in the sight of the Churches.

The ix. Chapter.

The cause of Titus and his companions comming to them.

FOr of the ministring to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write vnto you:

2 For I know the readinesse of your minde, whereof I boast on your behalfe vnto them of Macedonia, that Achaia was prepared a yeere agoe: and |your zeale hath prouoked many.

|Or, zeale in you.

3 Yet haue I sent the brethren, least our boasting of you should be in vaine in this behalfe, that (as I haue sayde) ye may be prepared.

4 Lest happily if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you vnprepared, we (I will not say you) should be ashamed in this boldnesse of boasting.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would come before vnto you, and prepare your fore promised beneficence, that it might be ready as a beneficence, and a not as an extortion.

a That is, as a thing extorted, & vnkindly wrung from you.

6 This yet I say, he which soweth sparingly, shall reape sparingly: and he that soweth bountifully, shall reape bountifully.

Rom. 12.8.

7 * Euery man according as hee purposeth in his heart, so let him giue, not grudgingly, or of necessitie: * for God loueth a cheerefull giuer.

Eccl. 35.11

8 God is able to make you plenteous in all grace, that yee in all things hauing alwayes sufficient vnto the vttermost, may be plenteous in euery good worke.

Psal. 112.9. b Dauid speaketh of the man which feareth God, and loueth his neighbour.

9 As it is written, b Hee hath dispersed abroad, he hath giuen to the poore, his righteousnesse remaineth for euer.

10 Moreouer, d he that ministreth seed vnto the sower, to minister bread also for food, and to multiplie your seede, and to encrease the fruites of your righteousnesse:

11 That in all things yee may be made rich vnto all bountifulnesse, which causeth through vs thanks giuing vnto God.

12 For the administration of this seruice, not only supplieth the want of the saintes: but is aboundant by the manie giuing of thanks vnto God.

13 (Whiles by the experiment of this ministration, they glorifie God for the obedience of your confessing to the Gospell of Christ, and for your liberall distribution to them, and to all men:

14 And by their prayers for you, which |long after you for the abundant grace of God in you.

|Or, are greatly affectioned toward you

15 Thanks be vnto God, for his vnspeakable gift.

The x. Chapter.

He toucheth the false Apostles, and defendeth his authoritie, exhorting them to obedience.

I Paul my selfe beseech you by the meekenesse and gentlenesse of Christ, which in presence am lowly among you: but am bold toward you being absent.

2 I beseech you, that I may not neede to be bolde when I am present, with that same boldnesse, wherewith I |am supposed to haue bene bolde against some, which repute vs as though we walked according to the flesh.

|Or, wherewith I mean to be bold.

3 For walking in the flesh, yet we doe not warre according to the flesh.

4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnall, but mightie through God, to the ouerthrowing of strong holdes,)

5 Wherewith wee ouerthrowe counsels, and euery high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bring into captiuitie all imagination to the obedience of Christ:

6 And hauing in a readinesse wherewith to take vengeance on all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

7 Looke yee on things after the outward appearance? If any man trust in himselfe that he is Christs, let him consider this againe of himselfe, that as he is of Christ, euen so are we of Christ.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authoritie, which the Lord hath giuen vs for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed, 9 Least I should seeme as it were to make you afraide by letters.

10 For the letters a (sayth he) are sore and strong: but his bodily presence is weake, and his speech nothing worthy.

a Speaking a certaine vaine among them, which thus spake of Paul.

11 Let him that is such a one, thinke on this wise, that as we are in worde by letters when wee are absent, such also are we in deede when we are present.

12 For we dare not number or compare our selues with certaine which praise themselues: neuertheles, while they measure them selues with them selues, and compare them selues with them selues, they vnderstand not.

13 But we will not boast aboue measure: but according to the b measure of the rule which God hath distributed vnto vs, a measure to reach euen vnto you.

b That is, the grace and gifts which God hath given vnto them.

14 For we stretch not out our selues beyond measure, as though wee reached not vnto you: for wee came vnto you also with the Gospel of Christ:

15 Not boasting our selues out of measure in other mens labours: but hoping when your faith is increased, to be magnified among you according to our measure abundantly, 16 That I may preach the Gospel in those regions which are beyond you: and not glory of those thinges which by an other mans measure are prepared already.

Iere.9.24. 1.cor.1.31. 17 *But let him that glorieth, glorie in the Lord.

18 For he that commendeth him selfe, is not alowed, but whom the Lord cõmendeth.

The xj. Chapter.

2 He declareth his affection towarde them, 5 The excellencie of his ministerie, 9 And his diligence in the same.

WOulde to God yee could suffer a litle my foolishnes, & indeede suffer me.

2 For I am ielous ouer you with godly iealousie: for I haue coupled you to one mã, to present you a chast virgin vnto Christ.

3 But I feare least by any meanes, that as the * serpent beguiled Eue through his subtiltie, euen so your mindes should be corrupted from the singlenesse that is towarde Christ.

Gene.3.4.

4 For if he that commeth, preacheth an other a Iesus, whom we haue not preached: or if ye receiue another spirit whom ye haue not receiued: either another Gospel which yee haue not receiued, you would well haue suffered him.

a That is, more perfect doctrine concerning Iesus Christ.

5 Verily, I suppose that I was not behinde the chiefe Apostles.

6 But though I be rude in speaking, yet not in knowledge: but in all things among you we haue bene wel knowen to the vttermost.

7 Haue I committed an offence because I submitted my selfe, that ye might be exalted, because I preached to you the Gospel of God freely?

8 I robbed other Churches, taking wages of them to doe you seruice.

9 And when I was present with you, and had neede, * I was chargeable to no man: by my idelnesse: for that which was lacking vnto me, the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied: & in all things I haue kept my selfe not chargeable to you, and so will I keepe my selfe.

2.Cor.12.13.

10 b The trueth of Christ is in me, that this boasting shall not be shut vp against me in the regions of Achaia.

b Let not the truth of Iesus Christ be thought to be in me, if I suffer corruption to be shut vp, which I haue conceiued of Christ.

11 Wherefore? because I loue not you? God knoweth.

12 But what I doe, that I will doe, that I may cut away occasion from them which desire occasion: that they might bee found like vnto vs, in that wherein they glory.

13 For such false Apostles, are deceitfull workers, transformed into the Apostles of Christ.

14 And no marualle: for Satan himselfe is transformed into angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing if that his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousnesse: whose end shall be according to their workes.

16 I say againe, Let no man thinke that I am foolish: or else euen now take yee mee as a foole, that I also may boast my selfe a little.

17 That I speake, I speake it not after the c Lorde, but as it were foolishly in this boldnesse of boasting.

c In his heart he had respect to the Lorde: but this fashion of boasting seemed according to man, wherevnto they compelled him.

18 Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.

19 For yee suffer fooles gladly, seeing yee your selues are wise.

20 For ye suffer, if a man bring you into bondage, if a man deuoure, if a man take, if a man exalt himselfe, if a man smite you on the face.

The Epistle on Sexagesima Sunday.

21 I speake concerning reproch, as though we had bene weake: Howbeit, wherein soeuer any man is bold (I speake foolishly) I am bolde also.

22 * They are Hebrues, euen so am I: Phil.3.5. they are Israelites, euen so am I: they are the seede of Abraham, euen so am I:

23 They are the ministers of Christ, (I speake as a foole) I am more, in labours more abundantly, in stripes aboue measure, in prison more plenteously, in death d oft.

d In the present danger of death.

24 Of the Iewes fiue times receiued I fourtie stripes saue one.

25 * Thrise was I beaten with rods, * once stoned, * thrise I suffered shipwracke, a night and a day haue I bene in the depth:

Act.16.23. Act.14.19. Act.27.1.

26 In iourneying often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils of mine owne nation, in perils among the Heathen, in perils in the citie, in perils in the wildernesse, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren,

27 In labour and trauaile, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in colde and nakednesse, 28 Beside the things which outwardly come vnto me, the trouble which daily commeth against me daily, is the care of all the Churches.

29 Who is weake, and I am not weake? who is offended, and I burne not?

30 If I must needes glory, I will glorie of the things that concerne mine infirmities.

31 The God and father of our Lorde Iesus Christ, which is blessed for euermore, knoweth that I lie not.

32 In Damascus, the gouernour of the people vnder Aretas the king, layd waite in the citie of Damascus, desirous to haue caught me:

33 And

33 And at a windowe was I let downe in a basket thorowe the wall, and escaped his handes.

The xij. Chapter.

1 Hee reioyceth in his preferment, 5 but chiefly in his humblenesse.

IT is not expedient doubtlesse for me to glory, I wil come to visions and reuelations of the Lord.

Actes 9. 3.

2 *For I knewe a man in a Christ, aboue fourteene yeres ago (whether in the body I cannot tel, or whether out of the body, I cannot tel, God knoweth) taken vp into the thirde b heauen:

a That is, christian, or I speake in Christ.

b That is to say, into the highest heauens.

3 And I knewe the same man (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tel, God knoweth,)

4 How that he was taken vp into c paradise, and heard vnspeakable wordes, which is not lawfull for man to vtter.

c Paules infirmitie was not able to declare them, neither were they reuealed vnto him for that ende.

5 Of such [a man will I glory, yet of my selfe will I not glorie, but in mine infirmities.

Or, thing.

6 For though I would desire to glorie of them, I shall not be a foole, for I will say the trueth, but I nowe refraine, least any man should thinke of me aboue that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.

7 And lest I should be exalted out of measure, through the abundance of the reuelations, there was giuen to mee a pricke to the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet mee, because I should not bee exalted out of measure.

8 For this thing, besought I the Lorde thrise, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said vnto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakenesse. Most gladly therefore I will rather glory in mine infirmities, that the power of Christ might dwell in me.

10 Therefore haue I delectation in infirmities, in rebukes, in necessities, in persecutions, in anguishes for Christs sake: for when I am weake, then am I strong.

11 I am become a foole in glorying, ye haue compelled me: for I ought to haue bene commended of you. For nothing was I inferiour vnto the chiefe Apostles, though I bee nothing.

12 Truely the signes of an Apostle were wrought among you, in all patience, in signes, and wonders, and mightie deedes.

13 For what is it wherein ye were inferiour vnto other Churches, except it be that I was not chargeable vnto you by my idlenesse? forgiue me this wrong.

14 Behold now the third time I am readie to come vnto you, and yet will I not bee chargeable vnto you by my idlenesse. For I seeke not yours, but you. For the children ought not to lay vp for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 I will very gladly spend, and yet bee spent for your soules, though the more abundantly I loue you, the lesse I bee loued againe.

16 But be it, that I was not chargeable vnto you: d neuertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile.

d This saith his aduersaries, that though hee tooke it not by himselfe, yet he did it by the meanes of others.

17 Did I pill you by any of them whome I sent vnto you?

18 I desired Titus, and with him I sent a brother: Did Titus defraude you of any thing? Haue we not walked in the same spirite? not in the same steppes?

19 Againe, thinke you that we excuse our selues vnto you? Wee speake in Christ in the sight of God: but wee doe all things, dearely beloued, for your edifying.

20 For I feare lest when I come, I shall not finde you such as I would, and that I shall be founde vnto you, such as yee would not: lest there be debates, enuyings, wraths, strifes, backbittings, whisperings, swellings, and seditions:

21 And that when I come againe, my God bring mee lowe among you, and I shall bewaile many of them which haue sinned afiredie, and haue not repented of the vncleannesse, and fornication, and wantonnesse which they haue committed.

The xiij. Chapter.

1 He threatneth the obstinate, 5 and declareth what his power is, by their owne testimonie.

NOw come I the thirde time vnto you, *In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall euery word be established.

Deu. 19. 15. mat. 18. 16. ioh. 8. 17. hebr. 10. 28.

2 I tolde you before, and tell you before, as though I had bene present with you the second time, so write I now being absent, to them which in time past haue sinned, and to all other: that if I come againe, I will not spare,

3 Seeing that yee seeke experience of Christ which speaketh in mee, which toward you is not weake, but is mightie in you.

4 For though hee was crucified of weakenesse, yet liueth hee of the power of God: And we also are weake in him, but wee shall liue with him by the might of God towarde you.

5 Examine your selues whether you are in the faith: proue your owne selues. Know yee not your owne selues howe that Iesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?

1. Cor. 11. 28.

6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

7 Truely I pray to God that yee doe none euill, not that wee should seeme approoued, but that yee should doe that which is honest, though we be as e reprobates.

e In that he pronounceth himselfe, and teacheth vpon him the fourme of a sermon.

8 For wee can doe nothing against the truth, but for the trueth.

9 For wee are glad when wee are weake, and ye are strong. Truely this also wee wish, euen your perfection.

10 Therefore write I these things being abient, tell being present, I should vse harpyes, according to the power which the Lord hath giuen mee to edification, and not to destruction.

11 Finally brethren, farewell, be perfect, bee of good comfort, bee of one minde, liue in peace, and the God of loue and peace shall bee with you.

12 Greete one another in an holy kisse.

13 All the Saints salute you.

14 The grace of ‖ our Lord Iesus Christ, and the loue of God, and the ‖ communion of the holy Ghost, be with you all, Amen. ‖Or, the Lord. ‖Or, fellowship.

The seconde Epistle to the Corinthians, was written from Philippos, a citie of Macedonia, by Titus and Lucas.

The ende of the second Epistle to the Corinthians.

The Epistle of the Apostle saint Paul to the Galathians.

The first Chapter.

Paul rebuketh their inconstancie, which suffered themselues to be seduced by the false Apostles.

PAul an Apostle not of men, neyther by man, but by Iesus Christ, and by God ᵇ Father, which rayled him vp from the dead:

2 And all the brethren which are with me, vnto the Churches of Galatia:

3 Grace be with you, and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Iesus Christ:

4 which gaue himselfe for our sinnes, to deliuer vs from this ᵃ present euil world, according to the will of God, and our father:

a Which is the corrupt life of man without Christ.

5 To whome bee glorie for euer and euer, Amen.

6 I marueile that yee are so soone turned from him that had called you in the grace of Christ, vnto another Gospell:

7 which is not another Gospell, but that there be some which trouble you, and intend to peruert the Gospel of Christ.

8 Nevertheless, though we, or an Angel from heauen, preach any other Gospell vnto you, then that which wee haue preached vnto you, let him be accursed.

9 As we said before, so say I now againe, If any man preache any other Gospell vnto you, then that yee haue receiued, let him be accursed.

10 Doe I now perswade men, or God? Either doe I seeke to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not bee the seruant of Christ.

1.Cor.15.1.

11 For I certifie you, brethren, that the Gospel which was preached of mee, is not after man.

a By whom he learned it.

12 For I neither receiued it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the reuelation of Iesus Christ.

13 For ye haue heard of my conuersation in time past, * in the Iewes religion, how that beyonde measure I persecuted the Church of God, and spoyled it:

Acts.9.1.

14 And profited in the Iewes religion aboue many of my ‖ companions in mine owne nation, being a very feruent maintainer of the ᵇ traditions of my fathers.

‖Or, mine age. b That is, of the lawe of God, which was giuen to the ancient fathers.

15 But when it pleased God, which separated me from my mothers wombe, and called me by his grace,

16 To reueale his sonne by mee, that I should by the Gospell preach him among the heathen: immediatly I communed not with ᶜ flesh and blood:

c That is, with any man, as though I had neede of his counsell to approue my doctrine.

17 Neither went I vp to Hierusalem, to them which were Apostles before mee: but went my wayes into Arabia, and came againe vnto Damascus.

18 Then after three yeeres, I went vp to Hierusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteene dayes.

19 But other of the Apostles saw I none, saue Iames the Lords brother.

20 The things therefore which I write vnto you, beholde, before God I lie not.

21 Afterwarde I came into the coastes of Syria and Cilicia, and was vnknowen in face vnto the Churches of Iurie which were in Christ.

22 But they had heard only, that he which persecuted vs in times past, now preacheth ᵈ the faith, which before he destroyed.

d That is, the Gospel, which is the doctrine of faith.

23 And they glorified God in me.

The second Chapter.

Confirming his Apostleship to be of God, he sheweth why Titus was not circumcised.

THen fourteene yeeres after I went vp again to Hierusalem with Barnabas, and tooke Titus with me also.

2 And I went vp by reuelation, and declared vnto them the Gospell which I preach among the Gentiles, but priuately with them which were estemed the wisest, lest by any meanes I should runne, or had runne in vaine.

3 But

3 Yet neither Titus which was with me, being a Greeke, was compelled to be circumcised:

4 And that because of incommers, being false brethren, which came in priuily to spie out our libertie which wee haue in Christ Iesu, that they might bring vs into bondage.

‖Or, no-ment. 5 To whom, no not for an ‖ houre, wee gaue place by subiection, that the trueth of the Gospel might continue with you.

a Albeit they had bene conuersant with Christ a long time. Deut.10.17. Iob 34.19. 6 Of them which seemed to be somewhat (what they a were in times passed it maketh no matter to me, * God accepteth no mans person:) for they which seemed chiefe, b added nothing to me.

b That is, they taught me not but approued my doctrine perfect in all points. 7 But contrariwise, when they saw that the Gospel of the vncircumcision was committed vnto me, as the Gospel of the circumcision was committed vnto Peter:

8 (For hee that was mightie in Peter to the Apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mightie in me toward the Gentiles:)

9 when they perceiued the grace that was giuen vnto me, then Iames, Cephas, and Iohn, which seemed to be pillars, gaue to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship: that we should be Apostles vnto the Heathen, and they vnto the circumcision.

‖they admonished. 10 Onely ‖ that wee should remember the poore: wherein also I was diligent to do the same.

c openning before all men. 11 But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him c to the face, because he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certaine came from Iames, he did eate with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew, and separated himselfe, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Iewes dissembled likewise with him: in so much that Barnabas also was brought into their simulation.

14 But when I sawe that they went not the right way to the trueth of the Gospel, I saide vnto Peter before them all, If thou being a Iewe, liuest after the maner of the Gentiles, and not as doe the Iewes: why compellest thou the Gentiles to liue as doe the Iewes?

d Pro to the Iewes called the Gentiles in respect. 15 We which are Iewes by nature, and not d sinners of the Gentiles, 16 Knowe that a man is not iustified by the deedes of the lawe, but by the faith of Iesus Christ: and wee haue beleeued on Iesus Christ, that we might be iustified by the faith of Christ, and not by the deedes of the lawe: because by the deedes of the lawe no flesh shall be iustified.

Rom.3.19. 17 * If then while wee seeke to be made righteous by Christ, wee our selues also are found sinners: is therefore Christ the minister of sinne? God forbid.

18 For if I build againe the things which I destroyed, then make I my selfe a trespasser.

19 For I, through the lawe, am dead to the lawe, that I might liue vnto God: I am crucified with Christ.

20 Neuertheles, I liue: yet nowe not I, but Christ liueth in me: and the life which I now liue in the flesh, I liue by the faith of the sonne of God, which loued me, and gaue himselfe for me.

21 I reiect not the grace of God: for if righteousnesse come of the lawe, then Christ is dead in vaine.

The iij. Chapter.

1 He rebuketh them sharpely, 10 and proueth by diuers reasons, that iustification is by faith.

O Foolish Galathians, who hath bewitched you, that yee should not obey the trueth: to whom Iesus Christ was before a described before the eies, and among you crucified?

a To whom Christ was so liuely preached, as if his liuely image were set before your eyes, or else had bene crucified among you.

2 This only would I learne of you, whether ye receiued the spirit by the deedes of the lawe, or by the hearing of the faith?

3 Are yee such fooles, that after yee haue begun in the spirite, ye would nowe ende in the flesh?

4 Haue yee suffered so great things in vaine? If it be yet in vaine.

5 He therefore that ministreth to you the spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it through the deedes of the lawe, or by hearing of the faith?

Gen.15.6. rom.4.3. iames 2.23. 6 * Euen as Abraham beleeued God, and it was ascribed to him for righteousnesse.

7 Know ye therefore, that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

Gen.22.3. ecclu.44.20. 8 For the Scripture seeing aforehande that God would iustifie the heathen through faith, shewed before hand glad tidings vnto Abraham, saying, * In thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then, they which bee of faith, are blessed with the faithfull Abraham.

b which thinke to be iustified by them. Deu.27.26. 10 For as many as are of the b deedes of the lawe, are vnder the curse: for it is written, * Cursed is euery one that continueth not in all things which are written in the booke of the lawe, to doe them.

Abac.2.4. rom.1.17. Leuit.18.5. 11 But that no man is iustified by the law in the sight of God, it is euident: * for the iust shall liue by faith.

12 And the lawe is not of faith: * but the man that doeth them shall liue in them.

Deu.21.23 13 Christ hath redeemed vs from the curse of the lawe, being made a curse for vs: For it is written, * Cursed is euery one that hangeth on tree:

c I will vse a common example, to make you the better to vnderstand the matter. 14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Iesus Christ, that we might receiue the promise of the spirit through faith.

Hebr.9.17. 15 Brethren, I speake after the maner of men, * though it be but a mans testament, yet if it bee allowed, no man reiecteth it, or or addeth thereto.

† The Epistle on the xiij. Sunday after Trinitie. Gene. 17.

16 †To Abraham and his seede were the promises made. He saith not, To the seedes, as of many: but, To thy seed, as of one, which is Christ.

17 This I say, that the lawe which beganne afterward beyond foure hundred and thirtie yeeres, doeth not disanull the testament that was confirmed afore of God vnto Christ warde, to make the promise of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance bee of the lawe, then not nowe of promise. But God gaue the inheritance vnto Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then serueth the lawe? It ‖was added because of transgressions, till the seede should come to whom the promise was made: and it was ordeined by angels in the hand of a mediatour.

‖ The Lawe.

20 A mediatour is not a mediatour of one, but God is [d] one.

d Constant, & alwayes like himselfe.

21 Is the lawe then against the promise of God? God forbid. For if there had bene a lawe giuen which could haue giuen life, then no doubt righteousnesse should haue bene by the lawe.

Rom. 3. 4.

22 *But the scripture hath concluded all vnder sinne, that the promise by the faith of Jesus Christ should be giuen vnto them that beleeue.

23 But before faith came, wee were kept vnder the lawe, and were shut vp vnto the faith which should afterward be reuealed.

Rom. 10. 4.

24 *Wherefore the lawe was our schoolemaster vnto Christ, that wee should be iustified by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, wee are no longer vnder a schoolemaster.

26 For yee are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

Rom. 6. 3.

27 *For ‖all ye that are baptized, haue put on Christ.

‖ Some reade, all ye that are baptized into Christ, haue put on Christ.

28 There is no Jewe, neither Greeke, there is neither bonde, nor free, there is neither male nor female: for yee are all one in Christ Jesus.

29 If ye be Christs, then are ye Abrahams seede, and heires according to the promise.

The iiij. Chapter.

Hee sheweth wherefore the ceremonies were ordeyned, which being shadowes, must ende when Christ the truth commeth.

The Epistle on the second Sunday after Christmas.

AND I say, That the heire as long as he is a childe, differeth nothing frō a seruant, though he be Lord of all:

2 But is vnder tutours and gouernours, vntill the time appointed of the father.

3 Euen so we, when wee were children, were in bondage vnder the [a] rudiments of the world:

a That is, the lawe, which before he called a schoolemaster.

4 But when the fulnesse of the time was come, God sent his sonne made of a woman, and made vnder the lawe,

5 To redeeme them that were vnder the lawe, * that we might receiue the adoption of children.

Rom. 8. 15.

6 Because ye are sonnes, God hath sent foorth the [b] spirite of his sonne into your hearts, crying, [c] Abba father.

b For our adoption vnto Christ sealed by him.

c He instructeth both Jewes and Gentiles to call God their father in euery language, so that none are excepted.

7 Wherefore thou art no more a seruant, but a sonne: if thou be a sonne, thou art also an heire of God, through Christ.

8 Notwithstanding, when yee [d] knewe not God, ye did seruice vnto them which by nature are no gods.

d When ye receiue the Gospel ye were idolaters therefore it is shame for you, to returne vnto the vile and beggerly seruants, yea, and seeing the Jewes desire to be out of their thraldome.

9 But nowe after that ye haue knowen God, yea rather are knowen of God, howe turne ye againe vnto the weake and beggerly rudiments, whereunto againe ye desire a fresh to be in bondage?

10 Ye obserue dayes, and moneths, and times, and yeeres.

11 I am in feare of you, least I haue bestowed on you labour in vaine.

12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am, for I am as ye are: Yee haue not iniured me at all.

13 Ye know how that through infirmitie of the flesh, I preached the Gospel vnto you at the first:

14 [e] And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, neither abhorred: but receiued mee as an angel of God, euen as Jesus.

e That is, the troubles and vexations which God sent to trie me while I was among you.

15 What is then your felicitie? for I beare you recorde, that if it had beene possible, yee woulde haue plucked out your owne eyes, and haue giuen them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemie, because I tell you the trueth?

17 They are ielous ouer you [f] amisse: Yea, they intend to exclude [g] you, that ye should be feruent to them ward.

f For they are but ambitious.

g They would turne you frō me, that you might follow them.

18 It is good alwayes to bee zealous in a good thing, and not onely when I am present with you.

19 My litle children, of whom I trauaile in birth againe, vntill Christ be [h] fashioned in you.

h And tumbled to in your hearts, that ye loue one another.

20 But I desire to bee present with you nowe, and to change my voyce: for I stand in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to bee vnder the lawe, doe ye not heare the lawe?

The Epistle on the iiij. Sunday in Lent.

22 For it is written that Abraham had two sonnes: * the one by a bond maide, * the other by a free woman.

Gen. 16. 15. Gen. 21. 2.

23 But hee which was of the bonde woman, was borne after the flesh: but he which was of the free woman, was borne by promise.

24 Which things are spoken by [i] an allegorie: for these are two testaments: the one from the mount Sina, which gendreth vnto bondage, which is Agar:

i By an allegorie, that is, an other thing is meant.

25 For ‖Agar is the mount Sina in Arabia, and bordereth vpon the citie which is nowe called Hierusalem, and is in bondage with her children.

‖ Or, reade, for Sina is a mount in Arabia.

26 But * Hierusalem which is above is free, free, which is the mother of vs all.

Esai.54.1. 27 For it is written, *Reioice thou barren that bearest no children, bre ake sooth and cry, thou that trauailest not: for the desolate hath many mo children then she which hath an husband.

Rom.9.8. 28 But brethren, wee are *after Isahac the children of promise.

29 But as then he that was borne after the flesh, persecuted him that was borne after the spirit: euen so is it now.

30 Neuertheless, what saith the Scripture? *Put away the bond woman and her

Gen.21.10 sonne: for the sonne of the bond woman shall in no wise be heire with the sonne of the free woman.

31 So then brethren, we are not children of the bond woman, but of the free.

The v. Chapter.

2 He laboureth to drawe them away from circumcision, 7 and sheweth them the battaile betwixt the spirite and the flesh, and the fruits of them both.

Actes 15.1. STand *fast therefore in the libertie wherewith Christ hath made vs free, and bee not intangled ‖ againe with the yoke of bondage.

‖Or, contrariwise,

2 Behold, I Paul say vnto you, that if ye be [a] circumcised, Christ shall profite you nothing.

a For we are of the Church of Christ, which is one spiritual, & not of the bonde stocke, which remaine vnder the law.

3 For I testifie again to euery man which is circumcised, that hee is a debter to doe the whole lawe.

4 Christ is become but vaine to you, as many of you as are iustified by the lawe, are fallen from grace.

5 For we through the spirit, waite for the hope of righteousnesse by faith.

6 For in Iesus Christ, neither is circumcision any thing worth, neither yet vncircumcision: but faith, which worketh by loue.

7 Ye did runne well, who was a let vnto you, that ye should not obey the trueth?

8 This perswasion commeth not of him that called you.

1.Cor.5.6. 9 *A little leauen leaueneth the whole lumpe of dowe.

10 I haue trust toward you in the Lorde, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but he that troubleth you, shal beare iudgement, whatsoeuer he be.

11 And brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why doe I yet suffer persecution? Then is the slander of the crosse ceased.

12 I would to God they were cut off which trouble you.

13 For brethren, yee haue bene called vnto libertie: onely *let not libertie bee an occasion to the flesh, but by loue serue one another.

Rom.13.9. mat.22.39. mar.12.31.

14 For all the law is fulfilled in one word, which is this, *Thou shalt loue thy neighbor as thy selfe.

Leui.19.18 iacob.2.8.

15 If ye bite & deuoure one another take heede least ye be consumed one of another.

16 *Then I say, walke in the spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lusts of the flesh.

The Epistle on the xiiij. sunday after Trinity. Rom.13. 14. 1.pet.2.11.

17 For the flesh lusteth contrary to the spirit, and the spirit contrary to the flesh: these are contrary one to the other, so that ye cannot doe what ye would.

18 But and if ye be led of the spirit, then are ye not vnder the law.

19 The deedes of the flesh are manifest, which are these, adulterie, fornication, vncleannesse, wantonnesse,

20 Worshipping of images, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, sects, 21 Enuyings, murders, drunkennesse, gluttonies, and such like of the which I tell you before, as I haue told you in time past, that euen they which doe such things, shall not inherit the kingdome of God.

22 But the fruit of the spirit is loue, ioy, peace, long suffering, gentlenesse, goodnesse, faith, 23 Meekenesse, temperance: against such there is no lawe.

24 They truely that are Christes, [b] haue crucified the flesh, with the affections and lusts.

b Christ hath not onely remitted their sinnes, but sanctified them vnto newnesse of life.

25 If we liue in the spirit, let vs also walk in the spirit.

26 Let vs not be desirous of vaine glory, prouoking one another, enuying one another.

The vj. Chapter.

1 Hee exhorteth them to vse gentlenesse towarde the weake, 2 and to shewe their brotherly loue and modestie, 6 also to prouide for their ministers:

BRethren, if a man be preuented in any fault, ye which are spirituall, restore such a one in the spirite of meekenesse, considering thy self, least thou also be tempted.

2 Beare ye one anothers burden, and so fulfill the lawe of Christ.

3 For if any man seeme to himselfe that hee is somewhat, when he is nothing, the same deceiueth himselfe in his owne fantasie.

4 But let euery man proue his owne worke: and then shal he haue [a] reioycing onely in his owne selfe, and not in another.

a For his reioycing is a testimonie of a good conscience. 1. Cor.3.8.

5 * For euery man shall beare his owne burden.

6 Let him that is taught in the word, minister vnto him that teacheth him, in al good things.

7 Be not deceiued, God is not mocked: for whatsoeuer a man soweth that shall hee also reape.

8 For he that soweth in his flesh, shall of the flesh reape corruption: but he that soweth into the spirite, shall of the spirit reape life euerlasting.

9 Let vs not be wearie in well doing: for in due season we shall reape, if we faint not.

10 While

10 While wee haue therefore time, let vs doe good vnto all men, specially vnto them which are of the houshold of faith.

The Epistle on the xv. Sunday after Trinitie.

11 Ye see how large a letter I haue written vnto you with mine owne hand.

12 As many as desire with outward appearance to please | carnally, the same constraine you to be circumcised: onely lest they shoulde suffer persecution for the crosse of Christ.

Or, in the flesh,

13 For they themselues which are circumcised, keepe not the lawe: but desire to haue you circumcised, that they might glory in your flesh.

14 God forbid that I should glory, but in the crosse of our Lord Jesus Christ: wherby the [b] worlde is crucified vnto me, and I vnto the worlde.

b By ỹ world, he meaneth all outwarde pompes, ceremonies, and things which please mens fantasies.

15 For in Christ Jesus, neither circumcision auaileth any thing, nor vncircumcision, but a new creature.

16 And as many as walke according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercie, and vpon the [c] Israel that is of God.

c That is vpon the Jewes, as Rom. 11.

17 From henceforth let no man put mee to busines: for I beare in my body the markes of the Lord Jesus.

18 Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, Amen.

The Epistle vnto the Galathians, was written from Rome.

The Epistle of Saint Paul the Apostle vnto the Ephesians.

The first Chapter.

After his salutation, 4 he sheweth that the chiefe cause of their saluation standeth in the free election of God through Christ, 16 Hee declareth his good will toward them, giuing thankes, and praying God for their faith, 21 The maiestie of Christ.

1.Cor.1.1. PAul * an Apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to the saints which are at Ephesus, & to the faithful in Christ Jesus,

2 Grace be with you, and peace from God our father, & from the Lorde Jesus Christ.

1.Cor.1.3. 2.pet.1.2. 3 *Blessed be God the father of our Lorde Jesus Christ, which hath blessed vs in al spirituall blessing in heauenly things by Christ:

2.Tim.1.9. Col.1.29. 4 *According as he had chosen vs in him, before the foundation of the worlde, *that we should bee holy, and without blame before him through loue.

a Whereas we were not the naturall children of God, he receiued vs by grace, & made vs his children.

5 Who hath predestinated vs vnto the adoption of *children by Jesus Christ vnto himselfe, according to the good pleasure of his will:

6 To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made vs accepted in the beloued.

7 In whom we haue redemption through his blood, the forgiuenesse of sinnes according to the riches of his grace,

8 Wherein he hath abounded toward vs in all wisedome and prudence.

9 And hath opened vnto vs the mysterie of his will, according to his good pleasure, which he had purposed in himselfe,

10 That in the dispensation of the fulnes of the times, he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heauens, and which are in earth, in him.

11 In whom also wee are chosen, being predestinate according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsell of his owne will:

12 That we should bee vnto the prayse of his glory, which before beleeued in Christ.

13 In whome also ye hoped after that yee heard the word of trueth, the Gospel of your saluation: wherein also after that yee beleeued, yee were sealed with the holy spirit of promise, 14 Which is the earnest of our inheritance, vnto the [b] redemption of the purchased possession, vnto the praise of his glory.

b Though we be redeemed from the bondage of sinne by the death of Christ, Rom. 6 yet we hope for this second redemption, which shall be when we shall possesse our inheritance in the heauens, wherof we haue the holy Ghost for a gage, as ch. 4

15 Wherefore I also, after that I heard of the faith which ye haue in the Lorde Jesus, and loue vnto all the saints,

16 Cease not to giue thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers,

17 That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the father of glory, may giue vnto you the spirit of wisedome and reuelation, in the knowledge of him,

18 The eyes of your minds being lightened: that yee may know what the hope is of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance is in the saints:

19 And what is the exceeding greatnesse of his power to vs ward which beleeue, *according to ỹ working of his mightie power, Colo.2.19.

20 Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him on his right hand in heauenly places, 21 Farre aboue all rule, and power, and might, and dominion, and euery name that is named, not only in this world, but also in the world to come.

22 And hath put al things vnder his feet, and gaue him to be the head ouer all things to the Church, 23 Which is his body, the fulnesse of him that filleth all in all.

The iiij. Chapter.

He exhorteth them vnto meekenesse, long suffering, and vnto loue and peace.

The Epistle on the xvij. sunday after Trinity.

I Therefore a prisoner ‖ in the Lord exhort you, that ye walke worthie of the vocation wherewith ye are called,

‖ Or, for the Lordes cause.

2 With all lowlinesse and meekenesse, with long suffering, forbearing one another in loue,

3 Endeuouring to keepe the vnitie of the spirit in the bond of peace.

a So that we can not dissent one from another, seeing the spirite which inspireth vs in one body, can not dissent from himselfe.

4 One body, and one a spirit, euen as yee are called in one hope of your calling.

5 One Lorde, one faith, one baptisme.

6 One God and father of all, which is aboue all, and through all, and in you all.

The Epistle on S. Markes day Rom. 12.3. psal. 68.19.

7 But * vnto euery one of vs is giuen grace, according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

8 Wherefore he saith, when he * went vp on high, he led captiuitie captiue, and gaue gifts vnto men.

c That is, wherewith one ministreth to another.

17 This I say therefore, and testifie in the Lorde, that yee henceforth walke not * as other Gentiles walke, in vanitie of their minde:

29 Let no filthy communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to edifie withal, as oft as need is, that it may minister grace vnto the hearers.

30 And g grieue not the holy spirit of God, by whome yee are sealed vnto the day of redemption.

g Be behaue your selues, that the holy ghost may willingly dwell in you, and giue him no occasion to depart for sorow by your abusing of Gods graces.

31 Let al bitternesse, and fiercenesse, and wrath, and crying, and euil speaking, be put away from you, with all naughtinesse.

32 Be ye curteous one to another, merciful, forgiuing one another, euen as God for Christs sake hath forgiuen you.

The v. Chapter.

He intreateth of corporall mariages, and of the spirituall betwixt Christ and his Church.

The Epistle on the third sunday in Lent. Ioh. 13.24.

BE yee therefore followers of God, as deare children:

2 * And walke yee in loue euen as Christ hath loued vs, and hath giuen himselfe for vs, an offering and a sacrifice of a sweete smelling sauour to God.

Colos. 3.5.

3 * But fornication, and all vncleannes, or couetousnesse, let it not bee once named among you, as it becommeth saints:

4 Neither filthinesse, neither foolish talking, neither iesting, which are not conuenient: but rather giuing of thanks.

5 For this yee know, that no whoremonger, neither vncleane person, nor couetous 24 But as the Church is subiect vnto Christ, likewise let the wiues to their owne husbands in all things.

Colo. 3.19.

25 *Ye husbandes loue your wiues, euen as Christ also loued the Church, and gaue himselfe for it, b Baptisme is a token that God hath consecrated the Church to himselfe, & made it holy by his word: that is, his promise of free iustification in Christ.

26 To sanctifie it, when hee had cleansed it in the b fountaine of water in the worde

27 That he might present it vnto himselfe a glorious Church, not hauing spot or wrinckle, or any such thing: but that it should bee holy, and without blame.

28 So ought men to loue their wiues, as their owne bodies: hee that loueth his wife, loueth himselfe.

29 For no man euer yet hated his owne flesh: but nourisheth and cherisheth it, euen as the Lord the Church:

30 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

Gen. 2. 24. mat. 19.5. mar. 10.7. 1. cor. 6.16.

31 *For this cause shall a man leaue father and mother, and shalbe ioyned vnto his wife, and two shalbe made one flesh.

The Epistle on the xxj. sunday after Trinitie.

11 Put on all the armour of God, that yee may stande against the assaults of the deuill.

a The spirituall warre must needs be verie terrible, & dangerous: for it is against the deuill, who is a spirit, & we can neither see nor reach him. Therefore we must be armed by Gods grace.

12 For we wrestle not against a bloud and flesh, but against rulers, against powers, against worldly gouernours of the darknes of this world, against spirituall wickednesse in heauenly places.

13 Wherefore take vnto you the whole armour of God, that ye may bee able to resist in the euill day, and hauing finished all things, to stand fast.

19 For I know that this shal turne to my saluation through your prayer, and ministring of the spirit of Iesus Christ, 20 According to my earnest expectation & my hope, that in nothing I shalbe ashamed: but that with al boldnes, as alwaies, so now also Christ shall bee magnified in my body, whether it be by life or by death.

21 For Christ is to me life, and death is to me aduantage.

22 But whether to liue in the flesh, this be the fruite of my labour, and what I shall chuse, I wote not.

23 For I am in a straite betwixt two, hauing a desire to depart, and to be with Christ, which is much farre better.

‖Or, body. 24 Neuertheless, to abide in the ‖ flesh, is more needful for you.

25 And this I am sure of, that I shall abide & continue with you al, for your furtherance and ioy of faith:

This Epistle was written to the Philippians from Rome, by Epaphroditus.

[d] When I first preached the Gospel vnto you.

The Epistle of saint Paul the Apostle vnto the Colossians.

The first Chapter.

1 He giueth thankes vnto God for their faith. 7 Confirming the doctrine of Epaphras, 9 he prayeth for their encrease of faith.

PAul an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the will of God, and Timotheus the brother,
2 To the saints & faithfull brethren in Christ, which are at Colossa, grace be vnto you, and peace from God our father, and the Lord Iesus Christ.
3 We giue thanks to God, and the father of our Lord Iesus Christ alwayes for you, praying:
4 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Iesus, and of the loue which ye haue to all saintes:
5 For the hopes sake which is layd vp for you in heauen, of which hope yee heard before in the word of truth of the Gospell,
6 which is come vnto you euen as it is in all the world, and is fruitfull, as it is also in you, from the day ye heard of it, and knewe the grace of God in trueth.
7 As yee also learned of Epaphras our deare fellow seruant, which is for you a faithfull minister of Christ:
8 who also declared vnto vs your loue [b] in the spirit.
9 For this cause we also since the day we heard it, doe not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be fulfilled with knowledge of his will, in all wisedome and spirituall vnderstanding:
10 * That ye might walke worthy of the Lord in all pleasing, being fruitfull in all good workes, and encreasing in the knowledge of God,
11 Strengthened with all might, through his glorious power, vnto all patience and long suffering with ioyfulnesse,
12 Giuing thanks vnto the father, which hath made vs meete to bee partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light:
13 who hath deliuered vs from the power of darkenesse, and hath translated vs into the kingdome of his * deare sonne:
14 In who we haue redemption through his blood, euen the forgiuenesse of sinnes:
15 Who is the * image of the inuisible God, the first borne of all creatures.
16 * For by him were all things created that are in heauen, and that are in earth, visible and inuisible, whether they be maiesties or Lordshippes, either rules or powers: all things were created by him, and for him.
17 And he is before all things, and in him all things consist.
18 And hee is the head of the body of the Church: * who is the beginning, the first borne from the dead, that in all things hee might haue the preeminence:
19 * For it pleased the father that in him should all [c] fulnesse dwell,
20 And by him to reconcile all things vnto himselfe, since he hath set at peace through the blood of his crosse by him, both ý things in earth, and things in heauen.
21 And you which were sometime strangers, and enemies by [d] cogitation in euill workes: hath he now yet reconciled, 22 In the body of his flesh through death, to preserue you holy and vnblameable, and without fault in his sight.
23 If ye continue grounded and stablished in the faith, & be not moued away from the hope of the Gospell, which ye haue heard howe it was preached to euery creature which is vnder heauen, whereof I Paul am made a minister.

1 Having protested his good will toward them, 4 hee admonisheth them not to turne backe from Christ.

FOr I would haue you knowe what great fight I haue for you, and for them that are of Laodicea, and for as many as haue not seene my face in the flesh:

2 That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in loue, and in all riches of certaintie of vnderstanding, to knowe the mysterie of God, and of the Father, and of Christ:

3 In whome are hid all the treasures of wisedome and knowledge.

4 This I say, lest any man should beguile you with perswasion of wordes.

1.Cor.1.5.

8 Beware least any man spoyle you thorough a philosophie and vaine deceite, after the tradition of men, & after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ:

a Teaching you vaine speculations, as worshipping of angels, of blind ceremonies, and beggarly traditions: for natural they haue no life, seeing Christ is come.

9 For in him dwelleth all the fulnesse of the Godhead bodily:

10 And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principalitie and power.

14 And when he had blotted out the hand writing of ordinances that was against vs, and that was contrary to vs, euen that hath he taken out of the way, hauing fastened it to his crosse:

15 And hauing spoyled all principalities and powers, hath made a shewe of them openly, triumphing ouer them in himselfe.

16 Let no man therefore iudge you in meate or in drinke, or in part of an holy day, or of the newe Moone, or of the Sabboth dayes:

17 Which are shadowes of things to come, but the body is of Christ.

18 Let no man beguile you of c victorie, in the humblenesse and worshipping of angels, intruding himselfe into those things which he hath not seene, causelesse puft vp with his fleshly minde:

c Meaning, that the hypocrites led them at their pleasure into all superstition and errour.

19 And holdeth not the head, whereof all the body by ioynts and bandes, hauing nourishment ministred, & knit together, increaseth with the increase of God.

20 Wherefore if yee be dead with Christ from the rudiments of the world: why, as though liuing in the world, are ye led with traditions,

9 For they themſelues ſhew of you, what maner of entring in we had vnto you, and howe yee turned to God from [c] images, to ſerue the liuing and true God:

c For images are dead things, and vnfruitfull fantaſies.

10 And to tarrie for his ſonne from heauen, whom he raiſed from the dead, euen Jeſus, which deliuered vs from the wrath to come.

The ii. Chapter.

1 He commendeth his diligence in preaching, and their in obeying.

FOr your ſelues, brethren, know our entraunce in vnto you, that it was not in [a] vaine.

a Not in outward ſhewe and in pompe, but in trauel, & in the feare of God. Act.16.22.

2 *But euen after that we had ſuffered before, and were ſhamefully entreated as ye know at Philippos, we were bold in our God, to ſpeake vnto you the Goſpel of God, with much ſtriuing.

3 For our exhortation was not of deceit, neither of vncleannelſe, neither in guile:

4 But as we were allowed of God to be put in credit with the Goſpell, euen ſo wee ſpeake, not as pleaſing men, but God, which tryeth our hearts.

5 For neither at any time vſed we flattering words, as ye know, neither clothe of couetouſneſſe, God is record,

6 Neither ſought we praiſe of men, neyther of you, nor yet of others:

7 when we might haue bene in ‖ authoritie, as the Apoſtles of Chriſt, but were tender among you, euen as a [b] nurſe cheriſheth her children.

‖ Or, a burden.

b By humbling himſelfe to ſuppoſe all things without all reſpect of lucre: euen as the tender mother which nurſeth her children, and thinketh no office too vile for her childrens ſake. Act.20.34. 2.theſ.3.8.

8 So, being tenderly affected towarde you, our good will was to haue dealt vnto you, not the Goſpell of God onely, but alſo our owne ſoules: becauſe ye were deare vnto vs.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and trauaile: * for we labouring night and day, becauſe we would not bee chargeable vnto any of you, preached vnto you the Goſpell of God.

10 Ye are witneſſes, and God alſo, howe holily, and iuſtly, and vnblameably, we behaued our ſelues among [c] you that beleeue.

c For it is not poſſible to auoide the reproch of the wicked, which euer hate good things. 1

11 And ye know how that as a father his children, ſo haue wee exhorted, comforted, and beſought euery one of you, 12 That ye would walke worthie of God, * who hath called you vnto his kingdome and glory.

Epheſ.4.1.

13 For this cauſe thanke wee God alſo without ceaſſing, becauſe when yee had receiued the word of God which yee heard of vs, yee receiued it not as the worde of men (but as it is in deede) the worde of God, which effectuouſly worketh alſo in you that beleeue.

14 For ye, brethren, became followers of the churches of God, which in Jurie are in Chriſt Jeſus: for yee alſo haue ſuffered like things of your countremen, as they haue of the Jewes:

15 who both killed the Lord Jeſus, and their owne prophets, and haue perſecuted vs, and God they pleaſe not, and are contrarie to [d] all men:

d And hinder all men from their ſaluation.

16 And hinder vs to ſpeake to the Gentiles, that they might be ſaued, to fulfill their ſinnes alway. For the wrath of God is come on them to the vttermoſt.

17 For a ſmuch, brethren, as we are kept from you for a ſhort ſeaſon, in perſon, not in heart, * we enforced the more to ſee you perſonally with great deſire.

Rom.1.11.

18 And therefore wee would haue come vnto you (euen I Paul) once and againe: but Satan hindered vs.

19 For what is our hope, or ioy, or crowne of reioycing? Are [e] not yee it in the preſence of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt at his comming?

e Therefore I could not forget you, except I would forget my ſelfe.

20 Yea, ye are our glory and ioy.

The

The iij. Chapter.

2 He sheweth howe greatly he was affectioned toward them, both in that he sent Timotheus to them, 10 and also prayed for them.

WHerefore, since we could no longer forbeare, wee thought it good to remaine at Athens alone:

Act. 16. 1. 2 *And sent Timotheus our brother and minister of God, and fellowe labourer in the Gospel of Christ, to stablish you, concerning your faith:

3 That no man should be moued in these afflictions: for ye your selues knowe that we are appointed thereunto.

4 For verely when wee were with you, we tolde you before, that we should suffer tribulation: euen as it came to passe, and as yee knowe.

a His great affection towarde the final flocke.

5 For this cause when I a could no longer forbeare, I sent him to know your faith, least by some meanes the tempter had tempted you, and our labour had bene vaine.

6 But nowe lately when Timotheus came from you vnto vs, and brought vs good tidings of your faith and charitie, and howe that yee haue good remembrance of vs alwayes, desiring greatly to see vs, as wee also to see you:

7 Therefore, brethren, wee were comforted ouer you in all our aduersitie and necessitie, because of your faith:

b If yee remaine constant in faith and true doctrine, I shall thinke that all mine afflictions be so many pleasures, & shalbe restored from death to life. Rom. 1. 10.

8 For now we b liue, if ye stand fast in the Lord,

9 For what thanks can wee recompence to God againe for you, for all the ioy wherewith we ioy for your sakes before our God,

10 *Praying night and day exceedingly to see you personally, and repaire the wantings of your faith?

11 Now God himselfe, and our father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, guide our way vnto you.

12 And the Lorde increase you, and make you abound in charitie one toward another, and toward all men, euen as we also toward you:

13 To stablish your hearts vnblameable 2. Cor. 1. 8. *in holinesse before God and our father, in the comming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints.

The iiij. Chapter.

1 Hee exhorteth them to holinesse, 6 and innocencie, 9 loue, 11 labour, 13 and moderation in lamenting for the dead.

The Epistle on the ij. Sunday in Lent.

FVrthermore wee beseech you brethren, and exhort you by the Lorde Jesus, that yee increase more and more, as yee haue receiued of vs, howe ye ought to walke and to please God.

Or, sanctification. Rom. 12. 1. ephe. 5. 27.

2 For ye knowe what commandements we gaue you by the Lord Jesus.

3 For this is the will of God, euen your holinesse, * a that yee shoulde abstaine from fornication:

a That is, that ye should dedicate your selues wholy to God.

4 That euery one of you shoulde knowe howe to possesse his vessell in holinesse and honour:

5 Not in the lust of concupiscence, euen as the Gentiles which know not God.

6 *That no man oppresse and defraud his brother in any matter, because that the Lord is the auenger of all such, as wee also haue forewarned you, and testified. 1. Cor. 6. 8.

7 * For God hath not called vs vnto vncleannesse, but vnto holinesse. 1. Cor. 1.

8 Hee therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also giuen to you his holy spirit.

9 *But as touching brotherly loue, yee neede not that I write vnto you: for yee are taught of God to loue one another. Iohn 13. 1. iohn 1.

10 Yea, and that thing verily ye doe vnto all the brethren, which are in al Macedonia: but we beseech you brethren, that ye increase more and more:

11 And that ye studie to be quiet, and to do your owne businesse, & to worke with your owne hands, as we commanded you:

12 That ye may walke honestly toward them that are without, & that yee may haue lacke of nothing.

13 But I would not haue you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which sleepe, that ye b sorowe not, euen as other which haue no hope.

b Ye doeth not condemne all kinde of sorowe, but that which proceedeth of infidelitie.

14 For if wee beleeue that Jesus died, and rose againe, euen so them also which sleepe by Jesus, will God bring with him.

15 For this we say vnto you in the worde of the Lorde, that we which *liue, which remaine vnto the comming of the Lorde, shall not preuent them which sleepe. 1. Cor. 15. 51.

16 *For the Lorde himselfe shall descende from heauen in a shoute, and in the voyce of the Archangel, * and in the trumpe of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first. Mat. 24. 31. 1. Cor. 15. 52.

17 Then we which liue, which remaine, shalbe caught vp together with them in the clouds, to meete the Lorde in the aire: and so shall we euer be with the Lord.

18 Wherefore, comfort your selues one an other in these wordes.

The v. Chapter.

He enformeth them of the day of iudgement, and comming of the Lorde.

BVt of the times and seasons, brethren, yee haue no neede that I write vnto you.

a *For ye your selues know perfectly that the day of the Lorde so commeth, euen as a thiefe in the night. Mat. 24. 44. 2. pet. 3. 10. apoc. 3. 3.

2 For when they shall say, Peace & safetie: then suddenly destruction commeth vpon them, as sorrow vpon a woman with child, and they shall not escape in any wise.

a Christ shall deceiue and beguile the worlde.

4 But yee, brethren, are not in darkenes, least that day should ouertake you as a thiefe.

5 Ye

5 Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, neither of darkenesse.

b Here sleepe is taken for contempt of saluation, whē men continue in sinne, & will not awake to godlinesse.

6 Therefore let vs not b sleepe, as doe other: but let vs watch, and be sober.

7 For they that sleepe, sleepe in the night: and they that be drunken, are drunken in the night.

8 But let vs which are of the day, be sober, * putting on the breastplate of fayth and charitie, and a helmet, the hope of saluation.

Esai. 59.17. ephes. 6.17.

9 For God hath not appointed vs to wrath: but to obteine saluation by our Lorde Iesus Christ,

10 Which died for vs, that whether wee wake or sleepe, we should liue together with him.

11 Wherefore, comfort your selues together, & edifie euery one another, euē as ye do.

12 And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which labour among you, and haue the ouersight of you in the Lorde, and admonish you:

13 That ye haue them in high reputation, in loue for their worke: and bee at peace among your selues.

14 Wee exhort you, brethren, warne them that are vnruly, comfort the feeble minded, lift vp the weake, be patient toward all men.

15 * See that none recompence euill for euill vnto any man: but euer followe that which is good, both among your selues, and to all men.

Mat. 5.44.

16 Reioyce euer.

17 *Pray continually.

Luke 18.1.

18 In all things giue thankes: for this is the will of God in Christ Iesus towarde you.

19 Quench not the spirit.

20 Despise not c prophecyings.

c The preaching of the word of God.

21 Examine all things: holde fast that which is good.

22 Abstaine from all apparance of euill.

23 And the very God of peace sanctifie you throughout: And I pray God that your whole spirit, and soule, and body, may be preserued blamelesse in the comming of our Lorde Iesus Christ.

24 *Faithful is he which called you, which will also doe it.

1. Cor. 1. 9.

25 Brethren, pray for vs.

26 Greete all the brethren in an holy kisse.

27 I charge you in the Lord, that this Epistle be read vnto all the holy brethren.

28 The grace of our Lorde Iesus Christ be with you, Amen.

¶ The first Epistle vnto the Thessalonians, writ from Athens.

The second Epistle of Saint Paul the Apostle to the Thessalonians.

* The first Chapter.

3 He thanketh God for their faith, loue, and patience. 11 He prayeth for the increase of the same. 12 and sheweth what fruit shall come thereof.

PAul and Siluanus, and Timotheus, vnto the Church of the Thessalonians, in God our father, & the Lord Iesus Christ:

2 Grace vnto you, and peace from God our father, and the Lord Iesus Christ.

1. Thes. 1. 2.

3 *We are bound to thanke God alwayes for you, brethren, as it is meete, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charitie of euery one of you towards another aboundeth:

a Which proceedeth of your faith as a most notable fruite.

4 So that wee our selues reioyce in you in the Churches of God, for your a patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye suffer.

b The faithfull by their afflictions, see as in a cleare glasse, the ende of Gods iust iudgement, when as they shall reigne with Christ whiche suffered with him: and the wicked shall feele his extreme wrath & vengeance.

5 Which is b token of c righteous iudgement of God, that yee may be counted worthie of the kingdome of God, for which ye also suffer.

c Or, iust.

6 For it is righteous thing with God, to recompence tribulation to them that trouble you:

7 And to you which are troubled, rest with vs, in the reuelation of the Lord Iesus from heauen, with the angels of his power,

8 In flaming fire, rendring vengeance vnto them that knowe not God, and that obey not the Gospel of our Lord Iesus Christ,

9 Which shalbe punished with euerlasting damnation from the presence of the Lorde, and from the glory of his power:

10 When he shal come to be glorified in his saints, and to bee made maruailous in all them that beleeue (because our testimony toward you was beleeued) in that day.

11 Wherefore also wee pray alwayes for you, that our God would make you worthy of the calling, and fulfill al good pleasure of goodnesse in the c worke of faith in power:

c Faith is Gods wonderfull worke in vs.

12 That the name of our Lorde Iesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God, and the Lord Iesus Christ.

The ii. Chapter.

3 He sheweth him that the day of the Lorde shall not come, till the departing from the faith come first, 9 and the kingdome of Antichrist, 15 and therefore he exhorteth them not to be deceiued, but to stand stedfast in the things that he hath taught them,

We

WE beseeche you brethren, by the comming of our Lorde Iesus Christ, and by our assembling vnto him,

2 That yee be not suddenly moued from your mind, nor be troubled, neither by [a] spirit, nor by word, nor yet by letter, as from vs, as though the day of Christ were at hand.

[a] Vn faith reuelations or dreames.

Ephes.5.6. 3 "Let no man deceiue you by any meanes, for the Lord shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that that man of sinne be reuealed, the sonne of [b] perdition.

[b] Who as he destroyeth other, shall be destroyed himselfe.

4 Which is an aduersarie, and is exalted aboue all that is called God, or that is worshipped: so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himselfe that he is God.

5 Remember yee not, that when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

6 And now you know what withholdeth, that he might be reuealed in his time.

7 For the mysterie of iniquitie doeth already worke, onely he which now letteth will let, vntill he be taken out of the way.

8 And then shall that wicked be reuealed "whom the Lord shall consume with the spirite of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightnesse of his comming:

Esai.11.4.

9 Euen him whose comming is after the working of Satan, in all power and signes, and wonders of lying,

10 And in all deceiueablenesse of vnrighteousnesse, in them that perish: because they receiued not the loue of the trueth, that they might be saued.

11 And therefore God shal send thē strong delusion, that they should beleeue lies:

12 That all they might be damned which beleeued not the trueth, but had pleasure in vnrighteousnesse.

13 But wee are bound to giue thankes alway to God for you, brethren, beloued of the Lord, because that God hath from the beginning chosen you to saluation, in sanctifying of the spirit, and in faith of the trueth.

14 Whereunto hee called you by our Gospel, to the obteining of the glory of the Lorde Iesus Christ.

15 Therefore, brethren, stand fast, & holde the ordinances which ye haue bene taught, whether it were by our preaching, or by our Epistle.

16 Our Lord Iesus Christ, & God our father which hath loued vs, & hath giuen vs euerlasting cōsolation, & good hope in grace, 17 Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in all good saying and doing.

The iij. Chapter.

He desireth them to pray for him, that the Gospell may prosper.

FVrthermore, brethren, *pray ye for vs, that the worde of the Lorde may haue free passage, and be glorified, euen as with you:

Ephe.6.19. colos.4.3.

2 And that we may be deliuered from disordered and euill men: for all men haue not [a] faith.

[a] Although they boast themselues therof.

3 But the Lorde is faithfull, which shall stablish you, and keepe you from euill.

4 And we haue confidence in the Lord to you ward, that yee both doe, and will doe the things which we command you.

5 And the Lord guide your heartes to the loue of God, and to the patient waiting for Christ.

6 We commaunde you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Iesus Christ, that ye withdraw yee your selues from euery brother that walketh inordinately, and not after the [b] institution which he receiued of vs.

[b] Which is, to translate it as we vse to say.

7 For ye your selues know *how ye ought to follow vs: "for we behaued not our selues inordinately among you,

1.Cor.11.1 1.Thes.4.11. Act.10.34.

8 * Neither tooke wee bread of any man for nought: but wrought with labour and sweat night and day, because we would not be chargeable to any of you.

1.thes.2.9.

9 Not because wee haue not authoritie, but to make our selues an ensample vnto you to followe vs.

10 For when we were with you, this we warned you of, that if any would not worke, the same should not eate.

11 For we heare that there are some which walke among you inordinately, working not at all, but be busibodies.

12 Them that are such, we commaunde, and exhort by our Lorde Iesus Christ, that they working in quietnesse, eate their owne bread.

13 And ye, *brethren, be not wearie in well doing.

Galat.6.9.

14 "If any man obey not our doctrine, signifie him by an Epistle, * & haue no companie with him, that he may be ashamed.

Mat.18.17. 2.cor.5.9.

15 Yet count him not as an [c] enemie, but warne him as a brother.

[c] The end of excommunication is, not to driue from the Church such as haue fallen, but to win them to the Church by amendement.

16 Nowe the very Lord of peace, giue you peace alwayes, by all meanes. The Lorde be with you all.

17 The salutation of me Paul, with mine owne hand, which is the token in euery Epistle. So I write.

18 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with you all, Amen.

The seconde Epistle to the Thessalonians, was written from Athens.

The first Epistle of Saint Paul the Apostle vnto Timothie.

The first Chapter.

He exhorteth Timothie to waite vpon his office, namely, to see that nothing be taught but Gods worde.

PAul the Apostle of Jesus Christ, by the commission of God our sauiour, and Lord Jesus Christ, which is our hope,

2 vnto *Timothie a naturall [a] sonne in the the faith: Grace, mercie, and peace from God our father, and Jesus Christ our Lord.

Acts 16.2.

a So called, because he followed the simplicitie of the Gospel.

3 As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, when I departed into Macedonia, so doe, that thou commaund some that they teach no other doctrine:

4 Neither giue heede to fables, and endlesse genealogies, which breede questions, more then godly edifying, which is in faith.

b Because these questionists preferred their curious fables to all other knowledge, & beautified them with the lawe of God: S. Paul sheweth that the ende of Gods lawe is loue, which cannot be without a good conscience, neither a good conscience without faith, nor faith without the word of God: So their doctrine, which is an occasion of contention, is worth nothing.

5 But the [b] ende of the commandement, is charitie out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith vnfeigned.

6 From the which things, some hauing erred, haue turned vnto vaine iangling:

7 Coueting to be doctours of the law, not vnderstanding what they speake, neither whereof they affirme.

8 But we know that the law is good, if a man vse it lawfully:

9 Knowing this, that the lawe is not giuen vnto a righteous man, but vnto the lawlesse and disobedient, to the vngodly, and to sinners, to vnholy, and vncleane, to murderers of fathers, & murtherers of mothers, to manslears,

10 To whoremongers, to them that defile themselues with mankinde, to manstealers, to liers, to periured, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to wholesome doctrine:

11 According to the Gospel of the glorie of the blessed God, which is commited vnto me.

12 And I thanke Christ Jesus our Lorde, which hath made me strong: for he counted me faithfull, putting me into the ministerie, 13 who was before a blasphemer, and an oppressour: but yet I obteined mercie, because I did it [c] ignorantly, in vnbeleefe.

c Not knowing that I fought against God.

14 Neuertheless, the grace of our Lorde was exceeding abundant, with faith, and loue, which is in Christ Jesus.

15 This is a faithfull saying, and by all meanes worthie to be receiued, *that Christ Jesus came into the worlde to saue sinners, of whom I am chiefe.

Mat.9.3. mark.2.17.

16 Notwithstanding, for this cause was mercie shewed vnto me, that in me the first, Jesus Christ might shewe all long suffering, to the example of them which should beleeue on him to life euerlasting.

17 [d] Now vnto the king euerlasting, incorruptible, inuisible, vnto God onely wise, be honour and glorie for euer and euer, Amen.

d He bursteth forth into these godly affections, considering Gods great mercie toward him.

18 This commandement commit I vnto thee sonne Timotheus, according to the prophecies which went before vpon thee, that thou in them shouldest fight a good fight:

19 Hauing faith & good conscience, which some hauing put away, as concerning faith, haue made shipwracke, 20 Of whom is *Hymeneus, and Alexander, whom I haue [e] deliuered vnto Satan, that they may learne not to blaspheme.

1.Cor.5.5.

e Excommunicate, or cast out of the Church.

The ij. Chapter.

1 Hee exhorteth to pray for all men, 4 wherefore, 8 and howe. 9 As touching the apparell and modestie of women.

EXhort you therefore, that first of all prayers, supplications, intercessions, and giuing of thankes be made for all men:

2 For kings, and for all that are in authoritie, that wee may leade a quiet and peaceable life, in all godlinesse and honestie.

3 For that is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Sauiour,

4 who will haue all men to be saued, and to come vnto the knowledge of the trueth.

5 For there is one God, and one mediatour of God and men, the man Christ Jesus:

6 who gaue himselfe, a [a] raunsome for al, a testimonie in due times:

a He sheweth that there can be no mediatour, except he be also the redeemer.

7 *whereunto I am ordeined a preacher and an Apostle (I tell the trueth in Christ, and lie not) a teacher of the Gentiles in faith, and veritie.

2.Tim.1.11.

8 I will therefore that the men pray euery where, lifting vp holy handes without wrath and reasoning.

9 *Like wise also the women, that they aray themselues in comely apparell, with shamefastnesse and discreete behauiour, not in braided haire, either golde, or pearles, or costly aray:

2.Pet.3.1.

10 But (that becommeth women professing godlinesse) through good workes.

11 *Let the women learne in silence with all subiection.

1.Cor.14. 34.

12 But I suffer not a woman to teach, neither to vsurpe authoritie ouer the man, but to be in silence.

13 *For Adam was first fourmed, then Eue.

Gen.1.27.

14 And Adam was not deceiued, * but the woman being deceiued, was [b] in the transgression.

Gen.3.6.

b That is, guiltie of the transgression.

15 Not-

15 Notwithſtanding, through bearing of children thee ſhall bee ſaued, if they continue in faith, and charitie, and holineſſe, with modeſtie.

The iij. Chapter.

2 Hee declareth what is the office of Miniſters, 11 and as touching their families. 15 The dignitie of the Church, 16 and the principall poynt of the heauenly doctrine.

THis is a faithfull ſaying: If a man deſire the office of a Biſhop, hee deſireth a good worke.

Tit.1.6. 2 *A Biſhop therefore muſt muſt bee blameleſſe, the huſband of one wife, watching, ſober, comely apparelled, a louer of hoſpitalitie, apt to teach,

3 Not giuen to ouermuch wine, no ſtriker, not greedie of filthie lucre: but gentle, abhorring fighting, abhorring couetouſneſſe:

4 One that ruleth well his owne houſe, hauing children in ſubiection with all grauitie,

5 (For if a man knowe not to rule his owne houſe, how ſhall he care for the Church of God?)

6 Not a yong ſcholler, leaſt hee, being puffed vp [a] fall into the condemnation of the deuill.

7 He muſt alſo haue a good report of them which are without, leſt hee fall into the rebuke and ſnare of the deuill.

8 Likewiſe muſt the ‖miniſters be graue, not double tongued, not giuen to much wine, neither greedie of filthie lucre:

9 [b] Holding the myſterie of the faith in a pure conſcience.

10 And let them firſt be proued, then let them miniſter, being blameleſſe.

11 Euen ſo muſt their wiues be graue, not euill ſpeakers, ſober, faithfull in all things.

12 Let the deacons bee the huſbandes of one wife, and ſuch as can rule their children well, and their owne houſholds.

13 For they that haue miniſtred well, get themſelues a good degree, and great libertie to ſpeake in the faith which is in Chriſt Jeſus.

14 Theſe things write I vnto thee, hoping to come ſhortly vnto thee:

15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayeſt know how thou ought eſt to behaue thy ſelfe in the houſe of God, which is the Church of the liuing God, the pillar and ‖ grounde of the trueth.

16 And without doubt, great is that myſterie of godlineſſe: God was ſhewed manifeſtly in the fleſh, was iuſtified in the ſpirite, was ſeene among the angels, was preached vnto the Gentiles, was beleeued on in the world, and was receiued vp in glorie.

The iiij. Chapter.

2 He teacheth him what doctrine he ought to flee, 6. 8. 11 and what to followe, 15 and wherein hee ought to exerciſe himſelfe continually.

NOwe the ſpirite ſpeaketh euidently, that *in the latter times ſome ſhall depart from the faith, giuing heede vnto rites of errour, and doctrines of deuils, 2.Tim.3.13 1.pet.2.3. iude 1.18.

2 Which ſpeake falſe in hypocriſie, hauing their [a] conſcience ſeared with an hote iron:

3 Forbidding to marrie, and commanding to abſteine from meates which God hath created to be receiued with giuing thanks, of them which beleeue and know the trueth.

4 For euery creature of God is good, and nothing to be refuſed, if it bee receiued with thankeſgiuing.

5 For it is ſanctified by the word of God, and prayer.

6 If thou put ỹ brethren in remembrance of theſe things, thou ſhalt be a good miniſter of Jeſus Chriſt, which haſt bene nouriſhed vp in the words of faith, and of good doctrine, which thou haſt continually followed.

7 *But caſt away prophane and olde wiues fables, and exerciſe thy ſelfe rather vnto godlineſſe: 2.Tim.2.23 titus.3.9.

8 For bodily exerciſe profiteth little, but godlineſſe is profitable vnto all things, hauing promiſes of the life that is nowe, and of that which is to come.

9 This is a ſure ſaying, and by all meanes worthy to be receiued:

10 For therefore we both labour, and ſuffer rebuke, becauſe we haue hoped in the liuing God, which is the ſauiour of all men, ſpecially of thoſe that beleeue.

11 Theſe thinges command and teach.

12 Let no man deſpiſe thy youth: but bee thou a paterne of the beleeuers, in word, in converſation, in charitie, in ſpirite, in faith, in chaſtitie.

13 Till I come, giue attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

14 Deſpiſe not the gift that is in thee, which was giuen thee [b] through prophecie, with the laying on of hands, by the authoritie of the elderſhip.

15 Haue a care of theſe things, and giue thy ſelfe vnto them, that it may be ſeene how thou profiteſt in all things.

16 Take heede vnto thy ſelfe, and vnto doctrine, and continue therein: for in doing this, thou ſhalt both [c] ſaue thy ſelfe, and them that heare thee.

The v. Chapter.

1 He teacheth him howe he ſhall behaue himſelfe in rebuking all degrees. 3 An order concerning widowes.

REbuke not an Elder, but exhort him as a father, the yonger men as brethren:

2 The elder women as mothers, the yonger as ſiſters, in all chaſtitie.

3 Honour widowes, which are widowes in deede.

a Leſt being proude of his degree, he be likewiſe condemned as the deuill was for lifting vp himſelfe by pride.

‖Or, deacons.

b Hauing the true doctrine of the Goſpel, and the feare of God.

‖Or, ſtay.

a Their dull conſciences firſt ſeared hard, then after, canker, and corruption bred therein: laſt of all, it was burnt off with an hot iron, ſo that he meaneth ſuch as haue no conſcience, Ephe.4.

b A reuelation of the holy Ghoſt.

c Thou ſhalt faithfully doe thy duetie, which is an aſſurance of thy ſaluation.

4 But if any widow haue children or nephues, let them learne first to rule their own houses godly, and to recompense also their elder kinsfolkes: for that is good and acceptable before God.

a Which hath no maner of worldly meanes to helpe her selfe with.

5 And she that is a widow [a] in deede, and left alone, hopeth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

6 But she that liueth in pleasure, is dead, being aliue.

7 And these things commaund, that they may be blamelesse.

8 But if any prouide not for his owne, and specially for them of his household, hee hath denied the faith, and is worse then an infidell.

9 Let not a widow be chosen vnder threescore yeeres olde, hauing bene the wife of one man,

10 And well reported of in good workes, if shee haue brought vp children, if shee haue lodged strangers, if shee haue washed the saints feete, if she haue ‖ ministred vnto them that were in aduersitie, if shee haue bene continually giuen to euery good worke.

‖ Or, holpen them.

11 But the yonger widowes refuse, for when they haue begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry:

12 Hauing damnation, because they haue cast away their first faith.

13 They learne to wander about from house to house idle, yea not idle onely, but also tatlers and busibodies, speaking things that are not comely.

14 I will therefore that the yonger women doe marrie, to beare children, to guide the house, to giue none occasion to the aduersarie to speake slanderously.

15 For certaine of them are already turned backe after Satan.

16 If any man or woman that beleeueth haue widowes, let them sustaine them, and let not the Church bee charged, that it may sustaine them that are widowes in deede.

17 The elders that rule well, let them bee counted worthie of double honour, most specially they which labour in the worde and teaching.

Deut. 25.4. 18 For the Scripture sayeth, * Thou shalt not muosell the ore that treadeth out the corne: and, * The labourer is worthy of his reward.

Mat. 10.10.

19 Against an elder receiue none accusation, but vnder two or three witnesses.

20 Them that sinne, rebuke before all, that other also may feare.

21 I testifie before God, and the Lord Iesus Christ, and the elect Angels, that thou obserue these things without hastinesse of iudgement, and do nothing after partialitie.

22 Lay handes sodainely on no man, neither be partaker of other mens sinnes. Keepe thy selfe chaste.

23 Drinke no longer water: but vse a little wine for thy stomachs sake, and thine often diseases.

24 Some mens sinnes are open before hand, hasting before vnto iudgement, and in some [b] they follow after.

b Their sinnes follow, which for a time haue deceiued the godly, and after are detected, as Saul, Iudas, and other hypocrites.

25 Likewise also good workes are manifest before hand, and they that are otherwise, cannot be hid.

The vj. Chapter.

1 The duetie of seruants toward their masters. 3 Against such as are not satisfied with the word of God.

LEt as many seruants as are vnder the yoke, count their masters worthy of all honour, that the Name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed.

2 And they which haue beleeuing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren, but rather let them doe seruice, for as much as they are beleeuing and beloued, and partakers of the [a] benefite: These things teach and exhort.

a That is, the grace of God.

3 If any man teache otherwise, and consenteth not vnto the wholesome wordes of our Lorde Iesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godlinesse:

4 Hee is puft vp, knowing nothing, but doting about * questions, & strifes of wordes, whereof commeth enuy, strife, railings, euill surmisings,

5 Vaine disputations of men of corrupt mindes, destitute of the trueth, thinking lucre to be godlinesse: From such be thou separate.

7 * For wee brought nothing into the worlde, and it is certaine that we may cary nought away.

Iob 1.21.

8 But hauing foode and rayment, wee must therewith be content.

9 For they [b] that wil be rich, fal into temptation and snares, and into many foolish and noysome lustes, which drowne men in perdition and destruction.

b That set their felicitie in riches.

10 For loue of money is the roote of all euil, which while some lusted after, they ‖ erred from the faith, and [c] pierced themselues through with many sorowes.

‖ Or, haue missed the marke concerning the faith.

c For they are vniet, neither in soule nor body.

11 But thou, O man of God, flee these things, and follow after righteousnesse, godlinesse, faith, loue, patience, meekenesse.

12 Fight the good fight of faith, lay hand on eternall life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.

Paul exhorteth Timotheus to ſtedfaſtneſſe and conſtancie in perſecution, and to continue in the doctrine that he had taught him.

a Being ſent of God to preach that life which he had promiſed in Chriſt Jeſus.

PAul an Apoſtle of Jeſus Chriſt by the will of God, a according to the promiſe of life, which is in Chriſt Jeſus,

2 To Timothie my dearly beloued ſonne: Grace, mercie, and peace from God the Father, and Chriſt Jeſus our Lord.

Act.22.3.

3 I thanke God, *whome I worſhip from my forefathers in pure conſcience, that without ceaſing I haue remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day,

The ii. Chapter.

Hee exhorteth him to bee conſtant in trouble, to ſuffer manly, to abide faſt in the wholeſome doctrine of our Lord Ieſus Chriſt.

THou therefore my ſonne, bee ſtrong in the grace that is in Chriſt Jeſus.

2 And the things that thou haſt heard of me by many witneſſes, the ſame commit thou to faithful men, which ſhall be apt to teach other alſo.

Thou therefore ſuffer afflictions as a good ſouldier of Jeſus Chriſt.

4 No man that warreth, entangleth him ſelfe with the affaires of this life, that he may pleaſe him which hath choſen him to bee a ſouldiour.

5 And if a man also wrestle, yet is he not crowned, except he wrestle lawfully.

a So that the paine must go before the recompence.

6 The labouring husbandman a must first be partaker of the fruits.

7 Consider what I say: and the Lord giue thee vnderstanding in all things.

8 Remember that Iesus Christ, of the seed of Dauid, was raised from the dead, according to my Gospel:

9 Wherein I suffer trouble as an euill doer, euen vnto bonds: but the word of God is not bound.

10 Therefore I suffer all things for the elects sakes, that they might also obtaine the saluation which is in Christ Iesus, with eternall glorie.

Rom.6.5. 11 It is a faithfull saying: * for if wee be dead with him, we shall also liue with him:

12 If wee be patient, we shall also reigne with him: * If we denie him, he also shall denie vs:

Mat.10.33 mar.6.38. Rom.3.3.

13 * If we be vnfaithful, he abideth faithfull, he cannot deny himselfe.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, testifie before the Lorde, that they striue not about wordes to no profite, but to the peruerting of the hearers.

15 Studie to shewe thy selfe approoued vnto God, a workeman not to bee ashamed, rightly diuiding the word of trueth.

16 But prophane voyces of vanitie passe ouer: for they will increase vnto greater vngodlinesse.

20 But in a great house are not only vessels of gold, and of siluer, but also of wood and of earth: some to honour, and some to dishonour.

21 If a man therefore purge him selfe from these, he shall be a vessell sanctified vnto honor, and meet for the vse of the Lord, and prepared vnto euery good worke.

24 And the seruant of the Lorde must not striue: but be gentle vnto all men, apt to teach, suffering euill,

7 For we haue great ioy and consolation in thy loue, because the bowels b of the saints are refreshed by thee, brother.

8 Wherefore, though I might bee much bold in Christ, to enioyne thee that which is conuenient,

9 Yet for loues sake, I rather beseech thee, being such a one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ,

10 I beseech thee for my sonne * Onesimus, whom I haue begotten in my bondes:

11 Which in time passed was to thee vnprofitable, but nowe profitable to thee and to me,

12 Whom I haue sent againe: thou therfore receiue him, that is, mine owne bowels,

13 Whome I would haue retained with me, that in thy stead hee might haue ministred vnto me in the bondes of the Gospell:

14 But without thy minde would I doe nothing, that thy benefite should not be as it were of necessitie, but willingly.

15 For haply he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receiue him for euer:

16 Not nowe as a seruant, but aboue a seruant, a brother beloued, specially to mee: but howe much more vnto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord?

17 If thou count me therefore a fellowe, receiue him as my selfe.

18 If hee haue iniuried thee, or oweth thee ought, that lay to my charge.

19 I Paul haue written it with mine owne hand, I will recompence it: albeit, I do not say to thee howe thou owest vnto mee euen thine owne selfe besides.

20 Yea, brother, let mee enioy this ‖ pleasure of thee in the Lord: comfort my bowels in the Lord.

21 Trusting in thine obedience, I wrote vnto thee, knowing that thou wilt doe more then I say.

22 Moreouer, prepare me also a lodging: for I trust that through your prayers I shall be giuen vnto you.

23 There salute thee Epaphras my fellow prisoner d in Christ Jesus, 24 Marcus, Aristarcus, Demas, Lucas, my fellow labourers.

25 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

¶ Written from Rome to Philemon, by Onesimus a seruant.

The Epistle of saint Paul the Apostle to the Hebrewes.

The first Chapter.

1 Hee sheweth the excellencie of Christ, 4 aboue the Angels: 7 and of their office.

The Epistle on Christmas day.

GOd which in time past, at sundry times, and in diuers maners spake vnto ẽ fathers in the Prophets,

2 Hath in these a last dayes spoke vnto vs in the sonne, whome he hath appoynted heyre of all things, by whom also he made the worlds.

a So that now we haue no credite in any newe reuelations after him.

Coloss. 1. 15 sapi. 7. 26.

14 Are they not all ministring spirits, sent foorth into ministerie for their sakes which shalbe heires of saluation?

The ii. Chapter.

He exhorteth vs to be obedient vnto the new law, which Christ hath giuen vs.

THerefore wee ought to giue the more earnest heede to the things which we haue heard: lest at any a time wee should let them slip. a We must diligently keepe in memorie the doctrine which we haue learned, least like vnto leaks of shops, we leake and run out on euery part.

2 For if the b word spoken by angels, was stedfast, and euery transgression, and disobedience receiued a iust recompence of reward: b As the Gospel is, which freely offereth saluation.

3 Howe shall we escape, if wee neglect so great saluation? which at the first began to be preached of the Lord, and was confirmed vnto vs ward by them that heard it,

4 * God bearing witnesse thereto both with signes and wonders also, and with diuers powers, and gifts of the holy Ghost, according to his owne will. Mar.16.20

5 For vnto the angels hath he not put in subiection the world to come, whereof wee speake.

6 But one in a certaine place witnessed, saying, * What is man, that thou art mindfull of him? and the sonne of man that thou visitest him? Psal.8.5.

7 Thou madest him for a litle while lower then the angels, thou hast crowned him with c glory and honour, and * hast set him aboue the works of thy hands. c In making him felow wee heire with Christ.

8 Thou hast put all things in subiection vnder his feete. In that he put al things vnder him, hee left nothing that is not put vnder him. But nowe we see not yet all things put vnder him. 1.Cor.15.17.

9 * But him that for a while was made lesse then the angels, we see that it was Jesus, who through the suffering of death, was crowned with glory & honour, that he by the grace of God, should taste of death for all. Phil.1.8.

10 For it became him, for whome are all things, and by whom are all things, after he had brought many sonnes vnto glory, that he should make the captaine of their saluation perfect through afflictions.

11 For both he that sanctifieth, and they which are sanctified are all of one: for which cause, hee is not ashamed to call them brethren, 12 Saying, * I will declare thy name vnto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I praise thee. Psal.22.23.

13 And againe, I will put my trust in him. And againe, Behold here am I, and the children which God hath giuen me.

14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also him selfe like wise tooke part with them, * that through death, hee might expell him that had lordship ouer death, that is, the deuill: Osee 13.14 1.cor.15.54.

15 And that he might deliuer them which through feare of death, were al their life time in danger of bondage.

16 For hee in no place taketh on him the d angels: but the seede of Abraham taketh he on him. d Not the nature of angels, but of men.

17 Wherefore in all things it became him to be made like vnto his brethren, that hee might be merciful, & a faithfull high priest in things concerning God, for to purge the peoples sinnes.

18 For in that hee himselfe suffered, and was tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

The iii. Chapter.

1 He requireth them to bee obedient vnto the woord of Christ, 3 who is more worthie then Moses.

WHerefore holy brethren, partakers of the celestiall calling, a consider the Apostle and high priest of our profession Christ Iesus, a Take heede to his woords, and heare him

2 Being faithfull to him that appointed him, as also * Moses was faithfull in al his house. Num.12.7.

3 For this man was counted worthie of more glory then Moses, in as much as hee which hath builded the house, hath more honour then the house.

4 For euery house is builded of some man, but he that builded all things is God.

5 And Moses verily was faithfull in all his house, as a seruant, for a witnes of those things which were to be spoken after:

6 But Christ as a sonne hath rule ouer his owne house: b whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and the reioycing of that hope vnto the end. b For in obeying the sonne, we are made the house of God.

7 Wherefore, as the holy Ghost sayeth, * To day if ye will heare his voyce, Psal.95.8.

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the prouocation, in the day of temptation in the wildernesse:

9 Where your fathers tempted me, prooued me, and saw my workes fourtie yeeres.

10 Wherefore I was grieued with this generatiō, & said, They do al way erre in heart, they verily haue not knowen my wayes.

11 So that I sware in my wrath, c If they shall enter into my rest. c Here now the Hebrewe phrase, meaning that they shall not enter.

12 Take heede brethren, least at any time there be in any of you an euill heart of vnbeliefe liefe, to depart from the liuing God:

13 But exhort ye one another daily, whyle it is called to day: least any of you bee hardened through the deceitfulnesse of sinne.

14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we keepe sure vnto the end [d] the beginning of the substance.

[d] Which is, by faith to imbrace & holde fast the true doctrine of Jesus Christ.

15 ‖ So long as it is said, * To day if ye will heare his voice, harden not your heartes, as in the prouocation.

‖ Or, while.

Psal.95.8.

16 For some when they had heard, did prouoke ‖ howbeit, not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

‖ the Lord.

17 But with whome was hee displeased fourtie yeeres? Not with them that had sinned, whose carkeises fell in the desart?

18 And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but vnto them that were not obedient?

19 And wee see that they could not enter in, because of vnbeliefe.

The iiii. Chapter.

2 The word without faith is vnprofitable. 3 The Sabboth or rest of the Christians. 6 Punishment of vnbeleeuers. 12 The nature of the word of God.

LEt vs feare therefore, least at any time by forsaking the promise of entring into his rest, any of you should seeme to be defrauded.

2 For vnto vs was the Gospell preached, as well as vnto them: but the worde which they heard, did not profite them, not beeing coupled with faith to them that heard.

3 For we which haue beleeued, doe enter into his rest, as hee said, * Euen as I haue sworne in my wrath, if [a] they shall enter into my rest: although the workes were made perfect from the foundation of the world.

Psal.95.11.

[a] Although that God by his rest after the creation of his workes, signified the spirituall rest of the faithfull: yet he sware to giue rest in Chanaan, which was but a figure of the heauenly rest, and dured but for a time.

4 For hee spake in a certaine place of the seuenth day on this wise: * And God did rest the seuenth day from all his workes.

Gene.2.5.

5 And in this place againe, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it followeth that some must enter thereinto, and they to whom the Gospel was first preached entred not therein for vnbeliefe.

7 Againe he appointeth a certaine day, by to day, saying in Dauid after so long a time, (as it is sayde) * To day if yee will heare his voice, harden not your hearts.

Psal.95.8.

[b] By Jesus, is meant Josua.

8 For if [b] Jesus had giuen them rest, then would he not afterward haue spoken of another day.

9 There remaineth therefore yet a rest to the people of God.

10 For he that is entred into his rest, hath ceassed also from his owne workes, as God did from his.

11 Let vs studie therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall ‖ after the same example of disobedience.

‖ Or, into.

12 For the worde of God is quicke and mightie in operation, and sharper then any two edged sword, and entreth through euen vnto the deuiding asunder of the [c] soule and the [d] spirit, and of the ioints, and the marowe, and is a discerner of the thoughts and of the intents of the heart.

[c] Where the affections are.

[d] Which containeth will and reason.

13 Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight of him: but all things are naked and open vnto the eyes of him of whom we speake.

14 Seeing then that wee haue a great high priest, which is entred into heauens, Jesus the sonne of God, let vs holde fast this confession.

15 For wee haue not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities: but was in all points tempted like as we are, and yet without sinne.

16 Let vs therefore come boldly vnto the throne of grace, that wee may obteine mercy, and finde grace to helpe in time of need.

The v. Chapter.

He compareth Iesus Christ with the Leuiticall priestes, shewing wherein they eyther agree, or dissent.

FOr euery high priest taken from among men, is ordeined for men, in thinges perteining to God, to offer [a] gifts, and sacrifices for sinne:

[a] He sheweth that man can haue none accesse to God without an high priest, because that of himselfe he is prophane and sinneful.

2 Which can sufficiently haue compassion on the ignorant, and on them that erre out of the way, forasmuch as hee himselfe also is compalled with infirmitie.

3 And for the same infirmitie he is bounde to offer for sinnes, as well for himselfe, as for the people.

4 And no man taketh the honour vnto himself, but he that is called of God, * as was Aaron.

1.Chro.23.13.

5 Euen so, Christ also glorified not himselfe to be made the high priest: but hee that said vnto him, * Thou art my sonne, to day haue I begotten thee, gaue it him.

Psal.2.7.

6 As he saith also in another place, * Thou art a priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedech.

Psal.110.4

7 Which in the dayes of his flesh, when he had offered vp prayers & supplications, with [b] strong crying and teares vnto him that was able to saue him from death, and was heard in that which he [c] feared:

[b] He meaneth the most earnest prayer which Christ prayed in the garden where he sweate drops of bloud.

[c] Being in perplexitie, and fearing the horrour of death.

8 Though he were the sonne, yet learned hee obedience, by these things which he suffered:

9 And being perfect, was made the author of eternall saluation vnto all them that obey him:

10 And is called of God an high priest after the order of Melchisedech.

11 Of whome we haue many things to say, and hard to be vttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when as concerning the time, yee ought to be teachers, yet haue ye need again that wee teach you the first principles of the beginnig of the worde of God, and are become ſuch as haue neede of milke, and not of ſtrong meate.

the

13 For euery one that vſeth milke, is vnexpert of the word of righteouſneſſe, for he is a babe.

14 But ſtrong meate belongeth to them that are perfect, euen thoſe which by reaſon of vſe, haue their wits exerciſed to diſcerne both good and euill.

The vi. Chapter.

1 He proceedeth in reproouing them, & exhorteth them not to faint, 12 but to be ſtedfaſt and patient, 18 for as much as God is ſure in his promiſe.

a Whereby may appeare, that you are fully perſwaded of life euerlaſting.

THerefore leauing the doctrine of the beginning [a] of Chriſt, let vs goe forth vnto perfection, not laying againe the foundation of repentance from dead workes, and of faith toward God,

2 Of the doctrine of baptiſmes, and of laying on of handes, and of reſurrection of the dead, and of eternall iudgement.

3 And this will we doe, if God permit.

Mat. 12. 45 2. pet. 2. 20.

4 *For it cannot be that they which were once lightened, & haue taſted of the heauenly gift, and were become partakers of the holy Ghoſt,

5 And haue taſted of the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come:

6 And they fall away, ſhould be renued againe into repentance, crucifying to themſelues the ſonne of God afreſh, and making a mocke of him.

7 For the earth which hath dronken in the raine that commeth oft vpon it, and bringeth forth herbes, meete for them by whom alſo it is tilled, receiueth bleſſing of God:

8 But that ground which beareth thornes and briers, is reproued, and is nigh vnto curſing, whoſe end is to be burned.

9 Neuertheleſſe, deare friendes, wee are perſwaded better things of you, and things which accompanie ſaluation, though wee thus ſpeake.

10 For God is not vnrighteous, to forget your worke and labor of loue, which ye haue ſhewed toward his name, hauing miniſtred to the ſaints, and doe miniſter.

11 Yea, and wee deſire that euery one of you doe ſhew the ſame diligence, to the full aſſurance of hope vnto the ende, 12 That ye faint not, but be followers of [b] them, which through faith and patience inherite the promiſes.

b As the holy fathers prophets, & martyrs that were before vs.

13 For when God made the promiſe to Abraham, becauſe he could ſweare by no greater, he ſware by himſelfe,

Gen. 12, 2. 14 Saying, *Surely, bleſſing, I will bleſſe thee, and multiplying, I will multiplie thee.

15 And ſo after that he had taried patiently, he obteined the promiſe.

16 For men verily ſweare by the greater, and an othe of confirmation, is to them an ende of all ſtrife.

17 Wherein God willing more [c] abundantly to ſhew vnto the heires of promiſe the ſtablenes of his counſell, confirmed by an othe:

c Becauſe of mans wickednes which will not beleue God, except he ſweare.

18 That by [d] two immutable thinges, in which it was impoſſible for God to lie, wee might haue a ſtrong conſolation, which haue fled to hold faſt the hope laid before vs:

d Gods word & othe, are two things in him vnchangeable. Gen. 1. 18.

19 Which hope wee holde as an anker of the ſoule both ſure and ſtedfaſt, an entring in into that thing which is within the vaile:

20 Whither the forerunner is for vs entred, euen Jeſus, after the order of Melchiſedech made a prieſt for euer.

The vii. Chapter.

He compareth the Prieſthoode of Chriſt vnto Melchiſedech, 11 alſo Chriſts prieſthoode with the Leuites.

FOr this *Melchiſedech king of Salem, prieſt of the moſt high God, who met Abraham returning from the ſlaughter of the kings, and bleſſed him, Gen. 1. 18.

2 To whom alſo Abraham gaue tithe of all things: firſt being called by interpretation king of righteouſneſſe: and after that alſo, king of Salem, which is king of peace,

3 Without [a] father, without mother, without kinne, hauing neyther beginning of dayes, neyther ende of life, but liuened vnto the ſonne of God, continueth a prieſt for euer.

a So called becauſe that ſtorie maketh no mention of his parents or kinſfolkes, but as he had been ſuddenly ſent of God into the world, to be a figure of Chriſt, or euerlaſting prieſt, & ſhortly taken out of the world againe. So Chriſt as touching his humanitie, had no father, and concerning his diuinitie, no mother.

4 Now conſider how great this man was vnto whome alſo the Patriarch Abraham *gaue tithe of the ſpoiles. Gen. 14. 20

5 And verely they which are of the children of Leui, which receiue the office of the prieſthood, haue a commendement to take tithe of the people, according to the law that is, of their brethren, though they came out of the loynes of Abraham.

6 But hee whoſe kinred is not counted among them, receiued tithe of Abraham, and bleſſed him that had the promiſes.

7 And without all controuerſie, the leſſe is bleſſed of the better.

8 And here men that die, receiue tithes: but there hee receiued them of whome it is witneſſed that he liueth.

9 And (to ſay the trueth) Leui alſo, which receiueth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham:

10 For he was yet in the loynes of his father, when Melchiſedech met Abraham.

11 If therefore perfection was by the prieſthood of the Leuits, (for vnder that prieſthood the people receiued the lawe) what needeth it furthermore that another prieſt ſhould riſe after the order of Melchiſedech, & not to be called after the order of Aaron?

12 For if the prieſthood be tranſlated, of neceſſitie alſo there is made a tranſlation of the law.

13 For he of whome theſe things are ſpoken, hen, perteineth vnto another tribe, of which no man gaue attendance at the altar.

14 For it is euident that our Lord sprong out of Iuda, of which tribe Moses nothing concerning priesthood.

15 And it is yet a farre more euident thing, if after the similitude of Melchisedech there arise another priest,

16 Which is not made after the lawe of the carnal commandement, but after the power of the endlesse life:

Psal.110.4. 17 For he thus testifieth, *Thou art a priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedech.

hebr.5.6.

18 For there is truely a disanulling of the commandement going before, for the weakenesse and vnprofitablenesse thereof.

19 For the law made nothing perfect, but was the bringing of a better hope, by the which we draw nigh vnto God.

20 And inasmuch as that was not without an othe, (For those priestes were made without an othe:

21 But this priest with an othe, by him Psal.110.4. that saide vnto him, *The Lorde sware, and will not repent him, Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedech,) 22 By so much was Iesus made a suertie of a better testament.

23 And among them many were made priests, because they were forbidden by death to endure:

b Therefore all others are blasphemous, that either make themselues his successours, or pretend any other sacrifice.

24 But this man, because hee endureth euer, hath b an vnchangeable priesthoode.

25 Wherefore hee is able also euer to saue them to the vttermost, that come vnto God by him, seeing hee euer liueth, to make intercession for them.

26 For such an high priest became vs, which is holy, harmelesse, vndefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher then heauens.

27 Which needeth not daily, as those high Leu.16.11. priests, to offer vp sacrifice, *first for his owne sinnes, and then for the peoples: for that did he once, when he offered vp himselfe.

28 For the lawe maketh men high priests which haue infirmitie, but the worde of the othe which was after the lawe maketh the sonne, which is perfect for euermore.

The viij. Chapter.

6 Hee prooueth the abolishing aswell of the Leuiticall priesthoode, as of the olde couenant, by the spirituall and euerlasting priesthoode of Christ, 8 and by the newe couenant.

ut of the things which wee haue spoken, this is ỹ summe: We haue such an high priest, that sitteth on the right hand of the throne of the maiestie in the heauens,

2 A minister of holy things, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lorde pight, and not man.

3 For euery high priest is ordeined to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it is of necessitie, that this man haue somewhat also to offer.

4 For hee were not a priest, if hee were on the earth, seeing that there are priestes, that according to the lawe offer giftes,

5 Who serue vnto the example and shadowe of heauenly things, as Moses was admonished of God, when hee was about to finish the tabernacle: * For see, saith hee, that Exo.25.40. acts.7.44. thou make all things according to the patterne shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now hath he obteined a more excellent office, by how much also he is the mediatour of a better ‖ couenant, which was con- ‖Or, testament. firmed in better promises.

7 For if that first couenant had bene faultlesse, then should no place haue bene sought for the second.

8 For in rebuking them, hee sayeth, * Be- Iere.31.31. holde, the dayes a come, sayeth the Lord, and I wil finish vpon the house of Israel, and vpon the house b of Iuda, a newe couenant:

a That is, when Christ shall remit our sinnes by the preaching of the Gospel.

b Signifying that there should be no more diuision, but all shalbe made one Church.

9 Not like that, that I made with their fathers, in the day whē I tooke them by the hand, to leade them out of the land of Egypt: because they continued not in my couenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the couenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those dayes, saith the Lord: giuing my lawes into their minde, and in their heart I will write them, and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people.

11 And they shall not c teach euery man his neighbour, & euery man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall knowe me, from the little of them, to the great of them.

c Men shall not in the time of the Gospell be so ignorant as they were before: but shall know God much more perfectly through Christ.

12 For I will be mercifull to their vnrighteousnesse, and their sinnes and their iniquities will I thinke vpon no more.

13 In that he saieth a newe couenant, hee hath worne out the first: for that which is worne out and waxed old, is ready to vanish away.

The ix. Chapter.

1 Howe that the ceremonies and sacrifices of the lawe are abolished, 11 by the eternitie and perfection of Christes sacrifice.

he first couenant then had be- rily ‖ iustifying ordinances, ‖Or, ceremonies of seruice. seruings of God, and worldly holinesse.

2 * For there was a tabernacle made, the first truely wherin was the candlesticke, and the table, and the shewe bread, which is called holy. Exo.26.1.

3 But after the * second vaile, was a tabernacle, which is called holiest of all:

* That is, on the outward side of the vaile which stood before the people.

4 Which had the golden censer, & the arke of the couenant ouerlaide round about with golde, wherein was the golden pot hauing Manna, and * Aarons rod that had budded, Num.17.10. and the * tables of the couenant: 1.King.8.9. Exo.25.22.

5 * And ouer it the Cherubims of glory, shadowing the mercy seat: Of which things we can not now speake particularly.

6 When these things were thus ordei- ned, ned, the priestes went alwayes into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the seruice of God.

7 But into the second went the high priest alone, once euery yeere, not without blood, which hee offered for himselfe, and for the ignorances of the people,

8 The holy Ghost this signifying, that the [b] way of holy things, was not yet made manifest, while as yet the first tabernacle was standing:

9 Which was a similitude for the time then present, in which were offered giftes, and sacrifices, that could not make the worshipper perfect as perteining to the conscience,

10 With onely meates and drinkes, and diuers washings and iustifyings of the flesh, which were laide by vntill the time of reformation.

The Epistle on the fift sunday in Lent.

11 But Christ being come an high Priest of good things that should bee, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building, 12 Neither by the blood of Goates, and Calues: but by his owne blood hee entred in once into the holy place, and founde eternall redemption.

13 For if the [c] blood of Oxen and of Goats, and the ashes of a yong Cow, sprinckling the vncleane, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh:

14 Howe much more the blood of Christ, which through the eternall spirit offred him selfe without spot to God, shall purge your conscience from dead workes, to serue the liuing God?

15 And for this cause is he the mediatour of the newe couenant, that through death, which was for the redemption of the transgressions that were vnder the first ‖ couenant, they which are called, might receiue the promise of eternall inheritance.

16 For whereas is a testament, there must also of necessity be the death of him that made the testament.

17 For a testament is confirmed when men are dead: for it is yet of no value, as long as he that made the testament is aliue.

18 For which cause also, neither the first testament was dedicated without blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken euery precept to all the people according to the law, taking the blood of Calues, and of Goates, with water, and purple wooll, and hyssope, hee sprinckled both the booke it selfe, and all the people, Exod.24.8.

20 Saying, * This is the blood of the testament, which God hath enioyned vnto you.

21 And likewise he sprinckled with blood both the tabernacle, and al the vessels of the ministerie.

22 And almost all things are by the lawe purged with blood, and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It is neede then that the paternes of heauenly things bee purified with such things: but the heauenly things themselues bee purified with better sacrifices then are those.

24 For Christ is not entred into the holy places made with hands, which are paternes of true things: but into heauen it selfe, now to appeare in the sight of God for vs.

25 Not that he should offer himselfe [d] often, as the high priest entreth into the holy places, euery yeere in strange blood, 26 (For then must he haue often suffered since the foundation of the world:) but now once in the ende of the worlde hath hee appeared, to put away sinne, by the sacrifice of himselfe.

27 And as it is appointed vnto men once to die, and after this the iudgement.

28 *Euen so Christ once offered to take away the sinnes of many, the second time shall be seene without sinne, of them which waite for him vnto saluation. Rom.5.8. 1.pet.3.18.

The x. Chapter.

1 The olde lawe had no power to cleanse away sinne, 10 but Christ did it with offering of his bodie once for all,

FOr the lawe hauing the [a] shadowe of good things to come, and not the very fashion of the things themselues, can neuer with those sacrifices which they offer yeere by yeere continually, make the commers thereunto perfect. The Epistle on good Friday.

2 For would not then those sacrifices haue ceassed to haue bene offered, because that the offerers once purged, shoulde haue had no more conscience of sinnes?

3 Neuertheless, in those sacrifices is mention made of sinnes euery yeere.

4 For it is not possible that the blood of buls and of goates, should take away sinnes.

5 Wherefore when hee commeth into the world, he saith, *Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not haue: but a bodie hast thou ordeyned me. Psal.40.7.

6 In burnt sacrifices and offrings for sinne thou hadst no pleasure.

7 Then said I, Loe, I come, (In the beginning of the booke it is written of mee) to doe thy will, O God.

8 Aboue when he saith, that sacrifice, and offering, and burnt offerings, and offerings for sinne thou wouldest not, neither haddest pleasure therein (which are offered by the lawe:)

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God: He taketh away the first, [b] to stablish the second.

10 In the which will wee are made holy, euen by the offering of the body of Iesus Christ once for all.

11 And euery priest standeth daily ministring, and offering often times the same sacrifices, which can neuer take away sinnes:

b So long as the high priest offered once a yeere for his owne sinnes and for the peoples, and also while this earthly tabernacle stoode, the way to the heauenly tabernacle, which is made open by Christs blood, could not be entred into.

c The Leuiticall priests offered beastes blood: But Christ the true and eternall priest, offered his owne blood, which was most holy and pure. The Leuiticall priest offered yearely, and therefore did only represent the true holinesse: but Christ by one onely sacrifice hath made holy for euer them that beleeue.

‖ Or, testament,

d Therefore to make any other offering or sacrifice for sinne, after that Christes bodie was once offered, is blasphemie.

a Which was as it were the first draught and purtract of the liuely paterne to come.

b That is, sacrifices.

c Which is the will of God, to stand content with Christs sacrifice.

The xij. Chapter.

1 An exhortation to be patient and stedfast in trouble and aduersitie, vpon hope of euerlasting rewarde. 25 A commendation of the new Testament aboue the olde.

ning of the Lorde, neither faint when thou art rebuked of him.

6 For whom the Lorde loueth, hee chasteneth, and scourgeth euery sonne that hee receiueth.

7 If ye endure chastening, God tendreth you as his sonnes: for what sonne is hee whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if yee bee without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sonnes.

9 Furthermore, wee haue had fathers of our flesh, which corrected vs, and we gaue them reuerence: shall wee not then much rather bee in subiection vnto the father of spirits, and liue?

10 For they verily for a fewe dayes chastened vs after their owne pleasure: but he, for our profite, that wee might bee partakers of his holinesse.

11 No chastising for the present seemeth to be ioyous, but grieuous: neuertheles, afterward it bringeth the quiet fruite of righteousnesse, vnto them which are exercised thereby.

12 Straighten vp therefore the handes which were let downe, and the weake knees:

13 And make right steps vnto your feete, lest that which is [b] halting, be turned out of the way: but let it rather be healed.

9 Bee not caried about with diuers and strange doctrines: For it is a good thing that the heart bee stablished with grace, and not with meates, which haue not profited them that haue bene occupied therein.

10 We haue an altar, whereof they haue no right to [b] eate, which serue in the tabernacle.

b They that sticke to the ceremonies of the lawe, can not eate, that is, can not be partakers of our altar, which is, thanksgiuing and liberalitie, which two sacrifices or offerings, are now only left to the Christians.

11 For the bodies of those beastes, whose blood is brought into the holy place, by the high priest for sinne, are [c] burnt without the tents.

c The vse of the priests did no more profite them:

12 Therefore Iesus also, that hee might sanctifie the people with his owne blood, suffered without the gate.

13 Let vs goe forth therefore vnto him out of the tents, bearing his reproch.

14 For here haue we no continuing citie: but we seeke one to come.

15 By him therefore let vs offer sacrifice of laude alwayes to God, that is, the fruite of lippes confessing his name.

16 To doe good, and to distribute, forget not, for with such sacrifice God is well pleased.

17 Obey them that haue the ouersight of you, and submit your selues: for they watch for your soules, as they that must giue accounts, that they may doe it with ioy, and not with griefe: for that is vnprofitable for you.

18 Pray for vs: for wee trust wee haue a good conscience, in all things willing to liue honestly.

19 But I desire you the more earnestly that yee so doe, that I may be restored to you the sooner.

20 The God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Iesus, the great shepheard of the sheepe, through the blood of the euerlasting couenant, 21 Make you perfect in all good workes to doe his will, working in you that which is pleasant in his sight, through Iesus Christ, to whome be glorie for euer and euer, Amen.

22 And I beseech you, brethren, suffer the word of exhortation, for I haue written vnto you in fewe wordes.

23 Knowe ye, that our brother Timotheus is deliuered: with whom (if ye come shortly) I will see you.

6 But ye haue despised the poore. Doe not rich men oppresse you by tyrannie, and draw you before the iudgement seates?

7 Doe not they blaspheme that good [b]name, by the which ye are named?

b The name of God and Christ, whereof you make profession: and in that they dishonour God, it is not meete that you his children should honour them.

8 If ye fulfill the royall law according to the scripture, * Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe, ye doe well:

9 But if yee regard one person more then another, yee commit sinne, and are rebuked of the lawe as transgressours.

Mat.22.39. Leui.15.19

10 * Whosoeuer shal keepe the whole law, and yet faile in one poynt, he is guiltie of all.

11 For he that sayd, Doe not commit adulterie: sayde also, Doe not kill. Though thou doe none adulterie, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressour of the law.

12 So speake yee, and so doe, as they that [c]shalbe iudged by the law of libertie.

c By the mercie of God which deliuereth vs from the curse of the lawe.

13 For hee shall haue iudgement without mercie, that hath shewed no mercie; and mercie reioyceth against iudgement.

14 What profiteth it, my brethren, though a man say, he hath faith, & hath not deedes? can that faith saue him?

Luk.3.11. 1.ioh.3.17.

15 * If a brother or a sister be naked, and destitute of daily foode,

16 And one of you say vnto them, Depart in peace, be you warmed and filled: notwithstanding, yee giue them not those things which are needefull to the body: what shall it profite?

17 Euen so faith, if it hath not deedes, is dead in it selfe.

18 But some man will say, Thou hast faith, and I haue deedes: shew mee thy faith by thy [d]deedes, and I will shew thee my faith by my deedes.

d Here deedes are considered, as ioyned with the true faith.

19 Thou beleeuest that there is one God, thou doest well: the deuils also beleeue, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou knowe, O thou vaine man, that that faith which is without workes is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father iustified through workes, when hee had offered * Isaac his sonne vpon the altar?

Gen.22.10

22 Seest thou not how that faith wrought with his deedes, and through the deeds was the faith made perfect?

23 And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, * Abraham beleeued God, and it was reputed vnto him for righteousnesse: and hee was called the friend of God.

Gen.15.6. rom.4.3. galat.3.6.

24 Ye see then, how that of deedes a man is iustified, and not of faith onely.

25 Likewise also, was not * Rahab the harlot iustified through workes, when she had receiued the messengers, and had sent them out another way?

Iosu.2.1.

26 For as the body without the spirite is dead: euen so faith without workes is dead also.

The iij. Chapter.

2 He forbiddeth all ambition to seeke honour aboue our brethren. 3 He describeth the propertie of the tongue.

MY brethren, bee not many masters, knowing howe that wee shall receiue the greater damnation.

2 For in many things wee sinne all. * If any man sinne not in [a]word, the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle all the body:

Eccl.14.1.

a He that is able to moderate his tongue, hath attained to an excellent vertue.

3 Beholde, wee put bittes in the horses mouthes, that they may obey vs, & we turne about their whole body:

4 Behold also the shippes, which though they bee so great, and are driuen of fierce windes, yet are they turned about with a very small helme, whithersoeuer the lust of the gouernour will:

5 Euen so the tongue is a little member also, and boasteth great things: beholde how great a matter a little fire kindleth.

6 And the tongue is fire, euen a world of wickednesse: so is the tongue set among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and [b]setteth on fire the course of nature, and it is set on fire of hell.

b The intemperancie of the tongue is a flame of hell fire.

7 All the nature of beastes, and of byrdes, and of serpents, and things of the sea, is meeked and tamed of the nature of man:

8 But the tongue can no man tame, it is an vnruly euill, full of deadly poyson:

9 Therewith blesse wee our God, and father: and therewith curse wee men, which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of one mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing: My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doeth a fountaine sende foorth at one hole sweete water and bitter also?

12 Can the figge tree, my brethren, beare Olive beries? either a vine beare figges? so can no fountaine giue both salt water, and fresh also.

13 Who is a wise man, and endued with knowledge among you? let him shewe his workes out of a good conuersation with meeknesse of wisedome.

14 But if yee haue bitter enuying and strife in your heart, glory not, neither bee lyars against the trueth.

15 For such wisdome descendeth not from aboue: but is earthly, sensuall, and deuilish.

16 For where enuying and strife is, there is sedition, and all maner of euill workes.

17 But the wisedome that is from aboue, is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easie to be entreated, full of mercie & good fruites, without iudging, without simulation.

18 Yea, and the fruite of righteousnesse is sowen in peace, of them that make peace.

The iiij. Chapter.

4 He exhorteth them to loue God, 7 and submit themselues to him.

FRom whence commeth warres and fightings among you? Come they not here hence, euen of your lusts that [a] fight in your members?

a For the law of the members continually fighteth against the law of the minde.

2 Yee lust, and haue not: yee enuie, and haue indignation, and cannot obtaine: Yee fight and warre, ye haue not, because ye aske not.

3 Yee aske, and receiue not, because yee aske amisse, euen to consume it vpon your lustes.

b He calleth adulterers here after the maner of the Scriptures, them which preferre the pleasures of the world, to the loue of God.

4 Ye adulterers, and [b] adulteresses, know you not how that the friendship of the world is enimitie with God? whosoeuer therefore will be a friend of the world, is made the enemie of God.

c The imagination of mans heart is wicked.

5 Either doe yee thinke that the scripture saith in vaine, The [c] spirite that dwelleth in vs lusteth to enuie?

1.Pet.5.9. pro.3.34.

6 But the scripture offereth more grace, and therefore saith, *God resisteth the proud, but giueth grace vnto the lowly.

7 Submit your selues therefore to God: but resist the deuill, and he will flie from you.

8 Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you: cleanse your handes ye sinners, and purifie your hearts ye double minded.

9 Suffer afflictions, and mourne, and weepe: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your ioy to heauinesse.

1.Pet.5.6. 10 *Humble your selues in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you vp.

11 Backbite not one another, brethren: He that backbiteth his brother, and iudgeth his brother, backbiteth the law, and iudgeth the lawe: but and if thou iudge the law, thou art not an obseruer of the law, but a iudge.

12 There is one lawgiuer, which is able to saue, and to destroy: *what art thou that iudgest another? Rom. 14.4.

13 Goto nowe ye that say, [d] To day and to morowe let vs goe into such a citie, and continue there a yeere, and buy, and sell, and winne:

d We ought to submit our selues to the prouidence of God.

14 (And yet can ye not tell what shall happen on the morowe: For what thing is your life? It is euen a vapour that appeareth for a litle time, and then he vanisheth away)

15 For that yee ought to say, *If the Lord will, and if we liue, let vs doe this, or that. 1.Cor.4.19

16 But nowe ye reioyce in your boastings: All such reioycing is euill.

17 Therefore to him that knoweth how to doe good, and doeth it not, to him it is sinne.

The v. Chapter.

1 He threatneth the wicked rich men, 7 exhorteth vnto patience, 12 and to beware of swearing.

GO to nowe ye rich men, weepe, and howle for your miseries that shall come vpon you.

2 Your riches bee corrupt, your garments are moth eaten:

3 Your golde and siluer is cankred, and the rust of them shall bee a [a] witnesse against you, and shall eate your flesh as it were fire. Ye haue heaped treasure together in the [b] last dayes.

a And kindle the wrath of God against you.
b To suffer till the ende of the world.

4 Behold, the hire of the labourers which haue reaped downe your fieldes, which hire is of you kept backe by fraud, cryeth: and the cries of them which haue reaped, are entred into the eares of the Lord of Sabboth.

5 Ye haue liued in pleasure on the earth, and bene wanton: Yee haue nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.

6 Ye haue condemned and killed the iust, and he doth not resist you.

7 Be patient therefore brethren, vnto the comming of the Lord, beholde, the husbandman wayteth for the precious fruite of the earth, and hath long patience thereupon, vntill he receiue the early and latter raine.

8 Bee yee also patient, and settle your hearts: for the comming of the Lorde draweth nigh.

9 Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest yee be damned: beholde, the iudge standeth before the doore.

10 Take, my brethren, the prophets, for an example of suffering aduersitie, and of patience, which spake in the name of the Lord. Mat.5.34.

11 Behold, we count them happie which endure. Yee haue heard of the patience of Iob, and haue seene the end of the Lord: For the Lord is very pitifull and mercifull.

c That which must bee affirmed, affirme it simply, and without other likewise that which must be denied. By this he taketh not from the magistrate his authoritie, who may require an othe for the maintenance of iustice, iudgement and truth.

The ende of the Epiſtle of Saint Iames.

The firſt Epiſtle of S. Peter the Apoſtle.

The firſt Chapter.

2 He ſheweth that through the abundant mercie of God, we are elect and regenerate to a liuely hope, 7 and howe faith muſt be tryed.

a Which were Iewes, to whom he was appointed to be an Apoſtle.

PEter an Apoſtle of Ieſus Chriſt, to them that dwel here and there as ſtrangers throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Aſia, and Bithynia:

b The free election of God, is the efficient cauſe of our ſalnation: the material cauſe is Chriſtes obedience: our effectual calling is the formal cauſe: and the final cauſe, is our ſanctification.

2 Elect according to the b foreknowledge of God the father, vnto the ſanctifying of the ſpirit, through the obedience and ſprinkling of the blood of Ieſus Chriſt: Grace & peace be multiplied vnto you.

3 Bleſſed bee God the father of our Lord Ieſus Chriſt, which according to his abundant mercie, begate vs againe vnto a liuely hope, by the riſing of Ieſus Chriſt from the dead,

4 To an inheritance incorruptible, and vndefiled, & that fadeth not away, reſerued in heauen for you,

5 Which are kept by the power of God through faith vnto ſaluation, readie to bee ſhewed in the laſt time.

6 In the which ye reioyce, though nowe for a ſeaſon (if needs require) ye are in heauineſſe through manifold temptations:

7 That the trial of your faith being much more precious then golde that periſheth, though it be tryed with fire, might bee found to be vnto you vnto laud, honour, and glory, at the appearing of Ieſus Chriſt,

8 Whome ye haue not ſeene, and yet loue him, in whom euen now though yee ſee him not, yet doe ye beleeue him, and reioyce with ioy vnſpeakable and glorious:

9 Receiuing the ende of your faith, euen the ſaluation of your ſoules.

10 Of which ſaluation haue the prophets enquired and ſearched diligently, which prophecied of the grace that ſhould come vnto you:

13 Wherefore gird vp the loynes of your mind, be ſober, & truſt perfectly on the grace that is brought vnto you by the reuelation of Ieſus Chriſt:

The Epistle on the v. Sũday after Trinity.

8 In conclusion, be ye all of one mind hauing compassion one of another, loue as brethren, be pitifull, be courteous,

9 Not rendring euill for euill, or rebuke for rebuke: but contrariwise blessing, knowing that yee are thereunto called, euen that yee should be heyres of the blessing.

The Epistle on Easter-euen.

17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that yee suffer for well doing, then for euill doing.

Roman. 56 hebr. 9.15

18 * For as much as Christ hath once suffered for sinnes, the iust for the vniust, to bring vs to God, and was killed as pertayning to the flesh, but was quickened in the spirit.

19 In which spirit, he also went and preached vnto the spirits that were in prison,

20 Which sometime had bene disobedient, when once the long suffering of God abode in the dayes of Noe, while the arke was a preparing, wherein few (that is to say) eight soules were saued in the water.

21 To the which also the figure agreeth that now saueth vs, euen baptisme, (not the putting away the filth of the flesh, but in that good conscience maketh request to God) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ:

22 Which is on the right hand of God, and is gone into heauen, angels, powers, and myght subdued vnto him.

The iiij. Chapter.

1 He exhorteth al men to cease from sinne, 7 to be sober, 8 apt to pray.

FOr as much then as Christ hath suffered for vs in the flesh, arme yee your selues likewise with the same minde: for hee which suffereth in the flesh, ceaseth from sinne:

2 That hee henceforth should liue, as much time as remaineth in the flesh, not after the lustes of men, but after the will of God.

3 * For it is sufficient for vs that we haue spent the time that is past of the life, after the wil of the Gentiles, walking in wantonnesse, lustes, in excesse of wines, in excesse of eating, in excesse of drinking, and abominable idolatrie. Ephe. 4.17

4 And it seemeth to them a strange thing, that yee runne not also with them vnto the same excesse of riot, and therefore speake they euill of you:

5 Which shall giue accounts to him that is ready to iudge quicke and dead.

6 For vnto this purpose verely was the Gospel preached also vnto the dead, that they should bee iudged like other men in the flesh, but should liue before God in the spirit.

a Although the wicked thinke this Gospell newe, and were past that vnderstode it, yet hath it ben preached to the of time past, which now are dead, to the intent that they might haue ben condemned or dead to sinne in the flesh, and so might haue lyued vnto God in the spirite, which two are the effect of the Gospel.

7 † The ende of all things is at hand. Be ye therefore sober, and watch vnto prayer,

8 But aboue al things haue feruent charitie among your selues: for charitie shall couer the multitude of sinnes.

9 Be ye harberous one to another, without grudging.

10 As euery man hath receiued the gift, euen so minister the same one to another, as good stewardes of the manifolde grace of God.

The Epistle on the sunday after Ascension day.

11 If any man speake, let him talke as the wordes of God: if any man minister, let him doe it as of the ability which God ministreth vnto him, that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion for euer and euer, Amen.

12 Dearely beloued, thinke it not strange concerning the fierie trial, which thing is to trie you, as though some strange thing happened vnto you.

13 But reioyce, in as much as ye are partakers of Christs passions: that when his glory appeareth, ye may be merie and glad.

Matt. 5.10.

14 * If ye bee railed vpon for the name of Christ, happie are ye: for the spirite of glorie and of God resteth vpon you: on their part hee is euill spoken of, but on your part hee is glorified.

15 See that none of you be punished as a murderer, or as a theefe, or an euill doer, or as a busie bodie in other mens matters.

16 If any man suffer as a Christian man, let him not bee ashamed, but let him glorifie God on this behalfe.

17 For the time is come that iudgement must begin at the house of God. If it first begin at vs, what shal the end be of them which beleeue not the Gospel of God?

18 And if the righteous scarcely be saued, where where shall the vngodly and the sinner appeare?

19 Wherefore, let them that are troubled according to the will of God, commit the keeping of their soules to him with well doing, as vnto a faithfull creator.

The v. Chapter.

7 Cast all your care vpon him, for hee careth for you.

8 Bee sober and watch: *for your aduersarie the deuill, as a roaring Lion walketh about, seeking whom he may deuoure. Luk. 21.31

9 Whom resist stedfast in the faith: knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.

10 But the God of al grace himself, which hath called vs vnto his eternall glorie by Christ Iesus, after that ye haue suffered a litle affliction, make you perfect, settle, strengthen, and stablish you.

11 To him be glory and dominion for euer and euer, Amen.

12 By Siluanus a faithful brother vnto you (as I suppose) I haue written briefly, exhorting and testifying, howe that this is the true grace of God, wherein ye stand.

13 The Church that is at Babylon elected together with you, saluteth you, and so doeth Marcus my sonne.

14 Greete yee one another with a kisse of charitie. Peace be with you all which are in Christ Iesus, Amen. Rom. 16. 16. 1. cor. 16. 20.

The second Epistle of Saint Peter.

The first Chapter.

Forasmuch as the power of God hath giuen the all things pertaining vnto life, he exhorteth them to flee the corruption of worldly lusts.

SImon Peter, a seruant and an Apostle of Iesus Christ, to them which haue obtained like precious faith with vs, thorough the righteousnes of our God and Sauiour Iesus Christ:

2 Grace and peace be multiplied vnto you, through the knowledge of God, and of Iesus our Lord,

3 According as his godly power hath giuen vnto vs all things that pertaine vnto life and *godlinesse, through the knowledge of him that hath called vs vnto glorie and vertue:

a The somme of our saluation & religion is, to be led by Christ to the father, who calleth vs in the sonne.

4 By the which are giuen vnto vs excellent and most great promises, that by the meanes therof, ye might be partakers of the godly nature, if ye flee þ corruption of worldly lusts.

5 And hereunto giue al diligence, in your faith minister vertue, in vertue knowledge,

6 In knowledge temperance, in temperance patience, in patience godlinesse,

7 In godlinesse brotherly kindnesse, in brotherly kindnesse charitie.

8 For if these things be among you, and be plenteous, they make you that ye neither shal be idle, nor vnfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Iesus Christ.

9 But hee that lacketh these things, is blinde, and can not see farre off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his olde sinnes.

10 Wherefore, brethren, giue the more diligence for to make your calling and election b sure: for if ye doe such things, yee shall neuer fall.

b Albeit it bee sure in it selfe, forasmuch as God cannot change: yet we must confirme it in our selues by the fruites of the spirite, knowing that the purpose of God electeth, calleth, sanctifieth, and iustifieth vs.

11 Yea, and by this meanes an entring in shal be ministred vnto you abundantly, into the euerlasting kingdome of our Lorde and Sauiour Iesus Christ.

12 Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you alwayes in remembrance of these things, though yee know them your selues, and be stablished in the present trueth.

13 Notwithstanding, I thinke it meete, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stirre you vp, by putting you in remembrance,

14 Knowing that shortly I must put this my tabernacle, *euen as our Lorde Iesus Christ hath shewed me. Iohn 21.19

15 I will euer also giue my diligence, that ye may haue wherewith to stirre vp the remembrance of these things after mine departing.

16 *For wee haue not followed deceitfull 1. Cor. 1,17

fables,

fables, when we opened vnto you the power and comming of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, but with our eyes we ſawe his maieſtie:

17 Euen then verely when hee receiued of God the father honour and glory, & when there came ſuch a voice to him from the excellent glory: * This is my deare beloued ſonne in whom I delight. Mat.17.5.

18 This voice wee heard come from heauen, when wee were with him in the holy mount.

19 We haue alſo a right ſure worde of prophecie, whereunto ye take heede, as vnto a light that ſhineth in a darke place, ye do wel, vntill the day dawne, and the day ſtarre ariſe in your hearts.

20 So that yee firſt knowe this, that no prophecie in the Scripture is of any priuate ‖motion. ‖Or, interpretation.

21 For the prophecie came not in olde time by the will of man: but holy men of God ſpake as they were moued by the holy Ghoſt.

The ij. Chapter.

He prophecieth of falſe teachers, and ſheweth their puniſhment.

THere were falſe prophets alſo among ỹ people, euen as there ſhall be falſe teachers among you, which priuily ſhall bring in damnable hereſies, euen denying the Lord that hath bought them, and bring vpon themſelues ſwift damnation.

2 And many ſhall follow their damnable wayes, by whom the way of trueth ſhall be euill ſpoken of:

3 And through couetouſneſſe ſhall they with fained wordes make [a] marchandize of you, whoſe iudgement now of long time ceaſeth not, and their damnation ſleepeth not. a That is euidently ſeene in the Pope and his Prieſtes, which by lies and flatteries ſell mens ſoules: ſo that it is certaine that he is not the ſucceſſour of Simon Peter, but of Simon Magus.

4 For if * God ſpared not the angels that ſinned, but caſt them downe into hel, and deliuered them vnto chaines of darkeneſſe, to be kept vnto iudgement: Iob 4.12. Gen.7.1.

5 *Neither ſpared the olde world, but ſaued Noe the eight perſon, a preacher of righteouſneſſe, and brought in the flood vpon the world of the vngodly,

Gen.19.24 6 And turned their cities of *Sodome, and Gomorrhe into aſhes, ouerthrew them, damned them, and made them an enſample vnto thoſe that after ſhould liue vngodly:

7 And iuſt Lot, vexed with the vncleane conuerſation of the wicked, deliuered he.

8 (For he being righteous, and dwelling among them, in ſeeing and hearing, vexed his righteous ſoule from day to day with their vnlawfull deedes.)

9 The Lord knoweth how to deliuer the godly out of temptation, and to reſerue the vniuſt vnto the day of iudgement for to bee puniſhed.

10 But chiefly them that walke after the fleſh in the luſt of vncleanneſſe, and deſpiſe authority. Preſumptuous are they, and ſtand in their owne conceite, which feare not to ſpeake euill of them that excell in worſhip.

11 When the angels which are greater both in power and might, giue not [b] rayling iudgement againſt them before the Lord. b Albeit the angels condemne the vices and iniquities of wicked magiſtrates, yet they blame not the authorite and power which is giuen them of God.

12 But theſe as brute beaſts, led with ſenſualitie, and made to be taken and deſtroyed, ſpeake euill of the things that they vnderſtand not, & ſhall periſh through their owne corruption,

13 And receiue the rewarde of vnrighteouſneſſe: they count it pleaſure to liue deliciouſly for a ſeaſon: ſpottes they are and blots, [c] delighting themſelues in their deceiuings, in feaſting with you: c For in your holy feaſtes, they ſit as members of the church, where as in deede they be but ſpots, and to deceiue you.

14 Hauing eyes full of adulterie, and that cannot ceaſe from ſinne, laying baite for vnſtable ſoules: hearts they haue exerciſed with ‖robberie, they are curſed children, ‖Or, couetouſneſſe,

15 which haue forſaken the right way, and are gone aſtray, following the way of Balaam the ſonne of Boſor, which loued the reward of vnrighteouſneſſe:

16 But was rebuked of his iniquitie. *The dumbe beaſt, and vſed to the yoke, ſpeaking with mans voyce, forbade the madneſſe of the Prophet. Num.22. 25.

17 *Theſe are wels without water, clouds that are caried with a tempeſt, to whom the miſt of darkeneſſe is reſerued for euer. Iude 1.21.

18 For when they ſpeake the great ſwelling wordes of vanitie, they entice through luſts with the bait of wantonnes of the fleſh, them that were cleane eſcaped from them, which are wrapped in errour:

19 While they promiſe them libertie, whereas they themſelues are the bond ſeruants of corruption: * For of whom a man is ouercome, vnto the ſame is hee brought in bondage. Iohn 8.34. rom.6.20.

20 *For if they, after they haue eſcaped from the filthineſſe of the world, through the knowledge of the Lorde and the ſauiour Jeſus Chriſt, are yet tangled againe therein, and ouercome, then is the latter ende worſe with them then the beginning. Heb.6.4.

21 For it had bene better for them not to haue knowen the way of righteouſnes, then after they haue knowen it, to turne from the holy commandement that was giuen vnto them.

22 But the ſame is happened vnto them that is vſed to bee ſpoken by the true prouerbe, * The dogge is turned to his owne vomite againe, and the Sowe that was waſhed, is turned againe to her wallowing in the myre. Pro. 26.11.

The iij. Chapter.

§ Hee ſheweth the Impietie of them which mocke at Gods promiſes. 7 After what ſort the ende of the worlde ſhall be. 8 That they prepare themſelues thereunto. 16 Who they are which abuſe the writings of Saint Paul, and the reſt of the Scriptures. 18 Concluding with eternall thankes to Chriſt Ieſus.

This

THis is the seconde Epistle that I now write vnto you, dearely beloued, wherwith I stirre vp and warne your pure minds,
2 To be mindful of the wordes which were told before of the holy prophets, and also the ‖ commaundement of vs, which be Apostles of the Lord and Sauiour:
3 *Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last dayes mockers, walking after their owne lusts,
4 And saying, where is the promes of his comming? For since the fathers fell a sleepe, all things continue a like from the beginning of the creation.
5 For this they know not (and that a wilfully) how that the heauens were of old, and the earth consisting of the water, and by the water by the word of God:
6 By the which thinges the world that then was, perished being then ouerrunne with water.
7 But the heauens and earth, which are now, be kept by his worde in store, and reserued vnto fire against the day of iudgement, and perdition of vngodly men.
8 Dearely beloued, bee not ignorant of this one thing, *how that one day is with the Lorde as a thousand yeeres, and a thousand yeeres as one day.
9 The Lorde that hath promised, is not slacke (as some men count slackenesse) *but is patient to vs ward, forasmuch as hee would haue no man lost, but will receiue all men to repentance.
10 Neuertheless, * the day of the Lorde will come as a thiefe in the night, in ỹ which the heauens shall passe away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with feruent heat, the earth also, and the workes that are therein, shall be vtterly burned.
11 Seeing then that all these things shal perish, what maner persons ought yee to be in holy conuersation and godlinesse, 12 Looking for, and hasting vnto the comming of the day of God, ‖ by whome the heauen shall perish with fire, and the elements shall melt with feruent heate.
13 *Neuertheless, we, according to his promise, looke for a new heauen, and a newe earth, wherein dwelleth righteousnesse,
14 Wherefore dearely beloued, seeing that ye looke for such things, bee diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and vndefiled:
15 *And suppose that the long suffering of the Lord is saluation, euen as our dearely beloued brother Paul also, according to the wisedome giuen vnto him, hath written vnto you:
16 Yea almost in euery Epistle, speaking of such things, amõg which are many things hard to bee vnderstande, which they that are vnlearned and vnstable, peruert, as they doe also the other Scriptures, vnto their owne destruction.
17 Ye therefore beloued, seeing ye be warned aforehand, beware lest ye also, being led away with the errour of the wicked, fal from your owne stedfastnesse:
18 But growe in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and sauiour Iesus Christ: To whom be glory both nowe and for euer, Amen.

Here endeth the second Epistle of Saint Peter.

The first Epistle of Saint Iohn the Apostle.

The first. Chapter.

1 The true witnesse of the euerlasting worde of God, 7 The blood of Christ is the purgation of sinne. 10 No man is without sinne.

The Epistle on S. Iohn the Euangelists day.

THat which was from the beginning, which wee haue heard, which wee haue seene with our eies, which wee haue looked vpon, and our handes haue handled of the word of life:
2 (And the life appeared, and wee haue seene, and beare witnesse, and shew vnto you that eternal life which was with the father, and appeared vnto vs:)
3 That which we haue seene and heard, declare we vnto you, that yee also may haue a fellowship with vs, and that our fellowship may be with the father, and his sonne Iesus Christ.
4 And these thinges write wee vnto you, that your ioy may be full.
5 And this is the tidings which we haue heard of him, and declare vnto you, * that God is light, and in him is no darknesse at all.
6 If we say that we haue fellowship with him, and walke in darknesse, we lie, and doe not the truth.
7 But if we walke in the light, euen as he is in the light, then haue we fellowship b one with another, * & the blood of Iesus Christ his sonne cleanseth vs from all sinne.
8 *If wee say that we haue no sinne, we deceiue our selues, and the trueth is not in vs:
9 If we knowledge our sinnes, he is faithfull a The effect of the Gospel is, that we all be one knitted together in Christ by faith through the power of God.

Iohn 8. 12.
b That is Christ with vs, & we with our selues. Heb. 9. 28. 1. kin. 8. 46. 2. Chr. 6. 36.

full and iust to forgiue vs our sinnes, and to cleanse vs from all vnrighteousnesse.

10 If we say that we haue not sinned, we make him a lyar, and his worde is not in vs.

The ii. Chapter.

1 Christ is our aduocate. 10 Of true loue, and how it is tried. 18 To beware of Antichrist.

MY little children, these things write I vnto you, that ye sinne not. And if any man sinne, wee haue an aduocate with the father, Iesus Christ the righteous:

2 And he is the attonement of our sinnes, not for our sinnes onely, but also for the sinnes of all the world.

3 And hereby we are sure that we [a] know him, if we keepe his commandements.

4 He that saith, I know him, & keepeth not his commandements, is a lyar, and the [|] veritie is not in him.

5 But who so keepeth his word, in him is the loue of God perfect indeed: Hereby know we that we are in him.

6 He that saith he abideth in him, ought himselfe to walke, euen as he walked.

7 Brethren, I write no new commandement vnto you, but an olde commandement which yee haue had from the beginning. The olde commandement, is the worde which ye haue heard from the beginning.

8 Again, A new commandement I write vnto you, that is true in him, and the same is true also in you: for the darkenesse is past, and the true light now shineth.

9 He that saith how that he is in the light, and yet hateth his brother, is in darkenesse, euen vntill this time.

1.Joh.3.14. 10 * He that loueth his brother, abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of euill in him.

11 He that hateth his brother, is in darknesse, and walketh in darknesse: and can not tell whither he goeth, because that darknes hath blinded his eyes.

12 Babes I write vnto you, because your sinnes are forgiuen you for his names sake.

13 I write vnto you fathers, because ye haue knowen him that is from the beginning. I write vnto you yong men, because ye haue ouercome the wicked.

14 I write to you little children, because ye haue knowen the father. I haue written to you fathers, because yee haue knowen him that is from the beginning. I haue written vnto you yong men, because ye are strong, & the worde of God abideth in you, & yee haue ouercome the wicked.

15 Loue not the worlde, neyther the things that are in the world. If any man loue the world, the loue of the father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, as the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the father, but of the worlde.

17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that fulfilleth the will of God, abideth for euer.

18 Litle children, it is the last time: and as ye haue heard how that Antichrist shall come, euen now there are many Antichrists: whereby we know that it is the last time.

19 They went out from vs, but they were not of vs: for if they had bene of vs, they would no doubt haue continued with vs: But [|] that it might appeare that they are not all of vs.

20 Neuertheles, ye haue an [b] ointment of him that is holy, and ye know all things.

21 I haue not written vnto you as though ye knew not the trueth: but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the trueth.

22 Who is a liar, but he that denieth that Iesus is Christ: the same is Antichrist, that denieth the father and the sonne.

23 Whosoeuer denieth the sonne, the same hath not the father: But he that knowledgeth the sonne, hath the father also.

24 Let therefore abide in you, that same which ye heard from the beginning: if that which yee haue heard from the beginning shall remaine in you, ye also shall continue in the sonne, and in the father.

25 And this is the promise that hee hath promised vs, euen eternall life.

26 These things haue I written vnto you, concerning them that deceiue you.

27 And the anointing which ye haue receiued of him dwelleth in you: and yee needе not that any man teach you, but as the same [a] anointing teacheth you of all things, and it is true, and not lying: & as it taught you, ye shall abide in it.

28 And now babes, abide in him: that when he shall appeare, we may bee bold, and not be ashamed [|] of him at his comming.

29 If ye know that he is righteous, know also that euery one which doeth righteousnesse, is borne of him.

The iii. Chapter.

1 The singular loue of God to vs ward. 11 And how we againe ought to loue one another.

BEhold what charitie the father hath shewed vs, euen that wee should bee called the sonnes of God: for this cause the worlde knoweth vs not, because it hath not knowen him.

2 Dearely beloued, nowe are we the sonnes of God, and yet it doeth not appeare what we shalbe: But we know that when he shall appeare, we shalbe like him: for we shall see him as he is.

3 And euery man that hath this hope in him, purgeth himselfe, euen as he also is pure.

[|] Or, this commeth to passe.

[a] Or, trueth.

[b] The grace of the holy ghost.

[a] Christ communicateth himselfe vnto you, and resteth with you, and the holy ghost and his ministers.

[b] By this name, he meaneth the whole church of Christ in generall.

[|] Or, before.

4 Whosoeuer committeth sinne, transgresseth also the lawe: for sinne is the transgression of the lawe.

Esai. 53.5. 1. pet. 2.22. 5 And ye know that he appeared to take away our sinnes, and in him is no sinne.

6 Whosoeuer abide in him, sinne not: whosoeuer sinneth, hath not seene him, neither knowen him.

7 Babes, let no man deceiue you: he that doeth righteousnesse, is righteous, euen as he is righteous.

Iohn 8.44. 8 He that committeth sinne, is of the deuill, for the deuill sinneth since the beginning: For this purpose appeared the sonne of God, to loose the workes of the deuill.

9 Whosoeuer is borne of God, sinneth not: for his seede remaineth in him, and he cannot sinne, because he is borne of God.

10 In this are the children of God known, and the children of the deuill: whosoeuer doth not righteousnesse, is not of God, neyther he that loueth not his brother.

Ioh 13.34. 11 For this is the tidings that ye heard from the beginning, that yee should loue one another.

Gen. 4.8. 12 Not as Caine which was of the wicked, he slew his brother: And wherefore slew he him? because his owne workes were euil, and his brothers righteous.

The Epistle on the ii. Sunday after Trinitie. 13 Maruell not, my brethren, if the world hate you.

14 We know that we are translated from death vnto life, because wee loue the brethren: he that loueth not his brother, abideth in death.

a This loue is the spe: all fruite of our faith, and a certaine signe of our regeneration.

15 Whosoeuer hateth his brother, is a manslear: and yee know that no manslear hath eternall life abiding in him.

Leui. 19.17. 16 Hereby perceiue we loue, because hee laid downe his life for vs: and we ought to lay downe our liues for the brethren.

Luke 3.11. 17 But whoso hath this worlds good, & seeth his brother haue need, and shutteth vp his compassion from him, how dwelleth the loue of God in him?

18 My babes, let vs not loue in worde, neither in tongue, but in deed and in verity.

19 Hereby we know that wee are of the trueth, & shall assure our hearts before him.

20 For if our heart condemne vs, God is greater then our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Dearely beloued, if our heart condemne vs not, then haue we boldnes toward God.

Mat. 21.22. iohn 15.7. 22 And whatsoeuer we aske, we receiue of him, because we keepe his commandements, and doe those things which are pleasing in his sight.

Iohn 6.29. 23 And this is his commandement, that we should beleeue on the name of his sonne Iesus Christ, and loue one another, as hee gaue vs commandement.

Ioh. 13.34. 24 And he that keepeth his commandements, dwelleth in him, and he in him: & hereby we know that he abideth in vs, euen by the spirit which he hath giuen vs.

The iiii. Chapter.

1. Difference of spirits. 2 How the spirit of God may be knowen from the spirit of errour.

DEarely beloued, beleue not euery spirite, but proue the spirits whether they are of God, or not: for many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby shall ye know the spirit of God: Euery spirit that confesseth that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is of God:

3 And euery spirit which confesseth not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God, and this is that spirite of Antichrist, of whome ye haue heard how that hee should come: and euen now already is he in the world.

4 Litle children, ye are of God, and haue ouercome them: for greater is he that is in you, then he that is in the world.

5 They are of the world, therefore speake they of the worlde, and the world heareth them.

Ioh. 8.47. 6 We are of God, he that knoweth God, heareth vs: he that is not of God, heareth vs not. Hereby know we the spirit of veritie, & the spirit of errour.

The Epistle of the iii. Sunday after Trinitie. 7 Dearely beloued, let vs loue one another: for loue commeth of God: and euery one that loueth, is borne of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loueth not, knoweth not God: for God is loue.

Ioh. 3.16. 9 In this appeared the loue of God toward vs, because God sent his only begotten sonne into the world, that we might liue through him.

10 Herein is loue, not that we loued God, but that he loued vs, and sent his sonne to be the agreement for our sinnes.

11 Dearely beloued, if God so loued vs, we ought also to loue one another.

1. Ioh. 1.18. 1. tim. 6.16. 12 No man hath seene God at any time. If we loue one another, God dwelleth in vs, and his loue is perfect in vs.

13 Hereby know wee that wee dwell in him, and he in vs: because he hath giuen vs of his spirite.

14 And we haue seen, and do testifie that the father sent his sonne to be the sauiour of the world.

15 Whosoeuer confesseth that Iesus is the sonne of God, in him dwelleth God, and he in God.

16 And we haue knowen and beleeued the loue that God hath to vs. God is loue, and he that dwelleth in loue, dwelleth in God, & God in him.

17 Herein is the loue perfect in vs, that we should haue boldnes in the day of iudgement: for as he is, euen so are we in this world.

18 There is no feare in loue, but perfect loue casteth out feare: for feare hath paine-fulnesse, fulnesse, he that is ſtrong, is not perfect in loue.

19 We loue him, for he loued vs firſt.

20 If a man ſay, I loue God, and yet hate his brother, he is a liar. For how can he that loueth not his brother whom he hath ſeene, loue God whome he hath not ſeene?

21 And this commandement haue we of him, that he which loueth God, ſhould loue his brother alſo.

John 13.34 and 15.12.

The v. Chapter.

Of the fruites of faith.

WHoſoeuer beleeueth that Ieſus is Chriſt, is borne of God: and euery one that loueth him which begate, loueth him alſo which is begotten of him.

2 By this wee know that we loue the children of God, when we loue God, and keepe his commandements.

3 For this is the loue of God, that we keep his commandements: and his commandements are not grieuous.

4 For all that is borne of God, ouercommeth the world: and this is the victorie that hath ouercome the world, euen our faith.

5 Who is it that ouercommeth the world, but hee which beleeueth that Ieſus is the ſonne of God?

6 This Ieſus Chriſt is hee that came by water and a blood: not by water only, but by water and blood: and it is the ſpirite that beareth witneſſe, because the ſpirit is a truth.

7 For there are three which beare recorde in heauen, the father, the word, and the holy ghoſt, and theſe three are one.

8 And there are three which beare record in earth, the ſpirit, and water, and blood, and theſe three agree in one.

9 If we receiue the witneſſe of men, the witneſſe of God is greater: for this is the witneſſe of God, which he teſtifieth of his ſonne.

10 He that beleeueth on the ſonne of God, hath the witneſſe in himſelfe: hee that beleeueth not God, maketh him a liar, becauſe he beleeueth not the record that God gaue of his ſonne.

1.Ioh.3.17.

11 And this is the record, that God hath giuen vnto vs eternall life, and this life is in his ſonne.

12 He that hath the ſonne, hath life: and he that hath not the ſonne of God, hath not life.

13 These things haue I written vnto you that beleeue on the name of the ſonne of God, that ye may know that ye haue eternal life, and that ye may beleeue on the name of the ſonne of God.

14 And this is the truſt that wee haue in him: that if we aſke any thing according to his will, he heareth vs.

1.Ioh.3.22

15 And if we know that he heare vs, whatſoeuer we aſke, we know that wee haue the petitions that we deſire of him.

16 If any man ſee his brother ſinne a ſinne which is not vnto death, he ſhall aſke, and he ſhall giue him life for them that ſinne not vnto death. There is a ſinne vnto death: I ſay not that he ſhould pray for it.

17 All vnrighteouſneſſe is ſinne: and there is ſinne not vnto death.

Mat.12.31. mar.3.29.

18 We know that whoſoeuer is borne of God, ſinneth not: but he that is begotten of God, keepeth himſelfe, and that wicked one toucheth him not.

19 We know that wee are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickednesse.

20 And we know that the ſonne of God is come, and hath giuen vs a mind to know him which is true: and we are in him that is true, euen by his ſonne Ieſus Chriſt: This ſame is very God, and eternall life.

Luk.10.23.

The ſecond Epiſtle of Saint Iohn.

1 He writeth vnto a certaine Lady, 4 reioycing that her children walke in the trueth, 5 and exhorteth them vnto loue, 7 warneth them to beware of deceiuers, 9 and willeth them to continue in the doctrine of Chriſt, 10 and not to receiue any ſtraungers into their houſe.

THe elder vnto the elect Lady and her children, whom I loue in the truth, and not I only, but alſo all that haue knowne the truth:

2 For the truthes ſake which dwelleth in vs, and ſhall be with vs for euer:

3 Grace be with you, mercy, and peace from God the father, and from the Lord Ieſus Chriſt, the ſonne of the father in truth and loue.

4 I reioyced greatly that I found of thy children walking in the truth, as we haue receiued a commandement of the father.

5 And now I beſeech thee, Lady, not as though I wrote a new commandement vnto thee: but that ſame which wee haue had from the beginning, that we ſhould loue one another.

6 And this is the loue, that wee ſhould walke after his commandements. This is the commandement, that as ye haue heard from the beginning, ye ſhould walke in it.

7 For many deceiuers are entred into the world, which confesse not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiuer, and an Antichrist.

8 Looke on your selues, that we lose not that wee haue wrought: but that wee may haue a full reward.

9 Whosoeuer transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God: he that continueth in the doctrine of Christ, hath both the father and the sonne.

10 If there come any vnto you, and bring not this learning, * him receiue not to house, neither bid him God speed. Rom.16.17

11 For he that biddeth him God speed, is partaker of his euill deedes.

12 Hauing many things to write vnto you, I would not write with paper & inke: but I trust to come vnto you, & speake with you mouth to mouth, that our ioy may be full.

13 The sonnes of thy elect sister greete thee, Amen.

The third Epistle of Saint Iohn

3 Hee is glad of Gaius that hee walked in the trueth, 8 and exhorteth to be louing vnto the poore christen in their persecution.

THe elder vnto the welbeloued Gaius, whome I loue in the trueth.

2 Beloued, I wish in all thinges that thou mightest prosper and fare well, euen as thy soule prospereth.

3 For I reioyced greatly when the brethren came, and testified of the trueth that is in thee, how thou walkest in the trueth.

4 I haue no greater ioy, then for to heare how that my sonnes walke in verite.

a That is, in godly conuersation, as they which haue both the knowledge and feare of God.

5 Beloued, thou doest faithfully whatsoeuer thou doest to the brethren, & to strangers.

6 Which haue borne witnesse of thy charitie before the church: whom if thou bring forwards on their iourney after a godly sort, thou shalt doe well.

7 Because that for his names sake they went forth, taking nothing of the Gentiles.

8 We therefore ought to receiue such, that we might be helpers to the trueth.

9 I wrote vnto the church: but Diotrephes which loueth to haue the preeminence among them, receiueth vs not.

10 Wherefore if I come, I will declare his deeds which he worketh, prating on vs with malicious wordes: and not content therewith, neither he himselfe receiueth the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and thrusteth them out of the church.

11 Beloued, follow not that which is euill, but that which is good. He that doeth well, is of God, but he that doeth euill, hath not seene God.

12 Demetrius hath good report of all men, and of the trueth it selfe: Yea, and we our selues also beare record, and yee know that our record is true.

13 I had many thinges to write: but I will not with inke & penne write vnto thee.

14 I trust I shall shortly see thee, & we shall speake mouth to mouth. Peace be vnto thee. The louers salute thee. Greete our friends by name.

The Epistle of Saint Iude.

Saint Iude admonisheth all churches generally to take heede of deceiuers, which go about to draw away the hearts of the simple people from the trueth of God.

The Epistle of S. Simon and Iudes day.

IVde the seruant of Iesus Christ, the brother of Iames, to the which are called and sanctified in God the father, and preserued in Iesus Christ:

2 Mercy vnto you and peace, and charitie be multiplied.

3 Beloued, when I gaue all diligence to write vnto you of the common saluation, it was needfull for me to write vnto you, exhorting you that yee should earnestly a contend for the faith which was once giuen vnto the saintes. a Against all Papists of Saint Iudes mind, that write not.

4 For there are certaine vngodly men crastily crept in, which were before of olde ordained to this condemnation, turning the grace of our God vnto wantonnesse: and denying God, which is the only Lorde, and our Lord Iesus Christ.

5 My minde is therefore to put you in rememmembrance hereof, forasmuch as yee once knowe this, howe that the Lord after that he had deliuered the people out of Egypt, * destroyed them which afterwarde beleeued not.

Num.14. 37.*

2.Pet.2.4. 6 * The angels also which kept not their first estate, but left their owne habitation, he hath reserued in euerlasting chaines vnder darkenesse, vnto the iudgement of the great day.

Gen.19.24. 7 * Euen as Sodome and Gomorrhe, and the cities about them, which in like manner defiled themselues with fornication, and followed strange flesh, are set foorth for an ensample, and suffer the paine of eternall fire.

8 Likewise these being deceiued by their dreames defile the flesh, despise rulers, and speake euill of them that are in authoritie.

9 Yet Michael the archangel, when hee stroue against the deuill, and disputed about the body of Moses, durst not giue railing sentence, but sayd, The Lord rebuke thee.

Gen.4.8. Num.22.11 num. 16.1. 2.Pet.2.15. ‖Or, rocks. ‖Or, trees withered in Autumne, when the fruit harueſt is, & so the Greeke word importeth: or, trees bearing corrupt fruite: or, trees corrupting their owne fruite.

10 But these speake euill of those things which they know not, and what things they know naturally, as beastes which are without reason, in those things they corrupt themselues.

11 Woe be vnto them, for they are gone in the way of * Cain, and are ‖ greedily giuen to the errour of * Balaam for lucre, and haue perished in the gainesaying of Core.

12 These are ‖ spots in your feasts of charitie, when they feast with you, without feare feeding them selues: clouds they are without water, carried about of winde: ‖ trees withered at fruite gathering, and without fruite, twise dead, and pluckt vp by the rootes:

13 They are the raging waues of the sea, foming out their owne shame: they are wandring starres, to whom is reserued the mist of darkenesse for euer.

14 And Enoch also the seuenth from Adam prophecied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord shall come with thousands of saints, 15 To execute iudgement against all men, and to reproue all that are vngodly among them of all their vngodly deedes which they haue vngodly committed, and of all their hard speakings, which vngodly sinners haue spoken against him.

16 These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their owne lusts, * whose mouths speake proud things, they haue men in great reuerence because of aduantage. Pſal.17.10.

17 But ye beloued, remember the wordes which were spoken before of the Apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ, 18 How that they tolde you, * that there shoulde bee mockers in the last time, which should walke after their owne vngodly lusts. 1.Tim.4.1. 1.tim.3.1. 2.pet.2.3.

19 These are makers of sects, sleshly, hauing not the spirit.

20 But yee dearely beloued, edifie your selues in your most holy faith, praying in the holy Ghost.

21 And keepe your selues in the loue of God, looking for the mercie of our Lorde Jesus Christ vnto eternall life, 22 And haue compassion of some, ‖ separating them: ‖Or, in putting difference.

23 And other saue with feare, pulling them out of the fire: hating euen the garment spotted by the flesh.

24 Vnto him that is able to keepe you from fall, and to present you faultlesse before the presence of his glory with ioy,

25 To God our sauiour which onely is wise, bee glorie, and maiestie, dominion, and power, now and euer, Amen.

The ende of the Epistle of Saint Jude.

The Reuelation of Saint Iohn the Diuine.

The first Chapter.

1 The cause of this Reuelation. 3 Of them that reade it. 4 Iohn writeth to the seuen Churches. 5 The maiestie and office of the sonne of God. 20 The vision of the candlestickes, and starres.

a Of things which were hid before. b Christ reuealed this Reuelation out of his fathers bosome as his own doctrine, but it was hid in respect of vs. So that Christ as Lord and God reuealeth it to Iohn his seruant, by the ministerie of his angell, to the edification of his Church.

THE a Reuelation of Jesus Christ, which b God gaue vnto him, for to shewe vnto his seruants things which must shortly come to passe: and when hee had sent, hee shewed by his Angell vnto his seruant John,

2 Which bare record of the word of God, and of the testimonie of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he sawe.

3 Happie is he that readeth, and they that heare the wordes of this prophecie, and keepe those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.

4 John to the seuen Churches in Asia, Grace bee vnto you, and peace from him which * is, and which was, and which is to come, and from the seuen spirits which are before his throne: Exod.3.14.

5 And from Jesus Christ, which is a faithfull witnesse, and * first begotten of the dead, and Lord ouer the kings of the earth: vnto him that loued vs, and washed vs from our sinnes in his owne blood, 1.Cor.15. 21.

6 And made vs kings and priestes vnto Heb.9.

God and his father: to him be glorie and dominion for euermore, Amen.

7 Behold, he commeth with the cloudes, and al eyes shall see him, and they also which pearced him, and al kindreds of the earth shall waile before him: euen so. Amen.

8 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord almighty, which is, and which was, and which is to come.

9 I Iohn your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdome and patience of Iesus Christ, was in the Ile that is called Pathmos, for the word of God, and for the witnessing of Iesus Christ.

|Or, Sunday. 10 I was in the spirit on the |Lords day, and heard behinde me a great voice, as it had bene the voyce of a trumpe, 11 Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: that thou seest, write in a booke, and send it vnto the seuen Churches which are in Asia, vnto Ephesus, and vnto Smyrna, and vnto Pergamos, and vnto Thyatira, and vnto Sardis, and Philadelphia, and vnto Laodicea.

12 And I turned backe to see the voyce that spake to mee. And when I was turned, I saw seuen golden candlesticks, 13 And in the middest of the seuen candlesticks, one like vnto the sonne of man, clothed with a garment downe to the feete, and girt about the pappes with a golden girdle.

14 His head and his haires were white as white wooll, and as snowe, and his eyes were as a flame of fire,

15 And his feete like vnto fine brasse, as though they burnt in a furnace: and his voyce as the sound of many waters.

16 And hee had in his right hand seuen starres: and out of his mouth went a sharpe two edged sword: and his face shone euen as the Sunne in his strength.

17 And when I sawe him, I fell at his feete euen as dead: and hee layde his right hand vpon mee, saying vnto me, Feare not,

Esa.44.4. *I am the first and the last,

18 I am aliue, and was dead: and behold I am aliue for euermore, Amen, and haue the keyes of hell and of death.

19 Write therefore the things which thou hast seene, and the things which are, and the things which shalbe fulfilled hereafter.

20 The mysterie of the seuen starres which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seuen golden candlesticks. The seuen starres are the Angels of the seuen Churches: and the seuen candlesticks which thou sawest are the seuen Churches.

The ij. Chapter.

1 Hee exhorteth foure Churches, 5 to repentance, 10 to perseuerance, patience and amendment, 14 20 23 as well by threatnings, 7 10 17 26 as by promises of reward.

VNto the Angell of the Church of Ephesus, write, These things sayeth hee that holdeth the seuen starres in his right hand, and that walketh in the middest of the seuen golden candlesticks:

2 I know thy works, and thy labour, and patience, and howe thou canst not forbeare them which are euill: and hast examined them which say they are Apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars:

3 And hast suffered, and hast patience, and for my names sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted.

4 Neuertheless, I haue somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first loue.

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works: or els, I will come vnto thee shortly, and will remoue thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

6 But this thou hast, because thou hatest the deedes of the Nicolaitanes, which deedes I also hate.

7 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the spirite saith vnto the Churches: To him that ouercommeth, will I giue to eate of the tree of life, which is in the middest of the paradise of God.

8 And vnto the Angell of the Church of Smyrna, write, These things saith hee that is first and the last, which was dead, and is [a] aliue:

9 I knowe thy workes, and tribulation, and pouertie, (but thou art [b] rich:) and I knowe the blasphemie of them which call themselues Iewes, and are not, but are the Synagogue of Satan.

10 Feare none of those things which thou shalt suffer: beholde, the deuill shall cast some of you into prison to tempt you, and yee shall haue tribulation tenne dayes: bee thou faithfull vnto the death, and I will giue thee a crowne of life.

11 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the spirite saith vnto the Churches. Hee that ouercommeth, shall not be hurt of the second death.

12 And to the Angell of the Church in Pergamos, write, These things sayeth hee which hath the sharp sword with two edges.

13 I know thy workes, and where thou dwellest, euen where Satans seate is, and that thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, euen in those dayes, when Antipas my faithfull martyr was slaine among you, where Satan dwelleth.

14 But I haue a fewe things against thee, because thou hast there them that maintaine the doctrine of *Balaam, which taught |Balac to put a stumbling blocke before the children of Israel, that they should eate of meate sacrificed vnto idoles, and commit fornication.

Num.24. 14. |Some read taught in Balac.

15 Euen so hast thou them that maintaine the doctrine of the Nicolaitanes, which thing I hate.

16 Repent, or els I will come vnto thee shortly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

17 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the the spirit sayth vnto the Churches. To him that ouercommeth, will I giue to eate Manna that is hidde, and will giue him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth, sauing he that receiueth it.

18 And vnto the Angell of the Church of Thyatira, write, These things saith ỹ sonne of God, who hath eyes like vnto a flame of fire, and his feete are like fine brasse:

19 I know thy workes, and thy charitie, seruice, and faith, and thy patience, and thy deedes, which are moe at the last then at the first.

20 Notwithstanding, I haue a few things against thee, because thou suffrest that woman Iezabel, which called her selfe a prophetisse, to teach, and to deceiue my seruants, to make them commit fornication, and to eate meate sacrificed vnto idols.

21 And I gaue her space to repent of her fornication, and she repented not.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit fornication with her into great aduersitie, except they repent of their deedes.

23 And I will kil her children with death, and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reines and hearts: and I will giue vnto euery one of you according to his workes. Iere. 11, 20. and, 17. 10.

24 Vnto you I say, and vnto other of them of Thyatira, as many as haue not this learning, and which haue not known the deepnesse of Satan, as thy say, I will put vpon you none other burden:

25 But that which ye haue already, hold fast till I come.

26 And whosoeuer ouercommeth, and keepeth my workes vnto the ende, to him will I giue power ouer nations:

27 And hee shall rule them with a rod of yron: and as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shiuers: Psalme 2. 9.

28 Euen as I receiued of my father, so will I giue him the morning starre.

29 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the spirit sayth vnto the churches.

The iij. Chapter

Hee exhorteth the Churches or ministers to the true profession of faith, and to watching.

AND write vnto the Angel of the Church ỹ is at Sardis, These things sayth hee that hath the seuen spirits of God, and the seuen starres, I know thy workes, that thou hast a name that thou liuest, and thou art dead.

2 Bee awake, and strengthen the things which remaine, that are readie to die: for I haue not founde thy workes perfect before God.

3 Remember therefore how thou hast receiued and heard, and holde fast, and repent. 1. Thess. 5. 2. 2. pet. 3. 10. If thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a theefe, and thou shalt not knowe what houre I will come vpon thee.

4 Thou hast a fewe names in Sardis, which haue not defiled their garments, and they shall walke with me in white: for they are worthie.

5 He that ouercommeth, shalbe thus clothed in white aray, and I will not blot out his name out of the *booke of life, and I will confesse his name before my father, and before his angels. *Apocal. 20. 12. philipp. 4. 4.

6 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the spirit sayth vnto the Churches.

7 And write vnto the angel of the church of Philadelphia, These things sayth he that is holy and true, which hath the key of Dauid, which openeth, and no man shutteth, and shutteth, and no man openeth.

8 I know thy workes: behold, I haue set before thee an open doore, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a litle strength, and hast kept my sayings, and hast not denyed my name.

9 Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which call them selues Iewes, and are not, but doe lie: behold, I will make them that they shall come and worship before thy feete, and shall know that I haue loued thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the wordes of my patience, therfore I will keepe thee from the houre of temptation, which will come vpon all the world, to trie them that dwell vpon the earth.

11 Behold, I come shortly, hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take away thy crowne.

12 Him that ouercommeth, will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write vpon him the name of my God, and the name of the citie of my God, which is newe Hierusalem, which commeth downe out of heauen from my God: and I will write vpon him my newe name.

13 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the spirit sayth vnto the Churches.

14 And vnto the Angell of the Church which is in Laodicea, write, These things sayth Amen, the faithfull and true witnesse, the beginning of the creatures of God.

15 I knowe thy workes, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou were cold or hot.

16 So then because thou art lube warme, and neither cold nor hot, I will spewe thee out of my mouth:

17 Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and haue neede of nothing: and knowest not howe that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poore, & blind, and naked.

18 I counsell thee to buy of me golde tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich, & white raiment, that thou mayst be clothed, that thy filthy nakednesse doe not appeare, and annoint thine eyes with eye salue, that thou mayest see.

Prou.3.2. heb.12.5. 19 *As many as I loue, I rebuke & chasten, be feruent therefore, and repent.

20 Behold, I stand at the doore, & knock: if any man heare my voyce, & open the doore, I will come into him, and will suppe with him, and he with me.

21 To him that ouercommeth, will I graunt to sit with me in my throne, euen as I ouercame, and haue sitten with my father in his throne.

22 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the spirit saith vnto the Churches.

The iiij. Chapter.

1 The vision of the maiestie of God. 2 Hee seeth the throne, & one sitting vpon it, 8 and foure and twentie seates about it, with foure and twentie Elders sitting vpon them, and foure beastes praising God day and night.

The Epistle on Trinitie Sunday.

AFter this I looked, and behold, a doore was open in heauen: & the first voyce which I heard, was as it were of a trumpet, talking with me, which sayde, Come vp hither, and I will shew thee things which must be fulfilled hereafter.

2 And immediatly I was in the spirit: and behold, a throne was set in heauen, and one sate on the throne.

3 And he that sate, was to looke vpon like a Jasper stone, and a Sardine stone: & there was a rainebowe about the throne, in sight like vnto an Emeralde.

4 And about the throne were foure and twentie seates, and vpon the seates I sawe foure and twentie Elders sitting, clothed in white rayment, and they had on their heads crownes of golde.

5 And out of the throne doe proceede lightenings, and thunderings, and voyces: and there were seuen lampes of fire burning before the throne, which are the seuen spirites of God.

6 And before the throne there was a sea of glasse, like vnto Christall: and in the middest of the throne, & round about the throne, were foure beasts full of eyes before and behind.

7 And the first beast was like a Lion, and the second beast like a Calfe, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying Egle.

8 And the foure beastes had eche of them sixe wings about him, and they were full of eyes within, and they had no rest day nether night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God almightie, which was, and is, and is to come.

9 And when those beasts gaue glory, and honour, and thanks to him that sate on the throne, which liueth for euer and euer,

10 The foure and twentie Elders fell downe before him that sate on the throne, and worshipped him that liueth for euer and euer, & cast their crownes before the throne, saying,

11 *Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receiue glory, and honour, and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasures sake they are, and were created. Apoc.5.12.

The v. Chapter.

1 Hee seeth the Lambe opening the booke. 8 14 and therefore the foure beastes, the foure and twentie Elders, and the angels praise the Lambe, and doe him worship. 9 for their redemption and other benefits.

AND I sawe in the right hand of him that sate on the throne, a booke written within, and on the backside, sealed with seuen seales.

2 And I sawe a strong Angell preaching with a loude voyce, who is worthy to open the booke, and to loose the seales thereon?

3 And no man in heauen, nor in earth, neither vnder the earth, was able to open the booke, neither to looke thereof.

4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open, & to reade the booke, neither to looke thereon.

5 And one of the Elders sayth vnto mee, Weepe not: behold, that Lion that is of the tribe of Juda, the roote of Dauid, hath obteined to open the booke, and to loose the seuen seales thereon.

6 And I beheld, and loe, in the middes of the throne, and of the foure beastes, & in the midst of the Elders stood a Lambe as though he had bene killed, hauing seuen hornes and seuen eyes, which are the seuen spirites of God, sent into all the earth.

7 And he came, and tooke the booke out of the right hand of him that sate vpon the throne.

8 And when hee had taken the booke, the foure beastes and foure and twentie Elders fell downe before the Lambe, hauing euery one of them harpes and golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of saints:

9 And they sung a newe song, saying, Thou art worthie to take the booke, and to open the seales thereof: for thou wast killed, and hast redeemed vs to GOD by thy blood, out of all kinreds, and tongues, and peoples, and nations:

10 And hast made vs vnto our God kings and priests, and we shall reigne on the earth. 1.Pet.2.9.

11 And I beheld, and I heard the voyce of many angels about the throne, and about the beastes and the Elders, and the nomber was thousand thousands, 12 Saying with a loud voyce, Worthy is the Lambe that was killed to receiue power, and riches, and wisedome, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

13 And all the creatures which are in heauen, and on the earth, and vnder the earth, and in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, honour, glory, and power be vnto him that sitteth vpon the throne, and vnto the Lambe for euermore.

14 And the foure beastes sayde, Amen. And the the fourefolde liuyng Creatures fell downe before the throne, and worshipped him that liueth for euermore.

The vi. Chapter.

The Lambe openeth the fiue seales, and many things follow the opening thereof.

AND I sawe when the Lambe opened one of the seales, and I heard one of the foure beastes say, as it were the noise of thunder, Come and see.

2 And I sawe, & behold, there was a white horse, and he that sate on him had a bow, and a crowne was giuen vnto him, and he went forth conquering, and for to ouercome.

3 And when he had opened the second seale, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 And there went out another horse that was red: and power was giuen to him that sate thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was giuen vnto him a great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seale, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and loe, a blacke horse: and he that sate on him had a paire of ballances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voice in the middes of the foure beasts say, A measure of wheat for a peny, and three measures of barly for a peny: and oile and wine see thou hurt not.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seale, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and behold, a pale horse, and his name that sate on him was death, and hell followed with him: and power was giuen vnto him ouer the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sworde, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beastes of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seale, I sawe vnder the altar the soules of them that were killed for the worde of God, and for the testimonie which they had.

10 And they cried with a loude voice, saying, How long tarriest thou Lord holy & true, to iudge and to auenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And long white garments were giuen vnto euery one of them, and it was said vnto them that they should rest yet for a little season, vntil their fellowseruants, and their brethren that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when he had opened the fifth seale, and loe, there was a great earthquake, and the sunne was as blacke as sackcloth made of haire, and the moone was red all euen as blood.

13 And the starres of heauen fell vnto the earth, euen as a figge tree casteth her vntimely figges when she is shaken of a mighty wind.

14 And heauen vanished away as a scrowle, when it is rolled together, and all mountaines and Iles were moued out of their places.

15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chiefe captaines, and the mightie men, and euery bond man, and euery free man, hid themselues in the dennes, and in the rockes of the hilles:

16 And said to the hilles and rockes, Fall on vs, and hide vs from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lambe:

17 For the great day of his wrath is come, and who is able to endure?

The vii. Chapter.

4.9 Hee seeth the seruants of God sealed in their foreheades, out of all nations, and people, 15 which though they suffer trouble, yet the Lambe feedeth them, leadeth them to the fountaynes of liuing water, 17 and God shall wipe away all teares from their eyes.

AND after that, I saw foure Angels standing on the foure corners of the earth, holding the foure windes of the earth, that the white blowe not vpon the earth, neyther on the sea, neyther on any tree.

2 And I sawe another angell ascending from the rising of the Sunne, hauing the seale of the liuing God: and hee cried with a loude voyce to the foure angels to whome power was giuen to hurt the earth and the sea,

The Epistle on al Saints day.

3 Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we haue sealed the seruants of our God in their foreheades.

4 And I heard the number of them which were sealed: and there were sealed an hundreth and fourtie and foure thousand, of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Iuda were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Ruben were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelue thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Nepthali were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Symeon were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Leui were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelue thousand.

8 Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Ioseph were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Beniamin were sealed twelue thousand.

9 After this I beheld, and loe, a great multitude which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lambe, clothed with white garmentes, and palmes in their handes:

10 And

13 And one of the Elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arayed in white garments? and whence came they?
14 And I said unto him, Lord, thou wo-test. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their long robes, and made them white by the blood of the Lambe.
15 Therefore are they in the presence of the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth in the throne shall dwell among them.
Esai.49.10. 16 They shall hunger no more, neither thirst, neither shall the Sunne light on them, neither any heate.
17 For the Lambe which is in the middest of the throne, shall feede them, and shall leade them vnto liuing fountaines of waters:
Esai.25.8. and God shall wipe away all teares from apoc.21.4. their eies.

The viii. Chapter.

1 The seuenth seale is opened, there is silence in heauen.
6 The seuen angels blow their trumpets, and great plagues follow vpon the earth.

AND when he had opened the seuenth seale, there was silence in heauen about the space of halfe an houre.
2 And I saw the seuen angels which stode before God, and to them were giuen seuen trumpets.
3 And another angel came and stode before the altar, hauing a golden censer, and many odours were giuen vnto him, that he should offer with the prayers of all Saints vpon the golden altar which was before the throne.
4 And the smoke of the odours which came of the prayers of Saints, ascended vp before
God, out of the angels hand.
5 And the angel tooke the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it vnto the earth: and voices were made, and thunderings, and lightnings, and earthquake.
6 And the seuen angels which had the seuen trumpets, prepared themselues to blow.
7 The first angel blew, & there was made hayle and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast vnto the earth, and the third part of trees was burnt, & all green grasse was burnt.
8 And the second angel blew, and as it were a great mountaine burning with fire were in the sea, and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

10 And the third angel blew, and a great starre fell from heauen, burning as a lampe, and it fell vpon the third part of the riuers, and vpon the fountaines of waters.
11 And the name of the starre is called wood, & the third part of the waters became wood, and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.
12 And the fourth angel blew, and the third part of the Sunne was smitten, & the third part of the Moone, and the third part of the starres, that the third part of them should be darkened: and the day shone not for the third part of it, and the night likewise.
13 And I beheld, and heard an angell flying through the middest of heauen, saying with a loude voice, Woe, woe, woe to the inhabitors of the earth, because of the other voices of the trumpe of the three angels which were yet to blowe.

The ix. Chapter.

1 The fifth woe is told. 14 The foure angels that were bound are loosed. 18 And the third part of men is killed.

AND the fift angel blew, saw a starre fall from heauen vnto the earth: and to him was giuen the key of the bottomlesse pit.
2 And he opened the bottomlesse pit, and the smoke of the pit arose, as the smoke of a great furnace, & the Sunne and the ayre were darkened by the reason of the smoke of the pit.
3 And there came out of the smoke Locusts vpon the earth, and vnto them was gi-uen power, as the scorpions of the earth haue power.
4 And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grasse of the earth, neither any greene thing, neither any tree: but only those men which haue not the seale of God in their foreheades.
5 And to them it was giuen that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented fiue moneths: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he smiteth a man.
6 And in those dayes shall men seeke death, and shall not find it, and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.
7 And the shapes of the Locustes were like vnto horses prepared vnto battell, and on their heads were as it were crownes like vnto gold, and their faces were as the faces of men.
8 And they had haire as the haire of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of Lions.

9 And

10 And they had tailes like vnto scorpions, and there were stings in their tailes: and their power was to hurt men fiue moneths.

11 And they had a king ouer them, which is the angel of the bottomlesse pitte, whose name in the Hebrue tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greeke tongue hath his name Apollyon, that is to say, A destroyer.

12 One woe is past, and behold, two woes come yet after this.

13 And the first angell blewe, and I heard a voice from the foure hornes of the golden altar, which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixth angell which had the trumpe, Loose the foure angels which are bound in the great riuer Euphrates.

15 And the foure angels were loosed, which were prepared for an houre, & a day, and a moneth, and a yere, for to slay the third part of men.

16 And the number of the horsemen of the armies were twentie thousand times ten thousand: And I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I sawe the horses in the vision, and them that sate on them, hauing fyry habergions of a Iacinct colour, and brimstone, and the heades of the horses were as the heades of Lions, and out of their mouthes commeth fourth fire and smoke and brimstone.

18 And of these three was the third part of men killed, that is to say, of the fire, and of the smoke, and of the brimstone, which proceeded out of their mouthes.

19 For their power is in their mouthes, and in their tailes: for their tailes were like vnto serpents, hauing heades, and with them they do hurt.

20 And the remnant which were not killed by these plagues, repented not of the deedes of their hands, that they should not worship deuils, and idoles of golde, and siluer, and brasse, and stone, and of timber, which neyther can see, neyther heare, neyther go:

21 Also they repented not of their murthers, nor of their sorceries, neyther of their fornication, neyther of their theftes.

The x. Chapter.

The Angel hath the booke open. 6 He sweareth there shall be no more time. 8 He giueth the booke to John which eateth it vp.

1 And I sawe another mighty Angel come downe from heauen, clothed with a cloude, and the rainebowe vpon his head: and his face as it were the sunne, and his feete as it were pillars of fire.

2 And he had in his hande a little booke open: and he put his right foote vpon the sea, and his left foote on the earth,

3 And cried with a loude voyce, as when a Lion roareth: when he had cried, seuen thunders vttered their voyces.

4 And when the seuen thunders had vttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heauen saying vnto me, Seale vp those things which the seuen thunders vttered, and write them not.

5 And the angel which I sawe stand vpon the sea, and vpon the earth, lift vp his hande to heauen,

6 And sware by him that liueth for euermore, which created heauen and the things that therein are, & the earth, & the things that therein are, & the sea, and the things which therein are, that there should be no longer time,

7 But in the dayes of the voice of the seuenth angel, when he shall begin to blowe, euen the mistery of God shall be finished, as he declared to his seruants the Prophetes.

8 And the voice which I heard from heauen spake vnto me againe, and said, Go, and take the little booke which is open in the hand of the angell which standeth vpon the sea, and vpon the earth.

9 And I went vnto the angell, and said vnto him, Giue me the little booke. And he said vnto me, Take it, and eate it vp, and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth as sweete as hony.

Ezech. 2.9.

10 And I tooke the little booke out of the angels hande, and ate it vp, and it was in my mouth as sweete as hony: and assone as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

11 And he said vnto me, Thou must prophesie againe among the people, and nations, and tongues, and to many kings.

The xi. Chapter.

The two witnesses. 7 The beast killeth them. 11 They are raised vp by the Lord. 13 The tenth part of the citie is ouerthrowen. 14 The third woe. 15 The seuenth angel blowing, the kingdomes of the world are become the kingdomes of Christ. 19 The temple of God is opened in heauen.

1 And there was giuen me a reede like vnto a rod, and the angell stood, saying, Rise, and mete the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

2 But the court which is without the temple cast out, and mete it not: for it is giuen vnto the Gentiles, and the holy citie shall they tread vnder foote two and fourtie moneths.

3 And I will giue power vnto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesie a thousand two hundred and threescore dayes, clothed in sackecloth.

4 These are two olyue trees, and two candlesticks, standing before the God of the earth.

5 And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouthes, and deuoureth their enemies: and if any man will hurt them, this wise must he be killed.

6 These haue power to shut heauen, that it raine not in the dayes of their prophecying:

ning: with these plagues come to passe, to turne them to blood, and to smite the earth with all maner plagues, as often as they will.

7 And when they haue finished their testimonie, the beast that commeth out of the bottomlesse pit, shall make warre against them, and shall ouercome them, and kill them.

8 And their bodies shall lie in the streete of the great citie, which spiritually is called Sodome and Egypt, where also our Lorde was crucified.

9 And they of the people, and kindreds, and tongues, and they of the nations, shall see their bodies three dayes and an halfe, and shall not suffer their bodies to be put in graues.

10 And they that dwell vpon the earth shall reioyce ouer them, and be glad, and shall send gifts one to another: for these two prophets vexed them that dwelt on the earth.

11 And after three dayes and an halfe, the spirit of life comming from God, entred into them: and they stood vpon their feete, & great feare fell vpon them which saw them.

12 And they heard a great voice from heauen, saying vnto them, Come vp hither. And they ascended vp to heauen in a cloude, and their enemies saw them.

13 And the same houre was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the citie fell, & in the earthquake were slaine seuen thousand of men: and the remnant were afraide, and gaue glory to the God of heauen.

14 The second woe is past, and behold, the third woe commeth anon.

15 And the seuenth angel blew, and there were made great voices in heauen, saying, The kingdomes of this world are our Lords, and his Christs, and he shall reigne for euermore.

16 And the foure and twentie Elders which sit before God on their seates, fell vpon their faces, and worshipped God, 17 Saying, We giue thee thanks, O Lord God almightie, which art, and wast, and art to come: for thou hast receiued thy great might, and hast reigned.

18 And the nations were angrie, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead that they should be iudged, & that thou shouldest giue reward vnto thy seruants the prophets and saints, & to them that feare thy name, small and great, and shouldest destroy them which destroy the earth.

19 And the temple of God was opened in heauen, and there was seene in his temple the arke of his testament, and there followed lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and earthquake, and much haile.

The xij. Chapter.

There appeareth in heauen a woman clothed with the

AND there appeared a great wonder in heauen: a woman Or, signified
clothed with the Sunne, and the Moone vnder her feete, and vpon her heade a crowne of twelue starres.

2 And she being with child, cried, trauailing in birth, & pained ready to be deliuered.

3 And there appeared another wonder in heauen, for behold a great red Dragon, hauing seuen heads, and ten hornes, and seuen crownes vpon his heads.

4 And his taile draweth the third part of the starres of heauen, and he cast them to the earth: and the Dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be deliuered, for to deuoure her child as soone as it were borne.

5 And she brought forth a man child, which shall rule all nations with a rod of yron: and her sonne was taken vp vnto God, and to his throne.

6 And the woman fledde into the wildernes, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feede her there a thousand, two hundred, and threescore dayes.

7 And there was a battaile in heauen, Michael and his angels fought with the Dragon, and the Dragon fought and his angels, The battle of S. Michael and his angels.

8 And preuailed not, neyther was their place found any more in heauen.

9 And the great Dragon, that olde Serpent, called the deuill and Satanas, which deceiueth all the world: and he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10 And I heard a loude voice saying in heauen: Now is come saluation, & strength, and the kingdome of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast out, which accused them before our God day and night.

11 And they ouercame him by the bloud of the Lambe, and by the word of his testimonie. [illegible] not their liues vnto the death.

[illegible] ye heauens, and ye [illegible] to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea: for the deuill is come [illegible], which hath great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

13 And when the Dragon saw that he was cast vnto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child.

14 And to the woman were giuen two wings of a great Eagle, that she might flee into the wildernes into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and halfe a time, from the face of the [illegible]

15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water after the woman, as it were a flood, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

16 And the earth holpe the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and [illegible] by the wyues which the Dragon cast out of his mouth.

18 And the Dragon was wroth with the woman, and went and made warre with the remnant of her seede, which keepe the commandements of God, and haue the testimonie of Iesus Christ.

The xiij. Chapter.

1 8 The beast deceiueth the reprobate. 11 12 and is confirmed by another. 17 The priuiledge of the beastes marke.

AND I sawe a beast rise out of the sea, hauing seuen heads, and tenne hornes, and vpon his hornes tenne crownes, and vpon his heads the name of blasphemie.

2 And the beast which I sawe, was like a Leopard, and his feete were as the feete of a Beare, and his mouth as the mouth of a Lion: and the Dragon gaue him his power, and his seate, and great authoritie.

3 And I sawe one of his heads as it were wounded to death, and his deadly wounde was healed: and all the world wondred after the beast.

4 And they worshipped the Dragon which gaue power vnto the beast, and they worshipped the beast, saying, who is like vnto the beast? who is able to warre with him?

5 And there was giuen vnto him a mouth, speaking great things, and blasphemies, and power was giuen vnto him, to do, fourtie and two moneths.

6 And hee opened his mouth vnto blasphemie against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heauen.

7 And it was giuen vnto him to make warre with the Saints, and to ouercome them: And power was giuen him ouer all kinreds, and tongues, and nations.

8 And all that dwell vpon the earth, shall worship him, whose names are not written in the booke of life of the lambe, which was killed from the beginning of the world.

9 If any man haue an eare, let him heare.

Gene.9.6. matth.26.5. 10 * Hee that leadeth into captiuitie, shall goe into captiuitie: hee that killeth with a sword, must be killed with a sworde. Here is the patience and the faith of the Saints.

11 And I beheld another beast comming vp out of the earth, and hee had two hornes like a lambe, and hee spake as did the Dragon.

12 And hee doeth all that the first beast could doe in his presence, and hee causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And hee doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come downe from heauen on the earth in the sight of men,

14 And deceiueth them that dwell on the earth, by the meanes of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast, saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast which hath the wound by sword, and did liue.

15 And he had power to giue a spirit vnto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speake, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast, should be killed.

16 And hee causeth all, both small and great, rich and poore, free and bond, that hee should giue them a marke in their right hand, or in their foreheads.

17 And that no man might buy or sell, saue hee that had the marke, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

18 Here is wisedome. Let him that hath wit, count the number of the beast: For it is the number of a man, and his number is sixe hundred threescore and sixe.

The xiiij. Chapter.

1 The notable company of the lambe. 6 One angel announceth the Gospel, 8 Another the fall of Babylon. 9 And the thirde warneth to flee from the beast. 18 Of the Lords harueste.

AND I looked, and loe, a Lambe stoode on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred fourtie and foure thousande, hauing his fathers name written in their foreheads. The Epistle on Innocents day.

2 And I heard a voyce from heauen, as the sound of many waters, and as the voyce of a great thunder: and I heard the voyce of Harpers, harping with their Harpes:

3 And they sing as it were a new song before the throne, and before the foure beastes, and the Elders, and no man could learne that song, but the hundred and fourtie and foure thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.

4 These are they which were not defiled with women, for they are virgins: These are they which followe the Lambe whithersoeuer hee goeth: These were redeemed from men, being the first fruites vnto God, and to the Lambe.

5 And in their mouth was founde no guile: for they are without spot before the throne of God.

6 And I sawe another Angell flee in the middest of heauen, hauing the euerlasting Gospel, to preache vnto them that dwell on the earth, and to all nations, and kinreds, and tongues, and people,

7 Saying with a loude voyce, * feare God, and giue glorie to him, for the houre of his iudgement is come: * and worship him that made heauen and earth, and the sea, and fountaines of waters. Psal.146.6. Acts.14.15

8 And there followed another angel, saying, * Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great citie, for shee made all nations drinke Reuel.18.

wine of the wrath of her fornication.

9 And the thirde angel followed them, saying with a loude voyce, If any man worship the beast and his image, & receiue his marke in his forehead, or in his hand,

10 The same shall drinke of the wine of the wrath of God, yea, of the pure wine which is powred in the cup of his wrath, and he shal bee punished in fire and brimstone, before the holy angels, and before the Lambe,

11 And the smoke of their torment ascen-deth for euermore: And they haue no rest day nor night which worship the beast and his image, and whosoeuer receiueth the print of his name.

12 Here is the patience of the saints: Here are they that keepe the commaundements of God, and the faith of Jesus.

13 And I heard a voyce from heauen, saying vnto me, Write, Blessed are the dead, which die in the Lorde. Euen so saith the spi-rite, that they may rest from their labour, and their workes follow them.

14 And I looked, and beholde a white cloude, & vpon the cloude one sitting like vnto the sonne of man, hauing on his head a golden crowne, and in his hand a sharpe sickle.

15 And another Angel came out of the temple crying with a loud voice to him that sate on the cloude: *Thrust in thy sickle and reape, for the time is come to reape, for the *harueſt of the earth is ‖ ripe.

16 And he that sate on the cloude thrust in his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 And another Angel came out of the temple which is in heauen, hauing also a sharpe sickle.

18 And another angel came out from the altar, which had power ouer fire, and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharpe sickle, saying, Thrust in thy sharpe sickle, & gather the clusters of the vineyard of the earth, for her grapes are ripe.

19 And the Angel thrust in his sharp sickle on the earth, and cut downe the vineyard of the earth, and cast it into the great wine fat of the wrath of God.

20 And the winefat was troden without the citie, and blood came out of the fat euen vnto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and fiue hundred furlongs.

The xv. Chapter.

The song of them that ouercome the beast.

AND I saw another signe in heauen great and marueilous, seuen Angels hauing the seuen last plagues, for in them is fulfilled the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were a glassie sea, mingled with fire, and them that had gotten the victorie of the beast, and of his image, and of his marke, & of the number of his name, stand on the glassie sea, hauing the harpes of God.

3 And they sing the song of Moses the seruant of God, and the song of the Lambe, saying, Great and marueilous are thy workes, Lorde God almighty, iust and true are thy waies, thou king of saintes.

4 Who shall not feare thee, O Lorde, and glorifie thy name? for thou onely art holy.
And all Gentiles shall come, and worship before thee, for thy iudgements are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and behold, the temple of the tabernacle of the testimonie was open in heauen:

6 And the seuen angels came out of the temple, hauing the seuen plagues, clothed in pure and bright linnen, and hauing their breastes girded with golden girdles.

7 And one of the foure beastes gaue vnto the seuen Angels seuen golden vials, full of the wrath of God which liueth for euermore.

8 And the temple was full of the smoke of the glory of God, and of his power, and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seuen plagues of the seuen angels were fulfilled.

The xvj. Chapter.

1 The angels powre out their vials full of wrath, 6 and what plagues follow thereof. 15 Admonition to take heede and watch.

AND I heard a great voyce out of the temple, saying to the seuen Angels, Go your waies powre out the vials of the wrath of God vpon the earth.

2 And the first angel went, and powred out his vial vpon the earth, and there fell a noysome and a sore botch vpon the men which had the marke of the beast, and vpon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the second angell shed out his vial vpon the sea, and it turned as it were into the blood of a dead man: and euery liuing thing died in the sea.

4 And the thirde angell shed out his vial vpon the riuers and fountaines of waters, and they turned to blood.

5 And I heard the angell of the waters say, Lord, which art, and wast, thou art righteous and that holy one, because thou hast giuen such iudgements:

6 For they haue shedde out the blood of Saints and Prophetes, and therefore hast thou giuen them blood to drinke: for they are worthie.

7 And I heard another out of the altar, say, Euen so Lorde God Almightie, true and righteous are thy iudgements.

8 And the fourth angell powred out his vial on the Sunne, & power was giuen vnto him to burne men with feruent heat of fire.

9 And men boyled in great heat, and blas-phemed the name of God, which hath power ouer these plagues, and they repented not to giue him glory.

10 And the fifth angell powred out his vial

viall vpon the seate of the beast, and his kingdome waxed darke, and they gnewe their tongues for sorowe, 11 And blasphemed the God of heauen, for their sorowes, and for their sores, and repented not their deedes.

12 And the first Angell powred out his viall vpon the great riuer Euphrates, and the water thereof dried vp, that the way of the kings of the East should be prepared.

13 And I sawe three vncleane spirits like frogs, come out of the mouth of the Dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

14 For they are the spirits of deuils working miracles, to goe out vnto the kings of the earth, and of the whole world, to gather them to the battell of that great day of God Almightie.

Mat.24.44. luke 12.39. 15 *Behold, I come as a thiefe. Happie is hee that watcheth, & keepeth his garments, least hee walke naked, and men see his filthinesse.

16 And hee gathered them together into a place, called in the Hebrue tongue Armagedon.

17 And the seuenth Angell powred out his viall into the aire: and there came a great voyce out of the temple of heauen, from the throne, saying, It is done.

18 And there followed voyces, thundrings, and lightenings: and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were vpon the earth, so mightie an earthquake, and so great.

19 And the great citie was diuided into three partes, and the cities of the nations fell: And great Babylon came in remembrance Iere.25.15. before God, * to giue vnto her the cup of the wine of the fiercenesse of his wrath.

20 Euery Ile also fledde away, and the mountaines were not found.

21 And there fell a great haile, as it had bene talents, out of heauen, vpon the men, and the men blasphemed God, because of the plague of the haile: for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

The xvij. Chapter.

3 The description of the great whore, 8 and her sinnes, and punishment.

AND there came one of the seuen Angels, which had the seuen vials, and talked with mee, saying vnto me, Come, I will shew vnto thee the iudgement of the great whore, that sitteth vpon many waters:

2 With whome haue committed fornication the kings of the earth, and the inhabiters of the earth are drunken with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he caried me away in the spirit into the wildernesse: & I saw a woman sit vpon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, hauing seuen heads, and ten hornes.

4 And the woman was arayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold, pretious stone, and pearles, hauing a cuppe of golde in her hand, full of abominations and filthinesse of her fornication.

5 And in her forehead was a name written, a mysterie, great Babylon, the mother of whoredome and abominations of the earth.

6 And I sawe the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the Martyrs of Iesus: and when I sawe her, I wondred with great marueil.

7 And the Angel sayde vnto mee, wherefore marueilest thou? I will shewe thee the mysterie of the woman, and of the beast that beareth her, which hath seuen heads and ten hornes.

8 And the beast that thou sawest, was, and is not, and shall ascend out of the bottomlesse pit, and goeth into perdition, and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder (whose names are not written in the booke of life from the beginning of the world) when they beholde the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 And here is a meaning that hath wisedome. The seuen heads, are seuen mountaines, on which the woman sitteth: they are also seuen kings.

10 Fiue are fallen, & one is, and the other is not yet come: And when he commeth, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, is euen the eight, and is one of the seuen, and goeth into destruction.

12 And the ten hornes which thou sawest, are ten kings, which haue receiued no kingdome as yet: but receiue power as kings at one houre with the beast.

13 These haue one minde, and shall giue their power and strength vnto the beast.

14 These shall fight with the Lambe, and the Lambe shall ouercome them: * For he is 1.Tim.6.15. the Lord of Lords, and the king of kings, and apoc.9.16. they that are on his side, are called, and chosen, and faithfull.

15 And hee sayth vnto mee, The waters which thou sawest where the whore sitteth, are people, and folke, and nations, & tongues.

16 And the ten hornes which thou sawest vpon the beast, are they that shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate, and naked, and shall eate her flesh, and burne her with fire.

17 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfill his will, and to doe with one consent, for to giue their kingdome vnto the beast, vntill the words of God shalbe fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest, is that great citie which reigneth ouer the kings of the earth.

*The xviij. Chapter.

3.9. The louers of the world are sorie for the fall of the whore of Babylon: 20 But they that be of God, haue cause to reioyce for her destruction.

AND after that, I sawe another angell come from heauen, hauing great power, & the earth was lightened with his glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voyce, saying, * Great Babylon is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of deuils, and the holde of all foule spirits, and a cage of all vncleane and hatefull birds:

Esai 21. 19. Ierem. 51. 8.

3 For all nations haue drunken of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth haue committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich of the abundance of her pleasures.

4 And I heard another voyce from heauen say, Come away from her my people, that ye be not partakers of her sinnes, & that ye receiue not of her plagues.

5 For her sinnes are gone vp to heauen, and God hath remembred her wickednesse.

6 Reward her euen as she rewarded you, and giue her double according to her workes, and powre in double to her in the same cuppe which she filled vnto you.

7 And as much as shee glorified her selfe, and liued wantonly, so much powre ye in for her of punishment and sorow: for shee said in her heart, I sit being a queene, * and am no widow, and shall see no sorow.

Esai 47. 8.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and sorow, and hunger, and shee shall be vtterly burnt with fire, for strong is the Lord which iudgeth her.

9 And they shall bewaile her, & the kings of the earth shall lament for her, which haue committed fornication with her, and haue liued wantonly with her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning:

10 Standing a farre off for feare of her punishment, saying, Alas, alas, that great citie Babylon, that mightie citie, for at one houre is thy iudgement come.

11 And the merchants of the earth doe weepe and wayle ouer her, for no man buyeth their ware any more.

12 The ware of golde, and siluer, and precious stones, and of pearle, and raines, and purple, and silke, and scarlet, and all Thyne wood, and all maner vessels of yuorie, and all maner vessels of most precious wood, and of brasse, and yron, and marble, 13 And Cynamome, and odours, & oyntments, and frankinsence, and wine, and oile, and fine flowre, and wheate, and beasts, and sheepe, and horses, and charets, and bodies and soules of men.

14 And the apples that thy soule lusted after, are departed from thee, and all things which were daintie and had in price, are departed from thee, and thou shalt finde them no more at all.

15 The merchants of these things which were waxed rich, shall stande a farre off from her, for feare of the punishment of her, weeping and wayling,

16 And saying, Alas, alas, that great citie, that was clothed in rayues, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with golde, & precious stones, and pearles:

17 For at one houre so great riches is come to nought. And euery ship gouernour, and all they that occupie shippes, and shipmen, and as many as worke in the sea, stood a farre off, 18 And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, what citie is like vnto this great citie?

19 And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping, and wailing, and saying, Alas, alas, that great city, wherin were made rich all that had shippes in the sea, by reason of her costlinesse, for at one houre is she made desolate.

20 Reioyce ouer her thou heauen, and ye holy Apostles and Prophetes, for God hath giuen your iudgement on her.

21 And a mightie angell tooke vp a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, With such violence shall that great citie Babylon bee cast, and shall be found no more at all.

22 And the voyce of harpers, and musitions, and of pipers, and trumpetters, shall be heard no more at all in thee: and no craftes men, of whatsoeuer craft he be, shalbe found any more in thee: and the sound of a mill, shall be heard no more at all in thee:

23 And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee: and the voice of the bridegrome and of the bride, shalbe heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth, and with thine enchantment were deceiued all nations.

24 And in her was found the blood of the Prophets, and of the saints, and of all that were slaine vpon the earth.

The xix. Chapter.

Praises are giuen vnto God for iudging the whore.

AND after these things, I heard a great voyce of much people in heauen, saying, * Alleluia: saluation, & glory, and honour, and power, bee ascribed to the Lord our God:

* That is, praise ye God, because that Antichrist and all wickednesse is taken out of the way.

2 For true and righteous are his iudgements, for hee hath iudged the great whore which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, & hath throughly auenged the blood of his seruants of her hand.

3 And againe they sayd, Alleluia: and her smoke rose vp for euermore.

4 And the foure and twentie Elders, and the foure beastes fell downe, and worshipped God that sate on the throne, saying, Amen, Alleluia.

5 And a voyce came out of the throne, saying, Praise our Lord God all ye that are his seruants, and yee that feare him both small and great.

6 And I heard as it were the voyce of much much people, euen as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of strong thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.

7 Let vs be glad and reioyce, and giue honour to him: for the marriage of the Lambe is come, and his wife hath made her selfe readie.

8 And to her was granted that she should be arayed with pure & goodly raines; for the raines is the righteousnesse of saints.

Luke.22.2. 9 And he saide vnto mee, Write, * Happie are they which are called vnto the supper of the Lambes mariage. And he said vnto me, These are the true sayings of God.

10 And I fell at his feete to worship him: And he said vnto me, See thou doe it not: for I am thy fellow seruant, and of thy brethren that haue the testimonie of Iesus. Worship God: for the testimonie of Iesus, is the spirit of prophecie.

11 And I saw heauen open, and behold a white horse, and he that sate vpon him was called faithful and true, and in righteousnes he doth iudge and make battell.

12 His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his heade were many crownes, and he had a name written, that no man knew but hee himselfe.

Esai.63.2. 13 * And hee was clothed with a vesture dipt in blood: and his name is called the word of God.

14 And the armies which were in heauen followed him vpon white horses, clothed with white and pure raines.

15 And out of his mouth goeth a sharpe sword, that with it he should smite the Heathen: * and hee shall rule them with a rod of yron: and hee treadeth the winefat of the fiercenesse and wrath of Almightie God.

Psal.2.15.

16 And he hath on his vesture, and on his thigh a name written, * King of Kings, and Lord of Lords.

1.Tim.6.16 Apo.17.14.

17 And I saw an Angel stande in the Sunne, and he cried with a loude voyce, saying to all the foules that flie by the middes of heauen, Come and gather your selues together vnto the supper of the great God:

18 That yee may eate the flesh of kings, and the flesh of high captaines, and the flesh of mightie men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all free men, and bond men, and of small and great.

19 And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies gathered together, to make battell against him that sate on the horse, and against his army.

20 And the beast was taken, and with him that false prophet that wrought myracles before him, with which hee deceiued them that receiued the beastes marke, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast quicke into a pond of fire, burning with brimstone.

21 And the remnant were slaine with the sword of him that sate vpon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the foules were filled with their flesh.

The xx. Chapter.

1 Satan being bound for certaine time, 7 and after loosed, vexeth the Church grieuously.

AND I saw an Angel come downe from heauen, hauing the key of the bottomlesse pit, and a great chaine in his hand.

2 And hee tooke the Dragon, that olde serpent, which is the deuil and Satanas, and he bound him a thousand yeeres,

3 And cast him into the bottomlesse pitte, and hee shut him vp, and set a seale on him, that hee should deceiue the nations no more, till the thousand yeeres shoulde bee fulfilled: and after that, he must bee loosed for a little season.

4 And I saw thrones, and they sate vpon them, and iudgement was giuen vnto them: and I saw the soules of them that were beheaded for the witnesse of Iesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had taken his marke vpon their foreheads, or in their hands, and they liued and reigned with Christ a thousand yeeres.

5 But the other of the dead men did not liue againe vntill the thousand yeeres were finished. This is the first resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: for on such the seconde death hath no power, but they shall bee the priests of God, and of Christ, and shall reigne with him a thousand yeeres.

7 And when the thousand yeeres are expired, Satan shalbe loosed out of his prison:

8 And shall goe out to deceiue the nations which are in the foure quarters of the earth, * Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battell: whose number is as the sande of the sea.

Ezec.39.2.

9 And they went vp in the plaine of the earth, and compassed the tents of the saintes about, and the beloued citie: and fire came downe from God out of heauen, and deuoured them:

10 And the deuil that deceiued them, was cast into a lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet shalbe tormented day and night for euermore.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face fled away both the earth & the heauen, and their place was no more found.

12 And I saw the dead both small & great stand before God: and the bookes were opened: and another * booke was opened, which Apoc.13.8 is the booke of life: and the dead were iudged [illegible] of those things which were written in the bookes, according to their workes.

13 And the sea gaue vp [illegible] were in her: and death and hell [illegible] the dead which were in them: and they

The blessed estate of the godly. The condition of the wicked.

AND I sawe a new heauen, and a new earth: for the first heauen and the first earth were vanished away, and there was no more sea.

2 And I Iohn sawe that holy citie newe Hierusalem, come downe from God out of heauen, prepared as a bride garnished for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voyce out of heauen, saying, Beholde, the tabernacle of God is with men, and hee will dwell with them, and they shalbe his people, and God himselfe shalbe with them, and be their God, Esai. 25. 8. Apoc. 7. 17. 4 * And God shall wipe away all teares from their eyes, and there shall bee no more death, neither sorow, neither crying, neither shall there be any more paine: for the former things are gone.

Esai. 43. 19. 5 And he that sate vpon the throne sayde, * Behold, I make all things newe. And hee sayde vnto me, Write: for these words are true and faithfull.

Apoc. 1. 8. and 22. 13. 6 And he sayde vnto me, It is done: I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ende. * I will giue vnto him that is a thirst of the well of the water of life freely.

7 He that ouercommeth, shall inherite all things, and I will be his God, and he shall be my sonne.

8 But the fearefull, and vnbeleeuing, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liers, shall haue their part in the lake which burneth with fire & brimstone: which is the second death.

9 And there came vnto mee one of the seuen Angels, which had the seuen vials full of the seuen last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shewe thee the bride, the lambes wife.

10 And he caried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountaine, and hee shewed me that great citie holy Hierusalem, descending out of heauen from God,

11 Hauing the glory of God: and her shining was like vnto a stone most precious, euen like vnto a Iasper stone, cleare as Christall:

12 And had a wall great and high, and had twelue gates, and at the gates twelue Angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelue tribes of the children of Israel:

13 On the East three gates, and on the North three gates, and on the South three gates, and on the West three gates.

14 And the wall of the citie had twelue foundations, and in them the names of the twelue apostles of the Lambe.

15 And he that talked with me, had a golden reede to measure the citie withall, and the gates thereof, and the walles thereof.

16 And the citie lieth foure square, and the length was as large as the breadth: and he measured the citie with the reede twelue thousand furlongs, and the length, & the breadth and the height of it are equall.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred, and fourtie, and foure cubites, by the measure of man, that is, of the Angell.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of Iasper, and the citie was pure golde like vnto cleare glasse.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the citie were garnished with all maner of precious stones. The first foundation was Iasper, the second Saphire, the third a Chalcedonie, the fourth an Emerald, 20 The fift Sardonix, the sixth Sardius, the seuenth Chrysolite, the eight Beryl, the ninth a Topas, the tenth a Chrysoprasus, the eleuenth a Iacinct, the twelfth an Amethyst.

21 The twelue gates were twelue pearles, euery gate was of one pearle, and the streete of the citie was pure golde, as it were shining glasse.

22 And I sawe no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty, and the Lambe, are the temple of it.

Esai 60. 23 * And the citie hath no neede of the Sunne, neither of the Moone to lighten it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lambe is the light of it.

Esai 60. 24 * And the nations of them which are saued, shall walke in the light of it: and the kings of the earth doe bring their glory and honour vnto it.

Esai 60. 25 * And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night.

26 And they shall bring the glory and honour of the Gentiles vnto it.

27 And there shall in no wise enter into it any vncleane thing, neither whatsoeuer worketh abomination, or maketh lies: but they onely which are * written in the lambes booke of life.

Phil. 4. 3. apoc. 13. 8. and 20. 12.

1 The riuer of the water of life. 9 The angel will not be worshipped.

AND he shewed mee a pure riuer of water of life, cleare as Christall, proceeding out of the throne of God, and of the Lambe.

2 In the middest of the street of it, and of either side of the riuer was there wood of life, which bare twelue maner of fruits, and gaue fruit euery moneth: and the leaues of the wood serued to heale the people withall.

3 And there shalbe no more curse, but the throne seruant of God, and the Lambe shall be in it, and his seruantes shall serue him,

4 And they shall see his face, and his name shalbe in their foreheads.

Esai.60.19. 5 *And there shall be no night there, and they neede no candle, neither light of the sunne, for the Lord God giueth them light, and they shall reigne for euermore.

6 And he said vnto me, These sayings are faithfull and true. And the Lord God of the holy Prophets sent his angel to shewe vnto his seruants the things which must shortly be fulfilled.

7 Behold, I come shortly: Happie is hee that keepeth the sayings of the prophecie of this booke.

8 I Iohn sawe these thinges, and heard them. And when I had heard and seene, I fel Apo.19.10 downe to *worship before the feete of the angell, which shewed me these things.

9 Then saith he vnto me, See thou doe it not, for I am thy fellow seruant, and the fellow seruant of thy brethren the Prophets, and of them which keepe ỹ sayings of this booke: but worship God.

10 And he saieth vnto me, Seale not the sayings of the prophecie of this booke: for the time is at hand.

11 He that doeth euill, let him do euil still: and he which is filthie, let him be filthie still: and hee that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12 And behold, I come shortly, and my reward is with me, *to giue euery man accor-

14 Blessed are they that doe his commandements, that their power may be in the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the citie.

15 For without shall be dogges, and inchanters, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoeuer loueth or maketh leasings.

16 I Iesus sent mine Angel to testifie vnto you these thinges in the Churches. I am the roote and the generation of Dauid, and the bright morning starre.

18 I testifie vnto euery man that heareth the wordes of the prophecie of this booke, If any man shall adde vnto these sayings, God shall adde vnto him the plagues that are written in this booke.

19 And if any man shall take away from the wordes of the booke of this prophecie, God shal take away his part out of the booke of life, and out of the holy citie, and from the things which are written in this booke.

20 He which testifieth these things, saith, Surely, I come quickly. Amen. Euen so, come Lord Iesus.

21 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with you all, Amen.
